And in this his purpose in this affayre for our service and honour he hath given us full satisfaction, which purpose of his beeing soe laudable & manifestly tending to our honour, & the profit of our kingdome of England Wee with a Royal regard considering these things doe thinke meete to approve & prosecute them, for which end the sayd Sr Robert Heath hath humbly supplicated that all that Region with the Isles thereunto belonging with certaine sorts of priveledges & jurisdictions for the wholesome government of his Colonye & Region aforesaid & for the estate of the appurtenances may be given granted and confirmed to him, his heires & Assignes by our Royall Highnesse.

And by the presents we make create & constitute the same S<sup>r</sup> Robert Heath his heires & assignes true and absolute Lords & Proprietors of the Region & Territory aforesaid & all other the premises for us our heires & successors saveing alwaies the faith & allegiance due to us our heires & successors. To have hold possess & enjoy the said Region Isles Rivers & the rest of the premisses to the said S<sup>r</sup> Robert Heath Knight his heires & assignes to the sole & proper use & behoofe of him S<sup>r</sup> Robert Heath Knight his heires & assignes for ever with that meaning that the said S<sup>r</sup> Robert Heath his heires & assignes shall plant the premisses according to certaine instructions & directions of oures signed with our Royall hand of the date of the presents remaining with our principall Secretary to our use our heires & successors To be held of us our heires & successors Kings of England in cheife by knights service & by paying for it to us our heires & successors one Circle of Gold formed in the fashion of a crowne of the weight of twenty Ounces with this inscription ingraved upon it Deos Coronet Opus Summ whensoever & as often as it shall happen, that we our heires or successors shall enter the said Region, & also the fifth & part of all the metall of Gold & Silver (which in English is called Gold & Silver Oare) which shall from time to time happen to be found within the foresayd limits & such a proportion of the profits & commodities out of the premises as are fully contained in the instructions & declarations aforesaid.

But that the aforesaid Region or Territory soe granted & described may be more illustrious by us than all the other Regions of that land & may be adorned with more ample Titles.

Know that we of our free grace certain knowledge & meere motion doe thinke fit to erect the sayd Region Territory & Isles into a Province & by the fulnes of our power & Kingly Authority for us our heires & successors, we doe erect & incorporate them into a province & name the same Carolina or the province of Carolina & the foresaid Isles the Carolarns Islands & soe we will that in all times hereafter they shall be named. And because we herebefore have ordained & made the fores<sup>d</sup> S<sup>r</sup> Robert Heath Knight true lord & proprietor of all the aforenamed Province. Furthermore know yee that we for ourselves our heires & successors doe give power to the said S<sup>r</sup> Robert (of whose faith prudence industry & provident circumspection we have great confidence) & to his heires & assignes for the good & happy Government of the said Province to forme make & enact & publish under the scale of the said S<sup>r</sup> Robert his heires & assignes what lawes soever may concerne the publicke state of the said province or the private profit of all according to the wholesome directions of & with the counsell assent & approbation of the Freeholders of the same Province or the Major part of them who when & as often as need shall require shall by the aforesaid S<sup>r</sup> Robert Heath his Heires & Assignes & in that forme which to him or them shall seem best, be called together to make lawes & those to be for all men within the said province & the boundes of it for the time being or under his or their Government or power either sayling towards Carolana or returning from thence either outward to England or outward to any other dominion of ours whatsoever constituted by imposition of fines imprisonment or any other constraint whatsoever & we grant to the said S<sup>r</sup> Robert his heires & assignes free full & all kind of power by the Tenour of the presents if the qualite of the offence requires it to punish by the losse of life or limbe by himself his heires or assignes, or by their Deputyes Lieutenants Judges Justices Magistrates Officers & ministers to be constituted & made according to the tenour & true intent of these presents duely to be executed: And also to the said S<sup>r</sup> Robert Heath his heires & assignes as to them shall seem most meet power of constituting & ordaining Judges & Justices Magistrates & officers whatsoever for whatsoever causes and with what power soever & in what forme by sea or by land. Alsoe crimes & all excesses whatsoever against such laws either before judgement received or after, power of remitting releasing pardoning & abolishing, & all & singular complements of justice courts tribunalls forms of judgements & manners of processe belonging to them although there be not mention made nor expression of them in these presents which lawes as aforesaid to be proclaimed & to be endowed with the most absolute firmnesse of right: we will injoyne command & order that they be inviolably observed & kept by all men the Lieges & Subjects of us our heires & successors (as farre as it may concerne them) & under the paines in them expressed & to be expressed yet soe that the foresaid lawes & ordinances be consonant to Reason & not repugnant or contrary but (as conveniently as may be doue) consonant to the lawes, statutes, customes & rights of our Realme of England.

And because in the Government of soe great a Province sudden chances many times happen to which it will be necessary to apply a remedy before that the Freeholders of the sayd province can be called together to make lawes, neither will it be convenient, upon a continued title in an emergent occasion to gather together soe great a people therefore for the better Government of the sayd Province, we will & ordaine & by these presents for Us our Heirs & Successors; doe grant unto the said Sr Robert Heath his Heires & Assignes by himself or by magistrates & officers duly constituted for that purpose (as before is sayd) shall & may have power from time to time to make & constitute wholesome & convenient Ordinances within the Province aforesaid & be kept & observed as well for the preserving the peace as for the better Government of the people there liveing; & to give publicke notice of them to all whom it doth or may concerne; which Ordinances we will that they be inviolably observed within the sayd Province under the paines expressed in them soe as the sayd Ordinances be consonant to Reason & not repugnant nor contrary, but (as conveniently as may be done) consonant to the laws, statutes & rights of our Realme of England as is aforesaid soe alsoe that the same Ordinances extend not themselves against the right or interest of any person or persons or to distrayne bind or burden in or upon his freehold goods or chattels: or to be received any where then in the same Province or the Isles aforesayd.

Moreover that New Carolana may happily increase by the multitude of people thronging thither & alsoe that they be firmly defended from the incursions of the Barbarous & of other practicall or plundering enemies. Therefore we for ourselves our Heires & Successors at the will & pleasure of the sayd Sr Robert Heath his heires and assignes, doe give & grant by these presents to all men & our subjects, leiges of our heires and successors both those in present & to come (unless it shall be in an especiall manner forbidden) power, licence & libertye to build & fortifye themselves & their families in the sayd Province of Carolana for the publicke safety of their seats there planted, tilled & inhabited with forts castles & other fortifications, with fitting shipes alsoe & convenient furniture for transportation the statute of fugitives or any other whatsoever contrary to these premises in any wise notwithstanding We will alsoe & for Us our Heires & successors out of our great favour we firmly comand constitute ordaine & require that the said Province be in our Allegiance & that all & every our subjects & leiges & of our heires & successors brought or to be brought into the said Provinc, their children either their already borne or hereafter to be borne are & shall be Naturall and leiges to us our Heires & successors & in all things shall be held, treated reputed & accounted as faithfull leiges of us, our heires & successors borne in our Kingdom of England. And alsoe that they shall possesse lands, tenements, rents services & Hereditaments whatsoever with our Kingdome of England & other our Dominions to purchase, receive, take, have, hold, buy and possesse & then to use & enjoy & alsoe then to give sell alienate & bequeath & alsoe all libertyes, franchises & priviledges of this our Realme, to have & possess freely quietly & peaceably & that they may use & enjoy them as our leiges borne or to be borne within our Kingdome of England, without impediment, molestation or vexation, claime or grievance from us our Heires & successors whatsoever; any statute, act, Ordinance or provision here upon to the contrary notwithstanding: furthermore that our subjects may be incited with a ready & cheerfull mind, to undertake this expedition with the hope of gaine & the meetnesse of privileges. Know that we out of our especiall favour, certain knowledge & meere motion doe give licence & grant free power, as well to the said Sr Robert Heath Knight his Heires & assignes as to all others who shall goe from time to time to inhabit in Carolana aforesaid, all & singular their goods as well moveable as immovable wares, merchandize alsoe weapons & warlike instriments offensive & defensive in any ports of ours, our Heires & successors to be laded in shippes, for to be transported into the province of Carolana, by him or his, or their assignes & this without molestation by us our Heires & successors or any officers of us our Heirs or successors, or farmers to us, our Heires & successors: paying notwithstanding to us, our Heires & successors all & all manner of impositions, subsidyes, customes & other Dues for the sayd things wares & merchandises soe exported as are usuall & accustomed, any statute act Ordinance or other thing whatsoever to the contrary notwithstanding. Alwaies provided that before the sayd Goodes, things & merchandises are carried to & loaded in the shippes that licence for them be desired & obtained from the High Treasurer of the Kingdome of England to us, our heires & successors, or the commissioners for our Tresurye or from six or more of the Privy Councell, of us our Heires & successors inscribed under their hands To which Tresurer Commissioners & privy Councell of us our heires & successors or to any sixe or more of them; we for ourselves our Heires & successors have given & granted as by these presents we doe give & grant power to grant licence in the form aforesayd. And because in soe remote a Region, seated amoug so many barbarous nations it is probable that the incursions as well of those Barbarous as of other enemyes Pirates & Robbers may cause feare. Therefore we for ourselves our Heires & successors have given to the foresayd Sr Robert Heath Knight his heires & assignes by himself his Captains or other his officers, that all men of whatever condition, or wherever borne, being at that time in the Province of Carolana power to call to their colours, to cause

Musters to make warre, to pursue enemyes & Robbers aforesaid by land & sea, even beyond the bounds of his province, and then (with Gods blessing) to overcome & to take, & being taken by right of warre to slay, or according to his pleasure to preserve, & all & every thing which doe appertaine to the right & office of a Captaine Generall or have been used to appertaine to be done & by these presents doe give full & free power as any Captaine Generall ever had.

Will will also & by this our charter doe give power, liberty and Authority to the foresayd Sr Robert Heath Knight his heires & assignes that in case of Rebellion sudden tumult or sedition, if any such shall chance to be which (God forbid) either upon the land within the Province aforesayd, or upon the wide Ocean, either making a journey towards Carolana aforesayd or returning from thence, we by these presents for us our heires & successors doe give & grant power and authority most ample to himself or by Captaines Deputyes or other their officers authorised to this purpose under their seales, against all authors of innovations, seditions against the Government of him or them, withdrawing themselves speakers evill of the militia, renegadors, deserters . . . . . or any others whatsoever offending against the matter manner & discipline military shall by them be punished by law militarye soe freely and in such ample manner & forme as any Captaine Generall by the vertue of his office may or could doe.

Furthermore least the way to Honours & Dignities may seem to be shutt & altogether barr'd up to men honestly borne, & are willing to undertake this present expedition & are desirous in soe remote and far distant a Region to deserve well of us & of our kingdomes in peace & warre for that doe for ourselves our heires & successors give full & free power to the foresayd Sr Robert Heath Knight his heires & assignes to confere favours graces & honours upon those well deserveing citizens that inhabit within the foresayd province & the same with whatever Titles & dignities (provided they be not the same as are now used in England) to adorne at his pleasure alsoe to erect villages into Borowes & Borowes into Cittyes for the meritts of the inhabitants and conveniency of the places with priviledges & befitting immunities to be erected & incorporated, & to doe all other & singular upon the premises which shall seem most convenient to him or them, although they be such which of their owne natures doe require mandates or warrant more especiall then is expressed in these presents And because the beginnings of Colonys & all publicke goods & affayres doe want to labour under divers inconveniences & difficultyes, therefore wee favouring the beginning of this present Colonye, & that those that are molested in one thing may be releived in another providing by our kingly care, out of our espetiall grace, certaine knowledge & moor motion, by this our charter do give and grant licence to the foresayd S<sup>r</sup> Robert Heath his heires & assignes & to all the Dwellers & inhabits of Carolana aforesayd whatsoever both present & to come: That whatsoever wares and merchandises out of the growth & increase of the sayd Province by land or sea, freely to bring by himselfe or his factors or assignes into whatever port of us, our heires & successors of our kingdomes of England or Ireland & them to unlade and otherwise thereof to dispose, or if need be continually to keep for a whole yeare the sayd merchandises from being unladed, or them againe into the same or other shippes to lade, & to export them into what Regions soever they please whither ours or others strangers. Alwaies provided that soe many & such Customes impositions subsidyes & Toles & other duties which they are bound to pay to us, our heires and successors & onely such & the like as our other subjects for the time being are bound to pay, beyond what & which by noe meanes we will that the inhabitants of the aforesayd Carolana be molested or greived.

And furthermore of our more ample & espetiall favour & out of our certaine knowledge & meer motion we for ourselves our heires & successors doe grant to the foresayd S<sup>r</sup> Robert Heath Knight his Heires & Assignes full & absolute power and authority of makeing erecting & constituting within the foresayd province of Carolana & the Isles aforesayd soe many or such sea-ports stations of shippes creeks & other places of ladeing for shippes boats & other vessells & in soe many & in such like places & with such rights jurisdictions libertyes & priveledges belonging to the like ports as to him or them shall seeme most expedient & that all & singular shippes boates & other vessells whatsoever, for whatever cause of merchandising comeing to or goeing from the sayd Province shall be laded & unladed only at such ports as shall be erected & appointed soe by the sayd S<sup>r</sup> Robert Heath his Heires or assignes any use or custome or any other thing notwithstanding. Alwaies saveing & reserveing to all our subjects of our Kingdom of England our Heires & successors liberty of fishing as well in the sea as in the creeks of the foresayd Province & priveledge to salt harden & drye fishes upon the shores of the said province: as it hath been reasonably used & enjoyed heretofore anything in these presents to the contrary notwithstanding. All which libertyes & priveledges the subjects of us our heires & successors as is afores<sup>d</sup> shall enjoy yet without doing any notable hurt or injurye in any way to the afores<sup>d</sup> S<sup>r</sup> Robert Heath his heires & assignes or to the Dwellers or inhabitants on the ports, creeks & shores aforesayd of the same Province; & more especiall in their Trees there growing; And if any one committe any such harme or injurey he shall undergoe the peril & danger of the highest displeasure of us our heires & successors & the due chastisem<sup>t</sup> of the Law. And if by chance hereafter some doubts & questions may be framed about the true sence & meaniug of any word clause or sentence contain'd in this our present charter we will, enjoyne & command that alwaies & in all things that interpretation be used & shall be received in all our Courtes which shall be judged more benigne profitable & favourable to the foresayd Sr Robert Heath Knight his Heires & assignes & to the Dwellers & inhabitants of the foresayd Province, provided alwaies that noe interpretation be made by which the religion of the holy God & true christian, or the Allegiance due to us our heires & successors may suffer in the least any lessening prejudice or losse. Neverthelessse we will & our trust in the aforesayd Sr Robert Heath Knight his heires & assignes is & the aforesaid Sr Robert Heath Knight for himselfe, his heires executors & assignes doth agree & grant to & with us our heires & successors that the sayd Sr Robert Heath Knight his heires & assignes in the Province & foresayd Isles to be planted & inhabited shall soe behave themselves in all things as we by our instructions and directions signed with our Royall hand as aforesaid most espetially to instruct & direct them, shall thinke most convenient and necessary for our honour & service.

Nevertheless alwaies provided that it shall happen the River or Riv-

In September last, a young man, a trader for beavers, being bound out to the adjacent parts to trade, by accident his sloop left him; and he, supposing she had been gone to Roanoke, hired a small boat, and, with one of his company left with him, came to crave my license to go to look after his sloop, and sought some relief of provisions of me; the which granting, he set forth with three more in company, one being of my family, the others were my neighbors. They entered in at Caratoke, ten leagues to the southward of Cape Henry, and so went to Rhoanoke Island; where, or near thereabouts they found the great Commander of those parts with his Indians a-hunting, who received them civilly, and showed them the ruins of Sir Walter Raleigh's fort, from whence I received a sure token of their being there. * * * * *

Immediately I dispatched away a boat with six hands, one being a carpenter, to build the King an English house, my promise, at his coming first, being to comply in that matter. I sent £200 sterling in trust to purchase and pay for what land they should like, the which in little time they effected and purchased, and paid for three great rivers, and also all such others as they should like of, southerly; and in solemn manner took possession of the country, in the name, and on the behalf of the Commonwealth of England; and actual possession was solemnly given to them by the great Commander, and all the great men of the rest of the provinces, in delivering them a turf of the earth with an arrow shot into it; and so the Indians totally left the lands and rivers to us, retiring to a new habitation, where our people built the great Commander a fair house, the which I am to furnish with English utensils and chattels.

Sir, if you think good to acquaint the States with what is done by two Virginians born, you will honor our country. I have at this instant no present worthy your acceptance, but an arrow that came from the Indians inhabiting on the South Sea, the which we purpose, God willing, to see this summer, non obstante periculo.

I humbly take leave, and ever remain, Sir,

Your true honorer and affectionate

Servant to be commanded,

THE FIRST CHARTER GRANTED BY KING CHARLES
OF CAROLINA.

CHARLES the Second, by the grace of God, king of England, Scotland, France and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, &c., To all to whom these present shall come: Greeting:

1st. Whereas our right trusty, and right well beloved cousins and counsellors, Edward Earl of Clarendon, our high chancellor of England, and

2d. And whereas the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Lord Craven, John Lord Berkley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir William Berkley, and Sir John Colleton, have humbly besought us to give, grant and confirm unto them and their heirs, the said country, with priviledges and jurisdictions requisite for the good government and safety thereof: Know ye, therefore, that we, favouring the pious and noble purpose of the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Lord Craven, John Lord Berkley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir William Berkley, and Sir John Colleton, of our special grace, certain knowledge and meer motion, have given, granted and confirmed, and by this our present charter, for us, our heirs and successors, do give, grant and confirm to the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Lord Craven, John Lord Berkley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir William Berkley, and Sir John Colleton, their heirs and assigns, all that territory or tract of ground, situate, lying and being within our dominions of America, extending from the north end of the island called Lucke island, which lieth in the southern Virginia seas, and within six and thirty degrees of the northern latitude, and to the west as far as the south seas, and so southerly as far as the river St Matthias, which bordereth upon the coast of Florida, and within one and thirty degrees of northern latitude, and so west in a direct line as far as the south seas aforesaid; together with all and singular ports, harbours, bays, rivers, isles and islets belonging to the country aforesaid; and also all the soil, lands, fields, woods, mountains, fields, lakes, rivers, bays and islets, situate or being within the bounds or limits aforesaid, with the fishing of all sorts of fish, whales, sturgeons, and all other royal fishes in the sea, bays, islets and rivers within the premises, and the fish therein taken; and moreover all veins, mines, quarries, as well discovered as not discovered, of gold, silver, gems, precious stones, and all other whatsoever, be it of stones, metals, or any other thing whatsoever, found or to be found within the countries, isles and limits aforesaid.

3d. And furthermore, the patronage and advowsons of all the churches and chappels, which as Christian religion shall increase within the country, isles, islets and limits aforesaid, shall happen hereafter to be erected, together with license and power to build and found churches, chappels and oratories, in convenient and fit places, within the said bounds and limits, and to cause them to be dedicated and consecrated according to the ecclesiastical laws of our kingdom of England, together with all and singular the like, and as ample rights, jurisdictions, privileges, prerogatives, royalties, liberties, immunities and franchises of what kind soever, within the countries, isles, islets and limits aforesaid.

4th. To have, use, exercise and enjoy, and in as ample manner as any bishop of Durham in our kingdom of England, ever heretofore have held, used or enjoyed, or of right ought or could have, use, or enjoy. And them, the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Lord Craven, John Lord Berkley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir William Berkley, and Sir John Colleton, their heirs and assigns, we do by these presents, for us, our heirs, and successors, make, create and constitute the true and absolute Lords Proprietors of the country aforesaid, and of all other the premises; saving always the faith, allegiance and sovereign dominion due to us, our heirs and successors, for the same, and saving also the right, title and interest of all and every our subjects of the English nation, which are now planted within the limits and bounds aforesaid (if any be). To have, hold, possess and enjoy the said country, isles, islets, and all and singular other the premises, to them the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Lord Craven, John Lord Berkley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir William Berkley, Sir John Colleton, their heirs and assigns forever, to be holden of us, our heirs and successors, as of our manner of East Greenwich in our county of Kent, in free and common socage, and not in capite, or by knight service; yielding and paying yearly to us, our heirs and successors, for the same, the yearly rent of twenty marks of lawful money of England, at the feast of All Saints, yearly forever, the first payment thereof to begin and to be made on the feast of All Saints, which shall be in the year of our Lord one thousand six hundred and sixtyfive, and also the fourth part of all gold or silver ore, which, within the limits aforesaid, shall from time to time happen to be found.

5th. And that the country, thus by us granted and described, may be dignified by us with as large titles and privileges as any other part of our dominions and territories in that region, Know ye, that we of our further grace, certain knowledge, and meer motion, have thought fit to erect the same tract of ground, comty, and island, into a province, and out of the fulness of our royal power and prerogative, we do, for us, our heirs and successors, erect, incorporate and ordain the same into a province, and call it the Province of Carolina, and so from henceforth will have it called; and forasmuch as we have hereby made and ordained the aforesaid Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Lord Craven, John Lord Berkley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir William Berkley, and Sir John Colleton, their heirs and assigns, the true lords and proprietors of all the province aforesaid; Know ye, therefore moreover, that we, reposing especial trust and confidence in their fidelity, wisdom, justice and provident circumspection, for us, our heirs and successors, do grant full and absolute power, by virtue of these presents, to them the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Lord Craven, John Lord Berkley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir William Berkley, and Sir John Colleton, and their heirs, for the good and happy government of the said province, to ordain, make, enact, and under their seals to publish any laws whatsoever, either appertaining to the publick state of the said province, or to the private utility of particular persons, according to their best discretion, of and with the advice, assent and approbation of the freemen of the said province, or of the greater part of them, or of their delegates or deputies, whom for enacting of the said laws, when and as often as need shall require, we will that the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Lord Craven, John Lord Berkley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir William Berkley, and Sir John Colleton, and their heirs, shall from time to time assemble in such manner and form as to them shall seem best, and the same laws duly to execute upon all people within the said province and limits thereof, for the time being, or which shall be constituted under the power and government of them or any of them, either sailing towards the said province of Carolina, or returning from thence towards England, or any other of our, or foreign dominions, by imposition of penalties, imprisonment, or any other punishment: yea, if it shall be needfull, and the quality of the offence requires it, by taking away member and life, either by them, the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Lord Craven, John Lord Berkley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir William Berkley and Sir John Colleton, and their heirs, or by them or their deputies, lieutenants, judges, justices, magistrates, officers and members to be ordained or appointed according to the tenor and true intention of these presents; and likewise to appoint and establish any judges or justices, magistrates or officers whatsoever, within the said province, at sea or land, in such manner and form as unto the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Lord Craven, John Lord Berkley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir William Berkley, and Sir John Colleton and their heirs shall seem most convenient; also, to remit, release, pardon and abolish (whether before judgment or after) all crimes and offences whatsoever, against the said laws, and to do all and every other thing and things, which unto the compleat establishment of justice unto courts, sessions, and forms of judicature and manners of proceedings therein do belong, although in these presents express mention be not made thereof; and by judges and by him or them delegated, to award process, hold pleas, and determine in all the said courts, and places of judicature, all actions, suits and causes whatsoever, as well criminal or civil, real, mixt, personal, or of any other kind or nature whatsoever; which laws, so as aforesaid to be published, our pleasure is, and we do require, enjoin and command, shall be absolute, firm and available in law, and that all the liege people of us, our heirs and successors, within the said province of Carolina, do observe and keep the same inviolably in those parts, so far as they concern them, under the pains and penalties therein expressed, or to be expressed: Provided nevertheless, that the said laws be consonant to reason, and as near as may be conveniently, agreeable to the laws and customs of this our kingdom of England.

6th. And because such assemblies of freeholders cannot be so conveniently called, as there may be occasion to require the same, we do, therefore, by these presents, give and grant unto the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Lord Craven, John Lord Berkley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir William Berkley, and Sir John Colleton, their heirs and assigns, by themselves or their magistrates, in that behalf lawfully authorized, full power and authority, from time to time to make and ordain fit and wholesome orders and ordinances, within the province aforesaid, to be kept and observed as well for the keeping of the peace, as for the better government of the people there abiding, and to publish the same to all to whom it may concern; which ordinances, we do by these presents streightly charge and command to be inviolably observed within the said province, under the penalties therein expressed, so as such ordinances be reasonable, and not repugnant or contrary, but as near as may be, agreeable to the laws and statutes of this our kingdom of England, and so as the same ordinances do not extend to the binding, charging, or taking away of the right or interest of any person or persons, in their freehold, goods or chattels whatsoever.

7th. And to the end the said province may be the more happily increased, by the multitude of people resorting thither, and may likewise be the more strongly defended from the incursions of salvages and other enemies, pirates and robbers, therefore we, for us, our heirs and successors, do give and grant by these presents, power, license and liberty unto all the liege people of us, our heirs and successors in our kingdom of England or elsewhere, within any other our dominions, islands, colonies or plantations, (excepting those who shall be especially forbidden,) to transport themselves and families unto the said province, with convenient shipping and fitting provisions, and there to settle themselves, dwell and inhabit, any law, statute, act, ordinance, or other thing to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding. And we will also, and of our more special grace, for us, our heirs and successors, do streightly enjoin, ordain, constitute and command, that the said province of Carolina, shall be of our allegiance, and that all and singular the subjects and liege people of us, our heirs and successors, transported or to be transported into the said province, and the children of them and of such as shall descend from them, there born or hereafter to be born, be and shall be denizens and lieges of us, our heirs and successors of this our kingdom of England, and be in all things held, treated, and reputed as the liege faithful people of us, our heirs and successors, born within this our said kingdom, or any other of our dominions, and may inherit or otherwise purchase and receive, take, hold, buy and possess any lands, tenements or hereditaments within the same places, and them may occupy, possess and enjoy, give, sell, aliene and bequeathe; as likewise all liberties, franchises and priviledges of this our kingdom of England, and of other our dominions aforesaid, and may freely and quietly have, possess and enjoy, as our liege people born within the same, without the least molestation, vexation, trouble or grievance of us, our heirs and successors, any statute, act, ordinance, or provision to the contrary notwithstanding.

8th. And furthermore, that our subjects of this our said kingdom of England, and other our dominions, may be the rather encouraged to undertake this expedition with ready and chearful minds, know ye, that we of our special grace, certain knowledge, and meer motion, do give and grant by virtue of these presents, as well to the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Lord Craven, John Lord Berkley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir William Berkley, and Sir John Colleton, and their heirs, as unto all others as shall from time to time repair unto the said province, with a purpose to inhabit there, or to trade with the natives of the said province, full liberty and license to lade and freight in any port whatsoever, of us, our heirs and successors, and into the said province of Carolina, by them, their servants or assigns, to transport all and singular their goods, wares and merchandises, as likewise all sorts of grain whatsoever, and any other things whatsoever, necessary for the food and clothing, not prohibited by the laws and statutes of our kingdoms and dominions, to be carried out of the same, without any let or molestation of us, our heirs and successors, or of any other of our officers, or ministers whatsoever, saving also to us, our heirs and successors, the customs and other duties and payments, due for the said wares and merchandises, according to the several rates of the places from whence the same shall be transported. We will also, and by these presents, for us, our heirs and successors, do give and grant license by this our charter, unto the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Lord Craven, John Lord Berkley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir William Berkley, and Sir John Colleton, their heirs and assigns, and to all the inhabitants and dwellers in the province aforesaid, both present and to come, full power and absolute authority to import or unlade by themselves or their servants, factors or assigns, all merchandises and goods whatsoever, that shall arise of the fruits and commodities of the said province, either by land or by sea, into any of the ports of us, our heirs and successors, in our kingdom of England, Scotland or Ireland, or otherwise to dispose of the said goods, in the said ports; and if need be, within one year next after the unlading, to lade the said merchandises and goods again into the same or other ships, and to export the same into any other countries either of our dominions, or foreign, being in amity with us, our heirs and successors, so as they pay such customs, subsidies, and other duties for the same, to us, our heirs and successors, as the rest of our subjects of this our kingdom, for the time being, shall be bound to pay, beyond which we will not, that the inhabitants of the said province of Carolina, shall be any ways charged.

9th. Provided nevertheless, and our will and pleasure is, and we have further for the consideration aforesaid, of our more especial grace, certain knowledge and meer motion, given and granted, and by these presents, for us our heirs and successors, do give and grant unto the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Lord Craven, John Lord Berkley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir William Berkley and Sir John Colleton, their heirs and assigns, full and free license, liberty and authority, at any time or times, from and after the feast of St Michael the archangel, which shall be in the year of our Lord Christ, one thousand six hundred sixty and seven, as well to import, and bring into any of our dominions from the said province of Carolina, or any part thereof, the several goods and commodities, hereinafter mentioned, that is to say, silks, wines, currants, raisins, capers, wax, almonds, oyl and olives, without paying or answering to us, our heirs or successors, any custom, import, or other duty, for and in respect thereof, for and during the term and space of seven years, to commence and be accounted, from and after the first importation of four tons of any the said goods, in any one bottom, ship or vessel from the said province, into any of our dominions, as also to export and carry out of any of our dominions, into the said province of Carolina, custom free, all sorts of tools which shall be usefull or necessary for the planters there, in the accommodation and improvement of the premises, any thing before, in these presents contained, or any law, act, statute, prohibition or other matter, or any thing heretofore had, made, enacted or provided, or hereafter to be had, made, enacted or provided, to the contrary, in any wise notwithstanding.

10th. And furthermore, of our own ample and especial grace, certain knowledge and meer motion, we do for us, our heirs and successors, grant unto the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Lord Craven, John Lord Berkley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir William Berkley and Sir John Colleton, their heirs and assigns, full and absolute power and authority, to make, erect and constitute, within the said province of Carolina, and the isles and islets aforesaid, such and so many seaports, harbours, creeks and other places, for discharge and unlading of goods and merchandises, out of ships, boats and other vessels, and for lading of them, in such and so many places, and with such jurisdiction, priviledges and franchises unto the said ports belonging, as to them shall seem most expedient, and that all and singular the ships, boats and other vessels, which shall come for merchandises and trade into the said province, or shall depart out of the same, shall be laden and unladen at such ports only, as shall be erected and constituted by the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Lord Craven, John Lord Berkley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir William Berkley, and Sir John Colleton, their heirs and assigns, and not elsewhere, any use, custom or any other thing to the contrary, in any wise notwithstanding.

11th. And we do furthermore will, appoint and ordain, and by these presents for us, our heirs and successors, do grant unto the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Lord Craven, John Lord Berkley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir William Berkley and Sir John Colleton, their heirs and assigns, that they the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Lord Craven, John Lord Berkley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir William Berkley and Sir John Colleton, their heirs and assigns, may from time to time forever, have and enjoy, the customs and subsidies in the ports, harbours, creeks and other places within the province aforesaid, payable for goods, merchandise and wares, there laded or to be laded, or unladed, the said customs to be reasonably assessed, upon any occasion, by themselves, and by and with the consent of the free people there, or the greater part of them as aforesaid; to whom we give power by these presents, for us, our heirs and successors, upon just cause and in a due proportion, to assess and impose the same.

12th. And further, of our special grace, certain knowledge, and meer motion, we have given, granted and confirmed, and by these presents, for us, our heirs and successors, do give, grant and confirm unto the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Lord Craven, John Lord Berkley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir William Berkley, and Sir John Colleton, their heirs and assigns, full and absolute license, power and authority, that the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Lord Craven, John Lord Berkley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir William Berkley, Sir John Colleton, their heirs and assigns, from time to time, hereafter, forever, at his and their will and pleasure, may assign, alien, grant, demise, or enfeof the premises, or any part or parcels thereof, to him or them that shall be willing to purchase the same, and to such person or persons as they shall think fit, to have and to hold, to them the said person or persons, their heirs or assigns, in fee simple or fee tayle; or for term for life, or lives, or years, to be held of them, the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Lord Craven, John Lord Berkley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir William Berkley and Sir John Colleton, their heirs and assigns, by such rents, services and customs, as shall seem meet to the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Lord Craven, John Lord Berkley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir William Berkley, and Sir John Colleton, their heirs and assigns, and not immediately of us, our heirs and successors, and to the same person and persons, and to all and every of them, we do give and grant by these presents, for us our heirs and successors, license, authority and power, that such person or persons, may have or take the premises, or any parcel thereof, of the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Lord Craven, John Lord Berkley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir William Berkley and Sir John Colleton, their heirs and assigns, and the same to hold, to themselves, their heirs or assigns, in what estate of inheritance whatsoever, in fee simple, or fee taylor, or otherwise, as to them and the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Lord Craven, John Lord Berkley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir William Berkley, and Sir John Colleton, their heirs and assigns, shall seem expedient; the statute made in the parliament of Edward, son of King Henry, heretofore king of England, our predecessor, commonly called the statute* of "quia emptores terrarum," or any other statute, act, ordinance, use, law, custom or any other matter, cause or thing heretofore published, or provided to the contrary, in any wise notwithstanding.

13th. And because many persons born, or inhabiting in the said province for their deserts and services, may expect and be capable of marks of honor and favor, which, in respect of the great distance, cannot be conveniently conferred by us; our will and pleasure therefore is, and we do by these presents, give and grant unto the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Lord Craven, John Lord Berkley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir William Berkley, and Sir John Colleton, their heirs and assigns, full power and authority, to give and confer, unto and upon, such of the inhabitants of the said province, as they shall think do or shall merit the same, such marks of favour and titles of honour as they shall think fit, so as these titles of honour be not the same as are enjoyed by, or conferred upon any the subjects of this our kingdom of England.

14th. And further also, we do by these presents, for us, our heirs and successors, give and grant license to them, the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Lord Craven, John Lord Berkley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir William Berkley, and Sir John Colleton, their heirs and assigns, full power, liberty and license to erect, raise and build within the said province and places aforesaid, or any part or parts thereof, such and so many forts, fortresses, castles, cities, burroughs, towns, villages and other fortifications whatsoever, and the same or any of them to fortify and furnish with ordinance, powder, shot, armory, and all other weapons, ammunition, habillements of war, both offensive and defensive, as shall be thought fit and convenient for the safety and welfare of the said province and places, or any part thereof, and the same, or any of them from time to time, as occasion shall require, to dismantle, disfigure, demolish and pull down, and also to place, constitute and appoint in and over all or any of the castles, forts, fortifications, cities, towns and places aforesaid, governors, deputy governors, magistrates, sheriffs and other officers, civil and military, as to them shall seem meet, and to the said cities, burroughs, towns, villages, or any other place or places within the said province, to grant "letters or charters of incorporation," with all liberties, franchises and privileges, requisite and usefull, or to or within any corporations, within this our kingdom of England, granted or belonging; and in the same cities, burroughs, towns, and other places, to constitute, erect and appoint such and so many markets, marts and fairs, as shall in that behalf be thought fit and necessary; and further also to erect and make in the province aforesaid, or any part thereof, so many manors as to them shall seem meet and convenient, and in every of the said manors to have and to hold a court baron, with all things whatsoever which to a court baron do belong, and to have and to hold views of "frank pledge" and "court leet," for the conservation of the peace and better government of those parts, within such limits, jurisdictions and precincts, as by the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Lord Craven, John Lord Berkley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir William Berkley, and Sir John Colleton, or their heirs, shall be appointed for that purpose, with all things whatsoever, which to a court leet, or view of frank pledge do belong, the said court to be holden by stewards, to be deputed and authorized by the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Lord Craven, John Lord Berkley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir William Berkley, and Sir John Colleton, or their heirs, or by the lords of other manors and leets, for the time being, when the same shall be erected.

15th. And because that in so remote a country, and situate among so many barbarous nations, and the invasions as well of salvages as of other enemies, pirates and robbers, may probably be feared; therefore we have given, and for us, our heirs and successors, do give power, by these presents, unto the said Edward, Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Lord Craven, John Lord Berkley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir William Berkley, and Sir John Colleton, their heirs and assigns, by themselves, or their captains, or other their officers, to levy, muster and train all sorts of men, of what condition or wheresoever born, in the said province for the time being, and to make war and pursue the enemies aforesaid, as well by sea as by land, yea, even without the limits of the said province, and by God's assistance to vanquish and take them, and being taken to put them to death by the law of war, or to save them at their pleasure; and to do all and every other thing, which unto the charge of a captain general of an army belongeth, or hath accustomed to belong, as fully and freely as any captain general of an army hath or ever had the same.

16th. Also our will and pleasure is, and by this our charter we give unto the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Lord Craven, John Lord Berkley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir William Berkley, and Sir John Colleton, their heirs and assigns, full power, liberty and authority, in case of rebellion, tumult or sedition, (if any should happen,) which God forbid, either upon the land within the province aforesaid, or upon the main sea, in making a voyage thither, or returning from thence, by him or themselves, their captains, deputies and officers, to be authorized under his or their seals for that purpose, to whom also, for us, our heirs and successors, we do give and grant by these presents, full power and authority, to exercise martial law against mutinous and seditious persons of those parts, such as shall refuse to submit themselves to their government, or shall refuse to serve in the wars, or shall fly to the enemy, or forsake their colours or ensigns, or be loyterers or straglers, or otherwise howsoever offending against law, custom or discipline military, as freely and in as ample manner and form as any captain general of an army by vertue of his office, might or hath accustomed to use the same.

17th. And our further pleasure is, and by these presents, for us, our heirs and successors, we do grant unto the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Lord Craven, John Lord Berkley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir William Berkley, and Sir John Colleton, their heirs and assigns, and to all the tenants and inhabitants of the said province of Carolina, both present and to come, and to every of them, that the said province and the tenants and inhabitants thereof, shall not from henceforth be held or reputed a member or part of any colony whatsoever in America, or elsewhere, now transported or made, or hereafter to be transported or made; nor shall be depending on, or subject to their government in any thing, but be absolutely separated and divided from the same; and our pleasure is, by these presents, that they be separated, and that they be subject immediately to our crown of England, as depending thereof forever; and that the inhabitants of the said Province, nor any of them, shall at any time hereafter be compelled or compellable, or be any ways subject or liable to appear or answer to any matter, suit, cause or plaint whatsoever, out of the Province aforesaid, in any other of our islands, colonies or dominions in America, or elsewhere, other than in our realm of England, and dominion of Wales.

18th. And because it may happen that some of the people and inhabitants of the said province, cannot in their private opinions, conform to the publick exercise of religion, according to the liturgy, form and ceremonies of the church of England, or take and subscribe the oaths and articles, made and established in that behalf, and for that the same, by reason of the remote distances of these places, will, we hope be no breach of the unity and uniformity established in this nation, our will and pleasure therefore is, and we do by these presents, for us, our heirs and successors, give and grant unto the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Lord Craven, John Lord Berkley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir William Berkley, and Sir John Colleton, their heirs and assigns, full and free license, liberty and authority, by such legal ways and means as they shall think fit, to give and grant unto such person or persons, inhabiting and being within the said province, or any part thereof, who really in their judgments, and for conscience sake, cannot or shall not conform to the said liturgy and ceremonies, and take and subscribe the oaths and articles aforesaid, or any of them, such indulgencies and dispensations in that behalf, for and during such time and times, and with such limitations and restrictions as they, the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Lord Craven, John Lord Berkley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir William Berkley, and Sir John Colleton, their heirs or assigns, shall in their discretion think fit and reasonable; and with this express proviso, and limitation also, that such person and persons, to whom such indulgencies and dispensations shall be granted as aforesaid, do and shall from time to time declare and continue, all fidelity, loyalty and obedience to us, our heirs and successors, and be subject and obedient to all other the laws, ordinances, and constitutions of the said province, in all matters whatsoever, as well ecclesiastical as civil, and do not in any wise disturb the peace and safety thereof, or scandalize or reproach the said liturgy, forms and ceremonies, or anything relating therunto, or any person or persons whatsoever, for or in respect of his or their use or exercise thereof, or his or their obedience and conformity, therunto.

19th. And in case it shall happen, that any doubts or questions should arise, concerning the true sense and understanding of any word, clause or sentence contained in this our present charter, we will, ordain and command, that at all times, and in all things, such interpretation be made thereof, and allowed in all and every of our courts whatsoever, as lawfully may be adjudged most advantageous and favourable to the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Lord Craven, John Lord Berkley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir William Berkley, and Sir John Colleton, their heirs and assigns, although express mention be not made in these presents, of the true yearly value and certainty of the premises, or any part thereof, or of any other gifts and grants made by us, our ancestors, or predecessors, to them the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Lord Craven, John Lord Berkley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir William Berkley, and Sir John Colleton, or any other person or persons whatsoever, or any statute, act, ordinance, provision, proclamation or restraint, heretofore had, made, published, ordained or provided, or any other thing, cause or matter, whatsoever, to the contrary thereof, in any wise notwithstanding.

LETTER FROM THE ENGLISH MEMBERS OF THE CAPE FEAR COMPANY TO THE LORDS PROPRIETORS.

LONDON, Thursday, August the 6th, 1663.

At a meeting of several persons, who have, with several others of New England, subscribed themselves as adventurers for the carrying on a plantation in Charles River on the coast of Florida.

1. Whereas a paper in the name of the right honorable the Earl of Clarendon, lord high chancellor of England, George, duke of Albemarle, and divers other right honorable persons, to whom the whole coast of Florida hath been lately granted by his most excellent majesty, hath been sent down to the said adventurers, referring to certain proposals tendered to their said lordships, as the proper act and desires of the said adventurers, and being an answer to the said proposals; the said adventurers, upon diligent inquiry, not being able to find out who should be the author of the said paper, do judge it their duty, in all humbleness, to acquaint their lordships that they are altogether strangers to it, and know nothing of the delivery of it.

2. That upon consideration, nevertheless, of their lordships' said paper, and of several concessions, privileges, and immunities therein freely offered by their lordships for the encouragement of the said adventurers, and for the further promoting of the said plantation of Charles River, the said adventurers cannot but acknowledge the greatness of the favor and condescension of their said lordships to them, upon the confidence and assurance of which they crave leave further to represent to their lordships—

3. That as they were invited at first to be subscribers to the said plantation of Charles River, by several persons of New England, so the great motive that did principally induce them to the said subscription was the liquid and clear assurance that was given them, that the said New Englanders, had an equitable title to the harbor and soil of the said river, together with the lands adjacent; and that though many others of quality had long before indeed sailed upon the coast of Florida, and had settled and taken possession of some other part of that large and vast country, yet that the said New Englanders, and they only, were the first that did ever, bona fide, set foot in that particular harbor, and that did find out the entrance and discovery of the said river.

Which thing, as it hath been confidently represented from these of New England unto the said adventurers here, so, upon the very ground of that as a truth, as also of the general custom in that and other plantations (as well Dutch and French as English), that all that buy lands of the chief kings in those places (who only challenge to themselves the having a right to the sale of them), shall enjoy the absolute benefit and property of them against all persons, English or others; the said New Englanders having purchased the said river and soil, and lands adjacent, of the said kings, did so far presume upon the interest of the said purchase, together with the said discovery, as to give directions to several of their friends here immediately to apply to his majesty for a patent for the said river and soil, as belonging (according to their apprehension) of right to them, and as no way doubting the obtaining thereof, as may appear by the copy of their said letter hither.

4. The said adventurers further humbly represent, That as upon these grounds, and these only, they became invited to share in the adventures of those in New England, and to cast in at first a small sum for an assistance or supply to the said undertaking; so, forasmuch as the said adventurers here do act but as a minor part of those other adventurers there, and as wholly intrusted also from those there, they find not themselves qualified or enabled to do any thing therefore here that may prejudice or conclude the other adventurers there, in that which may be their just pretension or supposition of a right, how weak or how much mistaken soever the ground of that right may possibly appear, which they determine not.

The said adventurers further humbly represent—

5. That there cannot be any easy encouragement for the planting of the lands of the said Charles River immediately from hence, by reason of the excessive and insupportable charge that would attend such an undertaking of transporting and supplying all things necessary for the said plantation, at so great and so extraordinary a distance; that as the undertaking, therefore, of the said plantation, and vigorous prosecution of it with men, cattle, and all other provisions as shall be judged necessary for the accomplishing and completing so great an engagement and action, must rationally be begun in, and set forth from, some other of the plantations abroad; so none is humbly conceived to be so fit to supply all those necessities in abundance at first, and to do it at so easy a rate, as that of New England is.

But forasmuch as all the English living in the several colonies of New England have ever held and enjoyed the benefits granted to other corporations, and have ever had, as well as some other plantations, full liberty to choose their own governors among themselves, to make and confirm laws with themselves, with immunity also wholly from all taxes, charges, and impositions, whatsoever, more than what is laid upon themselves by themselves; it is therefore the humble opinion of the said adventurers, and (as what they fear) is humbly tendered to the considerations of their lordships—

That the said several adventurers in New England, who have some of them considerable interests and estates there, how much soever they have declared their willingness, forwardness, and resolution to transport and remove themselves and their respective families unto the said Charles River, and to settle there, will nevertheless decline the said resolution again; and will not, by any arguments that may be used by the said adventurers here, be induced to unsettle themselves, and to run all the hazards that must be considered in such doubtful undertakings; nor, if willing, will be able to persuade others to join with them there, if they shall hear, or be acquainted beforehand, that no one of the said privileges before mentioned, and which have hitherto always been enjoyed by them, are like to be allowed or preserved entire to them.

The said adventurers do further represent, that at the present the undertaking of the plantation of the said Charles River lieth under some obloquy, that hath given a check to it; some that were sent from New England thither, in order to the carrying on the said settlement, being come back again without so much as sitting down upon it; and for the better justification of themselves in their return, have spread a reproach both upon the harbor and upon the soil of the river itself; which cheek, if now also seconded with a discouragement from hence, in reference to their government, or with an intimation that they may not expect in the same river the same usual and accustomed privileges, that all the said colonies of New England, with other colonies, have ever had, it is humbly feared that all thoughts of further proceeding in the said river will be wholly laid aside by them.

Wherefore, inasmuch as the said adventurers here have only power to return back to those of New England what they shall receive as the pleasure of those right honorable persons that are the lords patentees; forasmuch, also, as from the several discourses had and favors already received, the said adventurers here cannot but have a strong confidence of their lordships' inclination and propenseness to give all just and possible encouragement to undertakings, so public as all things of this nature are; the said adventurers could not find any way better how to discharge the faithfulness of that duty and respect which becomes them to demonstrate towards their lordships, than thus candidly and sincerely to state to their lordships the nature of their adventure, partnership, and subscription with others, the nature also of their dependence on others, as being but a minor part to them of New England, and as having their discretions here intrusted, at furthest, no further than for the obtaining and securing such things, too, for them of New England, as are pursuant to the directions sent hither from them, and as they here shall judge may most tend to a satisfactory and lasting encouragement to them.

PROPOSEALS OF SEVERALL GENTLEMEN OF BARBADOS AUGUST THIS 12TH 1663.

Severall gentlemen and persons of good quality in this Island being very sensible of the great loss and sad disappoyntment that might redound to the English nation in Generall as well as to many particular persons y<sup>t</sup> ingaiged and intended to ingaige in the settlement of an English plantation in that goodly land of Florida by the civill report bruited thereof, by those sent from new England to settle at Cape Faire contrary to what Mr William Hinton and the rest with him sent to discover that coast did and doe affirme thereof, and having greate confidence in the said

Hinton's fidelity and honest indeavours therein, have out of an earnest desire and confident persuasion of a happy settlement for our English nation in those parts, now againe hired and sent the above said M<sup>r</sup> Hinton with his ship adventure and twenty two men well fitted and victualled for 7. months for discovery of that coast southwards from Cape Faire as far as 31. degrees north latitude: in which design of discovery there are and will be above 2 hundred gentlemen and amongst them many persons of good quality in this Island, whoe are and wilbe at a considerable charge therein.

The said Adventures doe earnestly with all Humillity desire and request that those Noble undertakers whoe have lately obtayned a charter of the Province of Carrolina from his Royall Maj<sup>tie</sup> wilbe pleased with as much convenient speede as may be to send them an examplification of there said Charter under the broadseale of England fully recited; and together therewith and by vertue of the said charter to impower and authorize the aforesaid Adventurers or such of them as the said Grantees shall judge fitt to nominate together with the rest of there Assotiates and freinds, them there heires and assignes to take up and purchase of the natives such certine tract or tracts of Lands as they and such as they shall send theither to settle may or shall finde fitt for the accommodation of themselves and of there freinds there, in the forme and manner of a County or Corporation, not exceeding or about the quantity of thirty or thirty two myles square, or one thousand square myles which they desire may be called the Corporation of the Barbados Adventures, and that the said tract or tracts of land, County or Corporation, they desire may be granted and confirmed to them and there Assotiates, and to there heires and assignes for ever, in full, free and ample manner and with the same power, priviledges, jurisdictions and Immunities as the aforesaid Province is granted to them by his Majestic. And if any more or other rents, acknowledgements or services be or shalbe desired, expected or required then the proportion of what is by them the said pattentes or first undertakers to be paid and allowed to his Majestic it may be by them asserted and expresly set downe in there said Graunte to these said Barbados Adventures, before they shalbe at further Cost, Charge or trouble to settle it which they desire to know as soon as may be for that heare are many hundreds of noble families and well experienced planters that are willing and ready to remove speedily theither to begin a settlement as aforesaid and to beare the brunt thereof, if they shall receive such incorage-ment as is expected as aforesaid from soe noble and worthy undertakers as we do understand are concerned as principalls in said Charter which priviledges and incouragements they are the rather boald to expect Adventurers not onely for there vigorous and ready appearing to promote the further discovery and hopeful settlement there of at such a time as this, when soe greate a cloude of obscurity was cast upon it but alsoe from the aptness of the people heare and persons heare iugaged to further such a work as well for there experienced planters as for the number of there Negros and other servants fitt for such labor as wilbe there required, and doe alsoe find the less cause to doubt of the desired trust to be reposed in them, in regard many of there number consists of persons of good quallity fitt to manage the Government of soe considerable a corporation, whoe with there freinds and associates doe desire to expect to have the sole power of electing all delligates, Governors and officers, and making Lawes, and goverening amongst themselves according to the tenor and Priviledges of the said Graunte or charter from his Majestie, which if granted soe, as to incourage such a free and noble settlement as they beleave and hope is aymed at; will much promote the good and seedy settlement of many other very considerable corporations within the Territory and Dominions of the aforesaid Province.

That alsoe desire that a Proclamation may be procured from the Kinge directed to all Governors in these his Majestie's plantations, requiring them not to hinder any free and uningaied persons from going theither to settle upon any frivolus pretences whatsoever: but rather to further the good and speedy settlement thereof that possible may be in order whereunto; and that those noble persons to whom the Charter is grannted may the better know whome to appoynt and nominate as Prime Adventurers and undertakers of the before mentioned corporation, the said Adventurers doe intend by the next to send a list of such persons names as have already subscribed and of the committe by them choasen to manage affaires heare for this yeare and untill some shalbe sent theither to performe the same upon the place unless the said undertakers in England shall please to leave in blanke the place for the said Committe; to put in such persons names as they shall judge most fitt and find willing to goe speedily theither to begin the said settlement there.

MY LORD,

We humbly advize you will be pleased to appoynt some persons with your Instructions to treat with them on there proposealls, and wee conceive to bringe them to accept of by Lawes onely in steede of Generall Lawes, which they desire to have power to make it being fitt the whole Country should make the Generall Lawes and that the Governors they meane to choose should bee only such as in the City of Exon vizt: Mayors, Aldermen, Sherifes, Cunstables, and the like, this wee conceive may sattisfie them, otherwayse they wilbe disturbed in Government which may cause

Your humble servants

A DECLARATION AND PROPOSALS TO ALL THAT WILL PLANT IN CAROLINA.

25 Aug., 1663.

His majesty having been graciously pleased, by his charter bearing date the 24th of March, in the 15th year of his reign, out of a pious and good intention for the propagation of the Christian faith amongst the barbarous and ignorant Indians, the enlargement of his empire and dominions, and enriching of his subjects, to grant and confirm to us, Edward, earl of Clarendon, high chancellor of England, George, duke of Albemarle, master of his majesty's horse and captain-general of all his forces, William, Lord Craven, John, Lord Berkeley, Anthony, Lord Ashley, chancellor of his majesty's exchequer, Sir George Carteret, knight and baronet, vice-chamberlain of his majesty's household, William Berkeley, knight, and Sir John Colleton, knight and baronet, all that territory or tract of ground with the islands and islets situate, lying, and being in his dominions in America, extending from the north end of the island called Luke Island, which lieth in the Southern Virginia sea, and within 36 degrees of the northern latitude, and to the west as far as the South seas, and so southwardly as far as the river St. Matthias, which bordereth upon the coast of Florida, and within — degrees of the northern latitude; in pursuance of which grant, and with a clear and good intention to make those parts useful and advantageous to his majesty and his people: we do hereby declare and propose to all his majesty's loving subjects wheresoever abiding or residing, and do hereby engage inviolably to perform and make good these ensuing proposals in such manner as the first undertakers of the first settlement shall reasonably desire.

1. If the first colony will settle on Charles River near Cape Fear, which seems to be desired, it shall be free for them so to do on the larboard side entering [south side]. If in any other part of the territory, then to choose either side, if by a river; we reserving to ourselves twenty thousand acres of land, to be bounded and laid out by our agents in each settlement, in such places as they shall see fit, and in such manner that the colony shall not be thereby incommoded or weakened; which we intend by our agents or assignees in due time to settle and plant, they submitting to the government of that colony.

2. That the first colony may have power, when desired, at their own charge to fortify the entrance of the river, as also the sea-coast and island; they engaging to be true and faithful to his majesty, his heirs and successors, by some oath or engagement of their own framing.

3. That the undertakers of that settlement do, before they or any of them repair thither to settle, present to us thirteen persons of those that intend to go, of which number we shall commissionate one to be Governor, for three years from the date of his commission, and six more of the thirteen to be of his council, the major part of which number, the Governor or his deputy to be one, to govern for the time aforesaid; and will also nominate successors to the Governor, who shall be of the six councillors aforesaid, to succeed in the government, in case of death or removal; and likewise councillors out of the remaining six of the thirteen to succeed in case of death or removal of any of the councillors, and after the expiration of the first three years, and so successively for every three years. Upon or before the 25th day of March, before the expiration of the time of the Governor in, being a new presentment by the freeholders of the colony, or by such persons as they shall constitute, to be made of the thirteen persons, four of which shall consist of those that shall be in the government at the time of the election of the thirteen, out of which we will, upon or before the 10th day of April following, declare and commissionate a Governor and six councillors with their respective successors in case and manner as aforesaid.

4. We shall, as far as our charter permits us, empower the major part of the freeholders, or their deputies or assembly-men, to be by them chosen out of themselves, viz.: two out of every tribe, division, or parish, in such manner as shall be agreed on, to make their own laws, by and with the advice and consent of the Governor and council, so as they be not repugnant to the laws of England, but, as near as may be, agreeing with them in all civil affairs, with submission to a superintendency of a general council, to be chosen out of every government of the province, in manner as shall be agreed on for the common defence of the whole; which laws shall, within one year after publication, be presented to us to receive our ratification, and to be in force until said ratification be desired and by us certified; but if once ratified, to continue until repealed by the same power, or by time expired.

5. We will grant, in as ample manner as the undertakers shall desire, freedom and liberty of conscience in all religious or spiritual things, and to be kept inviolably with them, we having power in our charter so to do.

6. We will grant the full benefit of these immunities to the undertakers and settlers which, by the charter, is granted to us (for our services to his majesty) in relation to freedom of customs, of tools of all sorts useful there, to be exported from England for the planters' use; and of certain growths of the plantations, as wine, oil, raisins of all sorts, olives, capers, wax, currants, almonds, and silks, to be imported into any of his majesty's dominions for seven years for each commodity, after four tons of every respective species is imported as aforesaid in one bottom.

7. We will grant to every present undertaker for his own head, one hundred acres of land, to him and his heirs forever, to be held in free and common socage; and for every man-servant that he shall bring or send thither, that is fit to bear arms, armed with a good firelock musket, performed bore, twelve bullets to the pound, and with twenty pounds of powder and twenty pounds of bullets, fifty acres of land; and for every woman-servant thirty acres; and to every man-servant that shall come within that time, ten acres after the expiration of his time; and to every woman-servant six acres after the expiration of her time. Note that we intend not hereby to be obliged to give the proportions of lands above mentioned to masters and servants, longer than in the first five years, to commence at the beginning of the first settlement.

8. We will enjoin the Governor and council to take care that there be always one man armed and provided as aforesaid in the colony, for every fifty acres which we shall grant, and that there be a supply to make up the number in case of death or quitting the colony by the owners of said lands within twelve months after giving notice of the defect.

In consideration of the premises, we do expect by way of acknowledgment, and towards the charge we have been and shall be at, one half-penny for every acre that shall be granted as aforesaid, within the time before limited and expressed; and that the court-houses and houses for public meetings be erected by the public moneys of the colony on the lands taken up by us; but to be and continue to the country's use forever, they paying some small acknowledgment.

Given under our hands this twenty-fifth day of August, Anno Domini, 1663.

LETON ESQ<sup>re</sup>

SIRS,

Wee finde by a letter from M<sup>r</sup> Richard Eivans M<sup>r</sup> John Vassall and others as alsoe by another from you Coll: Modyford that severall people of Barbados have inclynations to setle and plant in some parte of the province of Carolina, whome we desire by all wayse and meanes to incorage, and that it may appeare soe, have inclosed sent you a declaration and proposealls under the hands of all those concerned that are in towne and those that are not have consented to it: which paper we desire you to communicate to all people that are disposed that way and to give what coppyes you please to such as shall desire them and to send others to the Barnothos New England and where elee you think fitt using your Interest for the propogation of this plantation and assuring the people that what we propose shalbe performed: in which we resolve to be punctuall and circumspect, we are informed that some ill willers to the settlement upon Charles river neare Cape Faire, have contrived the disorder that hapned to those that lately went theither before the ships went from New England and that they went not into the branch of the river in that Hilton was in, but by mistake went into another besides they tooke not the proper time of the yeare, for worke; soe that wee hope that that miscarriage will not discourage your people; we conceive it wilbe advantageous to the Kinge, his people, and more particularly to your Islanders to goe on with the settlement where the ayre as we are informed wondrous healthy and temperate, the land proper to bare such commodityes as are not yet produced in the other plantations and such as the nation spend in greate quantities as wine, oyle, currants, reasons, silks &c by means whereof the money of the nation that goes out for these things wilbe Kept in the Kinges Dominions and the planting part of the people imploy there time in planting those comodities that will not injure nor overthrow the other plantations which may very well happen, if there be a very great increase of sugar workes and more Tobacco, Ginger, Cotton, and indicoe made then the world will vent these reasons we conceive will convince the most concerned in your Islands to promote this worke, the proposealls sent are but heads; we conceaving that such as shall undertake, will expect a more formall and large assurance from us according to there owne Methhood; which we shall willingly give when they desire the same, some people heare propose that we should make choyce of a Governor without there presenting; if your people desire the like it shall be done, more freedome then this we may not give; but if any have any other way to propose that is not loss to us then this, we may consent to it. Wee have written to my Lord Willoby to countenance at least not to discountenance your proceedings herein, the business is the Kings and nations service more then our owne, the promotion whereof by you is desired & not all doubted by

A LETTER TO MY LORD WILLOBY FROM THE DUKE OF ALBEMARLE.

COCKPIT the 31 of August. 1663.

My Lord,

I presume you are not a stranger to his Majestie's Grantte of the Province of Carrolina to my Lord Chancellors my selfe and others, which we have undertaken to serve him and his people, and not our private Interest there are some persons of your Island of Barbadoes that have by there letters to me set forth there desires of beginning of or contributing to a settlement in those parts which I conceive will prove rather advantageous than otherwayes to those under your Government for that settlement will devirt many people that designe to plant from planting there commodityes which your plantation abounds in (of which greater quantities being made, will sincke the maker) and put them upon such as your lands will not I conceive produce, and as the Kinge hath not yet within his Terrytories in quantity, although his people consume much of them to the exhausting the wealth of the kingdome, the commodityes I meane are wine, oyle, reasons, currants, rice, silke &c; which commodityes will be of good use and advantagions to your parts, as well as Corne meale flower beefe and poorke; which that Countrey as I am well informed from persons that have planted in some parts thereof will in short time abound in: for which reasons and being well assured that you in all your actions ayme at the publicke good, I desire that your Lord will not hinder but incourage this settlement by which I am sure you will not only doe his Majestie good service but much oblige

Your Lordship's Humble servant

My Lord Chancellor is gon to Cornebey whoe would I believe have joyned with me in this desire if he had beene in Towne; I have written my Couzen Modyford and Couzen Peter Colleton to promote Carrolina Plantation. I pray comteuance them in it.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR SIR WILLIAM BERKELEY GOVERNOR AND CAPTAIN GENERALL OF VIRGINIA
IN RELATION TO THE SETTLING AND PLANTING
SOME PARTE OF THE PROVINCE OF CAROLINA.

1. In regard that we conceave all men will desire to settle there habitations upon the river in respect of the ease of there Carrage to the sea there transportation from place to place and the bennefit of the water and fishing in the river, therefore that they may keepe neare together for there common defence, wee propose that whoever hath planted or comes to plant, have for himself and every man sarvant armed as in our proposalls, one Chayne of land consisting of 66 foote in bredth and 100 chayne from the river into the Country in lenkth and the remainder of his proportion of land to be noe nearer then at the end of 200 chayne, from the river, whereby there may be roome for a second roe of planters next to the first, by meanes whereof there wilbe two hundred men armed and lodged within each myle and quarter square or thereabouts, which is conceaved to be better then in townes, for such whoos business it is to plant, for then each man wilbe where his business or the greater parte of it lyes, and 10 acres which is the proportions above, wilbe as much as one man can well plant and keepe cleane in that growing COUNTRY; reserving convenient home pasturage, for the passage of those above; the remaynder of mens proportions may be leyd out, where the Governor and Councill shall conceave it most regular and advantagious to keepe the people neare each other soe as it be at the end of 200 Chayne as is before exprest.

2. You are desired to cause 20000 Acres of land to be set out and bounded for the propriators in severall places, parte of which may be where a towne is like to be built, other parte some myles up the river and other some up into the Country where the land is good, and some on sides of hilles that looke to the southward which wilbe best for Vinniards and if it be possible where there is an advantage of a springe river or rivelet from whence the land may be with any art watered, which wilbe of mighty advantage in planting some commodityes especially vynes: which is conceaved wilbe most profitable, an aker in the Camaryes producing £60. per ann: besides the duty thereof is greate heare, of which we are free.

3. If the people that plant are not or shall not be willing to pay the Quit rent of  $\frac{1}{2}$  penny per acre presently you may give them two 3: 4: or 5: yeares for the convenience of there payments.

4. If those men which have purchased shall for the better moddelling and securing the plantations parte with there Interest bought of the Indians which they must doe the next possessor ought to pay him what he leyd out with some small advantage for his disburse, and if the party in possession have cleaned and planted (or either) more than his proportion of Grownd in bredth he ought to be compounded with for his charge of which the Governor and Councill to be Judge.

5. The Governor or Governors and Councill to give warrants, which are before delivery to be entred for the proportions of lande to be leyed out according to the proposalls and in manner as above (if you are pleased with the way) to the Surveyor, the Surveyor haveing run out the land to certifie to the Secretary the quantity leyed out to and for each person with the bounds thereof and on what poynt it lyes with a small plot of the same, this Certificate to bee recorded by the Secrytary in a booke to be kept for the purpose, and then the Secrytary to certifie what the Surveyor hath done to the Governor or Governors and Councill and that being done the Governor to make a Graunte to be drawne by the Secrytary and to be past under a seale that we shall send with his hand to it, to the partye and his heires for eaver for whome the land is leyed out under the quit rent of one  $\frac{1}{2}$  penny per acre to commence when you shall direct not exceeding 5. yeares from the feast of all Saints next.

6. We propose that if you cannot find some other way to support the Governor out of the thing itselfe, that he have the sole trade of fires for 3. yeares, and if he conceave 3 yeares to little time for his continuance in the Government in regard the first settlement wilbe the brunt and difficulty of the business, you may assure him that we shall choose him againe unless his misbehaviowr obstruct it.

Wee doe likewise propose that the Secrytary draw all the Grants of land, and that some fee be established for that and for recording, certifieing and searching of records and coppies of them for his mayntenance.

Likewise that some Fee be established for the surveyor by the acre or day when hee surveyes for his support.

A LETTER TO SIR WILLIAM BERKELEY.

COCKE PITT this 8. day of Sept<sup>r</sup> 1663.

SIR,

Since you left us we have indeavoured to procure and at lenkth have obtainned his Majestie's Charter for the province of Carrolina. A copy of which Charter and unto which we refer ourselves, we doe hearewith send you since the sealeing whereof there started a title under a pattent graunted in the 5th yeare of Kinge Charles the 2<sup>d</sup> to Sir Robert Heath under which there hath beene a Clayme by the Duke of Norfolkes

Agents and another by Sir Ric: Greenefields heires: but all there that shall plant notwithstanding that pattent, are by an Act of Kinge and Councill secured against that pattent: and that pattent by Kinge and Councill made Null and ordered to be made soe by the Kinge's Anthurney in the Courts of Law a copy of which order we hearewith send you, soe that noe person need not scruple planting under our pattent besides we have many more advantages then is in the other to incourage the undertakers, we are informed that there are some people setled on the north east parte of the river Chowan and that others have inclynations to plant there, as alsoe on the Larboard side entring of the same river soe that we hold it convenient that a Governor be forthwith appoynted for that Collony, and for that end we have by Captain Whittey sent you a power to constitute and appoynt one or two Governors and Councelles and other Officers unto which power we referr ourselves: we haveing ouely reserved the nomination of a surveyor and seecrytary: as officers that wilbe fitt to take care of your and our Interest, the one by faithfully leying out all lande the other by justly recording the same, the surveyor by name Monsiear Lepreyrie whoe we conceave will goe in this ship if not in the next he is recomended by Sir George Carteret to be able that way and a good Injenear for the making of fortifications.

The seecrytary is one M<sup>r</sup> Richard Cobthrop recomended to us by my Lord John Berkeley, he hath the repute of an honest injeinous and stout man: he promiseth to be ready to goe hence within a moneth we shall hasten him to you.

Wee doe likewayes send you proposealls to all that will plant, which we prepared upon receipt of a paper from some new England men that desired to setle neare Cape Faire, in which our condisentions are as low as it is possible for us to desend, this was not intended for your merridian, where we hope to find more fassill people, whoe by your Interest may setle upon better tearmes for us, which we leave to your management which our opinion that you grante as much as is possible rather then deter any from planting there, by our instructions and proposealls you will see what proportions of lande we intend for each master and sarvant and in what manner to be allotted, but we understand that the people that are there have bought great tracts of land from the Indians, which if they shall injoye will weaken the plantation.

1. First because those persons will in probobillity keepe all that land to themselves, and soe make the neighbowrhood of others remote from there assistance in case of danger.

2. If any new Commers would settle neare there habitations they will not peradventure admitt it without purchasing and possibly upon hard termes which will discourage people from planting; wherefore it is our resolution and desire that you persnade and compell those persons to be sattisfyed with such proportions as we allot to others which wilbe more then any such number of men, to and for whome these proportions are to be given, cann manage and therefore enough: more will but scatter the people and render them lyable to be easily destroyed by any enymyes soe that the fixing the way that our Instructions mentions wilbe the best course of setting us we conceive, however we doe leave it to you that are upon the place and cann best judge; desiring you to keepe this Letter and our Instructions and proposealls private to your selfe; the reason of giving you power to settle two Governors that is of each side of the river one, is because some persons that are for liberty of Contience may desire a Governor of there owne proposing, which those of the other side of the river may not so well like, and our designe being to incorage those people to plant abroad and to stocke well those parts with planters: inciteth us to comply alwayse and with all sorts of persons, as farr as possibly we cann, you wilbe best able to judge when you heare all partyes and therefore referr the thing wholly to you, takeing your design into consideration. Wee have granted to Sir Jno. Colleton the Island called by some Carelyle Island lyeing neare Roanoake and Chowan river: he will leave it with you to take a parte with him if you please, soe that you may order possession to be given of the same to his assignes; inclosed is a Coppy of his Graunte; Although my Lord Chancellors my Lord Berkeleyes and my Lord Ashlyes hands be not to the power and papers we send you, the reason whereof is because they are not in towne, yet doe they consent to what we doe: soe that you may act without danger or scruple.

The entrance to Chowan river is difficult and water but for small vessels: but we understand that there is an Entrance, boald and deepe water in the Lattitude of 34. which is neare the rivers called the Newse and Pamplycoc which we conceive may be best discovered from your parts in order to which we desire you to procure at fraught or other wayse some small vessell that draws little water with a boald boat to make that discovery and some others into the sownd, through which sownd big greate ships may peradventure come to Chowan and give us admittance into the other brave rivers that lye in the sownd and whylst they are abroad, they may looke into Charles river a very little to the southward of Cape Faire, and give us an account of what is there: this if it may be done with little troble and expence of time; the charge you shall be at we shall each man upon notice pay our shares: some moneys we are in disburse for you heare: which may be allowed out of what you disburse there; this worke we hold necessary to be done, that the Kinge may see that wee sleepe not with his grant but are promoting his service and his subjects profit; by Captain Whitteyes relation you may easily pass by land and river from your Government to Chowan river and ryde but 25 myles by land which makes us presume earnestly to intreat you to make a jorney theither whereby you may upon your owne knowledge give us your opinion of it: and direct such discoveries to be made up the river as you shall see fitt: which and all other things hearein and in our Instructions contayned we committ to your consideration and care and remayne

September this 9th 1663.

Sir,

We have of late sent you two Letters with the Cappy of our Charter for Carrolina and our declaration and proposealls touching the settlement thereof, by which letters we desired you to imploy your indeavours and Interests to persnade such persons of your Island that have inclynations to plant in any of those parts to be satisfied with the Meth-hood we have proposed from the substance whereof we cannot recede.

Since those our Letters above mentioned we have received yours of the 12th August with the proposalls and desires of severall Gentlemen of Barbados, whoe seeme to have thought of setling some parts of Carrolina to which desires of theirs, wee inclosed send you our answer upon which and our declaration you may please to treat with them and make some agreement if you can keeping still to the substance of our proposalls; but if other words or other wayes of frameing the Government will please them better without lesning those powers and the rent we have reserved, or giving away the royalties and Fellows goods which is by the Kinge in our Charter granted to us, you may close with them; and if they shall desire 7. yeares time, for haveing the proportions of lands mentioned in our Declaration you may grant it; and if the gratifying of some of the Cheefe with one, two or 300 Acres of land a man extorrdinary will forward the worke you may promise it, and it shalbe given them: but let that be as remote as you can from the river they settle upon whereby the strenkth of the Collony may be kept together according to the Meth-hood, in our instructions for the lyeing out of each mans land; if you conclude with the undertakers, you may please to make choyse of a Surveyor and Secrytary in our behalfs which Officers wee choose for noe other end but that wee may from them have an account of what passeth there and that Justice may be done betweene the planter and ourselves: we intend they shalbe subject to the Government and upon just complaint to us be removed and by the Government be suspended if there be cause untill we have heard the matter.

We further desire you to give us notice whoe wilbe the fittest man for the Government and whoe to be of his Councill, and if it shalbe thought fitt that the first Governor shalbe continewd five yeares you may consent to it; for his mayntenance the people are to find some way, wee have a Setlement begann upon the river Chowan in the lattitude of 35 or thereabouts to which place we have ordered a governor to be sent from Virginia, and have proposed for his support the fur trade or such a parte of it as may be sufficient; untill the people shalbe able to provide other ways for him if some such thing may be found out where your people intend to sit downe, it may incenrrage, we wish the place may be neare porte Royall; If any argument shalbe made by the undertakers concerneing the charge of discovery it wilbe answered with what we have done in order thereunto from Virginia before we did know that they were about any such thing; we hope by the next to send the Kinges letter to the Governors for the promotion of this setlement.

We conceave that the planting of Carrolina wilbe of greate advantage to the Kinge and his people particularly to the planters in Barbadoes and the Carribbia Islands in regard it will divert the further rayseing of sugar workes planting ginger cotton, indicoe and Tobacco of which commodyties enough are already made to supply all markets and more will in probabillity impoverish the planters of them, by lowring the prices to a rate by which they will not be able to subsist.

2<sup>dly</sup> in regard the land in Carrolina will produce wines of all sorts silks, reasons of all sorts, currants figs, ollives, oyle, capers and tobacco as good as that of Virrgines as we are informed, all which commodyties are much easier (especialy in poynt of charge) produced then Sugar and are commodyties that are not yet planted in the King's Dominions but when they shalbe considerably it will give a great imployment to our navigation and keepe and increase the welth of his Majestie and subjects in his dominions; there motives we hope will incurrage by the helpe of your care and judgment in the well management of this affaire, by which you will oblige, tences whatsoever but rather to further the good and speedy settlement thereof: we have given power and direction to Coll: Tho: Modyford and Mr Peter Colleton to treat and agree with you concerning the promises, not receding from the substance of our Declaration whose agreement we shall ratifie so rest

REPORT OF COMMISSIONERS SENT FROM BARBADOES TO EXPLORE THE RIVER CAPE FEAR, IN 1663.

[REPRINTED FROM LAWSON'S HISTORY OF NORTH CAROLINA, P. 113.]

From Tuesday, the 29th of September, to Friday, the 2<sup>d</sup> of October, we ranged along the shore from lat. 32 deg. 20 min. to lat. 33 deg. 11 min., but could discern no entrance for our ship, after we had passed to the northward of 32 deg. 40 min. On Saturday, October 3, a violent storm overtook us, the wind between north and east; which easterly winds and foul weather continued till Monday the 12th; by reasons of which storms and foul weather we were forced to get off to sea, to secure ourselves and ship, and were driven by the rapidity of a strong current to Cape Hatteras, in lat. 35 deg. 30 min. On Monday the 12th, afore-said, we came to an anchor in seven fathoms at Cape Fair Road, and took the meridian altitude of the sun, and were in lat. 33 deg. 43 min., the wind still continuing easterly, and foul weather till Thursday the 15th; and on Friday the 16th, the wind being at N. W., we weighed and sailed up Cape Fair River some four or five leagues, and came to an anchor in six or seven fathom, at which time several Indians came on board, and brought us great store of fresh fish, large mullets, young bass, shads, and several other sorts of very good, well-tasted fish. On Saturday the 17th, we went down to the Cape to see the English cattle, but could not find them, though we rounded the Cape. And having an Indian guide with us, here we rode till October 24th. The wind being against us, we could not go up the river with our ship; but went on shore and viewed the land of those quarters.

On Saturday we weighed, and sailed up the river some four leagues or thereabouts.

Sunday the 25th we weighed again, and rowed up the river, it being calm, and got up some fourteen leagues from the harbor's mouth, where we moored our ship.

On Monday, October 26th, we went down with the yawl to Necoes, an Indian plantation, and viewed the land there.

On Tuesday the 27th; we rowed up the main river with our long boat and twelve men, some ten leagues or thereabouts.

On Wednesday the 28th, we rowed up about eight or ten leagues more.

Thursday the 29th was foul weather, with much rain and wind, which forced us to make huts and lie still.

Friday the 30th we proceeded up the main river seven or eight leagues.

Saturday the 31st, we got up three or four leagues more, and came to a tree that lay across the river; but because our provisions we almost spent, we proceeded no further, but returned downward before night; and on Monday, the 2<sup>d</sup> of November, we came aboard our ship.

Tuesday the 3<sup>d</sup> we lay still to refresh ourselves.

On Wednesday the 4th, we went five or six leagues up the river to search a branch that run out of the main river toward the northwest. In which we went up five or six leagues; but not liking the land, returned on board that night about midnight, and called that place Swampy Branch.

Thursday, November 5th, we stayed aboard.

On Friday the 6th, we went up Green's River, the mouth of it being against the place at which rode our ship.

On Saturday the 7th, we proceeded up the said river, some fourteen or fifteen leagues in all, and found it ended in several small branches. The land, for the most part, being marshy and swamps, we returned towards our ship, and got aboard it in the night.

Sunday, November the 8th, we lay still; and on Monday the 9th went again up the main river, being well stocked with provisions and all things necessary, and proceeded upward till Thursday noon, the 12th, at which time we came to a place where were two islands in the middle of the river; and by reason of the crookedness of the river at that place, several trees lay across both branches, which stopped the passage of each branch, so that we could proceed no further with our boat; but went up the river side by land some three or four miles, and found the river wider and wider. So we returned, leaving it as far as we could see up, a long reach running N. E., we judging ourselves near fifty leagues north from the river's mouth.

We saw mulberry-trees, multitudes of grape-vines, and some grapes, which we eat of. We found a very large and good tract of land on the N. W. side of the river, thin of timber, except here and there a very great oak, and full of grass, commonly as high as a mans middle, and in many places to his shoulders, where we saw many deer and turkeys; one deer having very large horns and great body, therefore called it Stag-Park.

It being a very pleasant and delightful place, we travelled in it several miles, but saw no end thereof. So we returned to our boat, and proceeded down the river, and came to another place, some twenty-five leagues from the river's mouth on the same side, where we found a place no less delightful than the former; and, as far as we could judge, both tracts came into one. This lower place we called Rocky Point, because we found many rocks and stones of several sizes upon the land, which is not common. We sent our boat down the river before us, ourselves travelling by land many miles. Indeed we were so much taken with the pleasantness of the country, that we travelled into the woods too far to recover our boat and company that night.

The next day, being Sunday, we got to our boat; and on Monday, the 16th of November, proceeded down to a place on the east side of the river, some twenty-three leagues from the harbor's mouth, which we called Turkey Quarters, because we killed several turkeys thereabouts. We viewed the land there and found some tracts of good ground, and high, facing upon the river about one mile inward; but backward, some two miles, all pine land, but good pasture-ground.

We returned to our boat and proceeded down some two or three leagues, where we had formerly viewed, and found it a tract of as good land as any we have seen, and had as good timber on it. The banks on the river being high, therefore we called it High Land Point.

Having viewed that we proceeded down the river going on shore in several places on both sides, it being generally large marshes, and many of them dry, that they may more fitly be called meadows. The woodland against them is, for the most part, pine, and in some places as barren as ever we saw land, but in other places good pasture ground.

On Tuesday, November the 17th we got aboard our ship, riding against the mouth of Green's River, where our men were providing wood, and fitting the ship for sea. In the interim we took a view of the country on both sides of the river there, finding some good land, but more bad, and the best not comparable to that above.

Friday the 20th was foul weather; yet in the afternoon we weighed went down the river about two leagues, and came to an anchor against the mouth of Hilton's River, and took a view of the land there on both sides which appeared to us much like that at Green's River.

Monday the 23<sup>d</sup>, we went with our long-boat, well victualled and manned, up Hilton's River; and when we came three leagues or thereabouts up the same, we found this and Green's River to come into one, and so continued for four or five leagues, which makes a great island betwixt them. We proceeded still up the river till they parted again; keeping up Hilton's River, on the larboard side, and followed the said river five or six leagues further, where we found another large branch of Green's River to come into Hilton's which makes another great island. On the starboard side going up, we proceeded still up the river, some four leagues, and returned, taking a view of the land on both sides, and then judged ourselves to be from our ship some eighteen leagues W. and by N.

Proceeding down the river two or three leagues further, we came to a place where there were nine or ten canoes all together. We went ashore there and found several Indians, but most of them were the same which had made peace with us before. We stayed very little at that place but went directly down the river, and came to our ship before day.

Thursday the 26th of November the wind being at south we could not go down to the river's mouth; but on Friday the 27th we weighed at the mouth of Hilton's River, and got down a league towards the harbor's mouth.

On Sunday the 29th we got down to Crane Island, which is four leagues or thereabouts above the entrance of the harbor's mouth. On Tuesday the 1st of December, we made a purchase of the river and land of Cape Fair, of Wat Coosa, and such other Indians as appeared to us to be the chief of those parts. They brought us store of fresh fish aboard, as mullets, shads, and other sorts, very good.

Whereas there was a writing left in a post, at the point of Cape Fair River, by those New England men that left cattle with the Indians there, the contents whereof tended not only to the disparagement of the land about the said river, but also to the great discouragement of all such as should hereafter come into those parts to settle. In answer to that scandalous writing, we, whose names are underwritten, do affirm, that we have seen, faeing both sides of the river and branches of Cape Fair afore-said, as good land and as well timbered as any we have seen in any other part of the world, sufficient to accommodate thousands of our English nation, and lying commodiously by the said river's side. On Friday the 4th of December, the wind being fair, we put out to sea, bound for Barbadoes; and on the 6th of February, 1663-4, came to an anchor in Carlisle Bay—it having pleased God, after several apparent dangers both by sea and land, to bring us all in safety to our long wished for and much desired port, to render an account of our discovery, the verity of which we do assert.

3. For encouragement of Planters in the said Colonies to apply themselves to the Planting other Commodities which may be of more benefit than Tobacco, his Ma<sup>ty</sup> would be pleased to permit that all the Hemp, Pitch and Tarr of the growth, Production or manufacture of Virginia and Maryland, which should be brought into this Kingdome, for the space of 5 years from the date hereof might be Custome free.

Which report being read at the Board his Ma<sup>ty</sup> present in Conneill, and concurring in all particulars with y<sup>e</sup> Lords of the said Committee did order that there should be noe cessa<sup>on</sup>, stint, or limitation imposed on the planting tobacco in Virginia, or Maryland, nor any time limited for ships to come from either of those Planta<sup>cons</sup>, but every trader thither to be free to return thence at his own time, and as his occasions should serve, and his Ma<sup>ty</sup> of his Princely grace and favour being desirous to give all encouragement to the Planters of both Colonies, did direct that the Right Hon<sup>ble</sup> the Earl of Southampton Lord High Treasurer of England, and Lord Ashley Chancellor, and under Treasurer of the Exchequer, should give directions to the officers, and farmers of his Majesties Customes for y<sup>e</sup> time being to permitt, and suffer all the hemp, Pitch and Tarr, of the growth, production and Manufacture of the said Planta<sup>cons</sup> of Virginia and Maryland, that shall be brought into the Kingdome during the space of five years from the date hereof to be freely imported, and unladed without demanding or receiveing any Custome, or Imposition for the same. Provided that Care be taken by his Ma<sup>ties</sup> officers that under pretence hereof his Majesty be not defrauded of his Dues and Customes, on any Pitch, Hemp or Tarr, which is not of the growth, Production, or Manufacture of these Planta<sup>cons</sup>.

Honerd Sir

I understand by M<sup>r</sup> Drummond and M<sup>r</sup> Carterett that you and the rest of the Right Honorable the Lords Proprietors of the Province of Carolina have appointed me to be Surveyor for your Countie of Albemarle Wherein ("Pray be pleased to assure your Lordships") I will endeavour to serve you faithfully, and to the uttermost of my Power promote your Interest. And though I know it befits not me to dispute your comands but rather to operate them Cœq̃ Obedientia yet (by your Honors permission) I cannot omit to performe another part of my dntie (so I am though unworthy) one of the counsell here to give you my opinion concerning some passages in the Instructions your Honore sent us. First for the bounds of the Countie of Albemarle fortie miles square will not comprehend the Inhabitants there already seated. And sixteen hundred square miles may be laid out by runing only on the Verges of the Rivers and Creekes where generally men seat and where (for the most part) the plantable land lies so disadvantageous to your Honores Interest, and the Inhabitants Welfare; that no reasonable line of communication will be able to mite them either for defence or Traffick. So that I conceive it will be most comodious to bound this Governmt. On the south side with the North end of Croatan Island Thence west to Morattuck, Including all the Branches thereof, Thence North as far as your Patent extends Then East to the Sea; And to prohibit all Persons for some time from seating beyond there bounds as also not yet to seat up Morattuck: Which bounds though they are greater than your Honors Instructions allow for Albemarle countie yet are they not more than will consist well with one Governmt. It being (in my opinion) very inconvenient to erect divers Governments to have Passage through one-anothers Territories or Inletts: as Maryland having no Inlet for shipping but through the Capes of Virginia. May (if any difference shall happen between those two Governments) in a high measure feel the Inconvenience And the Inhabitants of all the streams or rivers within this Government must be supplied with Commodities from such Vessells as shall arrive through Roanokea Inlett which for ought we can perceive must always be of very small burthen. for although Capt Whitties vessel this winter at her coming in found fiftene feete water, yet her going out she had but eleaven feete and though she drew not eight foote water, struck twice or thrice notwithstanding they had Beatoned the Chanell and went out in the best of it, at full sea; so uncertaine are all those Inletts. There is another Inlett at Wococock or Wococon which hereafter may serve for an other Government betweene this and Cape Feare, if to your Honore it shall seem Convenient.

Next the Proportion of Land you have allotted with the Rent, and conditione are by most People not well resented and the very Rumor of them dis-courages many who had intentions to have removed from Virginia hether: Whilst my Lord Baltamore allowed to every Persons imported but fiftie acres; Maryland for many yeares had scarce fiftie families, though there Rent was rather easier then in Virginia; but when he allotted one hundred Acres for a Person, it soone began to People, and when he found them begin to increase, he brought it to fiftie a head againe So if your Lordships please to give large Incouragement for some time till the country be more fully Peopled, your Honore may contract for the future upon what condition you please But for the Present, To thinke that any men will remove from Virginia upon harder Conditione then they can live there will prove (I feare) a vaine Imagination, It bein Land only that they come for.

I shall give you Sr Francis Bacons owne words in his Essay of Plantation “Planting of Counties is like planting of Woods, for you must make account to loose almost Twenty yeares Profit and expect your recompense in the end: for the Principall thing that hath bin the destruction of most Plantations hath bin the hastee drawing of Profit in the first yeares.”

And it is my Opinion, (which I submit to better Judgements) that it will for some time conduce more to your Lordshipe Profit to permit men to take up what tracts of Land they please at an easie rate, then to stint them to small proportions at a great rent, Provided it be according to the custome of Virginia which is fifty Pole by the river side, and one mile into the woods for every hundred acres; there being no man that will have any great desire to pay Rent (though but a farthing an acre) for more land than he hopes to gaine by. Rich men (which Albemarle stands in much need of) may perhaps take up great Tracts; but then they will endeavour to procure Tenants to helpe towards the payment of their Rent, and will at their owne charge build howseing (which poore men cannot compasse) to invite them: Besides to have some men of greater possessions in Land then others, will conduce more to the well being and good Governement of the Place than any Levelling Paritie To reduce Planters into Townes, is here almost impossible; when the country is Peopled and comerce increased it may more easily be effected, by appoynting Ports and Marketts whether not only Merchants but all Tradesmen and Artificers will resort for habitation, and in short time lay the foundation to superstructures of Townes and Citties; Alwayes Provided there be a course taken for proeuring a coine with out which no Towne nor Markitt can well subsist: And this can no way be effected but by the ballance of Trade; And therefore I doe most highly applande your Lordshipe designe of making Wine in this Country: for I am confident that if the value of the drinke only within Twenty yeares past brought into Virginia had been Imported in Silver; Virginia would have had more money for the number of her English Inhabitants then most if not the most opulent countrys have in Europe. But Sr I begin now to go beyond my last If my zeale to this Place (which I have many years endeavoured and encouraged to seate) transports me to this kind of building Castles in the Aire, I hope your Goodnesse will be pleased to exense me since I perceive there are some well willers to this Place in England doe the like: I shall therefore conclude with this humble request that you will be pleased to entertain thes Truth for a Maxim

Those that live upon a Place are best able to Judge of that Place Therefore the Petition of the Generall Assemblie that was here convened will deserve your Honors serious consideration; of which with theire other proceedings likewise, I doubt not but our Noble Governor will give you a true Accompt, he being by the Assembly therewith intrusted And if in any thing (besides the Publique) I can serve your Peticular Interest Command

Your most faithfull and most humble servant

Colleton, and Sir William Berkeley, their heirs and assigns forever; to be holden of us, our heirs and successors, as of our manor of East Greenwich, in Kent, in free and common socage, and not in capite, or by knight's service: yielding and paying, yearly, to us, our heirs and successors, for the same, the fourth part of all gold and silver ore, which, within the limits hereby granted, shall, from time to time, happen to be found, over and besides the yearly rent of twenty marks, and the fourth part of the gold and silver ore, in and by the said written letters patent reserved and payable.

And that the province or territory hereby granted and described, may be dignified with as large tythes and privileges, as any other parts of our dominions and territories in that region: Know ye, That we, of our further grace, certain knowledge, and mere motion, have thought fit to annex the same tract of ground or territory unto the same province of Carolina; and out of the fulness of our royal power and prerogative, we do, for us, our heirs and successors, annex and unite the same to the said province of Carolina.

And forasmuch as we have made and ordained the aforesaid Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Earl of Craven, John Lord Berkeley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir John Colleton, and Sir William Berkeley, their heirs and assigns, the true lords and proprietors of all the province or territory aforesaid; Know ye therefore moreover, That we, reposing especial trust and confidence in their fidelity, wisdom, justice, and provident circumspection, for us, our heirs and successors, do grant full and absolute power, by virtue of these presents, to them the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Earl of Craven, John Lord Berkeley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir John Colleton, and Sir William Berkeley, their heirs and assigns, for the good and happy government of the said whole province or territory, full power and authority, to erect, constitute, and make several counties, baronies, and colonies, of and within the said provinces, territories, lands, and hereditaments, in and by the said letters patent, granted, or mentioned to be granted, as aforesaid, with several and distinct jurisdictions, powers, liberties, and privileges: and also, to ordain, make, and enact, and under their seals, to publish any laws and constitutions whatsoever, either appertaining to the public state of the whole province or territory, or of any distinct or particular county, barony, or colony, or of or within the same, or to the private utility of particular persons, according to their best directions, by and with the advice, assent and approbation, of the freemen of the said province or territory, or of the freemen of the county, barony, or colony, for which such law or constitution shall be made, or the greater part of them, or of their delegates or deputies, whom, for enacting of the said laws, when, and as often as need shall require, we will, that the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Earl of Craven, John Lord Berkeley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir John Colleton, and Sir William Berkeley, and their heirs or assigns, shall, from time to time, assemble in such manner and form as to them shall seem best; and the same laws duly to execute, upon all people within the said province or territory, county, barony, or colony, or the limits thereof, for the time being, which shall be constituted, under the power and government of them or any of them, either sailing towards the said province, or territory of Carolina, or returning from thence towards England, or any other of our or foreign dominions, by imposition of penalties, imprisonment, or any other punishment; yea, if it shall be needful, and the quality of the offence require it, by taking away member and life, either by them the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Earl of Craven, John Lord Berkeley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir John Colleton, and Sir William Berkeley, and their heirs or by them, or their deputies, lieutenants, judges, justices, magistrates, or officers, whatsoever, as well within the said province, as at sea, in such manner and form as unto the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Earl of Craven, John Lord Berkeley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir John Colleton, and Sir William Berkeley, and their heirs, shall seem most convenient: and also, to remit, release, pardon, and abolish, whether before judgment or after, all crimes and offences whatsoever against the said laws; and to do all and every thing and things, which, unto the complete establishment of justice, unto courts, sessions, and forms of judicature, and manners of proceeding therein, do belong, although in these presents express mention is not made thereof; and by judges to him or them delegated, to award process, hold pleas, and determine, in all the said courts and places of judicature, all actions, suits, and causes whatsoever, as well criminal as civil, real, mixt, personal, or of any other kind or nature whatsoever: which laws so as aforesaid to be published, our pleasure is, and we do enjoin, require, and command, shall be absolutely firm and available in law; and that all the liege people of us, our heirs and successors, within the said province or territory, do observe and keep the same inviolably in those parts, so far as they concern them, under the pains and penalties therein expressed, or to be expressed: Provided nev- ertheless, That the said laws be consonant to reason, and as near as may be conveniently, agreeable to the laws and customs of this our realm of England.

And because such assemblies of freeholders cannot be so suddenly called as there may be occasion to require the same, we do therefore, by these presents, give and grant unto the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Earl of Craven, John Lord Berkeley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir John Colleton, and Sir William Berkeley, their heirs and assigns, by themselves, or their magistrates, in that behalf lawfully authorised, full power and authority, from time to time, to make and ordain fit and wholesome orders and ordinances within the province or territory aforesaid, or any county, barony, or province, within the same, to be kept and observed, as well for the keeping of the peace, as for the better government of the people there abiding, and to publish the same to all whom it may concern: which ordinances we do, by these presents, straitly charge and command to be inviolably observed within the same province, counties, territories, baronies and provinces, under the penalties therein expressed; so as such ordinances be reasonable, and not repugnant or contrary, but as near as may be, agreeable to the laws and statutes of this our kingdom of England; and so as the same ordinances do not extend to the binding, charging, or taking away the right or interest of any person or persons, in their freehold, goods, or chattels, whatsoever.

And to the end the said province or territory may be the more happily increased, by the multitude of people resorting thither, and may likewise be the more strongly defended from the incursions of savages, and other enemies, pirates and robbers; therefore, we, for us, our heirs and successors, do give and grant, by these presents, full power, license and liberty, unto all the liege people of us, our heirs and successors, in our kingdom of England, and elsewhere, within any other our dominions, islands, colonies, or plantations, (excepting those who shall be especially forbidden) to transport themselves and families into the said province or territory, with convenient shipping and fitting provision; and there to settle themselves, dwell, and inhabit: any law, act, statute, ordinance, or other thing, to the contrary, notwithstanding.

And we will also, and of our especial grace, for us, our heirs and successors, do straitly enjoin, ordain, constitute, and command, that the said province and territory shall be of our allegiance; and that all and singular the subjects and liege people of us, our heirs and successors, transported or to be transported into the said province, and the children of them, and such as shall descend from them there born, or hereafter to be born, be, and shall be denizens and lieges of us, our heirs and successors, of this our kingdom of England, and be in all things, held, treated and reputed, as the liege, faithful people of us, our heirs and successors, born within this our said kingdom, or any other of our dominions; and may inherit or otherwise purchase and receive, take, hold, buy and possess, any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, within the said places, and them may occupy and enjoy, sell, alien, and bequeath; as likewise, all liberties, franchises, and privileges, of this our kingdom, and of other our dominions aforesaid, may freely and quietly have, possess, and enjoy, as our liege people, born within the same, without the molestation, vexation, trouble, or grievance, of us, our heirs and successors: any act, statute, ordinance, or provision, to the contrary notwithstanding.

And furthermore, that our subjects of this our said kingdom of England, and other our dominions, may be the rather encouraged to undertake this expedition, with ready and cheerful means; Know ye, that we of our especial grace, certain knowledge, and mere motion, do give and grant, by virtue of these presents, as well to the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Earl of Craven, John Lord Berkeley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir John Colleton, and Sir William Berkeley, and their heirs, as unto all others as shall, from time to time, repair unto the said province or territory, with a purpose to inhabit there, or to trade with the natives thereof; full liberty and license, to lade and freight, in every port whatsoever, of us, our heirs and successors, and into the said province of Carolina, by them, their servants and assigns, to transport all and singular their goods, wares and merchandises; as likewise all sorts of grain whatsoever, and any other thing whatsoever, necessary for their food and clothing, not prohibited by the laws and statutes of our kingdom and dominions, to be carried out of the same, without any let or molestation of us, our heirs and successors, or of any other our officers or ministers whatsoever; saving also unto us, our heirs and successors, the customs, and other duties and payments, due for the said wares and merchandises, according to the several rates of the places from whence the same shall be transported.

We will also, and by these presents, for us, our heirs and successors, do give and grant license by this our charter, unto the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Earl of Craven, John Lord Berkeley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir John Colleton, and Sir William Berkeley, and their heirs and assigns, and to all the inhabitants and dwellers in the province or territory aforesaid, both present and to come, full power and absolute authority, to import or unlade, by themselves or their servants, factors, or assigns, all merchandises and goods whatsoever that shall arise of the fruits and commodities of the said province or territory, either by land or sea, into any the ports of us, our heirs and successors, in our kingdom of England, Scotland, or Ireland, or otherwise to dispose of the said goods in the said ports; and, if need be, within one year next after the unloading, to lade the said merchandises and goods again into the same or other ships; and to export the same into any other countries, either of our dominions or foreign, being in amity with us, our heirs and successors, so as they pay such customs, subsidies and other duties, for the same, to us, our heirs and successors, as the rest of our subjects of this our kingdom, for the time being, shall be bound to pay; beyond which, we will not, that the inhabitants of the said province or territory shall be any ways charged: Provided, nevertheless, and our will and pleasure is, and we have further, for the considerations aforesaid, of our especial grace, certain knowledge, and mere motion, given and granted, and by these presents, for us, our heirs and successors, do give and grant unto the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Earl of Craven, John Lord Berkeley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir John Colleton, and Sir William Berkeley, their heirs and assigns, full and free license, power and authority, at any time or times, from and after the feast of St. Michael the Archangel, which shall be in the year of our Lord Christ one thousand six hundred and sixty-seven, as well to import and bring into any of our dominions, from the said province of Carolina, or any part thereof, the several goods hereinafter mentioned; that is to say, silks, wines, raisins, capers, wax, almonds, oil, olives, without paying or answering to us, our heirs and successors, any custom, impost, or other duty, for or in respect thereof, for and during the term and space of seven years, to commence and be accounted from and after the importation of four tons of any of the said goods, in any one bottom, ship or vessel, from the said province or territory, into any of our dominions; as also, to export and carry out of any of our dominions, into the said province or territory, custom free, all sorts of tools which shall be useful or necessary for the planters there, in the accommodation and improvement of the premises: any thing before in these presents contained, or any law, act, statute, prohibition, or other matter or thing, heretofore had, made, enacted, or provided, in any wise notwithstanding.

And furthermore, of our more ample and especial grace, certain knowledge, and mere motion, we do, for us, our heirs and successors, grant unto the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Earl of Craven, John Lord Berkeley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir John Colleton, and Sir William Berkeley, their heirs and assigns, full and absolute power and authority, to make, erect, and constitute, within the said province or territory, and the isles and islets aforesaid, such and so many sea-ports, harbors, creeks, and other places, for discharge and unloading of goods and merchandises, out of ships, boats and other vessels, and for lading of them, in such and so many places, with such jurisdictions, and privileges and franchises, unto the said ports belonging, as to them shall seem most expedient, and that all and singular the ships, boats and other vessels, which shall come for merchandises and trade into the said province or territory, or shall depart out of the same, shall be laden and unladen at such ports only as shall be erected and constituted by the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Earl of Craven, John Lord Berkeley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir John Colleton, and Sir William Berkeley, their heirs and assigns, and not elsewhere: any use, custom, or thing, to the contrary notwithstanding.

And we do further will, appoint, and ordain, and by these presents, for us, our heirs, and successors, do grant unto the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Earl of Craven, John Lord Berkeley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir John Colleton, and Sir William Berkeley, and their heirs and assigns, that they the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Earl of Craven, John Lord Berkeley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir John Colleton, and Sir William Berkeley, their heirs and assigns, may, from time to time, forever, have and enjoy the customs and subsidies, in the ports, harbors, creeks, and other places within the province aforesaid, payable for the goods, wares and merchandises there laded, or to be laded or unladed; the said customs to be reasonably assessed, upon any occasion, by themselves, and by and with the consent of the free people, or the greater part of them, as aforesaid; to whom we give power, by these presents, for us, our heirs and successors, upon just cause, and in due proportion, to assess and impose the same.

And further, of our especial grace, certain knowledge, and mere motion, we have given, granted and confirmed, and by these presents, for us, our heirs and successors, do give, grant and confirm, unto the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Earl of Craven,

John Lord Berkeley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir John Colleton, and Sir William Berkeley, their heirs and assigns, full and absolute power, license and authority, that they, the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Earl of Craven, John Lord Berkeley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir John Colleton, and Sir William Berkeley, their heirs and assigns, from time to time hereafter, forever, at his and their will and pleasure, may assign, alien, grant, demise, or enfeof, the premises, or any part or parcel thereof, to him or them that shall be willing to purchase the same, and to such person and persons as they shall think fit; to have and to hold to them, the said person or persons, their heirs and assigns, in fee simple, or in fee-tail, or for term of life or lives, or years; to be held of them the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Earl of Craven, John Lord Berkeley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir John Colleton, and Sir William Berkeley, their heirs and assigns, by such rents, services and customs as shall seem fit to them the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Earl of Craven, John Lord Berkeley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir John Colleton, and Sir William Berkeley, their heirs and assigns, and not of us our heirs and successors: and to the same person and persons, and to all and every of them, we do give and grant, by these presents, for us, our heirs and successors, license, authority and power, that such person or persons may have and take the premises, or any part thereof, of the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Earl of Craven, John Lord Berkeley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir John Colleton, and Sir William Berkeley, their heirs and assigns, and the same to hold to themselves, their heirs and assigns, in what estate of inheritance soever, in fee-simple, or fee-tail or otherwise, as to them the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Earl of Craven, John Lord Berkeley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir John Colleton, and Sir William Berkeley, their heirs or assigns, shall seem expedient; the statute in the parliament of Edward, son of King Henry, heretofore King of England, our predecessor, commonly called the statute of quia emptores terrarum, or any other statute, act, ordinance, use, law, custom, or any other matter, cause or thing, heretofore published or provided to the contrary, in any-wise notwithstanding.

And because many persons, born and inhabiting in the said province, for their deserts and services, may expect and be capable of marks of honor and favor, which, in respect of the great distance, cannot be conveniently conferred by us; our will and pleasure therefore is, and we do by these presents, give and grant unto the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Earl of Craven, John Lord Berkeley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir John Colleton, and Sir William Berkeley, and their heirs and assigns, full power and authority, to give and confer unto and upon such of the inhabitants of the said province or territory, as they shall think do or shall merit the same, such marks of favor and titles of honor, as they shall think fit; so as their titles or honors be not the same as are enjoyed by or conferred upon any of the subjects of this our kingdom of England.

And further also, we do, by these presents, for us, our heirs, and successors, give and grant license to the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Earl of Craven, John Lord Berkeley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir John Colleton, and Sir William Berkeley, and their heirs and assigns, full power, liberty and license, to erect, raise and build, within the said province and places aforesaid, or any part or parts thereof, such and so many forts, fortresses, castles, cities, boroughs, towns, villages, and other fortifications whatsoever; and the same, or any of them, to fortify and furnish with ordnance, powder, shot, armour, and all other weapons, ammunition, and habiliments of war, both defensive and offensive, as shall be thought fit and convenient, for the safety and welfare of the said province and places or any part thereof; and the same or any of them, from time to time, as occasion shall require, to dismantle, disfurnish, demolish and pull down: and also to place, constitute and appoint, in or over all or any of the said castles, forts, fortifications, cities, towns, and places aforesaid, governors, deputy-governors, magistrates, sheriffs, and other officers, civil and military, as to them shall seem meet; and to the said cities, boroughs, towns, villages, or any other place or places, within the said province or territory, to grant letters or charters of incorporation, with all liberties, franchises, and privileges, requisite or usual, or to or within this our kingdom of England granted or belonging; and in the same cities, boroughs, towns, and other places, to constitute, erect and appoint such and so many markets, marts, and fairs, as shall, in that behalf, be thought fit and necessary: and further also, to erect and make in the province or territory aforesaid, or any part thereof, so many manors, with such seignories as to them shall seem meet and convenient; and in every of the same manors to have and to hold a court-baron, with all things whatsoever which to a court-baron do belong, and to have and to hold views of frank-pledge and court-leets, for the conservation of the peace and better government of those parts, with such limits, jurisdictions and precincts, as by the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Earl of Craven, John Lord Berkeley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir John Colleton, and Sir William Berkeley, or their heirs shall be appointed for that purpose, with all things whatsoever which to a court-leet, or view of frank-pledge, do belong; the same courts to be holden by stewards, to be deputed and authorised by the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Earl of Craven, John Lord Berkeley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir John Colleton, and Sir William Berkeley, or their heirs, by the lords of the manors and leets, for the time being, when the same shall be erected.

And because that in so remote a country, and situate among so many barbarous nations, the invasions of savages and other enemies, pirates and robbers, may probably be feared; therefore, we have given, and for us, our heirs and successors, do give power by these presents, unto the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Earl of Craven, John Lord Berkeley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir John Colleton, and Sir William Berkeley, their heirs or assigns, by themselves, or their captains, or other officers, to levy, muster and train up all sorts of men, of what condition soever, or wheresoever born, whether in the said province, or elsewhere, for the time being; and to make war, and pursue the enemies aforesaid, as well by sea, as by land; yea, even without the limits of the said province, and, by God's assistance, to vanquish and take them; and being taken, to put them to death, by the law of war, and to save them at their pleasure, and to do all and every other thing, which to the charge and office of a captain-general of an army, hath had the same.

Also, our will and pleasure is, and by this our charter, we do give and grant unto the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Earl of Craven, John Lord Berkeley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir John Colleton, and Sir William Berkeley, their heirs and assigns, full power, liberty and authority, in case of rebellion, tumult, or sedition (if any should happen, which God forbid) either upon the land within the province aforesaid, or upon the main sea, in making a voyage thither, or returning from thence, by him and themselves, their captains, deputies, or officers, to be authorised under his or their seals, for that purpose; to whom also, for us, our heirs and successors, we do give and grant, by these presents, full power and authority, to exercise martial law against any mutinous and seditious persons of these parts; such as shall refuse to submit themselves to their government, or shall refuse to serve in the war, or shall fly to the enemy, or forsake their colors or ensigns, or be loiterers, or stragglers, or otherwise offending against law, custom, or military discipline; as freely and in as ample manner and form, as any captain-general of an army, by virtue of his office, might or hath accustomed to use the same.

And our further pleasure is, and by these presents, for us, our heirs and successors, we do grant unto the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Earl of Craven, John Lord Berkeley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir John Colleton, and Sir William Berkeley, their heirs and assigns, and to the tenants and inhabitants of the said province or territory, both present and to come, and to every of them, that the said province or territory, and the tenants and inhabitants thereof, shall not, from henceforth, be held or reputed any member or part of any colony whatsoever in America, or elsewhere now transported or made, or hereafter to be transported or made; nor shall be depending on, or subject to their government in any thing, but be absolutely separated and divided from the same; and our pleasure is, by these presents, that they be separated, and that they be subject immediately to our crown of England, as depending thereof, forever: and that the inhabitants of the said province or territory, nor any of them, shall, at any time hereafter, be compelled, or compellable, or be any ways subject or liable to appear or answer to any matter, suit, cause or plaint whatsoever, out of the province or territory aforesaid, in any other of our islands, colonies, or dominions in America, or elsewhere, other than in our realm of England, and dominions of Wales.

And because it may happen that some of the people and inhabitants of the said province cannot, in their private opinions, conform to the public exercise of religion, according to the liturgy, forms and ceremonies of the church of England, or take and subscribe the oaths and articles made and established in that behalf; and for that the same, by reason of the remote distances of those places, will, as we hope, be no breach of the unity and conformity established in this nation; our will and pleasure therefore is, and we do, by these presents, for us, our heirs and successors, give and grant unto the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Earl of Craven, John Lord Berkeley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir John Colleton, and Sir William Berkeley, their heirs and assigns, full and free license, liberty and authority, by such ways and means as they shall think fit, to give and grant unto such person and persons, inhabiting and being within the said province or territory, hereby, or by the said recited letters patent mentioned to be granted as aforesaid, or any part thereof, such indulgences and dispensations, in that behalf, for and during such time and times, and with such limitations and restrictions, as they the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Earl of Craven, John Lord Berkeley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir John Colleton, and Sir William Berkeley, their heirs or assigns, shall, in their discretion, think fit and reasonable: and that no person or persons unto whom such liberty shall be given, shall be any way molested, punished, disquieted, or called in question, for any differences in opinion, or practice in matters of religious concerns, who do not actually disturb the civil peace of the province, county or colony, that they shall make their abode in: but all and every such person and persons may, from time to time, and at all times, freely and quietly have and enjoy his and their judgments and consciences, in matters of religion, throughout all the said province or colony, they behaving themselves peaceably, and not using this liberty to licentiousness, nor to the civil injury, or outward disturbance of others; any law, statute or clause, contained or to be contained, usage or custom of our realm of England, to the contrary hereof, in any wise notwithstanding.

And in case it shall happen, that any doubts or questions shall arise, concerning the true sense and understanding of any word, clause, or sentence contained in this our present charter; we will, ordain and command, that in all times, and in all things, such interpretations be made thereof, and allowed in all and every of our courts whatsoever, as lawfully may be adjudged most advantageous and favorable to the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albemarle, William Earl of Craven, John Lord Berkeley, Anthony, Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir John Colleton, and Sir William Berkeley, their heirs and assigns, although express mention, &c.

WITNESS ourself, at Westminster, the thirtieth day of June, in the seventeenth year of our reign.

THE PORT ROYALL DISCOVERY.

The sloop in her comeing home from Virginia loaden with victuall being ready by reason of her extreeme rottennes in her timbers to Sinke was driven on shoare by a storme in the night on Cape looke out (the next head land to the north and Eastward of Cape Feare and about 20 Le: distant her men all saved except two and with many difficulties brought by their boate through the great Sound into Albemarle River neere the Island Roanoake (within this same Province of Carolina, to the English Plantation there—Captain Stanyon in returning from Barbados weakly maned and without any second to himselfe driven to and agen on the seas for many weekes by contrary winds and conquered with care, vexation and watching lost his reason, and after many wild extravagances leapt over board in a frenzye leaveing his small Company and vessell (to the much more quiet and constant though but little more knowing and prudent conduct of a child, who yett assisted by a miraculous providence after many wanderings brought her safe to Charles River in Clarendon her desire port and haven.

I had now a vessell to performe my Southerne Expedition but disfurnished of a Master and none here skilled in navigation to be perswaded to the voyage, least therefore a worke so necessary to promote the settlement of this Province should be poorely left without an attempt, myselfe undertooke the office, though no better capacitated for it then a little reading in the Mathematicks had rendered mee with the helpe of a few observations made whilst a passenger in some late sea voyages to divest their Tedium.

On the 14th June 1666 I entered on my charge neare six months after the date of my Comission (so long had their various accidents detained mee) and on the 16th I left Charles River sayling Westward with a faire gale att East alongst that goodly and bold bay which on her two Capes Feare and Romania as on two hornes procures all dangers of flatts and shoales from her owne more gentle bosome. To make her yett more signall I named her Berkly Bay from the Right Hon<sup>ble</sup> John Lord Berkly and Sir William Berkly two of her noble Lords Proprietors.

I was accompanied by Cap<sup>t</sup> George Cary Lt Samuell Hardy Lt Joseph Woory Ens: Henry Brayne Ens: Richard Abrahall and M<sup>r</sup> Tho: Giles and severall other Inhabitants of the County of Clarendon to the number of 17 besides myselfe (and the shippes company (which alas were but two men and a boy) with me I tooke a small shallope of some three tonns belouging to the Lords Proprietors and appointed by the Lieu<sup>t</sup> Generall for that service in which I placed Ens: Henry Brayne of some Experience in Sea matters and two other men) soe reserving eighteen of all sorts in the biggest vessell whose burden alsoe exceeds scarce fiveteene Tonns.

The 19th in the night it being very clondy and darke and hee att our helme unawares bringing our vessell a Stayes wee lost Company of our Shallope The 22th about 7 a clock in the morning wee made the land and a faire River to Leward of us (haveing beene driven out to sea by a Southwest winde from the 13 to the 21 when a strong easterly gale brought us in with the Shoare againe wee bore up to the River and a great way kept our depth of six and five fathum water without any sign of breakes att length it shoaled, and wee could plainly discern a breach) in the Easterne board. The River when wee first made it bore N. W. by W of us and by this time wee had brought it to N. W b: N: being therefore come into two fath: water and judging ourselves on the breake of the visible Easterne shoalings wee steered more Westerly and presently deepened our Water to three fatham and soe upwards. But the wind being at East and the water Ebbing, if wee had goune more Westerly wee could not have buf'd in wherefore I resolved (noe breath appearing all before mee) to runn in directly with the River which nowe bore N. N. W. and in standing in that course one heeve of the lead wee had butt 11 foot water but the next was two fatham which depth and between that and two fatham and a half continued a great while and as wee approached the Western point of the Entrance it deepened soe that close aboard the point wee found five and six fathum water and took upwards to nine fathum all the way in it was halfe Ebbe att least when wee entered, and I am very much perswaded that if wee had goune soe farre Westerly as till the River had borne North or N. N. E. wee had found a much deeper Channell for though it blew a very fresh gale att East (which here is alongst shore and Somewhat upon the Western Coast, yett wee could not discern any appearance of Flatts att all to the Westward. Being come about foure or five miles within the River I anchored and a Canoa with two Indians came presently aboard mee and told mee that was the Country of Edistoh and that the cheife towne or seate of the Casique was within on the Western shoare somewhat lower downe towards the sea by which relation I guessed this to be the same River that some English in a former discovery mentioned by the name of Grandy (if it be not rather the French Gironde) and only sawe of att sea but entered not. That it might no longer remaine under an meertaine distinction I called it from that the name of my Lt Harry Haven. It lyes about 32.<sup>d</sup> 3.<sup>m</sup> The markes to knowe it by as y<sup>e</sup> same come from Sea are theise, The North East side is a blufe land rounding from the River and stretching East into the Sea hence a ledge of breakers runn out South before the harbours mouth, on which wee borrowed when wee made such Shoale water in our Entrance, the Southwest side makes a sharpe lowe wet point bare of trees, a pretty way from the entrance West and then shews a hummoeke or two of thicke shrubby trees from this point the Coast tends S. W. and then W. S. W. just within the entrance is a shewe of a faire Creeke on the Starboard side and another on the West<sup>c</sup> or larbord side almost opposite from the uper side of the East side Creeke a Marsh Island runing out West and southerly almost crosse the River, edged to the seaward with a banke of oyster shells discernable a good way to sea as the same come from the Northward and perticularly meett with two lowe trees which in the offing and before the oyster banke is discovered seeme as vessells riding within the River. It flows here East and West neere eight fecte perpendicular att spring tides the Woods on each side entring to us seemed to consist most of had oake, the land levell of an habitable height generally with steepe redd banks here and there appearing over the marshes, on which in many places wee could see the feilds of Maiz greenly flourishing. The next day being the 23rd June I went with my boate into a Creek on the East shoare opposite to where the vessell rode a very faire and deepe Creeke or River goeing North and Easterly to appearance a long way being gounne about a mile up I landed and according to my Instructions in presence of my company took a formall possession by turfe and twigg of that whole Country from the Lat: of 36 deg: North to 29<sup>d</sup> South and West to the South Seas by the name of the Province of Carolina For our Sovereaine Lord Charles the Second King of England &c: his heires and successors and to the use of the Right Hon<sup>ble</sup> Edward Earle of Clarendon Geor: Duke of Albemarle, William Lord Craven, John Lord Berkley Anthony Lord Ashley Sir George Carteret Sir William Berkley and Sir John Colleton their heires and Assignes according to the Letters Pattents of our Sovereaine Lord the King. I ranged a little on either side this Creek passed through Severall Feilds of Maiz or Indian Corn, and following the guidance of a small path was brought to some of the Indians Habitations, I found all the land that I passed over whether I went back or amongst the side of the Creeke a rich fatt soyle black mould on the topp and under mixed with a soft redd marle (which and a stiff clay) I after found the most generall foundation of all the land noe swamp, noe sandy land on the outside of the Woods some single scattring Pine trees but of the sort which is called spruce. The rest and the Generallity of the timber being Oake, Maple, Ash, Walnutt Popler Bayes & the trees tall and streight bnt not very large growing closer together than I have seene in any other part of this Province The reason I guesse of their being so slender) They are for the most part a well seized building timber and some fewe wee sawe of oake and maple that would beare three or fowre foot over a very great burthen upon the ground and much of it of such groweths as wee know to be an excellent feeding for cattle and so thiek and high that it made our travelling very tedious. The next day I went some miles up the maine River and finding a Creeke alsoe on the East side which opened some groves of Pine trees to our veiwe, I put in there purposely to see that sort of land and found this if any the Swamps of this Country for this Creeke carried us into low broken Marshes and Islands of these Pine trees lying almost leuell with the water Wee landed on some of them found them firme and dry (though severall dayes and the very night before wee had store of raine) and without any signes of haveing ever beene overflowed yett they are seemingly soe seated as that great store of raine and frequent must necessarily stand in them The Pineſ are all spruce the soyle a fatt black mould with a scarce discernable mixture of sand foundee alsoe either on marle or clay as the other lands and bearing a very great burthen and though on the outside Wee sawe onely pine trees yett being entred the Wood wee found alsoe Oake and severall other timber trees of a very large seize Att a venture wee called those kind of lands pine swamps. But I esteeme them a very profitable tillable ground and some of my Company did after this see an Indian planted feild of this sort which they told mee bore as tall Maiz as any. We rowed along way up this Creeke and besides theise swamps sawe and ranged through very spacious tracts of rich Oake land and yett wee were not past the Oyster bankes and frequent heapes of shells nor the salt water, att my return downe the River I sent some a shoare to range on the West side who did constantly affirme that the lands there were of an equall excellency with the best of those wee had elsewhere viewed and that they beleived itt an impossible Injunction to be putt to march to the end of the tracts being therefore well satisfied with the successe of our discovery hitherto I wayed and stood downe the River intending a short stay att the landing place neerest to the cheife seate of Edistowe whither the Indian had intreated of mee that they might with the lesse trouble come aboard mee to trade. When wee were here a Captain of the Nation named Shadoo (one of them which Hilton had carryed to Barbados) was very earnest with some of our company to goe with him and lye a night at their Towne which hee told us was but a small distance thence I being equally desirous to knowe the forme manner and populousnesse of the place as alsoe what state the Casique held (fame in all theise things preferring this place to all the rest of the Coast and fower of my Company (vizt) L<sup>t</sup> Harvey L<sup>t</sup> Woory M<sup>r</sup> Thomas Giles and M<sup>r</sup> Henry Woodward forwardly offring themselves to the service haveing alsoe some Indians aboard mee who constantly resided there night & day I permitted them to goe with this Shadoo they returned to mee the next morning with great comendations of their Entertainment but especially of the goodnes of the land they marche through and the delightfull seituation of the Towne, telling mee withall that the Cassique himselfe appeared not (pretending Some indisposition but that his state was supplied by a Female who received them with gladnes and courtesey placing my Lt Harvey on the seat by her, their relation gave myselfe a curiosity (they alsoe answering mee that it was not above foure miles off) to goe and see that Towne and takeing with mee Cap<sup>t</sup> George Cary and a file of men I marched thither ward followed by a long traine of Indians of whome some or other alwayes presented himselfe to carry mee on his shoulders over any the branches or Creeks or plashy corners of Marshes in our way. This walk though it tend to the Southward of the West and consequently leads neere alongst the sea coast yett it opened to our view soe excellent a Country both for Wood land and Meadows as gave singular satisfaction to all my Company Wee crossed one Meadow of not lesse then a thousand Aeres all firme good land and as rich a soyll as any clothed with a fine grasse not passing knee deep but very thiek sett and fully adorned with yeallow flowers. A pasture not inferior to any I have seene in England the wood land were all of the same sort both for timber and would with the best of those wee had ranged elsewhere and without alteration or abatement from their goodnes all the way of our march Being entered the Towne wee were conducted into a large house of a circular forme (their generall house of State) right against the entrance was a high seate of sufficient breadth for halfe a dozen persons on which sate the Cassique himselfe (vouchsafeing mee that favour) with his wife on his right hand (shee who had received those whome I had sent the evening before) he was an old man of a large stature and bone. Round the house from each side the throne quite to the entrance were lower benches filled with the whole rabble of men women and children, in the center of this house is kept a constant fire mounted on a great heape of Ashes and surrounded with little lowe formes Captain Cary and myselfe were placed in the higher seate on each side the Cassique and presented with skinns accompanied with their ceremonies of Welcome and friendship (by stroaking our shoulders with their palms and sucking in their breath the whilst) the Towne is seituated on the side or rather in the skirts of a faire forrest in which att severall distances are divers fields of Maiz with many little houses straglingly amongst them for the habitations of the particular families, On the East side and part of the South It hath a large Prospect over Meadows very spations and delightfull, before the Doore of their Statehouse is a spacious walk rowed with trees on both sides tall & full branched, not much unlike to Elmes which serves for the Exercise and recreation of the men who by couples runn after a marble bowle troled out alternately by themselves with six foot staves in their hands which they tosse after the bowle in their race and according to the laying of their staves winn or loose the beeds they contend for an Exercise approvable enough in the winter, but somewhat too violent (mee thought) for that season and noone time of the day, from this walk is another lesse aside from the round house for the children to Sport in. After a few howres stay I returned to my vessell with a greate Troope of Indians att my heeles. The old Cassique himselfe in the number who lay aboard mee that night without the society of any of his people some scores of which lay in booths of their owne imediate erection on the beach.—While I lay here I had perfectly understood that the River went through to another more Westerly and was passable for our vessell and alsoe that it was not much more than a tides worke through through. This increased my desire of passing this way especially being perswaded that this next River was Jordan (Hilton intimating as much in his Journall and mapp) wherefore on the 27th of June with the help of the tide of flood (the wind being contrary) I turned upp the River soe having opportunity to try the whole channell which I found generally mid and between that and six fathm deepe and bold home to each shoare till wee were come about 10 miles from the harbours mouth where the River was contracted between the marshes yett here (except in one or two places where some flatts narrowed the passage) wee seldom founde lesse then five fathm water. The river being narrowe and variously winding noe gale would att any time serve us long soe that wee were forced for the most part to towe through and that often against the winde which proved very tedious nor could wee passe but by day, which with lying two tides a ground to stopp some Leakes made it Sunday morning the first of July before wee came into the next Westerly River, and by it into the Sea again, Though by the Travers I tooke of our course I found it performable with light boates in one tide of flood and an Ebbe. The passage is generally betweene the River and Wood especially on the Island side on the East or Maine side of the Marsh is much narrower and in many places the river runns close under the banke of wood land which wee had the oportunityes to view and found it to continue its excelleney without change or diminution, The Indians alsoe that inhabit the Inner parts of it assuring us that it was all alike, The next Westerly River is a pretty faire river not lesse broad then Harvey Haven But its Channell more crooked narrow'd and Shallowe, the West side of itt (as wee found afterwards is but a necke of land having a

Creeke or two which seeme to goe through into the next River It is for the generallity drowned marshes alsoe yett in some places the bank is high crowned here and there with small groves of wood, consisting of dry plantable land surrounded a good space with a firme meadowe or pasture Land and presenting most delectable Seates for Summer recesses. I did a little wonder to see the Sea and no apparent open passage first to the Westward as I expected (still imagining this to be the River Jordan) and when I was come out of it into the sea and sawe none of those markes which Hilton had prefixed to Jordan I was in a great puzzell to knowe where wee were gott. Nothing of the coast making like those drafts which Hilton had given of itt, But the winde first dying into a calme and then againe blowing contrary with some Meuaces of an evening storme I putt into the River againe and being anchored went a shore on the east point of the Entrance where I found Shadoo (the Captain of Edistow that had beene with Hilton att Barbados) and severall other Indians come from the Towne by land to see for our comeing forth of whome I asked whether this was the River which Hilton was in, they told mee noe butt itt was the next River, This assured mee that Jordan was yett further and that Hilton had noe knowledge of this River and soe could not lay it downe I demanded the name of this River they told mee Edistowe still and pointed all to be Edistowe quite home to the side of Jordan, by which I was instructed that the Indians assigne not their names to the Rivers but to the Countreys and people, amongst theise Indians was one who used to come with the Southern Indians to trade with us att Charles Towne in Clarendon and is known to us by the name of Cassique hee belongeth to the Country of Kiwaha and was very earnest with mee to goe with my vessell thither assuring mee a broad deepe entrance and promising a large welcome and plentifull entertainment and Trade I told him I must first goe to Port Royall and that in my return I would see his Country, but for his better security hee would needs accompany mee to Port Royall and soe bee my Pilate (as hee made mee understand) for their River and presently hee sent away his Companion to give notice to the chiefe Cassique of the place of my Intention that hee might prepare for my comeing and himselfe went on board with mee. That evening blewe a storme of winde att S. W (the frequent sommer stormes on this coast) soe violent that (though in the River) I durst not trust to my ordinary roade, but kept my short anchor underfoot—between two bankes of shoales lesse then halfe a mile distant I choase rather to keep in the sounding of the Easterne then of the W. Flatts, both because the winde was Easterly and soe I could beare up from them when I would and alsoe because haveing both in goeing out and comeing in the day before borrowed on the Westernne shoalings I should by this Easterly Course take knowledge of the whole channell, I was scarce shott a mile without the Easternmost point of the Entrance but the winde wholly left mee and the Ebbe (which the flatts on either side makeing soe faire a lane I expected should sett directly out to Sea) did run with soe strong a current over the Easterne sands that att the second heave of my lead I was cast from two fathum into six foot water and I drewe five into a rowling sea on the very edge of a breach) I had no way but immediately to lett fall one anchor soe to stay the vessell from precipitating on her ruine whilst I might carry forth another Anchor to warpe her into deepe water The first was presently downe but to gett out the second which was to confirme our safety proved hughesly difficult [Wee lay in soe tumbling a sea that our boate could not bee brought to our bowe without danger of staveing, I had but two men with mee entered to Sea labour and the most spirited and active part of my company were Gentlemen but little used to any labour, one of the seaman must necessarily stay within board to deliver the anchor and Cable that was to be carryed out however the danger made every one give his best helpe and with much adoe the boate is brought to the bowe and the Anchor put into her but all our strength could not stemme that Tide of Ebbe which had hurried us into the perill and must therefore be encountered in the way to bring us out, but a starne wee fall against the whole force of our Oares, A second attempt is made with doubled strength but one breakes his shoales another his Oare and nowe cumbered with our owne vessell number in a boate of scarce equall seize we became rather weaker than at first yett we have noe other way left but this to prevent our weake (heaven not yielding us one breath of aide) therefore to worke wee goe againe and refix our boate, but in theise past fruitles performances soe much time had beene spent as had given the Ebbing tide a further advantage against us to the allmost perfecting our destruction for by this time the vessell by her repeated stroakes as it were to rescue herselfe from those inhospitable sands, gave us warning that her condition was well neere desperate, yett out goes our boate againe and god mercifully improved our strength to the getting forth an anchor though not much farther than our vessells length) yett soe farre as brought us into two fathum water the banke on which wee had grounded proveing steepe to, by reason which wee the more easily wrought ourselves out of those unkind embraces and to the praise of the Almighty Deliverer were snatched from either an instant descending into the Gorge of the unsated Ocean or the more slow and painfull progresse to our ends in a naked exposure amongst Nations whose piety it is to be barbarous and Gallantry to be inhumane. This ill Entertainment made us brand the place with the name of Port Perrill, it lyes in the Lat: of  $32^{\text{d}} 25^{\text{m}}$  or therabouts and may be known when you are in the very entrance by its Easterne point which is a very lowe point of Land bare of trees or other growth save a fewe stragling shrubbs, hence the River goe in N N W and N. W. b: N. a small Creeke running in East just within the point The Coast hence to the Eastward tends neerest E. b: N. with Sandy bayes and appeares even and bluffe with trees when you are in the offing the Western part of the Entrance lyes within as in a deep bay and beare from the East. point N. W. b: W. or W. N. W. about two miles It is a bare sandy bay with a fewe shrubbs next the River and thim scattering Pine trees—more Sontherly the Coast thence Westward tends S. S. W. and all between this and Jordan shewes with severall humnacks like broken land or Islands when you are off before itt and especially next to Port Perill appeares a wide opening as of a River but it is nothing but bare sandy bayes or oyster bankes with lowe Marshes behind them Jordan or as wee now call it Yeamans harbour from the name of our Lt Generall opens about two leagues to the Westward of this between two bluffe lands from the Westernmost of which the North East end of an Island which from Cap<sup>t</sup> Cary wee named Cary Island) runs out E S E and makes all the Coast between it and Port Perrill lye in the forme of a deepe bay all betweene Yeamans Harbour and Port Perrill are shoales and foule ground which from the West Point of Port Perrill runne out S. E. before the mouth of Yeamans Harbour to almost an even range with the outermost face of Cary Island From the East Point of Port Perrill a Rowe of breakers range themselves parrallell with the Western shoales, and were the same which had like to have proved so fatall to us att our coming out thence neere a League within Port Perrill are three distinct groves of trees elevated on pretty high bankes with lowe Marshes in easy interval they lye neere E. and West and when you are soe farre south an Westerly as that the lowe sandy point off the Entrance wholly disappears These shewe themselves as though the mouth of the River were betweene two bluffe lands with a round woody Island in the middle of itt, in steering in if you come from the South and Westward, keepe East in three fathum water till you bring this seeming Island to touch the Easterne bluffe head and then stand in N. W. by N. and N. W. with the head land rather takeing the soundings of the Easterne flatts then of the W. if the winde will permit and you will have two fathum water little more or lesse all the way in att lowe water as you come neere in you will discerne the Eastern lowe sandy point betweene you and that bluffe land and the sandy bayes—along the Easterne Coast steering in with that sandy point and you will deepen and have five fathum water close aboard it.

After wee were gott cleare of the sands the Ebbe being doune and the gale springing up wee made sayle and stood out to sea but wee were not got farre ere the wind shifted to South East and the flood sett soe strong into the narrowe bay that wee could neither board it out nor gaine to the Westward of the shoales which lye before Yeamans Harbour so to runne in there, wherefore I came to an Anchor in three fathum water till the Ebbe att least might helpe us to worke out against the winde whilest wee rode here wee espyed to our great rejoyceing the Shallope whome wee lost the 19th of June in the night shee was come forth of Yeamans harbour and stood to and againe before the Southwest Coast betweene it and Cary Island to shewe herselfe not being able to come out to us for the same reason that kept us imbayed, wee alsoe fired a gunn and putt out our Colours to lett her knowe that wee sawe her but could not gett to her for the flatts that interposed.

To goe into Yeamans Harbour Hiltons direction is (and itt seemed true to mee as I lay before itt though I went not in) to goe in on the West side of the shoalings which are opposite to the mouth thêreof and which are contignous with the flatts of Port Perrill givinge a ledge of breakers that lye before the south west Cape of the Entrance a small birth and soe to steere in with the North East land of the Entrance and the least depth he sayes is two fathum att lowe water and soe upwards to six or seaven fathum when you come neere under the said Easterne land But I have understood since from Ens: Brayne that betweene that Lodge of breakers which lye before the South West Cape and the end of Cary Island is a Chamell which hee affirmes has about three fathum water where shoalest which alsoe when you are past that lodge of breakers sett over to the North East land of the Harbours mouth The Elbe nowe beginning to make wee weighed and plyed off to sea with some difficulty boarding it out of the dangerous and foule bay wherein still about three leagnes from shoare the deepest water we could finde was scarce three fathum and in our turning wee generally into a fathum and a halfe on each side and this though it was high water, a place to be attempted with Care when the winde is off as now it is by night wee were got cleere of all danger into six and seaven fathum water I stood off and on all night and in the morning found my selfe off the seaboard side of Cary Island in the middle betweene two openings this Island fills up almost the whole space betweene Yeamans Harbour and Port Royall, to seaward it makes an even smooth land pretty blüffe with trees and tends south west and North East about three leagnes in length It shewes two small openings neere Equidistant from either end and from each other from the Westernmost opening all Westward the Coast is bold Five fathum water within halfe a leagne of the shoare more Easterly it is not so deepe.

The morning was calm and soe continued till about two o'clock afternoon when a fresh gale sprang up att North East which in a short time opened to us Woory Bay and the mouth of Port Royall Woory Bay of Lt Woory is made by the South Westerly end of Cary Island and the Southermost Cape or headland without Port Royall (called from the first discoverer Hilton head which is the farthest land in sight as you come from the Northeast along by the end of Cary Island whence it beares nearest S. W. and is bluffe with trees large and tall which as you approach them seeme to looke their topps in the sea, Port Royall mouth opens in the bottome of this Bay neere to the Westward side thereof the opening is wide little lesse then two leagnes The Westernmost land of it running out almost South to Hilton head and baying in like a halfe bent bowe makeing the West side of Woory bay from the East side of Port Royall the land tends away east Northerly into Giles streights (the passage on the backe side of Cary Island named soe from Mr Thomas Giles) and formes the bottm of Woory Bay Before this part of the Coast and the end of Cary Island in all the Easterly part of the bay. It shoales and very uneven ground unsafe to meddle with towards the Eastermost angle of it oposite to the entrance into Giles streights lyes a sand hill pretty high with some smaller about it visible a good distance off in coming from the Westward as you part from Cary Island steere away S. W. with Hilton head and you will soon thwart the Channell of Port Royall which you will finde by the deepening of the water from five to seaven fathum and upward. It lyes neerer towards the West Land and runs in N. N. W. towards the Easterne land of the Entrance (by us called Abrahall point) haveing seldom so little as seaven fathum water all the way in. The shoales in the East part of the bay lye poynting out a good way to sea therefore it wilbe safe for shippes of burthen to keepe out till they have brought Hilton Head to beare about N. N. E. from them. When I had opened Woory Bay sayling S. W. along by the end of Cary

Island I had brought the sand hills within a steerne of mee I luffed into the bay to try the soundings of that Easternmost part of itt and after a little while came on the shoalings and found them so uneven that it was ordinary to differ two fathum in the heave of a lead Being therefore satisfied with the dangerousnes of this part of the Bay I bore up againe and stood away with Hilton Head crosse some of the shoales till I came to seaven eight and to about ten fathum water. Then I steered away with the body of the West land betweene Hilton Head and the Entrance of Port Royall and shoaled my water by degrees to six fathum (which depth continued a good while and att length to five and foure fathum and to three within less then a mile of the woodside Then I brought my tacks aboard and stood North Easterly to gett into the channell againe and after some time deepened my water to five six and seaven fathum I then steered away with the East land of the River within Arahall point still deepning my water till att length the Ebbe being strong and wee makeing fresh way against it with a large winde I could not for a good space strike ground with my lead.—About midnight the third of July I came to an Anchor within the River in seaven fathum water the least depth I could then finde) a little above the Entrance into Brayne sound or the passage which goes through to Yeamans Harbour soe called from Ens: Brayne who twice sailed itt I would advise all who enter Port Royall to goe in upon the soundings on the west side of the Channell till they come a good way within Hilton Head. That side being the evenest ground and freest from all danger They may keepe in six and seaven fathum all the way in and then as they steere more Easterly towards Abrahall point they will finde it much deeper It flowes here E. S. E. The next morning I removed opposite to the principall Indian Towne and then anchored before itt where I had nott ridd long ere the Cassique himselfe came aboard mee with a Canoa full of Indians presenting mee with skinns and bidding mee welcome after their manner I went a shoare with him to see their Towne which stood in sight of our vessell Found as the forme of building in every respect like that of Eddistowe with a plaine place before the great round house for their bowling recreation att the end of which stood a faire woodden crosse of the Spaniards Erecton But I could not observe that the Indians performed any adoration before itt, All round the Towne for a great space are severall fields of maize of a very large growth the soyle nothing inferior to the best wee had seene att Eddistowe apparently more loose and light and the trees in the woods much larger and ranged at a greater distance all the ground under them burthened exceedingly and amongst it a great variety of choice pasturage

I saw here besides the great number of peaches which the more northerly places doe alsoe abound in some store of figge trees very large and faire both fruite and plants and diverse grape vines which though growing without culture in the very throng of weedes and bushes were yett filled with bunches of grapes to admiration. It was no small rejoycing to my Company (who began to feare that after Edistowe they should see nothing equally to content them) to find here not onely a River so much superiour to all others on the Coast Northward but alsoe a Country which their fancyes though preengaged could scarce forbear to preferre even that which but a little before they had concluded peerlesse. The Towne is scituated on an Island made by a branch which cometh out of Brayne sound and falleth into Port Royall about a mile above where wee landed a Scituation not extraordinary here rather the whole Country is nothing else but severall Islands made by the various interveniungs of Rivers and Creeks yett are they firme good lands (excepting what is Marsh) nor of soe small a seize but to continne many of them thousands of acres of rich habitable wood land whose very bankes are washed by River or Creeke which besides the fertility add such a comodiousnesse for portage as fewe countrys are equally happy in.

After a fewe houres stay to viewe the land about the Towne I returned to my vessell and there found Ens: Brayne with his Shalloope come that morning through Brayne sound from Yeamans harbour att the month of which wee had scene him two dayes before Hee told mee that the same morning that I made Harvey haven hee came in with the shoare more to the Eastward and sayled along it till towards evening when hee entered Yeamans harbour supposing it Port Royall and not findeing mee there nor any knowledge of mee and guessing that I might be more Southerly hee came through to Port Royall and acquainted himselfe with Wommony the Cassique sonne (who had alsoe beene att Barbados) whom hee easily prevailed with to beare him Company from place to place into severall Creekes and branches betweene this and Yeamans harbour soe becomming both his Guide and protection that he had by this meanes a large leasure and oportunity of veiwing all that part of the Country which he did soe loudly applaud for land and rivers That my Companies Comendations of Edistowe could scarce out noise him,—sufficiently satisfiyed with this relation (confirmed by those with him I resolved to loose him no time in a second search of that parte but to goe a tides worke up the maine River and see the body of the Country, and at my retorne to enter a faire Creeke on the West shoare opposite to where the vessell rode, and soe to viewe that side which Ens: Brayne had not medled with being the more desirous alsoe to trye this Creeke because the Indians reported that it lead to a great Southerne River which peirceth farre into the continent and I suppose may be the frenchmens river May or the Spaniards S<sup>t</sup> Mathias, with the Flood therefore and a favourable fresh Gale of winde I sayled up the River In the shallope neere thirty miles passed where it devides itselfe into two principall branches the Westernmost of which I went upp and conceiving myselfe nowe high enough I landed, here I found the Ground presently within to rise into a pretty hill and as I ranged further I crossed severall fine falls and risings of land and one brooke of sweete water which rann with a monrning course betweene two Hills a rarity towards the sea Coast (to which our former searches had beene confin'd in which wee had not scene any fresh water but in wells which Inconveniency was not to be borne with were it not to be healed by the easie sinking of Wells every where The land here was such as made us all conclude not only a possibility that Eddistowe might bee but a certainty that it was exceeded by the Country of Port Royall— Being fully tired with our March through a ranke growth of vines, bushes and grass which everywhere followed our leggs and proclaimed the riches of the soyle I retired to my boate and with the Ebbe towards our vessell wee passed diverse faire Creekes on each side the river but entered none, haveing not much time to spare and being satisfied by the sorts of wood wee sawe and the bankes that the land was all of like goodnes to what we had already veiwd only in one place the land seemeing lower than usuall and with a great mixture of pine (or rather spruce) I went in there and after I was somewhat within the woods found it very plashy and water standing everywhere in holes about ankell deepe or deeper caused as I thinke by the late raine which had fallen somewhat plentifully for there appeared no sign of constant swamps hues (as in the Cypresse swamps more northerly) nor anything that might discourage the manureing it. The morning was pretty faire spent ere I came downe to the vessell again wherefore I made haste and changed my Company and then crossed the River into that Western Creeke I spoke of which after three or fowre miles opened into a great sound full of Islands of different sizes Southward It went into the Sea by two or three out lets in our sight westward Wee still opened newe branches some bigger some lesse like those wee had already passed and found to crumble the Continent into Islands; I spent the remainder of this day and the best part of the next in this sound went a shoare on severall Islands found them as good firme land as any wee had scene, exceedingly timbred principally with live Oake and larger cedar and bay trees then any I had scene before on all the Coast In one of them wee entered a pleasant grove of spruce Shading a very cleare pasture of fine grasse in which we rowzed a brave herde of deere and thence called it the Discoverers Parke. This Island containes some hundred of acres and both wood and Marsh proper for planting grazeing and for feeding swine and all the Islands of this Sound that were in our veiwe (some fewe small ones excepted that were onely Marsh) are in all appearence alike good proportionable to their biggnes with high bankes richly crowned with timber of the largest size soe that of what we sawe in this sound onely might be found habitations for thousands of people with conveniencies for their stock of all kinds in Such away of accomodation as is not comon, And if the Sound goe through to such a great River as the Indians talk of (which seemes very probable) It will putt an additionall value upon the Settlement that shall be made in it, It abounds besides with oyster bankes and such heaps of shells as which noe time can consume but this benefitt it hath but in comon with all the Rivers betweene this and Harvy Haven which are stored with the necessary materiall for time for many ages and lying soe conveniently that what ever neere river or creeke you can thinke fitt to sett a house there you may place your lime kill alsoe and possibly in the banke just by or very neere finde stay for your brieke kill &c: the great and frequent sculls of Fish wee mett with gives us expectation of advantage and imployment that way alsoe In sume wee could see of nothing here to bee wished for but good store of English Inhabitants and that wee all heartily prayed for, I gave my name the Honour of calling this sound by it, and do believe that if this place bee settled by us it may hence receive a longer duration then from any access within the reach of a rational hope.

Within night I returned to the vessell and the next day being the 7th of July I took in some fresh water purposing that night to leave Port Royall and retorne homeward haveing in the discovery already made, exceeded all our own and therefore confident to answer all other Expectations besides each mans proper occasion hastened him and the consideration of the charge of the vessell hired att five and twenty pounds sterling per month made us earnest not to detaine for a minute of time unnecessarily. We alsoe designed our selves some daies to see the Country of Kywaha one of whose Inhabitants remained still with us for that onely purpose But a little before night the Cassique of Port Royall come aboard and brought with him a proper young fellowe whome hee made mee to understand to be his sisters sonne He demanded of mee when I would retorne thither and shewing mee the moone asked whether within three times of her compleating her orbe, I told him noe, but in tenne monthes I would, he seemed troubled att the length of time and as it were begged mee to come in five, but I continued my first given number. Att length hee gave mee this young fellowe told mee hee should goe and retorne with mee and that I must clothe him & then hee asked mee when I would sayle I told him presently that night but hee very much importuned mee to stay untill the next day that he might prepare mee some venison and made signes as hee parted that if in the morning hee should not see mee hee should crye and soe hee left mee and the Indian with mee I was somewhat pleased with the adventure haveing before I came on the discovery wished that if I liked the Countrey I might prevaile with the Indians to lett one of their Nation goe with mee I leaving an Englishman in their roome for the mutuall learning their language And to that purpose one of my Company M<sup>r</sup> Henry Woodward a chirmgeon had before I sett out assured mee his resolution to stay with the Indians if I should think convenient wherefore I resolved to stay till the morning to see if the Indians would remaine constant in this intention, according to which I purpose to treat further with them on the morrow therefore I went a shoare to their Towne took Woodward and the Indian with mee and in presenee of all the Inhabitants of the place and of the fellows relations asked if they approved of his going along with mee, they all with one voyee consented after some pause I called the Cassique and another old man (his second in authority) and their wives and in sight and heareing of the whole Towne delivered Woodward into their charge, telling them that when I returned I would require him att their hands they received him with such high Testimonyes of joy and thankfullness as highly confirmed to me their great desire of our Friendshipp and Society. The Cassique placed Woodward by him upon the Throne and after lead him forth and shewed him a large field of Maiz which hee told him should be his, then hee brough him the sister of the Indian that I had with mee telling him that shee should tend him and dress his victualls and bee carefull of him that soe her brother might bee the better used amongst us— I stayed a while being wonderous civilly treated after their manner and givinge Woodward formall possession of the whole Countrey to hold as Tennant at Will of the Right Hon<sup>ble</sup> Lords Proprietors, I returned aboard and immediately weighed and fell downe—

An Indian that came with mee from Eddistowe with Intention to goe noe further then Port Royall seeing the kindnes and mutuall obligation betweene us and the people of this place that his nation and tribe might bee within the League voluntarily offered himselfe to stay with mee alsoe and would not bee denyed, and thinking that soe hee should bee the more acceptable hee caused himselfe to bee shoaren on the Crowne after the manner of the Port Royall Indians, a fashion which I guesse they have taken from the Spanish Fryers, thereby to ingratiate themselves with that Nation, and indeed all along I observed a kind of emulation amongst the three principall Indians of the Country (vizt:) those of Keywaha Eddistowe and Port Royall concerning us and our Friendship each contending to assure it to themselves and jealous of the other though all be allyed and this notwithstanding that they knew wee were in actnall warre with the natives att Clarendon and had killed and sent away many of them For they frequently discoursed with us concerning the warre, told us that the Natives were noughts, the land sandy and barren, their Country sickly, but if wee would come amongst them wee should finde the contrary to all their evils, and never any occasion of dischargeing our gunns but in merrymment and for pastime.

The 10th of July in the morning I was fayre before the River that leadeth into the Country of Kywaha but the Indian of the place who undertooke to bee my guide and stayed all this while with mee for that onely purpose would not know it to be the same but confidently and constantly affirmed to mee that it was more easterly and att length when I was almost neere enough to goe in with great assureance and Joy he shewed mee a head land not farre off about which he affirmed the entrance to bee. This confidence of his made mee stand away but by that time I had sayled some two leagues hee sawe his Error when it was too late, for nowe the winde was soe that I could not fetch the River againe and if it had been fayre I was sure not to enter it before night, and I did not like the Complexion of the Heavens soe well as to trye that night upon the Coast.

The River lyes in a Bay between Harvey Haven and Cape S<sup>t</sup> Romana wherein wee found 7 or 8 fathum water very neere the shoare, and not the least appearance of shoales or dangers in any part of itt It shewes with a very faire large opening cleare of any flatts or barre in the Entrance onely before the Easterne Point wee sawe a breach but not farre out I perswade myselfe that it leads into an excellent Country both from the Comendation the Indians give itt and from what I sawe in my ranging on the Easterne part of Harvey Haven the next neighbouring land to this wherefore in hopes that it may prove worthy the Dignity I called it the River Ashley, from the Right Hon<sup>ble</sup> Anthony Lord Ashley and to take away every little remaine of forraigne title to this Province I blotted out the name of S<sup>t</sup> Romane putt before the next Easterly Cape and writt Cape Cartrett in the roome to evidence the more reall right of S<sup>t</sup> George Cartrett as hee is a Lord Proprietor of Carolina—

The 12th of July about noone I entered Charles River and before darke night landed at Charles Towne in the County of Clarendon to the great rejoyceing of our Friends who yett received not our persons more gratefully then they did the Sound Comendations which they heard from every one of us without one dissonant note of that never enough to be valued country which wee had scene and searcht in which may be found ample Seats for many thousands of our Nation in a sociable and comfortable vicinity secured from any possible generall and from all probable particlar Massacres with such other accommodations to boote as scarce any place cann parrallell in a clime perfectly temperate to make the habitation pleasant and where such a fertile soyle cannot faile to yeild soe great a variety of Productions as will not give an absolute selfe subsistance to the place without all manner of necessary forraigne dependance but alsoe reach a trade to the Kingdome of England as great as that shee has with all her neighbors and render our Sovereaign Lord the King within his owne Dominions and the Lands possessed by his Natural English subjects universall Monarch of the Traffique and Comodity of the whole World

Wee whose names are hereunto subscribed having accompanied L<sup>t</sup> Col: Robert Sandford in a voyage of Discovery on the Coast and Rivers of this province to the Southward and Westward of Cape S<sup>t</sup> Romane as farre as the River Port Royall and being all of us persons well experienced in the nature and qualities of the severall soyles in these Regions and some of us by meanes of our Travells throughly acquainted with most parts of America Northerne and Sontherne Continent and Islands Doe hereby declare and testefie to the whole World that the Country which we did and see from the river Grandy nowe Harvy Haven to Port Royall inclusive doth for richnes and fertillity of soyle for excellency of Rivers, havens, Creeks and Sounds for abundance of good Timber of diverse sorts and many other requisites both to land and sea building and for sundry rare accommodations both for Navigation and Plantation exceed all places that wee know in possession of our Nation in the West Indies and wee doe assure ourselves that a Colony of English here planted with a moderate support in their Infant tendernes would in a very short time improve themselves to a perfect Comonwealth injoying a selfe sufficiency of all the principall Necessaryes to life and abounding with a great variety of superfluetyes for the Invitation of Forraigne Commerce and trade and which for its seite and production would be of more advantage to our Native Country the Kingdome of England and to the Grandeur of our soveraigne Lord the King his Crowne and dignity then any (we may say all) his other Dominions in America And wee doe further avouch that this Country may bee more securely settled and cheaply defended from any the attempts of its native Inhabitants then any of those other places which our Countrymen have refined from the Drosse of Indian Barbarisme In Witnes whereof wee have hereunto sett our hands this 14th of July 1666.

My most honored Lord I have been already very long and yet I have one thing very important to advise your Lordship with, which is that Virginia, Maryland & Carolina have at length granted to the desires of the people a law for a totall cessation from planting tobacco in the yeare 1667 the whole transactions whereof I shall herewith send your Lordship to be by the King confirmed or disaproved if it be ill or that it bee found prejudiciall to his Ma<sup>ties</sup> intrest either in poynt of custome or any way elce we humbly desire to have his determinacon soe soon as conveniently we may that the people may know how to employ their labours.

It is now a considerable time since I had the the hone<sup>or</sup> to treat with a Committe of your Lord<sup>ships</sup> chosen from among yo<sup>rselves</sup> concerning the settling of a Colony at Cape Feare, and although there was no absolute accord and fineall agrement yet severall concessions were then offered by the s<sup>d</sup> Committee, and by me dispatched to the Barbados to the Adventurers there who did intrust me, who immediately returned aswer that they would accept them and accordingly gave me power to conclude with your Hon<sup>ors</sup>. But in the Interim comes one M<sup>r</sup> now S<sup>r</sup> J<sup>n</sup><sup>o</sup> Yeamiens and by his some offers other and contrary Articles to wth the Adventurers did desire and made such spetions pretences that your Hon<sup>ors</sup> made an absolute agrement with him and refused to confirme those concessions formerly offered me, though I then foresaw and also tould your Hon<sup>rs</sup> there was no likelihood he should performe his covenant notwithstanding he had entred into a penall bond of 1000£ to accomplish it. Now may it please your Hon<sup>rs</sup> it is so fallen out as I foretold that no material part of the said covenant is performed but on the contrary the Adventurers and present planters highly dissatisfied that they should not have those concessions at least which were tendered and upon which they went, confirmed unto them they thought those concessions hard enough, but those other Intolerable, Wherefore what I humbly request is that I may have the Hon<sup>r</sup> of one speedy Conference more with as many of your Lord<sup>ships</sup> as may be, that I may put a final end to my negotiation and I cannot but hope for a good one since I am resolved to propound nothing but what shall be as well for your Hon<sup>rs</sup> Interest as that of the Colony. The reason why I humbly desire this meeting may be so speedy, is, because many in England New England Barbados yea and those that are actually upon the place do wait for the Issue of this my last address which if good I do promise with Gods leave, and your Hon<sup>rs</sup> favour to set forth a good ship with men and provisions immediately for Cape Feare and also manifest to your Hon<sup>rs</sup> the likelihood of severall other ships to follow in the Spring but it is high time that those that go this yeare shall be making ready: if the success of this my last addresse should be unsuccessful (which God forbid) all those that have intrusted me though they may have begun a plantation and some are actually upon the place, have advised me that they will draw off and quite give over the designe. And then it will be seen whether they be the Major part yea or no: But I feare not but if I have but time and opportunity I shall manifest the Necessity of granting those things I shall humbly offer in order to the establishing a Colony that may thrive and prosper under your Hon<sup>rs</sup> govern<sup>mt</sup> which that it may do under your Hon<sup>r</sup> and your successor from Generation to Generation is the prayer of

*Right Honourable,

The Gent chosen for an Assembly for the County of Clarendon in Carolina, upon a view and consideration had of your Honours Charters and Concessions to the said County did supplicate for a Redress cheafely in three things, as to greivous to be required of them.

1. The halfe penny  $\text{p}$  acre for all Lande
2. The undecemall way of division of there lande
3. The Injuntion on penaltie of forliture of keeping one man on every hundred Acres. They added these Reasons, viz.

1. To the first that in all their land where or howsoever taken up there are of these three sortes viz. Pine Swamp and Marsh which make up much the greater part of there proportions and are yet so wholly unprofitable that to pay a halfe penny per acre for them is more then there vallew wherefore they did signifie there Redresse, that those landes, what proportion soever they beare to the good Oake Land should bee accomted to them as soe many Acres but not as to paye the said Rent by those acres; they were rather willing to paye a greater Rent for what acres of Oake land they should possess soe as they might bee excused the paying rent for the Rest and did propose it as an Expedient to paye one penny per acre Annually for all the Oake land in there respective Traets as the Rent due for the whole: and that your Honours Survey in Bounding out there lande should certifie in perticuler the quantity of Oake lande according to which the Rent should bee Resarved in the deede of conformation for lands. They enforced this with a complamt that it was sufficiently greivous to them after soe chargeable and hazardous an adventure to which they were onely incouridged by the consideration of such Quantities of lande to bee constrained to accept of land soe wholly unusefull, and which did soe much incommode every mans settlement and therefore they hoped your Honour would not add this burthen to their sad<sup>d</sup> disappointment.

2. To the second, that they arived here the most of them beefore the Concessions were framed and had there land assigned to them by certaine meats and bounds on which they have planted and bilt, that therefore to have those lands now cast into such a way of Lotte as the Concessions contrive, and the undesimall part reformed for your Honour will certainly alter all those boundes and remove every mans possession which cannot but bee Ruine to Most; nor doe they see how this waye of allotments can be practised in the Future, at least soe as to bee any benifit to your Honours for the good land lying soe widely dispersed what is already taken up though but halfe the proportion due to each person, runs to an extent of at least three score miles soe that what is to take up will lye soe Remote from all conveniencies that it cannot advantage your Honour to have an eleventh part at that distance, and indeed that kinde of divition appointed by the concessions is not at all practicable heere, because the good lands doe noe where lye soe contiguous nor soe in any place as equally to accomodate the whole generall lot. And a very great mischife it would bee to any whose lott shall fall where there is not a foote, they did expresse a great desire that somewhat might be offered to your Honour in vallue of this undecimall part but finding no thing heere really worth your acceptance they durst rather bee silent then propose any ignoble compensation.

3. To the third, having already declared soe fully the nature of the lands in this country they thought it unnessessary to multiply reasons against the keeping a man on every hundred acres it being evident from what is s<sup>d</sup> that in very many places a hundred acres would not maintaine one man.

This Adresse and Representation beeing made to the Lt Gen<sup>l</sup> and his Councell and there concurrence in all humble maner desired in a petition to your Honour for a release from these reall pressures. They certainly knowing all this to be truly soe as it is remonstrated, ware the redier to joine in prayers soe Rationall and soe nesssary, and therefore with one harte and voyce we the Governer Councell and assembly or representation for the comty of Clarendon in Carolina beseech your Honour's to take the premisses into your serious consideration and to relieve us according to the true merite of our cause.

May it please your Lordshipp.

This humble address as it is above written was perpatated with the allowance and consent of the Honorable Sir John Yeamans Baronet Lt Gen<sup>l</sup> under your Lordshipp of this Province at such time as he was heere with us and presided in our Councells; who at first gave us all the appearance of his purpose to joyne with us in the subscription thereof. But when it was engrossed and presented to him to bee signed he made this answer that his further thoughts had discoursed unto him an absurditie in owneing under his hands so perticuler a knowledge of the soile in this Comty into which he was but newly come, and that therefore he did conceive it might give a better reputation to our cause if he did exempt himself from the Gen<sup>l</sup> Adresse, he added that his intimating to your Lordshipp in his private letter the full satisfaction he had received with in himself of the greivousnes and unpracticablenes of these three injunctions esppecially would stronger inforce our arguments to your Lordships and more advantage the Acceptance of our prayers then his appearing jointly with us, and soe he left us with sufficient Incredidg<sup>mt</sup> to proceed with our petition by ourselves and with our hopes enlarged that though hee labored not openly with us hee would yet labor more effectually for us Thus therefore and upon these grounds wee doe presume Right Honourable to press unto your presents and being now heare doe in all humility offer these further to your noble consideration.

1. That when all the fame of this province was left in that black cloud of Reproaches which a party of the first new england Adventurers had wraped the whole country in and noe mans care or mouth or hand was open to heare or speake or act in her defence, wee then from no other incitem<sup>t</sup> but the glory of that venture which is made for Publick advantage, did by a vollenary and full contrybution dispell those mists of scandall and revive a lusture bright enough to direct and provoke to a seizure by meanes of which expence your Lordships have the possession of a parte which may bee improved to a seminary for the whole provence if the discoridgement from without the place prove not more fatall then those within it; neither can wee think this scirvis really performed for your Lordships inferior to that which is but promised nor is it a frindly argument that because wee have settled in aworse part of the country wee must have the worse conditions, since therefore those whome wee credited as your Lordships plenipotentiaryes in Barbadoe were pleased soe well to consider of the success of those our contrybution as in your Lordships name to promise us five hundred acres of land and soe proportionally for every 1000 of sugar wee had expended on that second discovery without which (wee can make it plainly appear) though all else was ready the designe had yet fallen, since also tis most certaine that if Port Royall bee ever presented with powerfull invitations to a culture it will bee from the consequence of these our supernumerary disburses wee hope it will not be offensive to your Lordshipp that we deprecate a punishment upon our misfortunes and beg to have that conformed to us notwithstanding our ill suekses, which was granted as the prize of our vigerous crowding in to your Lordships servis, through all the obstickles that Mallice or conterary pollicies could object.

2. That those numbers of the Carolina adventurers who made the separation and intercepted that treaty which wee had comenced with your Lordships, presenting different proposalls and accepting other conditions ware such as had the whole bent of there affections towards port Royall and never purposed further to second there diverted adventures on this county of Clarendon which then might conduce to the establishing them an interest in the county of Craven who beeing now by the said calamity which fell on Sir Jno. Yeamens disappointed in there expectations there nessesarily discouridged proceeding heare: and evidence the same not onely by a silent discontinuance, but alsoe by a clamorous drawing off, those againe on the other side who ware determinate for this county stop'd in there carreare by these unexpected concessions have remayned at a staye ever since, with too much appearance of never reinclinyng there motion this way. Thus is there an approaching loss to all concerned to the King and nation, loss of dominion and trade to your Lordships loss of the name and Honor of enlarging both these, to the adventurers loss of money and hopes increased in us that are hereby the loss of our whole substance; and all this unavoidably unles you Honours reintegrating that treaty which your Honours once desended to with us and in us with the adventurers of ould and new England and by granting us these priviledges which you were once not very far from granting us (which very probably you will) the Actineuity of such who can trample on all other difficultyes when supported by that which they opinion Fredome, the Ruine which with open mouth attends us while being desarted by all, wee are utterly disabled either to proceed or to retire enforceth us to this earnestnes, yet ware wee the onely partyes in this cause wee should approach with much lesse bouldnes, but now wee sue in your Lordships behalves also y<sup>t</sup> your Possesion of this Province may not bee utterly lost, and with it all the hopes of our subjecting it to an English Govern<sup>t</sup> wee are

May it please Your Majesty

His Excellency the Lord Willoughby having appointed us of his Councell for the Govern<sup>t</sup> of this Island the many dangers at present which threaten the safety thereof and of your Maj. whole dominion in these parts have rendred it our duty to informe your Maj. that see by a tymeely reliefe yo<sup>r</sup> Maj. honour and authority might be restored and preserved and wee sécured from the violence of our Enemies.

Wherefore wee most humbly informe yo<sup>r</sup> Maj<sup>ty</sup> that the restraint of trade here for some yeares past hath withheld the prosperity of these Yo<sup>r</sup> Maj. Colonies and will if not prevented in short tyme destroy them especially in that of Negroes of whom very few have been sold here and those the worst such as the Spaniards would not look on and yet they at farr greater rates than the Spaniard gives for the best or the Merchant before he was restrained afforded them as by a solemn declaration here published wee were promised which only men compelled by necessity haveing dealt for have therein found their certaine ruine and many on that score forced daily to forsake these Countries. The richer sort who could better withstand the necessity have bought few or none although thereby they have made less sugar by the one halfe then with a full supply they might have done which hath beene a greater losse in the revenue of the customes to your Maj<sup>ty</sup> then the Spanish trade will any way recompense but least wee should presume too farr wee shall only say that thes Settlements have beene made and upheld by Negroes and without constant supplies of them cannot subsist which that wee may the better have and all other necessities for our plantations wee most humbly implore Yo<sup>r</sup> Maj. to grant your loyall subjects that have adventured our lives & fortunes thus farr to the increase of Yo<sup>r</sup> Maj. A BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE PROVINCE OF CAROLINA, ON THE COASTS OF FLORIDA; AND MORE PARTICULARLY OF A NEW PLANTATION BEGUN BY THE ENGLISH AT CAPE FEARE, ON THAT RIVER, NOW BY THEM CALLED CHARLES RIVER, THE 29th OF MAY, 1664. WHEREIN IS SET FORTH THE HEALTHFULNESS OF THE AIR, THE FERTILITY OF THE EARTH AND WATERS, AND THE GREAT PLEASURE AND PROFIT WILL ACCRUE TO THOSE THAT SHALL GO THITHER TO ENJOY THE SAME. ALSO DIRECTIONS AND ADVICE TO SUCH AS SHALL GO THITHER, WHETHER ON THEIR OWN ACCOUNTS OR TO SERVE UNDER ANOTHER. TOGETHER WITH A MOST ACURATE MAP OF THE WHOLE PROVINCE, LONDON: PRINTED FOR ROBERT HORNE, IN THE FIRST COURT OF GRESHAM COLLEGE, NEAR BISHOPSGATE-STREET. 1666.

A. Brief Description of the Province of Carolina, &c. Carolina is a fair and spacions province on the continent of America, so called in honor of his sacred majesty that now is, Charles the Second, whom God preserve; and his majesty has been pleased to grant the same to certain honorable persons, who in order to the speedy planting of the same, have granted divers privileges and advantages to such as shall transport themselves and servants in convenient time. * * * * *

There is seated in this province two colonies already: one on the river Roanoak (now called Albemarle River), and borders on Virginia; the other at Cape Feare, two degrees more southerly; of which follows a more particular description.

This province of Carolina is situate on the main continent of America, between the degrees of 30 and 36, and hath on the north, the south part of Virginia; on the south is bounded by the 30th degree of latitude, not yet fully discovered; on the east is Mare Atlanticum, part of the great ocean; and on the west the wealthy South sea is its confines.

The particular description of Cape Feare. In the midst of this fertile province, in the latitude of 34 degrees, there is a colony of English seated, who landed there 29th. May, Anno 1664, and are in all about eight hundred persons, who have overcome all the difficulties that attend the first attempts, and have cleared the way for those that come after, who will find good houses to be in whilst their own are in building; good forts to secure them from their enemies; and many things brought from other parts there, increasing to their no small advantage.

The chief of the privileges are as follows:

First there is full and free liberty of conscience granted to all, so that no man is to be molested or called in question for matters of religions concern; but every one to be obedient to the civil government, worshipping God after their own way.

Secondly. There is freedom from custom for all wine, silk, raisins, currants, oil, olives, and almonds, that shall be raised in the province for seven years, after four tons of any of those commodities shall be imported in one bottom.

Thirdly. Every free man and free woman that transport themselves and servants by the 25th of March next, being 1667, shall have for himself, wife, children, and men-servants, for each, one hundred acres of land for him and his heirs forever, and for every woman-servant and slave fifty acres, paying at most  $\frac{1}{2}$  d. per acre per annum, in lieu of all demands, to the lords proprietors: Provided always that every man be armed with a good musket, full bore, ten pounds of powder, and twenty pounds of bullet, and six months' provision for all, to serve them whilst they raise provision in that country.

Fourthly. Every man servant at the expiration of their time is to have of the country a hundred acres of land to him and his heirs forever, paying only  $\frac{1}{2}$  d. per acre per annum, and the women fifty acres of land on the same conditions; their masters also are to allow them two snits of apparel, and tools such as he is best able to work with, according to the custom of the country.

Fifthly. They are to have a governor and council appointed from among themselves, to see the laws of Assembly put in due execution; but the governor is to rule but three years, and then learn to obey; also he hath no power to lay any tax, or make or abrogate any law, without the consent of the Colony in their Assembly.

Sixthly. They are to choose annually from among themselves a certain number of men according to their divisions, which constitute the General Assembly, with the governor and his council, and have the sole power of making laws, and laying taxes for the common good when need shall require. These are the chief and fundamental privileges, but the right honorable lords proprietors have promised (and it is their interest so to do) to be ready to grant what other privileges may be found advantageous to the good of the colony.

JOHN VASSALL TO SIR JOHN COLLETON.

NANCYMOND IN VIRGINNY 6th October 1667.

Honorable Sir,

I presume you have heard of the unhapy Loss of our Plantation on Charles River the reason of which I could never soe well have understood had I not com hither to heare; how that all that came from us made it their business soe to exclaime against the Country as they had rendered it unfitt for a Christian habitation; which hindered the coming of the people & supplys to us soe as the rude Rable of our Inhabitants ware dayly redy to mutiny against mee for keeping them there soe long;

insoomuch that after they had found a way to come hither by land all the arguments and authority I could use would noe longer prevail which enforced mee to stop the first ship that came till I could send for more shipping to carry us all away together espetially such weak persons as were not able to goe by land, the charge and trouble whereof and the loss of my Estate there having soe ruened mee as I am not well able to settle myself heere or in any other place to live comfortably. But had it pleased God to bring my Cauzen vassall safe hither wee had bin yett in a flourishing condition. I sent one Whiticar last November on purpose at my owne charge to give the Lords an account of our condition but hee was taken by the way soe as I have not heard a word from any of you since I receaved my Commissions by M<sup>r</sup> Sanford and indeed we ware as a poore Company of deserted people little regarded by any others and noe way able to supply ourselves with clothing and necessaries nor any number considerable to defend ourselves from the Indians all which was occasioned by the hard termes of your Consetions which made our friends that sett us out from Barbadoes to forsake us, soe as thay would neither supply us with necessaries nor find shipping to fetch us away, yet had wee had but 200£ sent us in Clothing wee had made a comfortable shift for annother yeare, and I offered to stay there if but twenty men would stay with mee till wee had heard from your Lordships, for wee had come enough for two yeares for a farr greater number and tho' the Indians had killed our Cattle yett wee might have defended ourselves but I could not find 6. men that wold be true to me to stay: soe was constrained to leave it to my greate loss & ruin, and I fear you will not have a much better account of your plantation at Ronoake unless a better course be taken to incorage their stay for they are not without greate cause of complaints.

This with my very humble servis presented is all at present From

The plantations at Cape Feare are deserted, the inhabitants have since come hither, some to Virginia. Att Burmidoes there hath been such a drought as the fruites of the earth are all destroyed and in Virginia on the 23rd of August there was such a dreadfull huracana as blew up all by the rootes y<sup>t</sup> was in the ground overturned many houses and abundance of trees and drove up some vessells of burthen above high water marke many foote and about tyme they report the Lord Baltamoore sworne Governor of Virginia died. NOTE.—In 1667 the people at Cape Fear being under distressing circumstances a general contribution by order of court was made through the colony for their relief. Although this was a colony subject to the proprietary government of Lord Clarendon and others, yet the foundation was laid about the time of the Restoration by adventurers from New England who supposed they had a right to the soil as first occupants and purchasers from the natives, and, issuing from Massachusetts, to the same civil privileges; but they were disappointed as to both. BARBADOS. THE BEGINNING AND PROGRESS OF MY PROCEEDINGS
HERE FROM MY FIRST ARRIVAL AT BARBADOS
APRILL 23 1667 UNTO JULY 13 1668.

At my arrivall I found the island under three Governors my sonne Henry Willoughby Col. Henry Hawley & Col. Sam. Barwicke the two latter planters who to ingratiate themselves with the people (though generally hated) endeavored to obstruct all business tending to the King's honor and to the Countreyes safty when anything was proposed that might put the Country to charge This caused such a division betweene the loyally affected (who sided with my sonne Harry) and the factious and seditious spiritts that nowe begin to appeare (of which Barwieke, Lambert, Sir John Yeamans, Col. Sharpe Lt. Col. Edwd. Thornbury, Lt. Col. John Horne Col. Philip Bell now of my Council are the head and almost all, that had my arrivall beene protracted tenn dayes longer they had all beene together by the cares.

S<sup>r</sup> John Yeamans another of this Assembly I at my first arrivall resolving to appeare indifferent (making him a judg of one of the Courts) the last Assembly then sitting brought an accusation against him for hiring a witness to take away a man's life and made their request to me that noe such person might be employed in Judicature Upon which I sent for S<sup>r</sup> John and advised him of it and of my kindnes to him and would he have abided test I profered to stand by him which hee refused and desired me to propose another for which I since understand he had reason, he haveing beene formerly convict of the crime and the man yet alive whose life hee endeavoured to take and for noe other reason but that he had a mind to the other gentleman's wife His sonne young Lient. Coll. Yeamans was one of the Assembly the first day they sate told a Judge of this Island before much company that they (meaning the Assembly) would call mee to an account for shipping of the Country sugar though as yet I have not received one ounce.

DRAWN UP BY JOHN LOCKE, MARCH 1, 1669.

(See Locke's Works, 8th edition, volume 10, page 175.)

OUR sovereign Lord the King, having out of his royal grace and bounty, granted unto us the Province of Carolina, with all the royalties, properties, jurisdictions and priviledges of a County Palatine, as large and ample as the County Palatine of Dnrham, with other great Priviledges;

for the better settlement of the government of the said place, and establishing the interest of the Lords Proprietors with equality, and without confusion; and that the government of this Province may be made most agreeable to the Monarchy under which we live, and of which this Province is a part; and that we may avoid erecting a numerous democracy: We, the Lords and proprietors of the Province aforesaid, have agreed to this following form of government, to be perpetually established amongst us, unto which we do oblige ourselves, our heirs and successors, in the most binding ways that can be devised.

1st. The eldest of the Lords Proprietors shall be Palatine; and upon the decease of the Palatine the eldest of the seven surviving proprietors shall always succeed him.

2d. There shall be seven other chief officers erected, viz. the Admirals, Chamberlains, Chancellors, Constables, Chief Justices, High Stewards and Treasurers; which places shall be enjoyed by none but the Lords Proprietors, to be assigned at first by lot; and upon the vacancy of any one of the seven great offices, by death or otherwise, the eldest proprietor shall have his choice of the said place.

3d. The whole Province shall be divided into Counties; each county shall consist of eight signories, eight baronies and four precincts; each precinct shall consist of six colonies.

4th. Each signory, barony, and colony, shall consist of twelve thousand acres, the eight signories being the share of the eight proprietors, and the eight baronies of the nobility; both which shares, being each of them one fifth of the whole, are to be perpetually annexed, the one to the proprietors and the other to the hereditary nobility; leaving the colonies, being three fifths, amongst the people; so that in setting out and planting the lands, the balance of the government may be preserved.

5th. At any time before the year one thousand, seven hundred and one, any of the lords proprietors shall have power to relinquish, alienate and dispose to any other person, his proprietorship, and all the signories, powers, and interest, thereunto belonging, wholly and intirely together, and not otherwise. But after the year one thousand, seven hundred, those who are then Lords Proprietors, shall not have power to alienate, or make over their proprietorship, with the signories and priviledges thereunto belonging or any part thereof to any person whatsoever, otherwise than in section 18th; but it shall all descend unto their heirs male; and for want of heirs male, it shall descend on that Landgrave, or Casique, of Carolina, who is descended of the next heirs female of the proprietor; and for want of such heirs, it shall descend on the next heir general; and for want of such heirs, the remaining seven proprietors shall upon the vacancy, choose a Landgrave to succeed the deceased proprietors, who being chosen by the majority of the seven surviving proprietors, he and his heirs, successively, shall be proprietors, as fully, to all intents and purposes, as any of the rest.

6th. That the number of eight proprietors may be constantly kept; if upon the vacancy of any proprietorship, the seven surviving proprietors shall not choose a Landgrave to be a proprietor, before the second biennial parliament after the vacancy, then the next biennial parliament but one, after such vacancy shall have power to choose any Landgrave to be a proprietor.

7th. Whosoever after the year one thousand seven hundred, either by inheritance or choice, shall succeed any proprietor in his proprietorship and signories thereunto belonging, shall be obliged to take the name and arms of that proprietor whom he succeeds, which from thenceforth shall be the name and arms of his family and their posterity.

8th. Whatsoever Landgrave or Casique shall any way come to be a proprietor, shall take the signories annexed to the said proprietorship: but his former dignity, with the baronies annexed, shall devolve into the hands of the Lords Proprietors.

9th. There shall be just as many Landgraves as there are counties, and twice as many Casiques, and no more. These shall be the hereditary nobility of the Province, and by right of their dignity be members of parliament. Each Landgrave shall have four baronies, and each Casique two baronies, hereditarily and malterably annexed to and settled upon the said dignity.

10th. The first Landgraves and Casiques, of the twelve first counties to be planted, shall be nominated thus, that is to say, of the twelve Landgraves, the Lords Proprietors shall each of them separately for himself, nominate and choose one; and the remaining four Landgraves of the first twelve shall be nominated and chosen by the Palatine's court. In like manner of the twentyfour first Casiques, each proprietor for himself shall nominate and choose two, and the remaining eight shall be nominated and chosen by the palatine's court; and when the twelve first counties shall be planted, the Lords Proprietors shall again, in the same manner, nominate and choose twelve more Landgraves, and twentyfour more Casiques, for the next twelve counties to be planted; that is to say, two thirds of each number, by the single nomination of each proprietor for himself, and the remaining third by the joint election of the palatine's court; and so proceed in the same manner, till the whole province of

Carolina be set out and planted, according to the proportions in these fundamental constitutions.

11th. Any Landgrave or Casique, at any time before the year one thousand seven hundred and one, shall have power to alienate, sell or make over to any other person, his dignity, with the baronies thereunto belonging, all intirely together; but after the year one thousand, seven hundred, no Landgrave or Casique shall have power to alienate, sell, make over, or let the hereditary baronies of his dignity, or any part thereof, otherwise than as in section 18th; but they shall all intirely, with the dignity thereunto belonging, descend unto his heirs male; and for want of heirs male, all intirely and undivided, to the next heir general; and for want of such heirs shall devolve into the hands of the Lords proprietors.

12th. That the due number of Landgraves and Casiques, may be always kept up; if upon the devolution of any landgraveship, or Casiqueship, the palatine's court shall not settle the devolved dignity, with baronies thereunto annexed, before the second biennial parliament, after such devolution, the next biennial parliament but one, after such devolution, shall have power to make any one landgrave or casique, in the room of him who dying without heirs, his dignity and baronies devolved.

13th. No one person shall have more than one dignity, with the signiorities or baronies thereunto belonging. But whensoever it shall happen, that any one who is already Proprietor, Landgrave, or Casique, shall have any of these dignities descend to him by inheritance, it shall be at his choice to keep which of the dignities, with the lands annexed, he shall like best; but shall leave the other, with the lands annexed, to be enjoyed by him, who not being his heir apparent, and certain successor to his present dignity, is next of blood.

14th. Whosoever by right of inheritance, shall come to be Landgrave or Casique, shall take the name and arms of his predecessor in that dignity, to be from thenceforth the name and arms of his family and their posterity.

15th. Since the dignity of Proprietor, Landgrave or Casique, cannot be divided, and the signiorities or baronies, thereunto annexed, must forever all intirely descend with and accompany that dignity; whensoever for want of heirs male, it shall descend on the issue female, the eldest daughter and her heirs shall be preferred, and in the inheritance of those dignities, and in the signiorities or baronies annexed, there shall be no co-heirs.

16th. In every signiory, barony, and manor, the respective Lord shall have power in his own name to hold court leet there, for trying of all causes, both civil and criminal; but where it shall concern any person being no inhabitant, vassal, or leet man, of the said signiory, barony or manor, he upon paying down of forty shillings, for the Lords Proprietors' use, shall have an appeal from the signiory, or barony court, to the county court, and from the manor court to the precinct court.

17th. Every manor shall consist of not less than three thousand acres, and not above twelve thousand acres, in one intire piece and colony; but any three thousand acres or more, in one piece, and the possession of one man, shall not be a manor, unless it be constituted a manor by the grant of the palatine's court.

And whatsoever therein concerns the execution of laws, already made, the several Proprietor's courts, in the matters belonging to each of them respectively, shall take cognisance of it, and give such order about it, as shall be effectual for the due execution of the laws. It shall be a base and vile thing, to plead for money or reward; nor shall any one, (except he be a near kinsman, nor farther off than cousin german to the party concerned) be permitted to plead another man's cause, till before the judge, in open court, he hath taken an oath that he doth not plead for money or reward, nor hath, nor will receive, nor directly, nor indirectly, bargained with the party whose cause he is going to plead, for money, or any other reward for pleading his cause.

71st. There shall be a Parliament consisting of the Proprietors, or their deputies, the Landgraves and Casiques, and one freeholder out of every precinct, to be chosen by the freeholders of the said precinct respectively. They shall sit all together in one room, and have, every member, one vote.

73d. A new Parliament shall be assembled the first Monday of the month of November, every second year, and shall meet and sit in the town they last sat in, without any summons, unless by the Palatine's court they be summoned to meet at any other place. And if there shall be any occasion of a parliament in these intervals, it shall be in the power of the Palatine's court, to assemble them in forty days' notice, and at such time and place as the said court shall think fit; and the Palatine's court shall have power to dissolve the said Parliament, when they shall think fit.

74th. At the opening of every Parliament, the first thing that shall be done, shall be the reading of these Fundamental Constitutions, which the Palatine and Proprietors, and the rest of the members then present, shall subscribe. 76th. No act or order of Parliament shall be of any force, unless it be ratified in open parliament during the same session, by the Palatine or his deputy, and three more of the Lords Proprietors or their deputies; and then not to continue longer in force, but until the next biennial Parliament, unless in the meantime it be ratified under the hands and seals of the Palatine himself, and three more of the Lords Proprietors, themselves, and by their order published at the next biennial Parliament.

77th. Any Proprietor or his deputy may enter his protestation against any act of the Parliament, before the Palatine or his deputy's consent be given as aforesaid; if he shall conceive the said act to be contrary to this establishment, or any of these Fundamental Constitutions of the Government. And in such case, after full and free debate, the several estates shall retire into four several chambers, the Palatine and Proprietors into one; the Landgraves into another; the Casiques into another; and those chosen by the Precincts into a fourth; and if the major part of any of the four estates shall vote that the law is not agreeable to this establishment, and these Fundamental Constitutions of the Government, then it shall pass no farther, but be as if it had never been proposed.

78th. The quorum of the Parliament shall be one half of those who are members, and capable of sitting in the house, that present session of Parliament. The quorum of each of the Chambers of Parliament, shall be one half of the members of that chamber.

79th. To avoid multiplicity of laws, which by degrees always change the right foundations of the original government, all acts of Parliament whatsoever, in whatsoever form passed or enacted, shall at the end of a hundred years after their enacting, respectively cease, and determine of themselves, and without any repeal, become null and void, as if no such acts or laws had ever been made.

80th. Since multiplicity of comments, as well as of laws, have great inconveniences, and serve only to obscure and perplex; all manner of comments and expositions, on any part of these Fundamental Constitutions, or on any part of the common or statute laws of Carolina, are absolutely prohibited.

81st. There shall be a registry in every precinct, wherein shall be enrolled all deeds, leases, judgments, mortgages, and other conveyances, which may concern any of the lands within the said precinct; and all such conveyances, not so entered and registered, shall not be of force against any person or party to the said contract or conveyance.

82d. No man shall be Register of any precinct, who hath not at least three hundred acres of freehold within the said precinct.

84th. There shall be a Registry in every Signiory, Barony and Colony, wherein shall be recorded all the births, marriages and deaths that shall happen within the respective Signiories, Baronies and Colonies.

85th. No man shall be Register of a Colony that hath not above fifty acres of freehold within the said colony.

86th. The time of every one's age, that is born in Carolina, shall be reckoned from the day that his birth is entered in the registry, and not before.

87th. No marriage shall be lawful, whatever contract and ceremony they have used, till both the parties mutually own it, before the Register of the place where they were married, and he register it, with the names of the father and mother of each party.

88th. No man shall administer to the goods, or have a right to them, or enter upon the estate of any person deceased, till his death be registered in the respective registry.

89th. He that does not enter in the respective registry, the birth or death of any person that is born, or dies, in his house or ground, shall pay to the said Register one shilling per week for each such neglect, reckoning from the time of each birth, or death respectively, to the time of entering it in the register.

90th. In like manner, the births, marriages, and deaths of the Lords Proprietors, Landgraves and Casiques, shall be registered in the Chamberlain's Court.

91st. There shall be in every colony, one Constable, to be chosen annually by the freeholders of the colony. His estate shall be above a hundred acres of freehold within the said colony, and such subordinate officers appointed for his assistance, as the county court shall find requisite, and shall be established by the said county court. The election of the subordinate annual officers, shall be also in the freeholders of the colony.

92d. All towns incorporate, shall be governed by a Mayor, twelve Aldermen, and twentyfour of the common Council. The said common council shall be chosen by the present householders of the said town; the Aldermen shall be chosen out of the common council, and the mayor out of the aldermen, by the palatine's court.

93d. It being of great consequence to the plantation, that port towns should be built and preserved; therefore whosoever shall lade or unlade any commodity at any other place but a port town, shall forfeit to the Lords proprietors, for each tun, so laden or unladen, the sum of ten pounds sterling; except only such goods as the palatine's court shall license to be laden or unladen elsewhere.

94th. The first port town upon every river, shall be in a colony, and be a port town forever.

95th. No man shall be permitted to be a freeman of Carolina, or to have any estate or habitation within it, that doth not acknowledge a God, and that God is publicly and solemnly to be worshiped.

96th. (As the country comes to be sufficiently planted, and distributed into fit divisions, it shall belong to the parliament to take care for the building of churches and the public maintenance of divines, to be employed in the exercise of religion, according to the church of England; which being the only true and orthodox, and the national religion of all the king's dominions, is so also of Carolina, and therefore it alone shall be allowed to receive public maintenance by grant of parliament.)

97th. But since the natives of that place, who will be concerned in our plantation, are utterly strangers to Christianity, whose idolatry, ignorance or mistake, gives us no right to expel or use them ill; and those who remove from other parts to plant there, will unavoidably be of different opinions, concerning matters of religion, the liberty whereof they will expect to have allowed them, and it will not be reasonable for us on this account to keep them out; that civil peace may be obtained amidst diversity of opinions, and our agreement and compact with all men, may be duly and faithfully observed, the violation whereof, upon what pretence soever, cannot be without great offence to Almighty God, and great scandal to the true religion which we profess; and also that Jews, Heathens and other dissenters from the purity of the Christian religion, may not be scared and kept at a distance from it, but by having an opportunity of acquainting themselves with the truth and reasonableness of its doctrines, and the peaceableness and inoffensiveness of its professors, may by good usage and persuasion, and all those convincing methods of gentleness and meekness, suitable to the rules and design of the gospel, be won over to embrace, and unfeignedly receive the truth; therefore any seven or more persons agreeing in any religion, shall constitute a church or profession, to which they shall give some name, to distinguish it from others.

98th. The terms of admittance and communion with any church or profession shall be written in a book, and therein be subscribed by all the members of the said church or profession; which book shall be kept by the public Register of the Precinct wherein they reside.

99th. The time of every one's subscription and admittance, shall be dated in the said book or religious record.

100th. In the terms of communion of every church or profession, these following shall be three, without which no agreement or assembly of men, upon pretence of religion, shall be accounted a church or profession within these rules.

1st. "That there is a God."

2d. "That God is publickly to be worshipped."

3d. "That it is lawful and the duty of every man, being thereunto called by those that govern, to bear witness to truth; and that every church or profession shall in their terms of communion, set down the eternal way whereby they witness a truth as in the presence of God, whether it be by laying hands on or kissing the bible, as in the church of England, or by holding up the hand, or any other sensible way."

101st. No person above seventeen years of age, shall have any benefit or protection of the law, or be capable of any place of profit or honor, who is not a member of some church or profession, having his name recorded in some one, and but one religious record, at once.

103d. No person whatsoever, shall speak any thing in their religious assembly irreverently or seditiously of the government or governors, or of state matters.

104th. Any person subscribing the terms of communion, in the record of the said church or profession, before the precinct register and any five members of the said church or profession, shall be thereby made a member of the said church or profession.

105th. Any person, striking his own name out of any religious record, or his name being struck out by any officer thereunto authorized by such church or profession respectively, shall cease to be a member of that church or profession.

106th. No man shall use any reproachful, reviling, or abusive language against any religion or any church or profession; that being the certain way of disturbing the peace, and of hindering the conversion of any to the truth, by engaging them in quarrels and animosities, to the hatred of the professors and that profession which otherwise they might be brought to assent to.

107th. Since charity obliges us to wish well to the souls of all men, and religion ought to alter nothing in any man's civil estate or right, it shall be lawful for slaves as well as others, to enter themselves and be of what church or profession any of them shall think best, and thereof be as fully members as any freeman. But yet no slave shall hereby be exempted from that civil dominion his master hath over him, but be in all things in the same state and condition he was in before.

108th. Assemblies upon what pretence soever of religion, not observing and performing the above said rules, shall not be esteemed as churches, but unlawful meetings, and be punished as other riots.

109th. No person whatsoever shall disturb, molest, or persecute another, for his speculative opinions in religion, or his way of worship.

110th. Every freeman of Carolina, shall have absolute power and authority over his negro slaves, of what opinion or religion soever.

111th. No cause, whether civil or criminal, of any freeman, shall be tried in any court of judicature, without a jury of his peers.

112th. No person whatever, shall hold or claim any land in Carolina, by purchase or gift, or otherwise, from the natives or any other whatsoever; but merely from and under the Lords Proprietors, upon pain of forfeiture of all his estate, moveable or immoveable, and perpetual banishment.

113th. Whosoever shall possess any freehold in Carolina, upon what title or grant soever, shall at the farthest, from and after the year one thousand six hundred and eighty nine, pay yearly unto the Lords Proprietors, for each acre of land, English measure, as much fine silver as is at this present time in one English penny, or the value thereof, to be as a chief rent and acknowledgement to the Lords Proprietors, their heirs and successors forever. And it shall be lawful for the palatine's court, by their officers, at any time, to take a new survey of any man's land, not to oust him of any part of his possession, but that by such a survey, the just number of acres he possesseth may be known, and the rent thereon due, may be paid by him.

114th. All wrecks, mines, minerals, quarries of gems and precious stones, with pearl fishing, whale fishing, and one half of all ambergris, by whomsoever found, shall wholly belong to the Lords Proprietors.

115th. All revenues and profits, belonging to the Lords Proprietors, in common, shall be divided into ten parts, whereof the palatine shall have three, and each proprietor one; but if the palatine shall govern by a deputy, the deputy shall have one of those three tenths, and the palatine the other two tenths.

116th. All inhabitants and freemen of Carolina, above seventeen years of age, and under sixty, shall be bound to bear arms, and serve as soldiers whenever the grand council shall find it necessary.

117th. A true copy of these Fundamental constitutions shall be kept in a great book, by the register of every precinct, to be subscribed before the said register. Nor shall any person of what degree or condition soever, above seventeen years old, have any estate or possession in Carolina, or protection or benefit of the law there, who hath not, before a precinct register, subscribed these fundamental constitutions in this form:

"I, A. B., do promise to bear faith, and true allegiance, to our sovereign Lord King Charles the second, his heirs and successors, and will be true and faithful to the Palatine and Lords Proprietors of Carolina, their heirs and successors; and with my utmost power, will defend them and maintain the government, according to this establishment in these fundamental Constitutions."

118th. Whatsoever alien shall in this form, before any precinct Register, subscribe these fundamental constitutions, shall be thereby naturalized.

119th. In the same manner shall every person, at his admittance into any office, subscribe these fundamental constitutions.

120th. These fundamental constitutions, in number a hundred and twenty, and every part thereof, shall be and remain, the sacred and unalterable form and rule of government of Carolina forever. Witness our hands and seals the first day of March, 1669.

H. WOODARD TO SIR JOHN YEAMANS. 10 SEPT. 1670.

ALBYMARLE POINTE IN CHYANHAW Sept. 10. 1670.

Port of Chyanhaw wherenuppon at my retorne from Chufytachygs I
my aforesaid journie I have discovered a COUNTRY soe delitious, pleasant and fruitfull, y<sup>t</sup> were it cultivated doubtless it would prove a second Paradize It lyes West & by Northe neerest from us. 14 days travell after y<sup>e</sup> Indian manner of marchinge. I there contracted a leange wth
weeks after my retorne y<sup>e</sup> Carolina being longe in her dispatch from Virginia our Provision failes us & had not myne wth M<sup>r</sup> Jones diligence wth
of the natives it had gone very hard wth us in which seurseytie of Pro-
Helens y<sup>e</sup> Spanish Vessells & 30 Perryangors of Spaniards & Indians intendinge to worke us what mischief they could (and as I conceive they haveing intelligence of our expectations of a Supply in the Carolina) awaited at Sea to trapan our Shipp y<sup>t</sup> soe depriving us of our Supply and blockin us up our necessitys increasing wee consequently must have surrendered: for wth intent ther Perryangors lay 10 leagues distance from us at the mouth of Stonowe River & there shipp of at Sea. Yet it pleased God your Ship arrived safe to us wth a mast, convenient Supply ye Enmy not being removed, & yet being sensible thereof, theire Indians being terrified at y<sup>e</sup> scaling of some of our Great Guns And y<sup>e</sup> Spaniard as wee suppose being frustrated of his expectation of starveing us, cowardly retreated to St Augustines never attempting any thinge against us soe y<sup>t</sup> at prst we have noe other news but y<sup>t</sup> he hath threatened to destroy y<sup>e</sup> Indians of St Helens of Cumbohee & of Edistare y<sup>t</sup> are our freinds.

Thus as to the estate of our Gen<sup>l</sup> affaires As to our family necessity I suppose M<sup>r</sup> Jones hath made y<sup>r</sup> hon<sup>r</sup> fully acquainted as to my particullar wants I am more beholden to y<sup>r</sup> Hon<sup>rs</sup> Agent here then any thinge from y<sup>e</sup> Publicke, although I must confesse they have made hon<sup>ble</sup> reco<sup>m</sup>endations of mee in there Gen<sup>l</sup> letters. I shall endeavour by y<sup>e</sup> next to send y<sup>r</sup> hon<sup>r</sup> some of our American raritys our troubles at pres<sup>t</sup> not permitting mee y<sup>e</sup> vacancy as to travel y<sup>e</sup> Country. It being most of my business to await in towne & to give an account of what relations the natives bring us either from y<sup>e</sup> Southward or y<sup>e</sup> Northward soe y<sup>t</sup> least I might seeme to prolix I rest my respective service presented to y<sup>r</sup> Hon<sup>r</sup> not forgetting my respects to M<sup>rs</sup> Mavel Carter & the rest of y<sup>r</sup> Hon<sup>ble</sup> family & relations

You ought not to be dissatisfied to finde another man made Governor it was noe personall dislike or disrespect of yon that occasioned it but the nature of our Governm<sup>t</sup> w<sup>ch</sup> required that a Landgrave should be prefer'd to any Commoner soe that any body else as well as you must have given place to Sir John Yeamans but as our opinion of your discretion vigilancy & fidelity is not hereby at all lessened soe I am confident neither will y<sup>r</sup> care and concernm<sup>t</sup> for our publique or private affairs there slacken in y<sup>e</sup> least I look upon yon as one who doe in earnest minde y<sup>e</sup> interest & prosperity of our Settlem<sup>t</sup> wherein you will be sure to meete wth my kindnesse & such encouragem<sup>ts</sup> from mee as will assure you y<sup>t</sup> I am

EARL OF SHAFTESBURY TO SIR JOHN YEAMANS 20 JUNE 1672.

EXET<sup>r</sup> HOUSE 20th June 1672.

By the last acc<sup>t</sup> that came hither from Carolina, I find y<sup>t</sup> you were not received there with such Gener<sup>n</sup> Satisfaction nor so forwardly admitted to the Governm<sup>t</sup> we intended you, as perhaps was Imagined. I am sorry to find any Differences at all among you, the Causes whereof I shall not inquire into. But shall advise you as my friend not to make use of the Governm<sup>t</sup> we have put into y<sup>r</sup> Hands, to Revenge yourself on any who have spoke their apprehensions wth that freedom, which must be allowd, men in a Country wherein they are not designed to be oppress'd and where they may Justly expect equall Justice & protection.

I have too great a value for your condition and Ability not to desire continuance of a right understanding between us; and therefore I must take the Liberty, to deale freely wth you in a Matter wherein we are both concerned, and tell you plainly that I cannot avoid thinking that the Suspitions of those men who have express'd some feare of y<sup>r</sup> Managem<sup>t</sup> of y<sup>e</sup> Government, had some ground; Since your too forward Grasping at the Governm<sup>t</sup> when you came first thither, and your endeavours since to diminish the Authority of o<sup>er</sup> particular Depntys who are our representatives and invested there, with all our Power, hath given us even at this distance some umbrage, 'Tis in your power to sett all right, I Know you have Dexterity enough to do it. You are now upon foundations of a larger extent then are usuall, and perhaps then in other places you have met with, and if you will but suite the Mannagem<sup>t</sup> of your Gouvernm<sup>t</sup> to them, and Direct it Wholly to the impartiall prosperity of the Whole Plantation and all the Planters in it, you will remove the jealousies which I must tell you some of the Plantation have conceived of you, you will oblige the L<sup>ds</sup> Propriet<sup>rs</sup> and reap all those advantages which are sure to attend him who is the greatest and most considerable man in a thriving Plantation, and who hath contributed much to the advancem<sup>t</sup> thereof.

For my own part, I assure you that having set my mind on carrying on this Plantation and engaged my word that the people shall live safe there under the Protection of a faire and equall Governm<sup>t</sup> upon Confidence whereof most of the Planters have come thither. I shall think myself extreamly injured by any one who shall put such an affront on me, as to make those who trusted me, be deceived, and I am resolved at any rate rigourously to require Satisfaction of any one who by any undue proceedings shall discompose the quiet of this Settlement. On the other side I shall be as ready to acknowledge to any one whatever kindness they shall doe or assistance they shall give to this plantation. I the more frankly make this declaration to you S<sup>r</sup> John because you have already contributed much, and are like to doe more to the growth, and increase of this Plate<sup>a</sup> where you have a considerable and growing interest, which ought to make you have y<sup>e</sup> same concernm<sup>t</sup> for it that I have.

I return you my thanks for the fforward inclination you have shewne to Carolina, and tell you more over that you have it in your hand by endeavouring the Publick good of it to make me your friend as much and as long as you please, I am

Your very affectionate Friend

SHAFTESBURY.

EARL OF SHAFTESBURY TO JOS. WEST & THE REST
OF THE COUNCIL 20 JUNE 1672

EXETER HOUSE THIS 20th June 1672

Yo<sup>r</sup> late manangement of y<sup>e</sup> affaires of y<sup>e</sup> Plantation have binth soe much prudence that I cannot but returne you my particuler thanks & tell yo<sup>n</sup> that whilst yo<sup>n</sup> continue to be careful of y<sup>e</sup> common good of y<sup>e</sup> place w<sup>ch</sup> is yo<sup>r</sup> owne interest yo<sup>n</sup> shall always have me ready to countenance

& assist yo<sup>n</sup> in it & to study y<sup>e</sup> good of those men who shall endeavour to signalize themselves that way. To keep to y<sup>e</sup> rules of o<sup>r</sup> establishment it hath bin necessary for us to take y<sup>e</sup> government out of M<sup>r</sup> West's hands in w<sup>ch</sup> it hath thriven very well to put it into that only Landgraves w<sup>ch</sup> is upon the place. But I am very sorry to finde that S<sup>r</sup> John Yeamans is not a man soe acceptable to y<sup>e</sup> whole plantation as I could wish I know how hard it is for jealousys to be removed & factions united when once begunn though amongst men (as it often happens) otherwise discreet & worthy. That therefore this may not prejudice the affaires of o<sup>r</sup> plantation & the animosities that may arise from hence disturb the quiet w<sup>ch</sup> is necessary to an infant settlem<sup>t</sup> Wee shall endeavour to finde out as soone as we can a man to be Governo<sup>r</sup> who besides other qualifications fit for that employment may alsoe have this necessary one of being indifferent to y<sup>e</sup> whole plantation disinterested from all divisions in it & a man not suspected or disgusted by any of the Planters. This though I have a very great respect for S<sup>r</sup> John & noe other exception to him I see will be unavoidable for us to doe to preserve that unity & good understanding in y<sup>e</sup> Plantation that is necessary. In y<sup>e</sup> meane time I recommend it to yo<sup>r</sup> care (whose prudence & integrity we already have had experience of) to keepe unbiassed to those rules yo<sup>n</sup> will finde in o<sup>r</sup> fundamentall Constitutions Temporary Laws & instructions & perticularly o<sup>r</sup> Deputyes are to remember that they represent o<sup>r</sup> persons & therefore they ought not to diminish o<sup>r</sup> right by making themselves but cyphers & submitting too much to y<sup>e</sup> will of any Governo<sup>r</sup> nay of S<sup>r</sup> Peter Colleton himselfe or any of y<sup>e</sup> Lds. Propriet<sup>rs</sup> should come upon y<sup>e</sup> place o<sup>r</sup> deputyes ought to maintaine o<sup>r</sup> authority & share in y<sup>e</sup> government according to y<sup>e</sup> fundamentall Constitu<sup>ti</sup>ons w<sup>ch</sup> wee have to that purpose put into their hands Having bin soe carefull to balance one anothe<sup>rs</sup> power to prevent y<sup>e</sup> ingroeing it into any one hand that y<sup>e</sup> Palatine himselfe & soe his Deputy y<sup>e</sup> Governo<sup>r</sup> hath but his limited proportion of it suited to y<sup>e</sup> dispatch of affaires beyond w<sup>ch</sup> we never intended nor are o<sup>r</sup> Deputyes to suffer it to extend. This I am sure whilst yo<sup>n</sup> keep to those rules we have established the Plantation will thrive & every one in it if it be not his owne faulte be in a prosperous & safe condition. I recommend therefore yo<sup>r</sup> owne good & interest to yo<sup>r</sup> owne care wherein I am sure to stand by yo<sup>n</sup>. I very much applaud yo<sup>r</sup> faire dealing wth us in respect of o<sup>r</sup> stores & debt. This regard to o<sup>r</sup> concerns will encourage us to take all manner of care of yo<sup>n</sup>. I thinke myselfe particulerly obliged by it & am

“Afterwards, it being upon me, I travelled to Carolina, and two Friends accompanied me, it being all wilderness and no English inhabitants or path-ways, but some marked trees to guide people. The first day's journey we did pretty well, and lay that night in the woods, as we often used to do in those parts. The next day being wet weather we were sorely foiled in swamps and rivers, and one of the two who were with me for a guide, was at a stand to know which way the place lay we were to go to. I perceiving that he was at a loss, turned my mind to the Lord, and as he led me, I led the way. So we travelled in many difficulties until about sun-set; then they told me they could travel no farther; for they both fainted, being weak-spirited men. I bid them stay there, and kindle a fire, and I would ride a little farther, for I saw a bright horizon appear through the woods, which travellers take as a mark of some plantation. I rode on to it, and found it was only tall timber trees without underwood. But I perceived a small path, which I followed until it was very dark, and rained violently; then I alighted and set my back to a tree, until the rain abated. It being dark, and the woods thick, I walked all night between two trees; and though very weary, I durst not lie down on the ground, for my clothes were wet to my skin. I had eaten little or nothing that day, neither had I anything to refresh me but the Lord. In the morning I returned to seek my two companions, and found them lying by a great fire of wood. I told them how I had fared; and he that should have been the guide, would have persuaded me that we were gone past the place where we intended; but my mind drew to the path which I had found the night before. So I led the way, and that path brought us to the place where we intended, viz: Henry Phillip's house by Albemarle river.

“He and his wife had been convinced of the truth in New England, and came here to live; and not having seen a Friend for seven years before, they wept for joy to see us. It being on a first-day morning when we got there, although I was weary and faint and my clothes wet, I desired them to send to the people thereaway to come to a meeting about the middle of the day, and I would lie down upon a bed, and if I slept too long, that they should awake me. Now about the hour appointed many people came, but they had little or no religion, for they came and sat down in the meeting smoking their pipes. In a little time the Lord's testimony arose in the authority of His power, and their hearts being reached by it, several of them were tendered and received the testimony. After meeting they desired me to stay with them, and let them have more meetings.

"One Tems, a justice of the peace, and his wife were at the meeting, who received the truth with gladness, and desired to have the next meeting at their house, about three miles off, on the other side of the water; so we had a meeting there the next day, and a blessed time it was; for several were tendered with a sense of the power of God, received the truth and abode in it.

"1672. I could stay no longer with them at that time, for I had appointed a man's meeting in Virginia, to be on the fifth-day of that week; things being much out of order among them. I therefore took my leave of them in the love of God, and began my journey on third-day morning, with my two fellow travellers."

[REPRINTED FROM PAGES 458 AND 459 OF THE EDITION PUBLISHED AT FRIENDS' BOOK STORE, PHILADELPHIA.]

"After this, [eighth day of the ninth month] our way to Carolina grew worse, being much of it plashy, and pretty full of great bogs and swamps; so that we were commonly wet to the knees, and lay abroad a-nights in the woods by a fire: saving one of the nights we got to a poor house at Sommertown, and lay by the fire. The woman of the house had a sense of God upon her. The report of our travel had reached thither, and drawn some that lived beyond Sommertown to that house, in expectation to have seen and heard us; but they missed us.

"Next day, the twenty-first of the ninth month, having travelled hard through the woods and over many bogs and swamps, we reached Bonner's Creek; there we lay that night by the fire-side, the woman lending us a mat to lie on.

"This was the first house we came to in Carolina: here we left our horses, over-wearied with travel. From hence we went down the creek in a canoe to Macocomocock River, and came to Hugh Smith's, where people of other professions came to see us (no Friends inhabiting that part of the country) and many of them received us gladly. Among others came Nathaniel Batts, who had been governor of Roan-oak. He went by the name of captain Batts, and had been a rude, desperate man. He asked me about a woman in Cumberland, who, he said, he was told, had been healed by our prayers and laying on of hands, after she had been long sick, and given over by the physicians: he desired to know the certainty of it. I told him, we did not glory in such things, but many such things had been done by the power of Christ.

"Not far from hence we had a meeting among the people, and they were taken with the truth; blessed be the Lord! Then passing down the river Maratiek in canoe, we went down the bay Connie-oak, to a captain's, who was loving to us, and lent us his boat, for we were much wetted in the canoe, the water flashing in upon us. With this boat we went to the governor's; but the water in some places was so shallow, that the boat, being loaden, could not swim; so that we put off our shoes and stockings, and waded through the water a pretty way. The governor, with his wife, received us lovingly; but a doctor there would needs dispute with us. And truly his opposing us was of good service, giving occasion to the opening of many things to the people concerning the Light and Spirit of God, which he denied to be in every one; and affirmed it was not in the Indians. Whereupon I called an Indian to us, and asked him, 'Whether or no, when he did lie, or do wrong to any one, there was not something in him, that did reprove him for it?' He said 'There was such a thing in him that did so reprove him; and he was ashamed when he had done wrong, or spoken wrong.' So we shamed the doctor before the governor and people; insomuch that the poor man ran out so far that at length he would not own the Scriptures. We tarried at the governor's that night; and next morning he very courteously walked with us himself about two miles through the woods, to a place whither he had sent our boat about to meet us. Taking leave of him, we entered our boat, and went about thirty miles to Joseph Scot's, one of the representatives of the country. There we had a sound, precious meeting; the people were tender, and much desired after meetings. Wherefore at a house about four miles further, we had another meeting; to which the governor's secretary came, who was chief secretary of the province, and had been formerly convinced.

"I went from this place among the Indians, and spoke to them by an interpreter, shewing them, 'That God made all things in six days, and made but one woman for one man; and that God did drown the old world because of their wickedness. Afterwards I spoke to them concerning Christ, shewing them, that he died for all men, for their sins, as well as for others; and had enlightened them as well as others; and that if they did that which was evil he would burn them; but if they did well they should not be burned.' There was among them their young king and others of their chief men, who seemed to receive kindly what I said to them.

"Having visited the north part of Carolina, and made a little entrance for the truth among the people there, we began to return again towards Virginia, having several meetings in our way, wherein we had good service for the Lord, the people being generally tender and open; blessed be the Lord! We lay one night at the secretary's, to which we had much ado to get; for the water being shallow, we could not bring our boat to shore. But the secretary's wife, seeing our strait, came herself in a canoe, her husband being from home, and brought us to land. By next morning our boat was sunk, and full of water; but we got her up, mended her, and went away in her that day about twenty-four miles, the water being rough, and the winds high: but the great power of God was seen, in carrying us safe in that rotten boat. In our return we had a very precious meeting at Hugh Smith's; praised be the Lord forever! The people were very tender, and very good service we had amongst them. There was at this meeting an Indian captain, who was very loving; and acknowledged it to be truth that was spoken. There was also one of the Indian priests, whom they call Pauwaw, who sat soberly among the people. The ninth of the tenth month we got back to Bonner's Creek, where we had left our horses; having spent about eighteen days in north of Carolina."

WHITEHALL 18th May 1674.

Wee have herewith sent a Patent to M<sup>r</sup> West to be Landgrave and a Comission to be Governor who hath all along by his care, fidellity and prudence in the management of our affaires, to our generall satisfaction recommended himself to us as the fittest man there for this trust. This we cannot forbare plainly to say though wee have a great Regard to Sir John Yeamans as a considerable man that hath come and settled amongst us when M<sup>r</sup> West liad formerly the management of affaires, things were then putting into such a posture (as appears by the Act of Parliament made att the latter end of his Government which we herewith send you confirmed) That wee had some encouragement to send supplies to men who took into their consideration how wee might be reimbursed as well as they could which was all wee expected but immediately with Sir Johns assuming the Government the face of things altered the first newes was of severall proposalls for the increaseng our charge, the same still hath ever since continued on, and in your verry last Dispatches a Scheme sent to us of wayes of supplying youe which would presently require the disbursement of severall thousand pounds and all this without the least mention of any thought how wee might be repaid either our past debts which allready amounts to severall thousand pounds or be better answered for the future. But instead thereof complaints made and reproaches insinuated as if wee had dealt ill and unjustly with you, because wee would not continue to feed and cloath you on without expectation or demand of any Returns this wee must let you know put a stop to your supplys more than the Dutch Warr, for wee thought it time to give of a charge which was like to have no end and the Country was not worth the haveing at that rate, for itt must be a bad soyle that would not maintaine industrious people or we must be verry silly that would maintaine the idle but wee have no suspition att all of the barrennesse or any other ill qualities of the Country which some of us are soe well assured of that at their own private charge they are going to settle a plantation at Edistow without expecting a farthing assistance from us. That Sir John Yeamans management hath brought things to this pass wee are well Satisfied which yett wee cannot charge upon his mistake, the Character which wee have received of him and his long acquaintance with Barbados and the world gives us our thoughts of him and perhaps it would very well have Secured his purpose if weehad Supplied you and he reaped the profits of your labour att his own Rates and our own plantation Soe ordered that in Reputation people and Improvement itt might arise att noe other pitch then to be Subservient in Provisions and Timber to the Interest of Barbados. Consider at which Rates Sir John bought our poore planters provisions in their necessity and how industrious and usefull to you the generallity of the people that came from Barbados have been and then tell us whether wee have not reason to be of this minde For wee would not have those who went from hence (whom wee are Still willing to encourage bee any longer mislead and the people that have come to you from New York and the Northward have by their planting and way of living amongst you fully Satisfied us that they are Friends to and doe in earnest meane and desire the Settlement and prosperity of our Province, being therefore willing to give all reasonable incouragement to honest and industrious men we have sent another supply of Cloathes for cloathes and tooles and have entered into engagement one to another to Send yearly to youe whereby our stores shall never want necessities for the use of the industrious planters to be had att moderate Rates, by those that will pay for them, yett wee doe not intend any more carelessly to throw away our stock and charges upon the Idle for though wee the Lords Proprietors have tyed one another by covenant that none Shall bee behinde others in the Charge of carrying on this plantation yett wee are all greed not to make any more desperate Debts amongst you though wee intend to be at charge in proenreing vines olives or any other usefull plants or commodities fit for the Climate out of any part of the world and men Skilled in the management of them and therefore if you intend to have Suplyes for the future you will doe well to consider how you will pay us, in what comodities you can best do it and how the Trade of those Comodities you can best procure may bee soe managed as to turn to account for in our trade with you we ayme not att the profit of merchant but the incouragement of landlords In your letters you have been frequent in the mention of a Stock of Cattle, you say it will enable you to pay your Debts but do you not think if wee bring cattle thither wee who doe not want ground cannot keep them & make the profit of our charge and Venture as well as others especially it being our designe to have Planters there and not Graziers for if our Intentions were to stock Carolina att that Rate wee could doe better by Baylife and Servants of our own, who would be more observant of our orders than you have been, plant in Townes where we direct Take up noe more lands than what they had use for nor by a scattered Settlement and large Tracts of ground taken up and not like to bee planted these many years exclude other from coming neare them and yet complaine for want of Neighbours, we rest,

AN ACCOUNT OF HIS MAJESTY'S PLANTATIONS IN AMERICA.

(1675)

His Majesty's Forreign Plantations in America are govern'd either by Proprietors, Corporations, Companies or by Governours immediately appointed by His Majesty.

The Plantations governed by Proprietors are
New Yorke belonging to His Royal Highness

New Jersey belonging to Sir George Cartwright and others.

Maryland belonging to the Lord Baltimore.

Carolina under which is also comprehended the Luciai and Bahama Islands belonging to the Duke of Albemarle, Earl of Shaftesbury and other Lords and Gentlemen.

The Corporations contained within the bounds of New England are

The Colony of Rhode Island & Providence Plantations.

The Colony of Connecticut

The Colony of New Plymouth

The Province of Maine and New Hampshire, and other small Colonies adjoining the first claimed by M<sup>r</sup> Gorges, the latter by M<sup>r</sup> Mason.

The Plantations governed by Companies residing in England, are

The Colonies and Factories settled in Prince Rupert's Land and Hudsons Bay.

The Bermudos otherwise called the Summer Islands.

The Plantations governed by His Majesty's immediate Commissions, are

The Island of Jamaica

The Windward and Leeward Islands

The Windward Islands are

Barbados and other uninhabited Islands.

The Leeward Islands, are,

Nevis

Antego

Auguilla and other uninhabited Islands.

There is besides a Colony of English, settled upon the eastern coast of Newfoundland without Government Ecclesiastical or Civill, who live by catching fish. All these Plantations are governed either by the Laws of England, or by Municipal Laws, not repugnant to those of England.

The Trade of the Plantations is, by several Acts of Parliament, confined to England; whereby no sugar, tobacco, Cotton-wool, indico, Ginger, Fustick or other dying-wood of the growth or manufacture of the Plantations may be transported from thence to any other place than England, nor any European Commodities be carried thither but what shall be shipped in England.

The Religion of the church of England is most practised in the Plantations; but liberty of conscience is in all places allowed, except in New England, where the government and discipline of Congregational Churches exclude all others.

EXTRACTS FROM THE JOURNAL OF WILLIAM EDMUNDSON'S SECOND VISIT TO CAROLINA.

---

"I was moved of the Lord to go to Carolina, and it was perillous travelling, for the Indians were not yet subdued, but did mischief and murdered several. They haunted much in the wilderness between Virginia and Carolina, so that scarce any durst travel that way unarm'd. Friends endeavored to dissuade me from going, telling of several who were murdered. I considered, that if I should fall by the hands of those murderers, many thereby would take occasion to speak against truth and Friends; so I delayed some time, thinking the Lord might remove it from me, but it remained still with me.

"The next day I made ready for my journey, but none ventured to go with me, save one ancient man, a Friend. We took our journey through the wilderness, and in two days came well to Carolina, first to James Hall's house, who went from Ireland to Virginia with his family. His wife died there, and he had married the widow Phillips at Carolina, and lived there; but he had not heard that I was in those parts of the world. When I came into the house, I saw only a woman servant; I asked for her master. She said he was sick. I asked for her mistress, she said she was gone abroad. I bid her show me the room where her master lay; so I went into the room, where he was laid on the bed, sick of an ague with his face to the wall. I called him by his name, and said no more; he turned himself, and looked earnestly at me a pretty time, and was amazed; at last he asked if that was William? I said yes. He said he was affrighted, for he thought it had been my spirit; so he presently got up, and the ague left him, and did not return. He travelled with me the next day, and kept me company whilst I stayed in that part.

"On the first-day following, the appointed a meeting on the other side of Albemarle river, where the men and women had been convinced when I was there formerly; but when we came the man told us his wife was just dying, and it would not be convenient at that time to have the meeting there. So we ordered the meeting to be about a mile from thence, at one Tems's house, a justice of the peace, who with his wife, was convinced, and received the truth when I was in that country before. There we had a full precious meeting, but after we had gone from the house where the dying woman lay, she came to her senses, and her husband told her of the meeting, and of me; she said she remembered me well, and the words I spoke when I was there several years before, were as fresh in her memory, as if she heard me speak them just then; and said it had been happy for her that day, if she had lived accordingly. She died before our meeting was done, so that I could not speak with her. I had several precious meetings in that colony, and several turned to the Lord. People were tender and loving, and there was no room for the priests, for Friends were finely settled, and I left things well among them. When I was clear of that service, we returned to Virginia, safe under the Lord's protection; praises to his name for evermore!"

NOTE.—No date is given except that the whole tour in the Barbadoes, America, &c., is said to have been from 1675 to 1677; but a reference to Bacon's Rebellion seems to fix the date of this second visit to Albemarle in the year 1676.—ED.

OCTOBER 21st 1676.

Gentlemen,

Wee have received your two Letters the one of the 17th November 1675 the other of the 28th March last per hands of M<sup>r</sup> Thomas Miller; and doe in the first place assure you; that wee neither have nor ever will parte with the County of Albemarle to any person whatsoever. But will alwayse maintaine our province of Carolina entire as itt is. The Reasons that induce us to this resolution are such that wee mayntaine and preserve you in the English Rights and Liberties and in the next place your scituation beinge contiguous to Virginia is of great importance to us for the well plantinge of the rest of our province which wee expected should have had longe since a better progress with you; and that the Rivers of Pamphleco and Newse should have bin before this welplanted and a way and Intercouree by Land should have bine discovered between you and our Plantation on Ashley River, and the neglect of these two has bine the Cause that heitherto wee have had noe more Reguard for you as lookinge upon you as a people that neither understood your own nor regarded our Interests. But some of us discourseinge with M<sup>r</sup> Eastchurch your speaker, who is now come over to us and M<sup>r</sup> Miller that Brought your letters they have fully sattisfied us that the fault was not in you but in those persons into whose hands wee had committed the Government and that severall of you that had made attempts and undertakings for the discovery of a way by land to the plantation on Ashley River as alsoe to plant more southward upon those rivers of Pamphleco Newse were with great Violence and Injustice deprived of any power to proceed any further in such worthy undertakeings and some of you that were planted on the South side of Albemarle River were commanded back to your great prejudice and inconvenience.

Wee doe alsoe further acquainte you that wee are very well pleased and sattisfied with your proceedure with Lieutenant Colonel Jenkins and your Order and settlement of the Councell and Government untill you heard further from us who observe to our great sattisfaction that in all your proceedings you maintaine the due Respect to us and regard to faire Justice among yourselves, But wee must blame you and utterly disallow and disapprove of your sending Mr Thomas Miller or any person whatsoever to be tried in Verginia or on of your owne Precincts which is a-prejudice to the power and authority wee derive from his Majestie's Grant But however for what is past wee cannot reflect on you when wee consider the conjunction of time and the apprehensions you had of Sir W<sup>m</sup> Berkeley's being sole Proprietor, and upon this occation wee thinke fitt to mind you that wee utterly dislike tryinge and condemning any person either in Criminall or Civill causes without a Jury and that noe evidence clandestinely taken can bee of any validdity otherwise then to cause the Criminall person to be secured where the crime is of a great nature.

Wee must further acquainte you that wee have given Instructions to our Governor and Committee that they earnestly press and recomend to you the Settinge the South side of the river of Albemarle and that as much as may be in Townes, it being a frontier settlement which if itt be made stronge and as itt ought will be a Security to you from the Incurtions of the Indians and wee have alsoe given them further Instructions that they cause three Townes to be settled which shall bee the porte Towns of your County of Albemarle which places are the first Roanoke Island which wee would have the Cheife towne and the place where the Councell assemble should meete the 2nd Towne should bee placed on the west side of the Little Rivers mouth the 3rd Towne to bee upon the neck of land betweene Salmon Creeke and Morratocke River, these three Townes to bee the onely places where the Shippes shall lade and unlaid and to have all other priviledges which are necessary for the supporte of them, and upon which we have ordered the Government and Councell to advise with the assembly of the County more particularly that such priviledges as may be to advance the makinge of those places considerable Townes and are proper for a Grant from us may be granted by us and such things and priviledges as are more proper for an act of the assembly may by us and the assembly bee enacted, for wee must assure you that it is your and our Concerne very much to have some very good Towns in your Plantations for other wise you will not longe continue civillized or ever bee considerable or secure, there being no place in the world either of there without them.

Wee are lastly to acquaint you that wee finding Mr Eastchurch your Speaker to be a gentleman of a very good family and as he seems to us a very discreet and worthy man and very much concerned for your prosperity and wellfaire and by the oppertunity of his being here well instructed in our desires concerning these particulars wee have mentioned to you on these Considerations wee have chosen and authorized him to bee our Governor over that part of our province which you calld Albemarle and wee have appointed severall other Gentlemen for our deputies and you the assembly are to choose as many in number as our deputies shall be to make upp the Great Councell.

Mr Thomas Miller has delivered in a paper of Complaints to us containing great oppressions and Injuries done which wee have thought most proper to referr to the Councell and assembly upon the place and earnestly desire you will cause such justice to be done him as his cause shall require, and that you will sertifie us what proceedings you shall make in it if it shall bee soe desired. Wee rest

Your most assured friends

* * * *

My Lord Bishop of London presented to the Committee a Memorial of abuses crept into the Churches of the Plantations containing nine articles which are all read as follows.

1. That the Governors Keep Parishes vacant and commission persons to officiate without orders.

Wherenpon it is ordered that this abuse be represented to the several Governors of such Plantations as are under his Ma<sup>ties</sup> immediate jurisdiction for redress.

2. That the profits of vacant Parishes are converted by the People to their own use.

This to be redressed by the Governors

3. That Ministers are hired for time

To be likewise remedied

4. That the Ministers are ill paid.

The Governors in this particular to observe the laws of England.

5. That in Mariland and other places there is no settled maintenance for Ministers at all.

Upon which head my Lord Baltimore is called in and being acquainted with this particular a copie is to be delivered his Lo<sup>p</sup> of this Article that hee may propose a measure for the support of a convenient number of Ministers against Thursday next.

And it is further agreed that this defect ought to bee supplied in all the plantations remaining under propriety and that letters bee written accordingly.

6. That in Virginia there are noe places allotted to bury the dead &c. Which is to be signified to the Gov<sup>r</sup> for redress.

7. That the Vestry exercise a power over the Ministry.

Herenpon their Lordships will consider at their next Meeting the Law of Jamaica which concerns the Vestry in reference to the Ministry.

8. That in Virginia the laws are not duly executed prohibiting Marriages to be solemnized without lawful Ministers and persons to exercise the Ministry without prooffe that they are in orders.

These Laws are to bee observed in every place.

9. That noe care is taken for the passage of new Ministers.

Wherenpon it is thought fit that the Gov<sup>rs</sup> doe provide for the expense of transporting Ministers and other charges out of the profits arising by the vacancies.

5. You are by and with the consent of the Assembly to make such Laws as you shall from time to time finde necessary which Laws being rattified by you, and any three of our five Deputys, shall be in force as in that case provided in the Twelfth and other articles of our fundamentall Constitutions and forme of Government. You are as soon as conveniently you can to cause the Surveyor Generall to divide the Countrey into squares of twelve thousand acres By which wee intende not to alter any man's right but that those measures and rules that wee have agreed on in our fundamentall Constitutions and forme of Government may the sooner and easier come to be put in practice amongst you.

6. You are to take notice that wee doe grant into all free persons that doe come to plant in Carolina before the 25th day of December, 1684 and are above the age of sixteene yeares sixty akers of land and to the said free persons for every able man servant with a good fyerlock tenn pounds of powder and twenty pounds of Bullet sixty akers and for every other sort what customes have been received in England for the same for that by reason of the Badnesse of the Harbours in those parts most of the Tobaccos of the growth of those Countreyes have been and are Carried from thence in Sloopes and small fetches to Virginia & New England & from thence shipped hither. So that the Entries here are as from Virgin<sup>a</sup> & New England although the Tobacco be of the growth of Carolina & Albemarle. And as to what is desired That his Ma<sup>tie</sup> would be pleased to Send the Petitioner two of his small ships for the Transporta<sup>ti</sup>on of about four score Protestant families to Carolina and that Two thousand pounds sterling which is to be advanced towards this undertaking may be reimbursed to the adventurers out of the first Moneys accruing to his Ma<sup>tie</sup> by bringing into England the Commodities of that same Planta<sup>ti</sup>on; We humbly answer.

first That it is not said in the Petition that these families are now in parts beyond y<sup>e</sup> Seas, & would come hither on purpose to be transported for Carolina but that for ought appears they may be Protestant families that are already settled here, and we cannot advise that his Ma<sup>tie</sup> should give any Encouragement to any People who are settled in this Kingdome whether Natives or Forreigners to transport themselves from hence into any of his Ma<sup>ties</sup> Planta<sup>ti</sup>ons or Ireland On the contrary we are of opinion that there are too many families that do dayly Transport themselves both to the Planta<sup>ti</sup>ons & to Ireland to the to the ruine of this Kingdome. And we are of Opinion that means are rather to be used for the hindring then the promoting thereof but if these families are now really in parts beyond the Seas, we think that the Encouraging of them to come over to goe to Carolina is a very good Work.

2. But we do further offer that the Colony being given by his Ma<sup>tie</sup> in Propriety to sever<sup>all</sup> Lords Proprietors We see noe reason why his Ma<sup>tie</sup> should be at y<sup>e</sup> charge of Peopleing that Colony but that the same ought to be borne by those to whom his Ma<sup>tie</sup> hath given the same in Propriety.

3. The Customes upon Tobacco are soe considerable being two pence p<sup>er</sup> pound That if Carolina should be p<sup>er</sup>mitted to Import Tobacco Custom free It would be a very great discouragement to his Ma<sup>ties</sup> other Colonies who plant Tobacco. And besides Carolina is soe nigh to Virginia & Albemarle that in this case the Tobaccos of those parts would in small Boats be carried to Carolina & be shipped hither in small Ketches as Tobacco of the growth of Carolina & it would be Impossible to prevent this fraud.

4. But whereas the Pretence of Transporting these families is for the setting up of the Trade of silkes Wines and Oyles We doe offer that in case his Maj<sup>tie</sup> shall think fit to do any thing in this business That it may be by granting to the Petiōners a Proportion not exceeding one halfe part of such customes as shall Arive upon Wines silkes & Oyles, & due care to be taken that there be good and authentick proofs that the said Comodities are of the growth of that place & that the allowance to be made by his Ma<sup>tie</sup> be upon such Wines, Silkes and Oyles only as shall be imported immediatly from Carolina into the Port of London for the more Exact Keeping the Accompt & preventing frauds & abuses to be put upon his Ma<sup>tie</sup> by importing silkes wines and oyles of other Countreyes as if from Carolina.

1679.

BOSTON IN NEW ENGLAND June 10th 1679.

May it please your Honours,

Since my arrivall at this place (in order to my passing for the County of Albemarle in the Province of Carolina having received from y<sup>r</sup> Hon<sup>rs</sup> Commission & Instructions for the collection of His Majesty's Customs &c.) haveing met with divers informations tending to my place there & the frauds used by the traders here about Tobacco transported thence to this place and else where, It is my duty (& ¶ the greatest injunctive tie devised) to give information of all affaires thereunto relating as also ¶ severall articles in my Instructions required in such negociations to serve the King faithfully in y<sup>e</sup> misdemeanours of his subjects about the defrauding of customes &c. The subwritten accompt of such affaires in here inserted.

About  $\frac{1}{2}$  dozen traders of this place with their complices receive the greatest part of the production of tobacco in the County of Albemarle in the Province of Carolina annually & ¶ a person whom through their interest wth the people have factiously made one Mr Culpeper (a Gentleman I Know not) the Collector of his Ma<sup>ty</sup>'s Customes, by which meanes they & he have played such notorious pranks with the specious pretences of doing justice and preserving the King's rights that a people and Customes Treasure were never more infatuated, cheated and exhausted by the current late received stamp in these parts of New England Christian policy.

And as the Tobacco trade current causeth their concommure thither & their wayes to leniate y<sup>e</sup> impost (which the other subjects of the King pay) resteth not there, for from thence brought hither, they have liberty without farther examination here to carry the same to Ireland, Holland, France, Spain or any other place under the notion of fish and such like goods by which the trade is so diverted from the true rules of Commerce that trafique in this Western world must be monopolized in this Commodity only to New England & the rest of His Majesty's people so trading must become Bostoniz'd or relinquish dealing if speciall care is not had thereto & a settlement of Customes here with the King's Officers.

That the Canary trade in like nature is carried on: Ships from hence go thither & load wines, touch at Maderas or some other of the Western Islands & there take about a tun of their wines which they put in the hatchway coming home; From whence your ship? From Maderas, with their lading Wines, & so draw off the upper Caskes for a taste & so the whole ship under this notion is unladed without further enquiry. I was told this by one who sailed in a ship that practised it.

That the Scotch Trade by the like Legerdemain jugles is driven. A ship at Newcastle Berwick Poole &c. toucheth taketh in coals or some slight goods, goes for Scotland and there receives great quantities of linen & other Scotch goods what they think best to bring & coming here by her English clearings at the Ports &c. abovesaid passeth for current without farther inquisition.

The French, Spanish & what Country else European trade in like nature passeth home under the pretence of French or Spanish salt &c. by which from France they import all that Country wares as Linen, Wines, Rubans, Silks &c. from Spaine wines, fruits, oyle Portugall the like goods &c. from hence transport as afores<sup>d</sup> under the notion of fish to all these places what will turn to account.

Here is just now a ship returned from Madagascar by the way put severall Negroes on shore at Jamaica, she touched I hear at severall parts of East India & besides hath brought Elephant teeth where she got them knows not, she hath been a year &  $\frac{1}{2}$  out.

The fame that this place hath bore in this Western part of the World as well as elsewhere (in this article makes me somewhat digress) about their church govern<sup>t</sup> and integrity of life in breef is now almost wholly devoured with Christian Policy of New England by which meanes they have made their adoration their prime best Commodity of Merchandize & their Zeale their chief broaker, as their occasions and affaires in the world shall require, that these two now may pass for the grand Cheates of the world.

For my part I have thought this my duty both to my King & yourselves in that place (under your favor) I enjoy, to advise that these irregular courses may be prevented & care taken as your wisdomes herein may appoint, without which not only many of His Ma<sup>ty</sup>'s Liege People will be oppressed; But my Masters the Lords Proprietors of the Countie of Albemarle in the Countie of Carolina will through their interest of trade there be kept in faction & Rebellion as now it is and for severall yeare hath been & they the cause wholly that their Lordships government cannot take place.

I shall omitt no time nor paines in the execution of my office according to my capacity & wholly follow your Instructions and Orders & endeavour to regulate within my power & by all opportunities give advice of all occurrences.

Within this 2 or 3 dayes I depart hence for Albemarle Countie in y<sup>e</sup> Province of Carolina having been about 10 dayes here. R. H.

The humble proposalls of Tymothy Biggs to the most illustrious & Rt. Hon<sup>ble</sup> Lords Proprietors of his Ma<sup>ties</sup> Colony of Carolina I presume that yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>ds</sup> having beene out considerable sumes of money for the well planting the south parts of your Province with hopes of a further Answer of your Expecta<sup>ti</sup>on then you may have hitherto had Possibly may be a Reason of unwillingnesse in your Lord<sup>ts</sup> to Lance out no further But I humbly propose to your Lord<sup>ts</sup> That notwithstanding you have not beene out as yet any thing upon that County in y<sup>e</sup> Province called Albemarle yet y<sup>e</sup> Inhabitants have liv'd and gott Estates under y<sup>r</sup> Lord<sup>ts</sup> there by their owne Industry and brought it to the capacity of a hopefull Settlement and ere these had it had your Lord<sup>ts</sup> smiles & assistance but a tenth part of what your Southern parts have had It would have beene a Flourishing Settlement But People having no assurance of their Lands (for that yet never any Patents have beene granted under yo<sup>r</sup> Lord<sup>ts</sup> to the Inhabitants) is matter of great discouragement for men of Estates to come amongst us because those already seated there have no assurance of their enjoyment.

As to our Inletts Virginia being so neare us when the Government shall be well settled (our Land exceeding Virginia & our Stocks of Cattell not requiring fodder as Virginia doth) will draw men of Estates amongst us who may by building small Vessells send our Tobacco to shipp that lye at Virginia Capes and have freight cheaper for delivering the same on board for that many ships are forced by their sloops to fetch their tobacco further than our place is from Virginia And the goodnesse of our Tobacco will advance the price to countervale the charge.

Whereas it appears by the affidavit of Thomas Miller that the pet<sup>r</sup> being by Comission from the Commissioners of his Maj<sup>ties</sup> Customs appointed Collector of His Ma<sup>ty</sup>s Customs in Albemarle in Carolina, hee had gotten into his custody sundry specialties and other effects of Tobacco received to the quantity of 8 or 900 Hogsheads together with sundry other European Goods seized as illegally imported to the value of 1200£ ster<sup>d</sup> but that the premises were snatched out of the pet<sup>rs</sup> hands in a Rebellion contrivet carryed on and headed by Richard Forster John Culpeper and several others and that the said John Culpeper assuming the title of Collector of his Ma<sup>ty</sup>s Customs took the same into his custody & embezzled great part thereof if not the whole and suffered vessels illegally to trade and that the said John Culpeper being since come into England is now upon his return back unto some of his Ma<sup>ty</sup>s Plantations in America It was thereupon Ordered by the Lords of his Ma<sup>ty</sup>s most hon<sup>ble</sup> Privy Councill that the Commis<sup>rs</sup> for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of England doe forthwith give directions to the Commander in cheife of his Ma<sup>ty</sup>s ships in the Downs forthwith to cause strict search to to bee made on board all shippes as well Men of Warr as others bound to Virginia or elsewhere for y<sup>e</sup> person of the said John Culpeper and him to seize and send up in safe custody hither to answer to the abovementioned crimes & offences And it was further Ordered that the Lords Commiss<sup>rs</sup> of his Ma<sup>ty</sup>s Treasury do forthwith give directions to the Commiss<sup>rs</sup> of his Ma<sup>ty</sup>s Customs to give orders to the severall officers in the Western Ports from whence any ships are bound to Virginia or other his Ma<sup>ty</sup>s American Plantations, strictly to search the said ships or such as by accident may put in there for the said person of John Culpeper and him to seize and send him up in safe custody hither to answer to the abovementioned crimes and effects.

[B. P. R. O. COLONIAL PAPERS.]

REPRESENTATION TO THE LORDS PROPRIETORS OF CAROLINA CONCERNING THE REBELLION IN THAT COUNTRY. TO BE MADE USE OF IN FURTHER EXAM-INATIONS.

It is humbly tendred to the consideration of the most Illustrious and Right Honorable the Lords Proprietors of the Province of Carolina.

That the Rebellion of the Inhabitants of the County of Albemarle was not accidentall or casually arose from any present or sudden provocation given, but rather the effect of a more mature or deliberate contrivance, which I humbly conceive will so appeare to your Lordships by the ensuing particulars as here circunstanced, the maine substance whereof can be clearly proved by the evidence of divers credible witnesses upon oath before any person or persons, your Honors shall thiuk fit to empower to take cognizance of the premisses.

That the Principalls and Heads of this Rebellion were not only prompted theremto by ambition and envy or the private pekes and particular disgusts they had to those Gentlemen your Honors thought fit to entrust with the Government, but alsoe more especially those personall and particular crimes they knew themselves guilty of and accountable for whenever a Governor should come.

That this was a deliberate design of no sudden growth may be proved by their generall charge wherein all their former actions seem to have a naturall tendency to this their last and horrid end, At first their severall times disturbing the Courts, subverting the Government, dissolving Parliaments, Their industrious labor to be popular and continued making of factions and parties.

Their poysoning the peoples eares, unsettling and disquieting their minds, by diffusing and dropping abroad, by their Agents false and dangerous Reports tending much to the indignity of your Honors and reproach of your Government, and among divers others, that your Honors intended to raise the Quitrents to two pence and from two pence to six pence per acre. Now what they have done since is so notorious and obvious to every eye, as the imprisoning your Lordships' Deputies, putting the President who was likewise his Majesty's Collector into Irons, their Generall arming on the first appearance of Gilham's shipp in Pas-cotanke River, their seizing and carrying away the Records, Lastly their arrogating and assuming to themselves the supreme and sovereign power, by first dissolving then erecting Courts of Judicature, convening Parliaments without Writs, and as if they had the sovereign and absolute power they put out make New Officers not only in Courts and other public services of the Country, but even where The King is more immediately concerned, turning out His Majesty's Collectors, putting in others, clearing and discharging Ships, but last of all their most horrid treasonable and tyrannicall actings in erecting a Court for tryall of life and death without the Lords Deputies or Commission of Oyer and Terminer or any other colour or pretence of Authority, either from His sacred Majty or your Lordships, and particularly in the cases of M<sup>r</sup> Thomas Miller and M<sup>r</sup> Timothy Biggs.

But their speciall, particular and respective crimes are here annexed to their severall names here in the margin in the order following (viz<sup>t</sup>)

Cap<sup>t</sup> Valentine Bird. He being appointed by the Country to be Collector of His Majesty's Duty of the penny per pound, for all Tobacco not exported for England, did without power from or the privity or consent of either my Lord High Treasurer or his Majesty's Commissioners of the Customs suffer the New England Traders to load and carry away the Tobacco of the Country without paying the said Duties, by which meanes they are now run in arreare to His Majesty one hundred and fifty thousand weight of Tobacco, and finding the hazard he had run in case another Collector should be sent he with above one hundred more, most whereof were Pastotankians, which after led the other Precincts into Rebellion there, with him subscribing a Paper against the payment of the said Duty, but after hearing by the report of Crawford that M<sup>r</sup> Eastchurch was coming Governor and M<sup>r</sup> Miller Collector, Bird and the rest of the subscribers were the first that took armes and opposed Miller at his first landing fearing they should be questioned for what they had done so, as soone as ever Gilham arrived they again take armes and by their Agents invite the other three Precincts to joyne with them, and till the generall claps of the Country they were only in this defection and Bird was their Leader and drew the first sword, encouraged hereunto by Captain Zackery Gilham who supplied them with many fire armes and other weapons of War, came with some of his Seamen armed to Captain Crawford's house, where the President and two other of the Deputies were taken prisoners.

George Dnrant. hath several times before not only contemned but opposed the authority established by your Honors, and in the head of a Rebell rout by force subverted the Government turning out and placing in whom he and they thought fit at pleasure, and openly threatening that, if ever Mr Thomas Eastchurch came in Governor, he would turn Rebell. And as if these were too small crimes, he hath viciated a Record of Court by adding, razing and other wayes altering the verdict of a jury, and as foreman giving it in contrary to what the whole Jury had returned upon oath, particularly in case of Mr Thomas Miller. And in fine hath all along when at home beene one of the most violent, active and the most outrageous of all the Conspirators and Insurrectors.

Capt. William Crawford hath formerly as well as now industriously made it his business to be popular, make factions and then head them and very subtilly though clandestinely and underhand, will be found one of the chief contrivers as well as aeters in this Rebellion, but (besides) his particuler crime, in the imbezling and taking of the file of the Records, a grations grant of your Lordships to the Country. And having formerly got the Records into his Custody, divers of them are since not to be found: and this he did, as may be judged; (since he could make no private advantage thereby) purposely to keep the people ignorant of your Honors good intentions to this Country and might find fitter occasions thereby to insence them against your Lordships and the government.

Capt: John Willoughby He is a person that runs himself into many errors and premuneries through his extra-judiciall and arbitrary proceedings in the Courts of Judicature, and for instance in the case of Mr Thomas Eastchurch, who by reason of their tyranny and injustice to himwards would have appealed to your Lordships, but was thus answered by Willoughby That they were the Court of Courts and Jury of Juries. He is a person that through a naturall habit of pride or ambition hath been alwaies imperious amongst his equals, courteous to his inferiours, because factious and would be popular; stubborne and disobedient to superiors, evidenced by his scornfull and peremptory refusing obedience to the summons of the Palatine's Court and his beating the sworn Officer that served the same: and for this and other scornes and contempts put upon the Court, and continuing still obstinate, he was outlawed: The next Parliament approving of the proceedings against him, set a fine on his head for his said contempt. And hereupon he disavowes your Government by addressing his complaints to the Governor and Councill of Virginia, and notwithstanding the discountenance he met with there, yet he returns not homewards till he heard the Country was up in armes.

Capt: Thomas Cullum frequently sells powder, shot and fire-arnes, as well to those Indian nations that are not as those that are in amity with the English, expresly contrary to the Laws of all the English Provinces which make it death to sell either to our enemies. And on notice given to the Magistrates of Virginia, Warrants were there issued out for apprehending him, and if he had there been taken (although in another Government) he must have stood a tryall for his Life for the same or like fact there committed.

Lieut: Col: John Jenkins being some time made Governor by the appointment of Cartwright was after for severall misdemeanours displaced and imprisoned; yet although never legally discharged, raiseth a party of riotous persons in arnes, and these with some others vote him Generalissime, neither he or they pretending to any other right or authority than what he derived from this Rebell Rout, these turne out the Palatines Court, dissolve the Assembly, place and displace whom he and they pleased by an arbitrary power and force. But yet although Jenkins had the title yet in fact Durant governed and used Jenkins but as his property, for of all the factious persons in the Country he was the most active and meontrolable.

John Culpeper, a person that never is in his element but whilst fishing in troubled waters, he was forced to fly from Ashley River for his turbulent and factious carriage there. He both here and in New England with some of the discontented Traders plotted there and underhand here encouraged the hot headed people to this rash and ill-advised Rebellion. Culpeper being their Secetary or Register and one of their Caball or Grand Councill in matter of advise, this being the second disturbance he hath made here, besides what he hath done in Ashley River, New England and Virginia and therefore a man they much hearken to for his experience sake.

Patrick White is one that with Willoughby applyed himself to the Governor of Virginia, that beate Mr Miller when he lauded, and an active man in this Rebellion, and hath formerly been a disturber of the Government.

Capt: James Blount, although one of the Great Councill or Assistant to the Deputies is one of the chief persons amongst the Insurrectors, and although I wrote to him, the speaker and rest of the Burgesses of Chowan Precinct, yet when the Sheriffe or Chief Martiall came with my letter and endeavoured to raise Posse Comitatis for keeping the peace and securing of that your Lordships Country, he the said Blount with one Captain John Vernham took the Martiall and his men Prisoners and raised forces against the Government.

Bonner and Slocum two other of the Burgesses joyne with Culhm, Blunt and Vernham. So that all the five Burgesses of Chowan, although contrary to their Oathes of Allegiance and Obedience, and to their proceedings in Parliament, are in this defection and by their bad example have drawn in the Country people. There are besides these about eighty or an hundred which may be ranked in a second Classe differing no more from the former than second rates from first. And all or most of these have been guilty of former insurrectiones with some of their Leaders above named, especially such as live in Pascotanke, viz<sup>t</sup> Lieutenant Wells, Seares, Jennings, Ellis, Bonesby and his two sons, Cotes, with divers others of the Precinct.

Now the rest of the people may rather be reputed newtrall, for if they have complied (as many of them have done) it is only through want of Courage that they have sacrificed their faith to their fears, and for the same reason will on the first appearance of a party from your Honors although but 60 or 70 men on pardon published and exemplary justice done on the Ring-leaders who do overawe them, they will then gladly returne to their duties, their necessities also constreighning them, for they cannot subsist without planting of Corne and Tobacco, well knowing that without these two (having made them their sole dependence) they must perish by hunger or want of cloathing, unless the Chief leaders build Capers and imploy them to rob the Merchants to supply their wants as they come into the Capes of Virginia which is not above 20 or 30 leagues from this Inlet; and they are apt enough to tell them, that in respect of the openness of the Road, shallowness of the Inlet, fastness of the Country, and by reason of the woods, swamps, rivers, creeks and runs, this Country being no waies accessible by Land but to the northward from Virginia, and that but by three passes or avenues, by which meanes they may possibly be persuaded they may be as safe from His Majesty's Frigates as if they were in Sally.

I mention not this to discourage your Honors, but do likewise assure you that they are as inconsiderable, as rash and disobedient: the whole number I do not say of men but Tythables that is of working hands consist of about 1400 persons, a third part whereof at least being Indians, Negros and women will, the rest once being declared Rebels, quickly desert them and come in in hope either of liberty or better usage. So that in fine I can no way bring the number of Rebels that may be expected in armes to amount to 100 men, and these by reason of the several rivers and creeks which run north and south, and divide the severall Precincts, so that they cannot suddenly joyne. If therefore a Ship from England with goods and servants which I am confident would answer the charge, two or three Sloopes prest from Virginia, all man'd with about 60 or 70 men divided into two parties, one whereof might run up to Chowan up the Sound in a night, and there I am sure they would meet with many Loyall and lusty young men, who would immediately joyne with them and on notice divers who fled to Virginia would return for Pasquinians, there were but 3 or 4 noted Rebels as Jenkins, Durant, Sherrell, Greene, Pricklove and Lininton, most of the rest being Quakers, who stand firme in their obedience although they will not fight, the arehest Rebels and greatest number being in Paccotanke. And although it is easy to reduce them either by the way above proposed or by those soldiers as are yet behind in Virginia or by Volunteers from thence, near two hundred having promised M<sup>r</sup> Eastchurch to march in with him as soone as he should obtaine Licence from the Governor there, but his death prevented his designe, the Governor assuring him by his messengers that nothing should be wanting on his part wherein he might serve him, they there and also in Maryland being exceeding sensible of the dangerous consequences of this Rebellion, as that if they be not suddenly subdued hundreds of idle debtors, theeves, Negros, Indians and English servants will fly into them & from thence make Inroads and dayly Incursions, whence great mischief may follow which may better be forescene and prevented than after remedied, for considering the vast coast and wild woods of the backside of Virginia they may come from Maryland & the Wilderness between Virginia and Albemarle extending one hundred miles without one Inhabitant they may and some already do go into them in defiance of all the care the Governor and Magistrates there take for prevention.

Propriet<sup>rs</sup> seizing and imprisoning y<sup>e</sup> said Miller and the Lds. Prop<sup>rs</sup> Deputyes and all others in authority and office Yea and all such of the Inhabitants alsoe as would not joyne wth them they then writt a seditious letter to the Lower Pts. to one M<sup>r</sup> Rich. Foster to give him an acco<sup>t</sup> what they had donn above wth all requireing him to sumons y<sup>e</sup> Inhabitants below to chuse Burgesses for a new Assembly (as they cald it) and to seaze this deponent prison<sup>r</sup> all w<sup>ch</sup> was donn and they mett accordingly; att whose meeting this depon<sup>t</sup> being then thier prison<sup>r</sup> was forced to be p<sup>re</sup>sent wth them though y<sup>t</sup> very day he was to reeeave upon y<sup>e</sup> Kings acco<sup>t</sup> 100 h<sup>h</sup>ds of Tobacco for Customes of one Jo<sup>a</sup> Williams a New England Traider whome they suffered to depart without paying any duty at all, notwithstanding this depon<sup>t</sup> required assistance from them and gave caution thereof to y<sup>e</sup> s<sup>d</sup> Foster and y<sup>e</sup> rest of y<sup>e</sup> Gang thier mett who instead of chosing Burgesses, they by a shout of one and all cryed out wee will have noe Lo<sup>ds</sup> noe Landgraves noe Cassiques we renounce them all and fly to the King's protection soe downe went y<sup>e</sup> Lords Propriet<sup>rs</sup> for about halfe an owre untill y<sup>e</sup> said Foster told them that way would not doe, whereupon they cryed up y<sup>e</sup> Lo<sup>ds</sup> againe and went to chusing thier Burgesses as they cald them w<sup>ch</sup> Burgesses being thus chosen had instructions from y<sup>e</sup> Rable how they should p<sup>re</sup>ceed att thier assembly w<sup>ch</sup> was, first absolutely to insist upon a free traid to transport thier tobacco where they pleased and how they pleased without paying any duty to y<sup>e</sup> King; Upon w<sup>ch</sup> some of them cryed out God dame y<sup>e</sup> Collecto<sup>r</sup> and this Depon<sup>t</sup> verily thought they would have murdered him: the next thing was that they should bring y<sup>e</sup> said Miller to a tryall for severall odious crymes they then contrived to tax him wthall one espeacially for cheating the Country of 135,000 lbs of Tobacco w<sup>ch</sup> was seacured upon y<sup>e</sup> Kings acco<sup>tt</sup> by y<sup>e</sup> said Miller w<sup>ch</sup> as they said belonged to them and the w<sup>ch</sup> if he had not done they nev<sup>r</sup> would have troubled him about thier p<sup>re</sup>tended imputation of treason or any thing else they had framed against him as Will: Crafford one of y<sup>e</sup> Cheefe Ringlead<sup>rs</sup> often told this Depon<sup>t</sup> while he was a prisson<sup>r</sup> in his house then they were to seaze all his Maj<sup>ty</sup>s Customes into y<sup>er</sup> hands: these Instructions being given the s<sup>d</sup> Foster wth his Burgesses carryed this Dep<sup>t</sup> a prisson<sup>r</sup> along wth them to one George Durant's house w<sup>ch</sup> was y<sup>e</sup> appointed place for y<sup>er</sup> meeting and where y<sup>e</sup> afores<sup>d</sup> Mr Miller and y<sup>e</sup> Lo<sup>ds</sup> Deputyes and other Officers were prissoners and where they kept this deponant und<sup>r</sup> a guard of thre files of soldiers takeing violently from this Depon<sup>t</sup> all the Kings bonds acco<sup>ts</sup> and consarues whatsoever from him and after delivered them to Jo<sup>n</sup> Culpeper thier Collect<sup>r</sup> where y<sup>e</sup> afores<sup>d</sup> Gillam was and countenancing them with his presence & furnishing them wth drink nor would he open store untill he see what would be done about y<sup>e</sup> Governm<sup>t</sup> and was alsoe p<sup>re</sup>sent when they created a P<sup>re</sup>lement consisting of Tho. Collen, Speaker, James Blunt, Anthony Slooni, Jo<sup>n</sup> Verulam, Henry Bonner, Jo<sup>n</sup> Jenkins, Sam. Pricklove, Will<sup>m</sup> Therrell, Caleb Calloway, Alexander Lillington Will<sup>m</sup> Craford Vallantue Bird since dead Will<sup>m</sup> Jennings, Tho. Jarvies Enoch Billings Rich Sanders Patrick White & Will<sup>m</sup> Sears who was ther Druum<sup>r</sup> in all about 18 of them this p<sup>re</sup>lement seperated five of y<sup>er</sup> Memb<sup>rs</sup> viz<sup>t</sup> Jo<sup>n</sup> Jenkins Will<sup>m</sup> Craford, James Blunt, Patrick White and Valantue Bird to joyne wth one Mr Richard Foster thier cheefe Judge to make a Court of, and then this Court impanelled a Grand Jury out of y<sup>e</sup> souldiers and confused Rable, the foreman whereof was one Mordecay Bowdon a New England Traider and one much indebted to y<sup>e</sup> King w<sup>ch</sup> foreman consulting wth one Jo<sup>n</sup> Culpeper (thier Collecto<sup>r</sup> afores<sup>d</sup> and cheefe scribe & counsellor) how he should bring in y<sup>e</sup> Inditem<sup>t</sup> against y<sup>e</sup> sd Miller the s<sup>d</sup> Culpeper told him he must Indosse Billa vera whereupon this Jury went out and quickly returned againe but y<sup>e</sup> s<sup>d</sup> foreman instead of indossing Billa vera put downe Bill of Error whereupon the Court looking wishtly upon it as much amazed, the s<sup>d</sup> Culpeper snatcht it from them and told them it was only a mistake in y<sup>e</sup> foreman, whereupon y<sup>e</sup> foreman p<sup>r</sup>esently replyed he had don as y<sup>e</sup> s<sup>d</sup> Culpeper had bid him; but however wthout a second goeing out or more adoe it was mended and soe passed for good the w<sup>ch</sup> manner of p<sup>r</sup>ceedings was not denyed but owned by Foster and others of y<sup>e</sup> Court when questioned by this Depon<sup>t</sup> about it Upon this the Sheriffe was to Impanell a petty Jury upon y<sup>e</sup> s<sup>d</sup> Miller y<sup>e</sup> foreman whereof was one Joseph Winslow another New England Traid<sup>r</sup> and one much indebted to y<sup>e</sup> King for Custome w<sup>ch</sup> was don and would certainly then have proceeded to have taken away y<sup>e</sup> said Miller's life as this Depon<sup>t</sup> had great cause to beleave (for besides the many irreverent speeches against all authority uttered by the rable) those that were upon this depon<sup>t</sup>s guard and of y<sup>e</sup> said Miller's jury, this depon<sup>t</sup> often heard them vowe and sweare that they would never depart thence untill they sawe y<sup>e</sup> said Miller dead or alive und<sup>r</sup> ground but y<sup>e</sup> coming in of y<sup>e</sup> Govern<sup>rs</sup> Proclamation prevented it soe that they proceeded noe further in it att that time only consulted how to dispose of his Maj<sup>ty</sup>s consarnes w<sup>ch</sup> they had soe violently taken from us to y<sup>e</sup> payeing their soldiers and agents wth all and to comitt y<sup>e</sup> s<sup>d</sup> Miller prison<sup>r</sup> in Irons as he was And this Deponant and y<sup>e</sup> rest of y<sup>e</sup> King's officers and y<sup>e</sup> Lo<sup>ds</sup> Prop<sup>rs</sup> Deputyes and some other of y<sup>e</sup> Inhabitants Close prison<sup>rs</sup> apart wthout the p<sup>r</sup>ivilege of pen inck or paper or accesse of frendes or humane converse w<sup>ch</sup> continued soe wth some of us almost y<sup>e</sup> space of two years and to send a strong guard to oppose y<sup>e</sup> Gov<sup>r</sup> w<sup>ch</sup> they did untill he dyed in Virginia w<sup>ch</sup> was not long after Soe things continued in this posture carryed on by those already named especially there Court Members as principal Acto<sup>rs</sup> togeather with one Jo<sup>n</sup> Willoughby and George Durant who weare thier Agents sent home that yeare to cover all thier actions over in England that truth might not come to light and furth<sup>r</sup> at present your Depon<sup>t</sup> saith not.

REBELLION OF CAROLINA

The affidavit of Tho. Miller aged 31 years or thereabouts saith—That in or about the middle of July 1677 hee arrived in Albemarle County in Carolina with Sundry Commissions Instructions & other Instruments of writing from the Right Hon<sup>ble</sup> the Lords Prop<sup>rs</sup> of the s<sup>d</sup> Province under their Lor<sup>ds</sup> handes & scales for this deponent to be Register (w<sup>ch</sup> then was in y<sup>e</sup> stead of Secretary) of that County aforesaid and also to personate one of their Lor<sup>ds</sup> in Councill there and other Commissions and Instruments of writing from the then Gov<sup>r</sup> vid. Thom. Eastchurch Esq<sup>r</sup> for this deponent to preside in Councill & to be Comand<sup>r</sup> of y<sup>e</sup> military forces of s<sup>d</sup> County afores<sup>d</sup> during his y<sup>e</sup> s<sup>d</sup> Gov<sup>rs</sup> absence and also a Comission from the hon<sup>ble</sup> y<sup>e</sup> Comiss<sup>rs</sup> of his Majestyes Customes for this deponent to be Collecto<sup>r</sup> there with sundry Instructions to act by. In pursuance whereof, after having (by y<sup>e</sup> advice of the then Councill there) settled the Lords Prop<sup>rs</sup> affaires relating to their government reduced the Indians, who the year before (as was manifested to y<sup>e</sup> deponent) vid. in 76 had comitted sundry murders and depredations upon some of the inhabitants) and had brought y<sup>e</sup> people, who in y<sup>e</sup> s<sup>d</sup> year of 76 (as did appear to y<sup>e</sup> deponent) and then also were in a miserable confusion by reason of Sundry factions amongst them to a reasonable good conformity to his Majestyes and the Lor<sup>ds</sup> Prop<sup>rs</sup> Laws and authority and (as y<sup>n</sup> seemed) to the generall satisfaction of y<sup>e</sup> inhabitants. The deponent then settled his Majestyes affaires in reference to y<sup>e</sup> Customes and for the better managing and collecting the same had appointed deputies and other sub officers in each precynct, And had together with his s<sup>d</sup> Deputyes gotten into their hands (for his Maj<sup>ties</sup> use) from y<sup>e</sup> former Collecto<sup>r</sup> appointed by the Conntry and part received themselves as much of the Kings Concerns in bonds for tobacco and tobacco received as amounted in y<sup>e</sup> whole to 327068 pounds w<sup>ch</sup> in hogsheds allowing 400 pounds to one hogshhead comes to about 817 hogshheads as by account will appear and in sundry other bonds for money, as also in severall seizures of European goods judged illegally imported and of a vessell called the Patience for importing some of y<sup>e</sup> s<sup>d</sup> goods made by him and his deputy and in goods received in lieu of tobacco for the Kings Customes as amonnted to the value of 1242£ 18s 01d sterling as by account will also appear the pro-duet and effect whereof (his salary excepted) hee had taken care for transportation that very year according to the hon<sup>ble</sup> the Comiss<sup>rs</sup> of the Customs Orders as will partly appear by M<sup>r</sup> Henry Hudson and M<sup>r</sup> Timothy Biggs, but was hindred therefrom by reason of an Insurrection and (as y<sup>e</sup> deponent humbly conceives) a rebellion which violently broke out in y<sup>t</sup> Country 10<sup>ber</sup> 77 and hath to this day continued without any effectuall restraint and suppression, notwithstanding all the endeavor<sup>rs</sup> of y<sup>e</sup> Lor<sup>ds</sup> Prop<sup>rs</sup> in comissionating & appointing Seth Sothel Esq<sup>r</sup> to be Gov<sup>r</sup> and to reduce the same w<sup>ch</sup> was contrived and carried on then and since by Richard Foster John Jenkins George Durant John Willoughby Wm. Craford Patricke White James Blunt Capt. Zach. Gillam John Culpeper with other their Confederates and New England traders w<sup>ch</sup> Culpeper (by y<sup>e</sup> encouragement and aid of y<sup>e</sup> s<sup>d</sup> Gillam and the rest of their adherents) assuming the like and office of his Maj<sup>tyes</sup> Collecto<sup>r</sup> violently seized the premises out of his and his deputyes hands, most cruelling imprisoning them and disposed of the King concerns according to their own will and pleasure overthrowing the governm<sup>t</sup> imprisoning all or most in authority & office besides and comitting sundry other outrages upon all other the inhabitants that would not joyne with y<sup>m</sup> in these exorbitancyes committed in this Insurrection w<sup>ch</sup> was begun and carried on after this manner following Upon the 4th day of 10<sup>ber</sup> 1677 and 3 dayes after Capt. Zach. Gillam's arrivall there a parell of men to y<sup>e</sup> number of 30 or 40 of the precinct of Pasquotank in y<sup>e</sup> afores<sup>d</sup> Comnty being set on<sup>e</sup> by the fores<sup>d</sup> Culpeper Craford and encouraged by ye example (w<sup>ch</sup> 2 of y<sup>e</sup> Lor<sup>ds</sup> Prop<sup>rs</sup> Deputyes complayned of to this Deponent) as well as assistance with armes of y<sup>e</sup> s<sup>d</sup> Gillam and headed by one Valentine Bird and Edward Wells did without making any addresse complaint or information to the deponent or any else in authority and without any lawfull warrant or order with force and arms vid. swords guns and pistolls violently rush into the house where the deponent and 2 more of the Lor<sup>ds</sup> Prop<sup>rs</sup> Deputyes were present and seized us as their prisoners and then went to searching over the publique records and other of the deponents writings w<sup>ch</sup> the s<sup>d</sup> party had brought with them having y<sup>e</sup> day before violently entred one M<sup>r</sup> Timothy Biggs his house and there breaking open sundry the deponents locks seized the said Records and whatever other of y<sup>e</sup> deponents writings were y<sup>n</sup> to bee found, having also in this action sent abroad up and down y<sup>e</sup> Country their seditious libells drawn by y<sup>e</sup> s<sup>d</sup> Culpeper to put all in a flamme and on y<sup>e</sup> s<sup>d</sup> 4th of 10<sup>ber</sup> a little after y<sup>e</sup> deponent and y<sup>e</sup> other 2 Deputyes afores<sup>d</sup> were seized their prison<sup>rs</sup> some of y<sup>e</sup> ringleaders vid. Bird Craford Wells & others went on board y<sup>e</sup> s<sup>d</sup> Gillam's shipp (w<sup>ch</sup> in all these confusions rid with Jack Ensign Flag and Penon flying while wee were prison<sup>rs</sup> at Pasquotanck) where on board there was y<sup>e</sup> s<sup>d</sup> Gillam the afores<sup>d</sup> Culpeper and Durant and after about one houres or thereabouts staying on board they came ashoar again with fresh new Curtleaxes for y<sup>m</sup>selves and many of the rest of their gang and then altering their first pretences they searched the deponents and his deputy M<sup>r</sup> Biggs pockets and took away all our publique and private writings and pocket books w<sup>ch</sup> they found about us and then y<sup>e</sup> s<sup>d</sup> Culpeper writt another seditious letter w<sup>ch</sup> the deponent saw and w<sup>ch</sup> was signed by y<sup>e</sup> afores<sup>d</sup> Bird and Craford directed to y<sup>e</sup> afores<sup>d</sup> M<sup>r</sup> Foster in y<sup>e</sup> Lower Precinct of y<sup>t</sup> Comty called Corrituck giving him account of what they had done and how they succeeded and with all requiring or directing him there to seize Henry Hudson my deputy Collect<sup>r</sup> for y<sup>t</sup> precinct and all papers about him relating to y<sup>e</sup> Kings affaires and to bring him prison<sup>r</sup> with him and his Company at y<sup>e</sup> Generall Meeting which they proposed to bee at y<sup>e</sup> fores<sup>d</sup> George Durant's house and about 2 days after the said Culpeper went up into y<sup>e</sup> Upper parts of the County called Chowan (as was given out by himselfe and the rabble) where the like disturbance was begun and more violently agitated by the s<sup>d</sup> Culpeper and where they had seized the Marshall of the County with all his papers relating to his Maj<sup>ty</sup>s and Lords Prop<sup>rs</sup> affaires and then after that the s<sup>d</sup> Culpeper returned and in his return seized y<sup>e</sup> deponents Clerk a prisoner and a little after the s<sup>d</sup> Culpepers return there followed a party of men in arms from that precinct of Chowan bringing y<sup>e</sup> s<sup>d</sup> Marshall with y<sup>m</sup> a prisoner their main guard then at y<sup>e</sup> fores<sup>d</sup> Craford's house w<sup>ch</sup> was forced in at Pascotank then (after some 14 or 15 dayes keeping the deponent & y<sup>e</sup> other Lords deputys (which they had taken close prisoners) the said Craford vowing and swearing that if any came to oppose them or relieve us y<sup>t</sup> they would stand by each other to y<sup>e</sup> last dropp of blood and that if any dyed to bee sure wee that were their prison<sup>rs</sup> to dy first. They carried this deponent and their other prison<sup>rs</sup> round by water in hostile manner to y<sup>e</sup> fores<sup>d</sup> Durant's house and there in the middle of a guard of 60 or 70 men in arms kept us close from all humane converse or accesse of friends neither would they admitt us the speech of one another The next day after our being brought to Durant's as afores<sup>d</sup> they sent a party of soldiers headed by the afores<sup>d</sup> M<sup>r</sup> Bird to search for the deponent's box wherein was all his Comissions Instructions his Maj<sup>ty</sup>s printed Proclamations and lett<sup>r</sup> and all other bills bonds accounts and other papers relating to the King's the Lord<sup>s</sup> Prop<sup>rs</sup> the former Gov<sup>rs</sup> and this deponent together with the Lords<sup>s</sup> great seal of y<sup>e</sup> County and many other books and things of value w<sup>ch</sup> box the s<sup>d</sup> party soon found (though hid in a tobacco hogsh-head) and carried it to y<sup>e</sup> s<sup>d</sup> Durants house where in presence of y<sup>e</sup> said Culpeper Craford Durant and y<sup>e</sup> rest of y<sup>e</sup> Ringleaders then met, it was broken open and all things therein contained Hanocked at y<sup>r</sup> pleasure as y<sup>e</sup> deponent saw openly and then afterwards on the very same day, by the instigation of the said Culpeper (who was the cheife scribe that writt y<sup>e</sup> paper or accensation) Craford, Bird, Durant, & others, they did cause y<sup>e</sup> depon<sup>t</sup> by beat of Drum and a shout of one and all of y<sup>e</sup> rabble to bee accused of blasphemny, treason and other crimes, and so upon a shout of one and all of y<sup>e</sup> s<sup>d</sup> rabble, was the deponent ordered to bee clapt in Irons w<sup>ch</sup> was accordingly done then were the stocks and pillory overturned and throwne into the river by this rabble part of y<sup>e</sup> deponents magazine and estate in whatever specie wherever to bee found, Havocked at y<sup>r</sup> pleasure and the rabble being still influenced by y<sup>e</sup> s<sup>d</sup> Culpeper, Craford, Durant, Jenkins &c (the fores<sup>d</sup> Gillam being alsoe there comntenancing this rout with his drink & presence) they upbraided his Maj<sup>ty</sup>s proclamations and L<sup>ds</sup> Prop<sup>rs</sup> authority, and there Lordshipps much threatened also by the s<sup>d</sup> Culpeper, Durant, Craford especially the said Craford said (which this deponent heard with his owne ears) that if y<sup>e</sup> Gov<sup>r</sup> came among them there or the Lords either, they would serve them y<sup>e</sup> same sance or words to that purpose and at this stand the rabble stood (onely still sending out scouts and parties, either to threaten, seize, disarm imprison or chase out of y<sup>e</sup> Country all in authority or office or any else that would not Joyu with y<sup>m</sup>) till about 4 or 5 days after up came y<sup>e</sup> afores<sup>d</sup> Foster with his party from y<sup>e</sup> Lower precinct called Carituck bringing with them as y<sup>r</sup> prisoner the afores<sup>d</sup> Mr Henry Hudson Dep<sup>ty</sup> Collector for his Maj<sup>ty</sup>e there, upon whose coming they suddenly elected a parliament out of this medley as a confused rabble (making their drummer one of y<sup>e</sup> burgesses) consisting of about 18 persons, this parliam<sup>t</sup> seperated 5 of y<sup>e</sup> members vid: the fores<sup>d</sup> Jenkins, Blunt, Craford, White and Bird (since deceased) to Joyne with y<sup>e</sup> afores<sup>d</sup> Foster to make up one Juncto or Court and this Court so called took upon y<sup>m</sup> Judiciall authority and sate as y<sup>e</sup> supream Court upon 2 of y<sup>e</sup> L<sup>ds</sup> Prop<sup>rs</sup> deputies vid: Cap<sup>t</sup> Tymothy Biggs deputy for y<sup>e</sup> right hon<sup>ble</sup> the Earle of Craven, whom they accused of murder and Mr John Nixon Deputy to S<sup>r</sup> Peter Colleton whom they also accused of treason and then brought y<sup>e</sup> deponent before y<sup>m</sup> in Irons pulling of his hat and then upon him impanelled a Jury (as they called it) out of this rabble, the foreman whereof was one Mordslay Bouden a New England trader and one much indebted to his Majesty the rest scarce 4 of

WHITEHALL 8th February 1679.

Wee had comissioned M<sup>r</sup> Seth Sothell to be Governor of our County of Albamarle and did not doubt but by his prudence he would have remedyed the disorders that have been amongst you and established such quiet and good Government that men of Estates might have been encouraged to come to you and adventure their estates there whereby trade would have been increased and you plentifully suplyed with all things but he being taken by the Turkes and carried into Argier, that you might not be without Government Wee have thought fitt that M<sup>r</sup> John Harvey should be president of the Councill and exeente the authority of the Governor untill the arrivall of M<sup>r</sup> Sothell with you, or that wee shall otherwise direct herewith wee send you our Instructions our temporary Laws and fundamentall Constitutions which are to be your guide in the Government of our said County and wee hope that your owne Interest as well as our Injunctions will induce you to use your utmost endeavours to settle order and quiet amongst you without which you can never expect an increase of strength or trade which considerations wee hope will so farr prevail that wee shall not be constrained to use force to reduce the seditious to reason the good and welfare of all the Inhabitants of our province being what wee most desire and not the taking away any mans life and Estate.

AT THE COMMITTEE OF TRADE & PLANTATIONS AT THE COUNCIL CHAMBER AT WHITEHALL SAT-URDAY THE 8th OF FEB<sup>ry</sup> 1679 (-80)

Prince Rupert	Earl of Bath
Lord Privy Seale	Earl of Sunderland
Duke of Albemarle	Earl of Essex

In pursuance of an Order of the 4th inst appointing the Committee to examine the business of the late Rebellion in Carolina and the seizure of his Maj<sup>ty</sup>s Customes by John Culpeper and others, the Lords Prop<sup>rs</sup> of that Province are called in, viz: the Earl of Shaftesbury, Earl of Craven and S<sup>r</sup> Peter Colleton, Whereupon the Earl of Shaftesbury assured the Committee that speedy care should be taken to furnish their Lo<sup>ps</sup> with a copie of their Patent and an Answer to their Lo<sup>ps</sup> Circular letter and Inquiries transmitted to them sometime past.

After which entering into the matter of the Rebellion his Lo<sup>p</sup> informs the Committee that about the year 1677 the Proprietors sent over one Eastchurch to bee their Gov<sup>r</sup> of Albemarle County who staying some time at Antego deputed M<sup>r</sup> Miller (who was besides Collector of the King's Customes and his Lo<sup>ps</sup> Deputy) to goe and settle the Country after whose arrival the Rebellion broke out, That Miller is no Sectary but given to drink, and that the accensation of High Treason was brought against him spitefully and out of malice That upon his arrivall hee undertook to modell the Parliament there which gave the people occasion to oppose and imprison him Whereupon M<sup>r</sup> Durant Capt Guillam and Culpeper agreed together to defraud the King of his Customes. The Proprietors doe further promise to send the Committee a particular Narrative of the Rebellion.

The Lords Proprietors acquaint the Committee that the authority which constituted Culpeper Collector in the place of Miller was rebellion Whereupon M<sup>r</sup> Miller produces a paper written with Culpeper's own hand forbidding all persons to meddle with the Customs besides himself which hee had posted up upon reading whereof Culpeper says it was his Proclamation and excepts against the testimony of M<sup>r</sup> Miller as being Traitors against the King.

M<sup>r</sup> Hudson, M<sup>r</sup> Summers and M<sup>r</sup> Tayler being sworn depose that Culpeper did abett the Rebellion and incite the people against the King and the Proprietors and that all the Proprietors Deputys were imprisoned by the Rebells except Foster who joyned with them.

After the examination of y<sup>e</sup> witnesses Culpeper desires hee may bee tryed in Carolina, and if that may not bee granted him hee acknowledges the fact and begs His Maj<sup>ty</sup>'s pardon which hee hopes hee may the more deserve since at his first arrival in England, hee waited on the Commissioners of the Customs and gave them a true account of the King's customs in Carolina and promised to make payment of them.

The Lords Proprietors inform the Committee that the Country is now quieted and propose that the persons that were guilty of seizing and disturbing the King's Customs may bee obliged to reimburse the King and not the whole Country by a Tax to bee laid on them.

And the Commissioners recommend to the Committee that Culpeper may not bee pardoned till the King bee satisfied for his Customs.

The Lords direct Capt. Gilham who is accused by M<sup>r</sup> Miller and others to have had a hand in the Rebellion to attend on Munday next in order to his examination.

THE CASE BETWEEN THOMAS MILLER COLLECTOR OF
CULPEPER DURANT CRAWFORD & OTHERS
PRINCIPAL AUTORS & ACTORS IN Y<sup>e</sup>
LATE COMOTION AND DISTURB-ANCES THAT WERE IN THE NORTHERN PART OF THE

cheife of y<sup>e</sup> Country who had ingrosit y<sup>e</sup> Indian trade to themselves & feared that it would be intercepted by those that should plant farther amongst them. The illness of y<sup>e</sup> harbours was the cause that this Northern p<sup>r</sup> of Carolina had no other vent for their Commodities but either by Virginia where they paid duties to y<sup>e</sup> Govern<sup>t</sup> or to New England who were the onely imediate Traders wth them; And ventur'd in, in small Vessells & had soe manag'd their affayres that they brought their goods att very lowe rates, cate out & ruin'd y<sup>e</sup> place, defrauded y<sup>e</sup> King of his Customes & yet govern'd the people ag<sup>t</sup> their owne Interest. to cure those evils the Prop<sup>rs</sup> made choyce of one M<sup>r</sup> Eastchurch to be their Govern<sup>r</sup> a Gent<sup>a</sup> of a good fame & related to the Lord Trea<sup>r</sup> Clifford who had recommended him to y<sup>e</sup> Prop<sup>rs</sup> formerly for that place & had y<sup>e</sup> promise of severall of us. In Summer 1677 we dispatched away the s<sup>d</sup> M<sup>r</sup> Eastchurch together with M<sup>r</sup> Miller who was y<sup>e</sup> K<sup>gs</sup> officer and made by us one of our Deputyes It happen'd soe y<sup>t</sup> they went not directly for Virginia but took their passage in a ship bound for Nevis where M<sup>r</sup> Eastchurch lighting upon a woman y<sup>t</sup> was a considerable fortune took hold of the opportunity married her and dispatched away M<sup>r</sup> Miller for Carolina to settle affayres against his conceing who carryed with him y<sup>e</sup> Comission of y<sup>e</sup> Lds Prop<sup>rs</sup> to their Deputyes and Comission from M<sup>r</sup> Eastchurch himself that made Miller Presid<sup>t</sup> of y<sup>e</sup> Conneill untill his arrival and gave him very full and ample powers. Miller arrivieing in Carolina with these Comissions is quietly received into y<sup>e</sup> Govern<sup>t</sup> & submitted to not onely as Gov<sup>r</sup> but y<sup>e</sup> K<sup>gs</sup> Collecto<sup>r</sup> in y<sup>e</sup> discharg of w<sup>ch</sup> duty as Collecto<sup>r</sup> he made a very considerable progress. But as Govern<sup>r</sup> he did many extravagant things, making strange limitations for y<sup>e</sup> choyce of y<sup>e</sup> Parliam<sup>t</sup> gitting pow<sup>r</sup> in his hands of laying fynes, w<sup>ch</sup> tis to be feared he neither did nor meant to use moderately sending out strange warrants to bring some of y<sup>e</sup> most considerable men of y<sup>e</sup> Contry alive or dead before him, setting a sūme of money upon their heads: these proceedings having startled and disaffected the people towards him there arrives Capt. Zachariah Gilham with a very pretty vessell of some force and together with him Durant and about the same time Culpeper they brought with them severall Armes w<sup>ch</sup> were for Trade in y<sup>e</sup> Country and findeing that Miller had lost his reputation & interest amongst y<sup>e</sup> people stirr'd up a Comotion seized him and all the writings belonging to y<sup>e</sup> Prop<sup>rs</sup> and all the Tobacco & writings belonging to y<sup>e</sup> Kings Customes, imploying y<sup>e</sup> K<sup>gs</sup> Tobacco towards y<sup>e</sup> charge of maintaining & supporting their unlawful actions And w<sup>ch</sup> aggravated the matter very much Durant had in England sometye before this Voyage declared to some

Culpeper was a very ill man having some tyme before fled from South Carolina where he was in danger of hang<sup>g</sup> for laying the designe & indeavouring to sett the poore people to plunder the rich. These with Craford & some oth<sup>r</sup> New England men had a designe (as we conceive) to gitt y<sup>e</sup> trade of this part of y<sup>e</sup> Country into their hands for some years att least And not onely defraud the King of all his Customes but buy the goods of y<sup>e</sup> Inhabitants att their owne rates for they gave not to them above halfe the vallue for their goods of w<sup>ch</sup> the Virginians sold theirs for.

Not long after this imprisonment of Miller & that these generall men had formed themselves into w<sup>t</sup> M<sup>r</sup> Culpeper calls y<sup>e</sup> Govern<sup>t</sup> of y<sup>e</sup> Country by their owne authority & according to their owne modell, M<sup>r</sup> Eastchurch arrives in Virginia whose authority & Co<sup>m</sup>mission they had not y<sup>e</sup> least colour to dispute & yet they kept him out by force of armes soe that he was forced to apply to the then Govern<sup>r</sup> of Virginia for aid and assistance from him to reduce them w<sup>ch</sup> had been accordingly donne but y<sup>t</sup> Eastchurch unfortunately dyes of a feavour Presently after this these Gentlemen that had usurped y<sup>e</sup> Govern<sup>t</sup> & cast of and imprisoned our Deputyes that would not comply wth them sends over 2 Co<sup>m</sup>miss<sup>rs</sup> in their names to promise all obedience to y<sup>e</sup> Lds Prop<sup>rs</sup> but insisting very highly for right against Miller. The Prop<sup>rs</sup> perswaded one of their owne Mem<sup>brs</sup> M<sup>r</sup> Southwell to goe over & be Gover<sup>nr</sup> himselfe to whome they promised the utmost submission (he being a very sober discreet gentleman) & was allsoe authorized from y<sup>e</sup> Co<sup>m</sup>miss<sup>rs</sup> of y<sup>e</sup> Customes to take care of y<sup>e</sup> Kings concerns there which wee conceive he would have settled in very good order but that he was unfortunately taken by y<sup>e</sup> Turks in his passage thither, And upon whome the settlem<sup>t</sup> of the place very much depends it being a very difficult matter to gitt a man of worth and trust to go thither. His redemption is every day expected and in y<sup>e</sup> meanwhile we have dispatched one M<sup>r</sup> Holden with Co<sup>m</sup>missions & Deputations for the Govern<sup>r</sup> to those that we did imadgine would manage it with most moderation who sends us word that all is now quyett & peaceable But his Maj<sup>ty</sup> ought to have an exact acc<sup>t</sup> and reparation for the damadges donne in his Customes and his officers repayed the charge of w<sup>ch</sup> ought

Zachariah Gillam makes Answer to y<sup>e</sup> charge brought against him by M<sup>r</sup> Thomas Miller, as far as he can rememb<sup>r</sup> and saith

That he knew not of any disturbance in y<sup>e</sup> Countrey upon his arrivall thair but afterwards what happened among them he was not concerned in, nor did att that time know y<sup>e</sup> occasion.

That he knew not of M<sup>r</sup> Millers Imprisonment untill near 2 days after it was done, being on board his owne ship all that time.

That he forbore to sell any goods, not knowing who to trust but rather than goe away with his ship Empty (w<sup>ch</sup> if done would have bin great loss to his Marchants) he sold his goods for Tobacco & Skins which came for England & paid his Ma<sup>tie</sup>, near two thousand pound Custom, which his Ma<sup>tie</sup> never before Received directly or indirectly since that province was seated as hea heard of As to his going Armed; The first daye he came into y<sup>e</sup> Countrey, he tendered an Entry to M<sup>r</sup> Thomas Miller who was his Ma<sup>ties</sup> Collector theare, he Asked him what tobacco he carried out of y<sup>e</sup> Countrey ye year before, he told him neare 180 lhd<sup>s</sup> y<sup>e</sup> s<sup>d</sup> Miller made answer y<sup>t</sup> he must have one penny ℥ lb. for itt, Gillam made answer y<sup>t</sup> he had paid the King his Custom in Engl<sup>d</sup> & did not judge his Ma<sup>tie</sup> desired his Custom twice (w<sup>ch</sup> payment he proffered to make apeare by y<sup>e</sup> ships Entrys & clearings in England & Sertificate of thair bonds) he y<sup>e</sup> said Miller told him he would be paid before y<sup>e</sup> shipp went out of y<sup>e</sup> Countrey, on which he told him y<sup>t</sup> he arrested him & told him it shold be nobly done for he would doe it himselfe & Imprisoned all his boats Crew & seased his papers & then went on board his shipp Armed with two pistolls & presented one of them to y<sup>e</sup> breast of his Mate Cockt & laden as by Evidence maye apeare. y<sup>e</sup> time near a 11 at night.

Country wth Arms & Ammunition for their defence Against y<sup>e</sup> Heathen w<sup>ch</sup> I had done y<sup>e</sup> year before & y<sup>e</sup> year since & sold other goods to those persons I knew Responcible but would not trust others untill I saw what thair paye was.

That being at y<sup>e</sup> Court when M<sup>r</sup> Miller was question'd thear (for treasonable words) it was his bisones to speake with y<sup>e</sup> Inhabitants they being his customers w<sup>ch</sup> is usnall in those Countrys y<sup>e</sup> pepell living far distant & could thair dispatch as much bisones in one Daye as he could otherwayes in a weeke

That his given drinke to y<sup>e</sup> pepell it was as they was customers to him (noe otherwayes) & M<sup>r</sup> Miller had his sheare of itt.

That M<sup>r</sup> Miller charges him with his Imprisonment on board y<sup>e</sup> ship y<sup>e</sup> said Gillam was then on shoare & knew nothing of his Restraint on board but when y<sup>e</sup> said Gillam came on board being neare 12 at night & told him he was wellcome to goe or staye & gave him what Accomodation y<sup>e</sup> ship would Aford

Craford's house against which house the said Gillam rid his shipp with Jack ancient flagg and penon flying and did also furnish the said party of men with new guns and scimiters from his shipp in the s<sup>d</sup> action And when y<sup>e</sup> afores<sup>d</sup> President and the other Deputyes were carried round by water to George Durant's house (which was y<sup>e</sup> place appointed for y<sup>e</sup> generall meeting) in Company of severall boats of armed men y<sup>e</sup> s<sup>d</sup> Gillam's ship fired of 3 guns as they passed by and when they came to y<sup>e</sup> s<sup>d</sup> Durant's house, the very next day the rabble there met, sent for a box belonging to y<sup>e</sup> s<sup>d</sup> President which (as they said was hid in a tobacco hogshead wherein was abundance of writings which the Deponent saw and then forthwith upon it by beat of drum and a shout of one and all they accused the s<sup>d</sup> Miller of treason & other crimes, although till this tyme y<sup>e</sup> Deponent heard no mention made of treason agst y<sup>e</sup> s<sup>d</sup> Miller and thereupon they elapt y<sup>e</sup> s<sup>d</sup> Miller in irons: then proceeded and out of the rabble chose y<sup>e</sup> Parliam<sup>t</sup> their drummer making one of them & then out of this Parliam<sup>t</sup> they seperated 5 of y<sup>e</sup> members namely John Jenkins Wm Craford Patricke White James Blunt and Valentine Bird (since deceased) to joyne with one M<sup>r</sup> Richard Foster to make a Court before whom they brought two of y<sup>e</sup> L<sup>ds</sup> Prop<sup>rs</sup> Deputyes who were accused by them for severall crimes w<sup>ch</sup> the Deponent doth not now remember and then appointed a grand Jury out of y<sup>e</sup> s<sup>d</sup> Rabble and brought y<sup>e</sup> s<sup>d</sup> M<sup>r</sup> Miller also before them for treason and other matters w<sup>ch</sup> imputation of treason y<sup>e</sup> s<sup>d</sup> Miller had been long before cleared and acquitted from by S<sup>r</sup> Wm. Capt. Gilham who is accused by M<sup>r</sup> Miller to have had a hand in the Rebellion of Carolina is called in as alsoe the Lords Proprietors viz: the Earl of Shaftesbury and Earl of Craven and Sir Richard Temple one of the Commissioners of the Customs, Whereupon the information of Peter Brockell and Solomon Summers against Capt. Gilham as also Capt. Gilham's Answer are read, and Peter Brockell being sworn further says that hee can't see that Capt. Gilham did act in the Rebellion but that hee sold arms indifferently to all persons And Solomon Summers deposes that Capt. Gilham did often conferr with the Rebels and sold them arms and that hee did not obey the Proclamation for settling the Peace when it was delivered to him.

Thomas Miller being alsoe sworne says that the person that seized him had Capt. Gilham's sword and that Capt. Bird, Capt. Crawford and William Nevill who were eminent in the Rebellion had alsoe swords from Gilham And that when upon the first arrival of Gilham hee went on board his ship hee was seized there and kept prisoner above an hour and a half after Capt. Gilham was on bord, and that hee said to him, Now you are my prisoner and that hee would not let him stirr unless it were to make water and that hee saw Crawford Forster and Durant come on board in company with Gilham and that they continued firing and shooting a long while. The affidavit of John Taylor is also read.

To all which Capt. Gilham makes answer that hee had noe other conversation with any person but as they were his customers and was in noe manner concerned there but to sell his goods and that Miller had been three hours in his shipp before hee came on board which was about twelve at night and that hee came hither in an insolent Hectoring manner and had free leave to goe off when he pleased. Capt. Gilham's son alsoe says that hee proffered Miller the long Boat to goe on shore which hee would not accept of.

The Earl of Shaftesbury hereupon acquaints the Committee that further Informations concerning this Business were expected from Carolina which should be imparted to the Board. After which their Lo<sup>ps</sup> desire the Lords Proprietors and the Commiss<sup>rs</sup> of the Customs to meet together and to agree on such rules and means as may bee necessary for the settlement of the Country and security of the King's Customs and offer them to y<sup>e</sup> Committee.

Capt. Gilham is alsoe told that he must attend again at such times as hee shall bee called but that nevertheless hee may if occasion offer goe upon any employment at sea.

To the Kings most Excellent Majestie The humble Peti<sup>o</sup>n of Thomas
Miller Sheweth

of y<sup>e</sup> Lords Propriato<sup>rs</sup> did appear and declare that y<sup>e</sup> same was a noto-
Country, imprisoning foure or 5 of y<sup>e</sup> Lords Deputyes & seizing all y<sup>e</sup>
ing a pretended Parliam<sup>t</sup> & setting up a pretended Court of Justice to
then Gov<sup>r</sup> coming from Virgiuia thither (in all which proceedings y<sup>e</sup> said Culpeper was a notorious Ringleader) were undoubted treasons without any authority & against all y<sup>e</sup> Lawes & Constitutions of Carolina & particularly y<sup>e</sup> Parliam<sup>t</sup> there was illegall in its call, choice &c. And y<sup>e</sup> said Culpepers plea of acting by their authority not good & y<sup>e</sup> said Lords Propriato<sup>rs</sup> did there undertake to manage y<sup>e</sup> said Prosecutions & reducing y<sup>e</sup> Country to y<sup>e</sup> obedience of y<sup>e</sup> Lawes w<sup>ch</sup> was also refered to them among other things by order of y<sup>e</sup> Com<sup>tee</sup> Nevertheless may it
as a witness for y<sup>e</sup> Def<sup>t</sup> & after that by 5 witnesses y<sup>e</sup> said Culpeper had bene proved guilty of all y<sup>e</sup> said Treasons before numerated to y<sup>e</sup> satisfaction both of y<sup>e</sup> Court and Jury, y<sup>e</sup> said Lord Shaftesbury in his Tes-
ever settled in Albemarle & that neither y<sup>e</sup> said Gov<sup>r</sup> nor Governm<sup>t</sup> were

legall according to y<sup>e</sup> Constitutions of Carolina and that therefore y<sup>e</sup> taking of Armes & acting against them could not amount to Treason, But that y<sup>e</sup> Parliamt thus called by y<sup>e</sup> Rabble was a legall Parliamt by the Constitutions of Carolina y<sup>e</sup> people having a right to choose them at two years end wthout any call and y<sup>t</sup> these matters were only fends between y<sup>e</sup> Planters & could amount to but a Riott whereupon y<sup>e</sup> prison<sup>r</sup> was acquitted by y<sup>e</sup> Jury and Court And yo<sup>r</sup> Pet<sup>r</sup> with many others yo<sup>r</sup> Ma<sup>ties</sup> loyall subjects after all their sufferings not only left without remedy, but y<sup>e</sup> authority of y<sup>e</sup> pretended Parliamt being thus justified y<sup>e</sup> illegall proceedings against their lives & fortunes like to go on especially under y<sup>e</sup> present Rebels y<sup>t</sup> have usurped y<sup>e</sup> authority. And one Robert Holden whom y<sup>e</sup> Lords have sent to supply yo<sup>r</sup> Pet<sup>r</sup>s place who being one of y<sup>e</sup> persons condemned as a Ringleader in y<sup>e</sup> late rebellion in Virginia has made it his business to close with y<sup>e</sup> rebels there to countenance their authority & proceeding in y<sup>e</sup> late Rebellion, espetically against yo<sup>r</sup> pet<sup>r</sup> and all others y<sup>t</sup> continued faithfull having at his first coming procured an Act of Oblivion to be procured by y<sup>e</sup> Gov<sup>r</sup> himselfe & twoe of them y<sup>t</sup> were Ringleaders in y<sup>e</sup> late Rebellion. And also hath proceeded against your Pet<sup>r</sup> in his absence for his escape and in an unheard of way returned Jurys to try him and condemne him & transmitted copyes of y<sup>e</sup> pretended proofs against him to y<sup>e</sup> Com<sup>rs</sup> of yo<sup>r</sup> Maj<sup>ties</sup> Customes & alsoe proceeded to y<sup>e</sup> banishing fining & imprisoning of all those that were sufferers & had opposed y<sup>e</sup> late Rebellion And further y<sup>e</sup> Com<sup>rs</sup> of y<sup>e</sup> Customes in pursuance of an Order of y<sup>e</sup> said Com<sup>tee</sup> having long since made Proposealls to y<sup>e</sup> Lords Propriat<sup>rs</sup> for y<sup>e</sup> recovering Arrears of y<sup>e</sup> Customes & reparation of yo<sup>r</sup> Pet<sup>r</sup> their Collecto<sup>r</sup> and his Deputies & for y<sup>e</sup> better settlem<sup>t</sup> of y<sup>e</sup> Collection for y<sup>e</sup> future & prest their concurrence therein And y<sup>t</sup> their Lord<sup>sh</sup>s would take some effectuall course for reducing y<sup>e</sup> country to y<sup>e</sup> obedience of y<sup>e</sup> Law Neverthelesse there hath beene nothing done therein But their Lord<sup>sh</sup>s seeme rather to countenance y<sup>e</sup> present settlement of things under y<sup>e</sup> Rebels by w<sup>ch</sup> not only yo<sup>r</sup> Pet<sup>r</sup> & y<sup>e</sup> other sufferers here but also all those y<sup>t</sup> have opposed y<sup>e</sup> Rebellion there (whose petitions also are sent home) are brought to their utmost dispair

Thomas Miller.
Sheweth

That whereas your Petitioner did on the 30th day of June last exhibit a Petition to your Ma<sup>ty</sup> in Councill, most humbly setting forth the deplorable Condition of himselfe, and diverse others yo<sup>r</sup> Ma<sup>ty</sup> most Loyall Subjects in Albemarle in Carolina, as their Petition then alsoe exhibited to yo<sup>r</sup> Ma<sup>ty</sup> did declare, not only by our sufferings in the late Rebellion, but also under the p<sup>r</sup>sent usurped Governm<sup>t</sup> of the Rebels in Carolina still pursuing the destruction of yo<sup>r</sup> Pet<sup>r</sup> and all others that have opposed them therein to all w<sup>ch</sup> (as yo<sup>r</sup> Pet<sup>r</sup> is informed) no other answer was given then that there is a Governor goeing over thither from the Lords Prop<sup>rs</sup> and thereby the matter no further debated, the w<sup>ch</sup> answer (thō it implyes an owneing of the matter of fact complained of, yet it) leaves yo<sup>r</sup> distressed Pet<sup>r</sup> (who is alsoe Collector of yo<sup>r</sup> Ma<sup>ty</sup> Customes there) and the rest of yo<sup>r</sup> Ma<sup>ty</sup> greatly oppressed Subjects in a manner remediless, because noe further Examination is had of this matter, nor provision made for their reliefe, nor for the Settlem<sup>t</sup> of the Country nor Collection of yo<sup>r</sup> Ma<sup>ty</sup> Customes there, whereby it now appears that some of the Lords designe no other then the continuance of the p<sup>r</sup>sent state of things there under the Rebels, who still continue prosecuting yo<sup>r</sup> Pet<sup>r</sup> for his escape, and all those who have opposed them by heavy fines imprisonment Banishm<sup>t</sup> loss of Eares &c. as yo<sup>r</sup> Pet<sup>r</sup> by sundry letters lately received thence is ready to make good. And all this meerey to justify the said Rebellion, and discourage all persons from seeking any redress.

Your Pet<sup>r</sup> therefore most humbly implores yo<sup>r</sup> Ma<sup>ty</sup> either to grant an hearing of the said Petitioners & other papers relateing thereto in Councell, or to referr them to y<sup>e</sup> Committee of Lords for Plantations to examine the same, & the p<sup>r</sup>sent state of things there and report the same to yo<sup>r</sup> Ma<sup>ty</sup> together with what course the Lords Propri<sup>rs</sup> & Com<sup>rs</sup> of yo<sup>r</sup> Ma<sup>ty</sup> Customes have or intend to take pursuant to an order of the said Committee upon a former Referrence from yo<sup>r</sup> Ma<sup>ty</sup> for the reducing the Country, recovering the Arreares, and future settlem<sup>t</sup> of the Collection of the Customes and restauration of yo<sup>r</sup> Pet<sup>rs</sup> to their employm<sup>ts</sup> & Estates, & reparation of the damages done to yo<sup>r</sup> Ma<sup>ty</sup> in yo<sup>r</sup> Customes, & to yo<sup>r</sup> Pet<sup>rs</sup> in the late Rebellion. To the end that yo<sup>r</sup> Ma<sup>ty</sup> may grant such order for the future settlem<sup>t</sup> of things & for the releife of yo<sup>r</sup> Pet<sup>rs</sup> and that before the departure of this mentioned Governo<sup>r</sup> as to yo<sup>r</sup> Ma<sup>ty</sup> in yo<sup>r</sup> grations wisdom shall seeme fitt & meet.

And as evill accidents are seldome without their Concomitants, soe the Low price and Value of its only Comodity Tobacco doth aggravate & heighten its misery, for tho' by God's blessing there is such plentie of it as might well support every man in his private capacitie & enable him to contribute liberally to the publique, whereby good Stypends might be given to those in Military employment & for the defence of the Country, yet such is the unhappiness of it that it will not supply the soldiers with cloathes for their wages nor armes and ammunition for the Service they are in, neither can the Country hope for any redress in this their deplorable Estate, unless by his Majesties most Sacred Authority the great quantities of that Speice (by some Expedient most agreable to his wisdom) be abated—

SECRETARY OF VIRGINIA TO SEC. OF STATE JULY &
AUG. 1680

May it please your Hono<sup>r</sup>

It is now neare six weeks since I gave your hono<sup>r</sup> the trouble of a Letter. I then informed an Assembly was suddenly to sitt, summoned by his Excellency the Lord Culpeper; the results of whose consultations (as it is my duty) I herewith send to your Hono<sup>r</sup> being severall Acts and Orders, together with an Address to his most sacred majesty, imploring his grace of a Cessation from planting Tobacco in the yeare 1681, a request which seems to import such a diminution to his Majesties Customes in the yeare, that it may be feared itt carries with itt, its owne deniall, tho' for its imoderation wee are so unhappy as to plead our most important necessities; to be our sole manufacture, and by which hitherto this Country hath only subsisted but now by the excessive quantities made, is soe under foot that itt will be impossible for the Inhabitants longer to support themselves thereby, unless his Majesty will bee graciously pleased to enjoin a Cessation, & thereby lessen the quantity & consequently advance the price: By which wee may not only hope for that good, butt by the yeares employ<sup>mt</sup> in other affayres, our people may bee incouraged for the future, to divert part of their Labours, in carrying on some other manufactures & not solely depend upon that uncertayne comodity Tobacco, which at present is so low, that a whole yeares Crop will not advance to the ordinary planter whereby meanely to cloath himselfe and itt is to be feared another yeare will bring us to a more deplorable Condition, there being now upon the ground the greatest Crops that have been known, which when finished together with what remaines in that Country, will be as much if not more, then the ships can carry, of, in two succeeding yeares from whence itt doth consequently follow, if a Cessation bee not the next yeares Labour in Tob: will bee totally spent in vayne

The dispicable & low price of Tob:<sup>o</sup> inclines the Inhabitants of this Contry to thinke of Cohabitation as a principall meanes to abase the quantity of the Comodity, and amend the quality, and the late Assembly hath made an Act to that purpose, but I much doubt itt may miss its wished effect, if not totally miscarry, by the multiplicity of places appointed for Townes, viz: one in every County. Butt if all ships were by his Majesty comanded to ride at one place in every great River, and in every of those places a Town to bee erected, the design would have the better prospect

ANSWER OF THE LORDS PROPRIETORS OF CAROLINA
READ THE 20 NOV. 1680.

M<sup>r</sup> Thomas Miller without any legall authority gott possession of the government of the County of Albemarle in Carolina in the yeare 1677 and was for a tyme quietly obeyed but doeing many illegall and arbitrary things and drinking often to excess and putting the people in generall by his threats and actions in great dread of their lives and estates and they as we suppose getting some knowledge that he had no legall authority tumultuously and disorderly imprison him and suddainly after M<sup>r</sup> Biggs and M<sup>r</sup> Nixon for adhering to M<sup>r</sup> Miller and abetting him in some of his actions and revive an accnsation against M<sup>r</sup> Miller of treasonable words for which he had been formerly imprison'd but never tryed And appoynt M<sup>r</sup> Culpeper to receive the Kings Customes durieng the imprisonment of M<sup>r</sup> Miller and did many other tumultuous and irregu- lar things. M<sup>r</sup> Bigs makes his escape and comes home to England and gives us information of these disorders upon w<sup>ch</sup> we gott one M<sup>r</sup> Seth

Sothell who is interested with us to undertake the Government who being a sober moderate man and no way concerned in the factions and animosities of the place we doubt not but would settle all things well there and to whome we gave Instructions to examine into the past disorders and punish the offenders. And the Comiss<sup>rs</sup> of his Maj<sup>ty</sup>s Customes gave him also a Comission to be Collecto<sup>r</sup> of his Maj<sup>ty</sup>s Customes in Albemarle but M<sup>r</sup> Southell in his voyage thither was taken by the Turks and carried into Argiers.

As soone as we heard of M<sup>r</sup> Sothell's misfortune we sent a Comission to one M<sup>r</sup> Harvey to be Gov<sup>r</sup> untill M<sup>r</sup> Sothel's arrivall there, whose release we speedily expected With this Comission went M<sup>r</sup> Robert Holden whoome the Comissioners of the Customes had appoynted Collector of his Maj<sup>ty</sup>s Customes in Albemarle in the roome of M<sup>r</sup> Sothell; both these Comissions as we are informed were quyetly and cherefully obeyed by the people and M<sup>r</sup> Holden hath without any disturbance from the People collected his Maj<sup>ty</sup>s Customes there and sent part of it home to the Comissioners here and part of the Customes having been made use of by the people in the tyme of the disorders they have laid a Taxe upon themselves for the repaying it to M<sup>r</sup> Holden the present Collector

Not long after the settlem<sup>t</sup> of the Governm<sup>t</sup> in M<sup>r</sup> Harvey he and the Council (as we are informed) did committ M<sup>r</sup> Miller againe in order to the bringing him to a Tryall for the treasonable words he had formerly spoken, But M<sup>r</sup> Miller breakes prison and comes for England And not long after M<sup>r</sup> Bigs (who is by the Comissioners of the Customes appoynted Surveyor of his Ma<sup>ty</sup>s dues in Albemarle) and M<sup>r</sup> Holden the Collector quarrell among themselves and M<sup>r</sup> Bigs withdrawes himself from the Conneill and perswades James Hill the Duke of Albemarle's Depnty to doe the same, hoping thereby as we conceive to make a disturbance in the Governm<sup>t</sup> Since then M<sup>r</sup> Harvey is dead and the Conneill have chosen Col. Jenkins to execute the place of Govern<sup>r</sup> untill we shall appoynt another and all things as we are informed by letters from thence beareing date May June & July last are in quyet and his Maj<sup>ty</sup>s Customes quyetly paid by the People, though M<sup>r</sup> Bigs hath endeavoured to interrupt the same together with some others who being, as we are informed prosecuted for ayding M<sup>r</sup> Miller in his escape and other misdemeanors are withdrawn into Virginia and which we conceive are the persons whose names are to the Petition presented to his Majesty. And this is the truest acc<sup>ts</sup> we are able to give your Lordships how the cases of M<sup>r</sup> Miller and M<sup>r</sup> Bigs appeares to us. And to prevent the like disorders for the future which hath been in great measure occasioned by factions and animosities in which most or all of the Inhabitants have been engaged

We are sending Capt. Wilkinson thither Govern<sup>r</sup> to whoome we shall give Instructions to examine into the past disorders and who being a Strang<sup>r</sup> and not concerned in the factions and animosities we have reason to hope will manage things with moderation and doe equall justice to all parties and we undertake will take care so to settle all things that his Maj<sup>ties</sup> Customes shall be duely paid to whomsoever shall be appoynted to collect the same.

Notwithstanding we think it our dutye to informe your Lordships that we are of opinion M<sup>r</sup> Miller being deeply ingaged in the Animosities of the place and having by divers unjustifiable actions as we are informed (besides Indictments found against him) rendered himself lyable to the suites of perticular persons for Injuries donne them from which he cannot by Law be protected That a Strang<sup>r</sup> will doe his Maj<sup>ties</sup> better service in that Imployment than M<sup>r</sup> Miller and more conduce to the continuation of the quyet of the place which we submit to yo<sup>r</sup> Lord<sup>ships</sup> great prudence and rest for resetting that Government and the peaceable and due collection of his Maj<sup>ties</sup> Customs in that Province and to make Report thereof unto the Committee And Thomas Miller Collector of the Customs there having presented divers petitions to his Ma<sup>ty</sup> in Council concerning Carolina on the 14th of June and 30th of July which had been thereupon transmitted to the Lords Proprietors the said Petitions are now read M<sup>r</sup> Miller being alsoe present After which the proposals made by the Commissioners of the Customs unto the Lords Proprietors containing three particulars concerning the Customs and His Maj<sup>ties</sup> Officers are alsoe read together with the Answer of the Lords Proprietors upon the petitions of Thomas Miller and Timothy Bigs.

Divers other papers presented by M<sup>r</sup> Miller touching the late disorders in Carolina and the hardships hee and others of His Maj<sup>ties</sup> Officers had suffered there are alsoe read as likewise several papers delivered by the Lords Proprietors concerning the behaviour of M<sup>r</sup> Miller in Carolina.

Upon consideration of the whole matter the Lords of the Committee think fitt that the Lords Proprietors and the Commissioners of the Customs doe finally agree on the best method for the recovery of the arrears of customs due to His Majesty and the collection of such as shall bee payable for the future To which the Lords Proprietors signify their consent and doe further promise according to what is proposed by the paper presented by the Commissioners of y<sup>e</sup> Customs to procure by their authority and influence in Carolina all just satisfaction to bee made unto Thomas Miller and the other officers of His Maj<sup>ties</sup> Customs for the losses they have injuriously sustained in that Country And also to use their utmost power to secure them from vexations suits.

INSTRUCTIONS TO CAPTAIN HENRY WILKINSON GOV- ERNOR OF THAT PART OF THE PROVINCE OF CAROLINA THAT LYES 5. MILES SOUTH OF THE RIVER OF PEMPLICO AND FROM THENCE TO VIRGINIA.

1. We having agreed upon a Modell of Government which you will find signed and sealed by us amongst the records of our Countie of Albemarle to be the fundamentall Constitutions and forme of Government of our Province of Carolina for ever And not being able att present to putt it fully in practice by reason of want of Landgraves and Cassiques and a sufficient number of People However intending to come as nigh it as we can in the present state of affaires in all the Collonyes of our said Province.

2. You are required as soon as conveniently you can after the receipt of these our Instructions in our names to issue out writts, to the foure Precincts of the Countie of Albemarle requiring each of them to elect five freeholders who are to be their Representatives: To whome the five persons chosen by us being added, and who for the present represent the Nobillity are to be your Assembly. They having chosen a Speaker, you are in our names to require them to elect five persons who being joyned to those five deputed by us, are to be the Councell by whose advice and consent or at least the major parte of six of them all being summoned you are to Govern according to the Limitations and Instructions following Observing what can att present be put in practice of our fundamentall Constitutions and forme of Government Which Councell for the present shall be in stead of the Grand Councell mentioned in our fundamentall Constitutions And to exercise the same Powers and jurisdictions the said Grand Councell is to doe by our said fundamentall Constitutions and forme of Government and so to be and continue untill we shall otherwise direct.

3. You are to cause all persons so chosen to swear Allegiance to our Sovereigne Lord the King and subscribe to beare Fidelity and submission to the Proprietors and forme of Government by them established. But in case any man for Religion sake be not free to swear then shall he subscribe the same in a book for that case provided which shall be deemed the same with swearing.

4. Yourself and the five deputys of the respective Proprietors are to represent the Pallatines Court and exercise the same jurisdictions and powers that by our Fundamentall Constitutions and forme of Government to that Court doth apertaine.

5. You are by and with the consent of the Councill to establish such Courts and soe many as you shall for the present think fitt for the administration of Justice till our Grand Modell of Government can come to be putt in execution.

6. You are by and with the consent of the Assembly to make such Lawes as you shall from tyme to tyme finde necessary which Laws being ratified by you and any three of our Deputys shall be in forme as is in that case provided in the 12th and other Articles of our Fundamental Constitutions and forme of Government which Lawes soe made you are with all convenient speed to transmitt unto us for our approbation.

7. You are as soone as conveniently you can to gett the Surveyor Generall to divide the County into squares of twelve thousand aeres By which we intend not to alter any man's right; but that those measures and rules we have agreed on in our Fundamental Constitutions and forme of Government may the sooner and easier come to be putt in practice amongst you.

8. You are to take notice that we doe grant unto all free persons that doe come to plant in Carolina before the 25th day of December 1684 and are above the age of sixteene yeares sixty aeres of land and to the said free persons for every able man servant with a good firelock 10 pound of powder and 20<sup>lbs</sup> of Bullets 60. aeres of land And for every other sort of servant 50. aeres to his or her proper use and behoofe and to their heirs &c. for ever.

9. Any person haveing transported himselfe or servants into the County to plant shall make the same appeare to yourselfe and Councell who shall thereupon issue out a warrant to the Surveyor Generall to lay him out a parcell of land according to the proportions mentioned in these our instructions, and the Surveyor haveing done the same, and the warrant with the Surveyor Generalls retorne thereon being recorded and the person to whome the Land is granted haveing sworn or subscribed allegiance to our Sovereigne Lord the King submission and fidelitty to the Lords Proprietors and their fundamentall Constitutions and forme of Government you are under the seale for that use provided to pass this following Grant

William Earle of Craven his Majesty's Lord Lieutenant of the County of Middlesex and Burrough of Southwarke Pallatine and the rest of the true and absolute Lords and Proprietors of the Province of Carolina.

To all to whom these presents shall come greeting in our Lord God Everlasting Know yee that wee the said Lords Proprietors according to our Instructions dated att Whytehall the      day of Feby 16      Remaining upon record in the County of Albemarle in the Province aforesaid doe hereby grant unto A. B. of the said County planter a Plantation of      Akers of land English measure, lyeing and being in the Precinct of A. B. in the County aforesaid bounded      the land being due to the said A. B. by and for the transportation in the County of      persons whose names are upon Record under this Pattent To have and to hold the said Plantation unto the said A. B. his heirs and assignes for ever with Priviledges of Hawking, hunting Fishing Fowling with all woods and trees with what else is there growing standing and being except all mynes mineralls all quarrys of Jemms or precious stones Yealding or paying therefore unto us our Heirs and successors yearly every 29th day of September according to the English accompt one Penny of lawfull English money for every of the said acres to be holden of us in free Soccage, the first payment of the Rent to begin the 29th of September which shall be in the yeare of our Lord 1684 Provided always that if the said Land be not settled within one year after the date hereof then this Pattent to be voyd else to stand in full force.

Given att      under the Seale of the County of Albemarle this day of      A. D.      being the      year of our Possession of our Province of Carolina. Witness Henry Wilkinson Esq<sup>re</sup> Governor and Commander in Cheife of our said County and our trusty and welbeloved our Councillors who have hereunto sett our hands the day and year above written.

Although by our Fundamentall Constitutions we have reserved to ourselves one Penny per acre rent of all lands in Carolina yett forasmuch as there are divers persons in the County of Albemarle who were possest of land there by virtne of grants from Sir William Berkely att one farthing per acre quitt rent And others were possest and had rights to land whilst by our Instructions to the Governor of Albemarle we reserved to ourselves but one halfe penny per acre quitt rent we think itt just that those persons should enjoy their lands under the same quitt rents they were granted to them when by virtue of our Instructions Lands were due to them for having come into the said County or brought or sent servants to plant there. Wherefore you are in our names and according to the forme in these Instructions prescribed to pass our Grants to all persons att one farthing per acre quitt rent who shall desire such Grants, and shall make it appeare to yourselfe and our deputys that they had Grants from Sir William Berkeley under that quitt rent before the 25th day of Dec<sup>r</sup> Anno 1663 and not fortified the same by virtue of the act of Parliament by us past and confirmed the 20th day of January 1669. intituled an Act for the better and speedier seating of land, and you are to pass the like Grants att one halfe penny per acre quitt rents to all persons who shall desire the same and had rights to land before the publishing Instructions by us sent to M<sup>r</sup> Harvey and bearing date the 5 Feb<sup>r</sup> 1678 and have not forfeited the same by virtue of the aforesaid Acts. but you are not in the Grants of one farthing per acre to allow the same time for the beginning of payment of quitt rents that is allowed to those who are to pay one penny per acre quitt rent, for we expect those who are to pay one farthing per acre and those who are to pay one halfe per acre quitt rents, there rents shall be paid from the tyme they ought to have been paid by virtue of our Instructions and those who have Pattents for Sir W<sup>m</sup> Berkeley before the year of our Lord 1663, we expect should pay the said quitt rents from the tyme they were to have paid them by the said Pattents.

You are to choose some fitting place in a Collony whereon to build the cheefe Towne of Albemarle in the choyce of which you have regard to health plenty and easy access You are to endeavour to gett the Parliament to rayse wherewithall to build a house for the meeting of the Councell and Parliament in said Towne and when the said house is erected the Council and Parliament are allways to sitt there and also the Surveyors Registers and Secretarys offices are there to be kept and in no other place and also the Court of Common Pleas and Sessions of the Peace And you are to gett the Parliament to pass an act that noe Store shall be kept strong Drink or any Goods sould by retayle but in the said Towne and you are to cause all vessells that shall come into Albemarle River there to loade and unloade as by our Fundamentall Constitutions is required.

You the Governor of our said County are to be Commander in Cheife of all our forces raised or to be raised in onr said County of Albemarle over whome you are to place Officers and cause them to be duely exercised in Armes and to doe all other thing and things that to a Commander in Cheefe doth belong And you are to summon the Councell to meete as often as you shall see cause and are to doe and execute all those powers and authoritys which by virtue of our Fundamentall Constitutions Temporary Lawes and Instructions a Governor ought to doe.

You are allsoe by and with the consent of the major part of our Deputys to adjourne prorogue and dissolve the Parliament as to you shall seem most convenient for the good and quyet of the County.

Whereas complaint hath been made to us that divers persons have by force and violence been dispossessed of their Goods and Estates during the tyme of the late disorder in the County of Albemarle and that it cannot be reasonably expected that men who have been any way concerned of the one syde or the other in the said Disorders will be soe impartiall as those that had not att all any hand in them. You are therefore as soon as conveniently you can after your Arrivall in the said County with the consent of the major part of the Councill to choose 4. able judicious men and who have not been partyes, or any way concerned in the late disorders who together with yourselfe or any 3. of you yourself being one are to be a Court to heare and determine according to law all suites complaints or actions that shall be brought by any person for having without due course of law and violence, been during the tyme of the said disorders dispossessed of his Goods or Estate and to grant Excecution provided the said sute complaint or action be brought by persons residing within the said County within the space of 6. months after the first sitting of the said Court, and within the space of 2. years by such as are not resident within the said County; those entred or brought after the said tyme are to be tryed as other common Actions.

If you our said Governor shall depart out of the Province of Carolina, you are before your departure to appoynt with the consent of the major parte of the Councill a deputy Governor who shall execute the Powers and Authoritys by us to you given untill you retorne into your Government or that we shall authorize direct or commissionate another but if you our said Governor happen to dye then the Councill for the tyme being shall be forthwith summoned to meete by the eldest in yeares of our Deputys; or in case he faile to doe it by the next: who being mett shall choose a person to be Governor who being soe chosen shall be Governor to all Intents and purposes as if commissioned by our selves and execute the powers and authoritys to you given by our Commission and Instructions and soe continue untill our pleasre shall be signified to the contrary by granting a Commission to some other. You are to take notice that it not appeareing to us that Sir William Berkeley did dure-ing his life tyme convey his proprietorship to any person for want of which it is devolved, nor not haveing paid a penny towards the settlement of our Province, we doe not think fitt to admitt the Heirs or Executors of the said Sir William to have anything to doe in Carolina as proprietors untill they shall have made itt appeare that they have right soe to doe; wherefore you are not to admit of any Deputy from the Heirs or Executors of the said Sir William nor allow unto them any other thing as proprietors untill you have directions from us soe to doe.

You are likewise to take particular care that the bounds betwixt Virginia and Carolina be adjusted according to the Limits granted us in our Pattent.

ORDER FOR PASSING A LAW IN THE PLANTATIONS AGAINST PIRATES AND PRIVATEERS.

AT THE COURT AT WHITEHALL THE

By the King's most excellent Majesty and the Lords of His Maj<sup>ty</sup>s
Most Hon<sup>ble</sup> Privy Council.

Whereas the Right Hon<sup>ble</sup> the Lords of the Committee for Trade and Plantations did this day report to the Board, that Sir Thomas Lynch having represented to them the great damage that does arise in His Majesty's service by harbouring and encouraging of Pirates in Carolina and other Governments and Proprietys where there is no law to restrain them, their Lordships were humbly of opinion that a Draught of the Law now in force at Jamaica against Pirates and Privateers bee sent to all other Governments and Proprietys in America with his Majesty's Directions that it be passed into a Law in each Place; and that all possible care bee taken by the respective Governors and Proprietors that the same be put in execution as they will answer the contrary; Which His Majesty having taken into consideration, was pleased to approve thereof, And did Order That the Right Honorable M<sup>r</sup> Secretary Jenkins do transmit Copies of the said Law made at Jamaica against Pirates and Privateers to all other the Governors and Proprietors of His Majesty's Plantations in America with directions to them in His Majesty's name to cause the same to be passed into a Law in each place, and to be duly put in Execution as is advised in the said Report.

LETTER FROM LORD CRAVEN TO LORDS OF TRADE
(27. MAY. 1684)

My Lords,

I have seen what Sir Thomas Lynch hath written to your Lordships concerning the reception of Privateers at Carolina. Upon enquiry I am informed that one Jacob Hall did touch there to wood and water as he came from La Vera Cruz, but belonged not to the place, nor had no Inhabitant of Carolina with him, and stayed but a very few days, and then sayled for Virginia. Hall acted under Van Horn, who had a Commission from the French; and His Majesty's Pleasure not to suffer His subjects to take Commissions from forreign Princes not being known in Carolina is the reason I conceive he was not secured.

I never could hear but of one more that ever was there, and he not pretending to any Commission from any forreign Prince, and having taken some vessells was indicted for the same, and being found guilty was executed, and himself and two more, the most guilty of his Company, hung in chains at the Entrance of the Port, and there hang to this day for an example to others, And at Providence, which Sir Thomas Lynch hath heretofore blamed for receiving Privateers, all imaginable care was taken by the Governors to suppress them, and no attempts upon the Spaniard made from those parts but at the instigation of a person commissioned by Sir Thomas Lynch to take Pyrats as your Lordships may see by the enclosed Abstract of his letters. Wee have now sent to Carolina His Majesty's Proclamation for prohibiting of his subjects from entering into the service of foreign Princes, and the keeping of the neutrality, with strict order for the Observation of it, which I doubt not but will be punctually obeyed; and also the orders to pass a law suitable to that of Jamaica for the suppressing of Privateers, so that I humbly conceive your Lordships will hear no more complaints that Privateers are received in Carolina. Wee having taken all imaginable Care for the preventing of it for the future, and I am &c.

There is Lately come into England from Albemarle in Carolina M<sup>r</sup> Timothy Biggs who hath Complained to us of severall Injurys done him there for w<sup>ch</sup> he can have no redresse by men you have Impowered to try causes being as he alleadgeth those very P<sup>ersons</sup> who Joined in y<sup>e</sup> Late disorders & did him y<sup>e</sup> Injury as you will see more att large by a Copie of his paper w<sup>ch</sup> is here inclosed sent you

When you had blanke deputations given you it was y<sup>t</sup> you upon the place might fill them up wth such P<sup>ersons</sup> as might be most for y<sup>e</sup> Kings Honour & service & who by being unconcerned in y<sup>e</sup> past Differences might be most likely by Just governm<sup>t</sup> of affairs & equall distribution of Justice to put an end to all Causes of Complaint from any P<sup>ersons</sup> for y<sup>e</sup> future

Wee did also in our Instructions for y<sup>e</sup> Governm<sup>t</sup> of Albemarle order & appoint y<sup>t</sup> y<sup>e</sup> Governour should wth the consent of the Councill choose three discreet men who were no way concerned in the past Irregularitys & disorders there who together wth y<sup>e</sup> Governor for the time being should be a Court for y<sup>e</sup> tryall of all actions y<sup>t</sup> had Relation to y<sup>e</sup> aforesaid disorders But M<sup>r</sup> Biggs Informes us y<sup>t</sup> y<sup>e</sup> P<sup>ersons</sup> wth whose names you have filled the Blank Deputations are such as were great actors in them against the Kings Interest & that you have erected no such Court as wee Directed whereby he could have no Justice done him to w<sup>ch</sup> wee know not what to say you not haveing Informed us wth whose names you filled the said blanke deputations nor have you written how you have complied wth our order for erecting a court of Indifferent P<sup>ersons</sup> a copie of w<sup>ch</sup> order a copie is here Inclosed sent you.

Wherefore we now Require you to Informe us by the very first opportunity wth whose names you filled the blanke Deputations & if any of them are such as had any hand in the late disorders y<sup>t</sup> you put them out & fill the blankes now sent wth the advice of M<sup>r</sup> Archdale wth such P<sup>ersons</sup> as were not concerned in them who by their prudence & peaceableness of their tempers may be most likely to contribute best to his Majestys Service & y<sup>e</sup> peace of the place & that if those who are depntyes & y<sup>t</sup> yo<sup>r</sup>selfe & M<sup>r</sup> Archdale shall think fitt to be continued in shall not have been actors in the past disorders that then you send home depositions taken before M<sup>r</sup> Archdale & some other magistrate of the place to prove it that wee may be thereby bee the better Inabled to answeare any clamor of M<sup>r</sup> Biggs if there bee occation. And that you doe forthwth choose four able discreet men & who had no hand in the past disorders of either side to bee the Justices of the County Court of Albemarle & a P<sup>erson</sup> so quallified to be sherrif of that County to set and hold Courts for the tryall of causes as by our fundamental Constitutions is directed which wee thinke a better way then y<sup>t</sup> formerly ordered it not being so convenient to Interest y<sup>r</sup>selfe or any other Governor In Cheeff of that County in the Imediate tryall of causes but leave him at liberty wth the Councell to heare the complaints if any shall be made against any of the said Justices or Sherriff for any misdemeanor in their respective offices w<sup>ch</sup> method is agreeable to our Constitutions and as wee Conceive the best way for equall distribution of Justice in said County wth which wee cannot expect to have it thrive or be freed from Clamor our selves wherefore wee Require of you that this our order be Instantly put into execution and that you send us the names of such P<sup>ersons</sup> who are Comissioned to bee the said Justices & Sherriff for y<sup>e</sup> county afores<sup>d</sup> & y<sup>t</sup> you direct all y<sup>r</sup> Letters that concerns us in Generall to y<sup>e</sup> Pallatine the earle of Craven to be communicated to us.

Wee did by M<sup>r</sup> Archdale send a blank Comis<sup>n</sup> for a Reecever to Collect our rents and give us acc<sup>t</sup> thereof wth Directions y<sup>t</sup> he should fill up the s<sup>d</sup> blanke wth some convenient or fitting P<sup>erson</sup> by y<sup>r</sup> advice but we have not a word from either of you what is done therein nor what the annuall amount of the said quit rents are wherefore wee desire you P<sup>er</sup> first you will give us an acc<sup>t</sup> who you have put into the said Comission what he hath Collected what you have done wth y<sup>t</sup> already collected & also a P<sup>er</sup>ticular of the wrecks & other things apertaining to y<sup>e</sup> L<sup>d</sup> Proprietors & also what the yearly amount of quit rents of land is & P<sup>er</sup>ticularly what quantity of land each man holds & what the rent is he payes & then we shall order how y<sup>e</sup> s<sup>d</sup> quit rents & others P<sup>er</sup>quisitts shall be disposed of

We have considered of what you write of my Lord Culpapers sending to demand the quit rents of the Comty of Albemarle for w<sup>ch</sup> wee are well assured he had no orders from hence Wherefore desire you not to faile in using all discret Legall & prudent wayes for the p<sup>r</sup>servation of our Just Rights we shall take a convenient time to petition y<sup>e</sup> King y<sup>t</sup> o<sup>r</sup> bounds may be runn out y<sup>t</sup> Disputes may be p<sup>r</sup>vented for y<sup>e</sup> future

Upon y<sup>e</sup> consideration of y<sup>e</sup> complaints of some of the inhabitants of Carratuck setting forth that the governm<sup>t</sup> of North Carolina had distrained upon part of their household goods under pretence that y<sup>e</sup> land they inhabited was within ye governm<sup>t</sup> of North Carolina & that therefore they ought to pay proportionable for y<sup>e</sup> discharge of y<sup>e</sup> governm<sup>t</sup> wth other the inhabitants thereof tho' indeed they were alwaies esteemed to be people of the inhabitants of the governm<sup>t</sup> of Virginia and held their lands by patents granted by the Govern<sup>r</sup> of Virginia All which this Board taking under their serious consideration are of oppinion that the whole matter be humbly represented unto his Majesty for his royall consideration and that a letter be forthwith writt for his Excellency's signeing directed to the Gov<sup>r</sup> & governm<sup>t</sup> of North Carolina signifying that this governm<sup>t</sup> have humbly presented unto his Maj<sup>ty</sup> the pretension that that governm<sup>t</sup> makes unto the lands lying on Carratuck & Blackwater and that it is desired that no disturbance or violence be offered to the inhabitants thereof untill his Maj<sup>tie</sup> shall signifie his pleasure therein.

His Majesties Govern<sup>r</sup> & Councill of this Colony knowing themselves in duty bound faithfully to represent unto his Majesty all occurrences of moment relating to the same doe therefore humbly beg leave to lay before his Majesties royall consideration a matter whereby not only his subjects at presents are disturbed and disquieted in their possessions neare adjoyning unto y<sup>e</sup> governm<sup>t</sup> of North Carolina but also y<sup>e</sup> publick peace of the Comtry threatened by the violent actings of some officers of that govern<sup>t</sup> under pretence extending the bounds thereof far within the anciently reputed and known Southern bounds of this yo<sup>r</sup> Maj<sup>ties</sup> Colony of Virginia for y<sup>e</sup> Southern bounds of this y<sup>r</sup> Maj. Colony of Virginia have allwaies been reputed to be extended to the latitude of 36 unto that latitude land hath been granted unto adventurers & purchasers for more than forty yeares past by former Govern<sup>rs</sup> and Councills of this y<sup>r</sup> Maj. Colony of Virginia and y<sup>e</sup> lands so granted have been by patent from y<sup>r</sup> Maj. Sec<sup>ry</sup>'s office of this Colony and the inhabitants thereon seated have been taken to be y<sup>e</sup> inhabitants of Virginia and accordingly formerly have paid all scott & lott of publick & county dues of this Colony and quietly & peaceably enjoyed their land held from this Gover<sup>t</sup> untill y<sup>e</sup> yeare 1680 that some pretence was made to some small part of land lying upon Carratuck & Blackwater upon which pretensions the inhabitants thereof applyed themselves unto y<sup>e</sup> right Hono<sup>ble</sup> Thomas Lord Culpeper the then Gov<sup>r</sup> of Virginia and alsoe the Councill thereof who by letter to the Gov<sup>r</sup> and governm<sup>t</sup> soe satisfied them in the justness of the claime of the bounds of this Country to thirty six that the inhabitants thereof were not in the least vexed or disturbed in y<sup>r</sup> possessions by any pretence of y<sup>e</sup> govern<sup>t</sup> of North Carolina until this present year 1688 who now without makeing any further claime have leveyed upon y<sup>e</sup> inhabitants of Carratuck and Blackwater who hold their lands by patent from this y<sup>r</sup> Maj. governm<sup>t</sup> and for y<sup>e</sup> said levyes have distrained and forcibly carryed away divers goods out of the houses of y<sup>e</sup> said inhabitants which force upon them from y<sup>e</sup> govern<sup>t</sup> of Carolina if not timely prevented will prove ruinous to y<sup>e</sup> pore people if not usher in greater mischiefes therefore his Maj. Gov<sup>r</sup> and Conneill doe humbly supplicate his Maj. to take under his royall consideration the pressures those pore inhabitants lie under from the pretence that those lands are part of the bounds of North Carolina and that his Maj<sup>ty</sup> will be pleased not to narrow the bounds of his long seated Colony of Virginia and his Maj. Govern<sup>r</sup> & Council do humbly fither begg leave to offer to his Maj. consideration how prejudiciall it may bee to his Maj. Revenue ariseing upon tobacco if those lands now in question should be taken to be under the govern<sup>t</sup> of Carolina lying so neare unto y<sup>e</sup> opening of Carratuck that small vessells may pass in and out undiscovered and cary of what tobacco they find fit without paying any dues for y<sup>e</sup> same for the inhabitants of North Carolina being but few in number and far remote from that part of Carratuck cannot make discovery of any such cheats if intended which whilst its under the governm<sup>t</sup> of Virginia is provided against by the prudent care of M<sup>r</sup> Meyn his Maj<sup>ty</sup>s Surveyor Generall of Virginia by a person an inhabitant of Virginia being apointed a Collector to inspect according to law all matters of trade in that part and for the quieting yo<sup>r</sup> Maj. subjects in a peaceable possession of their lands and stoping the force of distress put upon them yo<sup>r</sup> Maj<sup>ty</sup>s Governor and counceill doe humbly begg leave to supplicate y<sup>r</sup> Maj<sup>ty</sup> that you would be pleased to give direction for the ascertaining of the bounds between yo<sup>r</sup> Maj<sup>ty</sup>s Government of Virginia and North Carolina as in your princely wisdom shall find fitt.

Coll: John Gibbs doth Publish & declare, That Phillip Lindwel is a Rascal, imposter, & Usurp<sup>r</sup> all which shall be justified in England and if any of the boldest Heroe living in this or the next County will undertake to Justifie the said Ludwel's illegal Irregular proceeding, let him call upon me wth his sword, and I will single out & goe with him into any part of the King's Dominions, & there fight him in this Cause, as long as my Eyelids shall wagg.—

These are therefore to warn, charge and command all Persons to keep the Kings peace, to consult y<sup>e</sup> ffundamentals, and to render me due obedience, & not presume to act or do by Virtue of any Comission or Power whatsoever derived from y<sup>e</sup> above s<sup>d</sup> Ludwel, as they will answer it, att their utmost perill. I am willing to pass by all hitherto, if y<sup>e</sup> new Deputyes will consult with me to prevent evil consequences, I am willing to receive them or a Messeng<sup>r</sup> with respect at my house at Paspotank or Corotuck, not that I carry any but defensive Armes in Vindication of my Oath & Right, w<sup>ch</sup> God willing I will maintain to death.

Further I proclaime him that is a Tatler against y<sup>e</sup> truth of this matter to be a Villaine, & a Coward, that will not give me a meeting singler to dispute it with sword in hand. As God is my Judge I hate a base advantage, & never design against any mans life Cowardly: soe as I never did nor will wrong y<sup>e</sup> Lords Proprietors, or Comntry, they shall not me if possible.

JOHN GIBBS.

CAROLINA. JULY 19th 1690.

deplorable, being obliged to continue in Armes to defend themselves from farther Injuries, & consequently loose their Cropps, or run y<sup>e</sup> hazard of being ruined, if they stand still M<sup>r</sup> Gibbs haveing as they are informed near eighty men in armes att his house in Curratuck, y<sup>e</sup> consequences whereof may be very dangerous, besides y<sup>e</sup> thing ittself very unwarrantable and whereas M<sup>r</sup> Gibbs p<sup>t</sup>tends his arms are only denfensive, y<sup>t</sup> must appear frivilous when no force has ever appeared agst him, or any violence offer'd him by any person, & as he p<sup>t</sup>tends itt is only in vindication of his right to y<sup>e</sup> Govern<sup>t</sup> whatever his right is, certainly he ought to assert itt in another manner, by applying himself to y<sup>e</sup> L<sup>ds</sup> Propriet<sup>rs</sup> who without doubt are y<sup>e</sup> fittest Judges in that case, & would do him, what right he deserves I doe therefore most humbly pray yo<sup>r</sup> Hon<sup>r</sup> to take what I here present you into yo<sup>r</sup> serious Consideration & give us such relief therein as to yo<sup>r</sup> Hon<sup>r</sup> shall seem most meet & convenient, for a speedy establishing a firm Peace amongst all their Maj<sup>ties</sup> subjects, w<sup>ch</sup> will be a very gratefull Office to y<sup>e</sup> s<sup>d</sup> Propriet<sup>rs</sup> & a very great & reasonable favour to all y<sup>e</sup> Inhabitants of y<sup>t</sup> Coun<sup>try</sup>, & a p<sup>t</sup>ienlar obligation on

cill here that before any directions or orders pass to run any other bounds that notice may be given to this Government that they may humbly offer their reasons against it for the altering those bounds will very much disturbe their Maj<sup>ty</sup> subjects here by taking away many plantations and will very much lessen their Ma<sup>tes</sup> Quit Rents.

LORDS PROPRIETORS TO GOV. SOTHEL.

Your Letters directed to each of vs and all of y<sup>e</sup> same tenour of the 21 of Oct<sup>ber</sup> Wee have rec<sup>d</sup> and are well pleas<sup>d</sup> to finde you write that you will submitt to our Instructions for the govern<sup>t</sup> and that you never denyed so to doe

Wee hope you are to knowing and to wise a man to claime any power In Carolina but by virtue of them for no prop<sup>or</sup> single by virtue of our patents hath any right to the Govern<sup>t</sup> or to exercise any Jurisdiction there vnless Impowered by the rest nor hath any seaven of y<sup>e</sup> Prop<sup>ors</sup> power to bind any one in his priviledge or property vnless by agreem<sup>t</sup> among ourselves w<sup>ch</sup> agreem<sup>t</sup> is contained in Our fundamentall Constitutions bearing date the 12th of January 1681 those being the onely constitutions agreed or signed to by all the eight proprietors and If any proprietor shall come into Carolina and take upon him govern<sup>t</sup> grant comissions and traine and exercise men any otherwise then pursuant to the rules and Instructions for Govern<sup>t</sup> apointed by the rest of y<sup>e</sup> proprietors it is by the Laws of England high treason as wee are well Informed and If any Governor of Carolina shall without Consent of Our Deputys Impowered by vs or rules from vs take vpon him to Impower Judges and other Magistrates It is a very high misdemeanour in the p<sup>er</sup>son granting and also in the p<sup>er</sup>son who accepts and executes such Office and all any such Officer shall doe is voyd erroneous and at his perill and any man In Carolina that shall take vpon him to act as Deputy that is not duely Impowered by vs or by rules from us is answerable for all he shall doe by vertue of any such pretended power of Deputy We are Informed that M<sup>r</sup> Joseph Blake having a deputation vnder y<sup>e</sup> hand and Seale of Mr. Archdale you have notwithstanding putt him out from being Deputy and put in M<sup>r</sup> Berrisford in his roome of yo<sup>r</sup> owne choice and that Mr. Berrisford acts as Deputy Wee hope this Information is not true for we can never approve yo<sup>r</sup> so doing and shall be obliged to vindicate our owne rights therein for wee will never allow that any Governo<sup>r</sup> vpon any p<sup>re</sup>tence whatsoever shall turne out a Deputy that is so apointed to bee vnder hand and seale of any Prop<sup>tor</sup> that tending towards a rebellion to y<sup>e</sup> crowne arbitrary power in himself and the outeing of the rest of the Prop<sup>tors</sup> of their rights

Wee knowe not what to say to y<sup>e</sup> protestation of our Deputys untill wee are truly Informed of y<sup>e</sup> matter of fact, they sayeing you positively refused to governe by our Instructions or rules of Government and you affirm the contrary for If you did refuse to governe by our Instructions wee think they did like wise and honest men to act with you and wee have a very good Character of the honesty prudence and truth of severall of them, but we shall suspend our judgem<sup>t</sup> of that matter untill yo<sup>r</sup> arrivall in England and that wee have proof of the allegations on both sides We do not approve of any reflections upon you for Actions in Albemarle and shall be very ready to shew our resentm<sup>t</sup> thereof as soon as you have clear<sup>d</sup> yo<sup>r</sup>self from the misdemeanors and oppressions layd to yo<sup>r</sup> charge by the Inhabitants of that County w<sup>ch</sup> misdemeanors are viz<sup>t</sup>

3 That the s<sup>d</sup> Richard Humphreys made a Will before his death and left one Thomas Pollock his Executor whom you would never admit to prove the s<sup>d</sup> Will, though often required by the s<sup>d</sup> Pollock to permit him to prove it before you nor would not so much as suffer the Court to attest that y<sup>e</sup> said Pollock had offred the Will to prove but took all y<sup>e</sup> goods into y<sup>r</sup> owne hands and converted them to y<sup>r</sup> owne vse

4 That the s<sup>d</sup> Pollock having sett vp his name to come for England to complaine of y<sup>r</sup> Injustice you Imprisoned him without shewing any reason or permitting him to see a copy of his mittimus

5 That you have for bribes withdrawne accusations that were for felony and treason

6 That you did unlawfully Imprison one Rob<sup>t</sup> Cannon

7 That you did arbitrarily and vulawfully detaine from John Stewart one negro and seven pewter dishes

8 That you did Imprison George Durant upon p<sup>r</sup>tence of his having said some reflecting words of yo<sup>r</sup>self and did compell him to give you a bond for a sume of money while he was in durance and did afterwards on p<sup>r</sup>tence of y<sup>e</sup> bond seize upon all the estate of the said George Durant without any process or collar of law and converted the same to yo<sup>r</sup> owne vse.

9 That you did vnjustly take from one John Tomlin his plantation.

10 That you did vulawfully detaine the Cattle of George Mathews and refused to deliver them although there was an order of court for it

11 That you took the plantation of John Harris vpon p<sup>r</sup>tence of a sale of the same to you by the said Harris although you knew the s<sup>d</sup> Harris was vnder age

12 That you vulawfully seizd vpon y<sup>e</sup> estate of one Mowberry

13 That you did by y<sup>r</sup> power as Governo<sup>r</sup> and proprietor seize upon severall mens estates without process of law and did severall other vnjust and arbitrary actions for w<sup>ch</sup> misdemeanors and other oppressions, the Inhabitants of Albemarle Imprisoned you with intent to send you prisoner to England and there to accuse you but you Intreated them not to send you to England but that you would submitt all to be determined by the next Generall Assembly who accordingly gave Judgement ag<sup>t</sup> you In all the forementioned particlars and compelled you to adjnre the Conntrey for 12 months and the Govern<sup>t</sup> for ever which proceeding of yo<sup>r</sup>self and the people is in our opinion prejudicial to the prerogative of the Crown and the honor and dignity of vs the prop<sup>tors</sup> Wherefore as in duty bound and for our owne vindication Wee are resolved to have this matter thoroughly inquired into that wee may take such course for the p<sup>r</sup>venting such disorders for the future as shall apeare most fitting for the asserting of their Ma<sup>ty</sup>s prerogative, the peace of the province the just libertys of y<sup>e</sup> people and vindication of ourselves But are vnwilling to proceed therein untill we have first spoken with you Wherefore desire and require that you come speedily for England that wee may have a full and clear Information of all matters and bee thereby enabled to know how to proceed and If you shall refuse or delay to come Wee cannot avoid thinking you guilty of all the misdemeanors layd to yo<sup>r</sup> charge and shall be constrained for our own vindications and to shew our abhorrence of the Injustice and opression practiced by any of our number to lay the whole matter before the King and pray his mandamus for yo<sup>r</sup> apearance here to answere what shall be objected ag<sup>t</sup> you w<sup>ch</sup> we hope you will not compell vs to wee being vnwilling to make you a publick shame or to bring you vnder a prosecution wee ourselves cannot stop when once begun.

Our Deputys had orders from vs not to call any Parliam<sup>t</sup> in Carolina without directions from us vnless some very extraordinary occasion should require it Wherefore wee cannot blame them for following our Instructions nor can wee aprove of yo<sup>r</sup> Encourageing the people to petition for a parliament or calling one because they did petition, tumultuous petitions being prohibited by Act of Parliam<sup>t</sup> here with a severe penalty upon such as shall break that law and we know not how farr such ill example In Carolina may Influence his Maj<sup>ties</sup> subjects In his other American plantations, but since you write that the Inhabitants have Intentions to depute 2 persons for our better Information of all matters wee have directed our Deputys to consent to the calling of a Parlia<sup>t</sup> for that purpose, for any Parliam<sup>t</sup> called by you with consent of such deputys as are not duely Impowered by vs wee cannot allow to be a Parliam<sup>t</sup> nor can wee tell how to justify our own consenting to any acts made by such Assembly.

Wee here Inclosed send you copie of some Articleles vnder the hands and seales of the prop<sup>tors</sup> in 1672 to w<sup>ch</sup> my Lord Clarondon sett his hand and seale and to which any that claime vnder him are bound Wee have no thought nor Intentions to doe you wrong or Injury, but on the other side wee shall not permitt ourselves to be Imposed on nor his Maj<sup>ties</sup> Subjects that live under our Governm<sup>t</sup> to be opress<sup>d</sup> or unjustly dealt with by any p<sup>r</sup>sons whatsoever and shall much rather surrender our Governm<sup>t</sup> to the King than suffer it If it bee not to be remedied other ways for wee have no other Interest to keep the Govern<sup>t</sup> in our owne hands, but that wee may be able to assure the people they shall not be oprest by y<sup>e</sup> Govern<sup>t</sup> and thereby Incourage them to goe to Carolina to take our Land and pay vs the rent, for it is not our Intentions to make profit by the Govern<sup>t</sup> ourselves or to suffer any Officers vnder vs to opress y<sup>e</sup> people by extragant fees and grow rich by the ruine of y<sup>e</sup> people Wee rest yo<sup>r</sup> affectionate friends

Present

I further observed that at that place the Course of the said River of Weyanock runs up Westerly tending 40 or 50 deg<sup>s</sup> Northerly & the course of the Blackwat<sup>r</sup> runs up at that neare North.

I alsoe set my Instrum<sup>t</sup> due East, and was Informed by y<sup>e</sup> Indians, that it directed to the Plantation of Tho: Gough, an Inhabitant in Summerton (a Settlem<sup>t</sup> of sev<sup>el</sup> Plantations in the County of Nanzemond) about ten miles distant.

The next day being the 10th of March proved very Rayney.

On the 11th day I went to Summersett afores<sup>d</sup> near to the place directed by the Indians where we made an observa<sup>ns</sup> of the Sunns Meridian Altitude (having a very fair observa<sup>ns</sup>) & find, that to be in the Latitude of 36 deg: 27 Min: North. Soe that if these observa<sup>ns</sup> be true and exact; An East line (being the Reverse of their Grant) from Weyanock will include the Plantations of Summerton, and all North of that line into this Govern<sup>t</sup> But leaves Bennetts Creeke, Buckland, Sarum &c. out.

The 16th of March I set out for Corotuck Inlett to which place I came the 19th of the same & upon a place called Cowpenpoint on the North side of Corotnek River, or Inlett, Wee observed y<sup>e</sup> Su<sup>n</sup>s Meridian Altitude to be 57; deg<sup>s</sup> 20 min<sup>ts</sup> by w<sup>ch</sup> the latitude of that place is North 36 deg<sup>s</sup> 28 min<sup>ts</sup>.

I alsoe observed by my Instrum<sup>t</sup> that a West line from thence went over Knots Island; leaving the greatest part of that Island on the South side the West line, but could from thence make no further observations of the beareing of any remarkable Settlements Contiguous to the place.

PRESENTMENT

BY THE COMMISSIONERS FOR MANAGING & CAUSING TO BE LEVYED & COLLECTED HIS MAJESTIES CUSTOMES SUBSIDIES &c:

The Commissioners having formerly acquainted their Lordships upon the Complaint of most of the principall Merchants Trading to Virginia and Marylaud That the Trade is in a great Measure Destroyed & Ruined by many Scotch ships trading directly from thence back to the said Places without paying his Majesties Duties. And prayed their Lordships to become a means that a Vessell with a skilefull and experienced Commander might be appointed to cruise on the Coasts of Virginia & Maryland and moreover that some effectuall Remedy might be taken by writing to the Govern<sup>t</sup> of Scotland or otherwise as to his Majesty should seem meet for preventing this great Evile tending to the Diminution of his Majesties Revenue and the Trade and Navigation of this Kingdome and M<sup>r</sup> Randolph who is employed by their Lordships as Surveyor Generall on the North Coast of America having since his arrival in England laid before the Commissioners his observation made in his Travell from one Colony to another with a list of severall ships which by his great skill and industry have been discovered by him to have traded between Scotland and the Plantations directly and some with false Cocquetz and Certificats which he hath likewise discovered and brought over being now under the Commissioners Examination. They do humbly lay before their Lordships a copy of the said M<sup>r</sup> Randolph's Paper as a matter of great moment. And the Commissioners being humbly apprehensive of this growing mischief for that the trade between Scotland and the Plantations is now about to be more openly carried on under Colour of a law lately past in Scotland for a joint Stock to Affrica & the Indies wherein severall Merchants of England have interested themselves they humbly pray that the same may be duly considered according to the Exigencie of so Important a case and laid before His Majesty in Council in order to some effectuall Remedy for suppressing such a Trade from Scotland to the Plantations, tending so apparently to the Ruine of this

Principale Branch of the Revenue and the violation of the Acts of Trade & Navigation which are the only security of the Plantation Trade to and from this Kingdome

SAMUELL CLERK

To the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Commissioners of the Customes

May it please your Honours

In my Paper of Proposals to suppress the illegall trade in the Tobacco Plantations which have been carried on from thence directly to Scotland for many years I have shewn from whence it has so generally prevailed and laid down proper methods for preventing thereof for the future a copy whereof is heremto annexed which will be effectually remedied if they was formed into an Act of Parliament to be passed this session and Entituled An Act for preventing Frauds and regulating Abuses in the Plantation Trade as is the Act of 14 Car 2nd for England. And that the Commanders of His Majesties ships of Warr during their stay in the Countrey may be ordered to receive Instructions from this Board in what may concerne the care of the Trade and Navigation to and from those Plantations and to the aiding and assisting of the Officers of His Majesties Customes in the Execution of their Dutys.

I now lay before your Honours an Accompt of the present State of His Majesties Colonies and Provinces upon the North Coast of America, in relation to a Scotch Act which is lately past, in which Act under pretence of erecting an East India Company in that Kingdome They do (p<sup>r</sup> 2<sup>d</sup>) engage themselves with great sums of money in an American Trade a trade which has already for severall years been carried on by Scotchmen under pretence of being Persons born within the allegiance of His Majesty as by the Act of. 12. Car: 2<sup>d</sup> They claim liberty to do, and although in the Act of the 14th of the said King only English Irish and subjects in the Plantations are to be accounted English, as to the navigating of shippes, yet they take on them to come from Scotland under the notion of Supra Cargos and Merchants and seldome faile of Counterfeit Masters.

In the 4th page they have Liberty to Plant Colonies &c in or upon places not inhabited by and p. 5th to make & conclude Treaties of Peace and Commerce with the Governors and Proprietors paying only to His Majesty out of Scotland the yearly acknowledgement of one h. h<sup>d</sup> of Tobacco. And altho they forbid all other Scotts then those of their Company to touch on any Plantations which they shall acquire on pains of confiscation yet they allow all such Scotts to Trade in Tobacco & Sugar else where that is to say amongst the English) They paying for what they so bring home such Duties as are now established in Scotland.

By all which it may be presumed how they project to let themselves into the Trade of all his Majesties Plantations and tis probable they meditate either the purchasing a settlement in one of the 3 lower Countys of Newcastle Kent or Sussex on the Southern Shore of Delaware Bay as being no part or parcell of the land granted to Mr Pen in his Province of Pensylvania or in some one or more Islands nigh the Continent by which Expedient if acquired they might in a short time make a staple not only of all sorts of European Manufactures but also of the ennumerated Plantation Commodities even as it is this day practiced with great abuse at the Small Dutch Island of Carasaw.

Wherefore for prevention of so great a mischeife to England tis humbly proposed

2nd That North Carolina be annexed and put under the care and inspection of his Majesties Governor of Virginia thereby to prevent the shipping off the Merchantable Tobacco growing in the Southern part of the Territorys by the Inletts of Corrituck and Roanoak

3. That the 3 lower Counties of New Castle Kent and Sussex aforesaid lying upon the southern shore of Delaware Bay be annexed to his Majesties Government in Maryland which will likewise prevent the shipping of the Merchantable Tobacco growing at the Head of Chesepeck bay near Bohemia and Sassafras Rivers into Appaquimine River in Delaware Bay as also the importing European Goods by that passage to Maryland both which Evills have been but too much practiced.

4. That the Province of West Jersey be annexed to the Government of the Province of Pensylvania and an active Governor there appointed such a one as is qualified to uphold the Act of Trade for as things now hang the charge to mainteyn able Officers on both sides the Bay from Bredlington in West Jersey to Hosekell in Sussex County nigh Cape Len Lopen with men and boats &c: will not be defrayed for 800<sup>lb</sup> a year for the Trade of that River being now carried on by Scotch men and Privateers Inhabitants in Pensylvania East and West Jersey which ly between Maryland and New York (in the very center of Trade and business) all is exposed and lys open to Traders from all places and can not be secured but by a great charge or very Regular Government :

5. That the Province of East Jersey be annexed to his Majesties Government in the Province of New York as it hath been formerly and in like manner the Colony of Connecticut for this would wholly prevent the Great Importation of European Goods too frequently made even by countenance of those two Colonys.

6. That the Collonies of Rhode Island now under no regular Government be as formerly joynd to his Majesties Government in the Province of the Massachusetts Bay in New England.

7. That no Projection Planter or other person whatsoever presume to alien or transfer any Island Plantation &c: to any Scotch Agent Factor or other Forreigner whatsoever under the Penalty of High Treason the whole Tract from 32 to 44 being his Majesties Dominion and annexed to the Crown of England.

But foras much as severall of the Plantations hereunder mentioned have Proprietors and Owners by Letters Pattents and some small colonies are established by Charters where the Persons concerned may not apprehend the danger that is threatened by the new law in Scotland and so refuse to conforme to what in that consideration only is hereby humbly proposed as to the annexing Governments yet in point of security to England all the Benefitts of the Plantations Trade to which by law they stand bound I think where any shall refuse in this time of danger to accept his Majesties Government they should be obliged both to accept and mainteyn such officers as may be needful to preserve the Trade to England and the Deputy to his Majesty

All which is humbly submitted by

ED: RANDOLPH S. G.

May it please your Lordships

Having in my paper of proposalls to the Comm<sup>rs</sup> of his Maj<sup>ties</sup> Customs, for the better putting in Execution the Act for preventing frauds &c: (a copy whereof I presented to your Lordships) offered (that there be a Judge a Register a Marshall and an Attorney Generall apointed in all the Colonies & Provinces upon the Continent of America) I was directed by their Hon<sup>rs</sup> to nominate persons fitt for those Employments. And accordingly I did in another paper (now before y<sup>r</sup> Lordshipps give in the names of several such persons. Not but that there were Attorney Generalls in divers of those places, (but in regard (as I informed the Commissioners) some of them are wholly ignorant of the Laws & practice in the Courts in England & others countenanced the illegal Trade, so that until they were removed & persons understanding & well experienced in the proceedings at Law, be recomended to such places it could not be expected that the Acts for securing the Plantacon Trade should be executed & observed I do humbly therefore lay before yo<sup>r</sup> Lordships an account of the present Attorney Gen<sup>ls</sup> in those Colonies & Provinces & my Reasons, why some of them should be removed, & others to be apointed in their Roomes.

TO THEIR EXCELLENCYS THE LORDS JUSTICES.

May it please your Ex<sup>cy</sup>s

In obedience to your Ex<sup>cy</sup>s Order of the 23th of July last annexed to an Extract of a Presentment from the Com<sup>rs</sup> of the Customes, Wee humbly represent to your Ex<sup>cy</sup>s that in our opinion the constituting Atturmys Generall in each respective Plantation as moved for, by the Comm<sup>rs</sup> of the Customes will be conducing to the ends by them proposed; And that therefore in order to the putting of that design in execution, Wee have advised with M<sup>r</sup> Edward Randolph Surveyor Generall of his Maj<sup>ty</sup>s Customes in the Continent of America, and are by him informed that William Randolph the present Atturney Generall in Virginia is wholly unacquainted with the Lawes and practice of the Courts in England; that George Platter the present Attorney Generall in Maryland is a favourer of illegal Trade, that David Lloyd the present Atturmy Generall in Pensilvania has declared that he served for the Province only and thereupon refused to pnt severall forfeited Bonds in snit, That Anthony Checkly the present Atturmy Generall of the Massachusets Bay is not only ignorant of the Lawes of England but has been himself an illegall Trader. For which reasons Wee are also humbly of opinion that the forenamed Persons are not fit to be his Ma<sup>ty</sup>s Atturmys Generall, however fitt they may be judged by the Proprietors of any of those Provinces for the Places that they have Power to dispose of. And that it may be expedient for his Ma<sup>ty</sup>s service that the Persons following whom the said M<sup>r</sup> Edward Randolph represents as duly qualyfyed may be constituted His Ma<sup>ty</sup>s Atturmys Generall for the respective Colonies hereafter mentioned viz<sup>t</sup> for Virginia, Mariland and Pensilvania (as also for North Carolina and West Jersey where there is at present no Atturmy Generall) Edward Chilton, For the Massachusetts Bay (as also for Road Island and New Hampshire, where also there is at present none) Thomas Newton. For New Yorke, (as also for East Jersey and Conecticott where also there is at present none) James Graham. These being the only alterations of this kinde for which wee have any Gromds suggested to us. Wee omitt to mention those of His Ma<sup>ty</sup>s Colonies wherein there are Atturmys Generall already settled, and humbly submitt our opinion upon these to your Ex<sup>cy</sup>s consideration

PRESENTMENT.

To the Honourable the Commissioners of his Majesty's Custom—
May it please your Honours

Your Honours were pleased in your presentment of the 17th of July past to the Right Honourable the Lords Comm<sup>rs</sup> of his Majesty's Treasury to represent, that it hath been found by experience, either through the remissnesse or connivance of the Governors of the severall Colonies and plantations which are under distinct proprieties, The Acts of Trade & Navigation, and your Honours Orders & Instructions, in pursuance thereof, have not been observed as in other Colonies and plantations which are under Governors nominated & appointed by his Majesties immediate Commission, and did therefore humbly move their Lordships that the Respective Governors of the said proprieties may be persons of good Estate & Reputation, and otherwise duely qualified for the discharge of their trust, being by a clause in the aforesaid Act for preventing frauds and regulating abuses in the Plantation Trade to be allowed & approved by his Majesty his heirs & successors, and obliged to take the oaths enjoined by that, or by any other Act to be taken by the Governors or Commanders in chief in other his Majesties Colonies or Plantations before their entrance into their respective Governments under the like penalties which his Majestys Governors & Commanders in chief are by the said acts lyable to.

Notwithstanding the owners of the Proprieties upon the Continent of America and Islands adjacent take no notice thereof, but omitt to nominate fitt persons to be allowed and approved by his Majesty in Councill, before their entrance on their respective Governments, from whence it follows that whilst the principles omitt their obligations at home, it cannot be expected their Deputies will do their Duties in the plantations, so that altho (pursuant to the said Act) The Officers of the Customs, the Judges and other officers in the Courts of Admiralty, the Attorneys Generall, & the Commissioners under the Great Seal for Administring the oaths to the respective Governors in the said Colonies and plantations are appointed & prepared ready for dispatch:

Nevertheless the Governors and other publick Ministers in the Proprieties are continued in their offices & places, & no care taken to appoint others in their stead, tho they maintain and support the illegal Traders as much as ever:

It cannot therefore be expected that the Frauds & Abuses in the Plantation Trade so long practised & so often complained of can be prevented untill persons of good Estates and reputation, and otherwise duly qualified the discharge of their Trust, be first allowed & approved by his Majesty and to be the Governors of those Proprieties according to the said Act, otherwise it is to no purpose, nor will it countervail the charge to send over officers and maintaine them, to put the Acts of Trade in execution, in Virginia & other places, under his Majesty's immediate authority so long as the Governors for the Proprietors take upon them a power to dispence with the open breach of the Acts of Trade, and thereby keep their ports open to Illegal Traders, whilst others are barred up by oaths & strict penalties, which must needs occasion the draining & soon depopulating his Majestys own plantations by the people enjoying an extraordinary liberty in a generall Trade and constant benefitt by pirates and the Scotch Trade in the proprieties and private Charters.

The chief end of granting those vast Tracts of Land (now called proprieties) to noble men and others, was doubtless to encourage the first undertakers to plant & improve them for the benefitt of the Crowne, & to be always subject & depending on England, & conformable to the Laws thereof. Great numbers of people are now seated in some of those proprieties, but have been long endeavouring to break loose & sett up for themselves, having no sort of regard to the Acts of Trade, and discountenancing appeals from their Courts to his Majesty in Conncill. The persons appointed by the Proprietors to be their Governors, are generally men of very indifferent qualifications for parts & Estates. Their maintenance is inconsiderable, which renders their Governments precarious also. They have power only (like civill Magistrates in petty Corporations in England) to make Municipall Laws with consent of the people, for their quiet & peaceable Government but are indeed Stewards only & overseers accountable and alwaies lyable to be turned out at the pleasure of those who employ them; So that it cannot be presumed that Governors made by the proprieties only, as such, are impowered, or in any wise concerned to put in execution the Acts of Trade in their Government, But on the contrary, I am humbly of opinion that twill be judged a high misdemeanor in any of them to attempt it, untill they are first qualified, as by the said Act for preventing Frauds is directed: the proprietors themselves have no such power, nor can have granted them by their Patents

I humbly lay before your Honours, an account of the present Governors of proprieties, & of their qualifications, in relation to the Acts of Trade.

Bahama Islands: M<sup>r</sup> Nicholas Trott is the present Governour; those Islands have been and still are a common retreat for pyrates and illegal Traders: Cadwallader Jones the late Governor under pretence of a power to make all officers, made one Boulton Collect<sup>r</sup> of the Customs: he entered and cleared vessels according as the Governor and he pleased. In the year 1693 Thomas Carter Master of the Ship Bridge Town of Barbados richly laden from Jamaica to London, run the ship wilfully aground upon the Island, the Master & sailors divided the money, and the best of her loading ; the Governor made his advantage by it, all appeals lye from their Courts to the Lords proprietors in England.

Carolina: M<sup>r</sup> John Archdale a Quaker is deputed Govern<sup>r</sup> by the Lords proprietors (as I am informed) during his son's Minority who is one of the Lords Proprietors; the Cheif Towne for Trade is Charles Towne, free to all, from all places. They Trade to Carasaw from whence the Manufacture of Holland is brought to Charles Towne and carryed by New England men, and other illegal Traders to Pensilvania, Boston etc and returns are made for them in Plantation Commodities, which are carryed from Carolina to Carasaw, and thence to Holland, about 3 years ago 70 pyrats having run away with a Vessell from Jamaica, came to Charles Towne bringing with them a vast quantity of Gold from the Red Sea, they were entertained, and had liberty to stay or goe to any other place. The Vessell was seized by the Governor for the proprietors as a Wreck & sold, they have no regard to the Acts of Trade. The present Governor is a favourer of the illegal Trade, having given his permit to the Master of a Forreigne Vessell to trade, taking no notice of M<sup>r</sup> Guenard appointed the Collector by your Honors Deputation, as by a Copy of the Governors Permitt No<sup>e</sup> appears; all appeals are likewise from the Courts in this Province, to the Lords proprietors in England.

North Carolina has 60 or 70 scattered families, but under no regular government. One Jarvis was appointed the Govern<sup>r</sup> by Coll. Ludwell then Govern<sup>r</sup> of all Carolina, he had no sallary. The Inlet of Carituck lies conveniently for carrying away the Tobacco made in the Sonthern parts of Virginia. The Inlet of Roanoake is frequented with small vessells trading to & from the West India Islands. Pyrats & runaway Servants resort to this place from Virginia etc.

Pensilvania M<sup>r</sup> William Markham is the present Governor, Samuel Carpenter, & John Goodson (both Quakers) were joined in the Government with him but they refused to Act.

The Acts of Trade (whatever they pretend) are not observed here; a plain discovery has been made of nine Vessells laden with Tobacco, which have from the year 1690 to the year 1695 gone directly from this Province to Scotland (besides Gustavus Hamilton the Cheif factor for the Scotch Merchants) who last year carried out of Delaware 300 hogsheads of Tobacco without clearing, as also other Vessells from the same place, went with Tobacco to Scotland as appears by letters from your Honors Agent in that Kingdom. The Brigantine William & Mary (called the New Castle Brigantine) when in August 1694, she cleared out from Pensilvania for England, William Righton Master & Maurice Trent a Scotchman, an old Transgressor Merchant (one of her owners lives in London) imported into Pensilvania a great quantity of Scotch goods, & was admitted to an entry in the year 1695, by the Collector in Pensilvania. She was afterwards seized in West Jersey by Cap<sup>t</sup> Meech, appointed by Coll. Nicholson (pursuant to her late sacred Majestys order in Councill of the 9th of August 1694. He seized also another Vessell called the Mill; Everett Johnson Master from some port in Norway. (as I am informed) loaden with wine & European goods, having no clearing from any port in England, the Master confessed himself to be a Dutchman, as appears by Capt. Meeches Journal, N<sup>o</sup> 2, his tryall was putt off, the Master being gone to New York, And afterwards su<sup>p</sup>ended till further orders from England. The Governor entertains several pirates from the Red & South Seas, who carry on an illegal trade to Carasaw, & other prohibited places. It appears by a Copy of M<sup>r</sup> Markham's Letter to me N<sup>o</sup> 4. that he has but a small maintenance, desiring me to make him Collector of the Customs in Pensilvania by which your Honors may please to take notice that Governors under such necessities will be easily tempted to doe, & connive at unlawfull things. The Charge to maintain officers of the Cnstoms in that Province together with a Vessell of about 40 Tuns, & men sufficient to cruise upon the Coast thereof, as by her late Sacred Majesties order in Councill, Coll<sup>d</sup> Nicollson is directed to provide will amount to above 2000£ a year, to prevent the Illegal Trade in Pensilvania, & the shipping of Tobacco brought overland from Maryland to Delaware Bay, which notwithstanding will be carryed on untill there be such a Regulation in the Government of that Province, as by the said Act for preventing frauds etc is enacted.

Pensilvania lies in the centre between Maryland and New York most commodiously to carry on all illegal Trade, & that place will soon become a Staple of all European & plantation Commodities.

Jerseys. East & West Jersey M<sup>r</sup> Andrew Hamilton a Scotchman is the Governor of those Provinces appointed by the Proprietors to Lease out their Lands & receive their Quit rents. He is a great favourer of the Scotch Traders his Countrymen, & would not allow of Cap<sup>t</sup> Meech's power, when he had seized the Brigantine William & Mary William Righton Master. The Governor sat Judge in Court The vessell was favoured upon the Masters setting forth in his petition that the French mett him at Sea, & took away his Cocquets, she is since gone to Barbados: Patrick Robinson a Scotchman the Secretary, and David Lloyd the Attorney Generall in Pensilvania went to the Court in West Jersey to defend the vessell against the persecutors for his Majesty.

Connecticott in New England, Coll<sup>d</sup> Robert Treat is the present Governor of that Colony, granted to the Inhabitants by Charter, to have a Governor annually chosen, with power to purchase, and sell Lands. The Inhabitants are generally husbandmen & planters. The Governor permitted a Vessel from Holland under pretence of wanting wood and water to come into New Haven, where she unlivered great part of her loading, which was carried to New York, and having taken horses aboard, sailed with the remainder of her goods to Barbados. Thomas Fisher Master of the Brigantine Adventure of London imported about December 1691 a very great Cargoe of Scotch goods at New London in that Colony, they were seized by M<sup>r</sup> Brenton the Collector; he thought it most advisable to admitt Gustavus Hamilton to a Composition (which he willingly agreed to) rather than submit the Cause to a tryall in that Colony.

Road Island, Caleb Carr was late Governor of that and Providence plantation granted by Charter also, tis become a free port to illegal Traders and pyrates from all places: Thomas Tew a pyrate came thither from the Read Sea in the year 1694 and brought with him 100,000 <sup>lbs</sup> in Gold and & Silver, he shared 12000 <sup>lbs</sup> for himself & his Sloop: the people are enriched by them. Tis necessary that place be taken care of & putt under a regular Government, the present pretenders to govern being either Quakers or Ana. Baptists.

Province of New Hampshire, M<sup>r</sup> William Partridge being nominated by M<sup>r</sup> Samuell Allen the present Proprietor is allowed by his Majesty & made the Deputy Governor of that Province.

Province of the Massachusetts Bay, Tho' his Majesty has the appointing the Governor of that Province, yet the illegal Trade is carried on as much as ever, to Scotland Holland, France etc for want of a Governor to surpress that Trade, & to support and countenance the officers of the Customs in the Execution of their duties. M<sup>r</sup> William Stoughton is the Lieutenant Governor, he is a good Scholar, but not bred up to Military Discipline. The Country lying open is exposed to the fury of the French, & Indians whenever they please to attack them. They have in their Laws hitherto made no provision for a Governor's maintenance as is done in all other his Majestys Governments, & was likewise in that Province for their former Governors, on purpose to discourage men of honor & abilities to live amongst them; but whatever it costs that countrey, and the Trade thereof ought to be taken care of.

Now from what has been herein humbly offered, it cannot reasonably be imagined, that the proprietors Governors are persons qualified or fitt to be entrusted with the conduct and execution of the principall powers reposed by those Acts only in the Governors & Commanders in Chief in the Plantations under his Majestys immediate authority; so that if the proprietors and owners of those Lands refuse to conform to the Rules & method prescribed them in the said Act for preventing Frauds etc; It's humbly proposed that they should be obliged to accept of such Regulation in Government, in reference to Trade, as his Majesty shall think necessary to make, which will in no wise invade their just Rights & Proprieties in those Lands, nor hinder them from employing their Agents & factors to take care & dispose of their estates & to receive the Rents & profits arising from them.

The Lord Baltemore the proprietor of the Province of Maryland, Mr Samuell Allen the proprietor of the Province of New Hampshire, & the Inhabitants in the province of the Massachusetts Bay have all their Rights and properties entirely Secured to them in their respective proprieties.

They have their agents and Attorneys upon the place to manage their affairs with all freedom, tho' at the same time the Governors of all those provinces are appointed by his Majesties immediate Commission.

All which is humbly submitted by etc

That by Summons from M<sup>r</sup> Attorney Generall dated the thirteenth of October last, your Pet<sup>rs</sup> received intimation of an order of Reference to him from the late Lords Justices to consider and report whether an Attorney Generall might not be appointed for your Ma<sup>ties</sup> in the said severall Provinces, notwithstanding their Gra<sup>nts</sup> & Charters.

That upon your Pet<sup>rs</sup> attending the said Attorney Generall, a Paper annexed to the said Order of Reference purporting a Representation to the said Lords Justices from the Conncill of Trade was read, wherein is suggested that some Complaints have been made to the Comm<sup>rs</sup> of yo<sup>r</sup> Ma<sup>ties</sup> Customes and to the said Conncill of Trade by one Edward Randolph, that divers Irregularities have bin lately committed in the said Proviuces contrary to the Acts of Navigation, and to your Ma<sup>ties</sup> Prejudice, and that the Persons whom your Pet<sup>rs</sup> have (as they are advised they lawfully might doe) Constituted Attorneys Generall in the said Provinces are unqualified for their severall Employments.

And forasmuch as your Pet<sup>rs</sup> have bin alwaies carefull to appoint Officers in the said severall Provinces well affected to your Ma<sup>ties</sup> Government and Interest, and qualified for their Offices and Employments, and that the said Representation is (as your Pet<sup>rs</sup> conceive) the occasion and ground of the said Reference, and that the suggestions in the said Representation doe not only affect the Persons therein named but in Consequence your Pet<sup>rs</sup> also, and for that your Petitioners till their attendance on M<sup>r</sup> Attorney Generall had no notice of the said Complaints and Representation, or the Contents of it, and so no opportunity to rectifie or cleare some misinformations given to your Ma<sup>ties</sup> said Commissioners and Councill of Trade.

Your Pet<sup>rs</sup> therefore most humbly pray they may have a Coppy of the said Representa<sup>ti</sup>on, and that your Pet<sup>rs</sup> may be heard, and the truth and reason of the said Complaints farther and more clearly examined before M<sup>r</sup> Attorney shall make Report in the matter referr'd to him.

The Lords Proprietors, Agents and others of the Provinces of Carolina, Bahama Islands, Pensilvania, East & West Jersey and Conecticott in America:

Protesting their Loyalty and duty to his Majesty and reserving the benefit of being heard by themselves or Councill to their Right and power of erecting Courts of Admiralty in the said Provinces doe offer

That there are severall Clauses in their respective Grants and Charters which (as they are advised) import and imply a Grant of y<sup>e</sup> admirall Jurisdiction and power of erecting the said Courts and constituting Judges and Officers thereof in the said Provinces.

That the reason why they have not hitherto erected such Courts or constituted such Officers is that all suits or Informations upon and for the breach of the acts of navigation may as appears by the said acts and particularly by the 15th of King Charles y<sup>e</sup> 2<sup>d</sup> be brought and prosecuted in the Common Law Courts and y<sup>t</sup> the erecting Courts of admiralty would have occasioned Sallaries and other great and expensive Charges.

That they apprehended there was no necessity of such Courts unless for the condemnacon of prizes few or none of which have bin brought into the said Provinces during this Warr in order to be there tried and condemned.

That the said Proprietors are nevertheless willing and ready to erect such Courts and constitute such able officers as shall be well affected to his Majesty's Government, carefull of his intrest use their nttmost endeavours to enforce an observance of the said acts of navigation and zealously prosecute such Vessells and persons as shall be guilty of the breach of them.

All which is humbly offered and submitted

✓ Humbly offer

That upon reading and perusall of a Copy of a Representation bearing date the 17th of December last from the Councill of Trade, to your Majesty, the said Proprietors understand the said Councill of Trade and also your Ma<sup>ty</sup>s Atturmy Generall are of opinion that notwithstanding the severall Charters granted to the said Proprietors, Your Ma<sup>ty</sup> may appoint and erect Courts of Admiralty in the said Provinces; And that the Lords of the Admiralty did on the 19th of November last represent to your Ma<sup>ty</sup> that all the Gov<sup>rs</sup> of your Majesty's Colonies and Plantations had Commissions to be vice admiralls, or might have them if they made application for the same.

The said Proprietors therefore most humbly pray that the Governors of the said severall Provinces may have Commissions to be Vice Admiralls with such powers relating to the Admiralty Jurisdiction, as the Governors of your Ma<sup>ty</sup>s other Plantacons have.

All which is most humbly submitted &c.

LETTER OF THE COUNCILL OF TRADE TO THE LORDS PROPRIETORS OF CAROLINA.

Feb<sup>ry</sup> 9th 1696-7

My Lords

His Majesty having been informed by complaints from severall hands of the undue methods practieed in some of his Colonies for seducing the Inhabitants from others, and being sensible how much that praeiice is contrary to the Common Interest of the whole has commanded us to write to the severall Governors or Governments of each Colony that they take care that effectual Laws be made in each of their respective Governments against the receiving and harbouring not only of Deserters, but also of such Fugitives as leave any of his Plantations contrary to the Laws provided for that purpose in each plantation respectively; Which therefore we accordingly recommend to your observation for the Province of Carolina.

And whereas his Majesty has also received complaints that the entertainment given to Pyrates in some of his Colonies, and more particularly in those under distinct proprieties, had occasioned many ill minded persons, seamen and others to desert their habitations, and apply themselves to such wicked and destructive courses to the great weakening and dispeopling of the Colonies so abandoned by them, and to the great dishonour of the English nation, whereupon he has also required us to write to the severall Proprietors and Governors of all his Plantations, that due care be taken for the future that no Pyrates or Sea Robbers be anywhere sheltered or entertained under the severest penalties; We are obliged in giving you this notice to recommend it so much the more particularly to your care, by reason that upon occasion of the late Tryalls of some of Every's Crew here severall informations have been transmitted to us wherein mention is made of Carolina as too ordinary a Receptacle of Pyrats. Some of the expressions in those papers are as follows,

Want a Pyrate about three years ago, after a good voyage broke up in Carolina, and spent part of his money there. Want now is fitted out from Carolina. Pirates are kindly entertained in Carolina; Capt Risby and others of Every's Crew went to Carolina. These things we say oblige us the more to require of you that an extraordinary care be henceforwards taken in that province by a constant discouragement to the Rise and progresse of such undertakings so as either to wipe off these, or at least prevent the like reflections for the future, and particularly that those of Every's Crew who retired thither may be found out, and both they and any others that shall be discovered, be punished according to the utmost severity of the law: of which we expect a particular account, and are

I have layd your Letter before the Lords Proprietors of Carolina, and the Bahama Islands, with the inclosed Letters from his Majesty.

Their Lords<sup>ps</sup> are very ready to pay all dutifull observance to his Majesty's commands, and as they have always hitherto made it one of their Instructions to their Governours, to take care to put the severall Acts of Parliament in Execution, that concerne the Plantation Trade and Navigation they shall now enforce it, as his Majesty's particuler Command.

As to the Bond, their Lords<sup>ps</sup> are of opinion, that since the late Act of Parliament has placed the Approbacon of their Governours in his Majesty, it cannot be expected they should give security for the Behaviour of such persons, as are so constituted it being not required by any Act of Parliament that they know of. The Commiss<sup>rs</sup> for Transportation attending to know what resolution was taken by this Board about the fifty Convict Women now in Newgate mentioned in M<sup>r</sup> Vernon's letter of the 1st of this month were acquainted that some Answers were yet expected from the Agents of some Colonies who had been writ to upon that subject but that they should be again called for and a speedy resolution taken therein, But soon after a letter from the Agents of Barbadoes being brought to the Board, that and all the others relating to that subject which have been received during some days last past were laid before their Lordships and read, viz: from the Agents or Merchants of Barbadoes Jamaica the Leeward Islands Virginia and Maryland New England and Carolina And none of the said letters giving any proper encouragement for the sending any of those Women to any of those Plantations, except only to the Leeward Islands And their Lordships remembering that the agents of New York have likewise verbally declared their opinion that it would not be fit to send them to that Province, They thereupon ordered a Representation to be drawn to lay before the Lords Justices their opinion for sending them to the Leeward Islands according to the tenore of the forementioned letter of the Agents of those Islands.

Gentlemen

Having this oportunity by a friend of M<sup>r</sup> Archdale & mine who Intends to Inhabit among you I could not omitt letting you know that your Letters are rec<sup>d</sup> by y<sup>e</sup> Lords but by reason of y<sup>e</sup> calling of a new parliamt most of y<sup>m</sup> being now in y<sup>e</sup> country you may expect their answer & directions w<sup>ch</sup> first oportunity after there Returne, the most material matter is that of y<sup>e</sup> Governor of Virginia settling by virtue of the Kings Comiss<sup>o</sup> Judges of y<sup>e</sup> Admiralty with you, I have had some discourse with y<sup>e</sup> Earle of Bathe about it, who very well aproves of your answer to y<sup>e</sup> said Governors Letter but we were both of y<sup>e</sup> opinion, that if they will force such a thing upon you, it is better at this time to suffer it, then to give any occasion of a dispute, this I thought fitt to acquaint you of my owne head, having not at present y<sup>e</sup> oportunity of a better advice by y<sup>e</sup> next you will have y<sup>e</sup> opinion of y<sup>e</sup> board of y<sup>e</sup> Lords proprietors concerning all your matters, till then I have no more to add but that I am

To the right honorable the Lords Proprietors of his Majesty's Province of Carolina in America Greeting His Majesty having been informed that the Navall Officers being y<sup>e</sup> Persons apointed by y<sup>e</sup> Governours in his respective Plantations in America to take Bonds and give Certificates for clearing of ships have generally neglected to comply with the direction of y<sup>e</sup> late Act of Parliament for preventing frauds & regulating Abuses in y<sup>e</sup> Plantation Trade which dos require their giving security to y<sup>e</sup> Comissioners of y<sup>e</sup> Customes in England for y<sup>e</sup> due discharge of their Trust, And it having been farther represented to his Majesty that besides y<sup>e</sup> security which y<sup>e</sup> said Navall Officers are obliged by Law to give, it would be very expedient that according to y<sup>e</sup> constitutions of y<sup>e</sup> Customes in England which has provided a controule upon y<sup>e</sup> action of every Officer imployed therein the Concurrence of the Collectors appointed by y<sup>e</sup> Comis<sup>rs</sup> of y<sup>e</sup> Customes in his Majesty's respective Plantations should also be made necessary to so important an act as that of signing Certificates for clearing of ships, His Majesty taking y<sup>e</sup> same into consideration is hereby pleased to declare his Will and Pleasure, and you are accordingly hereby required forthwith to give directions to your Governor that he takes care that y<sup>e</sup> Navall Officer or officers in His Majesty's Province of Carolina in America under his Govern<sup>t</sup> doe give security for y<sup>e</sup> due discharge of his or their Trust to such Person as is or shall be appointed by y<sup>e</sup> Comissioners of His Majesty's Customes for that purpose according to y<sup>e</sup> direction of y<sup>e</sup> forementioned Act of Parliament And likewise that he doe not admitt or allow any Certificate signed by y<sup>e</sup> Navall Officer or Officers aforesaid for y<sup>e</sup> clearing of ships within His Majesty's said Province of Carolina in America to be valid and effectual for that end without y<sup>e</sup> Concurrence of y<sup>e</sup> Collector appointed there by y<sup>e</sup> Comis<sup>rs</sup> of His Majesty's Customes. 9<sup>o</sup> And in order to prevent y<sup>e</sup> acceptance of forged Cockets or certificates which has been practised to our great prejudice he is to give effectuall orders that all such European Goods as by y<sup>e</sup> said Act are to be shipt or laden in England, Wales or at Berwick, Cockets for y<sup>e</sup> same from hence be produced to y<sup>e</sup> Collector or other officers of our Cnstomes in our said Province of Carolina for y<sup>e</sup> time being before y<sup>e</sup> unlading thereof. 10<sup>o</sup> He shall not make or allow of any By lawes usages or Customes in our said province of Carolina which are repugnant to y<sup>e</sup> Lawes herein before mentioned or any of y<sup>m</sup> so far as they do relate to our sayd plantations or any of them or to any other Law hereafter, to be made in this our Kingdom so farr as such law shall relate to and mention y<sup>e</sup> said Plantations But he shall declare all such Lawes, Bylawes, usages or Customes in our sayd Province, which are anywise repugnant to y<sup>e</sup> forementioned Lawes or any of them, to be illegall, null and voyd to all intents & purposes whatsoever.

12<sup>o</sup> He shall take care that upon any actions suites and Informations that shall be brought comenced or entred in our said province of Carolina upon any Law or statute concerning our Dutys or ships or Goods to be forfeited by reason of any unlawfull Importations or Exportations there be not any jury but of such as are Natives of England or Ireland or are born in any of our said Plantations.

13. If he shall discover that any persons or their assignes clayming any right or property in any Islands or Tracts of Land upon y<sup>e</sup> continent of America by Charters or Letters Patents shall at any time hereafter alien sell or dispose of any of y<sup>e</sup> said Islands, Tracts of Land or Propriety other then to our naturall born subjects of England, Ireland, Wales or Berwick without y<sup>e</sup> Licence and consent of us our heirs and Successors by our or their order in Comcill first had and obtained He shall give notice thereof to us or to our Lord High Treasurer of England or Comis<sup>rs</sup> of our Treasury in England for the time being.

14. He shall take care that all Places of trust in y<sup>e</sup> Courts of Law or in what relates to y<sup>e</sup> Treasury of our said Province be in y<sup>e</sup> hands of our Native born subjects of England or Ireland or y<sup>e</sup> Plantations.

15. He shall from time to time correspond with y<sup>e</sup> Comis<sup>rs</sup> of our Customes here in England for y<sup>e</sup> time being and advize y<sup>m</sup> of all failures, neglects, frauds and misdemeanours of any of y<sup>e</sup> Officers of our Customes in our s<sup>d</sup> Province and shall also advize y<sup>m</sup> as occasion shall offerr of all occurrences necessary for their information, relating either to y<sup>e</sup> aforesaid Laws of trade and navigation and to our Revenues of Customes and other dutys under their management both in England and y<sup>e</sup> Plantations.

16. Whereas by y<sup>e</sup> aforesaid Act for preventing fraudes and regulating abuses in y<sup>e</sup> Plantation trade 'tis provided for y<sup>e</sup> more effectuall prevention of frauds which may be used to elude y<sup>e</sup> Intention of y<sup>e</sup> said Act by colloring foreigne ships under English names that from and after y<sup>e</sup> 25th of March 1698 no ship or vessell shall be deemed or pass as a ship of y<sup>e</sup> built of England, Ireland, Wales, Berwick, Guernsey, Jersey or any of our Plantations in America so as to be qualified to trade to, from, or in any of our said Plantations untill y<sup>e</sup> person or persons clayming property in such ship or vessell shall register y<sup>e</sup> same in maner thereby directed And whereas by an Act past in y<sup>e</sup> ninth and tenth yeare of our Reigne entitled an Act for enlarging y<sup>e</sup> time for registering of ships pursuant to y<sup>e</sup> Act for preventing frauds and regulating abuses in y<sup>e</sup> Plantation trade nine months longer time from y<sup>e</sup> said 25th of March 1689 are granted and allowed for y<sup>e</sup> registering of such ships. And it is provided that all such ships or vessels being registered within y<sup>e</sup> said nine months shall have and enjoy all such benefit and advantage of y<sup>e</sup> aforesaid Act as they might or could have had in case they had been registered before y<sup>e</sup> 25th of March 1698 The Comander in chief of our said Province for y<sup>e</sup> time being shall take care that no foreigne built ship be permitted to pass as a ship belonging to our Kingdom of England, Ireland, Wales or to our town of Berwick upon Tweed untill proof be made upon oath of one or more of y<sup>e</sup> owners before y<sup>e</sup> Collector or Comptroller of our Customes in such Port to which she belongs or upon like proof before y<sup>e</sup> said Comander in chief with y<sup>e</sup> principall Officers of our revenue residing in our said Province if such ship shall belong to our said Province which oath y<sup>e</sup> said Comander in chief and y<sup>e</sup> Officers of our customes respectively are authorized to administer in maner thereby directed And being attested by him or them so administering y<sup>e</sup> same, and registred in due forme according to y<sup>e</sup> specimen theremto annexed, he shall not fayle immediately to transmit a duplicate thereof to y<sup>e</sup> Court Comis<sup>rs</sup> of our Customes in London in order to be entered in a general Register to be there kept for that purpose with penalty upon every ship or vessell trading to, from or in any of our said Plantations in America after y<sup>e</sup> said 25th of March 1689 and nine months longer as aforesaid and not having made proof of her built and property as by y<sup>e</sup> forementioned Act is directed that she shall be lyable to such prosecution and forfeiture as any foreigne ship, except Prizes condemned in our High Court of Admiralty) would for trading with our plantations by y<sup>e</sup> said law be lyable unto with this Proviso that all such ships as have been or shall be taken at Sea by Letters of Mart or Reprisall and Condemnation thereof made in our High Court of Admiralty of England as lawfull shall be registered specially, mentioning y<sup>e</sup> capture and condemnation instead of y<sup>e</sup> time and place of building with proof also upon oath that y<sup>e</sup> entire property is English before any such Prizes be allowed y<sup>e</sup> privilege of an English built ship according to y<sup>e</sup> meaning of y<sup>e</sup> said Act, and that no ships names registered be afterwards changed without registering such ships de novo (which by y<sup>e</sup> said Act is required to be done upon any Transfer of property to any other Port) and delivering up y<sup>e</sup> former certificate to be cancelled under y<sup>e</sup> same penaltys and in like Method and that in case of any alteration of Property in y<sup>e</sup> same Port by y<sup>e</sup> sale of one or more shares in any ship after registering thereof such sale shall always be acknowledged by endorsem<sup>t</sup> on the certificate of Register before two witnesses in order to prove that y<sup>e</sup> entire Property in such ship remains to some of our subjects of England if any dispute shall arise concerning y<sup>e</sup> same.

17. And whereas notwithstanding y<sup>e</sup> many good Laws made from time to time for preventing of frauds in y<sup>e</sup> plantation trade which have been ennumerated in these and former Instructions it is manifest that very great Abuses have been and continue still to be practiced to y<sup>e</sup> prejudice of y<sup>e</sup> same w<sup>ch</sup> abuses must needs arise from y<sup>e</sup> Insolvency of y<sup>e</sup> persons who are accepted for security, or from the remisness or connivance of such as have been or are Governors in y<sup>e</sup> severall Plantations who ought to take care that those persons who give bonds should be duly prosecuted in case of nonperformance. He is to take notice that wee take y<sup>e</sup> good of our Plantations, and y<sup>e</sup> Improvem<sup>t</sup> of y<sup>e</sup> trade thereof by a strict and punctuall observance of y<sup>e</sup> severall laws in force concerning y<sup>e</sup> same to be of so great importance to y<sup>e</sup> Benefit of England and to y<sup>e</sup> advancing ye dutys of our Customes here that if wee shall hereafter be informed, that at any time there shall be any failure in y<sup>e</sup> due observance of those Laws within our Province of Carolina by any willfull fault or neglect on your part, wee shall look upon it as Infraction of those Laws tending to y<sup>e</sup> forfeiture of our Letters Patent for y<sup>e</sup> Government of that our said Province.

By his Majesty's Comand
JA. VERNON.

Edmond Jennings

The Hon<sup>ble</sup> Col. Robert Quarry from the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Thomas Harvy Deputy Governour and the Councill of the Province of North Carolina acquaints his Excellency and the Councill that the said Deputy Governour and Councill of North Carolina had received orders from England for surveying & laying out the boundes between this his Maj. Colony and Dominion of Virginia and that Province of North Carolina and that they would in a short time send some of the members of the Councill to this government to be joyned with such persons as should be appoynted here to lay out and settle the said boundes & prayed that his Excellency & the Councill would be pleased to appoint & empower such persons as shall be thought necessary for that service to proceed therein when those gentlemen shall arrive to which his Excellency by the advice of this Board did answer that the settling of the boundes between these two Colonies is a matter of very great importance and publick concerne & most proper to be done by the advice & consent of a generall Assembly, that a Generall Assembly was to meet at James Citty upon Thursday the 27th day of Aprill next & therefore he desired that those gentlemen from Carolina would be by the 29th of the said month of Aprill and they might then be sufficiently empowered from that govern<sup>t</sup> to lay out and settle the said boundes.

MAY 2<sup>d</sup> 1699

His Excellency
William Bird	John Lightfoot
Edward Hill	Mathew Page
Edmond Jennings	Benj. Harrison

1698 wherein he acquainted his Excell<sup>y</sup> that he had appointed Daniell Akehurst Esq<sup>r</sup> & Capt. Henderson Walker members of their Councill to waite upon his Excellency with their charter in order to the settling the bounds between these two governments. He was pleased to communicate the same to the Councill and also to acquaint them that the said Akehurst & Walker were come to James Citty & desired that they would consider & advise what was necessary to be done in that affair and what method should be observed in treating with those gentlemen wherenpon it was agreed and resolved that before any proceedings were entered into with them it was requisite and necessary to enquire how they were impowered to treat and conclude with any such persons as should be appointed by this governm<sup>t</sup> and particularly that it may be enquired of them whether their Governour was approved by his Maj<sup>ty</sup> and had taken the oath according to the Act of Parliam<sup>t</sup> of the seventh and eighth years of the reign of his present Maj<sup>ty</sup> entituled An Act for preventing frauds and regulating abuses in the Plantation trade & for their better satisfaction tis also thought necessary that his Maj. letters Patents appointing his Excellency Francis Nicholson Esq. his Lieut and Govern<sup>r</sup> of this his Colony & dominion of Virginia be communicated to them and in order thereunto the Clerk of the Councill is directed to waite upon them and desire them to be at the Councill Chamber this afternoon.

POST MERIDIEM

His Excellency and the Councill being acquainted that according to their desire M<sup>r</sup> Akehurst & Capt Walker were in the Hall ready to wait upon them the said Akehurst & Walker were desired to walke up into the Councill chamber whither being come his Excellency laid his Comi<sup>ss</sup>on before them that they might be satisfied he was fully impowered to act under his Maj<sup>ty</sup> as Lt. & Gov<sup>r</sup> Generall of this his Maj. Colony & dominion of Virginia and desired to know of them how they were impowered to act in the affair they came about, wherenpon they produed a Comi<sup>ss</sup>on under the hand and scale of Thomas Harvey Esq<sup>re</sup> Deputy Govern<sup>r</sup> of North Carolina which being read His Excellency caused the Act of the seventh and eighth years of the reign of his present Majesty to be read and desired to know whether the said Deputy Governor was qualified according to that Act to which they answered that he was not approved of by the King as that Act directs then his Excellency desired them to withdraw and he would advise with his Maj<sup>ty</sup>s Hon<sup>ble</sup> Councill what was proper to be done and acquaint them therewith and accordingly they withdrew.

Then the Councill entered upon the debate & consideration whether it was convenient to treat any further with those gentlemen from North Carolina and forasmuch as it appears that the Governour by and under whome they are com̃iconated is not qualified according to law the Councill are of opinion that he cannot give sufficient power to any persons to act under him in this affair and to make a finall conclusion and determination thereof and therefore it is not convenient to proceed any further therein at this time but that the Gov<sup>r</sup> of North Carolina be desired to procure sufficient power and instructions from England for settling the bounds between these two Governments as soon as may be and that there may be the less trouble hereafter, when it is to be done if M<sup>r</sup> Akehurst and Capt. Walker will agree thereto, It is thought convenient that the Charter of the Proprietors of Carolina be recorded in the Sec<sup>ry</sup>'s office and accordingly the said Akehurst and Walker being called in and acquainted with the proceedings of the Councill herein they consented to the recording their Charter and having told his Excellency they would wait his commands by a letter to their Govern<sup>r</sup> they withdrew Ordered that the Clerk of the Councill doe prepare a letter from his Excellency To the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Thomas Harvy Deputy Govern<sup>r</sup> of North Carolina acquainting him with the proceedings of his Excellency and the Councill with the Gentlemen from that government and the reasons they have proceeded upon, And also to signify to him his Excellency's power of making a Judge and other Officers of the Court of Admiralty in that Province, that accordingly they are appointed and if there be any occasion for a Court to be held there that his Excellency should be acquainted therewith in order to his giving such directions therein as are necessary.

May it please yo<sup>r</sup> Excellency

My honored friend Coll Quarry hath given me account of yo<sup>r</sup> Excellency's readiness to concur with us in the settling the bounds between this government and Virginia and also of yo<sup>r</sup> Excellency's offering all offices of kindness and good neighborhood towards us for which I shall at all times be ready to express my thankfullness and to concur with yo<sup>r</sup> Excellency in any thing that may prosecute the same In answer to Yo<sup>r</sup> Excellency's Order of Councill I have with the advice of the Councill appointed the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Daniel Akehurst Esq & Capt. A letter from his Excellency the Governor of Virginia to the Deputy Governour of North Carolina

I received yours to me of the 16th of March last in answer to an Order of myself in Councill dated at James City the 24th day of February last transmitted unto you by Coll Quarry pursuant also to what you advise in that letter upon the 28th of the last month arrived at this place M<sup>r</sup> Akehurst & Capt. Walker the gentlemen appointed by you & the Councill of your Province to agree upon & settle the bounds between His Maj. Colony & Dominion of Virginia & yo<sup>r</sup> said Province of Carolina I shall at all times be very ready to doe anything that is requisite on my part for the perfecting of a worke which I take to be so very necessary and soe much contributing to the peace & quiet of both these Colonys But at present it is the opinion of myself and His Maj. Hon<sup>ble</sup> Councill of State for this his Colony and Dominion of Virginia that I cannot safely Comissionate any persons to treat with the Gentlemen from your Province about this affair We have not any designe of delaying soe good a worke but we are desirous that when it is done it may be effectually and valid in all time coming and that we think the Gentlemen appointed by you are not sufficiently qualified to doe. Our reason for this opinion is grounded upon an Act of Parliament of the 7th & 8th years of his present Maj<sup>ty</sup> entitled An Act for preventing frauds and regulating abuses in the Plantation trade which I have given to the gentlemen for your more particular satisfaction herein By this Act it is enacted that all the then present Governors or Commanders in chiefe of any English Colonys or Plantations shall before the 25th day of March 1697 take a solemn oath &c. as in the said Act is more at large directed and by another clause in the said Act it is directed that all Governours nominated & appointed by any persons or propriet<sup>rs</sup> who shall be entituled to make such nomination shall be allowed and approved of by his Majesty his heirs & successors signified by his or their Order in Councill and shall take the Oathes enjoyned by this or any other Act to be taken by the Governours or Commanders in Chief in other his Maj. Colonys & Plantacons By this Act you may please to observe it is required that you be approved of by His Maj<sup>ty</sup> to be signified as is aforementioned and that you likewise take the said Oathes before you can be sufficiently qualified to execute the Office of Governour or Command<sup>r</sup> in Chiefe of any Propriety And forasmuch as it doth not appeare that you have complied therewith we are of opinion that it is not convenient with us to treat with any person or persons by you appointed to agree upon and settle this affair between these two Colonies Therefore all further proceedings therein must for the present be suspended untill you can give an account thereof to those persons for whome you are concerned and shall obtain such approbation & qualification as by the Act of Parliament aforementioned is directed and required I on my part shall take care that our proceedings herein may be laid before his Majesty for his further commands thereupon And I hope by the next fall to receive such directions as shall be thought necessary I desire likewise that you on your part will take care to obtaine such qualifications and Instructions as are requisite for you By the consent of M<sup>r</sup> Akehurst and Capt. Walker I have caused the exemplification of your Proprietors Charter to be recorded here, soe that there will not be occasion any more to hazard that upon soe long a journey as to send it hither for our satisfaction therein.

I must further acquaint you that by a Comiſſion under the Great Seale of the High Admiralty of England dated the 26th of June in the year 1697 directed to Sir Edmond Andros Kut his Maj. Lient and Gov<sup>r</sup> Generall of Virginia and to his Maj. Lient. and Gov<sup>r</sup> Generall of Virginia for the time being His Maj. hath been pleased to grant to the said Lient and Gov<sup>r</sup> Generall of Virginia for the time being power and authority to appoint Judges Registers Marshalls and Advocates for the Admiralty Courts of Virginia, Carolina & the Bahama Islands by virtue of which said Comiſſion the said Sir Edmond Andros by severall Comiſſions did appoint the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Edward Hill Esq<sup>re</sup> Judge Miles Cary Gen Register, Michael Sherman Gen Marshall and John Taylor Gent. Advocate of the Court of Admiralty in this his Maj. Colony and Dominion of Virginia and the Province of North Carolina and I herewith send you copyes of the said severall Comiſſions for your better informaſion therein and I doe recomend the same to your care that when any matters shall happen requiring the presence & service of the said Judge and Officers you will give me tymely intimaſion thereof that I may give such directions as shall be necessary therein which is all at present from

most humble and

obedient Servant

HENDERSON WALKER

I am further informed that some of y<sup>e</sup> Magistrates of Princess Ann County seem to discourse in those parts as if we had no further than a copy of y<sup>e</sup> Patent and y<sup>t</sup> it was no confirmat<sup>on</sup> which we believe causes this breach I desire if y<sup>r</sup> Excel<sup>cy</sup> pleases to signify to y<sup>e</sup> s<sup>d</sup> Magistrates what y<sup>r</sup> Excel<sup>cy</sup> hath seen of y<sup>e</sup> patent y<sup>t</sup> there may be no further trouble

I cannot but return my acknowledgm<sup>ts</sup> for y<sup>r</sup> Excel<sup>cy</sup>'s great favours to me when I was last in yo<sup>r</sup> government and am heartily glad to hear y<sup>t</sup> yo<sup>r</sup> Excel<sup>cy</sup>'s noble designs for y<sup>e</sup> good of y<sup>t</sup> Country go on so successfully for I am well satisfied in my own thoughts that Virginia in after ages will be bound to return thanks to y<sup>e</sup> Allmighty for those generous designs of w<sup>ch</sup> you have been y<sup>e</sup> only promoter

This letter and report is referred to the Worshipfull his Majesties Justices of Princess Ann County who at y<sup>e</sup> next County Court are to make a report of y<sup>e</sup> whole matter to

Memorandum That the charter which Daniel Akehurst and Henderson Walker Esqr produced to me and his Maj. Hon<sup>ble</sup> Council was an exemplification of y<sup>e</sup> Charter granted by King Charles 2nd which appeared and is taken by us to be an authentick one

It is upon record in y<sup>e</sup> Secretary's Office in James City where any persons that have a mind may either see or have a copy thereof without any further order from

His Excellency being at present very much indisposed with a fever has commanded me to acquaint you y<sup>t</sup> he has received yo<sup>r</sup> letter dated at North Carolina 28th July 1699 by M<sup>r</sup> Fendal and has taken care to doe what in him properly lies in order to redress the grievance complained of by your Government in relati<sup>on</sup> to y<sup>e</sup> difference between Maclenahan and Bray. He referred y<sup>e</sup> matter to me as Attorney Gen<sup>l</sup> to which I made a Report according to y<sup>e</sup> inclosed Copy And since y<sup>t</sup> his Excellency has not only caused a copy of yo<sup>r</sup> letter and my Report to be referred to y<sup>e</sup> Court of Princeess Anne County but has certified to y<sup>m</sup> y<sup>t</sup> y<sup>e</sup> Charter you produced to Him & his Maj<sup>ties</sup> Hon<sup>ble</sup> Council was in their opinion an authentick exemplification of y<sup>e</sup> Charter Grant in James City where any person may have a copy thereof without any further Order so y<sup>t</sup> it must be Bray's own laches if any thing is done to his disadvantage or to y<sup>e</sup> prejudice of yo<sup>r</sup> Government therein. His Excellency has heard nothing of Mad<sup>e</sup> Smith and Negros supposed to be run away & harboured in yo<sup>r</sup> Governm<sup>t</sup> which he expected he should before this and has also commanded me to acquaint you that several servants and slaves are daily running from hence into your Governm<sup>t</sup> and are there concealed w<sup>ch</sup> he hopes you will take care to prevent by a proclama<sup>ti</sup>on to y<sup>t</sup> pnrpose or such other method as you shall judge most expedient. He also returns you thanks for yo<sup>r</sup> good opinion of him & assures you that nothing on his part shall be wanting to mentain the good correspondence you desire Here's no news &c.

intimates concerning runaways however the matter may have been misrepresented to yo<sup>r</sup> Excellency I assure you y<sup>t</sup> neither our laws nor practise deserves such an imputation of evil neighbourhood neither are there any runaways harbored here y<sup>t</sup> we can discover upon diligent enquiry nor shall any such thing be suffered so far as it is in our power to prevent it We have (besides statutes against Vagrants) a particular law y<sup>t</sup> enjoyns all persons on a penalty to apprehend runaway Negroes and prohibits y<sup>e</sup> harboring of them on y<sup>e</sup> penalty of ten shillings every night over & above all damage y<sup>t</sup> can be proved & I purpose to recommend it to y<sup>e</sup> next Assembly if any thing may be done more effectually to prevent such a mischief Not long ago information was made to me & y<sup>e</sup> Council that one Grand at y<sup>e</sup> Sand-banks had entertained some persons suspected to be runaways from Esq<sup>r</sup> Corbin for which he now stands bound over to y<sup>e</sup> next Generall Court I myself at my own charge sent as far as Pamplico after those runaways and since here advice y<sup>t</sup> some of y<sup>m</sup> died by famine in y<sup>e</sup> uninhabited part of this Government And I believe many other y<sup>t</sup> fly this way are lost after y<sup>e</sup> same or such like manner endeavoring to escape to S. Carolina. I thankfully accept of yo<sup>r</sup> Excel<sup>cy</sup>s papers of public news by Col. VIRGINIA JAMES CITY 9<sup>ber</sup> 8th 1699

I have written to y<sup>e</sup> Rt. Hon<sup>ble</sup> his Majesty's Secretary of State and to the Lords of the Council for Trade & Plantations about the Bounds as I promised you when I was here and I am in hopes some time this winter that I shall receive his Maj. royall commands concerning y<sup>t</sup> affair

I suppose that you have written to y<sup>e</sup> Lords Proprietors about it and particularly about y<sup>e</sup> Govern<sup>rs</sup> being qualified according to the Act of Parliament ab<sup>t</sup> trade &c of the 7th & 8th of his Maj. Reigu.

I am very glad to here that you have statutes against Vagrants and a particular law about Negros but you must give me leave to say that unless they be vigorously put in execution I fear they will not signify much I am sorry not to hear any thing of the Negros that ran away from Madam Smith a copy of whose letter and the description you were so kind as to take from me in ord<sup>r</sup> to inquire after y<sup>m</sup> I showed Esq<sup>r</sup> Corbin that part of your letter to me concerning his servants and I told him to write to you which I here he did and returned you thanks &c. If such fellows as Grandee be but made examples I suppose it will be one of the properest ways to prevent y<sup>e</sup> like clandestine dealings of the future.

I herewith send you a Proclama<sup>con</sup> for y<sup>e</sup> apprehending of Pyrats &c. which I have caused to be published in all y<sup>e</sup> Countyes of this his Maj. Colony of Virginia I believe it may be for his Maj. service and if you please to issue out one in your Government for the apprehending & securing of these pyrats or any others And inclosed is the copy of a letter which I had from his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury who was then his Maj. Principal Secretary of State about Pyrats &c. as also of one from the right Hon<sup>ble</sup> M<sup>r</sup> Secretary Vernou.

Therefore I desire that you would be pleased to order all lawfull assistance to be given to him for the apprehending securing & bringing back hither y<sup>e</sup> said runaways in doing of which you will oblige him who is

I received your Excel<sup>ty</sup>s by M<sup>r</sup> Harwood and for what relates to Bray's case shall give notice to your Excel<sup>ty</sup> & y<sup>e</sup> hon<sup>ble</sup> Council's opinion to him that he may comply therewith I return your Excel<sup>ty</sup> our hearty thanks for your care in endeavouring to obtain his Maj. royall commands concerning y<sup>e</sup> bound<sup>s</sup> of this Province and I assure yo<sup>r</sup> Excel<sup>ty</sup> that we have not been wanting in our endeavours to procure both direction and all necessary authority for proceeding in that affair.

I hope yo<sup>r</sup> Excel<sup>ty</sup> (notwithstanding any misrepresentation that hath been heretofore made) is of opinion that it is not our purpose to countenance y<sup>e</sup> harbouring of runaways but to punish it with y<sup>e</sup> utmost severity and I crave leave to intimate to you that there must needs have been as great neglect amongst the people in Virginia as ever hath been here otherwise such runaways could not pass so far, for we observe that there are few or none that are taken here or supposed to pass by but what travel much further through y<sup>e</sup> inhabitants of Virginia than the whole extent of this Govern<sup>t</sup> comes to, for instance this which M<sup>r</sup> Harwood carries out hath travelled on the high road from beyond Rappahannock and passed all the publick Ferrys allthough Virginia much thicker peopled. I dont add this as a pretence for our negligence but to y<sup>e</sup> end y<sup>e</sup> inhabitants of Virginia may be more carefull that both may joyn to prevent such a mischief.

It was wholly my forgetfullness that I did not before acquaint yo<sup>r</sup> Excel<sup>ty</sup> y<sup>t</sup> I have made as strict an inquiry as possible concerning Madame Smith's Negros & doe assure yo<sup>r</sup> Excel<sup>ty</sup> that they are not in this Governm<sup>t</sup> nor any other that can be suspected to be run away except one of Esq<sup>r</sup> Corbin's servants who lieth here sick and reports that three of his companions are dead to the Southward and one Negro more in the Marshall's custody who was imported hither in a sloop He has been in England and pretends that he there served the Earl of Craven and that he came to New England a Freeman we have sent to the Northern Government from whence he came but as yet have not heard from his Master.

Concerning y<sup>e</sup> Indians its very true that such report was made to us y<sup>t</sup> we all generally did believe that those unhappy people were destroyed by y<sup>m</sup>. And I with y<sup>e</sup> advice of the Assembly sent the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Daniel Akehurst Esq. to inquire of the truth thereof and with him Capt. Thos. Blount who was a very great sharer in that loss and was as strongly perswaded as any man that the people in y<sup>e</sup> Canoe were indeed murdered and himself and family was in as great danger as any in the Governm<sup>t</sup> And upon their return they made report to me and y<sup>e</sup> Councill that all y<sup>e</sup> Indians that could be suspected freely upon y<sup>e</sup> first summons surrendered themselves and gave so partiular account of y<sup>e</sup> matter and with so many concurring circumstances y<sup>t</sup> by all the inquiry y<sup>t</sup> they could make they could see no cause to fix it upon any of them for y<sup>e</sup> evidences who at a distance seemed strong when they came face to face with y<sup>e</sup> Indians could say nothing against them so y<sup>t</sup> they returned fully satisfied y<sup>t</sup> y<sup>e</sup> canoe was lost by extremity of wind and sea which we all know was very violent at that time and so continued for several days together.

I with the advice of y<sup>e</sup> Council here followed your Excel<sup>ty</sup>s good example in publishing a Proclama<sup>tion</sup> for apprehending of y<sup>e</sup> pyrates if they should come into this Government and we hold ourselves very much obliged to you for communicating to us those papers concerning the Scotts settlement and shall at any time be glad to be informed of his Maj. pleasure by Yo<sup>r</sup> Excel<sup>ty</sup> y<sup>t</sup> we may render obedience thereto as becometh good and dutifull subjects and am

Right Trusty and Right Wellbeloved, Right Trusty and Wellbeloved, and Trusty and Wellbeloved, Wee greet you well. Whereas we have been informed that several Pirates have been lately seized in our Plantations in America, and it being necessary that due care be taken for bringing them and all others that may in like manner be seized hereafter to condign punishment, we do hereby stricktly charge & require that you cause to be sent hither in safe custody all Pirates who are or shall be seized in our Province of Carolina whereof you are Proprietaries, at the time of your receiving this direction, and that you cause also to be sent hither the Witnesses and other evidences upon which the said Pirates have been seized & which may be of any use towards their conviction here that so they may be tryed and punished according to Law, and in the meanwhile to take care that the goods and effects of the said Pirates be secured, so that they may hereafter be disposed of as shall by law be determined.

May it please your Lordships.

With submission I think that his Majesty's Governors cannot entirely concert affairs with any Proprietary's Governors or with their Deputies or with a Charter Governor because his Maj. interest and theirs are different in most respects for they they may be compared to the Pope's who from the first time that the Emperor's gave them temporal power have by several unjust ways and means got more and endeavor to do so still I am of opinion that his Maj interest and service in general and of my dear Mother Country old English in particular can never be rightly managed till the rest of the Proprietary and Charter Governments be as New England and Maryland And if the Proprietor's Governours or their Deputies or Charter Governours and other officers in those Governments be not obliged to comply with the acts of Parliament for taking the Oaths &c. they will continue to have a mighty advantage of his Majesty's Governments

Your Lordships most obedient & faithful humble Servant

NORTH CAROLINA August 12th 1700.

We have lately heard that Col. Inglesby is coming in here our Gov<sup>r</sup> Since which we have had advice from M<sup>r</sup> Perry who gives acco<sup>t</sup> that himself & Col. Ludwell waited upon one Dr. Cox who showed them a patent granted by King Charles the First to the D. of Norfolk inrol'd in Chancery now confirmed including from the south branch of Nansemond to 35 degrees and two degrees Westerly which takes in our Province and that there was a Patent for a great part of the land called Norfolk granted from Gov<sup>r</sup> Harvey in 31 to a son of the D. of Norfolk that the said Dr. Cox had some dispte with the Proprietors of which if yo<sup>r</sup>

Exc<sup>d</sup> hath any advice be pleased to hono<sup>r</sup> me with it by the Bearer. The Hon<sup>ble</sup> Coll Quarry hath been very sick here but is now upon recovery If any thing in these parts may be serviceable to yo<sup>r</sup> Exc<sup>d</sup> please to signify it to

HENDER. WALKER.

The said M<sup>r</sup> Perry tells us that by reason of the said patent supposes it will be under your Exc<sup>s</sup> Government of Virginia (which if soe will be abundant satisfaction to myselfe) and that his Majesty had paid the passages of a great many French Protestants who were to be settled by Dr. Cox in Pamplioe.

N<sup>o</sup> 10 is the copy of a letter from M<sup>r</sup> Henderson Walker Deputy Governour of North Carolina by which your Lordships may please to see what reports there are about Dr. Cox and his Patents I had some acquaintance with him and I believe he is an honest Gentleman and a very good Doctor but by what he told me concerning his ill success of his Jersey Proprietorship I thought he had done with all such projects but I am afraid several people have abused the Doctor's good nature and generosity by telling him of strange countries and giving him Mapps thereof. The Marquis dela Muee and Monsieur de Sailly told me how they came to be engaged with him and what ill success they had. I wish that the Doctor would come into these parts of the world and run out the bound of his Countries and then I suppose he would have so much of the Continent of America that he would not care to come again I suppose there is some mistake about those two patents for I think there was no such person as a Duke of Norfolk in Charles the First's time and I have ordered our records to be searched and have done so myself

(but I formerly found and do so now that the old Records are not very perfect) but can find no such Patent granted by Governor Harvey in 1631. Now I humbly propose to your Lordships that some final end may be made concerning these Patents for our inhabitants who border upon North Carolina hearing such Reports makes them very uneasy for I think nobody who could help it would willingly quit being his Maj. Tenant to be that of a Proprietors and the bounds being at present uncertain betwixt us and North Carolina people do not much care to take up land upon an uncertainty for fear least they should fall under a proprietorship but I beg leave to assure your Lordships that I will not be wanting in my duty to his Majesty both in protecting our inhabitants and asserting his Majesty's right to the lands &c.

[B. P. R. O. B. T. PROPRIETIES, No. 27. P. 12.]

To the Kings most Exc<sup>mt</sup> Majestie.

May it please &c

Having formerly on severall occasions humbly represented to your Majesty the state of the Government under Proprietors and Charters in America; and perceiving the irregularities of these Governments dayly to increase, to the prejndice of Trade, and of your Majesties other Plantations in America, as well as of your Majesties Revenue arising from the Customes here, we find ourselves obliged at present humbly to represent to your Majesty ;

That those Colonies in general have no ways answered the chief design for which such large Tracts of Land and such Priviledges and Immunities were granted by the Crown.

That they have not conformed themselves to the severall acts of Parliament for regulating Trade and Navigation, to which they ought to pay the same obedience, and submit to the same Restrictions as the other Plantations, which are subject to your Majesties immediate Government, on the contrary in most of these Proprieties and Charter Governments, the Governours have not applyed themselves to your Majesty for your approbation, nor have taken the Oaths required by the acts of Trade, both which Qualifications are made necessary by the late Act for preventing frauds and regulating abuses in the Plantation Trade.

That they have assumed to themselves a power to make Laws contrary and repugnant to the Laws of England, and directly prejudicial to Trade, some of them having refused to send hither such Laws as they had enacted, and others having sent them but very imperfectly.

That diverse of them have denyed appeals to your Majesty in Council, by which not only the Inhabitants of those Colonies but others your Majesties subjects are deprived of that benefit, enjoyed in the Plantations, under your Majesties immediate Government, and the Parties agrieved are left without remedy from the arbitrary and Illegal proceedings of their Courts.

That these Colonies continue to be the refuge and retreat of Pirates & Illegal Traders, and the receptacle of Goods imported thither from foreign parts contrary to Law: In return of which Commodities those of the growth of these Colonies are likewise contrary to Law exported to Forreign parts; All which is likewise much incouraged by their not admitting appeals as aforesaide.

That by raising and lowering their coin from time to time, to their particular advantage, and to the prejudice of other Colonies, By exempting their Inhabitants from Duties and Customes to which the other Colonies are subject, and by Harbouring of Servants and fugitives, these Governments tend greatly to the undermining the Trade and Welfare of the other Plantations, and seduce and draw away the People thereof; By which Diminution of Hands the rest of the Colonies more beneficial to England do very much suffer

That these Independent Colonies do turn the Course of Trade to the Promoting and propogating woollen and other Manufactures proper to England, instead of applying their thoughts and Endeavours to the production of such commodities as are fit to be encouraged in these parts according to the true design and intention of such settlements.

That they do not in general take any due care for their own defence and security against an Enemy, either in Building Forts or providing their Inhabitants with sufficient Armes and Ammunition, in case they should be attacked, which is every day more and more to be apprehended, considering how the French power encreases in those parts.

That this chiefly arises from the ill use they make of the powers entrusted to them by their Charters, and the Independency which they pretend to, and that each Government is obliged only to defend its self without any consideration had of their Neighbours, or of the general preservation of the whole.

That many of them have not a regular militia and some (particularly the Colonies of East and West New Jersey) are no otherwise at present than in a state of Anarchy and confusion.

And because the care of these and other great mischiefs in your Majesties Plantations and Colonies aforesaid, and the introducing such an administration of Government and fit regulation of Trade as may put them into a better State of Security and make them duly subservient and usefull to England, does every day become more and more necessary, and that your Majesties frequent Commands to them have not met with due compliance: We humbly conceive it may be expedient that the Charters of the severall Proprietors and others, intitling them to absolute Government be reassumed to the Crown and these Colonies put into the same State and dependency as those of your Majesties other Plantations, without prejudice to any man's particular property and freehold. Which being no otherwise so well to be effected as by the Legislative power of this Kingdome.

Wee humbly submit the same to your Majesties Royall consideration Whitehall.

WHITEHALL. June 11th 1701.

M<sup>r</sup> Randolph acquainting the Board that there is now no chance of passing this Session the Bill which has some while lain before the House of Lords for reuniting to the Crown the govern<sup>t</sup> of severall Colonies and Plantations in America And that several of the witnesses which he had now ready to have produced about that matter will not be here at another Session of Parliament, Their Lordships desired him to take all their Affidavits that may be material before a Master in Chancery and to lodge 'em here which he promised to do accordingly.

WHITEHALL JULY 22nd 1701.

M<sup>r</sup> Micajah Perry presented to the Board an extract of an Act lately passed in Carolina relating to the currency and rate of several coins there & complained that those who had debts standing out in that Country, where by the raising of money, as ordered by the said Act defrauded of 30 per cent of their due Whereupon Ordered that a copy of that extract be sent to M<sup>r</sup> Thornburgh that he may know what the Lords Proprietors of Carolina have to say upon it and accordingly acquaint this Board therewith

WHITEHALL JULY 30th 1701.

A letter from M<sup>r</sup> Thornburgh of the 29th in answer to one Writ him the 22nd inst. concerning An Act for raising the coin in Carolina was read Declaring that he does not remember that any such Act has yet been transmitted, Or if perhaps it were that he is confident of the Lords Proprietors dissent to it.

LORDS OF TRADE TO GOV. NICHOLSON 22 JULY 1701.

To the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Francis Nicholson Esq<sup>r</sup> His Maj. Lientenant and Governor General of his Maj. Colony and Dominion of Virginia in America or for the Commander in chief of the said Colony for the time being.
SIR,

The irregularities & misdemeanors that have long been practiced in his Maj. Plantations under Proprietary and Charter Governments to the prejudice of Trade and of other Governors appointed by his Maj. immediate Commission as likewise to the prejudice of his Maj. Revenue arising from the customs And the small effect we have found of our Application to the respective Governors of those Proprietary Plantations for the redressing such matters having obliged us the last winter to represent the same to His Majesty and it having been thereupon thought fit that the remedy of those evils is not any other ways so well attainable as by the Legislative powers of this Kingdom a Bill was accordingly brought into the House of Lords for remitting the government of those Plantations to the Crown and putting them into the same State and dependency as his Maj. other Plantations aforementioned without prejudice to any mans particular property or freehold.

But that Bill by reason of the shortness of time and multiplicity of other business not having passed into an Act And it being very probable that the same matter may again come under consideration the next Session of Parliament We have thought fit to desire and do accordingly hereby desire and direct you to get the best information you can relating to the conduct of Proprietary Governours and Governments upon the several Heads of Observations that have been made of their undue proceedings whereof we send you a copy here inclosed And upon such other heads as you judge proper to give a true light into the state of those Plantations (more especially in relation to Carolina and the Bahama Islands) and to transmit unto us the most authentic and most particular proofs that you can procure of the truth of those matters with all possible diligence So we bid you Heartily Farewell

OBSERVATIONS RELATING TO THE PROPRIETARY GOVERNMENTS IN AMERICA.

The Governours of the Propriety and Charter Governments are generally not qualified by taking the Oaths required by law nor have they his Maj. approbation according to the Acts of Trade and more particularly the late Act for preventing frauds and regulating abuses in the Plantation trade.

They have assumed to themselves a power to make Laws contrary & repugnant to the Laws of England and prejudicial to our trade.

Some of them have refused to send hither such Laws as they enact, some neglect to do it and others have sent the Laws but very imperfect.

Divers of them have refused Appeals to His Majesty in Council by which the inhabitants of those Colonies are deprived of the benefit allowed in the Plantations under His Maj. Government and the parties aggrieved are left without Remedy for the arbitrary and illegal proceedings of their Courts

Those Proprietary Colonies are the ordinary refuge & retreat of Pirates & illegal Traders.

By raising and lowering their coin from time to time (as may be for their particular advantage) they prejudice other Colonies in drawing away their money and likewise draw away their servants and people and harbour fugitives

They apply themselves to the improvement of woollen manufactures and other manufactures and products of England which they carry directly to the Foreign parts and more especially to the Spanish Indies And they furnish themselves from Foreign parts with all sorts of European commodities to the great prejudice of the interest of this kingdom.

They do not put themselves in a state of defence by having any regular Militia, arms or ammunition

May it please Your Lordships,

I have had the honor to receive your Lordships letter of June 22<sup>d</sup> concerning the irregularities & misdemeanors that have been long practised in His Maj. Plantations and Proprietor and Charter Governments &c. all which is most certainly true as are likewise Your Lordships Observations relating to the Proprietary Governments in America and I am heartily sorry and concerned the Parliament hath so much business that a Bill concerning them was not passed but I hope in God it will this Sessions.

The Hon<sup>ble</sup> Col. Robert Quarry about two months ago touched here in his way home from South Carolina

I have particularly discoursed him about Dr. Cox's affair And if the Doctor should obtain according to my Lord Matravers his Grant We are apprehensive that it will take away a good part of Virginia which lies on the south side of James River but with submission I believe it is rather a sort of Indenture and I think my Lord Matravers never complied with any one condition at least no such thing appears upon our Records this is matter of law and so beyond my capacity to determine but if the dispute lies between the Lords Proprietors and Dr. Cox and that he be willing (according to this letter to me) to put it under his Maj. Govern<sup>t</sup> of Virginia (it may be of interest and service in point of the tobacco trade) and be content that the Plantations of those who have taken Patents here, since Charles the 2nd his Grant to the Lords Proprietors may be the boundarys betwixt Virginia and New Carolina then it had better be the Doctors than the Proprietors (if they will not do the same things) for some people are apprehensive that if the Line should be run according to the Lords Proprietors Charter it would take in several plantations which now pay Quit rents to his Majesty and are in all other respects under his government I heartily wish that this affair of the bounds was well settled in the mean time will not be wanting in my duty to his Majesty according to your Lordships commands in that affair.

In order to settle the affair of North Carolina I humbly propose that his Majesty would be graciously pleased to purchase the proprietorship thereof if it cannot be had otherwise and if £2000 sterling were given for it (but I hope it may be purchased much cheaper) I suppose in some years time his Maj. would be no looser by it considering the advantage of the Quit rents and of the encouragement that people might have in going upon tobacco there &c. And this £2000 might be spared out of the Quit rent money now in M<sup>r</sup> Auditor's hand for I am in hopes that they will this year sell indifferently well.

I was extraordinarily troubled & concerned that the intended meeting of his late Excell<sup>y</sup> the Earl of Bellomont Gov<sup>r</sup> Blakiston & myself was disappointed but I humbly propose that all those Governors who have immediate Commissions under his Maj. on this Continent may meet together as soon as possible in order to consult about this affair of the Indian trade as also concerning others of his Maj. interest and service but if the Proprietary or charter Govern<sup>ts</sup> should be there to be sure their own interest & service would be their main design for I suppose some of the principal things which we should consult about would be the great prejudice it is to his Maj. interest and service to have Charter & Proprietary Govern<sup>ts</sup> and humbly to represent the reasons thereof as also how they may be remedied As to the first it cant be expected that those Governours will joyn with us nor is it in the least convenient that they should know the reasons either against them or how they may be remedied If the Charter and Proprietary Governours should be ordered to be at such a Meeting they would make great use of it with their people that his Majesty owns them as Governours tho' they have not complied with the Acts of Parliament for taking of Oaths particularly of that of a Gov<sup>r</sup> for duly observing the Acts of Trade & Navigation & that nothing can be done at least without some of them as was reported in Pennsylvania upon his late Excel<sup>cy</sup> y<sup>e</sup> Earl of Bellomonts Gov<sup>r</sup> Blakiston and my being to meet there and that his Maj. had ordered us to wait on M<sup>r</sup> Penn But if they are not there the people might take it that they are slighted and that his Maj. did not think them qualified by law as they ought to be or that they were not to be made use of by his Maj. or protected by him as the other Governours were who have the honor to have his Maj. immediate Commissions It might discourage their own people and be a means to make them uneasy under their government and fly to his Majesty for protection as on the other hand it might be an encouragement to those under the governments of his Majesty. If your Lordships please Col. Quarry can give you an account of these affairs being so desired by him who is most obliged and faithful humble Servant

South Carolina.

M<sup>r</sup> John Archdall the late Gov<sup>r</sup> (under his son a Lord Proprietary of the Province) permitted some of Every's Men, who came from Providence to Land, and bring their money quietly a shoar, for which favour he was well paid by them.

He contrary to the Acts of Trade, gave his Permitt to Simon Tristrank (a French man borne) who came from S<sup>t</sup> Thomas to put off his sugar, wine and cocoa, for which his Marshall received for the Governor a large present, and therefore he would not suffer the Judge of the Admiralty, nor the Collector to seize her, saying she belonged to English owners, vide depositions.

He allowed one Day Master of a great ship of Bristoll which came into the Harbour loaden with Sugar from Jamaica, to sell his Sugar to a merchant in Charles Town, upon Condition that M<sup>r</sup> Archdale should have a share of it.

M<sup>r</sup> Blake his successor in the Governm<sup>t</sup> sent six barrells of Gunpowder, bought for defence of the Country (being a great Indian Trader) by his Agents to purchase skins of the Indians, vide Depositions.

He clandestinely got £80. from William Joel Ma<sup>r</sup> of a Bermuda sloop, which he caused to be seized, upon pretence she was not registered, whereas the time for registering vessells was not expired, vide Depositions.

He caused a sloop belonging to Carolina loaden with Negroes from Guinea, to be seized upon the same pretence, and discharged her upon the owners promise to pay him 50£. (vide Depositions of the Owners sworn before a master in Chancery.)

He was consenting to the seizing of the ship Carlisle stopt five months in the Country, upon pretence that the Ma<sup>r</sup> was a Pyrate, but the design was to get her into his and his Confederates hands, by putting the sailors upon seizing her for their wages, and then get her to be sold to them for little or nothing.

By a Trick he put upon the Credulous Master of the Edward and Sarah of London, loaden with sugar from Yamaica, he gott the Management of the vessell and her Loading into his hands, and leaving that to the care of one Loggen, they imbezilled the Sugar and brought in Extravagant Charges for Comision, which were allowed. The vessell was sunk through their neglect, yet they demanded and had 30£. for their care & diligence.

He and the Judge of the Court of Admiralty (his brother in law) condemned the Snow Gully of London, and her Loading they were appraised at a low value. His Majesty sometime after was pleased to order them restore to the owners the vessell & Loading, which they were glad to take at the appraised value, besides the loss they sustayned for want of their market. However Governor Blake and his confederates made great advantage by the sale of those Goods at the Country price.

The Cole and Bean Galley of London and Loading worth two or three thousand pounds sterl: were condemned and appraised at not half the value, the vessell was bought by Loggan under hand for the Governor and Bellinger, and the pretended collector for much less than halfe what she cost setting out in England; they sent her to the Bay of Campeache for Logwood and ordered the Master to sell her, and her Loading at Curasoa or Holland.

He turned M<sup>r</sup> Nicholas Trott (app<sup>td</sup> y<sup>e</sup> Naval Officer by the Lords Proprietors and also by the Commissioners of his Majesties Customes) out of his place because he was dilligent and faithfull to his trust, and put another therein, who was his confident and not fit for the place

NORTH CAROLINA.

Thomas Harvey late Governor was deputed by M<sup>r</sup> Archdall he put Mast<sup>rs</sup> to great charges because of their vessells not being registered, though the time lymitted for registering them was not expired. The Tobacco made in that Province is generally carried to Boston or to the Islands near to Connecticott Colony where it is carryed to Scotland & which fraud ought speedily to be prevented.

During his Government his Majestys ship the Hady was drove a shore upon the sands between the Inlets of Roanoak and Currituck, the Inhabitants robed her and got some of her guns ashore and shot into her sides and disabled her from getting off. The actors were tryed and one of the chief was banished. Henderson Walker the present Governor in no sort fit for the Office

The many misdemeanors I have justly charged upon the severall Governours in the Proprieties, arise chiefly from a very great neglect in the Propriet<sup>rs</sup> not taking due care to provide an Honourable Maintenance for support of their Governors, which is the true reason why no honest Gentleman of good reputation and abilities, to serv<sup>e</sup> his Majesty in the Quallity of Governors will leave his Country to live upon the Rapine and spoil in the Proprieties, as many of them have done for severall years last past; For 'tis easy to believe that Governors in such necessities will be soon tempted to do all unlawfull things. Neither have they taken any notice of the frequent complaints of the grievous oppressions done by their Governors to his Majesties subjects, nor of their exacting extravagant Fees from Masters of vessells and other Trading Persons, so as to redress them; Whereby lawfull Traders have been wholly ruined.

They have not at any time (during the late Warr with France) bought or sent over any great Guns, or small Armes for Horse or Foot Ammunition of all sorts, nor provided ships of Warr to be manned when necessary, nor soldiers ready for the defence of his Majestie's subjects inhabiting those Provinces, so that all the Proprieties (from the Bahama Island south beyond Pemaquid North) at this time lie open and exposed to every invasion, being an easy prey to their merciless and insulting Enemyes the French and Spaniards &c: especially South Carolina, lying within sixty miles of the Town and Port of S<sup>t</sup> Austin, a place well fortyfyed and mand; from whence I saw a Lientenant and six Spanish soldiers in March 1699, who came from thence in a small Periogna within the Land.

From the consideration whereof and for the more effectuall preventing the imminent ruine the Proprieties are in at present, and also for the more effectual suppressing the growing evils arising from the arbitrary practices of their Governors which the Proprietors are in no sort capable to redress.

Tis therefore humbly proposed

1. That the Government of all the Proprieties on the Continent of America and Islands adjacent be forthwith vested in the Crown.

2. That all the just Rights & Propeties of the severall Proprietors, and also of all the Persons claiming by or under them, be continued and confirmed to them by Act of Parliament to be enjoyed in as full and ample Manner as they have or may of right enjoy by virtue of their respective Grants or Patents for the same.

By which means they themselves will be fully secured in all their Rights, under an Equall Administration of his Majesties Government and protected in their lives and Estates from Rapine and depredation. The Acts of trade duly observed in all his Majesties Colonies and Provinces, and his Majesties Revenue yearly encreased, which will be a mighty benefit and advantage to all his Majesties Subjects inhabiting there.

And lastly their lands and estates made thereby far more valuable than before.

All of which is humbly

ing Royall Government and other Jurisdictions over the Inhabitants thereof; and whereas the severing of such power and authority from the Crown and placing the same in the hands of subjects hath by Experience been found prejudicial and repugnant to the Trade of this Kingdom and to the Wellfare of his Majesties other Plantations in America, and to his Majesty's Revenue arising from the Customes by reasons of the many Irregularities committed by the Governours of these Plantations and by those in authority there under them, by encouraging and countenancing pirates and unlawfull Traders and otherwise. Be it therefore enacted, by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords spiritual and temporal and commons in parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same; That all and singular the clauses, matters & things contained in any Charters or Letters Patents heretofore passed under the Great Seal of England by any of his Majesty Royal Predecessors or by his present Majesty and the said late Queen, relating to the Government of his Majesty's subjects within the said Plantations, Colonies or places, or any of them or within any other Plantation, Colony or place in America, whereby any Power or authority is granted to any person or persons from the Crown, be & is hereby declared and enacted to be utterly void and of none Effect. And it is hereby further declared and enacted, shall all such power and authority priviledges and jurisdictions be and are hereby remitted, annexed and vested in his Majesty, his heirs and successors, in right of the Crown of England, to all intents and purposes, as though no such Charters or Letters Patents had been had or made. Provided always that nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend any ways to alter, take away diminish or abridge the right or Title, which any person Persons or Bodies Politick or Corporate have or lawfully may have or claim to any land, tenements or Hereditaments or any other matter or thing (Authority and Government only excepted) by Virtue of the said or any other Charter or Letters patents or by Virtue of any Right or Title derived from or under such Charters or Letters patents by any mean assignments or conveyances or otherwise howsoever. Provided also that nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to impower his Majesty, his heirs or successors to govern the said Plantations, Colonies or places or any of them or the Inhabitants thereof otherwise than according to the Laws in force in the said Plantations and Places respectively not repugnant to the Laws of England and such other Laws and Constitutions as shall from time to time be made by General Assemblies of the said respective plantations according to the severall and respective Privi-

ledges as at any time heretofore granted to the said several Plantations and Colonies respectively, by any Charter or Charters or Letters patents under the Great Seal of England and according to the usages in his Majesty's other Plantations in America.

Upon reading a letter from Henderson Walker Esq. President of the Province of North Carolina complaining that the Maharine Indians do daily commit great injuries to the inhabitants of that Province by destroying their stocks and burning their timber and houses refusing to pay tribute or render obedience to the Government upon pretence that they are tributary to this Her Maj. Colony and Dominion also their living is amongst the inhabitants of the Province of North Carolina. It is the opinion of the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Council that it doth not appear that the Maharine Indians live within the bounds of the Province of Carolina but that the said Indians have always been reputed Tributary and have accordingly paid tribute to this Government as living under the same And therefore the Province of North Carolina hath no pretence of demanding tribute of them but if any injuries or outrages have been or shall be committed by the said Indians to the inhabitants of North Carolina upon due proof thereof made His Excellency & the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Council will take suitable measures for punishing the said Indians and giving all reasonable satisfaction to the inhabitants of the said Province of North Carolina therein.

[FROM N. C. LETTER BOOK OF S. P. G. 21ST OCT. 1703.]

HENDERSON WALKER TO THE BISHOP OF LONDON.

NORTH CAROLINA, 21st October, 1703.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR LORDSHIP:—

The great and pious designs of your lordship toward these American parts, for the propagation of the Christian Church, of which you are so pious and good a pillar, emboldens me to lay before your lordship the present state of North Carolina, as to their Christian well-being; and I was the more encouraged to do it by reason that our lords proprietors were pleased to write to us concerning Mr. Bray, your lordship's commissary, coming to visit us.

My lord, we have been settled near this fifty years in this place, and I may justly say most part of twenty-one years, on my own knowledge, without priest or altar, and before that time, according to all that appears to me, much worse. George Fox, some years ago, came into these parts, and, by strange infatinations, did infuse the Quakers' principles into some small number of the people; which did and hath continued to grow ever since very numerous, by reason of their yearly sending in men to encourage and exhort them to their wicked principles; and here was none to dispute nor to oppose them in carrying on their pernicious principles for many years, till God, of his infinite goodness, was pleased to inspire the Rev. Dr. Bray, some time about four years ago, to send in some books of his own particular pious gift, of the explanation of the Church catechism, with some other small books, to be disposed of and lent as we thought fit, did, in some measure, put a stop to their growth; and about a year after, did send to us a library of books for the benefit of this place, given by the honorable the Corporation for the Establishing the Christian Religion, by one Mr. Daniel Brett, a minister appointed for this place. He for about half a year behaved himself in a modest manner, but after that, in a most horrid manner, broke out in such an extravagant course that I am ashamed to express his carriage, it being in so high a nature. It hath been a great trouble and grief to us who have a great veneration for the Church, that the first minister who was sent to us should prove so ill as to give the dissenters so much occasion to charge us with him. My lord, I humbly beg you to believe that we do not think that the Rev. Dr. Bray knew anything of the life and conversation of the man. We did, about this time two years, with a great deal of care and management, get an Assembly, and we passed an act for building of churches and establishing a maintenance for a minister amongst us; and in pursuance thereto we have built one church, and there are two more a going forward; and his excellency, Francis Nicholson, Esq., governor of Virginia, was pleased, of his pious goodness, to give us £10 to each church, and we sent copies of that act of Assembly to our lords proprietors to get the same ratified, and likewise a copy to Dr. Bray, to entreat his favor with them to obtain a ratification, which we are in hopes to obtain this shipping; but they not being come, we are in a great loss. My lord, I humbly beg leave to inform you, that we have an Assembly to sit the 3d November next, and there is above one half of the burgesses that are chosen are Quakers, and have declared their designs of making void the act for establishing the Church; if your lordship, out of your good and pious care for us, doth not put a stop to their growth, we shall the most part, especially the children born here, become heathens. I humbly entreat your lordship to send some worthy, good man amongst us to regain the flock, and so perfect us in our duty to God, and establish us by his doctrine, life, and conversation in the fundamentals of our Christian profession, that we in our time, and those as come hereafter, may bless God that he has raised up so noble a pillar as your lordship to regain those who are going astray, and put a stop to the pernicious, growing principles of the Quakers.

Your lordship may see the copy of our act by Dr. Bray, and I humbly beg your lordship's pardon for giving you this trouble, and take leave to subscribe myself, my lord,

Your most humble and obedient servant,

CONSIDERATIONS HUMBLY OFFERED, WHY NAVAL STORES CANNOT BE BROUGHT IN GREAT QUAN-
TITY'S FROM HER MAJESTY'S PLANTA-TIONS, UNLESS ASSISTANCE BE GIVEN BY THE GOVERNMENT.

[19 May 1704.]

1st Planters, proprietors, or Trading people will not make it their business to provide such Goods, nor bring them in the usual way of Trade unless they have a prospect, they shall have Sales for them at such rates, as may afford them profit, their cost & Charges considered; if there be no such prospect then they will bring them only when they can be secure of Gaine by some particular contract with the Navy officers or other persons.

2nd This is verified by what has past in relation to Naval Stores from the plantations, Several have offer'd to bring them upon a Contract made, or Charter granted or other advantages, but few or none have been brought as other Commodities to be sold at a Comon Markett Thō it was foreseen above 50 Yeares Since; that it would be dangerous to depend entirely upon the Northern Crownes, for Naval Stores, and was then taken into Consideration Now to be Supplied from the Plantations, yet few have been brought, thō in those parts there is great plenty of Timber for building of Ships, and also to produce Pitch, Tarr & Rozin, and a Soil capable to afford hempe.

3rd Upon which it may be concluded that no Methods can be effectually, for the bringing in, of great quantity's, but such as may give incouragement, to the Trading people, to bring them upon the same foundation, as they bring other Commodities from other parts viz<sup>t</sup>

Hopes of making proffit, by trading & dealing in them which cannot be, unless these Commodities be eased of the great burthen, which lyes on them, by the great wages paid to labouring men on the Plantations, and the high freights given to Ship Masters, for Goods brought from those parts, which being farr above the rates which are paid for the same Sorts of Goods if they come from Norway or the Baltick, deprives the traders of making profit by these Goods from the Plantations, and gives a priority to those from the North.

4th The Northern Crownes are our Competitors in this Case, the advantages they have cannot be overcome, by a Charter, in which most of the proposalls that have been made do center, Corporations must have Governours, Directors, book keepers & Agents, the Charges will amount to at least ten  $\text{p}$  Cent, which must be added to the Cost, and other necessary Charges, and give a Further advantage to our Competitors, by which they will be enabled to undersell our Traders in these Commodities, and yet Subsist & make profit, because they will be eased in these Several Charges & outgoings: Charters cannot remove, nor decrease the Cloggs that lye on this Trade, but rather increase them unless the Swedes & Daues and all others could be excluded from bringing those Goods into England.

Therefore

Unless these Commodities from the North can be Charged with a great Custome, and those from the Plantations be eased from all Custome: or her Majesty be graciously pleased to cause these goods to be brought freight free to the Planters or owners, or to give to them some recompense at a Certain rate  $\text{p}$  Tunn for what they may bring, as may equallize the Charge of freight.

The Naval Stores from the North will always hinder their being brought from the Plantations, as Commodities in the way of Trade, which only can cause a large importation of them for the use of our Navigation in General, hinder the Exportation of our Coyne to the North and prevent the inconveniences that may happen, by our dependance upon these Crownes.

MR. BLAIR'S MISSION TO NORTH CAROLINA.

I was ordained, in order to go to the plantations, 12th April, 1703, and then received the queen's bounty of £20, and, soon after, my Lord Weymouth's bounty of £50; upon which I lived in England till the 1st of October following, which, together with my fitting out for such a voyage and country, consumed the most part of my money. I had likewise £5 sent me by my lord of London to Portsmouth, and when I landed in Virginia I had no more than £25.

I landed in Virginia, 14th of January, 1704; and, as soon as I could conveniently travel, I waited upon the governor, and immediately after made the best of my way into the country where I was bound.

I arrived amongst the inhabitants, after a tedious and troublesome journey, 24th ditto. I was then obliged to buy a couple of horses, which cost me fourteen pounds,—one of which was for a guide, because there is no possibility for a stranger to find his road in that country, for if he once goes astray (it being such a desert country) it is a great hazard if he ever finds his road again. Beside, there are mighty inconveniences in travelling there, for the roads are not only deep and difficult to be found, but there are likewise seven great rivers in the country, over which there is no passing with horses, except two of them, one of which the Quakers have settled a ferry over for their own conveniency, and nobody but themselves have the privilege of it; so that at the passing over the rivers, I was obliged either to borrow or hire horses which was both troublesome and chargeable, insomuch that in little more than two months I was obliged to dispose of the necessaries I carried over for my own use, to satisfy my creditors.

I found in the country a great many children to be baptized, where I baptized about a hundred; and there are a great many still to be baptized, whose parents would not condescend to have them baptized with god-fathers and god-mothers.

I married none in the country, for that was a perquisite belonging to the magistrates, which I was not desirous to deprive them of.

I preached twice every Sunday, and often on the week-days, when their vestries met, or could appoint them to bring their children to be baptized.

I called a vestry in each precinct, in my first progress through the country, to whom I gave an account of my Lord Weymouth's charitable bounty in supporting my mission among them, and likewise of the good designs the honorable society had for them, as I was informed by Mr. Amy that they had settled £50 per annum for the maintenance of two clergymen amongst them; and likewise a proposal that Dr. Bray desired me to make to them, that, upon their procuring good glebes, he doubted not that there might be a settlement made for the advantage of the Church, such as there is in the island of Bermudas, viz., two slaves and a small stock in each precinct, and that to be continued good by the incumbent to his successor, which will be a lasting estate to the Church.

They have built in the country three small churches, and have three glebes.

In the three chief precincts, there is a reader established in each, to whom they allow a small salary, who reads morning and evening prayer every Lord's day, with two sermons, and I took care to furnish them with books from the library before I came away.

I remained very well satisfied in the country till their Assembly sat, which was on 1st March, where I expected they would propose a settlement for my maintenance; and they taking no care of it, together with my then circumstances, which were but very indifferent, discouraged me very much, and occasioned my first thoughts of returning to England; for I was informed before I went thither that there was £30 per annum, settled by law, to be paid in each precinct for the maintenance of a minister, which law was sent over hither to be confirmed by their lords proprietors, and it being supposed not to be a competency for a minister to live on, was sent back again without confirmation, whereof the Quakers took the advantage, and will endeavor to prevent any such law passing for the future, for they are the greatest number in the Assembly, and are unanimous, and stand truly to one another in whatsoever may be to their interest. For the country may be divided into four sorts of people: first, the Quakers, who are the most powerful enemies to Church government, but a people very ignorant of what they profess. The second sort are a great many who have no religion, but would be Quakers, if by that they were not obliged to lead a more moral life than they are willing to comply to. A third sort are something like Presbyterians, which sort is upheld by some idle fellows who have left their lawful employment, and preach and baptize through the country, without any manner of orders from any sect or pretended Church. A fourth sort, who are really zealous for the interest of the Church, are the fewest in number, but the better sort of people, and would do very much for the settlement of the Church government there, if not opposed by these three precedent sects; and although they be all three of different pretensions, yet they all concur together in one common cause to prevent any thing that will be chargeable to them, as they allege Church government will be, if once established by law. And another great discouragement these poor people have, is a governor who does not in the least countenance them in this business, but rather discourages them.

Finding it impossible to travel through the country at that rate I began, I was resolved to settle in one precinct, but the people, all alleging that my Lord Weymouth's charity was universally designed for the whole country, would not consent to it; which bred some disturbance amongst them, upon which I was advised, by some of the best friends of the Church, to come over and represent their condition to the honorable society, not only of their want of ministers but likewise of inhabitants to maintain them; and their desires, they complying with my necessities, was a powerful argument, considering I was then reduced to my last stake, and knew not where, or upon what account, to be further supplied. Besides, such a solitary, toilsome, and hard living as I met with there were very sufficient discouragements. I was distant from any minister one hundred and twenty miles, so that if any case of difficulty or doubt should happen, with whom should I consult? And for my travelling through the country, I rode one day with another, Sundays only excepted, about thirty miles per diem in the worst roads that ever I saw; and have sometimes lain whole nights in the woods.

I will now endeavor to show you how inefficient a single man's labors would be amongst so scattered a people. In the first place, suppose him minister of one precinct (whereas there are five in the country), and this precinct, as they are all bounded with two rivers, and those rivers at least twenty miles distant, without any inhabitants on the road, for they plant only on the rivers, and they are planted in length upon those rivers at least twenty miles, and to give all those inhabitants an opportunity of hearing a sermon, or bringing their children to be baptized, which must be on the Sabbath, for they won't spare time of another day, and must be in every ten miles distant, for five miles is the furthest they will bring their children, or willingly come themselves ; so that he must, to do his duty effectually, be ten or twelve weeks in making his progress through one preeinet.

You may also consider the distance that the new colony of Pantico is from the rest of the inhabitants of the country, for any man that has tried it would sooner undertake a voyage from this city to Holland than that, for beside a pond of five miles broad, and nothing to carry one over but a small perryanger, there are about fifty miles desert to pass through, without any human creature inhabiting in it. I think it likewise reasonable to give you an account of a great nation of Indians that live in that government, computed to be no less than 100,000, many of which live amongst the English, and all, as I can understand, a very civilized people.

I have often conversed with them, and have been frequently in their towns: those that can speak English among them seem to be very willing and fond of being Christians, and in my opinion there might be methods taken to bring over a great many of them. If there were no hopes of making them Christians, the advantage of having missionaries among them would redound to the advantage of the government, for if they should once be brought over to a French interest (as we have too much reason to believe there are some promoters amongst them for that end by their late actions), it would be, if not to the utter ruin, to the great prejudice of all the English plantations on the continent of America.

I have here in brief set down what I have to say, and shall be ready to answer to any questions the honorable society shall think convenient to ask me concerning the country ; and shall be both ready and willing to serve them anywhere upon such encouragement as I can live, according to my education, after my Lord Weymouth ceases to lay his commands on me.

I have made a considerable losing voyage of it this time, both by my troublesome travelling in America, and likewise by being taken into France, where I was prisoner of war nine weeks, and was forced to make use of my credit for my sustenance ; and have lived in the same circumstances since I came to England, without any manner of relief, which has been very troublesome to me, all which has brought me considerably in debt, near £35, and now in no way to pay it, without my charitable benefactor or the honorable society judge my labors worthy a reward.

PETITION FROM NORTH CAROLINA TO THE RIGHT
IN PARLIAMENT ASSEMBLED

The Humble Petition of the Queen's Ma<sup>ties</sup> most distressed Subjects Inhabiting near Pamlico River in the County of Bath, within her Ma<sup>ties</sup> Dominions of North Carolina:
Sheweth

That your Petitioners depending upon the Royal assurance which was given for their encouraging the Exercise of the Protestant Religion, and the benefit of the Laws of England, and the encouragements which were published for planting in the said parts, settled themselves and their families upon the said River, and going through incredible difficulties from the Indians, a vast labour and expense recovered and improved divers great quantities of land thereabouts, they made all due applications to the Governors and Council of the Lords Proprietors of those lands for being admitted into the privileges published as aforesaid. But instead thereof they have been treated by the said Governors and Council with very great hardships, neither could your Petitioners obtain your [y<sup>e</sup>] favour of having a minister appointed them, though they offered with cheerfulness to be at the Charge of maintaining him, and by reason thereof your Petitioners have been deprived of the means of grace which their souls earnestly longed after, and near two hundred of their children have not been admitted to the Sacrament of Baptism.

The Resolves of the House of Burgesses concerning the bounds of North Carolina were read as follows

26th JUNE 1705

In pursuance of an Order of Council of 31st May last past Mr James Minge Surveyor this day attended his Excellency and the Council who acquainted him that being desirous to know whether the line between this Government and North Carolina if run according to the patent of the Lords Proprietors may cut off any plantations held by titles from this Government They proposed to him to take an observation at the mouth of the Weyanoake Creeke now commonly known by the name of Maherin river and thence to proceed directly westward in the latitude of 36<sup>d</sup> 30<sup>m</sup> according to the course of the Proprietors patent making his observations at two or three more places, where he thinks most convenient for discovering the course of the said line and desired him to withdraw and consider what assistance he may want for performing that service Whereupon the said Mr Minge withdrew & having taken a Memorandum from the patent of the Lords Proprietors of Carolina returned with some proposals for his better accomplishing that service And it appearing that the said Mr Minge cannot appear therein before next November it is referred till October Generall Court (when it is probable all the gentlemen of the Council will be in Town) for consideration of such further directions as shall be found necessary for accomplishing the service now proposed. In the meantime Mr Minge is desired to keep secret the intentions of this Government in relation to the running the course of the said line And for the better concealing thereof it is Ordered that the Clerk of the Council do not issue the Order of Council of 31st May to the Surveyor of Nausemond for laying out the Maherin Indians land till Mr Minge be ready to go out with him to take the afores<sup>d</sup> observation that the people of North Carolina may have no other suspicion than that those Surveyors are only going about laying the Maherin Indians land.

To the Queens most Excellent Majesty

May it please your Majesty

In obedience to your Majesty's order in Councill of the 20th of the last month, directing us to Enumerate to your Majesty the Several misfearances, and Illegal proceedings of the Proprietary and charter Governments in America, in Prejudice to the Trade of this Kingdom, and your Majesty's Plantations; and the advantages and conveniencies that may arise by reducing such Proprietary and Charter Governments under your Ma<sup>ty's</sup> more immediate Direction.

We humbly represent to your Majesty, That those Colonies in General have no ways answered the chief design for which such large tracts of Land, & such privileges and Immunities were granted by the Crown

That they have not Conform'd them selves to the several acts of Parliament, for Regulating Trade and Navigation, to which they ought to pay the same obedience, and submit to the same Restrictions as the other Plantations, subject to your Majesty's immediate Government: On the contrary in most of these Proprietary and Charter (vizt Connecticut and Rhode Island) Governments the Governors have not applyed themselves to your Majesty for your Royal approbation & allowance of the said Governors, nor have taken the Oaths required by the Acts of Trade: Both which qualifications are made necessary by the late Act For preventing Frauds and Regulating abuses in the Plantations Trade.

That they have assumed to themselves a power of making Laws contrary & repugnant to the Laws of England, and directly prejudicial to Legal Trade.

That divers of them have denyed Appeals to your Majesty in Council by which not only the Inhabitants of those Colonies, but others Your Majestys Subjects, are deprived of that benefit enjoyed in the Plantations, under your Majestys immediate Government; and the parties agrieved are left without Remedy, against the arbitrary and Illegal proceedings of their Courts. That these Colonies are the refuge and retreat of Pirates and Illegal Traders and the receptacle of Goods Imported thither from Foreign parts, Contrary to Law, In return of which Commodities those of the Growth of these Colonies are likewise Contrary to Law Exported to Foreign parts; all which is much encouraged by their not admitting Appeals as aforesaid.

That they give protection to soldiers seamen and servants that Desert from other your Majesty's Plantations & do not deliver them up when reclaimed, and do also give Shelter to Malefactors who make their Escapes from other parts, without delivering them up when demanded, and great numbers of the young men leave the Plantations under your Majesty's Government where they are obliged to be industrious and pay Taxes for the Support of the Publick Charge, and maintaining the war against the French and Indians) and go to the Proprietary and Charter Governments, and are there induced to settle, chiefly for that no taxes are raised there for those necessary purposes.

That these Independent Colonies do turn the Course of Trade to the promoting and encouraging Woollen and other Manufactures proper to England instead of applying their thoughts and endeavors to the Production of such Commodities as are fit to be encouraged in those parts according to the true design and intention of such Settlements.

That they do not in General take due care for their own Defence & Security against an Enemy, either in Building Forts or in providing their Inhabitants with Sufficient arms and ammunition against an attack ; which is every day more and more to be apprehended considering how the French power increases in those parts ; nor have some of them any regular Militia Established amongst them.

That these mischiefs chiefly arise from the ill use they make of the powers intrusted to them by their Charters, and the Independency which they pretend to, presuming that each Government is obliged only to Defend its self, without any consideration had of their neighbours, or of the general preservation of the whole.

That upon this Presumption they do refuse to furnish their Quota of assistance (during the War) to the other Plantations under your Ma<sup>ty's</sup> immediate Government, notwithstanding your Majestys repeated Commands by your Royal Letters in this behalf

That under Colour and pretence of their Charter several of them try Robberies, Murders and other Crimes ; make Laws in Capital matters and punish with Death without any Legal Authority for the same.

That they have refused to submit to your Majesty's and his Royal Highness's Commissions of vice Admiralty, and for commanding their Militia, and have defeated the powers given to the Governors of your Majesty's neighbouring Colonies therein.

And whereas upon our several Representations of the great mischief arising to your Majesty's Plantations by the different value of coins, your Majesty was pleased to issue out your Royal Proclamation for settling and ascertaining the Current Rates of foreign Coins in all your Majesty's Plantations in America. We did accordingly transmit to the Several Colonies your Ma<sup>ty's</sup> said Proclamation and Commands that the same should be put in strict Execution in all parts ; Notwithstanding which we have received Information from several of your Majesty's Governors that many of the Proprietary and Charter Governments have not complied therewith. But that the People there have proceeded to reduce the coin by clipping to a lower value than before which is allowed to pass at any rate in order to drain your Majesty's other Plantations of their current money ; So that your Majestys commands will by such means remain ineffectual untill the Several Colonies in America be so regulated as to be brought under the same Directions and Government.

* * * * *

As to the advantages and Conveniences that may acerne by reducing such Proprietary and Charter Governments, Wherein we are Directed to offer our opinion to your majesty, We humbly conceive that from the aforesaid Irregular and Illegal Proceedings it will be easily Judged of what great benefit the reuniting to the Crown the Government of all these Colonies will necessarily be to your Majestys other Dominions, by the removal of those inconveniences and by the uniformity and more due Regulation of Trade, by the good Correspondency that may be Established thereby between your Majestys Several Plantations, and by the Common and mutual Defence of all, as well as by the prevention of the great and frequent oppositions that are made to Your Majestys laws & government by which means y<sup>r</sup> Majestys Empire in America which is of so great an Extent will be better secured from the attempts of an Enemy and become in all respects of greater advantage to this Kingdome, and to your Majesty's Revenue arising from those parts

Which is nevertheless most humbly Submitted.

THE HUMBLE ADDRESS OF THE RIGHT HONOURABLE THE LORDS SPIRITUAL AND TEMPORAL IN PARLIAMENT ASSEMBLED, PRESENTED TO HER MAJESTY ON WEDNESDAY THE THIRTEENTH DAY OF MARCH, 1705. RELATING TO THE PROVINCE OF CAROLINA, AND THE PETITION THEREIN MENTIONED. WITH HER MAJESTIES MOST GRACIOUS ANSWER THEREUNTO. LONDON, PRINTED BY CHARLES BILL, AND THE EXECUTRIX OF THOMAS NEWCOMB, DECEAS'D; PRINTERS TO THE QUEENS MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY. 1705.

DIE MERCURII 13 MARTII, 1705.

It is ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, that the Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of England, do give Order, that the address of this House, presented to Her Majesty, relating to the Province of Carolina, and the Petition therein mentioned, with Her Majesties most gracious Answer to the said Address, be forthwith printed and published.

DIE MARTIS 12 MARTII, 1705

We your Majesties most dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament Assembled, beg leave to inform your Majesty, that a Petition from Joseph Boone merchant, in behalf of himself, and many other Inhabitants of the Province of Carolina, and merchants of London trading thither, having been presented to this House, complaining of very great Abuses and Oppressions under which your Majesties Subjects in that Province do at present labour, and which tend to the utter destruction of that Plantation, and particularly of two Acts lately passed in the Assembly there, the Ratifications of which have been signed and sealed in England by the greater part of the Proprietors of the said Colony. We thought ourselves obliged to cause the said Acts to be brought before us; and having at the request of the Lord Granville, Palatine of the Province, and of the Lord Craven, one of the Proprietors, heard Counsel and Defence of the said Acts, and examined Witnesses in Relation to that matter, the House proceeded to enter upon a particular consideration of the two Acts: And it appeared to us, that by the first of the Acts complained of, a Commission consisting of Twenty Laymen, was erected with Power in an arbitrary manner, to remove & turn out any Rectors or Ministers of the Church of England from their Benefices for any Immorality or Imprudence or for incurable Prejudices or Dissensions between such Rectors or Ministers and their People, only by delivering a Writing to them, or leaving it at their Houses, or fixing it upon the church doors, whereby it should be declared that they ceas'd to be Rectors or Ministers of such Parishes. The other Act directly asserts that by the Law of England, all Members of Parliament are obliged to receive the Sacrement according to the Rites of the Church of England; and does therefore enact, that no man who shall be chosen a member of the Commons House of Assembly in Carolina, shall be permitted to sit there, who has not received the Sacrement in such manner, within a year before his Election, unless he will swear he is of the Profession of the Church of England, & did not abstain from the Sacrement out of dislike to the Manner and Form of the Administration used in the Church of England, and has not for a year passed been in Communion with any Church, that does not conform to the Church of England, but upon such Oath he shall be qualified to sit as if he had received the Sacrement, as prescribed by the Act. The Act does further provide, that if any Member should refuse to qualify himself, as is thereby directed, that there should not be a new Election, but he who had the next number of Voices to such unqualified person upon the former Poll, should be the member in his Place.

The House having fully and maturely weigh'd the Nature of these two Acts, found themselves obliged, in Duty to Your Majesty, & in justice to your subjects in Carolina (who by the express words of the Charter of Your Royal Uncle, King Charles the Second, granted to the Proprietors, are declared to be the Lige-People of the Crown of England, and to have Right to all the Liberties, Franchises & Priveleges of English-Men, as if they were born within this Kingdom, & who by the words of the same Charter, are to be subject to no Laws, but such as are Consonant to Reason, and as near as may be, agreeable to the Laws and Customs of England) to come to the following Resolutions.

First. That it is the opinion of this House, that the Act of the Assembly of Carolina, lately pass'd there, and since sign'd and seal'd by John Lord Granville, Palatine, for himself, & for the Lord Carteret, and the Lord Craven, and by Sir John Colleton, four of the Proprietors of that Province, in order to the ratifying of it, entituled, An Act for the Establishment of Religious Worship in this Province, according to the Church of England, and for the erecting of Churches for the Publick Worship of God, and also for the maintenance of ministers and the building convenient houses for them, so far forth as the same relates to the establishing a Commission for the displacing the Rectors or Ministers of the Churches there, is not warranted by the Charter granted to the Proprietors of that Colony, as being not consonant to Reason, repugnant to Reason, repugnant to the Laws of this Realm, and destructive to the Constitution of of the Church of England.

Secondly. That it is the opinion of this House that the Act of the Assembly in Carolina, entituled, An Act for the more effectual preservation of the Government of this Province, by requiring all persons that shall hereafter be chosen Members of the Comons House of Assembly, and sit in the same, to take the Oaths, and subscribe the Declaration appointed by this Act and to conform to the Religious Worship in this Province, according to the Church of England, to receive the Sacrament of the Lords Supper, according to the rites and usage of the said Church lately pass'd there, and sign'd and seal'd by John Lord Granville, Palatine for himself and the Lord Craven, and also for the Lord Carteret, and by Sir John Colleton, four of the Proprietors of that Province in order to the ratifying of it, is founded upon falsity in matter of Fact, is repugnant to the Laws of England, contrary to the Charter granted to the Proprietors of that Colony, is an Encouragement to Atheism and Irreligion, is destructive to Trade, and Tends to the depopulating and ruining the said Province.

May it please your Majesty

We your Majesties most dutiful Subjects, having thus humbly presented our Opinion of these acts, we beseech your Majesty to use the most effectual methods, to deliver the said Province from the Arbitrary Oppressions under which it now lies, and to order the authors thereof to be prosecuted according to Law.

At the same time we represent to your Majesty, how much the Powers given by the Crown have been abused by some of your subjects, justice requires us to acquaint your Majesty, that it appeared to the House, that some of the Proprietors absolutely refused to join in the Ratification of these Acts.

We humbly beg permission to inform your Majesty, That other great injustices and oppressions are complained of in the Petition but the nature of the Fact requiring a long Examination, it was not possible for the House to find time for it so near the conclusion of the Session; and therefore we presume with all Duty to lay the Petition itself before your Majesty at the same time we present this our address. We cannot doubt but that your Majesty who from the beginning of your Reign, has shown so great concern and tenderness for all your subjects, will extend your compassion to these distressed People, who have the misfortune to be at so great a distance from your Royal Person, and not so immediately under your gentle administration.

Your Majesty is fully sensible of what great consequences the Plantations are to the Crown of England and to the trade of your Subjects and therefore we rest assured, that, as your Majesty will have them all under your Royall Care, so in particular, you will be graciously pleased to find out and prosecute the most effectual means for the relief of this Province of Carolina.

To the Right Honorable the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled.

The humble petition of Joseph Boone Merchant on behalf of himself and many other Inhabitants of the Province of Carolina, and also of several Merchants of London, trading to Carolina and the neighbouring Colonies of her Majesty in America.

Sheweth to your Lordships,

That the late King Charles the second by his Charter under the Great Seal of England, bearing date the twenty fourth of March 1663. Did grant to Edward Earl of Clarendon, then Lord High Chancellor of England, George, Duke of Albemarle, William Lord Craven, John Lord Berkeley and others their Heirs and assigns to make Laws for the good Government of the said Colony, with the advice, assent and approbation of the Freemen of the said Colony and the greatest part of them, so as the said Laws may be consonant to Reason and as near as conveniently be agreeable to the Laws and Customs of England. But all these priviledges with others in the said Charter, are granted with an express saving of the Faith, allegiance and sovereign dominion due to the King his Heir and Successors, & saving the right, title and interest of English Subjects then planted within those Limits if any be

That for the better peopling the said Colony express provision is made in the said Charter for a Toleration and Indulgence to all Christians in the Free exercise of their Religion.

That in the yeare 1669, the Lords Proprietors of the said Colony, settled the Method of the Government of the said Colony in several articles which were called and so agreed to be, the Fundamental Constitutions of the said Colony, whereby the said Colony was divided into four Estates (viz) The Lords Proprietors or their Deputies, Landgraves Cassiques and Freeholders who are to make up their General Assembly or Parliament, which is the Legislature of the whole Colony, the Lords Proprietors or their Deputies being in the nature of Sovereign, the Landgraves and Cassiques being the Nobility who have an Hereditary Right of Session there, the Freeholders representing the commons who are to be chosen by the Freeholders from among themselves by a Majority of Voices.

That in the said Fundamental Constitutions there is an express Provision, that no person should be disturbed for any speculative opinion in Religion, and that no person should on the account of Religion be excluded from being a Member of the General Assembly or from any other Office of the Civil Administration, the greatest part of which Fundamental Constitutions and this Provision among others were in the yeare 1689. Confirmed by the Proprietors any every person to be afterwards admitted into any Office or Place of Trust, was to swear to the Observation of them.

That the said Charter being made soon after the time of the happy restoration of King Charles the Second and the reestablishment of the Church of England by the Act of Uniformity, many of the Subjects of this Kingdom, who were so unhappy as to have some scruples about conforming to the Rites of the said Church did transplant themselves and Families into the said Colony; by means whereof the greatest part of the Inhabitants there were Protestant Dissenters from the Church of England, and through the equality and Freedom of the said Fundamental Constitutions of the said Colony, all the Inhabitants there lived in great peace, and even the Ministry of the Church of England had support from Protestant Dissenters; And the number of the Inhabitants, and the trade of the said Colony daily increased, to the great improvement of her Majesty's Customs, and the manifest advantage of the Merchants and Manufacture of this Kingdom.

That in the year 1703 when a new General Assembly was to be chosen, which by the Constitution is to be chosen once in two years, the Election was managed with very great partiality and Injustice, and all sorts of people, even servants, Negroes, Aliens, Jews and Common sailors were admitted to vote in Elections.

That the Ecclesiastical Government of the said Colony is under the Jurisdiction of the Lord Bishop of London; but the Governor, and his Adherents, have at last, which the said Adherents had often threatened, totally abolished it; for the said Assembly hath lately passed an Act, whereby Twenty Lay Persons, therein named, are made a Corporation for the Exercise of several Exorbitant Powers, to the great injury and oppression of the People in general, and for the exercise of all ecclesiastical Jurisdiction, with absolute Power to deprive any Minister of the Church of England of his Benefice not only for his immorality, but even for his imprudence or incurable Prejudices and Animosities between such Minister and his Parish; and the only Church of England Minister that is established in the said Colony, the Reverend M<sup>r</sup> Edward Marston hath already been cited before their Board, which the Inhabitants of that Province take to be a high ecclesiastical Commission Court, destructive to the very Being and Essence of the Church of England, and to be had in the utmost detestation and abhorrence by every man that is not an enemy to our Constitutions in Church and State.

That in the said General Assembly another Act was passed to incapacitate every Person from being a Member of any General Assembly, that should be chosen for the time to come, unless he had taken the Sacrament of the Lords Supper according to the Rites of the Church of England, whereby all Protestant Dissenters are made Uncapable of being of the said Assembly, and yet by the said Act all persons who will take an Oath, that they have not received the Sacrament in any Dissenting

Congregation for one year past, tho' they have not received it in the Church of England, are made Capable of being of the said Assembly. And we take the Liberty humbly to inform your Lordships, that in the Preamble to the said Act it is asserted, that by the laws and usage of England, all Members of Parliament are obliged to conform to the Church of England by receiving the Sacrament of the Lords Supper according to the Rites of the said Church, which Assertion is notoriously and manifestly false That this Act was passed in an illegal manner by the Governors calling the Assembly to meet the 26th of April, when it then stood prorogued to the 10th of May following, and yet this Act hath been ratified by the Lords Proprietors here in England, who refused to hear what could be offered against it, and contrary to the Petition of above One hundred and seventy of the chief Inhabitants of the said Colony, and of several eminent Merchants trading thither, and though the Commons of the same Assembly quickly after passed another Bill to repeal it, which the Governor rejected.

That the said Grievances daily increasing, your Petitioner Joseph Boone is now sent by many Principal Inhabitants and Traders of the said Colony, to represent the languishing and Dangerous Condition of the said Colony, to the Lords Proprietors thereof, but his humble applications to them have hitherto had no effect.

That the Ruin of the said Colony would be to the great disadvantage of the Trade of this Kingdom, to the apparent prejudice of her Majesty's Customs and the great Benefit of the French, who watch all opportunities to improve their own settlements in those parts of America.

Wherefore your Petitioners most humbly pray your Lordships to take the deplorable State of the said Colony into your consideration, and to provide such relieve for it, as to your Lordships in your great Wisdom shall seem proper

And your Petitioners shall ever pray &c.

May it please your Lord<sup>ps</sup>

In obedience to your Lords<sup>ps</sup> commands signified to us by Mr Popple, wee have perused the Address of the Right Hon<sup>ble</sup> the Lords spiritual and temporal in Parliament assembled to her Maj<sup>ty</sup> the 12th of March last relating to the two lawes lately passed in y<sup>e</sup> Province of Carolina and the copys we received from your Lordships of two Grants of that Province made by King Charles the second to the Duke of Albemarle and others, the one dated the 24th of March in y<sup>e</sup> 15th the other the 30th of June in the 17th year of his reign whereby is also granted to the Proprietors for y<sup>e</sup> good and happy Government of that Province, powers to make laws with the assent and approbation of the freemen there inhabiting soe as such Laws be consonant to reason and as near as may be conveniently agreeable to y<sup>e</sup> Laws mentioned in the said address not being consonant to reason and being repugnant to the Laws of England are not warranted by y<sup>e</sup> said Charter But wee are humbly of opinion were made without any sufficient power or authority derived from the crown of England And therefore doe not oblige or bind the Inhabitants of that Colony and her Majesty may lawfully declare those Laws as to the matters therein contained mentioned in the said address to be null and void, and command that the same shall not be put in execution or observed And may also require and command the Proprietors and Assembly of that Province by Act of Assembly to enact and declare the same to be null and void, And wee are further of opinion that the making such laws is an abuse of the Power granted of making laws and will be a forfeiture of such power And that that power may be seized into her Majesty's hands by seire facias in y<sup>e</sup> Chancery on the Patents, or by Quo Warranto in the Queens Bench if the Laws were approved and confirmed by the present proprietors which doth not fully appear to have been soe by the said Address.

I. It is the misfortune of this Country to be bounded on the Southward by a Proprietary Government and those concerned therein are always watching opportunitys of extending there bounds to the prejudice of this Her Majestys Colony. The bounds of Carolina has for a long time been contested and some endeavours used from time to time to bring that matter to an accommodation but no progress has yet been made therein. The fresh eneroachments made by that Government obliged the Burgesses of the last Assembly to address the late Governor to have the bounds laid out which had he lived we believe he would have endeavoured to oblige the Government of Carolina to agree to and to bear their proportion of that charge that must necessarily accrue thereon. All that could be done in the meantime was to write to the Governor of Carolina to prohibit the like eneroachments for the future untill the bounds be settled as Your Lordships will see in the Council Journals pag. 16 & 57. We shall only observe to your Lordships that while a restriction continues on her Maj. land and at the same time the Proprietors have land so near to be taken up on easier terms they will draw to them many of the inhabitants of this Colony who would otherwise be rather desirous to take land of Her Majesty.

Whereas this board are informed that the Surveyor of North Carolina hath lately made Diverse Surveys within the bounds of this Government and that severall of the Inhabitants of this County have been deluded by the Specious pretence of the said Surveyors and others out of a design of Creating to themselves a Title to Diverse Tracts of Land in those parts under pretence of making Entrys for the same as under the Government of Carolina, altho the said Government can't have the least Shadow of Right thereto by any thing that appears from their charter For preventing her Majestys subjects Inhabitants of this Colony from being further imposed upon. This board hath thought fitt to publish & declare that as they Conceive her Majesty hath Right to all the Lands lying on this side of Weyanook Creek the utmost boundary of the Propriaty of Carolina, and therefore all such persons as have made any Entrys or Surveys or taken any patents from the Government of Carolina for any Lands on the Nottoway or Meherrine Rivers or to the Northward of the said Weyanoak Creek are not to expect any benefit thereby but that whenever the divideing Line between this Government and Carolina shall be run and Leave given for takeing up the Lands in those parts, all such Entrys will be so far from giving them any preference that such persons as have taken the same will rather be excluded from the benefit thereof as having justly forfeited the favour of the Government by Disclaiming as far as in them lyes her Majestys Title to those Lands and ordered that Publication hereof be made in all Churches Chappells or Courthouses on the South side James River and that the Respective Sheriffs take care the same be done Accordingly.

Yours of the 26th of October came to my hand 79 the Bearer late last night. I assure you there is no thing less intended by this Government than to make any encroachment on her Majestys Government of Virginia so that if any Error hath been Committed by any of the Officers It is without either our Knowledge or Direction. I will speedily lay the matter before her Maj<sup>ty</sup>s Council for that Province and with their advice will take all necessary care in this affair whereof you shall have account with all speed from

NORTH CAROLINA December 10th 1706Hon<sup>ble</sup> Sir

The shortness of the time between the receipt of your Letter and the Time appointed for the Examining of the Evidences therein mentioned together with the badness of the weather hindered our having some persons at the times and places; I therefore desire you to favour me with Copys of the Depositions that were taken in that matter. I have also with the Advice of the Council thought necessary to examine some of our ancient Inhabitants on the same questions and have appointed the 8th of January next at the House of Edward Moseley Esq<sup>r</sup> in Chowan where if you think fitt to appoint any persons to be present they shall be very kindly rec<sup>d</sup>. If not I will carefully send you copies of the depositions

SIR,

I have just now received yours of the 10th of last month and should have been glad to have sent you the Copys of the Depositions desired but they are not yet returned to the Council Office. Time is now so short that it is impossible for me to send proper persons to attend at the Examinations of your Evidences which you say is to be the 10th instant. ## LETTER TO THE VIRGINIA COUNCIL

NORTH CAROLINA June 17th 1707Hon<sup>ble</sup> Gent :

We received yours containing the complaints of the Maharine Indians pretending encroachments made on them by the Inhabitants of this Government &c Upon consideration of which we thought we could not better answer yours than by sending you the true state of that matter being always as willing to give all reasonable satisfaction concerning our proceedings as Zealous to assert the undoubted Right of the Lords proprietors and her Majestys Subjects of this Governments Of a long time before the memory of man the Lands on the Southside of that River which is now called Maharine were in the Rightfull possession of the Chowanoake Indians by Virtue of a Grant from the Yawpin Indians and no other Indians (as plainly appears by successive accounts of that Nation by Original Writings and undoubted evidences) has had any Right to any Land there to this day and when first the Lords Proprietors of Carolina by Virtue of their Charter from his late Majesty King Charles the 2<sup>d</sup> took possession of this province that nation submitted themselves to the Crown of England under the Dominion of the Lords proprietors and continued peaceably till about the year 1675 about which time by incitements of the Rebelious Indians of Virginia who fled to them they committed hostility upon the Inhabitants of this Government in Violation of their Treaty Wherenpon by virtue of the Authority for making peace and Warr granted to the Lords proprietors by their Charter, open war was made upon the said Indians in prosecution whereof (by Gods assistance though not without the loss of many men) they were wholly subdued and had Land for their habitation assigned them where they remained to this day so that all the tract of Land on the Southside of the Maherine River was at that Time resigned into the immediate possession of the Lords Proprietors of Carolina as of their province of Carolina and has been peaceably by them held without any Claime now thirty years during which Time the Maherine Indians removing themselves from their ancient place of habitation (where by Virtue of a Treaty with Commissioners appointed by his late Maj<sup>ty</sup> King Charles 2nd they were settled) placed themselves at the mouth of the Maherine River on the North side and a great part of the Tract of Land on the southside lyeing wast some of their straglers planted corne and built Cabbins on the Chowanacke old fields and continued more and more to make their Ineroachments till they became an Intolerable annoyance to her Majestys subjects Commuting Repeated Injurys upon their stocks and making frequent affrays upon their persons as far as Moratuck River for the necessary Redressing of which growing Ineroachments and preventing worse mischiefs which is daily threatened and Reasonably feared, the Government here (and which was the least that they in discharge of their duty could do) held a treaty with the Chiefs of the said Indians and instead of insisting upon satisfaction for the wrongs already done were content to make only necessary provision for the security of her Majesty's subjects for the future. In order to which it was concluded that the stragling and vagrant Indians of that Nation should remove to their town on the North side of the River that towne they should peaceably enjoy for a certaine tribute which was as we believe the first title that ever they had to it for their treaty with the Comm<sup>rs</sup> aforementioned gives them no more right to the Land whereon they now dwell than it would do to Land on the Northside Potomaek or the southside of Cape Feare if they should remove themselves to either of those places: and it seems to us yet more advisable and would tend more to her Majestys service and present settlement as well of Virg<sup>a</sup> as of this Province that they in force of their said treaty and for preserving of their Right to their Majesty's protection by virtue of it should be compelled to return to the place of their former habitation, than that they should be suffered to possess the mouth of a navigable River considering how they have hitherto behaved themselves which we seriously Recommend to your Consideration noe need to Relate to you our Reasons for makeing the Maherine River the bounds who are all very well acquainted with y<sup>e</sup> Indians planting Corne without fence so that no English can seate near them without danger of trespassing by their Cattle and Horses and which y<sup>e</sup> Indians and especially that Nation are very ready to Revenge without measure, so that the Question is not between the Right of Lewis Williams and ye Maherine Nation but whether near a hundred familys of her Majty's subjects of Carolina should be diseased of their freehold to lett a few vagrant and Insolent Indians rove where they please without any Right, and Contrary to their Agreement besides we have always thought it necessary that the Indians should live together in townes where all their young men may be under the immediate inspection of their own Govern<sup>rs</sup> to prevent their private mischiefs that may be more easily done and concealed in single and separate familys Your proposition concerning further settlement We in all friendship recd. but because of the uncertainty we could not proceed to make any order or proposition in answer to it till by the Copys of the Depositions to be taken on your behalf which we hoped to receive we might have certain Information how far the Contraverted Grounds was extended to us ward we knowing no bounds to Carolina but Weyanoake River till further informed intending no further to enter into that Controversie but only to Represent the Case to the Lords Proprietors in order to their laying it before her sacred Majesty Seeing no cause to doubt of the success in so clear a Case. To this we add that Lewis Williams can't be called any new settlement for he had Right to that Land some yeares agoe And he has been hindered settleing by those Indians who have dallyed with this Government from time to time by promise to Depart and at last being called to shew reason of their Delay they only could alledge that they had cleared some ground for which they desired satisfaction and Williams being willing to be in peaceable possession of his Land at any Rate Condisended to pay them a horse and fifteen bushells of corne which was all they at that time desired & the Greatest part they have received and ye Remainder has been tendered but upon their Return from Virginia they have Refused to receive the Remaining part and made a barbarous assault upon him in his own house so that his Life is doubted of and his family in Danger of further trouble from which we believe it our Duty to rescue him for we can't interprett your Propositions to mean that in the mean time any of her Majestys subjects should be left to the merciless insults of savage people but that every one in the Respective Governments as they are now deemed should quietly enjoy their propertys till the matter be determined to which we readily assent and as soon as we know how far you do claime shall take all necessary order in it

We have sent you inclosed Copys of such Depositions as we have taken relating to the bounds and desire you will send us those that have been taken by you according to your promise. We are

I have sent a Sloop well mann'd to North Carolina to demand some persons who have fledd hence from Justice, and to learne what Law is made there to harbour others from paying their just debts which has occasioned great numbers to flye from this Province thither to the great detriment of Merchants in England and cheating the honest well meaning people of this Country, for if they have as I am informed made a law there to protect any person from being sued during five years. It will give a handle to many knavish people to gaine large credit and run thither to defraud their just creditors, and not only tend to the lessening the number of taxable people here, but to the depopulating her Maj<sup>ties</sup> more usefull adjacent Colonys and Plantations. And now as our Poverty increases so fresh villanys are carryed on entirely to subvert the Government; When I have their answer I will transmitt it to your hon<sup>ble</sup> Board, and doubt not that your Lords<sup>ts</sup> will find out an Expedient to have this pernicious practice stopt, otherwise many persons will go to North Carolina and her Maj<sup>ty</sup>s Revenue hence be suncke to a Scantling.

COLL: SEYMOUR TO THE LORDS OF TRADE.

AUGUST 16th 1707.

May it please your Lordships

My last to your hon<sup>ble</sup> Board was of the 10th of June last by Cap<sup>t</sup> Edward Ratehbold in the Elizabeth of Liverpoole which I hope ere this has had the good fortune to Kiss your handes, and having therein acquainted your Lordships, that the Proprietary Government of North Carolina had made an Act of Assembly which seemed to be of pernicious consequence to this her Ma<sup>ty</sup>s more usefull Plantation of Maryland, I have since taken care to procure a Copy of it, which herewith I presume to inclose to your Lord<sup>shps</sup> and cannot doubt but you will be of opinion, the Encouragement & Protection therein given to the people of this Province (the generality whereof are much indebted to y<sup>e</sup> Merch<sup>ts</sup> in England & others, & can have no such Expectation of protection here) is an extraordinary inducement to them to desert their Plantations and Cropps here and withdraw themselves where they may live so many years undisturbed which will not a little conduce to the lessening her Maj<sup>ties</sup> Revenue of tobaccos, if not tymely prevented by your Lordships wisdom, for I assure your Lordships many persons from this Province with their whole familys are of late years removed thither, and purely on that Score.

My Lords at the same time when I lay this, I can but think, necessary as well as true Representation before your hono<sup>ble</sup> Board, I must not omitt doing the Government of Carolina the Justice to informe your Lord<sup>shps</sup> that upon my application and sending a Sloop in Quest of Richard Clarke and his accomplices, those notorious disturbers of this her Maj<sup>ties</sup> Government here, the Deputy Gov<sup>r</sup> and the whole country exprest their utmost Resentment against those Villains as well in words as actions by endeavouring to take Clarke and actually surrendering to the person I sent on this occasion, two of his associates Daniel Wells & Charles Harrison who accompanied him thither and are now both in safe custody in this Province.

Upon Richard Clarkes first going to Carolina he called himself by the name of Robert Garrett; saying he was S<sup>r</sup> Nathaniel Johnson's nephew, & pretended to be a Quaker, since which upon his return to this Province where he now is concealed and harboured by many of his Friends he has wrote severall Letters to me under a Quaker stile, sticking them up in the night at outhouses & dropping them in the Roads. In some he sues for pardon offering to discover the ill practices of many of his confederates, and in others he threatens to bring thirty thousand of the French Indians upon the country by Land and to direct the French to bring a Naval Force by water to invade the Province, if he is not pardoned within some small tyme which he is pleased to affix; yet notwithstanding his most exquisite villany and the ill principles of many loose, idle persons among us besides the general calamity of Debts and mortgaged Estates for much more than their worth, I doubt not but to preserve what her Maj<sup>ty</sup> has been graciously pleased to comitt to my care and conduct (the Peace and Tranquility of this our Province) from any homebred villany or other Forreign attempts and have put the country in the best posture of Defence it is at present capable of, having appointed the Officers of the Militia of the most loyall and ablest of the Inhabitants, and the public stores of arms and ammunition being now (God be thanked) pritty well supplied and fixed. But I have some satisfaction to heare her Majesty has thought fit to send so good an officer to be my neighbour in Virginia.

The Chiefe of the Quakers here understanding Clarkes practice and that he wrote his letters in their stile, presented me the inclosed address to which I could not in justice do less than make the returne endorsed on the Back thereof.

I dare not presume by this uncertain conveyance to send your Lord<sup>ships</sup> the Laws and Journalls of Assembly but will not omitt to transmitt them by the first Man of Warr which this Country has long uneasily expected and am with the highest Reguard and duty imaginable My Lords

Your most obedient humble servant

VIRGINIA SS: JOURNAL OF THE COUNCIL.

At a Council held at the Capitol 2nd September 1707.

Whereas this Board have received information that one Co<sup>ll</sup> Pollock of North Carolina with several armed men of that Province did lately in an hostile manner sett upon the Maherine Indian Settlement and having taken 36 of the said Indians prisoners kept them two days in a fort till with the excessive heat and for want of water they were almost destroyed after having broke down their cabins and committed several other outrages threatening to cut off their corn and to turn them off their land This Board taking into consideration the ill consequences of such unwarrantable proceedings not only as they respect the frightening the said Indians from their obedience to this her Maj Govern<sup>t</sup> of Virginia but irritating the said Indians to revenge themselves as well upon her Maj. subjects of this Govern<sup>t</sup> as upon those of Carolina It is therefore Ordered that a letter be writt to the Deputy Gov<sup>r</sup> or President and council of North Carolinā asserting her Maj. right to the land upon which the Maherine Indians now live and to acquaint the said Deputy Gov<sup>r</sup> or Presid<sup>t</sup> & Council of North Carolina the said Indians have their dependance upon and are under the protection of this Government according to the Treatys of peace, made with them & to desire y<sup>r</sup> s<sup>d</sup> President & Council not to molest the s<sup>d</sup> Indians until the matter of Right concerning the Lands whereon they live be determined.

Ordered, that Coll: Harrison send to the Great men of the Maherine Indians and caution them not to leave their Town upon any threatening that may be made them by the Inhabitants of Carolina and to assure them that if any disturbance be offered them by any person within that Province the Cōuncil will take care to protect them and in the mean time to Caution the said Indians that they offer no provocation to the Inhabitants of Carolina.

SEPTEMBER the 15th 1707.

Gentlemen

I am to own the receipt of yours of the 17th of June in answer to a Letter from myself and her Maj<sup>ty's</sup> Council of Virginia of the 30th of April proceedings in relation to the Maherine Indians. Soon after your Letter came to my hand there was a meeting of Council to whom I communicated it and the Depositions therewith sent and am now to acquaint you with our observations on both. The main design of all your Depositions is to make out that the Nottoway River and Weyanoake Creek are one and the same and on this supposition we perceive you lay the foundation of your pretended Title to the Lands in Dispute to prove that this is an Error we send you here enclosed Copys of the Depositions of Two of our ancient Inhabitants who Knew Weyanoake Creek before the Proprietary Government of Carolina had a being the persons themselves are of such honest reputations their Knowledge so ancient their Testimonys so positive that we think we have no need to Examine any other though we could have a multitude whose Knowledge of these parts are of equal Date with your witnesses and some of the best Gentlemen in the County who have Known Nottoway River as long or longer and never heard it called by any other name not to mention the little credit which ought to be given to such persons whose understanding and character were Known here to be none of the best before they took shelter in Carolina.

As to the Right which you say was derived from the Yawpine Indians by Grant to the Chowanoakes and from them acquired by the Lords Proprietors by Conquest We can't apprehend it so easie a matter to ascertain what Right an Indian Nation had to such a particular Tract of Land before the memory of man their Title being as precarious as their meanes of Transmitting the same to posterity are Defective but supposing the whole to be True which we must take Leave to doubt of till we are better satisfied of the Validity of those imaginary Indian writings and Records yet it will not follow that any such acquisition Could give the Proprietors a Right to Lands to the Northward of Weyamoke Creek which is the bounds of the Charter and whoever maintains such a position must at the same time forget by what means the Proprietors came to have a Right to any Lands in America and that their Title to the same can be extended no further than their Grant from the Crown gives them Leave.

We admire to hear it offered that a Clandestine Treaty between the Government of Carolina and the Maherine Indians should Create a Title to their Lands or or be a pretence of exacting Tribute from them who were long before Tributary to her Majesty Dominion of Virginia by Virtue of a treaty which has the Royall Approbation And it is as Strange that the Government of Carolina should go about to prescribe bounds to those Indians in Lands which their Charter gives them no Right to at least which hath been alwayes Claimed by the Government of Virginia If the Indians had eneroached on their Neighbours who were really within the bounds of the Carolina Charter the Government of Virginia would alwayes have been ready to have redressed any such injurys and Restrained the Indians from the like practices but but no such complaints have ever been made here On the Contrary it will be found that the Government of Carolina have been the Agressors and by granting Lands to any one that would purchase it without considering whether they had Right or not so to do have endeavoured so to streighten the said Indians that they might be no longer able to subsist where they live in hopes afterwards to possess themselves of their Lands by the same Title they hold the other Lands thereabouts.

We believe it her Majestys Right to assigne Land for the Tributary Indians in any part of her Dominion of Virginia without being accountable to the Government of Carolina, and till her Majesty has Determined the Extent of the Carolina Charter. We shall not think fitt to alter their present Settlement especially since we know the Indians have possesst their Lands long before Lewis Williams had any pretence of Right to his and we cannot perceive how the Supporting the possession of those Indians can be called a disseising her Majestys subjects of Carolina of their freehold if their settling there be (as we doubt not it will appear) without any Title: for several of those hundred familys you mention would never have sought for Grants from Carolina if the patenting of the same Lands had not been Restrained here. And since we have now by the inclosed Depositions acquainted you how far we claimed on her Maj<sup>ty</sup> behalf We expect the performance of your promise that no further Settlements be made there till her Majestys Determination of the bounds.

You conclude your letter with assuring us of your ready Assent that every one in the Respective Governments as they are now deemed should enjoy their Propertys till the matter be Determined. But we soon found that those were only Words of Course for it was not long after the receipt of the same Letter that Information was brought hither that one Coll<sup>o</sup> Pollock of Carolina with about sixty armed men in an hostile manner sett upon the Maherine Indian towne makeing all the Indians that were therein prisoners and so keeping them pent up for two days in a small fort till with the straitness of the place the excessive heat of the weather and their want of Water they were almost famished, threatening further to burn their Cabbins and destroy their Corne if they did not remove from that place and to show he meant to be as good as his word he pulled down some of their Cabbins and broke and destroyed such poor furniture as the Indians had therein, and to make that Action the more unaccountable (to give it no more name) the said Pollock had the assurance to affirm he had the Queens order for what he did.

Gentlemen your own Letter plainly intimates that you are not insensible of the Maherine Indians being under his Majesty Subjection as of her Dominion of Virginia by Virtue of a Treaty Concluded with them and that they are thereby entitled to her Majestys protection It is then as plain that those Indians are not to be considered as a Nation of Savages on whom the Government of Carolina have power to Revenge injuries by force of Armes but as her Majestys Subjects who are as much under her protection as any of her Subjects of Virginia and if they have committed any Trespasses on the bodys of Lands of any who pretend themselves Inhabitants of Carolina It would have showed a greater Duty to her Majesty and tended more to the preserving of friendship and good Neighborhood between Virginia and Carolina to have made application for Redress here (where you might have been assured of speedy Justice) than to have proceeded by way of hostility which is a method proper only for Sovereigne powers but can never be justifiable in persons under the same allegiance. We might with as much justice treat those who possess the adjoining Lands (and pretend to belong to Carolina) with the same severity as you have used those poor Indians since we have at least as much Reason to believe them within the bounds of Virginia as you have to imagine the Maharine Indians to be within yours and have as little doubt of your Ability to effect our Resentment had not our Duty to our Majesty a greater influence on us than our Vanity to show our Power. We have always thought the matter of Right Could not be Determined but by her Majestys Royal Authority and were willing to proceed no further than we could justify to her Majesty to whom we are accountable but it seems our Lenity has been misinterpreted either for a Distrust of the Right we are prosecuting or of our ability to prevent the Rougher measures of those who have no better warrant for their intrusions than the sole consideration of their own private interest Joined with a good assurance We leave it with you to consider whether this late Action of Coll<sup>o</sup> Pollock be agreeable to that profession of friendship which you make in your Letter And if this late attempt be not the ready way to irritate those Indians to shake off their obedience to her Majesty and by bringing forreigne Indians to Revenge their Wrongs involve both us and yourselves in war and all this for no other Account but to satisfy the selfish interest of Coll<sup>o</sup> Pollock and some few insatiable people who aim at the Indians land We think ourselves obliged in her Majestys name and on Behalf of this her Majestys Colony to demand Reparation for so unwarrantable an attempt and that you'll punish Coll<sup>o</sup> Pollock and those concerned with him as such an insolence Deserves But if no such satisfaction be given us we shall then conclude he acted by your authority who have now the Administration of the Government in that province and shall so represent it to her Majesty in justification of what we shall hereafter be obliged to do in asserting . . . and maintaining her Majestys just Title to those Lands and protecting the Indians according to the articles of peace concluded with them and we doubt not her Majestys gracious approbation of our proceedings

Hon<sup>ble</sup> Sir

By your messenger I received yours of the 15th instant with the Depositions inclosed which I shall lay before the Governor and Council the first opportunity by this I acknowledge your favour and am

Sir your very humble Servant

W. GLOVER

To the Queen's most Excell<sup>t</sup> Majesty
May it please your Majesty

Colonel Seymour Your Majesty's Governor of Maryland having transmitted to us the Copy of an Act lately passed in North Carolina Entitled An Act to encourage the settlement of this Country, We humbly take leave to lay the same before Your Majesty, with our humble opinion thereupon.

The purport of the said Act is as follows.

That no persons that shall after the Ratification thereof transport themselves into that Province shall be arrested sued or Impleaded in any Court, or be Imprisoned for any Debt, whether the same be by bill Bond, or other Reckoning, or account whatsoever contracted before their Arrival in that Province, till & after five years after their said Arrival Excepting such as who shall be indebted to your Majesty or to the Government in which they lived before their coming thither; And it further excepts all persons transporting themselves from your Majesty's Colony of Virginia, and such who have contracted Debts within 6 months before their arrival in the said Provinces.

The said Act further provides that if any persons so transporting themselves, and having had the benefit of this Act, shall depart out of that Province, and afterwards return again, shall not then receive any benefit by the said Act.

Upon this we humbly take leave to represent to your Majesty that notwithstanding the exceptions in the said Act, it appears to us to be of very pernicious consequence to your Majesty's Province of Maryland, and the other more Northern Plantations: For that the Encouragement & Protection by this Act given to such who shall retire thither is such that great Numbers of Debtors (particularly in Maryland, where the generality are much indebted to the merchants in this Kingdom) will be induced to quit their settlements and withdraw themselves to Carolina, where by virtue of this Act they may continue 5 years exempted from the payment of their just debts which mischief if not timely prevented, will very much lessen Your Majesty's Revenue in the Duty's upon Tobacco; wherein we are the more confirmed by what Your Majesty's said Governor of Maryland has writ us Viz<sup>t</sup> That several families have already removed themselves thither, where they may be out of the reach of their Creditors.

We further humbly represent to your Majesty, That This Act not being Consonant to reason, nor agreeable to the Laws and Customs of this Kingdom, which the Lords Proprietors are Obligated to observe in the passing of Laws, the said Act ought to be repealed. But that Your Majesty may be fully Apprised of this matter, We humbly lay before Your Majesty the Opinion of Your Majesty's late Attorney and Solicitor General Upon a former Act of Carolina, which Opinion we conceive applyable in All respects to the present Act Viz:

That by the Grants of that Province made by his late Majesty King Charles the second, bearing Date the 24th of March in the Fifteenth and 30th of June, in the seventeenth years of his Reign, a power of making Laws with the Assent and Approbation of the Freemen there Inhabiting, is granted to the Proprietors, for the Good & Happy Government of that Province, so as such Laws be Consonant to Reason and as near as may be conveniently agreeable to the Laws and Customs of England; And they were of Opinion that Laws not consonant to reason and repugnant to the Laws of this Kingdom, are not warranted by the said Charters, And that Your Majesty may declare those Laws to be Null & Void; That Your Majesty may Command that the same shall not be put in Execution or observed; And may also require and Command the Proprietors and Assembly of that Province by Act of Assembly to Enact & declare the same to be Null & Void. And your Majesty's said Attorney and Solicitor General were further of Opinion that the making such Laws is an Abuse of the Power Granted of making Laws, and will be a forfeiture of such Power, and that that Power may be seized into Your Majesty's hands by seire facias in the Chancery, on the Patents, or by Quo Warranto in Your Majesty's Court of Queens Bench, if the Laws were Approved and Confirmed by the present Proprietors.

Whereupon having had this matter under consideration, and concurring with the above Report of Your Majesty's said Attorney and Solicitor General; We doe humbly offer that your Majesty be pleased by your Order in Council to declare the said Law, to be null & void, and that your Majesty be further pleased to signify Your Royal pleasure to the Proprietors and Assembly of that Province, that they do not permit the said Law to be put in Execution, but to declare the same Null & Void, as was done by your Majesty's Order in Council of the 10th of June 1706 upon the Laws therein Mentioned.

The making of such a Law We conceive to be an Abuse of the power granted to the said Proprietors, and a forfeiture of such, their Charters, Which may be Vacated by due Course of Law

All which is most Humbly Submitted

AN ACT TO ENCOURAGE THE SETTLEMENT OF THIS

Whereas it hath pleased Almighty God so to bless and prosper the English plantations on the maine Land of America that all the Sea Coast from the most Easterne parts of New England to the Southermost part of Carrolina with all the Ports and Harbours thereon are possest by English under the dominion of our most gracious Soverreign Lady Ann by the Grace of God of England Scotland France and Ireland Queen Defender of the faith save only one Tract of land lying in this Government which lying waste the Communication of her Maj<sup>ties</sup> Subjects by land is not only interrupted but the Enemy in time of Warr and Pyrates in time of Peace have hitherto made use of the Harbours therein to careen and fitt their vessells as also to Wood and Water to the great annoyance of her Maj<sup>ties</sup> Subjects trading along the Coast and the Place being inhabited (as has been lately discovered) only by some fugitive Indians under no manner of Government and living chiefly by Rapine who do murder or hold in Slavery all persons that either by Shipwrack or passing in small vessells so unhappily fall under their Power And whereas the Inhabitants of this Government by reason of their fewness are subject to the dayly Insults of the Heathen owing their Lives and safety's to the courtesy of the Heathen rather then their own strength, therefore for the more speedy peopling the said Tract of Land and for the mitcing her Maj<sup>ty</sup> Empire in America and preventing the Enemy from Harbouring in those parts for the subducing the Inhabitants and security of her Maj<sup>ties</sup> Subjects trading along the sea coast as also of the Inhabitants settled in this Government we pray that it may be enacted and it is hereby enacted by his Excell: the Palatine & the rest of the true and absolute Lords Prop<sup>r</sup> by and with the consent & advice of this present grand assembly and the authority thereof. And it is hereby enacted that no person or persons whatsoever who from and after ratification of this act shall transport themselves into this Government and shall continue to be an Inhabitant or Inhabitants here to plant & inhabit shall be arrested sued or impleaded in any Court or imprison'd for any debt whither the same be by Bill Bond or other recōning or acc<sup>t</sup> whatsoever contracted before their arrival here till and after five years after their arrival Provided allways that this act nor anything therein contained shall in no wise be construed to protect any person or persons Indebted to our Sovereigne Lady the Queen her Heires and successors or to the public account of the place or Government where they have lived or as Guardians & Trustees for Orphans Estates nor any person or persons who shall transport him or themselves from our neighbouring Government her Maj<sup>ties</sup> Dominions and Colony of Virginia nor any persons indebted to any of her Maj<sup>ties</sup> Subjects living within the aforesaid Collony of Virginia who upon pretence of coming from any other place shall plead the benefitt of the said act nor any persons indebted for any wares, goods and merchandizes the effects whereof they shall bring into or otherwise receive within this Government nor any person indebted for any debts contracted upon any account whatsoever within six months before their arrival here Provided also and it is hereby Enacted by the authority aforesaid that what person or persons so ever shall at any time hereafter transport him or themselves into this Government and having once had the benefitt of this act shall depart hence and againe afterwards transported him or themselves into this Government shall have or receive no benefitt or advantage by such his or their transportation anything herein contained to y<sup>e</sup> contrary notwithstanding

MR. GORDON TO THE SECRETARY.

Sir:

We are just come to anchor in Linhaven Bay, after almost three months passage and much bad weather. I find we shall get easier to North Carolina from hence than we expected, whither we design to set forward, God willing, tomorrow morning. We are just weighing again for York River, from whence it seems sloops frequently go to Carolina though the accounts I have had about the distance differ very much, some calling it seven, some fifteen, others thirty leagues, and all the Maps I have seen are equally imperfect: we have no favorable character of the Country, and it will be hard if after so much rough weather we have met with at Sea, we should have to do with rugged tempers ashore, but whatever inconveniences we find, as we shall always make the best of them, so we shall always take all care to answer to everything the good expectations (I hope) the Honorable Society has of our endeavours. I have no time to write so fully as I would the opportunity by this ship being as sudden as accidental. Therefore I hope you'll please to excuse this abruption.

Your very humble Servant

MR. ADAMS TO THE SECRETARY

VA., 10 June, 1708.

SIR :—

Mr. Gordon and I, by the good providence of God, got safe to Virginia the last day of March, from whence we went into North Carolina, and addressed ourselves to the president of the council, who received us with all respect and civility.

The country is divided into four large preeincts, besides a large tract of land called Pamplieg, divided into three preeincts more. I am by the president and council appointed to settle in the preeinct called Pascotank, and to take what care I can of the adjacent preeinct of Caratank [Curra-tuck] beside. There is no church in Pascotank; but the people, upon my being ordered among them, have resolved forthwith to build a church and two chapels of ease, the preeinct being of too great an extent to meet all at one or two places. I have been twice among the people of Caratank preeinct, but could not call a vestry, some of their leading men being out of the country, and the rest unwilling to go about any church affairs till their return. I cannot propose to make them so frequent visits as the faithful discharge of my duty requires, till the extremity of the heat abates a little, which now keeps me from undertaking long and tedious journeys.

Each precinct, by Act of Assembly, allows a minister that resides among them to the value of £30, in the produce of the country, which is equivalent to £10 or £15 sterling. I found by the pious care of our new president, the posture of affairs, as to matter of religion, in a much better condition than might have been expected in a place so destitute of means. I have preached some preparatory sermons to the Lord's Supper, and find many of the people well inclined to receive the sacrament. I hope to be able to give a better account of the country and people by the London fleet. I could not get my goods to Carolina when I first arrived, but am come up again to Virginia to carry them down, and to set out from hence again (God willing) next morning for Carolina (blessed be God), in very good health; and hope the Almighty will enable me in some measure to answer the pious design of so many good men, which shall be the sincere and faithful endeavor of, sir,

Your most obedient and humble servant,

JAMES ADAMS.

Wee are dayly made sensible of the loss and removall of divers Inhabitants and residents in this Province to our neighboring Collonys of Pennsylvania & Carolina; The chief notices whereto are the present Poverty of this Country, the Planters having suffered extreemly this present Warr in the Marketts being shut up so that after the numerous hazards of unseasonable weather, lack of Plants, the Fly, the ground worme the house wormes, it's being house-burnt, frostbitten, the danger of sea and our enemys, all encountered and overcome the freights have not had near the vallue of their labour or expence of servants cloathing &c: and those who have layd out their Cropps with the Merchants in the Country, have not been able to get above three shillings and sixpence <sup>3</sup>/<sub>4</sub> cent so that for many years last past servants and slaves have proved burthensome to many Masters and helpt by hard labour to impoverish them.

The Inhabitants of North Carolina finding in what ill Cirenstances wee are, here many being indebted for more than their Stocks, made an Act of Assembly there, inviting all persons to settle with them under the Protection of five yeares exemption from paying their debts, which has drawn many familys thither, again Pensilvania on the other hand by raising the vallue of their coynes to so extraordinary a height beyond her Maj<sup>ties</sup> Royall Proclamation, and the great enconragment they give to saylors has induced many young freemen artififers and saylors to quit this Province and settle there, so that unles her Maj<sup>ty</sup> be graciously pleased to lay her comands on those Governments to repeale the afore-said Carrolina Act of Assembly and conforme themselves in lowering their coyns according to the Proclamation, there is no likelyhood of preventing her subjects continuall desertion hence to those less profitable Collonys.

As for those miserable people that are so much indebted, I know not why their deplorable circumstances should not be taken into consideration by her Majesty being pleased to recommend to the Generall Assembly an Act of Bankruptey in their favour to acquitt them upon delivering up their all to their Credito<sup>rs</sup> which is as much as can be required and that it shall be Fellony to conceale or imbeazill so that they may be once more enabled to begin the world againe, and her Majesty not lose the use of so many subjects

LETTER TO THE LORD BISHOP OF LONDON.

N. C. 24 Aug. 1708.

May it please Your Lordship,

We esteem it the peculiar and special Blessing of Heaven that we of this poor province are cast so happily under your Lordships patronage, protection and care, whose eminency in propagating religion and establishing of Church Government is conspicuous to all mankind that knows your Lordship, not only within your Lordships diocese but elsewhere and scarcely to be paralleled.

We therefore (in behalf of that part of this province to which we belong) in a deep sense of our duty to God and gratitude to your Lordship do most gladly embrace this seasonable opportunity of making a due return of our humble and unfeigned thanks for the many favors your Lordship hath been pleased to confer upon us, but more particularly for your recommending us to the care of so good and worthy a man, whose prudent and pious example is well worthy our Imitation, suitable to and adorning his profession (a blessing in no place wanted more than in this) wherefore we conceive it our further duty to acquaint your Lordship that the Reverend Mr. Gordon is universally approved on by all in General amongst us, whose sweetness of disposition and spotless conversation is so highly engaged together with his most excellent and practical way of preaching, as hath prevailed even with the very enemies of the Church to be silent at his deserved applause. We therefore most heartily lament his leaving us so soon, but hope for his speedy return (of which we have obtained his promise and doubt not of his performance) assuring your Lordship that in the interim we will use our utmost endeavours to have all things relating to the Church in a better posture for his reception resolving to employ our utmost interest and zeale to further so good and excellent a work by our diligent zeal, wherein we hope for the blessing of Heaven and the continuance of your Lordships favours unto us who have already been pleased to make us so large partakers of your Lord-

MR. ADAMS TO THE SECRETARY.

NORTH CAROLINA, 18th September, 1708.

SIR:—

In my last, by Captain Stuart, I wrote you an account, among other things, what steps I had made in order to administer the sacrament of the Lord's Supper to such as should be religiously disposed; but our unhappy distractions which immediately followed, and the flame the country has continued in ever since, broke my measures as to that, and has made me desist till it shall please God to put an end to the confusion and contentions the whole province is engaged in.

I shall not trouble you with a long narrative of the unhappy circumstances this country at present lies under, because Mr. Gordon can inform you by word of mouth, and, I believe, show a copy of the true state of this province, written by our president, in whose sincerity and integrity you may confide, and who has been no small sufferer for his affection to the Church. I shall only add, that, in general, there are three sorts of people among us: many religious and true members of our communion, some Quakers, and most bred up in ignorance, who neither know nor profess any religion at all; and of these last it is to be hoped our Saviour has a plentiful harvest to be reaped. The Quakers, though not the seventh part of the inhabitants, yet, by the assistance and contrivance of Archdale, a Quaker and one of the lords proprietors, have in a manner the sole management of the country in their hands, and of late years have at their pleasure procured a revolution of government as often as he that sat at the helm seemed to favor our Church, or endeavored to make any provision for the ministry; and if the grievances of the country be not speedily redressed by the proprietors, the Quakers, in conjunction with the Presbyterians (who always, in hopes of preferment, side with those who are in a capacity to promote their interest), will bear down the Church; and instead of our making proselytes, we shall, I am afraid, be hardly able to keep what we have from being perverted and seduced in this place of so great ignorance and enthusiasm. Beside, we shall be engaged in perpetual broils and quarrels (as we are at present); for our old worthy patriots, who have for many years bore rule in the government with great applause, cannot without concern and indignation think of their being turned out of the council and places of trust, for no other reason but because they are members of the Church of England, and that shoemakers and other mechanics should be appointed in their room, merely because they are Quaker preachers and notorious blasphemers of the Church; some of which have declared that, till the Prince of Wales be proved a bastard, the queen can have no pretensions to the crown of England. We are in hopes the lords have been imposed upon by Archdale, and that we shall be redressed from England according to the charter and laws of our country.

In the mean time I shall, by the grace of God, endeavor to behave myself with such moderation, diligence, and fidelity, as not to prejudice the great cause I have in hand.

That part of the country where I am, designed by this fleet to have sent an address of thanks to the society for my being sent among them; but, at my request, they have desisted till our animosities and heats (which already have not been without blood) be composed, and I give a further proof of my ministry.

That I may punctually observe your instructions and commands shall be the constant and faithful desire of, sir,

Your most obedient servant,

JAMES ADAMS.

I am informed from North Carolina that there are very great commotions in that Government occasioned principally by the Quakers, who after they had prevailed with the Lords Proprietors to turn out the Deputy Governor and give the Council (who were most of their persuasion) a power of chusing their own President, made choice of one M<sup>r</sup> Glover, and because they did not find him for their Turn voted him out again, they have had the emning to sett all that Country in a flame and all but themselves in arms against one another. ## GOV. GLOVER TO LORD BISHOP OF LONDON

HAMPTON IN VIRGINIA

25 Sept 1708

MY LORD:—

Beside my own obligations of duty and gratitude, I am engaged by the repeated applications of many of the inhabitants of this place, to offer thanks for your lordship's care over us, and especially in behalf of the parish of Paseotank, where an orderly congregation has been kept together by the industry of a young gentleman whom the parish employed to read the service of the Church, as the law of this place, for want of a minister, doth direct. This gentleman being of an unblemished life, by his decent behavior in that office, and by apt discourses from house to house, according to the capacities of an ignorant people, not only kept those he found, but gained many to the Church in the midst of its enemies, insomuch that the Reverend Richard Marsden, waiting here for a passage to South Carolina, thought it convenient to administer the sacrament of the Lord's Supper, which is the first time I can learn of its being administered in this poor country; this was done on Trinity Sunday, 1706, and the same day, forty-five persons, infants and adults, were baptized.

If any thing, my lord, in this life was able to raise in my breast a joy without mixture, it was to see unbaptized parents, with their children in their arms, offering themselves to Christ, which I have seen, and therefore I ever will rejoice.

This, with the adjacent parish of Caratuck, is now under the care of the Reverend James Adams, to their general satisfaction, whom they have presented to the small provision of £30 per annum each, which our law appoints. The Reverend William Gordon did not find things in so good order in the other two parishes of Chowan and Perquimans, yet I hope the account he will give of his reception will be in some measure satisfactory. It lyeth somewhat on me to make an apology for the vestry of Perquimans, where I live; it is the place where Quakerism has mostly prevailed, and thereby attended with difficulties, for which cause their vestry adjourned their meeting, to have gained the little advantage of my company, till time insensibly slipped from them whilst I was engaged in the unhappy troubles which the enemy, alarmed at the coming over of these worthy gentlemen, has raised against me; under which I still labor, with patience, until the lords proprietors shall apply some remedy to the present disorders, to whom I have faithfully represented the whole matter. By the Reverend William Gordon, who is the bearer hereof (while we bewail his absence here), your lordship will have a more particular account of the state of affairs, as also a copy of the act passed here relating to the Church, in which there is one great error, which was not in my power to prevent, viz., "the subjecting the clergy to be judged by laymen;" although that clause was never interpreted, even by the most zealous assertors of it, to extend to a power of displacing those who were orderly presented and inducted, but only such as came by chance and were agreed with from year to year, as the manner has been formerly among our neighbors of Virginia. I shall only add further, that that clause had not been thought of by the composers of that law, had not the disorderly behavior of Mr. Brett given the occasion.

I most earnestly beg your lordship's pardon for this trouble, and your prayers for this poor country, and in it for me the most unworthy.

Your lordship's most dutiful

And ever bounden servant,

WILLIAM GLOVER.

[B. P. R. O. B. T. VA. 58. VIRGINIA COUNCIL.]

October the 19th 1708.

As to that part of the said Inquirys which concerns the removal of the Inhabitants of this Colony into our neighbouring Plantations & the way to prevent the same.

The Councill are humbly of opinion that the chief cause of this Removal is the want of Land to plant and cultivate the most convenient Land yet unpatented being in jamunky neck & on the South side of Blackwater Swamp, and that shutt up by the orders of the Government this has occasioned many families of old Inhabitants whose former plantations are worn out as well as great number of young people & servants just free to seek for settlements in the province of North Carolina where Land is to be had on much easier Termes than here, & not a few have obtained grants from that Government of the very same land which they would have taken up from this, if liberty had been given for it. For preventing whereof it is humbly proposed that the bounds between Virginia & Carolina be settled as soon as may be, and that free liberty be given to all persons to take up Land anywhere within the bounds of Virginia on the Terms mentioned in the Charter granted by his Majesty King Charles the second and according to the constant Custom of granting Land in this Country from the first settlement thereof.

Another cause of the Removal of our Inhabitants is the exemption granted in most of the proprietary Governments for being sued for debts contracted in other places, this encourages a great many people of uneasy circumstances or dishonest inclinations to run thither to avoid their creditors & secure themselves a safe retreat, & even in the Province of North Carolina where Virginia debts are pleadable there are such difficulties in the prosecution thereof, partly by the distractions of that Country which has no settled Government & partly by the protection those debtors find among persons of the like circumstances & principles that it is but lost labour to sue for them.

As to the Inquiry how & in what particulars the trade of this country is increased or decayed & the reason of such increase or decay.

It is answered that there can't be an exact estimate made how much Tobacco is exported from hence, that being best known to the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Commissioners of the Customs but it is very plain the production of that manufacture has been increasing for sev<sup>n</sup> years, as on the other hand the value thereof hath proportionally decreased, which we conceive is occasioned by the great number of negroes imported and the increase of the Inhabitants, who being only employed in that manufacture, there is much more made than can be possibly vended to any advantage. Another branch of the Trade of the Country is the Indian Trade for skins & furs in which great quantities of Course Cloths from England, powder, shott, gunns, hatchetts etc have been vended annually, but that Trade is now like to be totally wrested out of our Hands by the Government of South Carolina who under pretence that the Indian Nations with whom we Trade live within their Government take upon them to seize the effects of our Traders & to impose high dutys equall to a prohibition on all Commodities carried thither from hence, and the like on the skins brought back this is a new & strange pretence that Virginia who traded with those Indians before the name of Carolina was known should be now abridged especially since most of the Indians with whom we Trade live some hundreds of miles from any of the Inhabitants of Carolina.

* * * * *

As to the number of Inhabitants of this Her Majesty's Colony, according to the list of Tithables taken this year (w<sup>ch</sup> is the best way to Judge of their number) I have computed the labouring Tithable persons to be about thirty thousand, whereof about twelve thousand Negros, the rest being almost all Free men; for the number of white servants is so inconsiderable, that they scarce deserve notice, so few having been imported since the beginning of this War. So that by comparing the present List with those of former years, the number of Tithable persons (among which are included all masters of families and their male children above the age of sixteen) have increased within these three years about three thousand, partly by the Natives coming of age, but chiefly by the importation of Negros. It is possible that when yo<sup>r</sup> Lordships shall compare this Estimate with the List of Negros imported of late (w<sup>ch</sup> in obedience to your Lordships commands I have sent in another Letter) yo<sup>r</sup> Lordships may be induced to expect a far greater encrease to our number, but to satisfy your Lordships therein I beg leave to acquaint yo<sup>r</sup> Lordships, that besides the distempers usual among new Negros w<sup>ch</sup> carry off not a few of them, many of our poorer sort of Inhabitants daily remove into our neighboring Colonies, especially to North Carolina which is the reason that the number of our Inhabitants doth not increase proportionally to what might be expected.

LETTER FROM COLONEL JENINGS, PRESIDENT OF THE COUNCIL OF VIRGINIA TO LORDS OF TRADE.

VIRGINIA November y<sup>e</sup> 27th 1708

May it please yo<sup>r</sup> Lordshps,

It was the 11th of last moneth and the Fleet then sailed, before I had the honor to receive yo<sup>r</sup> Lordships of the 15th of April concerning the Negro Trade Since which I have endeavoured by the means of the proper officers, and the informations of the ancient Inhabitants, to answer Yo<sup>r</sup> Lordps Commands, and in Order thereto have herewith sent yo<sup>r</sup> Lordships an account of all the Negros imported into this Colony from the 24th of June 1699 to the 12th of October last past distinguishing those imported by the Royal African Company (679), and those by seperate Traders (5928), wherein yo<sup>r</sup> Lordships will perceive the latter have had much the greater Share. As to the particular Rates at which those Negros have been sold, they have been variable according to the different times of their coming in and the quality & ages of the Slaves, but the medium for men & women may be reckoned from 20 to 30 pounds a head for those sold by the Company & from 20 to 35£ a head for the like kinds sold by the seperate Traders, who in gen<sup>l</sup> have sold theirs at a higher rate than the Company.

How the Country was supplied with Negros before the Trade to Africa was laid open in the year 1698. I have endeavoured to Inform my Self from some ancient Inhabitants conversant in that Trade as well as by recollecting what hath happened in my own knowledge, & find that before the year 1680 what negros were brought to Virginia were imported generally from Barbados for it was very rare to have a Negro ship come to this Country directly from Africa since that time, and before the year 1698, the Trade of Negros became more frequent, tho not in any proportion to what it hath been of late, during which the Affrican Company sent several Ships and others by their Licence (as I have been informed) having bought their Slaves of the Company brought them in hither for Sale, Among which I remember the late Alderman Jeffrys & S<sup>r</sup> Jeffry Jeffrys were principally concerned, but all this time the price of the Negros was currant from £18 to 25 per head for men and women & never exceeded that Rate. Whether the opening the Trade to Africa having created an Emulation between the Company and the Seperate Traders which should outbid the other in the purchase of their Slaves there, or whether the dexterity of their Factors there in taking advantage of the prevailing humour of our Inhabitants for some years past of buying Negros even beyond their abilities, or the Concurrence of both, hath raised the Rates of Negros so extravagantly I shall not pretend to determine but this I may venture to say that it will be much harder to lower the price again now tis raised unless there be the same Freedom of Trade continued as formerly for the the Inhabitants of this Country in gen<sup>l</sup> will not be so fond of purchasing Negros as of late being sensibly convinced of their Error which has in a manner ruined the Credit of the Country yet there will still be some that must, & others that will at any rate Venture to buy them, & if the Company alone have the Management of the Trade, they'l find pretences enough to keep up the price if not to impose what higher rate they please, which the buyer must submit to, knowing he cannot be supplied by any other hand. As for Vessells trading directly from this place to the Coast of Africa I never knew of any nor is the same practicable this Country not being provided with Commodities suitable for carrying on such a Trade. This is the best account I am able to give in Answer to yo<sup>r</sup> Lordships Commands, wherein if I have failed or mistaken in any point I beg yo<sup>r</sup> Lordships favourable Construction thereof Since I can with truth assure your Lordships that no man hath a greater Desire to serve yo<sup>r</sup> Lordships than * * * * President Glover's writ for choosing Assembly men being read by the Deputy Marshal Daniel Halsy, and Col Cary's writ likewise read by one Robt Fendale whom Col Cary had appointed for that end, the people went to electing: and five being chosen, the electors were polled, being ninety four, and those against them being likewise polled were only sixty five, counting several that were but boys and otherwise unqualified. Notwithstanding which fair election, M<sup>r</sup> Moseley not approving of the choice, he with those others being in all but sixty five, would needs name other five by themselves, and M<sup>r</sup> Moseley and some others of his party making all the confusion they could in the time of election, and endeavouring to stir up strife and quarrels among the people, which if Col Pollock (being on a plantation of his that joined on the election field) had not hindered and persuaded the people to keep the peace, would have ended in blows.

On the eleventh of October the assembly men met at Captain Hecklefields, nine coming for Chowan precinct, five of which were returned by the Deputy Marshall, as chosen by the majority, with the electors' names, being ninety four: and Robert Fendall whom Col Cary had appointed . . . returned both the five chosen by the majority: also the other five chosen by M<sup>r</sup> Moseley and his party, being but sixty five, including boys and all, four of this last five only appearing; the other, thinking his election not to be legal stayed at home. all the nine, presently on their meeting, were commanded, by the rest, out of the House, and then immediately the four chosen by M<sup>r</sup> Moseley and his party called in again, M<sup>r</sup> Moseley himself being one of them; and the other five who were chosen by the majority were forcibly kept out; and could not so much as hear what they had to say; and then chose M<sup>r</sup> Moseley speaker, and presented him to Col Cary and his pretended council.

Indeed it could not be expected otherwise, there being but twenty six assembly men in all, so but twenty one, of which 21 eight ——— the Law requires ——— county of Bath whose interest it was to stand by Col Cary, for fear of being called to account for that seditious Petition before mentioned; and two or three of the other seven from Pasquotanke of the Quaker's choosing them, so that the five from Curetucke could do nothing against all the rest, only some of them left the assembly Then the instrument of writing, or Commission, from the Lords Proprietors, that M<sup>r</sup> Porter brought from England, aforementioned being laid before the pretended assembly, after having heard it read, they carried it by vote, that the Lords Proprietors had not only by that writing suspended the Law made in Col Carys time before mentioned, that laid a fine on any person that should promote (own) Election, and not qualify himself et cet: but also that the Lords Proprietors, by the said writing had suspended likewise that Law, made in Col Daniels time before mentioned, which requires all person in any place of trust or profit to qualify themselves as the law requires et cet. which Law is not in the least mentioned in the said writing. And they might even as well (have) voted and all this was voted and acted before qualifying themselves, clearly contrary to the statute made the 20th of Charles II<sup>d</sup> cap 1 But they took little notice of Laws or Statutes

Now by the articles of agreement the Assembly were to determine who had the most right to the Presidentship: Col Cary and his Council keeping in one room, and President Glover and his Council in another room: and Col. Daniel, by being a Landgrave, having a right to sit in the upper House with the Deputies, used sometimes with Col Cary in his room, but mostly with President Glover, being fully persuaded of his right to the Government.

President Glover, not to be wanting to himself, put in the following writing or protest to the pretended assembly, delivering it to one of the Assembly men, (it) being as follows.

"In order to the settling this Government in peace, and to put Her Majesty's Laws in execution according to the true intent and meaning of the agreement between the Hon. Thomas Pollock and Col. Thomas Cary, it is absolutely necessary, and I do require, that the Gentlemen returned on the Elections should choose themselves a Speaker, and qualify ..... according to law. and I ... .. said members ... .. be made to an Assembly not to a number of persons coming together, no body knows who. Besides it is contrary to all Law, reason, and in a very high degree derogatory to the Queen's Royal Prerogative, and a betraying of the trust reposed in the Lords Proprietors by the Crown, to submit the determinations of the Government to any number of men howsoever chosen and delegated, though by the unanimous voice of the whole countrys Except such persons shall first acknowledge their allegiance to the Queen, which both the Common Law and the Statute Law requires to be done by an oath: with which Law the Queen hath not, and the Lords Proprietors can not dispence. For in doing otherwise we may give the Government up to be disposed by persons who are traitors to the Queen, or maintain the right of the pretended Prince of Wales, and then to such an Assembly I undertake to prove three things: First, that I am the lawfull President of Her Majesty's Council, and that the Execution of their Lordships's commission does belong to me and no other; Secondly; that Col Thomas Cary is not President nor hath been lawfully possessed of, or is invested with any power of Government in this place since his departure to South Carolina; Thirdly: that though the power of proceeding should extinguish in me by death or Command of the Lords proprietors, the said Col Thomas Cary is not qualified to be Elected President, or to exercise any such power. But if the Gentlemen now met together do assume to themselves an arbitrary power to proceed by any other method, I do, in behalf of our Sovereign Lady the Queen, His Excellency the Palatine, and Lords Proprietors, and of this Province of North Carolina, protest against all such proceedings; and do as President of the Council and Commander in Chief of this Province, by virtue of the Lords Proprietors commission, and with the advice of the council declared by proclamation dated the 13th of May Anno 1708, strictly charge and command all magistrates, commanders, and officers both military and civil, and all other His Majesty's loving subjects, not be aiding or assisting in any such arbitrary power, as they will answer the contrary at their peril. Given under my hand and seal 11th day of October in the seventh year of the reign of our Sovereign Lady Queen Ann of Great Britain &c anno 1708.

And for as much as by your irregular and unlawfull ——— nation in a matter of such consequence, I do (in the name) of our Sovereign Lady the Queen, His Excellency the palatine, and Lords Proprietors of this Province of North Carolina, and freeman of the same and in my own behalf, protest against all you have done or shall do against me or to my prejudice and against anything acted or done under my administration, and because Col. Thomas Cary hath publickly threatened and avowed surreptitiously and without form of law to take away my life, and the lives of others that have in pursuance of their duty been aiding and assisting to me in maintaining the Queen's peace in this Government, I do therefore in behalf of myself and them and every of them, appeal to our Sovereign Lady the Queen in Her Courts at Westminster; and do offer myself as the Queen's prisoner, to be sent in chains if the matter so require, to the Governor Generall of Carolina, and thence to Her Majesty's Courts at Westminster: Provided, that the said Col. Cary and M<sup>r</sup> John Porter, who have been the chief instruments of these unhappy troubles, will be obliged with good security in the sum of two thousand pounds personally there to appear and prosecute me.

Dated the day and year above said.

To the Gentlemen met and pretending themselves to be the House of Burgesses	}	W <sup>m</sup> GLOVER
--	---	-----------------------

This protest was returned to President Glover by same member of the Assembly to whom he delivered it, with the pretended Assembly's answer, that they would not concern themselves in that matter.

Now as for the Counties qualifying themselves, Col. Cary, M<sup>r</sup> Porter, and Mr Foster took the Oaths according to Law. But the Quakers would shew themselves singular coming to the table in the Council with their hats on, laid their hand on the book and repeating the words of the Oath, except the word swear, which they would not pronounce, but word Declare instead thereof, and then having had their explanation of the sense and meaning in which they took it entered underneath they signed it, without kissing the book, and declaring they would allow that sense and explanation of theirs and no other

CHURCHWARDENS OF CHOWAN PRECINCT TO THE SOCIETY

Right Honorable

That the blessed effects of your Lordships pious and generous favours and noble distributions have found their way into this poor province into this remote and obscure corner of the world requires our highest admiration and gratitude by which it is evident to all mankind that no part of the Christian World how mean or obscure can possibly escape being made partakers of your Lordship's Bounty and care, a blessing so choice and valuable and an obligation so great (if duly considered) as might sufficiently excite the most obdurate and impentable wretches to a true sense and knowledge of their duty. My Lords, We therefore conceive it the least part of our duty by this happy opportunity to pay the reasonable tribute of our humble and unfeigned thanks for your Lordship's generous christian and affectionate remembrance of us, in your present of Books by the Reverend Mr William Gorden, a gentleman every way duly qualified to perform an embassy from such Honorable Employers, who hath not only discharged his trust in the delivery of them, but likewise annexed his advice thereto, and during his short stay amongst us hath indefatigably employed his time and talent in promoting the Interest of Religion throughout this province, but more particularly in this precinct where we have so far as in us lies engaged him to ourselves, and shall impatiently wait for his return.

My Lords, our most hearty and sincere wishes are that we and all others partakers of your Lordship's Bounty, may in some degree be found worthy of so eminent blessings: May future ages never want such renowned heroes to defend their Christian Cause, may your Lordship be blessed with a happy and flourishing posterity to inherit your Lordship's virtues and since your Lordships are most deservedly placed in Honorable stations on earth, may the mansions of Saints and Angels be your portion in Heaven; may on constant scene of health and happiness attend your Lordships throughout their vale of tears to your everlasting home is the most fervent prayers of

A COPY OF A LETTER SENT TO PRESIDENT GLOVER
BY M<sup>r</sup> MAULE

VERGINIA April 16: [1709]

Hon<sup>d</sup> Sir

Wednesday the 12th instant Tho. West returned from M<sup>r</sup> Jones who informed me that M<sup>r</sup> Lawson was just gone from his house when Tho. West came; and that M<sup>r</sup> Lawson informed him that the Lords Proprietors are desirous of having Col. Cary called to a strict account for their dues. And also after their ambiguous manner have directed some warrants and Precepts to the President and Council: and by what he could gather from him not directed to Col. Cary; but if directed unto any one; M<sup>r</sup> Jones conjectures they are directed to your Honor: So that M<sup>r</sup> Jones thinks it would be proper for your Honor to get M<sup>r</sup> Knight or some other fit person to discover M<sup>r</sup> Lawson in order to concert such proper methods as may put the government on its proper foundation, to which he seems inclined to believe M<sup>r</sup> Lawson may be drawn, both on account of the Lords Proprietors and also on his own account. The above notice is the substance of M<sup>r</sup> Jones's letter. Having the above written I am very apt to believe the Lords Proprietors would not direct any writings, Warrants, or precepts to Col. Cary as President, nor any wise acknowledge the legality of his pretended Presidentship. Neither do I imagine they have directed them to your Honor by reason that knowing the confusion in the country, they would not be willing (by openly joining either party) to foment the differences. But it seems more reasonable to me (considering the Lords Proprietors common way of acting) to conjecture that these writings are only directed to the President and council, without naming any particular person, with some instructions to M<sup>r</sup> Lawson or M<sup>r</sup> Gale how they shall proceed therein. Now if it should be so, and that M<sup>r</sup> Gale and M<sup>r</sup> Lawson (considering the justness of the cause, the Lords Proprietors interest and their own advantage) should incline to apply themselves to your Honor, as President it is to be well considered of how it could be managed for want of Deputys, or, if their were Deputys, wheither it were worth while to be at the trouble of new modelling and settling the government for such a little time as until the Governor or Deputy Governor's coming in, especially not knowing what alterations may be then made; or, may be, some mistake might fall out in the management, which might tend to the disadvantage of our cause: and whether it might not be better if M<sup>r</sup> Gale and M<sup>r</sup> Lawson could be persuaded not to apply themselves to either, but to stay until the Governor or Deputy Governor's arrival.

But if M<sup>r</sup> Lawson and M<sup>r</sup> Gale be so very earnest to have their commissions recorded that they may go on the execution of their Office, and pretend a necessity of applying themselves to one or the other, I believe it would be well to lay before them, in applying to Col. Cary, not only the unjustness of it in acknowledging an unlawful government there scarcely being one of the Council legally qualified, but also the damage that may thereby accrue both to the Lords Proprietors and themselves: all of which I know your Honor can safely make appear to them. And I believe, if the pretended Council fall —— acting it might do better if they would apply themselves to your Honor. And I believe likewise it would be very necessary to persuade them if possible not to apply to nor acknowledge Col. Cary and his pretended Council

Hon<sup>d</sup> Sir I am sorry we are so separated that we can not communicate together, but I leave to your prudent management, who I know will do the best you can for the Lords Proprietors interest and good of the country, which is earnestly wished by

Postscript April 15th 1710

Hon<sup>d</sup> Sir I have been two or three days longer in sending this than I intended by reason I had some expectations of seeing M<sup>r</sup> Reading here: but he not coming, I thought it was not necessary to stay longer, and have no more to add but only to remind your Honor that, albeit it be very necessary to dissuade M<sup>r</sup> Gale and Mr Lawson from applying to or any way acknowledging Col Cary and his pretended Council, yet I believe you ought seriously to consider and duly weigh all circumstances in retaking the government, unless as above said these writings directed from the Lords Proprietors to your Honor, and to uphold the Government from falling. I have not communicated any of this matter to any person besides your Honor, but to M<sup>r</sup> Chevin and M<sup>r</sup> Boyde, who I doubt not are trusty, and will be ready to serve or advise you Honor in any thing they can.

LONDON, May 13, 1709.

I have already delivered to your honorable board a short account of my voyage and journey to North Carolina, the effects of my mission, and the reasons which induced me to leave the place; and since you desire to know something further of the state of the country and condition of the people, in relation to their religion, principles, and practice, I shall (by the help of the closest and justest observations I could make, and the best informations I could get during my travels through the country) give you what satisfaction can be reasonably expected from so short a stay.

The Continent of North Carolina is part of that great tract of land granted by King Charles II. to several lords proprietors, whose successors and present possessors are William, Lord Craven, His Grace, Henry duke of Beaufort, Lord John Carteret, Maurice Ashley, esquire, Sir John Colleton, baronet, John Danson, esquire, etc., being in number eight.

There are few or no dissenters in this government but Quakers, who have been always the greatest sticklers against, and constant opposers of the Church, and that with no small success; it will not, therefore, be improper to trace their rise with the privileges and immunities they still plead and contend for at the present day, to the great disturbance of the peace of that province, and the hinderance of good laws and other proper endeavors for its improvement.

From the first settlement, I find for some years they were few in number, and had little or no interest in the government, until John Archdale, proprietor and Quaker, went over, by whose means some were made councillors; and there being then no ministers in the place, they began to increase and grow powerful; for the council granting all commissions, in a short time they had Quaker members in most of their courts; nay, in some, the majority were such, who still, pushing at the government, were very diligent at the election of members of the Assembly; so that what by themselves, the assistance of several unthinking people, and the carelessness of others, they carried all in that meeting likewise; so far that no encouragement could be obtained for ministers, notwithstanding some endeavors which were used to procure them a very small and inconsiderable allowance.

At last, after many attempts, the Churchmen carried an act, but by one or two votes, called "The Vestry Act," by which twelve vestrymen are to be chosen in every precinct, who have power to build a church in each, and to raise money from the inhabitants for that purpose, with a sum not exceeding thirty pounds for a minister; whom they have likewise (by that act) power, not only to disapprove, but displace, if they see cause. I took a copy of it and some other papers, but, my servant and trunk being left behind by an accident, they are not yet come to my hand.

The Church party thought they had now made a good step, and therefore designed to improve it to the advantage of religion, and setting such a regular Church discipline as the lords proprietors were obliged by their charter to countenance and encourage; but herein they met with constant opposition from the Quakers, who, being still powerful in the council, numerous in the Assembly, and restless in their endeavors, spared neither pains nor expense to have this act repealed or altered; and by their continual cavils and disputes, lengthened out the time of the Assembly's sitting, to their great trouble and charge.

In the year 1704, the law made in the first year of her present majesty, entitled "An act to declare the oath coming in place of the abrogated oaths," etc., reached Carolina, which the Quakers refusing to take, they were dismissed the council, Assembly, and courts of justice, and a law was made that none should bear any office or place of trust without taking the said oaths.

Some time after, the Quakers sent complaints against Colonel Daniel, then governor, deputed by Sir Nathaniel Johnston, in South Carolina. They prevail: Sir Nathaniel removes him, and sends one Colonel Cary in his room.

The Quakers then began their old game, and strive to get into the courts and Assembly again. This governor thereupon tenders them the oaths, which they refusing to take, are again dismissed, and an act made, that whoever should promote his own election, or sit and act, not qualifying himself first by taking the oaths, should forfeit five pounds. This so nettled the Quakers that, in the year 1706, they sent one Mr. John Porter to England, with fresh grievances and new complaints to the lords proprietors, who, by his cunning management, and the help of Mr. Archdale, a Quaker proprietor, obtained a new commission, by virtue whereof Sir Nathaniel Johnston's power in that province was suspended, Col. Cary removed, and several new deputations sent by the proprietors, with power to choose a president among themselves. Thus Porter, having procured a deputation for himself and some other Quakers, arrived in Carolina October 1707, about five months before we reached Virginia.

And here, sir, I could give you a large account of this man's management and the use he made of his new commission, with his many tricks to advance the interest of the Quakers, and the confusion and disturbance of which he was the chief or only occasion,—but this would be as tedious as his actions are in themselves unwarrantable.

In short, sir, as soon as he arrived, he calls the new deputies together, being most Quakers (without waiting for the governor and old deputies' presence, though they had all appointed a day for the whole council to sit, and settle the government according to the lords proprietors' instructions in that commission), and chooses for their president whom they imagined would be for their purpose; but he, taking the same method as their former governors did, disappointed Porter's expectation, who, for revenge, gets a meeting with both old and new deputies, reverses Glover's election, declaring it illegal, and so void and null, though he was the only promoter of it. The president and Col. Pollock, a councillor, protested against these proceedings; but Porter went on, strikes in with Colonel Cary, the late deputy-governor, whom he had by his complaints turned out, chooses him president by the votes of the very same councillors who had before chosen Mr. Glover, and all this by virtue of that very commission which removed him from the government. From this sprung the great confusions in which I left that poor, distracted colony. There were two competitors for command; each drew their party in arms to the field, one man was killed before I came away, and God knows how far they have carried these contentions since.

I did, at my arrival in England, lay the whole state of these affairs before the lords proprietors, who, no doubt, will take a speedy and effectual method, not only to suppress the present, but prevent such disorders for the future; and there is now a gentleman appointed governor of that province [Hyde] who, by his prudence, will in all likelihood cool the present heats, and lead them on gently toward a regular and lasting establishment, to the advantage of the proprietors and peace to the country.

And now, sir, I shall examine a little the Quakers' pretences, who plead that they were the first settlers in that country; but this (according to the best accounts I could get) seems false in fact,—that religion being scarce heard of there till some years after the settlement; it is true, some of the most ancient inhabitants, after George Fox went over, did turn Quakers.

They allege they are the chief inhabitants, promoters, and upholders of its interests; but this must be either by their number, riches, or prudence. As to their number, they are, at this time, but about the tenth part of the inhabitants; and if they were more, they would be but the greater burden, since they contribute nothing toward its defence. Neither is it by their riches, there being but few or no traders of note amongst them; beside, the levy there is raised per poll, and not by the estimate of men's estates, so that the poorest pay as much as the richest. And it is so far from being by their prudence, that, on the contrary, their ignorance and obstinacy are but too remarkable upon all occasions, of which they have given a very evident proof by being the great promoters of the present confusions of that colony; so that I see no right they have to such a share in the government as they pretend. The charter, I am sure, grants them none, nor does it give power to the lords proprietors to grant any, neither have they by their constitution done any such thing; and if there be any privileges granted to the inhabitants, it is to such only who bear arms, so that it was other dissenters, not Quakers, they intended to invite thither by those indulgences. As for liberty of conscience, none may more peaceably enjoy it, if they would therewith be content.

I could not but take notice of their irreverent carriage, in subscribing their solemn affirmation. Mr. Archdale himself uncovered his head to hear a foolish woman make an unaccountable clamor before meat, at his own table; but when he subscribed the oaths to be taken for putting in execution the laws of trade, he did it with his hat on, which is an error no Barclay has made an "apology" for.

I have observed, amongst the worst of the other sort, when they came to the Book they showed a reverence, and there appeared an unwillingness upon them, which serves the great end of God and the queen, in the discovery of truth, whilst the careless and unseemly behavior of those men is openly scandalous and profane.

I shall now, sir, give you some small account of the particular precincts. You will see, by the plain draft, the largeness of so much of the country as is laid down, the bearings of the land, the number of tithables in each precinct. The roads are generally very bad, especially in Paquimans and Pasquetank, which makes it a very troublesome work for one minister to attend two precincts.

Chowan is the westernmost, the largest and thinnest seated; they built a church some years ago, but it is small, very sorrily put together, and is ill looked after; and, therefore, I prevailed with them to build another, which they went about when I came away. The plan of it I brought over, and was desired to procure, if possible, from the society, as much glass as will be necessary for the windows, which by computation will amount to 325 feet.

There are, I think, no Quakers or any other dissenters in this parish: the people indeed are ignorant, there being few that can read, and fewer write, even of their justices of peace and vestrymen; yet to me they seemed very serious and well inclined, both in public and private, many of them being very ready to embrace (as far as they could) all opportunities of being instructed. The worst is, that the narrowness of their sense and conceptions occasions many differences and quarrels amongst themselves, for which no man can find any shadow of reason, but their ignorant mistakes of one another's meaning, and upon this account I found these more frequent here than in any other country I have ever travelled.

This precinct was one of the two I attended, and being very large, and divided by the Great Sound and several rivers and branches, was very troublesome; however, I was in all the parts of it, baptized almost a hundred children, distributed those small tracts which were sent over, settled a schoolmaster, and gave some books for the use of scholars, which the church-wardens were to see left for that use, in case the master should remove.

The greatest difficulty I met with was, in some, an obstinate aversion to god-fathers and god-mothers; neither sense or reason could prevail with them: in this, therefore, I bent my strongest endeavors with one or two, who, by their character for sense and sobriety, had some influence over the rest; with whom having prevailed, all were convinced and followed their example; and so they would oftentimes, in any thing else, without examining the cause or troubling themselves for reasons, this being a general rule for their practice in all other cases. However, I am confident they are yet, by the blessing of God on the pious care and prudent conduct of some diligent minister, in a capacity of being made devout Christians and zealous Churchmen; whereas, if they be left alone, the principles (and it is to be feared the practice too) of religion and morality will be, in a short time, quite defaced.

The next precinct is Paquinans, under my care equally with the other. Here is a compact little church, built with more care and expense, and better contrived than that in Chowan; it continues yet unfinished, by reason of the death of one Major Swan, about September, 1707, who zealously promoted the interests of religion in general, and forwarded, by his continual pains and expense, the building of that church in particular, when there was none in the country. Here is no library or other public books whatever.

The Quakers in this precinct are very numerous, extremely ignorant, insufferably proud and ambitious, and consequently ungovernable: this made my work more difficult than it was in Chowan. They doubled their efforts and contrivances against my endeavours; their meetings amongst themselves were more frequent, and their attacks upon others furious. However, as these things cost me the more pains, so I used the utmost circumspection both in public and private, and if at any time I took occasion to preach against their principles, as now and then I found it necessary, I was as moderate as was possible in my expressions, free from harsh reflections, and always pressed the truth, as much for its own sake as for the Church's which professed it; and this I found had a better effect than the rougher methods which, it seems, had been formerly used with them; for by such means, and the success of some small favors I showed them in physic, they not only became very civil, but respectful to me in their way, and have many times entertained me at their houses with much freedom and kindness.

This precinct is not so large as Chowan, and, though the roads are worse, the journeys are shorter. Here are twelve vestrymen as in the rest, but most, if not all of them, very ignorant, loose in their lives, and unconcerned as to religion; it was not in my power to get one meeting with them, while I was there, notwithstanding my best endeavors to obtain that favor. Their ill example, and the want of ministers and good books, have occasioned many who were better disposed, through ignorance, to join with the Quakers; being willing to embrace any thing that looks like a religion, rather than have none at all. Yet I am apt to think that some of these poor souls may be regained, several having told me they owed their first departing from the Church to the ill example and imprudent behavior of their ministers; and therefore it seems absolutely necessary that, if any minister be sent thither, he should, if possible, beside an exemplary life and diligent attendance on all the duties of his function, he should be as well read in men as in books, and will find as much if not more occasion for the one than the other.

And as he will meet with unaccountable tempers, so they will require uncommon methods to deal with them, in order to gain credit, and, consequently, an access to their hearts. Here and in Chowan the ways of living are much alike; both are equally destitute of good water, most of that being brackish and muddy; they feed generally upon salt pork, and sometimes upon beef, and their bread of Indian corn which they are forced for want of mills to beat; and in this they are so careless and uncleanly that there is but little difference between the corn in the horse's manger and the bread on their tables: so that with such provisions and such drink (for they have no beer), in such a hot country, you may easily judge, sir, what a comfortable life a man must lead; not but that the place is capable of better things, were it not overrun with sloth and poverty.

The next precinct is Pasquetank, where as yet there is no church built; the Quakers are here very numerous; the roads are, I think, the worst in the country; but it is closer seated than the others, and better peopled in proportion to its bigness. In their way of living they have much the advantage of the rest, being more industrious, careful, and cleanly; but above all I was surprised to see with what order, decency, and seriousness they performed the public worship, considering how ignorant people are in the other parishes. This they owe to the care of one Mr. Griffin, who came here from some part of the West Indies, and has for three years past lived amongst them, being appointed reader by their vestry, whose diligent and devout example has improved them so far beyond their neighbors and by his discreet behavior has gained such a good character and esteem, that the Quakers themselves send their children to his school, though he had prayers twice a day at least, and obliged them to their responses, and all the decencies of behavior as well as others. After Mr. Adams was settled here I found it improper for Mr. Griffin to stay, and therefore, notwithstanding the large offers they made him if he would continue, he consented to fix in Chowan, where I left him, having procured for him a small allowance from the vestry; but I am afraid the hardship he will meet with in that part of the country will discourage him, if not force him from thence, though he promised me to hold out as long as he could.

Curratuck is the easternmost precinct, including the Sand Banks and some part of the south side of the Sound: a very incommodious place for damp colds in winter and mosquitoes in summer. I never travelled through this parish, so I can give but a very little account of it. They have no church, nor ever had any books sent them. Mr. Adams has at present under his care this precinct and Pasquetank, from whom an account at large may be best expected.

Bath county contains most of that land which lies to the southward of Albemarle Sound to Pamlico River, and about thirty or forty miles more southerly to Neuse River, which (being but lately peopled with a few French who left Virginia) is not laid down in the draft.

They have divided the whole into three precincts or parishes, though the inhabitants of all are but equal in number to any one of the other, most of which are seated on Pamlico River and its branches. Here is no church, though they have begun to build a town called Bath. It consists of about twelve houses, being the only town in the whole province. They have a small collection of books for a library, which were carried over by the Reverend Doctor Bray, and some land is laid out for a glebe; but no minister would ever stay long in the place, though several have come thither from the West Indies and other plantations in America; and yet I must own, it is not the unpleasantest part of the country,—nay, in all probability it will be the centre of trade, as having the advantage of a better inlet for shipping, and surrounded with most pleasant savannas, very useful for stocks of cattle.

In this as in all other parts of the province, there is no money; every one buys and pays with their commodities, of which corn, pork, pitch, and tar are the chief: pork at 458 per barrel cent.—250 lbs. weight, pitch at 258 per barrel, corn at 250 per bushel, and tar at 152 per barrel, which prices (though fixed by their laws) they can seldom reach for it anywhere else, after considerable expense and risk; so that, by their computation, the difference of their money to sterling is as one to three; and if you buy a plantation there for £300 of their pay, they will much rather take £100 in England.

Thus, sir, I have, in obedience to your commands, given you this plain and, I am sensible, imperfect account of North Carolina, a country but wild and imperfect in its circumstances; and in all I have said to the disadvantage of the people in general, I must beg some exceptions, as few as you please, there being, here and there, a gentleman whose substance, sense in managing, and methods of living, somewhat exceed the rest; but they live at such distances, that, as by their example they have but little influence, so, upon the same account, they can as little contribute to the easiness of a missionary's condition, who is forced to take up with what conveniences he can find not too many miles distant from the churches he is obliged to attend; and this will necessitate any minister who goes over to purchase land, buy servants, build a church, and improve a plantation, before he can live tolerably; which will require more expense than the encouragement given will bear.

If, sir, you think this worth communicating to the honorable society, I leave it to your discretion, and am, sir,

Your very humble and obedient servant,

WILLIAM GORDON.

Since our Letter of the Tenth of March a Duplicate whereof is here inclosed. We have received two Letters from you of the 21st of November and one of the 21st of March last, with the Papers therein referred to.

We represented to her Majesty what you formerly writ us in relation to the settling the Boundaries between Virginia & the Province of Carolina: Her Majesty was thereupon pleased by her order in Council of the 13th January last to direct us to propose to the said Lords Proprietors of Carolina the Issuing of such a Commission as aforesaid

Whereupon we writ to the Lords Proprietors of Carolina and have received their answer the purport whereof is that they have appointed John Lawson and Edward Mosely Esq<sup>rs</sup> to be Commissioners on the part of Carolina for surveying the lands in dispute and settling the Boundaries as aforesaid, and in their answer they did further declare that they were willing in case of any dispute between the said Commissioners and those on the part of Virginia to submit the same to her Majesties Decision.

We thereupon represented that her Majesties Letters mandatory be sent to the Governor or Commander in Chief of the said Colony of Virginia for the time being directing him in Concurrence with the Council there, to issue out a Commission under the seal of the Colony thereby constituting and appointing two fit and able persons to be Commissioners on the part of Virginia to act in conjunction with the Commissioners appointed on the part of Carolina for the purposes before mentioned & requiring the said Governor or Commander in chief for the time being to Transmit to her Majesty under Seal of the Colony an Account of such Commissioners Proceedings for her Majesties farther pleasure therein. All which have been approved of by her Majesty and directions will be sent you accordingly.

As to the Exemption you mention to be granted by the Proprietary Governments to people that remove thither from being sued for Debts contracted in other Places we hope that matters is remedied at least in Carolina. For an Act having been past there granting such an Exemption we laid the same before her Majesty with our Opinion of the ill Consequence of such Laws.

Whereupon her Majesty was pleased to repeal the said Carolina Act. But if that practice of protecting Creditors be still continued in Carolina or any other of the Proprieties you will do well to give us as particular an Account thereof as you are able that we may lay the same before her Majesty for her further pleasure therein.

VA Oct 4 1709

I doubt not but Mr. Gordon informed you, by word of mouth, that, when we came hither, we found the government in the hands of such persons as were promoted for God's service and good order, and from whom we met with all reasonable encouragement in the discharge of our mission.

But now the case is sadly altered, for the Quakers, alarmed at our arrival, did, in a most tumultuous manner, stir up the ignorant and irreligious, who are by much the greater number in this colony, by bold lies and calumnies against both the government and us; and we are now ruled by such as are generally friends only to drunkenness, irreligious and profane, inasmuch that in many places where before I met with all encouragement and civility, I find nothing but reproaches, threatenings, and ill usage; and many, who then seemed zealous and forward, are now turned quite back. Mr. Gordon had experience of these things in some measure before he went over, but now things are carried to far greater extremes. The abuses and continuities I met with, in my own person, are but small troubles to me in respect of that great grief of hearing the most sacred parts of religion impiously profaned and ridiculed. We had a communion lately, and the looser sort at their drunken revelling spared not to give about their bread and drink in the words of administration, to bring into contempt that most holy sacrament, and in derision of those few persons who then received it; and yet such flagrant crimes, notwithstanding of my complaint to our magistrates, go unpunished and unregarded. We daily expect in our new governor, who, I hope, will set the country again in order and redress our grievances. I pray God he may prove a good man, for upon his disposition will very much depend the further fruit of my mission.

In the precinct of Pascotank, where I chiefly resided last year, are thirteen hundred and thirty-two souls, whereof nine hundred profess themselves of the Church of England, excepting some few Presbyterians, who now constantly join themselves with us in our service, have had their children baptized by me, and are willing to have them brought up in our way of worship. There are about eleven who profess no religion; two hundred and ten Quakers, and two hundred and eleven negroes, some few of which are instructed in the principles of Christian religion, but their masters will by no means permit them to be baptized, having a false notion that a Christian slave is, by law, free. I have baptized, since I came, between the parishes of Pascotank and Caratank, two hundred and thirteen children and two adult persons. I have administered the sacrament of the Lord's Supper three times: twice in Pasquotank, where I had fourteen communicants; the second time I had twenty-four; and the last time I administered in Caratank, where I had thirty—the names of all which, housekeepers, communicants, and baptized persons, &c., I have by me in my Notitia Parochialis, according to my instructions.

I have lately lived mostly in Caratauk, but it is a precinct of so large an extent, and so much divided by water, that I have not yet been able to get passages into all the extreme corners of it.

In my next I shall send you an account of that parish, which is not above half as populous as Pascotank, and but one professed Quaker in the whole bounds. Had the government continued as we found it, there had been churches built now; but since the Quakers and their accomplices have got to the helm, all such thoughts are laid aside.

I have not since I came to the country, received so much as to pay for my diet and lodging, and if I had not drawn bills upon Mr. Hoar, I had been in great want. I have a very laborious mission, the places I preached at being some of them sixty, others above seventy miles distant. I bless the Lord I have had my health well, and I pray God to give me his grace so to direct my ways in this troublesome and unsettled country, as not only to acquit myself with applause to those good men who sent me, but that I may be likewise able to give a comfortable account of my stewardship at that dreadful tribunal where the secrets of all hearts shall be disclosed, which shall be the daily prayer and faithful endeavor of,

Sir, yours, etc.,

JAMES ADAMS.

I wrote to you formerly of one Mr. Griffin, who had behaved himself very remarkably in the office of a reader and schoolmaster: he has fallen into the sin of fornication, and joined with the Quakers' interest, which has proved great stumbling-block to many of our persuasion.

MR. ADAMS TO THE SECRETARY.

SIR:—

In my last I gave you a large account of the sad disorder and confusion of our country, and till authority interposes we are likely to continue in the same deplorable condition. We have long expected our new governor, but now begin to despair of his coming. I have taken particular care to write over, according to my instructions, but have not heard from the society since my arrival in America, which makes me very uneasy, not knowing whether or not my letters have got to your hands. Nothing but my true concern for so many poor souls, scattered abroad as sheep having no shepherd, and my duty to those good men who repose this trust in me, could have prevailed on me to stay in so barbarous and disorderly a place as this now is, where I have undergone a world of trouble and misery both in body and mind. Had the government continued as Mr. Gordon and I found it, I doubt not but I should have been able to have given a very successful account of my mission; but as long as things continue as they are, I can scarcely have hopes of making proselytes and gaining over that number which, if backed by authority, I, by the grace of God, might probably have done. I have met with so many discouragements (of which my not hearing from you is none of the least), that I intend (please God) next summer or fall, as a passage shall offer, to embark for Great Britain, and shall, I hope, produce such testimonies of my endeavors and behavior in every respect, as shall satisfy you all well of my diligence and fidelity.

We have in this parish of Caratauk five hundred and thirty-nine souls, whereof ninety-seven are negroes, one Quaker, and five or six of no professed religion; the rest all join with me in our Church service. I have baptized, this last year, thirty-five children between the precincts of Caratank and Pascotank, and some of Perquimmins. I administered the Lord's Supper Christmas last, and had twenty-seven communicants.

I am, with all respects, sir, yours, etc.,

JAMES ADAMS.

A COPY OF A LETTER TO M<sup>r</sup> CHENIN: AND M<sup>r</sup> BOYDS

GENTLEMEN

I should have been glad to have had the happiness of enjoying your good Company with the President and M<sup>r</sup> Knights, and still hope (when your leisure permits) you will come and spend a day or two with us in this Wilderness. I thought it my duty to communicate to you what news I lately had in a letter from Mr Frederick Jones. He writes to me that Mr. Lawson, having been lately at his house, informed him that the Lords Proprietors are desirous of having Col Cary called to a strict account for their dues: and that also (after their ambignons manner) they have directed some warrants and precepts to the President and Council, and, by what he could gather from M<sup>r</sup> Lawson, not naming Col Cary, but he seemed rather inclined to believe, if directed to any person, they are to President Glover. So that M<sup>r</sup> Jones thinks it would be proper that some person should discourse M<sup>r</sup> Lawson in order to concert such proper methods as may put the government again on its proper foundation: to which he seems to think M<sup>r</sup> Lawson may be persuaded to incline, both on the Lords Proprietors account and also on his own. Now as I am very much persuaded that the Lords Proprietors would not direct any writings, precepts or warrants to Col Cary as President, nor anywise acknowledge the legality of his pretended presidentship: so likewise I am apt to believe they would not direct them to President Glover. My reason is because the Lords Proprietors knowing what confusion is in the country, they would not be willing by openly joining either party, to foment, the difference, until the Governor or Deputy Governor arrives. But it seems more reasonable to me, (considering the Lords Proprietors common way of acting) to believe that these writings were only directed to the President and Council without naming any particular person, with some instructions to M<sup>r</sup> Lawson or M<sup>r</sup> Gale how they shall proceed therein. And I believe it very necessary to dissuade, all ye can, from applying in any manner to Col. Cary as President: and I believe it would do very well to assist at this time President Glover with what you can, with your advises and otherwise. What news you have from M<sup>r</sup> Gale or any otherwise of moment, please to acquaint me by the bearer, and of the proceedings of this last (wise) Council at Perquimans, if they had any. And if any news of any moment comes to me, you may be sure to have them from him who really is

Mr Chevin

Having a few skins to send out by the first opportunity, would intreat the favour of your advise whether Mr Porter in carrying out his skins hath not opened their eyes as to the illegality of that Assembly, and whether may not send out some without paying their unreasonable and illegal duty. Also, the above from M<sup>r</sup> Jones have not communicated to any person but yourselves, wherefore would intreat your secrecy therein.

A COPY OF A LETTER TO M<sup>r</sup> JOHN LAWSON, BY M<sup>r</sup>
PRESIDENT GLOVER'S.

MAY 27th 1710

Almost ever since you left America I have been removed to Virginia, not being willing to live under a government I knew was altogether illegal, and to avoid occasion of difference; and I was glad to understand of your and Major Gale's arrival from England, hoping that you may have brought some order's, or at the least news of the settling of the Government. I doubt not you knew that upon M<sup>r</sup> Porter arrival from England, with the instruments of writing from the Lords Proprietors superceeding Col. Cary, and giving all the power of Administration of the government to the President, that I was not present, nor at the choosing M<sup>r</sup> Glover President, neither at any other of their meetings, until your meeting at my house in may, after being about half a year having been sickly all that time, at which meeting at my house, I, being of opinion that Col. Cary had hard measure in seising his brigantine, endeavoured all I could to bring all matter to agreement, which I effected at that time; when M<sup>r</sup> Glover was allowed of and confirmed President by Col. Cary, M<sup>r</sup> Porter, and all the Council and proclamations issued out to command the obedience of all the people to [the] then established government, So that the consideration of the commission from the Lords Proprietors to the President, their being no other President they could direct to neither they knowing of any other, and the first chosen by all the Deputys in the government but myself, and then the last confirmation by all the council, with the proclamation aforementioned, fully satisfied me of President Glover's right to the Presidentship. So that I was obliged by the oath of fidelity to the Lords Proprietors to obey President Glover's lawful orders, and maintain the Lords Proprietors Government so far as lay in my power; and acted nothing but by the Presidents order. And I am conscious to myself that I acted for no particular interest of my own, for I could in all reason [have] Expected as much favour on any account from Col. Cary, if he had continued in the government, as from President Glover. But it was altogether on account of what I was obliged to do. And having acted so, I did not think it necessary to trouble the Lords Proprietors with letters from me who acted only under another, as a great many others in the government did. Notwithstanding all which precautions, it seems some malicious persons, out of particular hatred they had to me, or rather to clear themselves of what they were guilty of, have endeavoured falsily to inform the Lords Proprietors that I was a cause of the late troubles.

Wherefore, Sir, not doubting, but you have some knowledge not only of what M<sup>r</sup> Porter, M<sup>r</sup> Moseley, and that party have writ to the Lords Proprietors, but also of the Lords Proprietors sentiments, and orders to their Governor, or Deputy Governor, thereanent, would earnestly intreat the favour of you to acquaint me with the whole matter, (if you be not obliged no ways to the contrary) and assure yourself, if you think it necessary, it shall be locked up in my breast, not to be divulged untill you please, and also your kindness in it shall be ingraven in my mind in indelible characters.

Also, Sir, I have another favour to beg of you. There being a young gentleman (the bearer hereof) one M<sup>r</sup> W<sup>m</sup> Maule on whom fortune hath frowned, having been twice taken by the French and lost very considerably, and being, I believe, very capable of surveying, (if you have not deputed any other in Albemarle county or at least in Chowan precinct) you will find him (if it lie with your conveniency to depute him) capable, diligent, and faithful, and it will be a very great obligation to

Postscript Sir If you have not an opportunity to send me an answer by M<sup>r</sup> Maule, (who, may be, will not have the opportunity of seeing you) send it to Mr. David Henderson's, or to Robert West's at Choan, where I doubt not of having it safe.

VESTRY OF CARATUCK TO THE SOCIETY

August 25 1710.

We the Church Wardens and Vestrymen as Representatives and at the request of the Precinct and Parish of Carahutuck in N. Carolina do desire to offer our grateful acknowledgements in the most humble and hearty manner to the most Rev<sup>d</sup> Father in God Thomas Lord ABp. of Canterbury &c. President and the rest of the members of the Society for the propagation of the Gospel in Foreign parts for their pious care in sending the Rev<sup>d</sup> Mr. James Adams among us who has during his abode here (which has been about two years & five months) behaved himself in all respects as a Messenger of the mild Jesus, exemplary in his life, and blameless in his conversation and now being bound for England we with sorrowful hearts and true love and affection take our leave of him; we shall ever bless that providence that placed him among us and should be very unjust to his character if we did not give him the testimony of a pious and faithful pastor whose sweetness of temper, diligence in his calling and soundness of doctrine has so much conduced to promote the great end of his Mission that we hope the good seed God has enabled him to sow will bear fruit upwards which has in some measure appeared already for the Sacrament of the Lords Supper was never before his arrival never administered in this Precinct, yet we have had more communicants than most of our Neighbouring Parishes of Virginia who have had the advantage of a better settled Ministry for many years.

We have no more to add but beg the Hon. Society will be pleased to continue us still under their charitable care for whatever our merits be, our necessities are great and all the return we are able to make is to praise God for raising up so many truly good friends to our souls and that Heaven may prosper you in so laudable so pious and so charitable a design shall ever be the subject of our Prayers. Hon<sup>d</sup> Sir

BLACKWATER August 29th 1710

I humbly congratulate your safe arrival For having removed myself from North Carolina here in the borders of Virginia, because I would not live under a government I knew was altogether illegal, I have therefore earnestly wished for your Honour's arrival, ever since I knew you were designed here, that the government being settled I might remove myself to my habitation, not doubting (by the great and good character you have) that you will settle our religion, lands, and liberties on such sure foundations, that they may never more be in danger to be insulted and and trodden down by Quakers, Atheist and Deists, and other evil disposed persons, and healing all our differences, distractions and disorders, encouraging trade, and protecting the people in all their just rights and privileges, you may be happy in performing so great and good a work, and the people happy under so good a Governor. The doubt of the certainty of your Honor's being arrived, and the uncertainty to meet you hath hindered me from waiting on you at this time, but (God willing) intend to wait on you as soon as you arrive in North Carolina.

Hon<sup>d</sup> sir John Ardeon! Esq<sup>r</sup> when last with me was thinking it would be more convenient to transports your goods this way by Choan river than by Curetneke, because of the shoals by the way of Curetneke. Wherefore if your Honor thinks convenient to transport them by Choan river, I have a small sloop at your service. I shall intreat your answer by the bearer, and if any way I can be searviceable to your Honor, you shall need but to command

COL. GLOVER TO THE SOCIETY FOR PROPAGATING
THE GOSPEL.

N. C. Aug 30 1710

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR LORDSHIPS:—

Although the trouble and confusion this unhappy country has labored under, ever since the arrival of your lordships' reverend missionaries, has compelled me to retire from all public employments; and the poor return we are able to make for your lordships' pious care and charitable expenses, admonisheth me to lay my hand upon my mouth and keep silent till the lords proprietors shall, by their prudent care, have restored order and justice among us, under the influence of which we hope, by God's grace, to bring forth better fruit,—although, I say, these considerations had discouraged me from making any application until I could present your lordships with a fairer prospect of affairs, yet, the inclosed papers being put into my hands, I held myself bound to present them to your lordships, and join with the subscribers in the character they give of the Reverend Mr. Adams, and in which I am sure all persons who have any respect either to religion or loyalty do heartily concur. I will not enter into a relation of the success his labors have had; as to that, his reverend successor will not, as I think he is in justice bound not to be, be silent. And for the difficulties he has met with, he has waded through them under the vigilant eyes of the malicious enemies, without committing any thing unbecoming a minister of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. What is further necessary, he is himself able, by word, to supply, if any thing be wanting in the account he has already given by writing, wherein I know he has neither neglected opportunity nor spared cost or pains.

These papers ought to have come under the public seal, but that being forcibly detained in the hands of those who are professed enemies of the Church as well as to all good order, it could not be procured on this occasion: being able, therefore, to give them no greater confirmation, I humbly present them to your lordships' noble bounty to this poor country, and therein especially to your lordships'

Most obliged and humble servant,

WILLIAM GLOVER, President.

MR. ADAMS TO THE SECRETARY.

SIR:—

About a week ago I waited upon the Honorable Mr. Hyde, who was appointed governor of our country; and, as far as I can learn, he thinks it not advisable, as things have happened, to go into North Carolina till he hears again from England; so that God only knows when our distractions are to have an end. Though we be a numerous and considerable body of people, yet we seem to be below the care of the lords proprietors, who, I am afraid, are abused by a misrepresentation of the country, made by the Quakers and their faction, or trust too much to the management of Mr. Danson a proprietor, of the aforesaid sect, who receives his informations from those of that party, particularly one Porter, a person notoriously infamous, whose practice is, in conjunction with the Quakers' adherents, when they hear of any man going from this country who is not of their interest, to write scandalous lies and calumnies against him to the lords proprietors, to lessen the said person's credit in what he shall say in relation to the state of the country. Thus they served Mr. Gordon and others, and hearing of my intentions for Europe, have probably done the same by me. But I hope the testimonies sent from the two parishes where I have lived ever since my arrival in the country, are sufficient enough to prevent all my enemies from doing me any mischief that way. Mr. Glover has been solicited by worthy persons in Virginia, who pity the lamentable condition our colony has so long been in, to write the state of the country, and dedicate it to the parliament of Great Britain and commissioners of trade; but it is resolved to be silent till he learns the determination of the lords proprietors.

I have lived here in a dismal country about two years and a half, where I have suffered a world of misery and trouble, both in body and mind; I have gone through good report and evil report, and endured as much as any of your missionaries have done before me; wherefore, I humbly pray you, and hope the honorable society will now be pleased to alter my mission to South Carolina, where I doubt not but, by God's assistance, I shall be able to do more good; and whoever succeeds me here will have this advantage, that none of the country will be prejudiced to his person (as all who adhered to the Quakers are to mine); and this in my opinion, will not conduce a little to the success of his labors. I have lodged above this year past in the house of a planter, an old man, who, before the Quakers got the government in their hands, was one of our councilors. He has, after his own decease and his wife's, left a considerable legacy for the encouragement of a minister in the parish where he lives, which is as follows, viz: A very good plantation, upon which he lives, with all the houses and some household furniture, two slaves and their increase forever, together with a stock of cows, sheep, hogs, and horses, with their increase forever; all which, immediately upon the old people's decease may moderately be valued at £200, and in some years after may prove a moderate living for a minister in itself. The old gentleman's name is Sanderson.

Since my last I have baptized forty persons, whereof six were adult palatines: the number of communicants last Easter was twenty-five.

We have in this precinct about seventy or eighty Indians, many of which understand English tolerably well, but our own distractions have hitherto prevented my thoughts of doing any great matters among them, considering the bad examples we show them.

I understand, by my lord of London's letter, that the society has been pleased to augment my salary, for which I desire to offer my most humble thanks.

I beg you will be pleased to let me hear from you by first opportunity, and remain with all respect, sir,

Your most humble servant,

JAMES ADAMS.

[B. P. R. O. B. T. VIRGINIA. VOL: 13. O. 65.]

A JOURNAL OF THE PROCEEDINGS OF PHILIP LUDWELL AND NATHANIEL HARRISON COMMISSIONERS APPOINTED FOR SETTTLING THE BOUNDARYS BETWEEN HER MAJESTYS COLONY AND DOMINION OF VIRGINIA AND THE PROVINCE OF CAROLINA.

Before we enter upon the Narrative of our proceedings it will be necessary to observe that on the arrival of Her Majestys Letters Mandatory directing the appointment of Comm<sup>rs</sup> for settling the Boundarys between Virginia & Carolina, the President & Councill thought fitt to appoint us on the 18th of Aprill last to be the Commissioners for that purpose, & on the 27th of the same month our Instructions were agreed on in Council. Thereupon M<sup>r</sup> President (after having discoursed M<sup>r</sup> Lawson one of the Commissioners of Carolina) writt to the s<sup>d</sup> Comm<sup>rs</sup> on the 5th of May notifying our being ready, & named the 9th of June as a proper time for a meeting of both Commissioners at Williamsburgh to concert & adjust the method of proceeding in this affair, In anwer to w<sup>ch</sup> letter, M<sup>r</sup> Lawson writt to the President that he had not seen M<sup>r</sup> Moseley (the other Comm<sup>r</sup>) that he was then very busy in settling the Palatines (in w<sup>ch</sup> he expected to meet with much diffienlty by reason of the distractions of that Government) and that therefore they the Comm<sup>rs</sup> of Carolina could not meet us according to that appointment, but hoped they should be able to do it in July, & M<sup>r</sup> Moseley in a letter of the 5th of June excused his attending the Meeting as not having then seen M<sup>r</sup> Lawson nor the powers given them by the Lords Proprietors, but that when he had, he would give timely notice when they the Comm<sup>rs</sup> of Carolina could meet.

Thus this matter stood at the arrival of the Lient<sup>t</sup> Governor who having thought it necessary to have our Instructions re-examined & considered before himself in Council, was pleased on the sixth of July to sign our Commission, & Instructions according as they had been agreed on.

On the 18th of July we received our Commission at Williamsburgh, & there hearing no farther of the intentions of the Comm<sup>rs</sup> of Carolina, We writt the following Letter to them.

WILLIAMSBURGH July 18th 1710.

“Gentlemen

“Having received a Commission from Her Majesty’s Lieutenant Governor to Act in conjunction with you for settling the Boundaries between this Her Majestys Colony of Carolina we were in hopes that according to what you were pleased to writt to M<sup>r</sup> President Jennings, you would have signified to us when you could conveniently have met us, for adjusting the proper methods of carrying on this work, but having heard nothing from you since Y<sup>r</sup> Answer to the Presidents Letter, We think ourselves obliged very earnestly to desire you will let us know your last resolution, whether wee may expect to meet you at Williamsburgh any time this month; or if you do not think fitt to meet us there, we desire you to appoint some other place where we may meet you this month because the season of the year will not admitt of any longer delay. August 21st We went to Williamsburgh expecting to have meett the formed that M<sup>r</sup> Hyde (Governor of North Carolina) was come to Wil-and was gone to Captain Jones' with design to return home speedily there being no news of M<sup>r</sup> Moseley. I immediately waited on the Governor to receive the Direc<sup>ns</sup> how to proceed who was pleased to direct me to

we flattered ourselves we should have had the honour of your Company but being disappointed of it that day without hearing from you and also being informed that several Carolina gentlemen designed to wait on M<sup>r</sup> Hyde that very day at Norfolk We concluded we should see you at Williamsburgh in two or three days Our Conjecture proved not altogether wrong for M<sup>r</sup> Lawson arrived on Wednesday or Thursday (having been hindered a day or two in his passage) but not finding you here resolved to return home speedily Our Governor Coll. Spotswood being desirous to bring this affair to as speedy a Conclusion as may be (and being apprehensive that if we fail of a meeting while M<sup>r</sup> Lawson is here it will be in vain to expect any further proceedings in Concert with you this year) commands us to desire y<sup>r</sup> Company at W<sup>m</sup>s<sup>b</sup>urgh as soon as possible because M<sup>r</sup> Lawson's affairs are very urgent and his Hon<sup>r</sup> has undertaken to engage M<sup>r</sup> Lawson to stay three or four days longer

NATH: HARRISON

the Commissioners appointed for setting the bounds betwixt Virginia & Carolina, at his house in North Carolina

As soon as this Letter was dispatched I sent a letter to M<sup>r</sup> Lawson Inviting him to my house & to inform him that We had sent to M<sup>r</sup> Moseley and expected he would come in four or five days, In answer to which he writt that he had already promised the Governor to stay for the return of the Messenger.

Aug<sup>t</sup> 30. We mett the Carolina Commissioners in the Conference room in the Capitol. As soon as our Commissions on both sides were read M<sup>r</sup> Moseley objected that we could not treat of this affair because there was a variance in our Commissions. For their Com<sup>s</sup> impowered them only to Act in Conjunction with us and by the preamble of our Comm<sup>s</sup> it seemed that the Queen designed no more & yet our Commission impowered us to Act separately. This he insisted on very much questioning the Governors power to give such a Commission. We argued that it could be no objection that a Commission had too full a power given him to treat

That our Commission appointed us to Act in in Conjunction if they would, & to that end we were mett and if our Commission did go further to impower us to act seperately in case of disagreement that could be no objection till we had treated & tryed whether we could agree or not besides We thought that what we were appointed to do in case of Disagreement could not properly be called acting seperately since it was nothing but what was necessary for giving Her Majesty a full information of the Case whereby she might be enabled to make a Determination of it & as to the Governors power since he had given it under his hand that it was in pursuance of Her Majestys commands we should not doubt his power nor our own if she did not agree. At last M<sup>r</sup> Lawson being satisfied M<sup>r</sup> Moseley was forced to quitt the argument and then we proceeded as the Minnts taken by M<sup>r</sup> Robertson will shew, but we must remark that M<sup>r</sup> Moseley started all the captions Arguments and Exceptions that could be.

This Conference ended without coming to any other agreement than that we would proceed to take more Affidavits on both sides & then make a Tryal of the Latitude at both the contested places. In order to which M<sup>r</sup> Moseley agreed to come to Green Spring the next day, from whence we were to sett out to take the Virginia Affidavits first, but I (Nathaniel Harrison) being taken very ill of an Ague that night, I (Philip Ludwell) went to the Governor's next day to meet M<sup>r</sup> Moseley & endeavour to put off our Survey for two days, but I found M<sup>r</sup> Moseley very urgent to delay it much longer, for he said his horse was gravelled, & he had such urgent business that he must go home at last (the Governor pressing him very much) he came to this resolution that on Tuesday the 19th he would come to the house of M<sup>r</sup> Nath: Harrison to proceed in taking our evidences in Virginia, and from thence we should go with him to Carolina to take their evidences, which we hoped might be done by the 28th, against which time he was to give M<sup>r</sup> Lawson (whom he expected to see that night) notice to meet us with his Instruments to go & try the Latitude.

September 21st Having waited in vain these two days for M<sup>r</sup> Moseleys coming We proceeded to Coll. Harrison's, where we mett with Thomas Cotton & took his Affidavit From thence we went to Henry Brigg's, where we mett Rich<sup>d</sup> Washington & took his Affidavit from whence we proceeded in our way to Nottoway.

The 22nd We went to the Nottoway Indian Town, where we had appointed Henry Wyeh to meet Us to give his Deposition, but he did not come. Here we took the Examinations of three Wyanoake Indian women that live here; having given them strict Charge to tell nothing but the truth. But the Nottoway Indian old men being gone to gather Chinkopens We deferred the taking their Examinations till our Return, and went to the Nansmond or Potchiak Indians Town. In our way thither we mett one Richard Bratwell who told us that he had entered for about 1000 acres of land with M<sup>r</sup> Moseley and had it surveyed upon Maharine River, being persuaded to it by the s<sup>d</sup> Moseley, who assured him it was in the Carolina Government and that Nottoway River was Wyanoake and he pretended to read a copy of the Carolina Charter which express'd that they were to begin at the North end of Carotuck Inlett, & to go to Weyanoake River or Creek being in  $36\frac{1}{2}$  Deg Lat; & that M<sup>r</sup> Moseley did take the Latitude of Nottoway River's mouth, & told him & others then present that it agreed, and from thence he run a due West Course to Maharine River, and we afterwards had y<sup>e</sup> same acco<sup>t</sup> from others. But M<sup>r</sup> Moseley on our asking him, denyed that he had ever tried the latitude of Nottoway River, tho' he owned he had run a line from the mouth of it due West to Maharine River, w<sup>ch</sup> he did by order of their Council.

The 23rd. We took the Examinations of Great Peter the Nansmond Indian after his Examination he told us, that sometime before, he was sent for to Coll: Pollocks, where were Governor Hyde, M<sup>r</sup> Lawson, Coll: Pollock & others, they examined him concerning the Wyanoake Indians and Weyanoke Creek that he gave them the same relation he has given us, and that thereupon Coll. Pollock was angry with him & said, such storys would do the Proprietors a mischief; he answered that he did not come of himself to tell any storys, but was sent for, & if he desired to hear it, he would tell him the truth, but if that would not please him he would not tell him a lye. That M<sup>r</sup> Hyde said he was in the right, he said Coll. Pollock urged him very much to drink, but he thought they had a design upon him & would not.

Then we proceeded to the Maharine Indian Town and took their Examination. At this place there was one John Beverley, who reckons himself an inhabitant of Carolina, whom we desired to take notice of the manner of our proceeding in taking the Examinations and of the questions asked them. This man had been all up Wicocoon Creek & had taken up some land in the Fork of the Creek where the Weyanoake Town stood and when we made the Indians mark out upon the ground, the Creek & Swamps, & the places where the Weyanoake Indians had Corn fields he confessed the Creek Swamps & old fields were as they described them.

The 25th we arrived at M<sup>r</sup> Moseleys, who seemed surprized at our coming having as he told us sent a Messenger to excuse his not meeting us at M<sup>r</sup> Harrison's and prevent our disappointment, here we stayed this day & the next in expectation of Edward Smethwick & Francis Tomms two witnesses w<sup>ch</sup> M<sup>r</sup> Moseley sent for, but they both made excuses that they were not able to come. While we were here M<sup>r</sup> Moseley showed us a Letter from M<sup>r</sup> Lawson dated from Little River the sixth of September wherein he complains of the shortness of the time for taking the Latitude (tho much later than he had formerly agreed on at our meeting at W<sup>ms</sup>burgh his pinnace not being come for him, however he promised to meet or get his Instruments at the place appointed if possible, and recommending to M<sup>r</sup> Moseley a brass semi circle that was in that neighborhood in case his did not come—but amongst the rest he writt that he thought it would be of very ill consequence for them to submit to our appointments. This Semi Circle M<sup>r</sup> Moseley showed us, but said he did not think fit to carry it to the place appointed to try the Latitude, it being so small that it could not be certainly determined thereby ; for the Radius was but 6 inches, & was not capable of being graduated to less than 10 minutes, wherefore he would depend upon M<sup>r</sup> Lawson bringing or sending his Instrument.

The 27th. We proposed to M<sup>r</sup> Moseley to go to his Evidences but Smethwick living at a great distance up Morattuck River, & M<sup>r</sup> Moseley not desiring us to go thither we went to Francis Tomm's house and took his declarations being a Quaker, and here we must observe that M<sup>r</sup> Moseley acted very disengenuously, for when Thom's answered some of our questions to w<sup>ch</sup> M<sup>r</sup> Moseley had made no objection, tho he answered the same things over several times we could not without quarrelling prevail with him to set down the answers in y<sup>e</sup> same terms that Tomms spoke them, but would be putting other words of a different signification into his mouth, and endeavouring to prevail with him to speak them.

The 28th. We went to James Farlows to take his affidavit but M<sup>r</sup> Moseley having given him no notice of our coming, he was gone 12 or 15 mile from home towards M<sup>r</sup> Moseleys home, which was directly back again, and M<sup>r</sup> Moseley not insisting upon him as a material evidence (for he told us he did not know what he could say, but that having lived in Appomatus he supposed he could say something) We proceeded to Maherine River to meet M<sup>r</sup> Beverley & M<sup>r</sup> Allen the Surveyors with whom we had appointed to meet M<sup>r</sup> Moseley and M<sup>r</sup> Lawson the next day at Wicocon or Wyanoake Creek.

The 29th. We went to Wycocon Creek where we mett Mr Moseley but Mr Lawson sent an Excuse & and one to act in his room; They had no sort of Instrument with them. He took the Latitude at noon with Mr Beverleys Sea Quadrant, the Radius whereof was two foot 3 inches, & well graduated to two Minutes & a good plumb & fine thread. We found the Zenith distance of the sun to be  $43^{\text{deg}}: 16^{\text{m}}$  the Declination of the Sun we allowed to be  $6^{\text{d}}: 33^{\text{m}}$ . The Parallax we allowed to be two min: By w<sup>ch</sup> observa<sup>n</sup> the Latitude appeared to be  $36^{\text{d}}: 41^{\text{m}}$ . The day being very clear, this observation was taken at the window Earls about 2 miles up the Creek, there being no firm land nearer but all sunken marsh & Pocason. Our horses getting from us last night, we could not reach this place till a quarter after eleven, so that we had not time to fix the quadrant to stand by itself, but held it by hand rested by a stake of a fence & standing on another stake: To this Mr Moseley objected that it was lyable to error & not so nice & certain as it ought to be, wherefore we resolved to stay till next day and take another observa<sup>n</sup>. This day we examined Ju<sup>o</sup> Smith W<sup>m</sup> Bush Rich Booth & Charles Merrit.

The 30th. We took the affidavit of William Hooker, and Mr Moseley took the affidavit of Lewis Williams. Then we proceeded again to take the latitude at the same place as yesterday having fixed the quadrant very firm & nicely, & used a horse hair to the plumb instead of the thread, and according to the best of our observation we found the zenith distance to be  $43^{\text{d}}: 29^{\text{m}}$ . The Declination we allowed to be  $6^{\text{d}}: 57^{\text{m}}$  the Parallax  $2^{\text{m}}$ . By which observation the latitude appeared to be  $36^{\text{d}}: 40^{\text{m}}$ . But some flying clouds intercepting the sun for some few minutes, this observation could not be depended upon to a minute, yet Mr Beverly was positive he was within 4 or 5 minutes at y<sup>e</sup> ntmost, & we verily believe it was not above 5 or 6 minutes betwixt the last fair observation, & the time we found the sun was considerably fallen: but Mr Moseley being dissatisfyed we resolved to stay another day & take a new observation for his satisfaction. This day we went down the Creek by water to the mouth of it, & took y<sup>e</sup> Courses & Distances of the meanders, & found the Creeks mouth to be 20 Poles to y<sup>e</sup> southward of the place where we took the observation. Here Chowan River is about a quarter of a mile wide and the Creek near 100 yards. It may not be improper in this place to observe a true reason for Mr Moseleys leaving behind him his Brass Instrument for trying the latitude, that what he was pleased to Give, of its being too small: For he owned he had with the same Instrument taken the latitude of his own house, & afterwards showed us a map of that part of Carolina w<sup>ch</sup> he had made from his own surveys; by w<sup>ch</sup> he must certainly know what course & distance Weyanoake or Wicoon Creek was from his house, and thereby could tell within 10 minutes in what latitude the Creek lay according to that Instrument But if by bringing that Instrument he should have discovered to us that the said Creek was in the latitude of their charter, or perhaps to the Northward of it (as it appeared to be by our Quadrant) it might have been difficult for him with all the subtlety whereof he is Master, to have found a specious excuse against so plain a Demonstration, whereas by bringing no Instrument of his own he left himself at full liberty to find fault with ours.

The 1st of October was very cloudy, so that we could take no observation, and the sky threatening bad weather, we resolved to stay no longer, but to go back to the Maherine Indians to examine them again in M<sup>r</sup> Moseley's presence, & in our way thither we took the examination of John Brown.

The 2nd The Maherine Indians not being at home we proceeded to the Nansemond Indian Town, in order to take the latitude at Nottoway Rivers mouth, & to examine those Indians; but when we came there, most of the Indians were gone abroad to get Chicopens & it being a rainy day we could take no observation.

I (Philip Ludwell) came up Chowan River almost from Wicoon Creek by water with M<sup>r</sup> Beverley & set the Courses of the River as we came up, & guessed the distances, by w<sup>ch</sup> we might be enabled to compute how near our observations at the two places agreed, & we found them to agree very near.

At the Nansemond Town the Interpreter told us that when he went down to Wicoon Creek with a Nansemond Indian called Robin Tucker who was sent by the Indians to shew us the Creek on w<sup>ch</sup> the Wyanoakes formerly lived, he called at one William Williams's house, where he met with one M<sup>r</sup> Maul (who is y<sup>e</sup> same person appointed by M<sup>r</sup> Lawson to supply his place at our taking the Latitude) and that being sometime in the House and the Indian left without, as soon as he (the Interpreter) came out, the Indian told him, That man (meaning M<sup>r</sup> Maul) was not good for he had been (persuading) him to deny that the Weyanoakes had lived on Wicoon Creek, & promised him two bottles of powder and a thousand shott to do it. Upon w<sup>ch</sup> we examined the Indian charging him not to tell a ly of the Gentleman, & he assured us it was very true. This M<sup>r</sup> Maul is M<sup>r</sup> Lawson's Deputy Surveyor.

The 23rd. We went to the mouth of Nottoway River and in an old field on y<sup>e</sup> North East side of Chowan just opposite to the Lower side of Nottoway River, called by the people of Carolina Weyonoake Creek, We cutt off the logs of a small tree, and fixed the Quadrant very nicely to the stumps of it, & the day being very clear we had a good observation. We found the zenith distance to be  $^{\circ}45: ^{m}6$ . the Declination we allowed for that day to be  $^{\circ}8: ^{m}4$  the Parralax  $^{m}2$  by which observation the latitude of the place appeared to be just 37 Deg: But the Gentlemen were not satisfyed yet, tho they stood continually looking on y<sup>e</sup> Instrument at M<sup>r</sup> Beverleys elbow, the pretence for their cavilling here was on this occasion M<sup>r</sup> Beverley while he perceived the sun still rising let the Instrument stay a considerable time, and when he thought the sun at the highest, he then moved it, by which means it altered about 10 min: from what it was before, and we did not perceive the sun to rise any more afterwards. Upon which they agreed it was all uncertain, & that this could not be taken for the sun's true latitude; we endeavoured to continue there, & M<sup>r</sup> Beverly desired M<sup>r</sup> Moseley to try it himself: but they would allow no Instrument to be fitt for taking the Latitude except M<sup>r</sup> Lawson's, w<sup>ch</sup> they design to have some time or other, and then they expect we should meet them again. We think the observatōns very exact, but they cavill at every thing, for no other reason (as we can find) but only to delay for we understand M<sup>r</sup> Moseley has perswaded people to take up & has already survey'd almost all the land in dispute near the mouth of the rivers that is of any value, telling them that they need be in no doubt, that Nottoway River lay exactly in the Latitude of their Charter & that he ran a West line from thence to Maherine River and the people on this acct<sup>t</sup> believe themselves very safe.

That he has himself taken up a great deal of land there, part of w<sup>ch</sup> he has sold & there are yet no patents issued for any of those lands but he hopes to procure them (as we suppose) upon the arrival of a Governor or other settlement of their Government) yet fears he shall not only lose his own land but be forced to refund what the poor people have paid him if it be determined to belong to Virginia before he can obtain patents in Carolina, so that t'is not to be wondered he has fished for so many pretences to obstruct a work upon the Determination whereof his own Interest is like to suffer.

The 4th After a very hard journey we arrived at Nath<sup>l</sup> Harrison's where we found M<sup>r</sup> Moseley's letter of excuse dated Sunday September the 17th with a Copy of Smethwicks Affidavit. The messenger that brought this letter returned to M<sup>r</sup> Moseleys while we were there. We asked him when he arrived at M<sup>r</sup> Harrison's? he answered on the Friday after we set out, and being asked what made him so long on his journey as from Sunday to Friday, he answered he did not set out on his Journey till Tuesday, w<sup>ch</sup> was the day we were to meet.

May it please yo<sup>r</sup> Hon<sup>r</sup>

On the part of Virginia

1st There are two positive Evidences of good fame to the place & name of Weyano-ake Creek.

2nd Several Evidences corroborating the Indians account of the Weyanoak Indians having bought land & lived upon the said Creek and very near it for several years, not long before the Grant of the Carolina Charter: from whence probably the Creek took its name, having no name before that we heard of.

3rd All our Evidences are unanimous as to the name of Nottoway River which with the Indians account, corroborated by English Evidences of the Weyanoaks paying an acknowledgement to the Nottoways (who lived there long before) for living on that River, makes it seem improbable the name of that River should be changed from their living a few years upon it, at least twenty five miles from the mouth, when they lived much longer upon Blackwater without altering the name of it.

4th The Evidences on the part of Virginia are all men of good Credit and agree very well in their relation.

5th The Latitude of Weyanoak or Weyacoen Creek appears to agree very near with the Carolina Grant whereas Nottoway River appears to be thirty minutes to the Northward of it.

On the part of Carolina

1st They have no Evidences that speak to the name of Weyanoak or Weyacoen Creek at the time of their Grant.

2nd All their Evidence runs to the name of Weyanoak River & not one calls it a Creek & indeed Nottoway River seems to be the main branch of Chowan River, & it is Navigable (if it were cleared) as high as the head of Blackwater Swamp, whereas there Charter runs expressly to Weyanoak Creek & that is called a Creek to this day.

3rd Their Witnesses are all very ignorant men & most of them men of ill fame that have run away from Virginia & some of them concerned in Interest & we plainly discover several of them did not understand what they swore in their Affidavits & we observe that all of them contradict themselves or one another.

Upon Consideration of the whole Case as the Circumstances have appeared to be in the whole Course of our Progress, we are clearly convinced that the place call'd Weycocon is the place called Weyanoak Creek in the Carolina Charter, & from the backwardness of the Carolina Comm<sup>rs</sup> to meet us & to bring this business to a conclusion, together with the frivolous objections they make upon all occasions to retard our proceedings, & some other Observations we have made, which are too tedious to insert here, we cannot choose but believe that they or one of them at least is convinced of this in his own Judgt (if he would be so ingenuous as to own it) but either for private interest or some other reason to themselves best known they hope to put off the Decision for some time.

Signed. PHILIP LUDWELL.

Upon reading & considering at this Board the Journal & report of Phillip Ludwell Esq<sup>re</sup> & Nath<sup>l</sup> Harrison Gents Commissioners appointed for settling the Boundaries between this her Majestys Colony & the province of Carolina. The Councill are of opinion, that for obviating any misrepresentations w<sup>ch</sup> may be made in England by the Com<sup>rs</sup> on the part of Carolina, It is necessary for her Maj<sup>ty</sup>s Service, to transmit to the R<sup>t</sup> Hon<sup>ble</sup> the Lords Com<sup>rs</sup> for Trade & plantacons, a Copy of the s<sup>d</sup> Journall & report, & likewise represent to their Lordships the difficulties w<sup>ch</sup> the Comiss<sup>rs</sup> appointed for this Colony have encountered in order to bring those of Carolina, to joyne in the necessary measures for accomplishing this work. That the s<sup>d</sup> Comiss<sup>rs</sup> of Carolina, are both of them persons engaged in Interest to obstruct it, for one of those Gentlemen has been for Severall years last past Surveyor General of that Province, & has acquired to himself great profit by Surveying Lands wthin the controverted bounds, and has taken up severall tracts of land in his owne name & sold the same to others for w<sup>ch</sup> he stands still obliged to obtaine patents from the Govern<sup>t</sup> of Carolina. The other of them is at this time Surveyor Generall, & hath the same prospect of advantage by making future surveys within y<sup>e</sup> said Bounds—That the whole behaviour of the Carolina Comiss<sup>rs</sup> hath tended visibly to no other end than to protract & Defeat the Settling this Affair; & particularly M<sup>r</sup> Moseley has used so many Shifts & excuses to disappoint all Conference wth the Comiss<sup>rs</sup> of Virg<sup>a</sup> as plainly show his Aversion to proceed in a business that tends so manifestly to his disadvantage. His prevaricatt<sup>g</sup> on this occasion hath been so indiscreet & unguarded, as to be discovered in the presence of her Maj<sup>ty</sup>s Lieut<sup>t</sup> Govern<sup>r</sup> He started so many Captious objections, to the powers granted to Comiss<sup>rs</sup> of Virg<sup>a</sup> wth designe to render their Conferences ineffectuall, that his owne Colleague could hardly find an Excuse for him. And when the Govern<sup>r</sup> had with much ado prevailed wth the said M<sup>r</sup> Mosely, to appoint a time for meeting the Comiss<sup>rs</sup> of Virg<sup>a</sup> & bringing the necessary Instruments, to take the lattitude of the Bounds in Controversy (w<sup>ch</sup> Instruments he owned were ready in Carolina) he not only failed to comply with his own appointment, but after the Comiss<sup>rs</sup> of Virg<sup>a</sup> had taken the pains to make a journey to his house, & attend him to the places proper for observing the Lattitude, he would not take the trouble of carrying his owne Instrument, but contented himself to find fault with the Quadrant produced by the other side, tho' the same be an Instrument approved by the best Mathamaticians, & of universall use. From all w<sup>ch</sup> it is evident, how little hopes there are of Settling the s<sup>d</sup> Boundaries in concert with the present Comiss<sup>rs</sup> of Carolina. That tho' the bound of the Carolina Charter are in express words limited to Weyanoake Creek lying in or about thirty six degrees & thirty minutes of north Latitude, Yet the s<sup>d</sup> Comiss<sup>rs</sup> of Carolina have not by any of their Evidences, pretended to prove any such place as Weyanoake Creek, the whole of their Evidence reached no further than to prove Weyan-oake river & even that is contradicted by the affidavits w<sup>ch</sup> have been taken on the parts of Virginia. By these it is proved that before the date of the Carolina Charter & all along to this day the place they pretend to be Weyanoake River, was & is still called Nottoway River. But supposing the same had been called Weyanoake river, it can be nothing to their purpose, since every one knows there is a great difference between a River & Creek: besides there are in this Country diverse rivers & Creeks of the same name, Potomaek River & Potomaek Creek, Rappahanock River & Rappahanock Creek, & several others & yet there are many miles differences between the mouths of those Rivers, & the mouths of the Creeks of the same Name. It is also remarkable that the witnesses on the part of Carolina are all very ignorant persons, & most of them of ill fame & reputation, & on y<sup>t</sup> acco<sup>t</sup> were forced to fly from Virg<sup>a</sup> to Carolina. Further there appear many contradictions in their Testimony, w<sup>ch</sup> shall be particularly observed, when this matter shall be ripe for a final report. Whereas on the other hand, the witnesses for proving her Maj<sup>ty</sup>s right are persons of clear fame & eminent figure in this Country, likewise their knowledge of those parts is more ancient than any of the witnesses of Carolina, & their Evidence fully corroborated by the Concurrant testimony of the Tributary Indians. It is also Confirmed by the observations of y<sup>e</sup> Latitude lately taken in those parts; by which it is very plain that the Creek proved to be Weyanoake Creek by the Virg<sup>a</sup> Evidences, & sometimes called Wayocon, Answers best to the Latitude described in y<sup>e</sup> Carolina Charter; For this lyes in thirty six degs & forty minute (w<sup>ch</sup> is ten minutes to the northward of the limits prescribed in their grant) But Nottaway River w<sup>ch</sup> they pretend to have been called Weyanoake River, lyes exactly in the latitude of thirty seven deg<sup>s</sup> & can by no construction be supposed to be the Boudarys described in their Charter. So y<sup>t</sup> upon the whole matter, if the Comiss<sup>rs</sup> of Carolina had no other views than to clear the just right of the Proprietors, such undeniable Demonstrations would be sufficient to convince them, But the said Com<sup>rs</sup> give too much Cause to suspect that they mix their own private Interests, with the Claims of their Masters, & for that reason endeavour to gain time in order to secure patents for the lands already unwarrantably taken up, & to have liscence to survey the rest & on this occasion it is observable that they proceed to survey the land in dispute, notwithstanding the assurance given by that Government to the Contrary, by their letter of the 17th of June 1707 in w<sup>ch</sup> they say That no lands should be taken up w<sup>thin</sup> the Contraverted Bounds, till the same were Determined. This Board do therefore humbly Conceive it Necessary for her Maj<sup>ty</sup>s service that a letter be writt to the present Govern<sup>r</sup> or Presid<sup>t</sup> of Carolina to assert her Maj<sup>ty</sup>s Right to all the lands to the Northward of the mouth of Weyanoke Creek & the line that will run in a due west course from thence to Morattuck River, as it is proved by the witnesses on the part of Virg<sup>a</sup> & also to protest against the signing of patents for any lands within those Bouds, till her Maj<sup>ty</sup>s pleasure be known. And because the Govern<sup>t</sup> of North Carolina, who have broke thro their former engagements, may still refuse to Comply with so just a Caution. It is humbly prayed that the Rt Hon<sup>ble</sup> the Lords Commiss<sup>rs</sup> for Trade & Planta<sup>t</sup>ions, will be pleased to take such measure, as they shall think proper, wth the Lords proprietors of Carolina, to Stop the passing of any such patents, & to vacate the same if already passed, For besides the many inconveniences w<sup>ch</sup> may happen to this her Maj<sup>ty</sup>s Govern<sup>t</sup> of Virg<sup>a</sup>, by allowing of such grauts. It is highly nureasonable that her Majesty should be deprived of her just dues for the Entrys & Quit rents of those lands, & that the Govern<sup>t</sup> of Carolina or any private persons whatsoever should reap advantage by their illegal encroachments on her Maj<sup>ty</sup>s property—

GOVERNOR SPOTSWOOD TO GOVERNOR HYDE.

SIR :

The Commissioners appointed on her Majesty's behalf for settling the Boundaries between this Colony and Carolina, have reported to me, that notwithstanding the publick engagements of the late President and Council of Carolina, that no lands should be taken up within the contraverted bounds till they were finally settled and adjusted. Nevertheless great Tracts of Land have been surveyed and taken up in those parts by the Inhabitants of Carolina, and laid out by the Surveyor of that Province, and that the present Surveyor General of Carolina and his deputies still continue ye same encroachm<sup>t</sup>s on her Majesty's property, although neither of them can be ignorant how far it is aimed on her Majesty's behalf, after having been privy to the proofs and examinations taken by the Comm<sup>r</sup>s for settling the Boundaries. Wherefore, that I may remove the unreasonable pretences of such people who may fancy themselves to have acquired a Right to those Lands by their unwarrantable Encroachments, I think it necessary to acquaint you that I do in her Majesty's name assert her Right to all the Lands lying to the Northward of the mouth of Weyanoake Creek, now called Wayecon, and to the Northward of the Line w<sup>ch</sup> according to ye Charter of the Proprietors of Carolina ought to be run in a due west course from thence to ye South seas. And I do further protest against the signing of Patents for any land lying to the Northward of that Line and Boundary. And for as much as I have lately issued a proclamation containing the former prohibition of making Entry's within ye disputed bounds by the Surveyors or Inhabitants of this Colony, it will not I hope be thought unreasonable that I expect the like prohibition to be made on the part of the Government of Carolina untill the determination of the present disputes concerning the bounds, w<sup>ch</sup> I shal on my part endeavor to hasten as much as possible.

CAROLINA JANUARY THE 21st 17th.

And now as to that part of yours and the letter from this Council relating to the boundarys, I shall have all the regard possible to it, and will lay it before the Council as soon as these Commissions are perfected which I hope will be to-morrow. And then by the first opportunity after you shall have the result from me, and were it only a matter wherein yourself were concerned I should ever act with the greatest respect possible, but this being a matter of so great a consequence wherein the Queen is concerned and a Charter granted from the Crown to the Lords Proprietors I dare not presume to act of myself in it, but with the approbation of the Council. I have forwarded a letter to M<sup>r</sup> Lawson, and am sorry to hear that anything has been acted as it not approved on by you, or anything neglected as might have been done more to your satisfaction. I have great complaints how they in Virginia drive over the Meherron River great stocks of Cattle, which drive stocks of this Colony along with them, and if the owners look after them, they are upbraided with destroying those they have nothing to do with, The Meherron Indians are very insolent and very abusive to our Inhabitants, and kill Cattle and Hogs of ours, supposing they can have protection from you, I hope you will not countenance anything of that sort, but that there may be a fair decorum kept, till the contraverted bounds be determined and that you will not proceed in drawing the Line till the Comm<sup>rs</sup> of this place join, which I shall endeavour to forward with all the earnestness I can.

3<sup>d</sup> 1710.

I'm sorry to hear that our Tributary Indians disturb or injure any of her Majesty's subjects, and shall take care to prevent as much as I can any ground of complaint as to the Maherines; but if those injurys are done to persons within the contraverted bounds I think they have as little reason to complain as they have Right to be there. I'm sure none of them have had any liberty from this Government to take up land in those parts and I hope the Government of Carolina have had the same regard to their own publick engagements not to suffer any encroachments to be made by the Inhabitants of that Province which we have had the more reason to expect from them out of respect to her Majesty in whose behalfe that Land has along been claimed.

LETTER FROM COLLEGE HYDE DATED NORTH CAROLINA
JANUARY 29th 1711.

I take this occasion to inform you that I have considered your letter, and am willing to putt to further Entry's on the North side of Wiccouise, till the meeting of the next Council the 12th of March, by which time I expect to have the Lords Proprietors Instructions to their Commissioners laid before us, and till then can give no further answer to that, reserving withall to the present Possessors and Claimers (by virtue of Entry's & Surveys) their rights which cannot with reason be slighted, because it hath always been taken with good reason, to be within this Government, and shall give orders accordingly. I take it to be necessary also to acquaint you, that the Meherron Indians made an agreement with this Government, that they would not claim any land on the south side of Maherine River. Notwithstanding which they have interrupted the present Possessors of the Lands between Maherine River and Wiccouise Creek, requiring them to leave their plantations without delay within three miles of their town, and have been very insolent therein, which they pretend an authority from your Government for so doing, and are encroaching upon the branches of Wiccouise, which may with reason be hoped will be checked by you. I shall press our Commissioners all in my power to forward the matter, so that they and yours may act in conjunction together, and I would persuade myseffe that you would not precipitate this affair, till our Commissioners join yours, and I have ground to conjecture that M<sup>r</sup> Lawson has been or still is under some great disorder, or I should have received an answer to mine which was forthwith sent him upon my receipt of yours.

I shall always be glad to preserve a good understanding and correspondence betwixt the two Governments, and will never be wanting on my side to effect it in all things that I can answer to my Masters.

And tho' in comparison of Virginia ours is an infant Government I promise myself from your candour that no hardships be offered us, till the controverted bounds be fully determined. I am &c

ANSWER TO THE FOREGOING LETTER.

Since my Letter of the 3<sup>d</sup> instant I received by Capt: Jones yours of the 29th of January which I had an opportunity next day after the receipt to communicate to the Council, and can't forbear letting you know with how much satisfaction they received the assurances of your readiness to stop further Entrys within the contraverted bounds, and to find in the Government of Carolina a Gentleman whose word can be depended on, after the publick engagements of those formerly in the administration there have proved of no effect, and have been so little regarded that the Surveyor General who was then one of the Council, and obliged himself under his hand to suffer no further encroachments on the Lands in dispute has been the principal occasion of those that have been committed since.

It has been the chief care of those in the administration of affairs here after they understood the pretensions of the Lords Proprietors to hinder the seating of any of the Inhabitants of this Colony on the land in Controversy, to which purpose orders have been issued from time to time to restrain them; and to discourage them the more it was thought necessary to give publick notice that none who did unwarrantably seat themselves upon that Land should be admitted to claim any Right, if it should be determined to belong to her Majesty and for that reason I cannot agree to what you are pleased to intimate in your Letter of reserving to the present Possessors and Claimers the Rights they appere themselves to have acquired by virtue of Entrys or Surveys ought to have been made before the bounds had been ascertained, there being no reason why that Land should be taken to belong to the Proprietors untill the disputes are determined since the presumption of right till then is much stronger for the Queen, and there's as little reason that the Inhabitants of Carolina should be on a better foot than those of Virginia. I shall be very glad to have this matter brought to an issue as soon as may be, by the intervention of the Comm<sup>rs</sup> that are appointed for that purpose; but if you will consider how long it has been in agitation I'm persuaded you will not think there has been any precipitation used in negotiating that in the space of ten months (for it is no less since it was first sett on foot) which might have been done in less than one; and if your Commissioners be left to their own inclinations, I'm apt to believe according to what they have acted hitherto, they will find excuses to delay it as many years as they have already done months. For my part as I must plainly declare that to proceed with such Dilatoryness is not paying a just deference to her Majesty's commands so on the other hand it cannot be for the interest either of the Queen or of the Proprietors, since whatsoever has the right must in the mean time lose the benefit of the Quit rents, and that loss together with the Distractions among the People through the uncertainty of their titles will be but slenderly compensated by the private gain of your Comm<sup>rs</sup> in the immediate surveys tho' that seems to have been their chief aim in all these affected delays they have used in this Affair You have yourself been witness how much I have pressed them to proceed and how little effect I have had of their promise, I have now lately had Letters from England Pressing a speedy conclusion of this matter. Wherefore I am fully resolved that if I don't speedily hear that your Comm<sup>rs</sup> intend to proceed in good earnest I shall order our Commissioners to go on without them, and to prepare the best state of the case they can in order to be laid before her Majesty.

JOURNAL OF THE VA COUNCIL. 1711.

AT A COUNCIL HELD the 6th day of February 1710.

The Governor having been pleased to communicate to this Board two Letters from Col. Hyde Governor of North Carolina dated the 21st and 29th of January complaining that the Maharine Indians disturb the Inhabitants of that Province between Maharine River and Wicconse Creek, and have required them to leave their plantations within three miles of the said Indian town, and desiring that a check be put to their proceedings in that kind till the bounds be determined which he promises to forward by pressing their Comm<sup>rs</sup> to act in conjunction with those appointed for this Colony; but withall desiring that this Affair may not be precipitated till their Com<sup>rs</sup> can joine. Upon consideration of which this Board are of opinion that as to what concerns the Maharine Indians they have much more reason to complain than the Inhabitants of Carolina the latter having been along the Aggressors in disturbing the antient possessions of the Indians by their new Ineroachments and that the Government of Carolina would have had no reason to complaine of disturbances from those Indians if they had followed the same method as has been observed here of restraining the taking up land within the contraverted bounds, to which they cannot be said to have a Right untill the bounds be determined the presumption of Right being till then more strong in favour of her Majesty and therefore this Government are in the meantime obliged to protect the Indians in the possession of those Lands to which they are intitled, by the articles of peace against the pretensions of the Inhabitants of that Province. And as to what relates to the meeting of the Commissioners for settling the Boundaries. This Board are of opinion that a letter be writt to the Governor of Carolina signifying to him that after the many delays which the Comm<sup>rs</sup> of that Province have used, it cannot be justly said to be any precipitation if the Comm<sup>rs</sup> for this Colony are directed to proceed without them in case they do not speedily fix a time for proceeding jointly in this Negociation.

VIRGINIA March the 6th 1710(—11)

My Lords,

* * * * *

Notwithstanding all the instances I have made to the Government of Carolina for obtaining a speedy determination of the Boundaries I have not been able to bring their Commissioners to any resolutions, and it plainly appears to me that their Chief design is to delaye it. I send your Lordships the Copys of the Letters that have passed between Coll. Hyde the Governor of that Country and me; on this occasion: I must do him the justice to believe he is for his own part very well inclined to bring this affair to a speedy conclusion but he is upon so precarious a footing there, and his authority so little that he is forced to submitt his own judgement to others whose interests are like to suffer by an equitable determination of this Controversie.

My Lords your Lordships

Most dutifull and most obedient

Humble servant

DE GRAFFENREID TO BISHOP OF LONDON.

FROM NEW BERN, IN NORTH CAROLINA, 20th April, 1711.

MY GOOD AND EXCELLENT LORD :—

The misfortune I met with in all being unexpectedly hurried away from London to New Castle to meet my Swissers, in order to transport them into North Carolina after those six hundred and fifty palatines, I had sent before, which unlooked arrival of them so far north, gave me notice to pay my duty to your lordship, whom then, I was told, was neither in London nor at Fulham. I can assure your lordship no person of any rank is unacquainted with that great and good character your lordship has, and merits. So I can make no excuse on that behalf, but heartily beg pardon, and at the same time humbly request your lordship to accept of me and my people, and receive us into your Church under your lordship's patronage, and we shall esteem ourselves happy sons of a better stock; and I hope we shall always behave ourselves as becomes members of the Church of England, and dutiful children of so pious and indulgent a father as your lordship is to all under your care; in all obedience, craving your lordship's blessing to me and my countrymen here, I make bold to subscribe,

My lord, yours, etc.,
C. DE GRAFFENREID.

[B. P. R. O. JOURNAL VA. COUNCIL.]

13. June 1711.

Philip Ludwell Esq<sup>re</sup> one of the Commissioners for settling the Boundaries between this Colony & Carolina, reported that the said Comm<sup>rs</sup> had lately mett those of Carolina and had made tryall of their Instruments for taking the latitude both of Waycon's Creek and Nottoway River, that the Instrument brought by the Comm<sup>rs</sup> of Carolina was an astrolabe of  $5\frac{1}{2}$  inches Radius and the graduations thereon so small that it was not possible to take the Latitude exactly by it, that their observations differed considerably at both places, That they had agreed to meet at Corrotuck, to try the Latitude there, In order to which Her Majesty's Comm<sup>rs</sup> went accordingly to Corrotuck and waited there four days but those of Carolina did not come, That since their return home they have writ to the said Comm<sup>rs</sup> and desired them to appoint another time and place of Conference and expected an answer every day in order to come to a conclusion of this matter, and that they may be able to make their final report thereon to be layd before this Board.

Whereas the Governor was pleased this day to communicate to the Council the advice he has received by Letters from Coll<sup>o</sup> Hyde President of North Carolina of great commotions in that Province raised by one Coll<sup>o</sup> Thomas Cary late President there against the present established Government and that both partys have taken up arms to support their pretences, this board taking into consideration the dangerous consequence of such proceedings both in respect to the Calamity it may bring upon Her Majesty's subjects of that Province by involving them in a civil war, and more especially the bad influence it may have on this Colony by encouraging the servants and negroes and other persons of desperate fortunes to run from hence in hopes of protection from the party in arms there, Do therefore think it necessary for Her Majesty's service that the Governor imploy his good offices for mediating a reconciliation of the differences in the said Province of Carolina or at least a suspension of any acts of violence between them until their said differences can be determined by the authority of the Lords Prop<sup>rs</sup> and for that purpose that the Governor will be pleased to make a choice of some discreet person to be sent to the said Province of Carolina to offer such mediation to the heads of both partys. And it is further Ordered by the Governor in Council that the commanders in chief of the several Counties bordering on Carolina take all possible care that none of the Inhabitants of this Colony engage or concern themselves in the interest of either of the said partys.

Sir,

I am extremely concerned to hear that the differences in the Government of North Carolina are grown to such a highth as to engage the inhabitants there to take up arms against one another. As I am a fellow subject of the same sovereign I cannot but be sensibly touched with the prospect of those miserys into which a great many of her majesty's subjects in your Province must be involved by pursuing such unhappy Commsels, and therefore for preventing the fatal consequences which will inevitably attend the further progress of these Commotions, I have with the advice of her Majesty's Council here, thought it necessary for her Majestys service to offer you my Mediation for accommodating the present differences. Since I am not without hopes some good expedient may be found out to establish a good Correspondence and pacification among you, untill the matter in dispute be determined by your Masters the Lords Proprietors, which I'm persuaded will be found the true interest of all partys. For this purpose I have sent the bearer M<sup>r</sup> Clayton to dispose both Collonel Hyde and you to accept this offer. I have chosen him because of his great moderation and evenness of Temper, which render him very fitt for managing an affair of this nature, and on whose truth I can depend for a faithfull and impartial relation of what you shall charge him with

"From any correspondence I may have had lately with M<sup>r</sup> Hyde you "have no reason to apprehend any partiality in my mediation, for I am "sure that Gentleman must do me Justice to declare that I have ever ad"vised him to moderation, and to his endeavouring to reconcile and unite "both partys; And it is upon this Basis that I now propose my media"tion, if this cannot be effected at this distance I shall not think it too "much trouble to come to any place on the confines of this Government "for the better accomplishing so good a work, in the meantime I must "desire you on your part (as I have Coll: Hyde) to dismiss the forces you "have raised, and to do everything that may testify you are sincerely dis"posed to yield to whatever is just and reasonable.

N. B. The paragraph marked thus (") was only in M<sup>r</sup> Cary's Letter.

[B. P. R. O. B. T. VIRGINIA. VOL. 13. O. 98.]

THE FOLLOWING LETTER WAS NOT TO BE DELIV-ERED TO M<sup>r</sup> CARY UNLESS HE REJECTED
THE MEDIATION OFFERED IN THE PRECEEDING LETTER.

VIRGINIA June 21st 1711

SIR,

I shall be sorry if M<sup>r</sup> Clayton shall find you so little disposed to a reasonable and peaceable accommodation as to be necessitated to produce this letter to you, whereby I must plainly declare to you that I do not design to stand idle and see so near me her Majesty's subjects misled into unhappy distractions, her peace and authority tumultuously trampled on, and the Tranquility of this Government endangered by your wild commotions. What are you out of your wits to dispute whether M<sup>r</sup> Hyde be sent over to be your Governor? Surely you will not persist to give occasion to the spilling of more blood in so unjustifiable a contention! if your confidence in a superior force at this time encourages you to keep up those tumults, yet think that the evil day of account for such bad actions cannot be far off, and consider what severe penaltys are due to the author of a commotion which may fairly come under the denomination of a Rebellion. I'm informed your design is to seize M<sup>r</sup> Hyde with all his Council, but be assured that I am so well satisfied with the legal Authority he is vested with and have such an awful Reverence for that family which he has the honour to be related to, that so long as I have any power at hand I shall not suffer him to ly imprisoned by a Plebeian Route; once more I offer you my mediation for peace. Think what miserys you involve your Country in, and what coals of fire you heap upon your head by refusing it. So bid you heartily farewell your friendly fellow subject and most humble servant.

Sir

LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT AND COUNCIL OF NORTH CAROLINA TO COLONEL SPOTSWOOD.

29th June 1711.

MOST HONOR<sup>ble</sup> SIR,

As nothing can stamp so deep an Impression of Gratitude upon the minds and hearts of us the President and Council and all loyal and honest subjects of North Carolina than your Hon<sup>rs</sup> generous mediation to reconcile the most distracted Country in the Queen's Dominions So no occasion can ever pass without our acknowledgement for so noble offers of your Friendship and as we beg leave in the most publick and most respective manner to acknowledge it so we must entreat leave to repeat it for your favour in sending M<sup>r</sup> Clayton a person so fitted with all the qualifications possible for his great wisdom, temper and zeal to negotiate so weighty an affair, and to effect it with success if he had not by experience found that there is neither honour nor faith to be depended on from either Colonel Cary or his rebellious crew.

Wee the President and Council have with great heartiness and a just sense of your goodness embrac'd your Hon<sup>rs</sup> mediation and desired M<sup>r</sup> Clayton to go with your Hon<sup>rs</sup> Letter directed to Col: Cary on that Subject, which he did deliver on the 26th instant, being the day after he arrived here. Col: Cary was then under sail in a Brigantine attended with a Barque Togue in this Sound about four leagues distant from this place, what discourse M<sup>r</sup> Clayton had with him on the subject of your Hon<sup>rs</sup> letter he will particularly inform you, the result of which was that a meeting sh'd be had the next day between us and Col: Cary with his pretended Council at the place appointed by him, and all acts of hostility should cease in the mean time and his forces to remain where he then was, but upon consideration that place was found inconvenient, and M<sup>r</sup> Clayton according to agreement with him sent off a Boat with a Letter to acquaint him that we could not meet at the place named by Col<sup>o</sup> Cary, and named two other places, at either of which he desired him to appoint a meeting the then next day, tis true the Letter could not reach him in time by reason of bad weather, but two hours before the time appointed for meeting the first day Col<sup>o</sup> Cary advanced towards us with his Vessells with a Flag on his Main top, and came within five miles of this place, and took his station betwixt the place where he appointed the meeting and our Guards. So that had we gone according to his appointment our passage back had been cut off.

Notwithstanding all which unfair Dealings M<sup>r</sup> Clayton went a second time and delivered your Hon<sup>rs</sup> second Letter, but Col<sup>o</sup> Cary wholly rejected your Hon<sup>rs</sup> mediation, so that M<sup>r</sup> Clayton returned without success as he himself will more particularly inform you. Col<sup>o</sup> Cary is now under sail and approaching towards us so that we hourly expect to be insulted by him, what the event may be God only knows and considering no faith can be given to his words and promises and that he declines all Offers of peace, and even the gracious Offer of your Honor's mediation. We earnestly request you will be pleased to assist us with what armed force can be spared from your Government, to be maintained and paid by this Colony and that with all dispatch that can be made they be sent to South Key where we will have a Sloop or Sloopes and Canoes to wait for them there. If you could spare us some Marines it would strike a greater Terror in the people, but that is submitted to your Hon<sup>rs</sup> great wisdom. And we shall for what we have already expressed in favour to us, make the best use of it, to speak your Hon<sup>rs</sup> merit and must also find a way to lett the greatest of Queens know, what a representative she has in those parts of the world, that so remarkably maintains her Grandeur and Authority and assists her poor subjects that are under such a lawless usurpation and oppression for it is very evident that neither mercy can engage nor justice awe or controule these Rebels. We are in all Duty and Obedience

5 July 1711.

Upon reading at this Board a narrative of the proceedings of John Clayton Esq<sup>re</sup> sent by the Governor to North Carolina in pursuance of the resolutions of the Council the 13th of June for mediating a reconciliation between the partys in Arms in that Government whereby it appears that the said mediation was readily accepted by M<sup>r</sup> Hyde President of that Province and his Council, but that tho' Coll<sup>o</sup> Cary made a shew of accepting thereof and appointing a place of Treaty, he soon discovered his true design was under that pretence to get M<sup>r</sup> Hyde and his Council in his power when they were separated from their Guards, & would never after agree to any place of conferences where M<sup>r</sup> Hyde could rely on the safety of his person, That the said Coll<sup>o</sup> Cary having rejected all proposalls of accommodation even after it had been signified to him that M<sup>r</sup> Hyde and his Council were willing to agree to all the demands he thought fitt to communicate with some necessary explanations and by his discourse, intimating his intentions to treat M<sup>r</sup> Hyde in the same manner Coll<sup>o</sup> Park was in Antegoa, has given sufficient demonstration of his aversion to any peaceable accomodation And whereas the said Coll<sup>o</sup> Cary is now on board a Brigantine mounted with six Guns and attended with other vessells filled with armed men, threatening to begin his hostilitys against the Established Government of the said Province of North Carolina This Board are therefore unanimously of opinion, that there remains now no other means but that of force to put a stop to this Insurrection and to prevent the fatal consequences thereof both to the said Province of Carolina and to this Her Majesty's Colony. And whereas by her Royal Instructions the Governor is impowered and directed upon the application of the Governors of any of Her Majesty's plantations and their being in distress to send them such Assistance as the condition of this Colony can spare, it is the further unanimous opinion of this Board that it is necessary for Her Majesty's service and agreeable to Her Majesty's said Instructions that a competent force be sent from this Colony to the assistance of M<sup>r</sup> Hyde it appearing by the copy of a petition under the hands of all the deputys of the Lords Prop<sup>rs</sup> that he was chosen President by their joynt suffrage, and consequently ought to be looked on as in the legal Administration of that Governmen<sup>t</sup> And this Board are likewise of opinion that the project this day communicated by the Governor for assisting the said President and

Council of Carolina viz. by marching a detachment of the Militia of this Colony over land, and by obtaining a reinforcement of Marines from Her Majesty's ships of war now here to be sent in their boats to Chowan sound is the most probable way of putting an end to those Commotions, and restoring peace to her Maj: subjects of that Province, and is therefore fitt to be pursued, and if by these means it shall happen that Coll<sup>o</sup> Cary or any other of the principal Ringleaders shall be taken It is the unanimous Opinion of the Council that they be brought into this Colony and secured until Her Majesty's pleasure be known.

him to such a height are our divisions brought and when they will cease I know not except her Majesty takes the Government into her own hands I have preach'd 4 times in Corritack and administered the Sacraments I had 86 Communicants & at the several times baptized 10 Infants I have administered the Lord's Supper 3 times in Pasquetank and once in Perquinans the first time I had 17 Communicants the second 5 the third 7 and the fourth 9 I have baptized in these three precincts 154 children Preached 77 times the people being acquainted with the psalmody instead thereof I commonly Catechise but never fail of so doing when there is a psalm sung people are mighty averse to God Fathers and God Mothers and therefore in anywise will not have their children baptized others think no body more fit than their parents; to tell them of the orders of the Church avails not they'll not hearken to the ordinances of man but will have express scripture for all they are to do or observe; there is not a scism or corruption broached in England but here it hath its defenders but the most numerous are those that dissent from everything that is called religion Libertines Men & Women of loose dissolute and scandalous lives and practices, it is usually said our Colonies are chiefly peopled by such as have been educated at some of the famous Colleges of Bridewell Newgate or the Mint what must our inhabitants be not suffered to live in other places for their wicked courses many of whom after their transportation from England have been banished out of all or most of the other colonies or for fear of punishment have fled hither. this is a nest of the most notorious profligates upon earth Women forsake their husbands come in here and live with other men they are sometimes followed then a price is given to the husband and madam stays with her Gallant a report is spread abroad that the husband is dead then they become Man and Wife make a figure and pass for people of worth and reputation arrive to be of the first Rank and Dignity what to do with such I know not nor how a reformation can be hoped for I have not been wanting in my endeavours I have spoiled a good horse enslaved myself hazard my life to little purpose save the discharge of my conscience and the hopes I have of gaining the approbation of the Society the people you see are generally bad yet caress'd by the Quakers my irreconcilable enemies these excite aid and assist may and join with them in destroying the Government and opposing the Establishment of the Church their aim and design is to overthrow the Church and deface the few footsteps there are of the Christian Religion among us and establish their nonsensical tenets in the room thereof There were several Quakers that bore arms in a late attempt upon Col. Hide which was carried on with great cunning malice and rage but the aggressors were happily repulsed and what further wickedness they are contriving time will show they rove about the country in great bodies ravage and plunder all such as are not on their side it would be too tedious to give you a succinet account of every thing that has past since the first beginning of the confusions of this unhappy Government all owing to the Quakers who 7 or 8 years ago procured one Daniel a monster Wickedness to be Deputy Governor for ever since this Government depended on Ashley River Government that office was on sale the Quakers thought they could manage him they grew sauey & he restive they soon procured another worse than he to succeed him one Cary Madam Knightly a Lady of known worth can give you an account of him she lives at Kensington neither did this answer their expectations they made a purse and sent one Porter a known Villian the son of a Quaker and he one in disguise to the proprietors acensed the said Cary of Many things indeed gross eno' and with a great deal of truth sufficient to cause him to be turned out accordingly he was discharged from his Office and there being no Gov<sup>r</sup> at Ashley River then S<sup>r</sup> Nathaniel Johnson being put out by the Whigs this porter brought an order to the Council to chose as was customary in such cases one of their Brethren to be president till a Gov<sup>r</sup> was appointed Mr. Glover a sober discreet and the only man of parts in the country was chosen The Quakers dislike him and by the force of arms thrust in Cary whom the proprietors had deposed into the presidentship here were two presidents one appointed by the Lords proprietors and the other set up by the rognish Quakers neither was obeyed the honest party would not obey Cary and the other Mr. Glover so that for two years and upwards here was no law no justice Assembly or Courts of Judicature so that people did and said what they list Olivers days come again Col<sup>d</sup> Hide arrived but through Col<sup>d</sup> Teints death had no Commission he was chosen president by all sides after Long debates he persists in Mr. Glovers opinion of not suffering the Quakers who had deputations either forged or granted by those who were not proprietors to be of the Council or have any thing to do in the administration, an Assembly was called with much difficulty We had the majority as to what has been transacted in temporals I must refer you to the President and Council their journal if you can get a sight of it which is laid before the proprietors or a Copy which I believe my Lord Rochester will have to show the Queen and council and beg your pardon and patience while I add what relates to the interest of the Church.

The Assembly was made up of a strange mixture of men of various opinions and inclinations a few Churchmen many Presbyterians Independents but most anythingarians some out of principle others out of hopes of power and authority in the Government to the end that they might Lord it over their Neighbours all conspired to act answerable to the desire of the president and Council I was at this solemn meeting a great part of the time they sat. I preach'd twice before them procured a proclamation for a general fast which was kept on Good friday which otherwise would not have been observed any more than any other day. I administered the Holy Sacrament of the Lords Supper then and did all I could both in public and private discourse to excite them to use there endeavours to establish the Church accordingly they made a very good and proper Act to that End which was to this effect that the worship of God and our most holy religion as by law Established in England should be put in practice and observed here in all particulars as far forth as is compatible with the circumstances of the people a select Vestry of 12 Men in every precinct or parish was thereby appointed all the Burgesses were made members thereof These bound in a penalty to meet in their several parishes on a certain day within 6 weeks after the publication of the Act to chose Church wardens give them power to buy a Glebe build a Church or Churches as there was occasion houses for Ministers provide a sufficient maintenance for them and to use their utmost endeavours to provide that every parish might be supplied with a Clergyman approved of allowed by the Lord Bishop of London I thought it might not be improper to be present at their Vestries at the first that met were very much disordered with drink they quarrelled and could scarce be kept from fighting broke up without doing any thing having first agreed when to meet again when the day came there only met five we pitched upon another day then came but two in another precinct The Vestry met at an Ordinary where run was the chief of their business they were most of 'em hot headed very averse to go upon business with much ado I prevailed with them to chose two Churchwardens resolve upon building a Church which is very much wanted and tis a shame to be without one since the Quakers have three meeting houses in that and as many in the next precinct whereas we have neither Church nor Chapel in 3 of the precincts and those two we have in Chowan and Pequimaus were never furnished ready to drop down that in the former precinct hath neither floor nor seats only a few loose benches upon the sand the Key being lost the door stood open ever since I came into the Country. All the Hogs and Cattle flee thither for shade in the summer and warmth in Winter the first dig holes and bury themselves these with the rest make it a loathsome place with their dung and nastiness which is the peoples regard to Churches hence you may expect a hopeful result from the Vestry I was speaking of while the Rum Bottle went about I entertained the Churchwardens with the Articles of Visitations which Churchwardens of England are bound to answer to I could not bring them to any thought of raising money either for building the Churches buying a Glebe or providing for Minister that is the Great Buggbere here they are not to be at any charge nor much trouble If I would live altogether in that precinct they proposed first £60 per Annum but some more generous than the rest were for allowing £70 per annum which is in the goods they usually pay Ministers with the refuse the worst pay in the country is good enough for us This £70 would purchase here about £15 worth of English Goods as wearing apparel and the like I told them I thought a Missioner was not to sit down in one parish and suffer the next or as many as he could supply with convenience to live in ignorance mere heathens for my part I would not this they imputed to avarice which provoked me to upbraid them with their generosity the last year Well if I would continue to come among them as I had hither to done two Sundays in four and give them two Sermons in the Week day in order to which I must ride 100 miles and forced to quarter in some sorry house or other not fit to lodge a Man in for 11 or 12 days they would be kind for the future but having been ill used by them already I pressed them to give me some assurance not being willing to trust to their generosity they very liberally offered me £25 for the year or proportionable till such time as they had a Minister which I refused and am resolved if I must starve I'll not thereunto add Slavery more than indeed I am able to perform except the Roads were better I had another horse and hoped for a better accomodation both for man and horse than we usually met with they treat us with a great deal of formality and think there is no difference between a Gentleman and a labourer all fellows at Foot Ball. they have since hired a reader for £15 per annum who to them is more welcome than a Minister he is little charge and pleases as well nay many know no difference for these Readers bring us into contempt and breed fanaticism I lent him a book of homilies and enjoined him to use no other Sermons but I hear he goes on the old way which is to transcribe a sermon and then read it to the people which is as much as to say they as we of the Ministry do tho' I believe some of 'em have reason to think otherwise of me

If we are like to have a Church Government I humbly pray that the Society would send some directions to the Gov<sup>r</sup> or me about these Readers for if suffered they'l of ill consequence I have seen it in one french a rascal who was at first one of these and now pretends to the Ministry uses me ill prays extempore and does much mischief he tells people he was ordained by the Nice Chancellor of Oxford shews them something posted on the inside of a Book in Latin which he saith are his letters of Orders I think readers should not be allowed to read the absolution nor the Communion or second service nor yet baptize Children as they commonly do. the Governors assuming the power of granting license to Justices to marry is of ill consequence for by virtue thereof are many adulterons Weddings Christians unequally yoked with Quakers or Heathens I have shewed Col<sup>d</sup> Hide what the Canons require in that behalf but Governors and men in power will not easily be informed of an insignificant worthless priest. notice ought to be likewise taken of an abuse offered to my character Our blessed Vestrymen who are to establish the Church in Order thereto at the first strike at one of the fundamentals of our constitution in understanding the Act of Vestry otherwise than it was intended in a former Act which the Society did not allow of as you may remember it was said expressly that the Minister should always be deemed a Vestryman which is highly necessary here where they are so great strangers to the business of a Vestry being to amend that act by abolishing that power of meeting annually to hire their Minister for the year ensuing they have omitted that for the Minister being a Vestryman whereupon many will have it that the Minister hath nothing to do in Vestry which is contrary to our Establishment in England and will of course destroy this Act too if so understood this is the contrivance of an Enemy and not of a Vestryman who ought to be Exemplar and pious Christians in the Parishes but there are many of them Presbyterians or Independants unfit for such an office but being burgesses when the Act passed thrust themselves into the number of Vestry with no good intent this you'l say is rather History than a Letter I beg pardon for my prolixity hoping the subject will palliate the irksomeness thereof but perhaps not please I wish in my next I may have cause to change my matter and not as hitherto be obliged to acquaint you with things more disagreeable than in my former letters but we are agrieved the Church presented in danger I myself your creature a sufferer my sole dependence is on the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Society all good christians here beg for protection & assistance from you the Eyes of all are upon you hoping for some redress from your great and hon<sup>ble</sup> body nothing doubting but that they who are at so great a charge and trouble in propagating the Gospel among them will cherish and maintain the same here so propagated you have here a true but brief account of the difficulties I struggle with the most ins'portable I hope will procure compassion and speedy relief hard labour and famine can't be borne then see what will make me and think it absolutely necessary a couple of good Negro's with some stock to begin with and Money to buy provisions with till I can raise it within myself this with the £45 the price of my plantation will exceed £80 Per annum M<sup>r</sup> Gordon in his request for £100 was not so unreasonable as many thought it to be for the Society will not consider my charge I pray they may be pleased to advance me £40 over and above what will then be due upon the departure of the next Virginia Fleet, which I suppose will not be before spring I have received nothing from the Society since I arrived here fleets are so uncertain I did hope to be hon<sup>d</sup> ere now with a line or two from you

I am Sir your humble Serv<sup>t</sup>

JOHN URMSTON

I wish the Society would write to the Gov<sup>r</sup> & Council about the Library which D<sup>r</sup> Bray sent to Bath in Pamplieough thro mistake and being informed that there was the Seat of Government whereas it is the most obscure inconsiderable place in the country I hear Col<sup>l</sup> Codrington has been a great benefactor to the Society if true it will be an easy matter to order me two Negro's from Barbadoes born there and speak English used to house work and can handle an axe they may be sent by way of Bermudas opportunities are frequent—N B The Vestry of Chowan never met at all, all things are like to remain till the confusions are over which will not be till Col<sup>l</sup> Hide has his commission if then

In obedience to Your Majesty's Order in Council of the 14th of the last month, We have considered the Memorial of the Lords Prop<sup>rs</sup> of Carolina, setting forth that they have always given Instructions to their Gov<sup>r</sup> of the said Province to appoint a Deputy for the better and more regular Government of that part of Carolina that lyes North & West of Cape Fear, by reason of the Great Extent of that Country, and the Necessity of Corresponding and Trafficking with the several nations of the Indians, & therefore pray your Majesty's Royal Approbation of Edward Hyde Esq<sup>re</sup> to be Gov<sup>r</sup> of North Carolina aforesaid. Whereupon we humbly take leave to represent to Your Majesty that We have no objection why Your Majesty may not be graciously pleas'd to approve of the said Edw<sup>ard</sup> Hyde as Governor of the North part of the said Province, under the Lords Proprietors according to their Lordships desire, provided he Qualify himself for that trust in such manner as the Law requires, & that he give Good & Sufficient Security for his due observance of the Acts of Parliament relating to Trade and Navigation, and of such Instructions touching the same as shall be given him by Your Majesty or by any person acting under Your Majesty's authority.

The Security usually given by the Governors of other Proprieties is in a Bond of 2000£ sterl: But in Regard the Trade in that part, is inconsiderable. We humbly offer that the Security to be given by the said Edw<sup>d</sup> Hyde be in a Bond of 1000£ Sterling.

MR. URMISTON TO THE SECRETARY.

N<sup>o</sup> CAROLINA

July 17th 1711

SIR,

Since my last of the 7th the Rebels after a shameful defeat in their wicked attempt against the Governor and council dispersed themselves, some fled into Virginia where there will be met with, others have absconded, but so as to be ready at a call, the Governor of Virginia is expected in by Land with forces, & Captain Smith commander of Her Majesty's Ship the Enterprize Guard Ship in Virginia brings with him a sloop and Marines, so that there will be search made for the enemies, they will I hope be apprehended & disabled from ever making head againe, except they are protected & assisted in their villainy by Danson, their old friend, they have sent divers to him to make their complaint by this fleet, & are very confident they shall turn out Col<sup>l</sup> Hyde & his council & have the whole management of affairs in their own power. If the proprietors are so negligent of us surely the Society will interpose & engage the Queen to take us under her protection, otherwise there will be little hopes of establishing the Church or any good order. I have been dreadfully threatened by them, & if they prevail must not expect to stay here. Mad<sup>m</sup> Hyde the Governors Lady with M<sup>r</sup> Knight Secretary of this Government came over with the same Ships. She has a copy of all proceedings as sent to the proprietors which is to be given to my Lord Rochester who will doubtless acquaint her Majesty's privy council therewith. I told you in my last, I think that several Quakers have arms, and more are ready so to do, & if that will not do, they threaten to bring in the Indians upon us. Danson sent hither from England one Roach with some goods, & a dozen or 14 Great Guns & ammunition under pretence of building a Ship, but 'tis verily believed were designed for our Ruin many of them were mounted on Board a Brigantine which was manned by the Rebels with small arms, but upon their dispersing was since taken by our forces with 3 men only in her, & all the Great Guns & ammunition this is a considerable addition to our strength & now many who were intimidated by the audacious impudence & cruel menaces of the Rascals, now daily join the Governor: & others who were for the adversaries are disheartened from acting against us, so that at present, things have a better face, & we shall I hope be in quiet till News England except Col<sup>l</sup> Hyde have a commission from the Queen, he will either be turned out or not obeyed so great is Danson's influence over the rest of the proprietors, these are with all humble respects to the Honorable Society from,

Sir yours &c

P. S.—As for the Rebels I am not much concerned, but 'tis grievous to here the complaints of the poor men & families, who have been so long in arms that they have lost their crops & will want bread, the ravage & plunder the enemies have committed has ruined others.—another instance of the Quakers Knavery I cannot omit which concerns you to Knowe as having been commissioner for the Palatines. Baron Graffenreid with his people must have starved, if not supplied by others here, He had an order from the proprietors, i. e. Danson for the rest never concern themselves to receive £1500 here for which he was to pay 1000 sterling, a great cheat, for £1000 sterling is worth £3000 here in our pay. Danson in his Letter to his friends here bragged they should get an Estate by these Foreigners. Cary the late usurper of this government, & now head of the Rebels was to pay it out of the proprietors dues which he had received he was arrested & made his escape what reason then have they to protect him to prevent others from supplying the Baron in his great distress. Roach & the Quakers reported that the Baron had no credit in England, nor had he any money any where, through ill usage in their way hither & since their of arrival 900 palatines there are but 300 nowe alive, & those ready to starve, through the instigation of the English, who live near them the neighboring Indians are very troublesome to them in the beginning of this present Rebellion the Baron with the Swiss & palatines would have joined the Governor but were threatened with fire & sword, the Eng<sup>ld</sup> & Indians designed to destroy them & all they had such encouragement do the proprietors give people to come into their colony. I have written a very tart Letter to Sir John Colleton a proprietor concerning all matters whether pleased or displeased, it matters not the proprietors promised me all friendship & favor, but as yet never shewed any & I believe never will.

The Governor acquainted the Council that the Project communicated at their last Meeting for assisting the Government of Carolina was not entirely put in execution because just as he was preparing to march he received by an Express the news of Coll<sup>o</sup> Carys being repuls'd in an attack he made upon the President and Council That his Brigantine was taken, and that he was retired to Pamlico. Whereupon finding it would be very inconvenient if not impracticable to march thither, he had discharged the Militia: but the President of Carolina still desiring some Assistance; he had sent a detachment of the Marines from one of the Guardships, the Commodore of the Fleet refusing to send any Marines from the men of war under his command for that service.

Whereas this Board are informed that divers persons principally concerned in abetting and fomenting the present Insurrection and Commotions in North Carolina, and that have been actually in arms with Coll<sup>o</sup> Thomas Cary in opposition to the Established Government there, are lately come into this Colony; and it being judged of dangerous consequence to the peace of this Colony to suffer such Incendiarys to go at large or give them an opportunity to infuse their seditious and factious principles into the minds of Her Majesty's subjects here, It is the opinion of the Council and accordingly Ordered that a proclamation issue for apprehending the said Coll<sup>o</sup> Thomas Cary, John Porter, Emanuel Low, Nevil Low, George Lumley, Challingswood Ward, Edmund Porter, Lovy Pruchet, Stone and Richard Roach, if found within this Colony, and to secure them until they give bond with good security in the sum of five hundred pounds sterling each for their appearance before the next Council and for their good behaviour in the mean time, the said persons being declared Rebels by proclamation in North Carolina and if any other person coming from the said Province of North Carolina shall be found endeavouring to infuse any seditious principles into the minds of Her Majesty's subjects of this Colony or other insinuations tending to the disturbance of the peace that upon proof thereof before the next Magistrate, they be bound to their good behaviour; or in case the Fact appears such as will subject the offender to loss of life or imprisonment that they be committed to prison to be further proceeded against according to law.

16. August 1711.

M<sup>r</sup> Emannel Low of the Province of North Carolina being apprehended pursuant to the proclamation issued the 24th of the last month, and this day brought before the Governor and Council, and humbly moving that he may not be sent back to North Carolina but permitted to stay in this Government upon his giving security for his good behaviour. It is thereupon Ordered that the said Emannel Low be discharged out of his Custody upon his giving bond with sufficient security, That as soon as Her Majesty's pleasure shall be signified concerning the late disputes and commotions in the said Province of North Carolina he shall when required make his appearance before the Governor of this colony and shall be on good behaviour in the mean time.

JULY 25th 1711.

VIRGINIA 25th July 1711

My Lords

* * * * *

Having now given your Lordships the present state of affairs in this Colony I should not have added to your Lordships trouble if the unhappy Commotions in our neighbouring Province of North Carolina, did not oblige me to represent the same as a matter that may very sensibly affect the peace of this Colony without the application of proper remedies. One Colonel Thomas Cary being some years agoe appointed Deputy Governor of North Carolina under Sir Nathaniel Johnson, was afterwards removed by an Order of the Lords Proprietors and a President chosen to take on him the administration; but it was not long before M<sup>r</sup> Cary being joined by certain Quakers entrusted by the Proprietors in some part of the administration gathered together a rabble of the looser sort of People, and by force of arms turned out the President and most of the Council, and by his own authority assumed the administration of the Government. In the mean time the Lords Proprietors appointed Collonel Tynte Governor of South and North Carolina, and M<sup>r</sup> Edward Hyde to be Deputy Gov<sup>r</sup> of the northern Province, who was to receive his Commission from the former. M<sup>r</sup> Hyde arrived here last summer but before his arrivall Coll: Tynte dyed; so that he found himself thrown into a Country without any Power or Credentials, except some private Letters from some of the Lords Proprietors, however by these he gave so good satisfaction of his being the intended Governor for that Province that every one that could pretend to have Deputations from the Lords Proprietors, and among the rest Coll: Cary joined in a Petition to him to take the administration as President of the Council untill his Commission for Governor should arrive. Accordingly he was sworne, proceeded to settle Courts of Justice, which had been interrupted during the Course of the former troubles, and called an assembly. But M<sup>r</sup> Cary and those of his Party finding their Interest decline and fearing to be called to account for many unwarrantable actions and oppressions whereof they had been guilty began to find fault with their own election, protested against the meeting of the Assembly as now [not] called by lawfull authority and endeavoured to stir up the people to throw off their obedience to the established Government. Upon which the Assembly ordered M<sup>r</sup> Cary and some of the Chief of that Party to be taken into Custody and proceeded to pass a Law obliging M<sup>r</sup> Cary to account to the Proprietors for their dues, which he had refused to pay for the subsistence of the Palatines according to their Order, and added some other Clauses perhaps too severe to be justify'd, wherein it must be confessed they shewed more their resentment of their ill usage during M<sup>r</sup> Cary's usurpation (as they call it) than their prudence to reconcile the distractions of the Country, but of this your Lordships will better judge by the copys of the Laws and Address which are here inclosed. It was not long before they found their power was too weak to enforce the execution of the laws they had passed. For M<sup>r</sup> Cary having made his escape out of custody, had again recourse to his old friends the Mobb, of which he drew together so great a number, and fortify'd his house with great Guns and other warlike Stores, that when the Government had taken a resolution to apprehend him, they found it impracticable to attempt it, M<sup>r</sup> Cary did not long content himself to stand on the Defensive, but fitting out a Brigantine of six Guns, furnished him by a leading Quaker of that Province, with some other Vessells equipp'd in a warlike manner, he again declared himself President, and went to attack M<sup>r</sup> Hyde and his Council at a place to which they had retired for their safety. It was then I received pressing applications from them for assistance from hence to enable them to defend themselves against this Insurrection. Whereupon having advised with the Council, it was thought fitt in the first place to offer my mediation for accomodating their differences believing that M<sup>r</sup> Hyde would be prevailed on to suspend the severity of the Laws against M<sup>r</sup> Cary untill the Proprietors pleasure were known, and that this being once obtained M<sup>r</sup> Cary would be contented to sit quiet and suffer the Government to go on in the way to which he himself had agreed. Accordingly I sent a gentleman very fittly qualify'd for transacting an affair of that nature to offer my Mediation to both partys, and writt to them the Letter of which I here send your Lordships the copy: and because I was in some doubt whether M<sup>r</sup> Cary would yield to a peaceable accomodation I also writt another Letter (of which I have inclos'd a copy) to be deliver'd him in case he rejected the former, intending that if fair means would not prevail on him, he might at least be frighted into a Compliance by the expectation of a superior Force from hence. M<sup>r</sup> Hyde and his Council readily embraced the offer made them, declaring themselves ready to yield to any terms that could in justice or reason be expected of them, but M<sup>r</sup> Cary obstinately rejected all offers of accomodation. Tis true at first he made a shew of accepting the Mediation, but soon show'd that he had no other intention in it, than to seize M<sup>r</sup> Hyde and his Council by drawing them to an interview separated from their Guards, which he treacherously attempted to execute in violation of his own promise and agreement. After his disappointment in this design, he would never agree to any place of conference where M<sup>r</sup> Hyde could rely on the safety of his person: he was with great difficulty persuaded to declare what his demands were, and after a copy of them was obtained he positively refused to sett his hand to it and tho' he had notice given him by the Gentlemen I sent thither that every one of his demands would be agreed to with some necessary explanations even that would not content him, but warned the Mediator to retire for he was resolved to treat no otherwise than with Arms. Matters being now come to the last extremity M<sup>r</sup> Hyde and his Council again pressed for assistance by a joint Letter of which I send your Lordships the copy: and having had the unanimous opinion of her Majesty's Council here, that there was now no other way left but that of force to put a stop to this Dangerous Insurrection, and that it was conformable to her Majesty's Instructions to assist M<sup>r</sup> Hyde and those in the legal administration of that Government, I thereupon ordered the Militia of our Frontier Countys to draw together designing to march a Detachment of them into Carolina, and at the same time to obtain a reinforcement of Marines from her Majesty's ships of war here, to be sent in their boats to the sound of Chowan for securing the Brigantine and armed vessells with which M<sup>r</sup> Cary had been enabled to insult the Government and overawe the people, But the Commodore of our homeward bound fleet, judging it the least part of his duty to do any service to this Country, positively refused to afford me any assistance either of men or boats: tho upon my first communication of that project to him he seem'd to approve it and that I also represented to him how serviceable his boats might prove in transporting the pork I had ordered to be bought up in Carolina for the Queen's service: and tis only owing to that disappointment that I have been obliged to lay aside the thoughts of getting any Pork from thence, which I wish may not be a disadvantage to her Majesty's service in another place. In the mean time I received advice that M<sup>r</sup> Cary had attempted to put in execution his chief design of seizing M<sup>r</sup> Hyde and his Council that he endeavour'd to land a party of his men, while at the same time he attacked them with his Cannon from his Brigantine; but finding he was like to meet with some resistance, and the courage of his Mobb not being so great in action as in imagination, he gave over the attempt, and is since retired to a remote part of the country, whither it is impracticable to march the Militia from hence to attack him. He is there gathering a greater force and threatens to bring down the Tuscorure Indians to his assistance. I have sent what Marines could be spared from our Guard ships to the assistance of that Government, in hopes by that means to satisfy the People that they are mistaken in what their Quaker Polititians have infused into them, that this Government had no authority, nor would ever meddle in their quarrels and if this will not do, I shall still endeavour (notwithstanding the almost insuperable difficultys of marching Forces into a Country so cutt with great Rivers and without any conveniency of carriage) to put an effectuall stop to these confusions, which give so great apprehensions to her Majesty's subjects of this Colony, who reflect that the fatal rebellion raised here, which cost the Crown a great expense of treasure to quell, sprung from much less dangerous appearances; especially since M<sup>r</sup> Cary has threatened to act another Antegoa Tragedy, to which his own desperate Circumstances and the wretched Crew he has gott together seem like enough to prompt him. It is no small concern to me to find in two or three of our frontier countys where the Quakers have got the greatest footing such a reluctancy to undertake anything against Cary and his Party, which I understand is owing to the crafty insinuations of that sort of People, who not only have been the principal Fomenters of the distractions in Carolina but make it their business to instill the like pernicious notions into the minds of her Majesty's subjects here and to justify all the mad actions of that Rabble by such arguments as are destructive to all Government.

I think it necessary on this occasion to represent to your Lordships how ill this Country is provided for its defence either against a Foreign Enemy or intestine commotions: The powder which her Majesty sent hither some years ago is so much wasted, that there's no dependence upon its doing execution even at half distance. I beg your Lordships will be pleased to move her Majesty for a fresh supply, and that in the mean time the Admiralty may give orders to the Captains of her Majesty's ships resorting hither, to exchange from time to time some of their fresh powder for some of ours which will be as proper for their use, in their Signals, Watch guns and Salutes. The Confusions in Carolina have hindered the meeting of the Commrs for settling the Boundaries, but as soon as the affairs of that Country attain any tollerable settlement, I shall press them all I can to come to a Conclusion, and hope by the next Conveyance I shall be able to give a good account of that affair. I am with all due respect

P. S. Kiquotan July 28th 1711.

My Lords,

Since I came hither to dispatch the Fleet, I have received advice that upon the arrival of the Marines I sent to Carolina the heads of that mutinous Rabble there are fled and dispersed, and that there is now great hopes that Country will again be restored to peace; the Assembly and Courts of Justice are beginning to resume their functions without fear of further disturbance. The Commissioners for settling the boundaries are just now mett, and I hope they will conclude that affair before they separate; so that I may be able by the next opportunity to lay their proceedings before your Lordships.

There are now further discoverys made of the ill designs of Mr Cary and his party, there being some Affidavitts sent in hither to prove that Mr Porter one of Cary's pretended Council was with the Tuscarro Indians, endeavoring by promises of great rewards to engage them to cut off all the Inhabitants of that part of Carolina that adhered to Mr Hyde. The Indians own the proposal was accepted by their young men; but that their old men who have the greater sway in their Councils being of their own nature suspicious, that there was some trick intended them, or else directed by a superior Providence, refused to be concerned in that barbarous design.

VIRGINIA, July 28th 1711.

To the Lords Proprietors of Carolina:

My Lords:

Your Lord'ps will no doubt receive from divers hands an account of the distractions in your province of North Carolina, and therefore I shall not enter into the detail of that Affair any further than what concerns the part I have had in Endeavouring to obtain a passification of their Troubles and to restore to that Country that Union amongst its inhabitants which is so necessary for the public good.

After I had received from Mr. Hyde and his Council repeated advices of the preparations Mr. Cary was making to attack them with an armed Force, and the powerful interest he had made by the means and Artifices of the Quakers to poison the minds of all those who had any remains of a peaceable disposition and to debauch them from their Obedience to a Government to which he himself had consented, and that your President and Council were unable to defend themselves without assistance from this Colony, I did upon mature deliberation with the Council here, judge it most expedient to offer my mediation to accommodate their differences, at least to persuade Mr. Cary to suspend all Acts of Violence untill your Lord'ps should signify your pleasure upon the Laws with which he pretended to be aggrieved. I must do justice to Mr. Hyde and the Gentlemen who act as his Council to represent to Yo<sup>r</sup> Lord'ps their readiness to submit all matters in dispute to an impartial examination and to yield to any terms that were just and honourable, but I found a quite different Spirit in Mr. Cary and his Associates, who would not so much as agree to a place of Conference where Mr. Hyde could repair with safety to his person, and at last rejected all offers of Mediation, tho' the Gent. I sent to propose it, signified to him by Mr. Mosely, one of his greatest Confidants, that Mr. Hyde was willing to yield to as many of his demands as he had then thought fit to communicate. The Confidence he placed in his superior Force (having then a Brigantine and Barco longo mounted with canon and filled with armed men riding in Chowan Sound, wearing his Flag at the top-mast head, within gun shott of the places where Mr. Hyde and his Council lay) made him fancy he should soon be able to reduce Mr. Hyde and the Council under his power, and he had the madness to insinuate to the Gentleman I sent to him that Mr. Hyde might expect the same fate Coll<sup>o</sup> Park had in Antegoa, but his success has not hitherto proved answerable to his expectations, having met with Repulse in the attempt that he made to Land and seize Mr. Hyde. However, those who have the direction of him will not suffer him to be discouraged by that disappointment. For Mr. Hyde informs me he is now drawing together a greater Force at Pamlico, and fortifying the house of one Roach, where is the Rendevouze of his Quaker Crew. I think it necessary to acquaint Your Lord'ps that no man has appeared more active in these Commotions than this Roach, a wretched fellow, who being sent in lately with a Cargo of goods belonging to some Merchants in London, no sooner came into the Country but he declared himself against the Government, without examining which side was in the wrong, and has been all [the while] a principal Incendiary, and had it not been for his furnishing the Mobb with trading guns out of his store, and ammunition belonging to his Employers, these Commotions would never have got to the head they are now arrived at. I must not Omitt to inform Your Lord'ps how far the true Spirit of Quakerism has appeared on this Occasion, for besides the insinuations they have made to inflame the Mob, and their Supplying them with arms, rather than baulk their design, several of the Chief of them have accompanied Mr. Cary as his Council, and some even taken upon them military titles. Upon the repeated applications of Mr. Hyde for assistance from hence, I had the unanimous opinion of her Majesty's Council here to send an armed Force for the protection of that Government against this Insurrection, there being now no other way but Force left to restore the peace of Your Lord'ps' Country. I have sent to Mr. Hyde a party of Marines from our Guardships, in hopes that will fright the people from joining in the mad designs of Cary and his party, when they see their Governor will be supported from hence. The satisfaction Mr. Hyde gave me of your Lord'ps' intention for his being the Governor of that Province, tho' he had met with such disappointment in obtaining his Commission, and the evident proofs that all this Faction against him, is purely occasioned on the account of his acting for the interest of Your Lord'ps, in endeavouring to obtain justice from Mr. Cary in relation to your dues, were very great inducements to engage in this Undertaking. Your Lordships' prudence will easily suggest to you the proper measures to put an end to these Confusions and to establish a more lasting foundation of peace and Tranquility to her Majesty's Subjects under your Government, wherein I shall think myself happy if I can be serviceable, having no private passion or Affection to any person there, nor any other design than to testify the Respect with which I am,

GOV. SPOTSWOOD TO LORD DARTMOUTH.

To My Lord Dartmouth:
MY LORD:

Having given Your Lord'p the trouble of two dispatches by the New York packet boat (of which the duplicates are inclosed) I have little now to add except to enclose the Journals of Council and proclamations which contain the publick transactions of this her Majesty's Colony. Since the arrival of the Marines I sent into Carolina, The Affairs of that Country seem to take a new turn. Mr. Cary and his party are dispersed, and 'tis hoped the Courts of Justice and Assembly of the Province will again be at Liberty to resume their Functions. Upon advice that some of the Chief of Mr. Cary's Faction were come into this Colony, the Council advised the issuing a proclamation for apprehending them 'till they should give Security for their good behaviour here, for no government can be safe that has in it such dangerous Incendiarys. There are several Affidavits sent me to prove that one Porter who is one of Mr. Cary's pretended Council was with the Tuscaruro Indians promising great Rewards to incite them to cut off all the Inhabitants of that part of Carolina that adhered to Mr. Hyde. The Indians own that the proposal was accepted by their young men, but that their old men (who bare great Sway in all their Councils) being of their own nature Suspitions of some trick or else directed by a Superior providence, refused to be concerned in that barbarous design. I must beg leave to represent to Your Lord'ps how ill provided we are here to oppose either a foreign Enemy or Intestine Commotion, the powder her Majesty sent hither some years ago is so much wasted by lying so long in this Climate that there's no dependence on its doing execution even at half distance. I pray Your Lord'ps will be pleased to move her Majesty to send a fresh Supply, and in the Meantime that the Captains of her Majesty's Ships of War resorting to this place may be directed to exchange from time to time some new powder for that here, which will be as usefull as any other for their Signals, Watch guns or Salutes. Her Majesty's Ship the Enterprize attending this Government had the good fortune to take at our Capes a French privateer of 88 men from Petitguarns [sic] which had used their Coast and done great damage to our Trade for two or three summer's past. I have sent the prisoners home by this Fleet and hope it may prove for her Majesty's Service in redeeming from the Enemy the like number of her Majesty's Subjects, which I shall always prefer to the particular Advantages to me by sending them in a Flag of Truce to their own Island.

GOV. SPOTSWOOD TO EARL OF ROCHESTER.

VIRGINIA, July 30th, 1711.

To the Earl of Rochester:

MY LORD:

The extraordinary Situation of affairs in my Neighbourhood gives Occasion to the doing myself the honour of this Letter wherein I shall be cautious of taking up Your Lord's time with any needless detail of the distractions in North Carolina, well knowing there are persons now gone over to make a full Representation thereof, and that if the particulars be judged material, they will be communicated to Your Lord by her Majesty's Secretary of State, and by ye Council of Trade, to whom I have writt at large upon this head, and shall only in general say, that when I found a Mob up in arms obstructing the course of Justice, demanding the dissolution of the Assembly and the Repeal of all Laws they disliked, rejecting the Mediation of this Government, and Slighting the Concessions made by their President and Council for redressing all the Grievances they thought fitt to communicate, when they declared their intentions to act another Antigua Tragedy, and not only threatened to call in Indians to their Alliance, but actually Endeavoured to engage the Tuscaruros in a barbarous design of cutting off all her Majesty's Subjects that were not of their party, I thought it high time to interpose with a Force from this Colony to put a more effectual stop to their madness, which I rejoice to tell Your Lord is now happily accomplished, and that party dispersed without effusion of blood. Here I beg leave to offer it as my humble opinion, That since the Country of North Carolina has long been the common Sanctuary of all our Runaway Servants and of all others that fly from the due execution of the Laws in this and her Majesty's other plantations. Since they labor under such a total Absence of Religion that there is but one Clergyman in the whole Country, who has been little more than a year there, and has since baptized great numbers of persons of all ages. Since the Quakers are a numerous people there, and have been fatally trusted with a large share in the administration of that Government, and often taken up arms to maintain themselves therein; Since it has been the common practice there to resist and imprison their Governors, as that they look upon that as lawfull which has been so long tolerated, but lately since neither the great Moderation (I may justly say) prudent behaviour of Mr. Hyde, nor the respect due to his birth and Character, could avail anything on that mutinous people, I cannot see how it is possible to reduce that Anarchy into a regular form of Government, without their Governor be invested with a greater Authority than the Lords Proprietors can confer, and that he be also assisted and Supported from this Government, which I can joyfully assure your Lordp is in perfect peace and Tranquility, under a due Obedience to the Royal Authority and a Gen'll Conformity to the established Church of England. And to this, that if the person appointed Deputy Governor of North Carolina be Commissioned by the Crown, her Majesty will have at hand one to take Care of this Government upon any sudden Vacancy; Since the interest of Great Britain and the Royal prerogative cannot but lose ground during the rule of a President who is generally either a native of the place, or too considerably interested therein. I pray Yo'r Lordp to interpret the trouble I have here given you, as proceeding from a sincere desire to promote her Majesty's service, together with the Welfare of her people, and to advance the interest of my Native Country and the established Church, which will always be the hearty endeavours of him who begs the honour of subscribing himself, with the profoundest Respect,

My Lord,

Your Lordp's

Most dutifull &

Most devoted

Humble Servant.

KIQUOTAN, July 31, 1711.

To the Proprietors of Carolina :

MY LORDS :

Since my writing this, the Marines are returned after having frightened the Rebellions party so as to lay down their arms and disperse, and I with joy tell Your Lord'ps that there is now some prospect of tranquillity in Yo'r Government, and that I have brought this about without effusion of blood, or disorders committed. And upon my arrival at this place, I found Collo. Cary, Levy, Trenit, &c., blustering and pretending to have taken a passage in the Fleet for their going to England, in order to justify their action. Whereupon I had 'em brought before me, but plainly discovered they intended nothing less than a fair Tryal at Your Lord'ps' Board. Wherefore, seeing they would give me no security for such appearance, I have sent them home in the Reserve and Tyger, Men of War, believing the greatest Justice I can do them is to leave them to Your Lord'ps' Examination.

LETTER FROM GOV. HYDE.

My Lord,

As no one can more heartily congratulate your Lordship in that high station her Majesty has so deservedly placed your Lordships so no one can be less desirous of giving you any trouble now you are in it But it is my lot at this time to be placed in a Government where I find nothing but sedition has been industriously cultivated and rebellion too much practiced. An instance of which will be very evident in Coll: Cary who is now sent prisoner to England. I think this is but the third Rebellion he has headed since he came into Carolina beginning with him in Ashley River, where he headed 300 Mob and seized Judge Trot and twice since he came into North Carolina concluding with me. He and those people committed with him which he intended Evidences for himself were at the request of me and the Councell apprehended by the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Alexander Spotswood Lieutenant General Governor of Virginia and I should do very great Injustice to that hon<sup>ble</sup> person if I did not own that the prospect we have of peace being settled in this Government owing to him, as well as putting an end to this Rebellion to his measures; I [saw] no way left to support her Majesty's authority and peace here and maintain the Lords Proprietors power but by begging assistance from the Governour of Virginia who with great compassion tooke the miserable case of that Country and my circumstances (in a manner I may say) into his own protection.

I humbly supplicate your Lordships that not having had notice of Coll: Carys being apprehended and committed before the Fleet sayld for England by which it was rendered impossible for me to send evidences to make out our charge at this time against him, which I have no reason to doubt but I shall do with great clearness) that I may have sufficient time allowed me to send over my evidences and proofs: But if such a favourable consideration (in your Lordships) to the poverty of this Country should prevail with your Lordships to get a Commission sent into Virginia to examine not only evidences but to try the criminals that are in Custody here (if Coll: Cary and those committed with him shall not by your Lordship be thought fit to be try'd allso) must undoubtedly be esteemed a very great Charity—I must entreat leave to observe to your Lordship that Levy Trenvit and George Lumley are two of the most eminent villains that could be picked out for Coll: Cary's purpose the first Coll: Cary made clarke of Pemplico Court in Bath Comty where it will be proved he was famous for forging of false Judgements and razing of records which most in that Court are now raz'd by him George Lumley was made the Secretarys Clarke by Coll: Cary and when he rece<sup>d</sup> the Collonys seal and the Records he gave bond to restore them when required as whole as when he received them without corruption or Imbezelment when I sent my order for them he refused it and when I compelled him to deliver them, abundance of records was not only razed but whole connells cut out of the Booke the other two Edmund Porter and Challingwood Ward are as usefull for any wicked purpose as the others and were all of them in arms on board the Brigantine with Coll: Cary when he assaulted me the 30th of June last on Coll: Pollocks Plantation but was repulsed. I humbly beg your Lordships pardon that I have trespassed thus much upon your Lordships patience, I hope of your Lordships protection and Interest as my cause will appear having been most barbarously used ever since I came in by a people I never offended, but the Quakers that have ever strove to overturn the church Government in this Colony has since I came in pushed it on with un-usuall force many having tooke up arms themselves. I had almost forgot to beg of your Lordships that if John Porter senior who I hear has gone in a Runne for England should be heard of so that it comes to your Lordships knowledge, he may be tooke up for he has not only at all times been the disturber of the Peace of this Government ever since he came into it but in this last commotion has endeavoured by going in person to severall Indian towns and by promises of reward, to bring down the Indians to cut of Man, Woman and Child on the Western Shore of Chowan, that has been the only subjects to her Majesty that on all occasions has expressed their Loyalty I humbly beg leave to recommend myself and cause to your Lordships protection and interest and if it were not too great a presumption if I might have my complaints made by your Lordships to my Lord Rochester and my Lord Guernsey I shall take it as an extraordinary Favour assuring your Lordships that no person living can be with greater regard and respect more your Lordships then

SIR:—

I met nothing worthy remark till I got into North Carolina, being the 26th, which is distant about a hundred and some odd miles, where I found the people all in confusion and disorder, every one getting their arms, and were in a readiness to go down to a place called Pamplico to take one Colonel Cary who was late president, and had got the Lords money in his hands, and would neither lodge it in the Assembly's hands, nor give them sufficient security for the indemnifying the people from the lords. This put me to a stand whether I had best proceed through such a disorderly country as I perceived that was, or else to go back; but, desiring God's protection and blessing, I resolved to put forward; so sending my horses and guide back, I crossed Roanoke River, and then was obliged to travel six miles on foot, there being no such thing as a horse to be had; at length I got one, and that night reached Governor Hyde's, where I found abundance of men in arms. I was received very kindly, and after the governor had perused a letter from the Honorable Governor Spotswood of Virginia (which was in my behalf), he told me he was designed to Pamplico the morrow, and that there was opportunity for my passage for South Carolina. The next day, being Monday 27th, the governor, with about eighty men, crossed the Sound and went up the river Moretto [Moratoc] about twelve miles, and there landed his men, which were there increased to about one hundred and fifty, but left his guns there. We were all obliged to lie in the woods that night, and the next day got to Pamplico (otherwise called Hampton), the place where Colonel Cary lived; but he, having notice of our coming, made his escape to a house of one Colonel Daniels, which was a small way down the river. The governor did not think fit to pursue him that day, but on the next, went down with his men, at which time Colonel Cary had fortified the house with five pieces of cannon, and had about forty men; they could not bring him to any terms that was reasonable, and finding they were so well fortified, marched back again without any action. There was a young gentleman, a relation of Governor Hyde, killed by accident. June the 1st, the governor, with his men, marched up the country again, and I remained at Hampton waiting for my passage, the vessel being not then ready; during my stay here I lodged at one Major Gale's, a very civil gentleman, at whose house the people met each Sunday, where a young gentleman, a lawyer, was appointed to read prayers and a sermon, they having no minister. I understood they had a gentleman sent them by the honorable society, but he could not live among such an unaccountable sort of people, and was removed up in the country. Colonel Cary, finding the governor gone, infused into the people that that Assembly was not duly elected, and that Governor Hyde was not governor, having no commission sent him, and therefore he could not comply with their demand; and one Mr. Roach, a merchant, which are proprietors, backing the said Colonel Cary, with assuring the people that Colonel Hyde was not designed governor, raised the affections of the people toward Colonel Cary, and incensed them against Governor Hyde, Colonel Pollock, and other gentlemen of the governor's council; what the end will be I know not, being obliged away from this place.

My reason for insisting so long on this subject is to let you see partly the management of this country, the inconstancy and unaccountableness of this people, who are of such a factious temper, that they are ready to follow any one that will head them, let the design be what it will; and all is purely for want of sense and reason. I really think there cannot be a people in the world like them; indeed the country is good, pleasant, and fruitful, and if inhabited with honest and industrious people, would exceed all the places I have yet seen.

Sir, yours, etc.,
BENJAMIN DENNIS.

The humble address of the Present General Assembly of North Carolina.

We being at this time by God's grations assistance met to perfect so far as in us lyes, the recovery of this your Lordships poor Country out of a most wretched confusion. Do beg leave with all humility to lay before your Lordships the present state thereof, and the steps that have been taken towards the resetting of the Government, and restoring the necessary Course of Justice together with what opposition our endeavours have met with: And tho we are under a necessity of mentioning the troubles we have laboured under and the causes of them, yet we are very unwilling to enlarge upon that ungrateful subject which out of charity to many of our fellow subjects, who have been unhappily mislead and imposed upon, we had rather should be forever buried in oblivion: we therefore think it at this time sufficient to inform your Lordships that some restless and giddy heads among the people called Quakers persning their wonted practice and indefatigable endeavours to oppose (we may rather say) to extirpate the Church, after they had procured several changes in the Government being perhaps encouraged by their former success did in the year 1708 joyne with Coll: Cary, M<sup>r</sup> Porter and M<sup>r</sup> Moseley and other malecontents and some persons of desperate fortune at Pamplico raised an Insurrection against the Government then duely established by a Commission from your Lordships and to which they themselves had submitted, and having by force and other sinister means got the records and offices into their hands, they set up an arbitrary Government which by discords amongst themselves soon fell piecemeal to the ground; till that nothing remained but confusion, disorder and oppression, these matters may it please your Lordships are notorions and need no proof, the disorders being increased to that degree, that the continual clamour amongst our selves, and the reproach we lay under in the neighbouring Colonies, as also the grievous complaints made on behalf of the Poor Palatins, put all who had any sense of duty either to God or man under a necessity of seeking some remedy for these detestable evils which we saw were very likely to continue another year The good method which your Lordships had taken being frustrated by the death of Colonel Tynte, and the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Edward Hyde Esq<sup>re</sup> being arrived here, and it appearing by Letters from Coll<sup>o</sup> Tynt and other testimonys that he was appointed by your Lordships to be our Gov<sup>r</sup> we could not but look upon him to be the most proper person to retrieve us out of this distress. And therefore many endeavours were made to put the Government into his hands which were opposed and frustrated by Coll<sup>o</sup> Cary, but in a little time M<sup>r</sup> Hyde's great candour and gracefull behaviour so far prevail'd with the best, and the awefull respect to his family and Interest overawed others that Coll<sup>o</sup> Cary found himself under a necessity of complying or being deserted by all those that yet adher'd to him, whereupon M<sup>r</sup> Hyde was unanimously chosen by all who could pretend to have a Suffrage in the election, upon which a Council was called to appoint Courts of Judicature and necessary ministers and to call an Assembly, to which Council Collonel Cary and M<sup>r</sup> Porter were both called but without any reason refused to give their attendance, on the contrary they have used all possible and most malicious and odious endeavours, having caused the records and Seal to be detained to obstruct it and all regular proceedings and to overturn the Government and introduce the former confusion and miserys, for which their seditious practices we were under a necessity to bring them to a Tryal (the account of which being herewith sent) your Lordships will be thereby further informed. And now the Government to the general satisfaction of all men being thus put into some order, we earnestly pray your Lordsp<sup>s</sup> favourable construction of what has been done and that your Lordships would assent to these Acts we have herewith sent: And whereas in the first there is a provision for continuing the Government, we do not therein presume to give Rules to your Lordships but out of a deep sense of the miserys we have already felt to prevent the like untill your Lordships shall according to your great wisdoms appoint a better method being verrily persuaded that your Lordships have not been informed of the want of such a necessary provision, And whereas in the second Act all proceedings during these two years last past are made void, which however it may seem severe, yet we found it necessary because of the unheard of irregularities and unlawful judgments therein past, as appear by the copys which have been given out of their Courts, which could not be anywise provided for, whilst they conceal all their Journals and Records. That an inspection cannot be made: we thought it better that a few should be compelled to bring their snits over, than many be concluded under unjust judgment and yet the severity is not so great as their declaring by proclamation all proceedings null and void, that had been done by the space of nine months before they usurped the Government without any exception, tho in those proceedings they could not challenge one Article; and having laid before your Lordships this short but true account of our present condition : we in most humble manner beseech your Lordships to take this poor Country into your consideration, without any dependance on the other part of your Lordships province, by which the influence of your Lordships good government towards us have been very much clouded. And that you would continue to us this worthy Gentleman who has been so happy an Instrument of peace and Reconciliation amongst us; and that you would remove these three restless Incendiaries Col<sup>o</sup> Cary, M<sup>r</sup> Porter, and M<sup>r</sup> Moseley from having any share in the Government, which is all the punishment we pray may be inflicted for many crimes and misdemeanours they are justly chargeable with, we have but one thing more to lay before your Lords<sup>ts</sup> which is the sale and surveys of your Lordships Lands concerning which the complaints are so numerous and greivous, and all the accounts we have yet had from either M<sup>r</sup> Moseley or the secretarys Office so short and unsatisfactory; that no certain account can be had till a careful review be made; thus much only is certain that many surveys have been returned for Tracts of land, whereon the Surveyor has never sett his foot, we hope this matter will be reduced into some better order by M<sup>r</sup> Lawson who as he has been a very zealous promoter of the settlement of this Country so we doubt not but he will be serviceable to your Lordships in this office, which at this time needs a skillfull and faithful manager, we pray leave further to supplicate your Lordships on behalf of several of the new Inhabitants who have imported themselves and familys at a great charge into this Government during these Troubles, upon the encouragement given of having Land by purchase, and there being no settled Government, was under a necessity of settling themselves upon any Land they found vacant, or else to have removed themselves into some other Country to their great disappointment or utter ruine, we hope your Lordships will consider their case and give order that they may have their lands granted on the same terms, that other your Lordships grants have, who had the fortune to import themselves at a happier juncture.

We lastly beg your Lordships that if any person shall maliciously make any other representation of the state of the Country and Proceedings than we have here done, that your Lordships would be pleased to suspend your belief till we can make reply assuring your Lordships that we have had no other end than the doing justice to all men and settling such a peace as we and our posterity may reap the benefit of: in granting us these requests we shall ever be in duty bound to acknowledge your

Lordships justice and favour towards us, and we the subscriber are and shall remain,

Your Lordships

Most humble and obedient Tenants and Servants

ACTS PASS'D IN NORTH CAROLINA 1711.

An Act for the better and more effectual preserving the Queen's peace, and the establishing a good and lasting foundation of Government in North Carolina.

Whereas several revolutions have heretofore happened in this Colony which were fomented and carried on by factions and seditious persons to the great loss and Damage of the Inhabitants thereof, and to the repeated breaches of her Majesty's peace and violation of the Loyalty and Obedience due from Subjects to their lawfull Sovereigns and Superiors; And what most nearly has concerned us, are the late unhappy dissensions amongst ourselves in this Colony, whereby injustice and Oppression took place, and overspread our Colony, our Trade decreased and daily differences and animosities encreased to the ruin of Religion and our Liberties Since which time it hath pleased God in a great measure, to influence us with a deep Concern of our Calamitys, and put into our hands a power and resolution of removing those threatening Evils and Dangers, and for the future to procure a happy Restauration of peace and tranquility amongst us, by making such good and wholesome Laws, whereby Religion and virtue may flourish, Our duty to our Prince and Governors be putt in practice and maintained, Our Laws Libertys and Estates preserved and Kept inviolated, and justice and Trade encouraged. Wee therefore the Commons assembled do pray that it may be enacted And be it Enacted by his Excellency the Palatin and Lords Proprietors, by and with the advice and consent of this present General Assembly and the authority thereof, and it is hereby Enacted, that any person or persons whatsoever who shall at any time (after the date hereof speak any seditious words or speeches or spread abroad false news, write or disperse scurrilous Libels against the present Govern<sup>t</sup> now lawfully established: disturb or obstruct any lawfull Officer in the executing his Office, or that shall instigate others to Sedition Caball or meet together to contrive invent suggest or incite rebellions, Conspiracys Riotts or any manner of unlawfull Fends or differences thereby to stir up against or maliciously to contrive the Ruin and Disturbance of the Queen's peace, and of the safety and tranquility of this Government, the said person or persons so offending shall and are to be reputed as utter Enemyys to the Queen's peace, and the Welfare and good of this Government, and shall be punished accordingly by fine, imprisonment, pillory or otherwise at the discretion of the Justices of the General Court, who are hereby empowered to heare and determine the same, and the said person or persons so offending, shall be compelled to give good and sufficient security for his or their good behaviour during the Courts pleasure, and be incapable of bearing any office or place of Trust within this Government for the space of three years or accordingly as the Demeritt of the Crime, shall appear before the Judges thereof and if any person or persons shall at any time hereafter, know of such evill practices as aforesaid, and shall conceal the same, that then they shall be punished in the same manner as if they themselves had committed such Crimes. And for the further prevention of traiterous Conspiracys and Rebellions against her sacred Majesty of Great Brittain her Crown and dignity and the better to distinguish and prevent any disaffected Ministers or Officers either Military or Civil from acting or being tolerated, commissioned or impowered to Act in, possess or hold or remain to Act by virtue of any Commission deputed Commission or any power whatsoever, until the said person whosoever he be, has first qualified himself according to the strictness of the Laws of great Brittain now in Force And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid what person soever shall act in any place of profit or trust as aforesaid, without being so qualified shall forfeit the sum of one hundred pounds to be recovered by Action of Debt, bill plaint or information in any Court of Record within this Province, one half to the Governor or President for the time being for the support of the Government and the other half to him or them that shall sue for the same, and shall forfeit his Right to the same place or benefice Provided that all Military Officers may take the oaths in order to their qualification before any one member of the Council or of the General Court, who are hereby impowered to administer the same, and give them Certificates thereof, and moreover what person or persons who hereafter shall equivocate, alter, add to or diminish any word or Clause, of the Oaths appointed to be taken by Law, shall be deemed and held guilty of forgery and high Crimes, and shall be punished accordingly ; And whereas this Province is annexed to and declared to be a Member of the Crown of England, yet notwithstanding disputes do often arise concerning the Laws of England, how far they are in force in this Government : and it appearing by the Charter that the power therein granted of making Laws are limited with this expression Viz. Provided such Laws be consonant to reason, and as near as may be agreeable to the Laws and Customs of Our Kingdom of England, from whence it is manifest that the Laws of England are the Laws of this Government, so far as they are compatible with our way of living and Trade, Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, and it is hereby Enacted and declared that the common Law is and shall be in force in this Government except such part of the practice in the issuing out and return of Writts, and proceedings in the Court of Westminster which for want of several Officers, cannot be put in execution, which ought to be supplied by Rules of the General Court of this Government, being first approved of by the Governor in Council which shall be good in Law from time to time till it shall be altered by Act of Assembly. And be it further Enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid that all statute Laws of England made for maintaining the Queen's Royal Prerogative and the security of her royal person and succession of the Crown, and all such Laws made for the Establishment of the Church, and the Laws made for granting Indulgences to protestant dissenters, and all Laws providing for the privilege of the people and security of trade, as also statute Laws made for Limitation of Actions and for preventing of vexatious Law suites, and for preventing immorality and frauds, and confirming Inheritances and Titles of land are and shall be in force here, altho this province or the plantations in general are not therein named. And because that it has always happened that upon vacancy of the Government seditious and evil minded persons have taken occasion to dispute the authority of the succeeding Governor or president howsoever elected or qualified for want of certain rules being laid down and approved of by the Lords Proprietors, Wee pray therefore that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the authority aforesaid that in case of any such vacancy the eldest Lords Proprietors deputy shall summon the rest of the Deputys with all convenient speed to meet at the usual place for the Councils meeting and there they or the major part of them that meet shall chuse a President And in case of an equality of votes the voice of the Elder Councillour shall have preference and if it shall happen that the Eldest Councillour shall refuse to summon the rest of the Deputys as aforesaid within ten days after notice of such vacancy, then the next eldest Councillour shall summon as aforesaid. And be it further enacted that in case of the vacancy of any Lords Proprietors deputy the Governor or President in time being with the consent of the major part of the deputys then being, shall chuse one to supply that vacancy till that proprietor shall signify his pleasure to the contrary, and if any of the Lords Proprietors deputy shall at any time neglect to refuse to give their attendance being cited thereto, the act or acts of the remaining deputy shall be good and valid in the Law to all intents and purposes. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid that in case of extraordinary occasion, if the Governor, deputy Governor or President for the time being shall depart the Government, and shall first declare the cause of his departure in Council, his absence not exceeding six months shall not be deemed a vacancy, but the eldest Councillor shall preside in Councill during his absence

ACTS PASSED IN NORTH CAROLINA 1711

An Act entitled an Act for redressing several grievances, abuses and illegal proceedings whereby the poor Inhabitants have been wronged as well in their Titles of Land, as in the payments of certain sums of money extorted from them without sufficient acquittances.

Whereas many of the poor Inhabitants of this Government have grievously complained that Coll. Thomas Cary pretending a power to dispose of the Lords proprietors Lands and to receive the moneys for the consideration of the same, have upon that pretext received and taken securities for several sums of money of the Inhabitants of this Government as the consideration of several Tracts of land by them purchased according to the Instructions, Rules and Ordinances made by authority from the Lords Proprietors upon Record in this Government, and for several fees and charges thereon accruing; Yet many of them the said Inhabitants have not their Titles to their respective Tracts of Land made and executed according to the true intent and meaning of the said Instructions: And whereas his Excellency the Lord Palatin and Lords Proprietors have by their Instructions appropriated the money arising and becoming due to them for the relief of the poor Palatines lately transported into this Government by the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Christ<sup>o</sup> Baron de Graf-fenreid, Wee therefore the Commons assembled do pray that it be enacted and be it enacted by his Excellency the Palatin and Lords proprietors by and with the advice and consent of this present General Assembly and the authority thereof And it is hereby enacted that the said Coll: Thomas Cary shall within two months next after the publication hereof appear before the President and Council or Commissioners by them thereunto appointed, and deliver up all such bills, obligations or other securities by him taken as aforesaid And make payment of all such sum or sums of money which he hath received on behalf of the Lords Proprietors as aforesaid, that so the people may be saved harmless from any further claim to be made for the same And the Titles of their land may be secured, and that the said poor palatins may be supplied therewith according to the said Instructions. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid that in case the said Coll: Thomas Cary shall refuse or neglect to appear and deliver up the said Bills or other securities and make payment as aforesaid, That then and in such cases the same shall be levy'd upon his good and chattells, Lands and Tenements, Rights and Credits by distress and sale, by warrant from the Hon<sup>ble</sup> the President directed to the provost Marshal of the several Counties or their deputys. And it is further enacted by the authority aforesaid that no alienation assignment, bargain, or sale, made after the publication of this Act shall be of any effect or pleadable against the execution of this Act, and for the better discovery of what sum or sums of money are in the hands of the said Thomas Cary (the Land Office with all books, records and papers thereunto belonging being feloniously detained or otherwise imbeziled by M<sup>r</sup> Em<sup>l</sup> Low) so that a true account thereof cannot be had. Be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid that all persons holding or claiming any Tracts of Land by purchase shall within two months after publication hereof give just account upon Oath what Land they hold or lay claim to, to the persons hereafter named that is to say in the precinct of Chowan to the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Coll: Thomas Pollock in the precinct of Pequimons to the Hon<sup>ble</sup> W<sup>m</sup> Glover in the precinct of Pasquotank to the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Nathaniel Chevin in the precinct of Curratuck to the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Rich<sup>d</sup> Sanderson Esq<sup>re</sup> in the precinct of Pampllico to M<sup>r</sup> Joel Martin in the precinct of Wickham to M<sup>r</sup> John Jordan in the precinct of Archdale to Capt: Lyonell Reading and Capt: William Brice upon penalty of being deprived of all benefit of this Act and forfeiting to the true and absolute Lords proprietors of this province the sum of ten pounds to be recovered by action of debt in the General Com<sup>t</sup> wherein no Essoign protection or wager of Law shall be allowed And whereas grievous complaint have been made that M<sup>r</sup> Edward Moseley hath taken upon him to set out and survey the Lords proprietors Lands without due Entry made or lawfull authority for the same, and therein have not proceeded according to the Rules and Instructions in that case provided, so that many illegal imperfect and irregular Surveys have been made and several sums of money have been unlawfully extorted, from several of the Inhabitants upon pretence of Fees and assignment of rights to the great wrong of the Lords proprietors and loss and damage of the people for remedy whereof Be it enacted by the authority aforesaid that the said Edward Moseley shall within forty days after publication of this Act give Bond with good security in the sum of five hundred pounds to the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Edward Hyde Esq<sup>re</sup> who is hereby appointed Trustee on behalf of the people with condition that the said Edward Moseley shall pay back and refund unto the respective persons all such sum or sums of mony and deliver up all such Bills or specialtys as he hath received for security upon pretence of fees, or composition for assignment of Rights where it shall appear that his survey or returne hath been imperfect, irregular, deficient or not warrantable by the rules in that case provided, or where rights had been assigned to him without due authority for the same which shall be adjudged of by the Governor or president and council, which money so received back on account of fees shall go to the surveyor General for the time being who shall hereby be obliged to make due and regular returns of the same, and all such mony so recovered as aforesaid upon the account of composition for rights shall go to the Governor deputy Governor or President for the time being And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid that in case the said Edward Moseley shall neglect or refuse to appear to give security as aforesaid within the time aforesaid that then and in such case all such Bills or other specialtys by him taken as aforesaid shall be utterly null and void in the Law to all intents and purposes as if the same had never been made, and all such sum or sums of money as aforesaid by him received shall be recovered back by an action of debt at the suit of the party aggrieved in the general Court of this province wherein no essoign protection or wager of Law shall be allowed: and where any person or persons shall have the trouble of suing for mony already paid, the said persons shall have double costs and damages allowed by him the said Edward Moseley (Provided always that any irregularity deceit or unwarrantable action of the said Edward Moseley or any person by him employed, shall not in anywise prejudice the persons claiming the land, but the right and claim of every person upon due and regular return, shall stand and be firm and good in law, as if the same had perfectly and warrantably been done and performed And whereas from and after the 24th day of July in the year 1708 the Government was unlawfully usurped, the course of Justice subverted, and an arbitrary power set up by which several sums of mony have unlawfully been levyed upon the people her Majesties' subjects imprison'd and unjust judgements given and execution thereon had and obtained. Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid that all suits, judgements proceedings and Levys made from and after the day aforesaid untill the two and twentieth day of January last past shall and are hereby declared to be null and void: and where executions have been had out of any pretended Court or Courts, a writt of restitution shall issue out at the suit of the party aggrieved which shall be signed by the Clerk of the Court wherein such judgement was obtained, whereof the pretended Court shall be evidence, Provided that restitution for any sum levyed upon pretence of publick charge, shall be made as hereafter shall be appointed by Act of Assembly, Provided also that this Act shall not barr any person that hath made suit within the time before mentioned but that his right of Action shall remain to him, as if such suit had not before been made, Provided also that this Act nor any part thereof shall extend to Marriages probats of Wills, Letters of Administration, Conveyances and sales of Land amongst ourselves, proving of Rights, Contracts and Bargains

May it please your Lordships,

Whereas Coll: Thomas Cary Levy Truwhit, Challengwood Ward, George Lunley and Edmond Porter are at the earnest request of us the president and Council of North Carolina apprehended in her Majesty's Collony of Virginia by order of the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Alexander Spotswood Esq<sup>re</sup> Lieutenant Governor thereof and by him comitted to a hearing.

Wee in most humble manner pray leave to informe your Lordship that at a Generall Assembly holden for this Collony in March last the said Coll: Thomas Cary and John Porter Esq<sup>re</sup> were impeathed of high crimes and misdemeanours and were thereupon committed to the Custody of the Provost Marshall from whom they made their escape and to protect themselves from Justice did confederate with the abovenamed Levy Truwhit, Challengwood Ward, George Lunley, Edmond Porter and with one Richard Roath and severall other desperate and evil minded persons as also with Emanuel Low, Gabriel Newby and many other of the people called Quakers and raised an insurrection against the lawfull Authority of the Lords Proprietors of North Carolina and against the peace and sovereign Dominion of our Sovereign Lady the Queen and to carry on their rebellious purposes have endeavoured by promises of reward to draw into their conspiracy the neighbouring Indians by them to cut off all such of her majesty's subjects as should oppose their lawless proceedings, and did man and fit out with great Guns and small Arms and other warlike Stores two vessels and in them did sail in warlike manner with a flag on the main mast head to the great Terror of the Inhabitants and severall Robberys and other Injurys did commit and in one of the said vessels did make an assault upon us the president and Council at the house of Coll: Thomas Pollock (of the said Council) in the Precinct of Chowan who there endeavoured to keep the Peace of our Sovereign Lady the Queen and maintain the authority of the his Excellency the Pallatine and Lords Proprietors from whence being by Gods assistance repelled they fled till they were apprehended as above said, wherefore we humbly crave leave in such time and manner as your Lordships shall think fit most necessary to produce our evidence against the said Coll: Thomas Cary, Levy Trnwhit, Challingwood Ward Geo: Lumley and Edmmd Porter who were committed and sent prisoners to England before we had this last notice of it, by which we were deprived of sending our evidence at the same time with him, for the making good our charge against the said Coll: Thomas Cary and the rest committed with him for which wee humbly hope considering the nature of their offences we may have sufficient time allowed us for the doing of it wherein we do not doubt but to make out full proofs of whatever we shall accuse them with.

We are not out of hope of your Lordships great candour in this affair by which we may fully expect to see Law and Justice once more restored to her Majesty's subjects and this poor country that for near three years last past has by those rebellions been dispossessed of all. And considering this Country is entirely impoverished by those unhappy commotions wee should look upon it an Act of the greatest compassion towards us, if a commission could be obtained to be sent into Virginia, to try the Criminals as well those sent to England as those that remain in Custody here to prevent that charge which would near complete the ruin of our Colony. Wee are in all obedience

JOURNAL OF VA. COUNCIL.

8. October 1711.

Whereas some of the Towns of the Tuscaruro and other Indians on the Frontier of North Carolina did on the 22<sup>d</sup> of last month committ a barbarous massacre on Her Majesty's subjects of that Province and still continue to make war against that Government. To the end therefore that the said Indians may be deprived of the means to prosecute their barbaritys upon Her Majesty's subjects The Governor with the advice of Her Majesty's Council doth hereby strictly prohibite and forbid all persons within this Colony to trade or traffique with the said Tuscaruro or any other Indians for any sort of Commodity untill further order Certifying such as shall act contrary hereunto that they shall be prosecuted with the utmost severity. And the sherifs of the several Countys are required forthwith to signify this order to the respective Indian Traders, and to publish the same at the Courthouse and in all Churches and Chapells in their said Countys.

Resolved and accordingly ordered

That for the better securing the Peace and tranquility of this Government and preventing the further incursion of the Indians M<sup>r</sup> Peter Poythres be forthwith dispatched to such of the Tuscaruro Towns as refused to join with the rest of their Nation in the late massacre requiring them to send Deputys to meet the Governor at the Nottoway Town on the 17th of this month to treat of a peace with Her Majesty's subjects of this and the neighbouring Colonys and plantations: and for the better inducing them to this Treaty that the said M<sup>r</sup> Poythres acquaint them that no Trade will be allowed them from hence till the said Peace be concluded And that he also assure them of a safe conduct for their coming in and returning and for that purpose a guard shall be sent to meet them at the Saponie town. That forasmuch as the Baron de Graffenried Chief of the Swiss and Palatine settlement in Carolina did unfortunately fall into the hands of the Indians some days before the Massacre is detained a prisoner and his life in imminent danger It is ordered that a Message be also sent to the Town where he is to demand that he and any other of the Inhabitants of Carolina prisoners among them be delivered up to this Government as Her Majesty's subjects and to threaten them that if any violence be offered to the said prisoners this Government will revenge it upon the whole Town or nation that shall be found guilty.

That since the making a shew of some part of the strength and force of this Colony may be very necessary to awe the said Tuscaruro Indians not only to continue in peace with us, but also to join with us in the destruction of those Assassins It is ordered that the whole Militia of the Countys of the Isle of Wight, Surry and Prince George be drawn together under arms at the Nottoway Town with six days provisions against the time the said Tuscaruros are expected there.

Pursuant to the above Resolutions the Messages to the Tuscaruro Indians to be sent by M<sup>r</sup> Poythres and also the orders to the commanding Officers of the Militia were prepared and signed by the Governor in Council.

15 October 1711.

The proceedings of the last Council held at Major Nathaniel Harrison's were this day read at the Board and approved as the best means to answer the ends proposed therein for obtaining satisfaction for the late Massacre committed in Carolina. This Board taking into consideration what terms may be most proper to be insisted on at the Conference with the Tuscaruro Indians in order to obtain a just satisfaction for the murders committed by some of their Nation and other Indians in the Province of Carolina came to the following resolutions.

That the engaging the said Tuscaruros to carry on a war by themselves against the Nations concerned in the late Massacre will be most for the ease of Her Majesty's subjects of this Colony and that therefore all possible endeavours be used for that purpose by promising them such suitable rewards as the Governor can persuade them to accept for the head of each man of the Indian Enemy which they shall kill and bring in and also for each woman and child taken prisoner and delivered here. And for the better attaining this and that the Governor enter into an Alliance with them both offensive and defensive if they desire it, not doubting but the general Assembly will enable the Government to make good all such engagements.

That if the said Indians shall not be willing to carry on a war by themselves, that then it is necessary to insist on their acting in conjunction with this Government and Carolina in the prosecution of the said War, and that Hostages be demanded of them for their Fidelity.

That if the said Indians shall not agree to either of the terms above proposed, but pretend to stand neuter the like Hostages be forthwith demanded of them to be delivered with all possible speed.

That in case the said Tuscaruros shall fail to come in according to the Governor's appointment such a detachment of the Militia of the nearest adjacent Countys as the Governor shall think fitt to be forthwith sent to the Tuscaruro Towns to require them immediately to attend the Governor and to bring with them Hostages for their Fidelity in case they continue in peace with this Governm<sup>t</sup>

For the better protection of the Inhabitants of this Colony against the incursions of Indians it is ordered that ten men and an officer out of each of the Frontier Countys be appointed to range three days in a week above the Inhabitants, and that the said party be from time to time relieved by a like number with power to the Commanding Officer of the Militia of the said respective Countys to augment the number of the said Rangers, as the cause of Danger shall require

15th October 1711

MY LORDS,

After what I writt to your Lordships the 28th of July last of the success of my endeavours in quieting the Commotions in North Carolina, I was in hopes I should not have had occasion to trouble your Lordships again, with the affairs of that unhappy Country; but a more dismal and unexpected accident happening there lately I think it my duty to give your Lordships the following account of it together with my proceedings thereupon.

On the 22<sup>d</sup> of last month some Towns of the Tuscaruro Indians, and other nations bordering on Carolina made an Incursion upon the head of Neuse and Pamlico Rivers in that Province, without any previous Declaration of War, or show of Discontent, and having divided themselves into Partys, at sun rise (which was their signal) begun a barbrous massacre, on the inhabitants of the Frontier plantations, killing without distinction of age or sex about sixty English, and upwards of that number of Swiss and Palatines, besides a great many left dangerously wounded: the Baron de Graffenried Chieff of the Swiss and Palatine settlement there is also fallen into their hands, and carry'd away prisoner; since which they have continued their ravages, in burning those plantations, and others deserted by the Inhabitants for fear of the like cruelty's. The Governor M<sup>r</sup> Hyde has raised what men he can, to oppose the further invasion of the Heathen and protect the rest of the Country: but that spirit of disobedience to which they have been long accustomed still prevails so much that he can hardly persuade them to unite for their common safety. I will not affirm that the invitation given those Savages, some time ago by Col<sup>o</sup> Cary and his Party, to cutt off their fellow subjects (tho that heavy charge is proved by divers testimonys and firmly believed in Carolina) has been the only occasion of this Tragedy, yet it appears very reasonable to believe that the Indians have been greatly encouraged in this attempt, by the unnatural Divisions and Animositys among the Inhabitants, and I very much fear their mutinous and cowardly behaviour in some late skirmishes, will embolden the Indians to continue their insolencies.

Upon the first Advice of this unhappy event I sent out Detachments of our Militia to prevent our Tributary Indians from joining with those Savages, and understanding that the greater part of the Tuscaroros had refused to be concerned with the rest of their Nation in this bloody execution, I have sent to them and the other neighbouring Indians to meet me next week on our Frontiers, in order to a Treaty, and as they stand in some awe of this Government, both from the opinion they have of our strength, and their apprehensions of the loss of our Trade upon a Rupture I hope at this Conference to work so far on their fears and interest as at least to preserve their friendship, if not to engage their assistance for the destruction of those Assassins There is very little temptation for any man to enter upon an Indian war, nor much however to be got by encountering a people, more like wild beasts than men: but if war be the only means left us to secure her Majesty's people and Territorys from the Heathen, I don't doubt but our Assembly (which is to meet the 7th of the next month) will take such Resolutions as become them to provide for the effectual prosecution of it. But whatever Air I may give the matter to the Indians, I must not conceal from your Lords<sup>sh</sup> the incapacity of this Country for an offensive or defensive war. Our Militia are in a manner wholly destitute of Ammunition, and as ill provided with arms that are usefull, and unless her Majesty will be pleased to send in a supply of both to be ready against an emergency, I fear I shall not be able to sustain any considerable attack of an Enemy.

Upon the apprehensions we had this summer of the French squadron (which is said to be now in the West Indies) I made a shift to raise four Forts, and run some Lines for the defence of our chief rivers, and to mount about 70 pieces of Canon not finding at my arrival such a thing as either Parapet, Pallisade or one single piece of Ordnance mounted throughout the whole Government. I endeavoured to make our last Assembly sensible of the naked Condition of their Country, but the expence appearing to them then, much more immediate than the Danger, they were easily influenced by their low circumstances to defer the consideration thereof however I prevailed on them to revive in the mean while a former Law made for the defence of the country in times of danger, and by virtue of that Law I have carryed on the above mentioned works during the late alarm; Notwithstanding I have been mightily embarrassed by a sett of Quakers, who broach doctrines so monstrous as their brethren in England have never own'd, nor indeed can be suffered in any Government, they have not only refused to work themselves, or suffer any of their servants to be employed, in the Fortifications, but affirm, that their consciences will not permitt them to contribute in any manner of way to the defence of the Country, even so much as trusting the Government for provisions to support those that do work, tho' at the same time they say, that being obliged by their religion to feed their Enemy's, if the French should come hither and want provisions they must in conscience supply them. As this opinion of theirs is quite different from their practice in Carolina, where they were the most active in taking arms to putt down that Government (tho they now fly again to the pretence of Conscience to be excused from assisting against the Indians) I have thought it necessary to put the Laws of this Country in execution against that sect of people, which impower me to imploy all persons as I shall see fitt for the defence of the Country in times of danger, and imposes fines and penaltys on their disobedience; I doubt not they will sufficiently exclaim against me on this occasion and perhaps their brethren in England who keep a joint stock (as tis said) to to prosecute the Quarrells of all that sect, may think fitt to attack me; but I am persuaded I shall not incur my Sovereign's displeasure so long as I act by the Rule of Law, and it is absolutely necessary to discourage such dangerous opinions, as would render the safety of this Government precarious, since every one that is either lagg or cowardly would make use of the pretence of Conscience to excuse himself from working or fighting when there is greatest need of his service and I fear the Quakers would find too many proselytes on such occasions.

As soon as I was informed of this fatal accident in Carolina I prohibited all Trade from this Country with the Indians finding they were better provided with ammnnition than we ourselves, and had the Government of Carolina made the same step when this Country had a dispute with those very Indians, about a murder committed here some years ago, It is very probable they might have been more cautious of falling upon any of her Majesty's plantations when they found we espoused one another's quarrels but the tameness of this Government in passing over that affair, and the constant supplies they received from Carolina of powder, shott and other necessarys, notwithstanding the representations of this Government, made them believe we were under distinct sovereigns as well as Governors and that we would no more assist Carolina than they us. I have also sent to demand the releasement of the Baron de Grafeuried who by our advices was still alive but supposed only reserved for a more solemn execution, to be tomahawked and tortured at their first publick War Dances.

I am with all due respect,

My Lords

Your Lordships

Most dutifull and most

obedient humble servant

VIRGINIA, 15th October, 1711.

To my Lord Dartmouth:

* * * * *

I endeavoured to make our last Assembly sensible of the naked Condition of their Country, but the expence appearing to them much more immediate than the danger, they were Easily influence by their Low Circumstances to defer the condition thereof; however I prevailed on them to revive in the meanwhile a former Law made for the defence of the Country in times of danger, and by virtue of that Law, I have carried on the above-mentioned Works during the late Alarm, Notwithstanding I have been mightily Embarrassed by a sett of Quakers who breach Doctrines so monstrous as their Brethren in England have never owned, nor, indeed, can be suffered in any Government. They have not only refused to work themselves, or suffer any of their Servants to be employed in the Fortifications, but affirm that their Consciences will not permit them to contribute in any manner of way to the defence of the Country even so much as trusting the Government with provisions to support those that do work, tho' at the same time they say that being obliged by their Religion to feed the Enemy, if the French should come hither and want provisions, they must, in conscience, Supply them. As this Opinion of theirs is quite different from their practice in Carolina, where they were the most active in taking arms to pull down the Government, tho' they now fly again to the pretence of Conscience to be excused from assisting against the Indians, I have thought it necessary to put the Laws of this country in execution against that Sect of people, which impowred to employ all persons as I shall see fitt for the defence of the Country in times of danger, and impose fines and penaltys upon their disobedience. I doubt not they will sufficiently exclaim against me on this Occasion, and perhaps their Brethren in England, who keep a joint Stock to preserve the quarrells of all the Sect [who] may think fitt to attack me, but I'm persuaded I shall not incur my Sovereign's displeasure so long as I act by the Rule of Law, and it is absolutely necessary to discourage such dangerous Opinions as would render the safety of the Government precarious. Since every one that is either lazy or Cowardly would make use of the pretence of Conscience to excuse himself from working or fighting when there is greatest need of his service, and I fear the Quakers would find too many proselytes on such Occasions.

24, OCTOBER 1711.

The Governor this day acquainted the Council that pursuant to the Resolutions on the 15th instant he had met the Deputys of the Tuscaruro Indians at the Nottoway town, and had made the demands then agreed on; That he found the said Deputys very desirous to continue in peace with Her Majesty's subjects as well of this Government as of Carolina, and well enough inclined to enter into a war with the Indians concerned in the late Massacre, upon promise of a reward of six blankets for the head of each man of the said Indians killed by the Tuscaruros, and the usual price of slaves for each woman and Child delivered captives, but that they desired time till the 20th of the next month to consult with their respective towns and had promised to come to Williamsburgh against that time or within five days thereafter with a final Answer both as to their entering into the said War and their delivering Hostages for their Fidelity.

COLONEL SPOTSWOOD TO THE BOARD OF TRADE.

VIRGINIA November 7th 1711.

My Lords,

The last letter I had the honour to write to your Lordships of which the inclosed is a copy gave an account of my intended progress to our Southern Frontiers to meet the deputys of the Tuscaruro Indians. Accordingly having drawn together to Nottoway town against the time appointed the Militia of the three neighbouring Countys consisting of upwards of 1600 men; five of the great men of that Nation arrived very opportunely just at the time I had brought the Militia under some discipline; and were not a little surprized to find there so great a body of men in such good order. After entring into Conference with them I found both by their discourse, and also from what my Messenger assured me of his observations while he was in their Towns, that they were very desirous to continue in peace with this Government and seemed much concerned that any of their Nation should have joined in the Massacre in Carolina. I then proposed to them either to carry on a war against those Indians upon the promise of rewards to be paid them, or to join with her Majesty's Subjects of Carolina for extirpating those Assassins, and that for the better assuring us of their future good behaviour they should deliver two children of the great men of each town to remain as Hostages and to be educated at our Colleges. But as they had no Authority to conclude anything without the concurrence of the rest of their Nation, they desired time to informe their Townes and promised to returne with an Answer by the 20th of this month and I'm in great hopes to obtain what I have proposed by the readiness they have already showed in this meeting, as well as their frankness in procuring the liberty of the Baron de Graffenried upon the demand I made of him, who was to be conducted home to Carolina the next day after my Messenger left their Country.

The delivering their children as hostages will not only prove the most effectual security for their Fidelity, but may be a good step towards the Conversion of that whole Nation to the Christian faith and I could not hope for a more favourable Conjuncture to meet this demand than now when they are under great apprehensions of our Resentm<sup>ts</sup> for the late Barbaritys committed in Carolina, and the impressions made on them by the appearance of so great a force as I then show'd them. I took this occasion to renew a Proposal I formerly made to our tributary Indians for sending some of their children to be brought up at the College, and though it has hitherto been judged a matter so impracticable that the Governors of the College have thought it in vain to attempt it and have chosen rather to be at a great expence for buying Indians of remote Nations taken in War, to be educated in pursuance of a Donation left for that purpose by M<sup>r</sup> Boyle, yet I have prevailed so far by offering to remitt their whole tribute of skins so long as they kept their children at the College, that the King of the Nausmonds has already sent his son and Cousin, the Nottoway and Maherines have sent each two of their Chief mens sons to be brought up to Learning and Christianity; and the Queen of Pamunky upon seeing how well those Indian children are treated has engaged to send her son and the son of one of the Chief men upon the same Foot and I also expect another boy from the Chickahominys. As the remitting their Tribute is one of the conditions for their keeping their children at the College, and I believe a strong motive to engage their compliance, so if it should happen to be disapproved and revoked by succeeding Governors, because it lessens their Income, it may occasion their recalling their children and consequently prove a discouragement to the design of their conversion. And therefore I humbly offer to your Lordships consideration that her Majesty may be moved to signify her Approbation of my yielding this branch of the Governor's perquisites, and if that be thought too great a prejudice to my successors I shall if your Lordships think fitt, propose another Fund by which her Majesty may be enabled to give an equivalent for this Loss, which I shall beg leave in that case to lay before your Lordships and I hope the Example I have sett, with what I have recommended in my speech to the Assembly on that subject, will prompt them to settle some Fund towards the Education of the Indians, since that already given to the College by the deceased M<sup>r</sup> Boyle, will be too small for the maintenance of so great a number as are like to be there in a short time.

That your Lordships may be informed of the affairs under the consideration of this Assembly I take the liberty to inclose a copy of my speech at the opening this Session, and shall by the next opportunity (which I expect in a short time) give your Lordships an exact account of their proceedings, together with the progress of my negotiations with the Tuscarro Indians, which I'm now obliged to break off by reason of the sudden departure of the ship, in which this is intended

My Lord,

Your Lordships

Most dutifull and most

Obedient Humble Servant.

CHARLESTON S. C.

November 2 1711.

MY DEAR:—

I cannot omit, by all opportunities, to inform my second self that you have still living in a brother the most faithful friend that ever was, though perhaps by as signal a hand of Providence as this age can demonstrate.

I will not trouble you with repetitions, but refer you to the after-written memorial which I laid before the government, and shall only acquaint you how far I had been concerned in the bloody tragedy, if kind Providence had not prevented.

About ten days before the fatal day, I was at the baron's, and had agreed with him and Mr. Lawson on a progress to the Indian towns; but before we were prepared to go, a message came from home, to inform me that my wife and brother lay dangerously sick; which I may call a happy sickness to me, for on the news I immediately repaired home, and thereby avoided the fate which I shall hereafter inform you.

The baron, with Mr. Lawson and their attendants, proceeding on their journey, were, on the 22<sup>d</sup> of September (as you will see by the memorial) both barbarously murdered; the mat, on which the baron used to lie on such like voyages, being since found all daubed with blood, so as we suppose him to have been quickly dispatched. But the fate of Mr. Lawson (if our Indian information be true) was much more tragical, for we are informed that they stuck him full of fine small splinters of torchwood, like hogs' bristles, and so set them gradually on fire. This, I doubt not, had been my fate if Providence had not prevented; but I hope God Almighty has designed me for an instrument in the revenging such innocent Christian blood.

On Sunday, October 21, I arrived here in the quality of an agent, and in order to procure the assistance of the government to destroy our enemies, which I doubt not in a little time to effect. The family I left in garrison at Bath town, my wife and brother pretty well recovered; but what has happened since, I know not. Two days after I left the town, at daybreak (which is the Indians' usual time of attack), above 100 guns were heard, which must have been an attack made by the Indians upon some of our garrisons, which are in all eleven in number; but cannot hear the success of it, though a small vessel came from the out part of our government there the other day, by which I have the following news: that on my coming away, Captain Brice detached from our out-garrisons fifty men, and in the woods met with a body of Indians, who fought them three days, and forced them at last to retire into their garrison. The Indians lost in this engagement fifteen men, and we took two, one of whom was killed by one of our men. During this engagement, another body of the Indians, being advised that the garrison was weakened by this detachment, came and attacked the garrison, and at the same time a number of Indian prisoners of a certain nation, which we did not know, whether they were friends or enemies, rose in the garrison, but were soon cut to pieces, as also those on the outside repelled. In the garrison were killed nine Indian men, and soon after thirty-nine women and children sent off for slaves. This is the condition we at present labor under. I shall not trouble you with a particular relation of all their butcheries, but shall relate to you some of them, by which you may suppose the rest. The family of one Mr. Nevill was treated after this manner: the old gentleman himself, after being shot, was laid on the house-floor, with a clean pillow under his head, his wife's head-clothes put upon his head, his stockings turned over his shoes, and his body covered all over with new linen. His wife was set upon her knees, and her hands lifted up as if she was at prayers, leaning against a chair in the chimney corner, and her coats turned up over her head. A son of his was laid out in the yard, with a pillow laid under his head and a bunch of rosemary laid to his nose. A negro had his right hand cut off and left dead. The master of the next house was shot and his body laid flat upon his wife's grave. Women were laid on their house-floors and great stakes run up through their bodies. Others big with child, the infants were ripped out and hung upon trees. In short, their manner of butchery has been so various and unaccountable, that it would be beyond credit to relate them. This blow was so hotly followed by the hellish crew, that we could not bury our dead; so that they were left for prey to the dogs, and wolves, and vultures, whilst our care was to strengthen our garrison to secure the living.

The ship by which this comes is ready to sail, so cannot enlarge; only desire my duty may be presented to my father and mother, my sincere love to yourself and brothers, and service to all friends, hoping for a speedy answer to my last by Madam Hyde, is what offers from

Your sincerely affectionate brother,

CHRISTOPHER GALE.

FROM CHARLES TOWN, CAROLINA.

THE MEMORIAL OF CHRISTOPHER GALE FROM THE GOVERNMENT OF NORTH CAROLINA, TO THE HONORABLE ROBERT GIBS, GOVERNOR AND COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF, AND TO THE HONORABLE COUNCIL AND GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

To lay before your honor the prospect or representation of as promising a country as was ever watered with the dew of heaven, would take up more time than the present exigency of the affair I am now set upon would give me leave; but much more time, and a hand more skillful, would be requisite to give you a view of the calamities and miseries of so fine a country laid waste and desolate by the most barbarous enemies: I mean the Corees and Tuscarora Indians.

Although I shall not use much eloquence to implore your aid and assistance in revenging such injuries, causes of that nature when truly stated being their own best orator; yet, I presume, I have all the advantages that may be of making a true representation of that affair to your honors, being an inhabitant of Beaufort precinct, where a great part of this hellish tragedy was acted. I shall, therefore, inform your honors, that on Saturday the 22<sup>d</sup> of September last, was perpetrated the grossest piece of villainy that perhaps was ever heard of in English America. One hundred and thirty people massacred at the head of the Nuse, and on the south side of Pamptaco rivers, in the space of two hours; butchered after the most barbarous manner that can be expressed, and their dead bodies used with all the scorn and indignity imaginable; their houses plundered of considerable riches (being generally traders), then burned, and their growing and hopeful crops destroyed. What spectacle can strike a man with more horror and stir up more to revenge, than to see so much barbarity practised in so little a time and so unexpectedly? And what makes it the more surprising, that nefarious villainy was committed by such Indians as were esteemed as members of the several families where the mischiefs were done, and that with smiles in their countenances, when their intent was to destroy. I must inform your honors that the governors of North Carolina are not in a condition to take a full (I might say any) satisfaction on the enemy, nor to prevent their further progress, by reason their neighboring Indians are not to be relied on for any assistance, but rather to be feared they would be prejudicial in any expeditions; if not joined with the enemy as we have good reason to judge by their behavior both before and since the act was committed: therefore a strict and jealous eye is necessarily kept over them by the government, and our whole country drawn into garrisons to prevent mischief that way, which very much hinders the getting men into a body to pursue the enemy, who are at present between two and three hundred effective men, and above one thousand women and children; and I believe your honors will be of opinion, that it is altogether impracticable to attempt such a body of men, flushed with their first success, without Indians who are acquainted with their manner of fighting. Wherefore, on behalf of the government of North Carolina, by which I am employed, I earnestly entreat your honors to permit and encourage so many of your tributary Indians as you think proper, to fall upon those Indians our enemies, whose families are since fled down to the seaboard between Weatuek and Cape Fare rivers, whilst their men are still ravaging and destroying all before them, within sight of our garrisons; that by your assistance exemplary justice may be done to such barbarous villains as have laid waste and desolate such a flourishing part of the lords proprietors' country, and which, without your speedy relief, will be wholly deserted. If any Indians are found innocent of that massacre and will assist in the destruction of those inhuman wretches, care will be taken to distinguish those from the rest; but I very much fear that upon strict inquiry, it would be found that the whole nation of the Tuscaroras (though some of them may not yet be actors) was knowing and consenting to what was done; and that the success of those already in motion, if not put a stop to, will at last induce the rest to join with them in carrying on these bloody designs. Beside the daily expectation of a considerable number of Senekoes [Sene-

cas], which we are certainly informed are coming to cohabit with the Tuscaroras, our enemies, this winter, and become one nation, which in time may affect our neighboring governments as well as us. I firmly persuade myself that so much prejudice as the lords proprietors will receive by that fatal blow, the barbarous murder of so many of our fellow-subjects, among which number is the Honorable Baron de Graffenried, a landgrave of Carolina, and a member of the council, Mr. Lawson the surveyor-general, with divers others of note, will excite your honors' compassion toward such a country and hasten your assistance and relief.

I am, with all respect,

Your honors' most obedient, humble servant,

CHRISTOPHER GALE

COLONEL SPOTSWOOD TO THE BOARD OF TRADE 8th
FEBRUARY 1711 $\frac{1}{2}$ .

My Lords,

* * * * *

At present the danger seems much more to threaten North Carolina where the Indians daily gather strength, and have already besieged a Party of the Inhabitants in a small Fort they had built for their Protection. The distractions among themselves give the Indians all the opportunitys they could wish of destroying them, for as our Burgesses for their private Interest have disappointed all means of defending this Country, so those of Carolina on a worse principle have resolved to sacrifice the Province to their own private resentments, and because they cannot introduce into the Government the persons most obnoxious for the late Rebellion and Civil war, they will make no provision for defending any part of the Country, and are now likewise dissolved without doing any business. The Baron de Graffenried being obliged while he was prisoner among the Indians to conclude a neutrality for himself and the Palatines lives as yet undisturbed, but is sufficiently persecuted by the people of Carolina for not breaking with the Indians tho they will afford him neither provisions of war or victuals nor any assistance from them: he has always declared his readiness to enter into the war as soon as he should be assisted to prosecute it; but it would be madness to expose his handful of people to the fury of the Indians without some better assurance of help than the present Confusions in that Province gives him reason to hope for, since the Indians would soon either entirely destroy that settlement or starve them out of the place by killing their stocks and hindering them from planting Corn. In the mean time the people of Carolina receive great advantage by this neutrality, for by that means the Baron has an opportunity of discovering to them all the designs of the Indians, tho' he runs the risque of paying dear for it, if they ever come to know it. This makes him so apprehensive of his Danger from them, and so diffident of help or even justice from the Government under which he is that he has made some offers to remove to this Colony with the Palatines, upon some of her Majesty's lands, and since such a number of people as he may bring with him what he proposes to invite over from Switzerland and Germany will be of great advantage to this Country, and prove a strong Barrier against the Incursions of Indians if they were properly disposed above our Inhabitants, I pray your Lordships directions what encouragements ought to be given to this Design either as to the quantity of land or the terms of granting it. Your Lordships will also be pleased to instruct me as to the settlement of a great number of the other Inhabitants of North Carolina who I understand design to remove hither for protection.

I beg leave to represent to your Lordships the necessity of some speedy orders for this Colony Maryland and Carolina to assist each other in case either be attacked, and if your Lordships shall think fitt to propose this to her Majesty, I humbly offer that the regulation of that assistance may not be left to the precarious humour of an Assembly, but that your Lordships will be pleased to consider of some more proper method for rendring it effectnall. I should have sent 'ere now an account of the stores of war in this Country; but considering those accounts have been transmitted both by Coll: Nott and M<sup>r</sup> President Jenings and none other sent hither since, I thought it needless to trouble your Lordships with an account which would contain only the same thing without any alteration except as I have already intimated to your Lordships the powder is much more wasted and decayed than it was then.

JOURNAL OF THE VIRGINIA COUNCIL

At a Council held at the Capitol

the 20th day of February 1711 (–12.)

On reading at this Board a petition of the Inhabitants of Nense River in North Carolina representing the deplorable State to which they are reduced by the Indian Enemy their houses and plantations burnt; their Stocks destroyed and they forced to betake themselves to Garrisons for their defence where they will soon be in danger of starving for want of necessarys and unable to defend themselves without speedy succour of men, arms and Ammunition, and praying Relief therein from this Government, The Council taking the said petition into consideration are of Opinion that if the Treaty made with the Tuscaruro Indians take effect, The petitioners will be relieved without other assistance from this Government which cannot well be afforded at present by reason of the low state of the publick Revenue That since the time for the execution of the said Treaty on the part of the Tuscaruros is so near The Governor of North Carolina be exhorted to assist the pet<sup>rs</sup> with provisions and ammunition to defend their Garrisons till the Event of the said Treaty and that in order to encourage the petitioners to defend themselves a Copy of the said Treaty be sent to the Commanders of the Garrisons in Nense that they may see what care this Government hath already taken for their Relief and to assure them that further measures will speedily be entered into for quickening the Tuscaruros to perform their engagements, and M<sup>r</sup> Farguson and M<sup>r</sup> Graves who were deputed by the Inhabitants of Nense to present the aforesaid petition were called in and acquainted with these Resolutions.

NORTH CAROLINA ss.

The address of the President and Council, the Speaker and Members of the House of Burgesses of the Government of North Carolina.

The great concern which your Honour has always expressed for this distressed Government lays us under the greatest Obligations imaginable We cannot sufficiently make those suitable Returns of Gratitude to your Honour as are truly due to you for your generous care of us when your friendly mediation to compose the unfortunate differences that lately were among us. But when we were more sensibly afflicted by the inhuman barbaritys of the Indians to divers of the Inhabitants of this Government to the almost depopulating a whole County, our whole dependence was on the Relief we expected from your Hon<sup>r</sup> what pains and care your Hon<sup>r</sup> took for us we are not altogether ignorant of And we take this occasion to return your Hon<sup>r</sup> our hearty thanks for the same. We are very sorry that so generous a design as your Honour had formed in our favour should meet with so much difficulty as to render those endeavours at that time for our safety unsuccessfull.

But we are too deeply affected with the Reasons as not to be sensible that it partly proceeded from the misunderstandings among ourselves or the little hopes or encouragement your Government could have in expectation of a people not seeing their own danger, or at least not affected by it.

We should be unjust to ourselves if we did not own that you even sought our safety before we could well ask your assistance and how diffusive afterwards was your care is fully evident from the scheme you laid to work our deliverance.

Our present Circumstances are such at this time as obliges us to be humble snitors to your Hon<sup>r</sup> for an auxillary Force of 200 men with all the dispatch your Honour can possibly send to our assistance the men of this Government so little inured to arms makes us find the great want of Resolutions in them being either too unwilling or too tender for bold service, the inconveniency of which can only be repaired by those succours beg'd of your Honour who live under the happy influences of your administration as well as under the strictness of your good discipline.

The great hopes we promise ourselves from this is the unanimous proceedings of this Assembly which raised £4000 by which not only our men but the succors of our neighbours will be provided for.

It is no little satisfaction to find that people are come to a better understanding or at least to a juster sence of their danger and we could promise ourselves in this juncture of time the assistance we pray for as an encouragement to our Resolutions and as a support in that part we are so defective in for the want of them.

We shall not be wanting in representing to the Lords Proprietors the favours we have received from you in the midst of all our difficultys the readiness you have on all occasions expressed in the taking care of her Majestys subjects which proclaims the great Wisdom of her Majesty in the choice of a person of so high merit and that has rendered himself so universally dear to all his neighbours and especially those of this Government.

COLL: SPOTSWOOD TO THE LORDS OF TRADE.

MAY 8th 1712.

My Lords.

As to the proceedings in settling the Boundaries with Carolina of which your Lordships desire an Account in your letter of the 22nd of November I have writ sundry times to the Governor of that Province to appoint Persons for adjusting thereof, but he tells me he has received no directions therein from the Lords Proprietors so that your Lordships will be pleased to consider of some further means to quicken the Proprietors to put a speedy end to this dispute.

We continue still under the apprehensions of being attacked by the Indians for notwithstanding the Government of South Carolina sent a body of 700 of their Indians commanded by some officers of that province to the assistance of the People of North Carolina, and that about the latter end of last January they fell upon some Towns of the Tuscarroos with pretty good success. Yet after this first rencounter near 500 of them deserted so that their commander did not find himself in a condition to improve the consternation into which that sudden eruption had put the enemy, and in his next attempt upon one of their Ports he was forced to draw off with considerable loss, however this seasonable succour put new life into the people of that Province and a new assembly being called, passed an Act to raise 4000£ for prosecuting the war against the Indian Enemy and because they could not raise a sufficient body of men in that Province where the Quakers make a great number of the Inhabitants, they made application to me for an assistance of 200 men from this Colony. The apparent danger to which her majestys subjects there were exposed, more especially by the Indians gathering fresh courage upon the repulse they had given the South Carolina Forces, together with the just grounds there appeared to believe that the whole Tuscaroro Nation were confederated with those concerned in the Massacre, not only from their failing to perform any one of the Engagements they had entered into with this Government; but the trifling excuses they made for that failure at their coming in to me in March last, and the discoveries of their intregues to seduce our Tributary Indians to join with them, were sufficient motives for agreeing to the assistance desired by Carolina as the most probable means to divert the storm from our own Frontiers, so that upon a full debate in two severall Councils, I had the unanimous advice of the whole Council to send 100 men of our Inhabitants and 100 of our Tributary Indians to the assistance of Carolina: And because the Assembly had left me no Fund to answer such an occasion and that there remained nothing in Bank upon the Revenue of 2<sup>d</sup> <sup>7</sup>/<sub>8</sub> hhd. there was a necessity to defray the Charge of this Expedition out of her Majesty's Revenue of Quit Rents since the necessity was so pressing as would not admit of the Forms of calling an Assembly and the delays incident to their proceedings but it was also agreed to demand of the Government of Carolina to enter into a previous engagement in behalf of the Lords Proprietors, that whatever sum should be employed for this service out of her Maj<sup>ty's</sup> Quit Rents should be refunded by the Lords Proprietors, if her Majesty thought fit to demand it, as being more immediately employed for the protection of their Government. Upon this I proceeded to appoint the Rendezonze of the soldiers, and desired a conference with the Governor of North Carolina for the better carrying on this service, but at my meeting him he told me with great concern, that the Commander sent from South Carolina had without his knowledge clapt up a peace with the Indians upon very unaccountable conditions at a time when he had reduced one of their most considerable Forts to the last Extremity and could not have missed taking it in a few hours, nor of breaking entirely the power of that enemy, if he would have waited the arrival of the succours from hence, and the Force then raising in North Carolina to joyn him. This weakness in the conduct of their affairs together with a more unaccountable obstinacy in the Council of that Province in refusing to submit to her Majestys' Determination the repayment of the mony disbursed here for their assistance or of furnishing so much as Provisions for the Forces sent from hence is as great a discouragement to their Neighbours as tis enconraging to the Heathen who are not such fools as not to perceive their weak efforts in carrying on the war as well as their easiness in making Peace. And it happened very luckily on this occasion, that I had not entered any of the soldiers of this Government in Pay, before I knew of this event, so that all that expence is saved, and I have now nothing more to think of than the defending our own Frontiers against the inroads of the Tuscaruroes whereas they find themselves in a condition to break this peace, which nobody believes will be long lived.

VIRGINIA May 15th 1712.

My Lords,

Having in my letter of the 8th of this month inform'd your Lordships of my application's to the Governor of North Carolina to appoint Commissioners for settling the Boundarys, and the constant answer he made of his want of directions from the Proprietors, I take this opportunity to acquaint your Lordships that I have since seen his Instructions sent lately with his Commission, but do not find the least mention of the Boundarys, no more than if such a controversy had never been depending.

I cannot omitt observing to your Lordships one thing in those Instructions, which is like to prove very prejudicial to this Colony, and that is, a power given by the Lords Proprietors for the space of seven years to dispose of their Lands, at the rate of Twenty shillings each thousand acres for the first purchase, and twelve pence Quitt rent yearly for every hundred (which is but one-fifth of what is paid here for obtaining Rights to take up the Queen's land, and one half of the yearly quitt rent payable to her Majesty for the same) and without any obligation on the Patentees there to seat or cultivate. The publication of such a privilege has already wrought so much on the people here, that great numbers are flocking to that Province, to take up land, and there's no doubt many more will follow upon the prospect of having what Tracts they please on such easy terms.

This excursion of the People into North Carolina as well as into the lands of the other neighbouring Proprietors will be very much furthered by a general opinion lately revived, that there are gold and silver Mines in these parts towards the mountains; and because in the Grants to the Proprietors, the share of the Crown in Royal Mines is ascertained, and no such Declaration made for those found in the Lands held immediately of her Majesty, people propose to themselves a greater advantage by seeking after them in the former. For this reason, I'm told, some persons who heretofore had, or fancied they had made such discoveries here, were discouraged to prosecute them, and dyed with the secret. But now that the same opinion is revived, and the humor of making discoveries become more universal I humbly offer it to your Lordships consideration whether so great a profit as may redound from the discovering and working such Mines ought to be lost for want of a Declaration what share her Majesty expects out of them. I find by the Grant to the Company that first settled this Colony the Crown reserved the fifth part of all silver and gold Mines, and that accordingly the ancient Patents express the same. Since the dissolution of that Company that the soil reverted to the Crown, the Patents conveyed to the Patentees of the land, a due share of all Mines and Minerals; but what that share is has never yet been determined. And in the Act of Assembly concerning the granting of Lands pass'd in the year 1706 (but now repealed) the former of the Patents there established, gave entirely to the Patentee all Mines and Minerals without any Reservation, and tho your Lordships made some alterations in the draught of the Bill before it passed here into a Law, yet I don't find that part of it was questioned or altered, and some Patents granted by my Predecessors while that Law was in force, have the same clause in them. But upon the Repeal of that Act I altered the form of the Patents in this Particular and made them conformable to the former viz<sup>t</sup> by granting with the Land only (a due share of all Mines &c) believing that share ought most properly to be determined by the Crown. Wherefore I hope your Lords<sup>ps</sup> will be pleased to move her Majesty for a speedy Declaration what share is expected if any royal mines are found in the Lands already patented under her Majesty's Grant; and whether if any such be discovered on lands not yet patented I ought to grant those Lands to any private person who makes the discovery? The ascertaining this will encourage people to make discoveries on the Queen's Land and if found will keep them where they may bring more profit to the Crown, than by running on the like projects in the lands of any of the neighboring Proprietors; and since by the Charter to the Proprietors of the Northern neck there is only reserved to the Crown the fifth of all gold and tenth of all silver Ore, Your Lordships will not I hope think it unreasonable to propose to her Majesty, that for the encouragement of her Majesty's more immediate Tenants in the other parts of this Colony, no greater proportion be demanded of them. I am the more desirous of some speedy directions herein, because I have great reason to believe there are Mines lately discovered here, and I would willingly promote as far as I am able any thing that may be for the service of her Majesty and the good of this Country. It is like some of these mountains may bring forth only such imaginary Ore as I find some people heretofore have busied themselves about, and that others may prove such barren ones as not to countervail the charge of working, Yet tis also possible that the earth in this part of the Continent may partake of the same mineral qualities with that of the more southern climates, and that the diligence of inquisitive or fanciful men may in the end prove of very great consequence both to the sovereign and subject.

CHOWAN May 30th 1712

I have the honor of My Lord of Londons letter with the favor of yours by M<sup>r</sup> Pugh I am very much obliged to you for so early acquainting me with your arrival and heartily congratulate you upon that and the Mission you come about. I wish with all my heart the country was in such a State as will give you no reason to repent so long a voyage: and I hope it will not, for as the work you come about is of so a essential nature so I doubt not but God will prosper you and your endeavour, and the people learn to do their duty I will assure you there shall be nothing wanting in me to render everything to you as easy as possible nor would I have you to be the least discouraged by any misrepresentations you may receive (this under the Rose) from M<sup>r</sup> Urnstone which will be very loud and complaining but I will be free to tell you that all or the greater part of it is purely owing to himself & his unfortunate Temper which no ways suits with the humors of the natural born people of America (this is a caution). When you favor me with your company I shall give you a faithful account of the observations I have made of the people here and the method that will gain them for they are not to be won by any thing but gentle methods to what is serious and devout and moral and poor M<sup>r</sup> Urmstones railing and morose temper has lost them all in general I have received and am fully satisfied with your credentials which I have returned you back and please myself with the thoughts that a little time will settle this Country more to your satisfaction and mine notwithstanding all the trouble I have met with in it. I have cut off and took prisoners betwixt 3 or 400 Indian Enemies and am in hopes in a little time to have matters so ripe as to have a treaty of a general peace set on foot. It is indeed by nature one of the best countrys in the world, tho' the people are naturally loose & wicked obstinate and rebellious crafty and deceitful and study to invent slander on one another and sow such seeds of seditions that they have generally reaped them in the plentiful crops of Rebellion.

And now sir give me leave to give you an invitation to my house; where you shall be most welcome as long as ever you please: nor shall you have the occasion to complain of the country as M<sup>r</sup> Urmston has unhappily created himself. The times has been so very troublesome that I have the more pitied M<sup>r</sup> Urmstone, because the situation of his abode is such as I have not been able to accomodate him with such conveniencys as otherwise I would have done. But should he complain of me in that respect, I will assure you it is groundless, I have often offered Let him send a canoe & hands & I would supply him. Nay would pay a canoe and hands would he but procure them—

MR RAINSFORD'S LETTER TO JNO CHAMBERLAINE ESQ

CHOWAN IN NORTH CAROLINA July 25th 1712

Worthy Sir

To give you a description of a 12 weeks passage We had from the Lizard to Virginia with the inconveniences I laboured under in it would but renew in me the melancholy Ideas of what is past as well as trouble you in reading a relation of them I shall therefore proceed to what [relates] immediately to my mission by giving a faithful account of the condition the country's in at present & what good (with God's fatherly assistance) I may do the Society and people by my continuance among them June the 5th I arrived at the Governors where I was most kindly received by him as afterwards by Coll Pollock & Squire Duckenfield being the only persons of any note that I could see or hear of on the Shore and as an instance of my duty thought I could not do better than remind 'em at that time of preparing themselves for the receiving of the Sacrament on the then approaching Festival Whit Sunday The trifling excuses they made sufficiently satisfied me of the little regard they had to the indispensable obligations that lay on them to so solemn a duty however several of the people came that day to divine Service but perfect strangers to the Method of the Worship of our Church Mr Urmston and I by a mutual agreement with the approbation of the Governor are to manage after this manner He proposes to supply the North Shore at the Lower End of Chowan together with all Paspetanek provided I take care of the West Shore (where there is no Church but a vast track of land to ride over and in every instance very fatiguing) which I promised to do till I hear further from the Society But since the whole Country intituled to my labours I visited his Shore (which I am sorry to say) has been a long time neglected Mr Urmston is lame and says he cannot do now what he formerly has done but this lazy distemper has seized him by what I hear ever since his coming to the Country I shall give you a faithful account of his proceedings and management as I desire he may do of mine the either of us according to the merit or demerit of our performance may be valued or disesteemed by the Society there's a small Chapel near an Old Indian Town where I preached at June 15th had vast Crowds come to hear me but I observed they exprest very little or rather no devotion in time of divine Service. That day and the day following I baptized 17 children 4 of them 11 years old nine of them 6 and the other 4—three and when I told Mr Urmston of the neglect he excused himself by saying he never had notice of their having children there unbaptized June 22nd I preached at on Mr Garrats the upper end of Chowan but had such numbers that I was obliged to go under a large mulberry tree where most of the people to my great satisfaction seemed very devout the whole time of service and very ready in their responses as in their method of singing praises to God Here I baptized two Girls of the age of 16 and one boy of ten Children of one Mr Adams and by much importunity prevailed on Mr Martin to let me baptize three of his Negro's two women and a boy all the Arguments I could make use of would scarce effect it till Bishop Fleetwoods sermon preached before the Society turned the scale and when ever I baptized there I distributed a share of the small parcel of books Old Mr Saunders of Curahuk who has Mr Adams' books refuses to deliver 'em unless I promise to settle and entirely fix there which I told him I could no way do to neglect the greatest part of the country to serve there but I promised him as much of my time as I could possibly spare to that district many of the books he tells me too are lost and he pretends a claim to keep 'em and a Watch by virtue of a debt contracted by M<sup>r</sup> Adams in his life time I had several conferences with one Thomas Hoyle King of the Chowan Indians who seem very inclinable to embrace Christianity and proposes to send his son to school to Sarum to have him taught to read and write by way of foundation in order to a further proficiency for the reception of Christianity I readily offered my service to instruct him myself and having the opportunity of sending him to M<sup>r</sup> Garratts where I lodge being but three miles distance from his Town. But he modestly declined it for the present till a general peace was concluded between the Indians and Christians I found he had some notions of Noahs flood which he came to the knowledge of and exprest himself after this manner—My father told me I tell my Son But I hope in a little time to give the Society a better account of him as well as of those peaceable Indians under his Command Theres one M<sup>r</sup> Mashburn who keeps a school at Sarum on the frontiers of Virginia between the two Governments and neighbouring upon 2 Indian Towns who I find by him highly deserve encouragement and could heartily wish the Society would take it into consideration and be pleased to allow him a Salary for the good services he has done and may do for the future. What children he has under his care can both write and read very distinctly and gave before me such an account of the grounds and principles of the Christian religion that strangely surprised me to hear it. The man upon a small income would teach the Indian Children gratis (whose parents are willing to send them could they but pay for their schooling) as he would those of our English families had he but a fixed dependency for so doing and what advantage would this be to private families in particular and whole Colony in general is easy to determine. Since my coming in the country (I thank God) I have had my health perfectly well and during the continuance of it shall be indefatigable in the discharge of that great trust that is reposed in me observing at the same time the Societys method of writing over every six months with an Account of the services I have done and what larger advance I have made to the furtherance of Religion & enlargement of Christs Kingdom—As for the eating part I have fared but very indifferently since my arrival in the Country and find for the future must with Virgils Shepherd be satisfied with my Mitra poma castaneas mices—and as ordinary as I am like to live must give twenty pounds yearly for my board I was in hopes the Assembly would take care to provide me my table free but the Country's so poor that I can expect nothing of that nature from 'em I desire Sir You'll think of me the next general meeting that I may have an order for my £10 worth of books which I'll take care to send one to wait on you for them Dr. Brays public library is all dispersed and lost by those wretches that don't consider the benefit of so valuable a gift I cannot forget the uncommon civility that was shown me on my first landing at Hampton in Virginia by one Mr. Kearney a Merchant of that place He was a perfect stranger to me yet showed his great readiness to supply me with money to buy me a horse and to transport my goods for Carolina and had any thing else been wanting he would have furnished me and only as he told me for this great consideration of setting forwards a good work and serving the Society It has one way or the other cost me £20 in the Country and been expensive beyond imagination I presume you are no stranger to the Indian War which has some time since begun and continues in the barbarous Massacres of so Many English Inhabitants Most families of Pamlico hourly feeling the effects of their Cruelty nor truly can the Gov<sup>r</sup> promise himself one hours safety being continually alarmed by the Tuskarora Spies in his own Quarters Col<sup>l</sup> Boyde was the other day sent out with a party against the Indians but was unfortunately shot through the head and few of his men came home but what shared in his fate and fell sacrifices to the same common misfortune—They senlek so in parties in the Woods that common prudence obliges the inhabitants (as the surest method of preservation) to keep to their plantations and several of them told me that when they lie down in their beds (they are so often invaded) that they cant say they shall rise morning Assistance is sent for to Ashley River and Col<sup>l</sup> Hyde flatters us with the hopes of either cutting 'em off or obliging 'em to a peace But alas I fear all this without reason The people are so impoverished by the War that I wonder how they pay their quit rents to the proprietors I am sure it would be highly Charitable in the Lords to forgive them for these ten years to come I like the Country far better than any I have hitherto seen and certainly by nature tis one of the best in the world and were but the Inhabitants freed from the dangers of the War they might enjoy the blessings of plenty as well as all other comforts of life This is a genuine Account of what I have done and observed in North Carolina and shall take all opportunities of serving the Society (as I'm in duty bound) to the utmost of my power as well as expressing my gratitude to you for the many undeserved favors confer'd on

COLONEL SPOTSWOOD TO THE BOARD OF TRADE.

VIRGINIA July the 26th 1712.

MY LORDS,

It is with very great concern that I find myself still obliged to represent to your Lordships the unhappy situation of affairs in the neighbouring Province of North Carolina; for since the hasty peace concluded with the Indians (of which I gave your Lordships an account in my last) the forces sent from South Carolina are returned home, and the Indians have committed two fresh massacres, and it is not likely they will stop there, if there be truth in what one of their Chiefs concerned in the first massacre hath lately confessed at his execution, that the senequas have promised them a powerful assistance by the latter end of next month, who are in their way to fall on some of the Tributary Indians on our Frontiers, and what seems to confirm this is the account I have just now seen in a letter from the Secretary of New York to the Governor of North Carolina, that the French have been very active to persuade the Senequas to join the Tuscaruos, and it is to be feared prevailed with them. The conduct of the Government of North Carolina from the beginning of this Indian war has been so unaccountably irregular, that it has rendered all the measures I was willing to enter into for their assistance ineffectual, and I hope when I have mentioned a few instances thereof, your Lordships will not judge me only an idle spectator of the miseries of my Fellow subjects. For first, when I had engaged our Assembly to vote a considerable supply for the succour of that Province, their Assembly which was then sitting, instead of acting in concert with ours, fell into such heats among themselves, because they could not oblige the Governor to admitt into their former offices, the most notorious fomenters of the late rebellion, that they would take no measures against the common enemy: and to this behaviour of theirs may in a great measure be attributed that of our burgesses, who fell from their first resolutions and could not thereafter be prevailed upon to give assistance to a people so wanting to themselves. Next, when I had by a solemn Treaty made in the presence of our Assembly, engaged the upper towns of the Tuscaruos to join in cutting off those concerned in the massacre, and had communicated the same to the Governor of North Carolina. That Government instead of concurring with me in the stipulations that provided solely for their succour, and the relief of their captives; rather chose to denounce war against all the towns in general, and without waiting to see whether those upper Towns would perform any of their engagements, they immediately fell upon those very people who (how little soever they designed to execute their promises) hereupon argued that we had violated ours. And lastly (for I will not trouble your Lordships with all the instances I could give) When their whole Assembly joined in an Address to me last spring, begging an aid of 200 men for the better carrying on the War and in that address told me that they had raised £4000 whereby the succours sent from hence would be provided for. I thereupon made extraordinary efforts to assist them with 200 white men and Indians as your Lordships will observe in the Journal of the Council the 24th of April last and accordingly directed the Rendezonze of those Forces on the 10th of May; yet upon my meeting the Governor of North Carolina to adjust certain preliminaries for the better carrying on the service and the subsistence of the Troops, I found that Government never intended to furnish so much as provisions or be at any manner of expence for them but on the Contrary had laid 10  $\frac{7}{8}$  cent on all the provisions carryed into that Country, so that the Forces sent to their assistance must not only be paid and subsisted at the Charge of this Government, but must also pay a duty for the victuals they eat, while they were imploy'd in the defence of that Country; and besides this I found the Commander of their Forces had of his own head, clapt up a peace with the Indians upon very odd and unaccountable Conditions, which nobody expected to last long, and it seems he did not intend it should; for he soon after surprized some towns, and carryed off a great many captives of those who looked upon themselves as secure under the Treaty he had made with them, and by that means he has entailed a new War on the people of North Carolina in which he was resolved to have no share, having immediately after set sail with his prisoners to South Carolina, and the two Massacres I have abovementioned have been the immediate consequences of this Mr Barnwells Treachery. These irregular proceedings, both discourage and disable me from assisting the unfortunate People of that Province, who must be forced to abandon all their settlements on Nense and Pamlico Rivers and thereby encourage the Heathen to further attempts both on the other parts of that Country, and on our Frontiers: and I must sitt down under the mortifications of seeing myself unable to protect her Majesty's subjects, untill a nearer approach of danger convinces the people of this Colony of their error in not making timely provision to hinder the growing power of the Heathen, and alarms both Countrys to act more vigorously for their mutual defence. It was but the other day that a party of the Tuscaruros killed 3 and wounded two Nottoway Indians our Tributarys as they were hunting near our Inhabitants, which seems only a prelude to what we may expect after their conjunction with the Senequas.

I understand by some traders lately come from South Carolina that they make great clamours there, as if our Indian traders had assisted the Tuscaruros with ammunition; but I'm persuaded your Lordships will find enough on the Council Journals since September last, to refute that report, and to satisfy your Lordships that this Government hath taken all imaginable care to prevent any such Commerce.

Your Lordships will observe by our Journals that even the trade with the western Indians has been shutt up ever since last October, out of consideration for the province of North Carolina, but finding that trade still carried on by the people of South Carolina, and that those Indians have no correspondence with the Tuscaruros I have again by advice of the Council, opened the same for our Inhabitants, lest it should be lost to us, and the Indians obliged to sue to the French for those supplies which South Carolina can't furnish them, but still with this precaution of taking 300 bond of every one of our Traders, not to trade with, nor go near the Tuscaruros or any other Nation in Alliance with them. The nations with whom this Trade is carry'd on live severall hundred miles from the Tuscaruros. And as our Traders assure me they must travel at least fifteen hundred miles to come at the most considerable of them who live on the back of the mountains in the latitude of Virginia If this be true (which I shall know more certainly at the return of our Traders to whome I have given directions to make observations of the latitude) your Lordships will no doubt think it still more unreasonable, that the Carolina men should impose dutys and seize the goods of her Majesty's subjects for barely passing through this Country.

Since my last I have had the honour of your Lordships of the 1st of February 1741 and shall always rejoice when any part of my administration is acceptable to your Lordships.

I am with all due respect

My Lord,

Your Lordships

Most dutifull and most

Obedient Humble Servant.

A. SPOTSWOOD.

LETTER FROM REV. MILES GALE, RECTOR OF KIGHLEY.

KIGHLEY, IN CRAVEN, Aug. 26, 1712.

MY LORD:—

I am informed by letters from my eldest son, Mr. Gale, who has been an inhabitant of North Carolina these eight years, and borne several offices in that unsettled government, that the religion of that country is at a very low ebb, and that little stock carried over, in danger to be totally lost without speedy care of sending ministers to teach the word of truth.

That North Carolina has been inhabited by the English eighteen years, and in all that space they have had but one clergyman, and he left them for want of encouragement; and that for these last eight years they have had none; so that all the children under that age remain unbaptized, of which many have been cut off by a late massacre. The unhappy divisions among the English into parties, encouraged two sorts of Indians, the Corees and the Tuscaroras, to come down upon them and cut off about two hundred, the rest securing themselves in small garrisons made of private houses. According to my son's request, I hereby present your grace with the present sad circumstances of that fine and fruitful country, not doubting of your assistance in so pious a work as the establishment of Christianity in a heathenish country. That your grace may live long to God's glory, the world's goods, and your own happiness, is the hearty prayer of

Your most obedient and humble servant,

Proprietors of Carolina.

My Lords.

Her Majesty is very much surprized to find that several of her subjects have lately been sent here in Custody, from some of the Plantations, without any Evidence of their crimes; Which as it is a practise very injurious to the particular Persons, who fall under the misfortune, it is likewise very derogatory to the Honour of Her Majesty's Government. And therefore we are Commanded to signify Her Majesty's Pleasure, that your Lordships give directions to the Governor, that he do not upon any occasion send any of Her Subjects hither as prisoners without good Proof first made of the Crime, and that Proof transmitted along with the Prisoner.

Sept 9th 1712

Gentlemen

After mine to you of yesterday's we had the great misfortune to lose our Governor, who deceased yesterday about 12 of the Clock of a violent fever, had held him seven days; and hath left us in a most deplorable condition: a barbarous enemy to deal with; a scarcity of provisions, being scarce able to supply our garrisons and what small forces have out; and, the worst of all, a divided ungovernable people. But hope God in his good time will deliver us from all these affliction and difficulties——

Gentlemen

The Impertunity of the Council at this juncture hath prevailed with me to accept this place, much contrary to my intention and inclination. And these few lines are only to acquaint you that you may be assured that their shall be nothing wanting of my endeavours in hastening out what forces I can to your assistance, As for those two men at Curetuck Cook (?) and Stafford, the highest punishment you can inflict on them I believe it little enough. But I should be very much troubled, if my administration should begin with the death of any of our people. Wherefore would desire you, if the Court-martial do proceed so far as to give judgement of death upon them, to respite the execution until you have an answer and result from me, and the council. Gentlemen, God almighty give success to your endeavours; which shall be the daily prayer of, Gentlemen,

Yours

A TRUE COPY OF A LETTER TO THE LORDS PROPRIETORS DATED SEPT 20th 1712

May it please your Lordships

Amongst the many and great judgements it hath pleased God to inflict on the poor people of the north part of your Province of Carolina, the death of Governor Hyde is none of the least. For thereby we have not only lost the great interest we had with your Lordships, but also with the neighbouring Governments; and albeit he and the Council have used their utmost endeavours to unite and reconcile all differences among the people, in order to which (according to the purport of your Lordships' instructions to him) have issued out a proclamation, pardening any that had any hand in the late rebellious practices, excepting only Col Thomas Cary, M<sup>r</sup> John Porter Sen<sup>r</sup>, Edmond Porter, Emanuel Low, M<sup>r</sup> Roach, and two or three more here, who have been chief instruments in stirring up the people. Yet notwithstanding, it hath not produced the desired effects, the people still continuing stubborn & disobedient; some few evil disposed persons still blowing up the coals of dissention amongst them, to the great hindrance of carrying on the wars against the Indian Enemies.

The real desire to serve his Majesty, your Lordships, and the poor people here, with the impertunity of the council here, have forced me to accept of the administration at this time when the country seems to labor under insuperable difficulties, when in more peaceable times I have refused it. And I assure your Lordships, that I will faithfully and truly serve you to the utmost of my power and knowledge, until you are pleased to appoint some other. In the mean time think it my duty, as briefly as I can, to lay before you the true state of the country.

The people of this country are greatly impoverished: them at news and Pamptico having most of their houses and household goods burnt, their stocks of Cattle, hogs horses, &c, killed, and carried away and their plantations ruined by the Indians: they forced to secure themselves in forts; as we likewise on the south southwest shore of Chowan, where I live, are forced to do, Then, we in Albemarle County are forced to supply those in News and Pamptico with grain, and the forces we send from hence, likewise the Ashley River Indians; whereby our trade is ruined, their being no grain nor little or no pork this two or three years to send out; so that what few vessels comes in can have little or nothing, unless a little pitch or tar: so that many have not wherewith to pay their debts, and but few that can supply themselves with clothing, necessary for their families. Then the public is several thousand pounds in debt for mens wages employed in the country's service, ammunition, provisions, vessel's hire, agents, and messenger's charge to our neighbouring governments, and several other things too tedious to trouble your Lordship with.

The Indian war continuing still, disention and disobedience as much as ever amongst the people, which with the want of ready pay to pay off the people that have been out in the countrys service, is the greatest mischief of all: so that albeit in our last Assembly we had an act made, that every person that would not go out in the country's service against the Indians should forfeit and pay five pounds towards defraying the charges of the war: Notwithstanding which act few or none would go out; albeit Governor Hyde was just beginning to put the Law in execution, when he died there being now but 130 or 140 men in all at News with Col Mitchell and Col M<sup>c</sup>Key, who are commander for the expedition against the Indians, too f<sup>w</sup> in number to conquer the Tuscaroras; only in hopes of getting some men from this comty, and also are in Expectation, (by letters from Governor Craven and our agent) of Indians from South Carolina to assist us. There has been likewise some Tuskarora Indians with the Governor of Verginia and pretend a great willingness to a peace, In order to which, they are to be with him against the 28th of this Instant September, where we send in likewise two agents M<sup>r</sup> Tobias Knight, and Major Christopher Gale; not with any expectation of the Governor of Verginia making a peace for us for that would be dishonourable to your Lordships, and a means to render us contemptible to the Indians, but to see what articles they propose. But I believe this pretending to peace is only for delaying of time, until they get their corn gathered in their forts, and until they see if they can have any help from the five nations, Confederate nations of Indians, commonly called Senecas. Your Lordships may see by this brief relation, what inextricable difficulties we are plunged into; our enemies strong, and numerous, well provided with armes and ammunition; our people poor, dispirited, undisciplined, timorons, divided, and generally disobedient, and not only a great want of armes and ammunition ——— but likewise the poor men who have been out in the service of the Country for want of their pay are in want of Clothing, so that they are not well able to hold out in the woods in the cold weather after the Indians. And if the Government of South Carolina had not assisted us, with their

Indian in probability News and pamptico had been deserted, and I believe a great deal more of the Country by this time. And in all probability, if Col Barnwell had done his part, albeit the most part of his Indians had left him, the war had been ended by this time. For Col. Mitchell a Swiss Gentleman who came in with Baron Graffenried, having continued to draw the trenches within eleven yards of their fort, being only palisades and had raised a battery very near, and had planted two great guns, had got great quantities of lightwood and combustible faggots to fill all up between the end of the trenches and the palisades so that the Indians within the forts (who were in a manner of that had any hand in the massacre) would have surrendered on any terms; yet he made a sham peace with them, and let them all go, which he and they both broke in a very few days after. The taking of this fort (where the most of our Enemy Indians were) would have discouraged the rest so much that they would have either complied on our terms, or left the country, and would have encouraged our people much in taking so many slaves. And albeit Col Barnwells Indians killed 40 or 50 Cores, Bare River, River Nense and Matamusket Indian men, and took near upon 200 of their women and Children, yet in all the time he was here, not above 30 Tuskarora Indians were killed, that we can hear of: the others being small nations not able of themselves to hurt us. All these things I doubt not Governor Hyde hath given you a large account before this time. I hope your Lordships will consider our distressed condition, being greatly in want of armes and ammunition.

I hope the consideration of the great extremity we are brought to, that we are Christians, Her Majesty's subjects, and your Lordships' tenants, the venturing of our lives and spending our Estates for the preservation of your Lordships' land, will move your Lordships to assist us by such ways and means as your Lordships shall think fit: especially with armes and ammunition, or 20 [Big-guns] and round shot answerable, 200 small, good, with fixed firelocks, — — — — — or 000 gun flints, which I hope sufficient to carry on and finish the war, and may be a publick magazine to be kept always ready for the defence of the country. Also think it my duty to inform your Lordships, that there is several tracts of land, that people have taken up and surveyed, upon pretence of purchase, some three four and five years since, and some longer, without either settling or (paying for) the same: which hath been a great hindrance to the settling of the (people); and seems to me a great damage to your Lordships, they paying no rents for the same, and we having had several disputes in Council, but could not determine any thing therein, wherefore would earnestly desire your Lordships' instructions thereanent; and whereas your Lordships seem to incline that our laws shall hold in force only two years, I shall lay before you the great inconveniences thereof. First: several beneficial laws would (fail) which we could never be able to revive again, as the vestry act, which empowers the vestry to build and keep in repair Churches and Chapels, and to raise stipend for the ministers of the Church of England; which act was great struggling obtained when the (Quaker?) party were not so numerous as they are now; and albeit they are not permitted to sit themselves in the assembly, yet, being the most numerous, they choose such members as are guided and directed by them, and (one) commonly worse than they themselves would be. Then it would give a great opportunity to every Governor or President, every two years to impose on the people by his refusing to give his consent to the passing of the laws, unless his demands were allowed, which hath been (to my knowledge) very prejudicial to the Country, and by it sometimes we have been without any laws at all of our own in force. I leave it to your Lordships' consideration, if it would not be as well to have the body of our laws sent to your Lordships to confirm, or disallow, or suspend, which of them you shall think convenient.

I shall add no more, but that peace and prosperity of this your Lordships' country shall be the chief endeavour of him who is

A TRUE COPY OF A LETTER TO MY LORD CARTERET, DATED SEPT 20th 1712

May it please your Lordship

Having been your Fathers and your Deputy here about these twenty years last past, which your Lordship hath favourably confirmed, think it therefore my Duty to inform you of all matter of moment relating to the government here. The death of Governor Hyde hath been of fatal consequence to this government, who hath laboured under abundance of difficulty since his arrival here, by the divisions and differences amongst the inhabitants here, and the Indian war, all which I believe I may truly [declare] hath been chiefly occasioned by — and some few evil-disposed persons, with the whole body of the Quakers [who] joined them, and were chief instruments to stir up Col. Cary to act as he did; and albeit these Quakers were very active in persuading and assisting the people to rise for Col. Cary against Governor Hyde, yet now in this Indian war, wherein News and pantico, and the south and southwest shore of Chowan, which is the best part of the government, and in great danger to be greatly deserted, yet they neither will assist themselves nor suffer others, but hinder and dissuade them, all they can, they having great influence on the common people, and will not so much as send their armes to those who are willing to go, and, as I am credibly informed, hide them for fear of their being pressed: and albeit at the last assembly with much struggling we obtained a law that every person between 16 and 60 years of age able to carry armes that would not go out to the war against the Indians, should forfeit and pay £5 towards defraying the charges of the war, yet it hath not had the desired effect, most of all the people refusing still to go: the distemper hath been so epidemical that Governor Hyde could scarcely find any person that would undertake to levy the fines aforesaid. So that we labour now under these difficulties following,—an Indian War heavy upon us. The public some thousand pounds in debt; not able to pay off men goes out to the war, which greatly discourages them, there being no way to pay them but by these fines, which will take a long time and be very difficult to raise, and some customs laid on goods imported, which; our trade now quite failing, comes to nothing, and lastly the disobedience and stubbornness of the people, which is of more consequence than any of the rest, and chiefly occasioned by these Quakers and some few other evil disposed persons, who have been a plague to this government these 4 or 5 years last past who easily may be known by Governor Hyde's reiterated complaints against them to your Lordships.

I out of the great confidence of have of your Lordships great and good character, and intending to lay every thing from me belonging to this country, at your Lordships feet, have inclosed a letter from me to your Board, begging the favor, after your perusal, to have it sealed and delivered at the Board, and that your Lordship, with his Excellency the Palatine and the rest of the true and absolute Lords Proprietors, will assist, what you can, this poor distressed people, not only with armes and ammunition which is greatly wanted, but with what influence your Lordships hath over the government of South Carolina, which are the most capable to assist us with their Indians, and with the least charge, as likewise I doubt not your Lordships may procure Her Majestys order to the government of Virginia, who are near and may readily help. If your Lordships have any intention of taking up a man in this government, and if the Indians are conquered, there is by report, a seat of extraordinary land upon Neus River above 25 miles higher than Baron Grafenried's settlement. Navigation to it with boats or shallops—Col Barnwell, commander of the Indians from South Carolina, expected to have had it: Gov. Hyde had entered it, but by his death it is clear. There is several hundred of acres of clear plantible ground, being cleared about three miles long the river side, and will undoubtedly be of great value. I will endeavor to reserve it untill I understand your Lordships pleasure. I being informed that some person here, supposing that the gentleman whom your Lordships have commissioned General Surveyor of this county will not think it worth his time in coming over here and have therefore sent over to procure the place for themselves, Governor Hyde and the councill having in some measure to make up the great charge I have been at these wars, bestowed the place on me, and since his death, with consent of the council bestowed it on a son of mine. If your Lordship thinks it convenient to procure it for him, it shall beside full satisfaction for the charges of the commission, be always most gratefully acknowledged by——

Both sent by the Baron.

Gentlemen Friends and Neighbours,

I have recieved and with grief of heart considered your address to the Council, and shall lay it before them as soon as I can get them together, and in the meantime shall use my uttmost endeavours in redressing your wants of men, provisiours, and ammunition. Captian Norton as I was informed by M<sup>r</sup> Knight, sailed last Saturday from pasquotanke in Major Reed's sloop with 30 or 40 men, provisions, and two Barrels powder and ten Barrels I think of shot. M<sup>r</sup> Benjamin Tull and George Tomson, who were here last night, informed that last Sunday they left Major Cole in a periago and a shallop, with provisions with him at Croaton. I have sent now this morning by M<sup>r</sup> Tull and M<sup>r</sup> Tomson a barrel of powder and ten new guns, they are likewise impowered to take up and carry back all deserters they can meet with or apprehend. I have likewise appointed M<sup>r</sup> Furnifold Green, Commissary to impress and supply the army with anything that is to be had in Bath County: and because our corn here will not keep to be carried round to the army, yet the corn there in Bath county, in some places may, and they may be repaid from here, as soon as conveniently can be. As for meat, I have writ to M<sup>r</sup> Jordan, and have his answer, that he hath a Shallop almost ready to sail for the army, with beef, and that all the people in general are very willing to assist the army what they can. You have two proclamations sent you, both of the same tenor, confirming all officers both civil and military. The first was sent by Capt<sup>n</sup> Cleeves about four days after the Governor funeral: the other by Capt<sup>n</sup> Stone.

Gentlemen and Friends, our all lies now at stake, our country, our wives, our children, our estates, and all that is dear to us. Let us therefore bear with patience some hardships; let strive against all difficulties. Who can tell but God hath appointed you to be the defenders and deliverers of our country? We have lost one opportunity already of delivering of our country in not taking Cotechy fort last spring, and, now another opportunity is offered, for God's sake let us make us of it; for if we lose it we can never in reason expect such another. The Indians, as we are informed by Tom Blount who was in here four days last week, are very scarce of provisions, and ammunition, so that they can not, as he says, stay in their forts. And I doubt not the Ashley River Indians will clear the woods of the vermin, and force them into their dens, I mean their forts, which they cannot be able to hold long, for want of provision, Ammunition, firewood and everything necessary.

Wherefore. Gentlemen, let us look to God, and implore his assistance and direction Let us lay aside all animosity, difference, and dissensions amongst ourselves; Let us shun such, as we would shun the plague, that endeavour to raise mutinies, or to sow the seeds of dissention amongst us. As for my own part, I take God to my witness, that I have not been wanting, nor shall not to the best of my knowledge and power, in my true endeavours for the country's good. The peace and prosperity whereof shall be still the chief and only aim of him who is in all sincerity, Gentlemen

PRESIDENT POLLOCK TO THE GOVERNOR OF VIRGINIA.

[FROM POLLOCK'S LETTER BOOK.]

Octo. 5th 1712HON<sup>d</sup> SIR

Our agents M<sup>r</sup> Tobias Knight and Major Gale were here the 28th of the last Month, in order to have waited upon your honor, concerning the meeting with the Indians. But Tom Blount having been here some days before, I have told him that your Honour and the council in Virginia expected him in, about that time, and that it would do well to go in accordingly; he answered that a messenger from you told him that he should be in in forty days, or at farthest in sixty days, and by that time he would be in with you. He seemed to be very earnest for peace, and to have a trade as formerly, which I utterly denied him, unless less he would engage to bring in Hancock, and cut off all these that had any hand in killing and robbing the inhabitants here, and bring in their scalps. And for his pretending the want of ammunition, I promised him if he would bring in twelve hostages from each town or fort that I would let him have ammunition; only for his own town we would desire no hostages, for the trust that we put in him, of which proposal he seemed pretty well satisfied, and was sure, he said, of four of their towns that would agree with [us], and he believed all would; only he would go home, and conclude with the rest, and be in here again the 17th of this month, and from hence he would go straight to your Honor; at which time our agents will be in with him. He was earnest with our interpreter to go with him, and seemed to have no great confidence in your interpreter; and then he said he would fully conclude peace, both with your Honour and here, on any terms that lay in his power, and begged of me to write to your Honor to be favourable to his people until he came in.

A packet boat is newly arrived here from South Carolina, with our agent that was sent there in June last, by whom and letters from Governor Craven and some other Gentlemen, we understand that their Governor, Council, and assembly have agreed to send one thousand Indians and forty or fifty white men for our assistance, under the command of M<sup>r</sup> James Moor, son to Col Moor, late Governor of South Carolina, a young man of a very good character. They were to set out the 15th of last month. The Governor hastens them away, and is intended to accompany them to the utmost inhabitants of his government.

Sir we have as I am informed, many of our people that are away from hence, and lurk in the borders of your government, especially on Cocks and Stafford from Currituck who were the chief instruments of a meeting of their and caused forty or fifty men to desert your Honor's sending of them two in to us here, would be of great service to the country.

Sir we labour here under almost insupportable difficulties, having a troublesome war upon our hands, great poverty and sickness, and the worst of all and unreasonable and ungovernable people. I hope your Honor will assist us, what you can, to bring this war to an honorable end, and favour me with your advice in this troublesome juncture, which will infinitely oblige

PRESIDENT POLLOCK TO GOVERNOR OF SOUTH CAROLINA.

[FROM POLLOCK'S LETTER BOOK.]

By your letter to Governor Hyde we are made more and more sensible of the great and inseparable loss we have sustained by his death. For we not only find the great want of his industrious care to reduce this distracted and divided people into unity, and his indefatigable pains in carrying on the war against the Enemy, although not so effectual as he desired; but we are likely to lose our interest abroad, Especially with your Honor, but hope your pity and charity to such a poor distressed people, with the consideration of the great glory will to you that South Carolina under your administration had secured us from our barbarous enemies, saved our country, and revenged the innocent christian blood spilt by these cruel merciless heathens, will move you to finish so good a work.

I can not find words to express the great obligations we have to your Honor and the Government of South Carolina, the safety of our wives, our Children, our estates, and all that we have that is dear to us being owing to you. And as I have in some measure already represented this matter to the Lords Proprietors, shall by the next give them a full and true account of your goodness and favor towards us, and I hope of and end of this troublesome war by your means. as for making good the charge you have been out in this war, undoubtedly it ought to be repaid with all gratitude; but I hope your Honor, the council, and assembly will consider the distressed condition of this people. We consist only of two counties; one whereof is in a manner totally wasted and ruined by this Indian war, and the calamities attending it. The other is but little better, by supplying the wants of the other County, and by being hindred in their crops by this war. Notwithstanding which, I have great confidence our assembly, which is to meet the fourth of the next month, will endeavour what they can to satisfy the charges of the Expedition, and can consider no other way they can be able to do it, than according to these bills of credit you take 122½ per cent, the principal to sink at the end of twelve years.

I return my hearty thanks for putting in a man of so good and great a character [as] Col Moore, commander of your forces, and shall be ambitious to serve him in any thing in my power

The members of our Council being at this time so separated that it is imposible for me to geather [them] unless should attain the sloop two or three weeks longer, but can in a manner assure you their sentiments will in nothing be contrary to what I have writ, and being and assembly is to meet the fourth of the next month, know not if the winds be favourable but your answer may be in before our assembly breaking, and hope by your next return to give Your Honor, Council and assembly what satisfactions we are able. We are greatly in want of ammunition, which I hope your Honor will remember by this vessel, and had it not been for those barrels of powder, twenty barrels shot twenty guns you sent to Governor Hyde we should have been quite without; all of which is sent around to our forces at Core-town fort, who attend your armies coming; and we going, by information I had from thence last week, to Catechue fort which Col. Barnwell besieged last spring; having had their scouts out before on discovery who met only with three Indians, one of whom they killed and brought in his scalp. By a letter from Governor Hunter of New York understand of no danger from the five nations of senecas, they pretending they had no hand in enconraging the Tuskaroras, and are out now against the French Indians. The Indians lately have killed one man [at] Readings fort; and to the number of about 200 of them assaulted it, but were beaten off with the loss of about five of their men, and did little damage, only burned a sloop that lay by the fort. Likewise some of them have burnt the houses upon four plantations towards the mouth of Pantico River, and attacked Cap<sup>t</sup> Jones' house, but were beat off, none killed of our people. I shall add no more; but your Honor's favourable and speedy answer will be very acceptable to—

Hon<sup>d</sup> Sir

Yours of the 11th instant now before me, and as for the Tuscaroras? should be very unwilling that the innocent should suffer with the guilty, if possible to distinguish them, and am altogether of your Honor's opinion, that there is no dependence on their promises, they being bound by no ties of religion, honor, nor honesty, But I am forced at present to bear with, and prolong the time with Tom Blount, by reason the forces from Ashley River [are not] yet arrived, and we being open to him. Tom Blount and about sixteen of his men came in here on Monday last, being four days later than the time promised. He said he came out time enough to be here at the time agreed upon, but hearing that some of the Catechu Indians were got on this side Pamlico River, he followed them two or three days, which hindered him that he could not come in at the time appointed. He seemed willing to go to your Honor with our interpreter, but after some questions and answers, and that I had told him he could expect nothing here, nor I believed from your Honor, until he brought in Hancock, and had some assurance of his performance what he had promised, he presently answered that he would go and bring him in if possible, and would return [in] eight days. He seems not to doubt finding of him, only doubts he may have more men joined with him; which if he has, he says he will pretend friendship with him, and keep hunting with him until he get more men from his Town to assist him. He is to bring him in alive; so that his own word make it clear there is no dependence on his promises, who will act so treacherously to those of his own nation and his near relations.

If he brings him in (which I much doubt) I will immediately give your Honor and account, and what proposal he agrees to as to the bringing the hostages and whither he and his men will engage to cut off all the Enemy Indians by themselves or in conjunction with our forces.

If he bring not now in, I believe we must expect his joining with the other Tuscaroras against us, which may prove very fatal to this government, unless assisted by you. and I hope not only charity will move your assembly to assist us, as being neighbours, fellow-Christians, under the same Queen, but also interest; for having conquered us it will undoubtedly encourage more nations of Indians to join them, which may likewise endanger your government.

Hon<sup>d</sup> Sir I doubt not, on the arrival of the South Carolina forces, a great many of the Tuscaroras will fly northerly on the hither side Pamlico and Moratoco, expecting the South Carolina Indians will not follow them over these rivers; so that if your Honor could move your assembly to be at the charge of raising of 300 men, with the Sappaona and other Indians (as for the Meherrins and Natuas, there is no trust to be put in them) to be ready at a day's warning with five or six weeks provisions, to march, to stop the Tuscarora's flying northerly, and could move them likewise to entrust our assembly for eight or nine hundred yards of duffels, to clothes our people to march out likewise, they being so poor generally here that they neither are all clothed to endure a winter campaign, neither have they wherewith to buy it, neither is it to be bought here, having now little or no trade.

It might be a means of destroyed our Enemie Indians, and bring the rest to submit on reasonable terms, and would your Honors' favore in having a great [share] in delivering this poor—

I hope your Honor will pardon my tediousness and impertunity; the real necessity of this poor people in general urging me to use my uttermost endeavor in their favor.

I understand by M<sup>r</sup> Foster, our agent, whose letter have inclosed? that Col Barnwell, by his foolish reflections on your Honor and Governor Hyde, hath lost the favour of that government. I am in all sincerity, Hon<sup>d</sup> Sir your most obedient

Sir,

I acquainted the Honorable Society with the death of my fellow Labourer the Rev<sup>d</sup> M<sup>r</sup> Adams late Missionary in this province per the first opportunity after the same and withall that being disappointed of that Library brought in by M<sup>r</sup> Gordon, and for which I stand bound, I demanded that which belonged to M<sup>r</sup> Adams, which upon inquiry I found safe and entire but was refused it. The precinct where the deceased last dwelt, pretending the Books belonged to them and would not part with them except I would live with them. I am told M<sup>r</sup> Rainsford had the like answer. Thus Society is abused and their Missionaries in this as well as other cases ill treated by an ungrateful worthless people I hope you will either cancel my obligation or send me other books instead of those lost by M<sup>r</sup> Gordon I aver and testify that those ..... M<sup>r</sup> Adams were brought in were at the time of his death safe and entire as above and therefore see no reason his heirs should suffer but what is since become of them perhaps neither you nor I shall ever know. I've more than once complained of the unjust usage I have met with in reference to a very valuable collection of choice books detained at Bath, now the seat of war many of which are spoilt and the rest will infallibly, be destroyed by the Heathen, at least the Ministry will never be much better for them for whose use they were chiefly intended. That place will never be the seat of Government nor supplied by an Incumbent a remote obscure dangerous place of it felt incapable of subsisting a Minister and inconsistent with any other part of the Colony. I have not been favoured with a line since I arrived here from the Society. I hope I shall be so happy within a short time and that my requests per Col. Quarry will be granted, otherwise you must expect to hear I am Bankrupt & forced to run for it, since Col<sup>l</sup> Hides death the Quakers and their adherents threaten to act over again the late Tragedy in Order to settle and establish themselves overthrow the Church & in the end finish the ruin of this poor country if the Indians do it not for them but these Meeting with little or no opposition cannot fail of destroying us all; We are in expectation of succour from Ashley River but that is very uncertain. Our cowardice and Quaking principles render us the scorn & contempt of all our neighbours. We are to have an assembly on the 4th of next month I hear few but quakers and their party are chosen Burgesses so that we may expect but little good, they give out already they'l have new Lords and new Laws or rather no Laws that will best please the generality of our Gentry

COL SPOTSWOOD TO THE LORDS OF TRADE OCTOBER
THE 15th 1712

VIRGINIA Oct<sup>r</sup> 15th 1712.

My Lords

The arrival of the Dunwick Frigate with Her Maj<sup>ties</sup> Proclamation for a Cessation of Armes gives me the opportunity of a few minutes to informe your Lord<sup>sh</sup>s of the present situation of affaires in these parts.

The Indians continue their incursions in North Carolina and the death of Collonel Hyde the Governor, which happened the beginning of last moneth increases the misery of that Province so much weakened already by their own Divisions that no measures projected by those in the Government for curbing the Heathens can be prosecuted.

This unhappy state of Her Majestys subjects in my neighbourhood is the more afflicting to me because I have very little hopes of being enabled to relieve them by our Assembly, which I have called to meet next week; for the mobb of this countrey having tryed their strength in the late election, and finding themselves able to carry whom they please, have generally chosen Representatives of their own class: who as their principal recommendations have declared their Resolution to raise no tax on the People let the occasion be what it will. This is owing to a defect in the Constitution which allows to every one tho but just out of the Condition of a servant that can but purchase half an acre of Land an equal vote with the men of the best estates in the country

The militia of this Colony is perfectly useless without arms or ammunition and by an unaccountable infatuation no arguments I have used can prevail on these people to make their militia more serviceable the fear of enemys by sea (except Pirates) are now happily removed by the Peace which if on no other account than that alone: ought to be received here as the greatest and most valuable blessing. but the insurrection of our own Negroes, and the Invasions of the Indians are no less to be dreaded while the people are so stupidly adverse to the only means they have left to protect themselves against either of these events. I shall for my own part take all the care I am capable of (under these disadvantages) for the safety of Her Majestys Subjects and still endeavour to testify to your Lordships that I am with all due respect

My Lords

MR. URMSTONE TO THE SECRETARY

Nov. 6, 1712.

Sir

The last of Nov. 1713 I rec<sup>d</sup> one from the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Society by Col<sup>l</sup> Nicholson who stopping at Boston forwarded it. The very true dismal accounts I have given of affairs here both with relation to myself and the Governor required methinks with submission a more timely and suitable answer if your—Missionaries are not sold to be slaves or banished to a much worse place than ever the Giarri of old were much more what they now are—This is the first I ever was favoured with notwithstanding above 50 I have written, I shall be ready to comply with what is expected of me with reference to the said Gent and accordingly upon a bare intimation that he expected to hear from me I have acquainted that what is expected of me I cannot comply with by reason that the Vestries have rejected misused and refused to do anything for Missionaries upon a supposition that our salary in England is sufficient & that it was never expected by the Society that the Inhabitants should be at any charge The plain truth is our Holy religion (as with sorrow I have often hinted) is totally neglected disregarded & those who promote the same trampled upon I am very miserable indeed, thro the baseness of the people and the mismanagement of my Salary in England which is an accident that happens to most men that travel; this is not the first time I have been abused by one I have intrusted & thought tho' mistaken I was safe so unhappy are many & if Missionaries what signify great salaries, I am poorer now by far than when I came hither & were I but able would speedily quit the country, I have wrecked my brains ever since I arrived to keep soul and body together & have been almost continually in as much danger as in the greatest extremity that can be Sea in fine death would be welcome—The Society may perhaps say this is my constant style but am persuaded when my reports are confirmed by Col Nicholson they may have some further influence with the Society I am desirous if possible to stay here till he comes among us & then doubt not but he will justify my leaving this wretched country and returning to England.

Mr Rainsford has proved another Alexander his comin in has been a great detriment to me and no service to the country. I wish he may stay in it as long as I've done but very much doubt it never any one could do it & had I been able should have long ago taken me to another place

May it please your Hon<sup>r</sup>

The many instances of your Favours in the distressed condition of this Country by your endeavours to succour us with men; by your interposition with the Heathen and by your utmost endeavours to prevent any supply of ammunition and Arms to our barbarous Enemys encourages us to renew our supplications to your Hon<sup>r</sup> for some timely assistance under the most miserable condition that ever people groaned. We can with very great truth say we have exerted our utmost endeavours as well by arms as by Treatys to maintaine the honour of the British and Christian Character; but what with the greatest poverty the repeated slaughters of our men and the disability of our few remaining by wounds and continual Fatigues and Marches We are rendered not only incapable of carrying on an Offensive but even a Defensive War, And the barbarous Heathen are so well acquainted with our disability both which renders all treatys vain and likewise makes us more obnoxious to their barbarous Crueltys.

Wherefore we humbly supplicate your Hon<sup>r</sup> by all the ties of Christianity and all the ties of Humanity and Fellow subjects to afford us some assistance without which the destruction of many unfortunate families will follow what reputation that will be to our neighbouring Governments or the necessity of making use of the Heathen for Mediators Your Hon<sup>r</sup> is too good a Judge to be informed What we can promise on our parts is provisions and the expense of transporting the soldiers which is all our Circumstances will admit of Your Compassion to so many of her Majestys Subjects will greatly add to your illustrious Character and confirme that opinion which we really have of your being to the utmost of your power the Protector of the distressed

LETTER TO GOV. POLLOCK ON INDIAN AFFAIRS.

WMSBURGH 13 December 1712.

To the president of North Carolina,

By the return of a Servant w<sup>ch</sup> the Baron of Graftenzied (de Graaffenreidt) sent into y<sup>e</sup> Country, I received on the 11th instant yours of the 26th of Nov. & 4th of this month, but I find myself still under the same uncertainty in relation to the purchase of the *Duffells, the disposition of the Thousand pound raised by our Assembly for yr. Releif, The removing the Scruples of our Council, as to declaring War against the Indian Enemy untill a previous declaration on your part, and likewise

*A variety of blanket, or woollen cloth, out of which blankets are cut.

as to sending you the Indian prisoners that are here, on all w<sup>ch</sup> I expected your Answer—All you say as to the Duffells is that you should have occasion thereof, if I thought convenient, but since this Country was willing to be at the charge to purchase them upon y<sup>r</sup> Request, It might have been reasonably expected y<sup>r</sup> Government should take the trouble of sending for them—And if the money raised by our Afsembly be of use for your Relief, I cannot see why the Conference, I proposed for laying it out to the best advantage should not be taken notice of, unless y<sup>r</sup> Government be unwilling to accept of it upon the terms of Repayment; but as to that point my last Letter might have satisfied you, that neither I nor the Council intended to press you thereupon, nor do I expect any present Engagement to be entered into upon the Advance of that money—Since you find y<sup>r</sup>self under so great streights to furnish provisions to y<sup>e</sup> South Carolina Auxiliaries, The money raised here may be as effectually applyed in the purchase of Corne & pork in this Country, for those Forces, as in raising men, If you think the Force sent from South Carolina will be sufficient to do the work without them—

As the taking of Hancock was in pursuance of an Engagement entered into wth this Govern<sup>t</sup> by Blounts people, and Hostages left for his delivery here, he was in effect a prisoner to this Gov<sup>r</sup><sup>t</sup>: and certainly Blount looked on him as such, when he sent 2 of his men to give me notice of his coming in & ordered them to wait here 'till his arrival, and one who stood more on punctillios than I do would be a little startled at the suddenness of his Execution without my knowledge,—especially, seeing I am persuaded you could not suspect that I would shelter him against the punishment due to his crimes: having given you an instance to the contrary, by delivering up James Cohery, who (how ignorant soever some of y<sup>r</sup>: people may be of it) was first seized by our Tributaries, carryed before a Magistrate, and by order, del'd to the Chowans, to be carryed into y<sup>r</sup>: province, & after having told you in my last that I intended to deliver up to you all the Indian prisoners that are here: among w<sup>ch</sup> there are now two Waccon Indians taken lately by the Meherins in pursuance to my orders—And I shall accordingly send them under a guard of our Militia to South Key, the 27th instant, when I hope you will appoint some to receive them on that day. I send this by Blunts' men, who together with his brother are returning back to him, their stay here being now unnecessary—I shal write to you more fully wth the prisoner, or else by M<sup>r</sup> Richardson, who is just now arrived here, and intended for y<sup>r</sup> province as Reco<sup>r</sup> Gen<sup>l</sup> for the Lords proprietors.

TO GOV POLLOCK OF NORTH CAROLINA, ON THE SAME SUBJECT.

WMSBURGH 22 December 1712

To the President of North Carolina,

Sir, According to what I writt you, the 13th instant by y<sup>e</sup> return of Blunts two Indians & the Hostage, I now send the Indian prisoners, being eight in all, the warrant which will be delivered with them, will inform you by whom they were taken and when committed, and as the only crime they have been guilty of against this Government is their coming in, contrary to our proclamation, I shall leave them to your Justice or Mercy, as you find them guilty or otherwise in relation to the late Maffacre. It is now above a month, since I sent you the Resolutions of our Affembly for the Relief of your province, but have not yet had any answer either as to you receiving the Duffells, or the application of the £1000 for the service of your Countrey: I shall be glad to find the circumstances of your Affairs are not now so pressing as they were then represented, & one would be inclined to believe they are very much bettered, since the meeting I proposed with you, or some deputy from your Government to concert measures for the more effectual application of that Supply has been so long delayed—for my part I have hitherto suspended all my thoughts thereon, because as I have already told you, I expected such a meeting, & have nothing more at present to add, but that I am

Your most obedient humble fervant.

CHOAN, N. C. 23 December 1712.

HOND: S<sup>r</sup>

I want words to express the miserable state of this poore Countrey—For Coll: Moore (who is a gentleman seemingly of great worth) not finding provifions ready at Bath County for his forces, was neecessitated wth all his Indians, being about nine hunder, to march into this County wher they muft by deftroying the place untill provifion is carryed round, and men rayzed here to join them—The want of having provifion carryed round was chiefly occasioned by the ignorance and obstinacy of our Affembly, of all w<sup>ch</sup> Cap<sup>t</sup> Jones can give y<sup>r</sup> hon<sup>r</sup> a particular account—

Now being informed by Coll: Moor that the Tuscaroroes have taken into their Forts, having in his coming in laid three days before one of them, And thought it unadvisable to stay longer, being in want of provisions, Tools and some more whitt men, his Indians not being very ready in attacking Forts without English—For which reason, what men of ours can be raised must march with him, who are generally badly provided in clothing to march this season—

Wherefor would earnestly entreat yr: honor to order the thuffells for us at Mr John Cottons at Blackwater, Likewise a dozen spades, twenty brass pans, and about fifty or sixty hand grenades, they being very necessary for the ready taking of the Forts. I shall have a boat or canoe at John Cottons on Monday next. It will be of extraordinary service to the Countrey at this time For the Army being, to march out the first of the next month, If it come not before that time I shall have no men to go out—

As for yr: honor<sup>s</sup> disposing of the money by your Assembly, it being impracticable for any of yr Forces to come at this time, not only by reason of the Badness of the season, and the want of provisions being yet carried round, but chiefly to have yr Forces as a reserve. For I hope that Coll: Moore, with his, and some of our men will be able to reduce our enemy Indians to a low Condition by the middle of Feby next; by which time it is probable that many of Coll: Moores' Indians, having got Slaves or other Booty may desert. Only about two or three hundred which Coll: Moor doubts not he can keep, so that If then we can have some forces from you, they may be a great means to give the finishing stroke & bring enemies that are left to a Peace on Reasonable terms. And intend to send in an agent in Convenient time before them, at which time yr: honor may order matters as you shall see the posture of our affairs at that time requires, of which I shall particularly informe yr honor from time to time—I have often complaints brought to me of the insolency of the Meherrin Indians on this side Meherrin River, with a jealousy of their Killing and driving back the peoples stocks, on John Beverly, who lives near them, against whom they have a great hatred, having had a mare or twoe shot lately—Also having ordered the Rangers and hunters, for to take up any Indians they should meet with on this side Meherrin River; and having taken one of them, brought him in to the fort<sup>s</sup> Beverlys—in a little time about eighteen of the Meherrin Indians came up, most of them armed and forced them to let loose the Indians they had taken, giving them threatening and abusive language—so that besides their Killing the peoples stocks, supplying the Tuscaroroes with ammunition, i am in great doubt they may doe further mischeif on this shore, and lay it on other indians—All w<sup>ch</sup> I hope yr: honor will either redress; or not take offence If wee take such measures wth them as wee shall see most for our own safety—Tom Blunt, the indian coming in before I had finished hath hindered my sending thes two dayes, so that i beleive if the boat or cannoe for the duffells be at M<sup>r</sup> Cottons by Wednesday the last of this month, it may be time enough—Coll: Moore hath promised Tom Blunt, (upon his being true to the English) protection, and to secure him and the people of his Fort from his indians—Tom Blunt is very desirous of having in, his brother (as he calls him) and his confine now in your prison, whom the Bearer W<sup>m</sup> Charleton our interpreter knows—whom if your honor will be so favourable as to let us have them sent to M<sup>r</sup> Cottons, to be brought downe in our boat it will be a great Kindness, and may be of great service to us, Blunt accusing us, for giving him nothing for all he is done only words, as he says—He had intended to have come or sent in now, to yr: honor, But Coll: Moore intending to march in by his towne, he thought it necessary for him to be at his towne; of all w<sup>ch</sup> our interpreter can give you a full account—

Hon<sup>d</sup> S<sup>r</sup>, I am ashamed that necessity forces me to trouble yo so much. But I doubt not ye will consider our present Condition, And Continue y<sup>r</sup> Favours to us, w<sup>ch</sup> shall be planted in indelible characters in his heart, who is

Tom Blunt just now informes me of on Meherrin Indian latly at his towne, named Tut-seeh, baf: queat—so that it is not to be doubted but that they supply them wth what ammunition they use and eary what newes they know of—w<sup>ch</sup> I doubt not y<sup>r</sup> honor will consider

THE PEOPLE OF N. CAROLINA.

Yours of the 13th Rec<sup>d</sup> by the Indians last night, wherein, I observe that I have not answered yr: of Nov. the 18th so fully it seems as I ought to have done—First as for the Duffells, I gave your honor acc<sup>t</sup> of the great want of it, and intended to have sent for it as soon as I understood from yr: honor when I was to have it. But necessity forcing, begged in my last the favour of having it, and some other necessaries brought to Sth Key, the charges of w<sup>ch</sup> may be taken out of the £1000. And the 1000<sup>lb</sup>: left to yr: honors' disposal I thought was a good reserve for the last cast. And that it was not policy to venture all at on hazard. For Knowing the instability of the Sth Carolina indians by their leaving Coll: Barnwell last year, can have no certain dependance of their finishing the war at this time—But I concluded that when they had done what they could against the Tuscaroroes, Then what forces yr honor can raise wth that Fund, might I thought, wth our help bring the enemy to a reasonable peace, as I writt to you by Charleton—And as for a declaration of war against our enemies I proposed it to the Council here, who after due consideration, thought it altogether unnecessary, after having passed here severall Acts of Assembly declaring warr, and after the continuance of the war against them 15 months & several of both sides Killed and taken & indeed it seems to me a little preposterous. Whowsoever, if the upper Towns of the Tuscaroroes doe not performe their Preliminary Articles I intend to lay the breach before the Council, and have a Proclamation issued out declaring warr, and send in one of them to yr: honor. w<sup>ch</sup> I hope may Remove all scruples—As for sending for the indians Prisoners, I was very willing to see first if ther indians would have kept their Preliminary Articles wth us, first, having no Prisons to Keep them in here—Your honor needs not doubt but that the favour of the duffells & money was accepted of here, wth all the acknowledgement and gratitud wee wer capable of Especially being to be lodged in yr: hands who wee know will manadge it for our best advantage, as you will see by the address of thanks from our Assembly w<sup>ch</sup> I hope y<sup>e</sup> have Rec<sup>d</sup> by Charleton, before now, being disappointed of it a long time by the mismanagement of some Persons whom the Assembly trusted, of w<sup>ch</sup> Cap<sup>t</sup> Jones can give the best account—

I had sent in a Deputy: or twoe before now, to concert what measures your honors thinks best in laying out that money—Only thinking that ther was no present necessity of laying out any (save only for the cariage of the Duffells & the other things sent for the 8th Key) And lykewise all our men capable to be sent as deputys being otherwise employed in that troublesome juncture, thought it might be delayed until the army was marched out—It is true provisions is lyke to be very short wth us, But I will strive hard to provide the army (if possible) And had rather the Inhabitants should pinch a litle this summer, then the money be imployed for that use, w<sup>ch</sup> I doubt not yr: honor, will find wayes to imploy it more for advantage—And intend as soon as the Army is out and have a litle prospect whow (how?) our affaires are lyke to succeed, then to send in a deputy or twoe to give yr: honor a true state of our Condition, and to agree on such measures as you shall thinke most advantageous for the peace of this Government—

As for Hancock, it is time they had obliged themselves to deliver him both to you and to us, And having brought him in here, and the offence he had committed being against this Govern<sup>t</sup>, And as wee apprehended, it was on account ye pressed his bringing in, so that it never entered our thoughts that ther was any necessity of sending him into you, or that you desired it, otherwise wee would certainly have sent him in by Blunt, who was very willing to goe—And I am confident non in this Govern<sup>t</sup> ever imagined ye would have sheltered him from his deserved punishment—

Hon<sup>d</sup> Sr I would have sent a boat or a canoe to 8th Key before now, But I protest it is as much as wee can to spare this canoe now to send—All the boats & canoes wee can gett here, not being sufficient to cary provisions for the indians who ly here destroying the place untill provisions is caryed round to Bath County w<sup>ch</sup> I hope now will be in a short time—

I am well satisfied that ther is a receiver Gen<sup>l</sup> come in, by whom I hope wee shall have some Instructions from the Lds: Proprietors, And should be glade to have the honor to see him here.

Hon<sup>d</sup> Sr If I have missed in this or my former, threw inadvertency or misapprehensione, I hope y<sup>e</sup> will impute it to the great pressure of business I now ly under—The army here to be provided for, Provision and some other necessaries to be sent round to Bath County, men, horses and arms to be rayfed and twenty other things, too long here to Recite, The Counsell not near mee, all w<sup>ch</sup> I hope yr: honor will consider, And assure you ther shall not the least thing flie me intentionally, that may any wayes offend you, but shall approve myself on all occasions to be

Your most obedient Humble servant

May it please your Hon<sup>rs</sup>

The House of Commons taking notice of that part of yr Hon<sup>rs</sup> speech recommending to us the consideration of some means, to be used to gain intelligence from North Carolina of the state of our friends, enemies & our army lately sent there; do not think we can more effectually answer that intimation, than by requesting yr Hon<sup>rs</sup> to take such measure therein as you shall think most proper & expeditions, assuring yr Hon<sup>rs</sup> that this House will readily concur with an order to defray the charges incident thereto out of the Public Treasury.

W<sup>m</sup> RHETT Speaker.

The House mett according to adjournment.

As Messages from the Gov. & council by Thomas Hepworth Esq. with a written message viz:

Gentlemen;

We are glad you concur with our opinion in sending to get the quickest intelligence from North Carolina, the endeavors, that have been used hitherto proving fruitless, we intend forthwith to send a vessel to Virginia believing the most effectual way to assure our end.

We have further under our consideration that it is necessary to send up to our Creek Indians, & use the best methods to keep them at home to prepare them to be in readiness to go to War against our Northern enemies, in case it shall be found requisite, when we have advice of the circumstances of our affairs in those parts.

We do further believe it advisable to send to our Northern Indians the Elaws & Wacksaws &c to assure them of our protection, & that we will take the best methods we can to keep them from the insults of their enemies, and encourage to plant good quantities of corn to supply our forces in case we shall have occasion to send any that way.

CHARLES CRAVEN.

A message from the Governor & Council by Thos. Hepworth Esq<sup>r</sup> who brought the following message in writing.

Gentlemen:

The private instructions of Mr. Foster received & signed by Governor Hyde, we send you with this upon which he grounded that address he delivered to you this day, indeed his credentials are short and not regular, but we attribute that to the circumstances they are under, some charges he was to answer if any complaint was made by Col. Barnwell either on the Gov<sup>r</sup> or Government, but no such thing appearing before us in publick manner, we look only upon the means how to succor them & therein must desire y<sup>r</sup> assistance, that nothing may be wanting on our parts to save them & secure the province to the Lords Prop<sup>rs</sup>

CHARLES CRAVEN.

FOSTER'S INSTRUCTIONS

After having Canoe hands, provisions & other necessities you are with the first conveniency & all the expedition you can make the best of yr way to Charles Town in South Carolina. When you are arrived deliver yr Letters as they are directed & with all the expedition you can take the advice of some person you think most capable to advise you on the best & quickest methods in managing the concerns you go about which are :

First ; To obviate what misrepresentations & false aspersions may have been cast upon the Governor & Government (if any such be) by Col. Barnwell or any others. Then you are to use yr utmost endeavor to procure if possible 1000 Indians for our assistance with a few white men under a good Commander of known courage & conduct, that will not be biased by fear, friendship, or interest to represent to them that Col. Barnwell being much disliked here will not do well for that place.

Lastly ; You (are) must endeavor to procure us 10 or 12 Barrels of powder, with shot answerable, & 2 or 3 thousand good gun flints.

For the first you must endeavor to find out what false representations or reflections hath been cast upon the Governor or Government, by Col. Barnwell or any other & seeing the only thing he seemed to complain of here & to lay as the cause of his bad success, especially in not taking — Fort was his want of provisions, If so, you must lay before the Governor & Council, That by reason of our disturbance last summer with Col. Cary & by reason of the great drought we had there were very small crops of corn made here, & likewise the Assembly a short time before Col. Barnwell's arrival, refusing to agree to the raising of men & provisions for the defence of the Country & then having no notice of Col. Barnwell's coming until his arrival, was the reason we were not so well provided at his arrival as we would otherwise have been.

And then we must lay before them that before the men appointed by the Assembly, that was after Col. Barnwell came in [Page 79—in original Page 95] could secure the corn to be spared in each of their Districts all of the people that had any corn to spare had laid it out with the vessels, & it was conveyed out of the country. But you may assure them that the Gov<sup>r</sup> used his utmost endeavor both himself & by his friends to supply them. You may likewise lay before them that the fewness of the vessels here, & the difficulty and tediousness of the passage from this Country to Pamlico & Nense, with the greatness of the number of the people there to be maintained was a great hindrance. That Col. B<sup>r</sup>'s army (may be) was not as fully provided for as we desired.

You may likewise lay before them that they were never in such great want of provisions as to hinder them from any action as particularly at Hancock's where you having been present can particularly inform them that the whole forces stayed there 3 or 4 days after the fort could have been taken.

Then as for procuring assistance from these you must lay before them we are in great need of assistance as ever, Our greatest & most numerous Enemies the Tusquerora Indians being little or nothing, either weakened or discouraged having lost but about thirty men by the best information we can hear, since Col. B's arrival here & then Col. B & all his forces having been against Hancock fort twice & not taken it hath much encouraged them.

Then as for the pretended peace that Col. B said he had made with them, that there is nothing in it, Barnwell himself saying it was a sham business to put them off until he was better prepared for them, neither hath he ever yet given accounts to us what it was, & then if there was a peace Col. B himself hath broken it by killing & taking several of the Indians since, who being along with Tusqueroras in Hancock Fort, were equally concerned in the peace with them.

You may likewise lay before them the late massacre of the people at Neuse & the shooting of some negros at Movetticos so there is great necessity of present help, which we the more earnestly desire of them, not only as being under the same Queen, the same Lords Prop<sup>rs</sup> in the same Province but because we hope they will finish a good an honorable work as they have begun.

And likewise represent to them that help from Virginia or from the Cyneper Indians by means of the Gov<sup>r</sup> of New York [Page 96—Page 81 original] would not do so well, neither for us, nor them, it being a fair way for the Lords Prop<sup>rs</sup> to lose their Province to the Queen by reason of not being able to defend it. And that if the five nations of Indians should come in and destroy the Tuscaroras they would not only have all the advantage of the slaves but by pretending a privilege in the Tusquerora country that they had conquered, they would become bad neighbors to their Indians, either to destroy them, join with them against the Government.

Then you must lay before them the great advantage may be made of slaves, there being many hundreds of (them) women & children may we believe 3 or 4 thousand.

Next you may represent to them, that for their Indians subsisting when they come in, the Tusqueroras for their own relief, as we are informed have planted great quantities of—which is generally ripe next month, as also generally here their is appearance of good crops of wheat which is safe got in (no grain being to be transported) will be sufficient to maintain them.

Then lastly as for the ammunition, you must lay before them the general want of it, & that the effects of this country not being very vendible in Virginia will not purchase it. But knowing that they are generally in want of corn, if they send in ten or 12 barrels of powder, with shot answerable, and 2 or 3000 flints that the Government will take care here if they will send in Vessels & take their price for it next Spring, or they shall have it here in Indian corn, at country prices which is twenty pence a bushel, otherwise the Govern will send next Spring effects to raise the money as to pay for it.

EDWARD HYDE.

Ordered;

That the said message & papers lye upon the Table for the perusal of the members of this House.

Gentlemen ;

I will be always with the greatest regret when I am obliged to lay anything before the House that may touch any members of that Body, where I have received so many favours, & for whom I conceive so just a respect. The Honor of your House being concerned as well as my own makes me send you the enclosed papers, that you may better know how much Col. Barnwell hath done in the service of his country & what reward he meets. I always thought both Houses readily concurred in sending another army to North Carolina, but I find by Col. Barnwells Letter to Col. Hyde, that it was wholly owing to the great interest he had in the assembly, otherwise our Brethren had been wholly neglected by us; they had suffered more had he been absent from Parliament, than South Carolina did by his being sent thither.

But, whatsoever, affront he put upon Mr Hyde when in his Government he intended to have made satisfaction by preferring to this. I must own his country would have been obliged to if he had succeeded in his design, but I have not faith enough to affirm his Interest would have prevailed.

When I reflect after what manner he hath treated you Gent. I can hardly stop my resentments, but by remembering he is one of yr body for whom I have so great a veneration.

CHARLES CRAVEN.

Ordered: That the papers sent by the Governor to this House together with the said messages, be read, and accordingly the following papers were read, viz.:

COL. BARNWELLS LETTER TO GOVERNOR HYDE.

SOUTH CAROLINA, Augth 18, 1712.

RIGHT HON<sup>l</sup> It is seven weeks since my misfortune, & I fear it will be as much more before I recover my limbs, which the chirmurgeon gives me hope of recovering. In the meantime I suffer inexpressible torments, that I write this in great haste. I hope you will find (me) that I have been a faithful friend to you in all respects which I would be more able to be, had I been well and done myself the Hon<sup>r</sup> of waiting on you. I am not able to enter into particulars, because of my pains, only I assure you that notwithstanding all the good diligence of our two good friends the Governor and M<sup>r</sup> Hart, our Assembly would let the war fall, except only by the Indians. Had I not taken the part of poor North Carolina & represented y<sup>r</sup> case & by my influence which is considerable, caused them to exert once more, which if it does not succeed, I did engage, if I recover to go myself, at my own charges. I am sorry I cannot enter into particulars. M<sup>r</sup> Mitchell's deposition is truth, only I am sorry he is so reserved as not to tell all, I affirm upon interrogatory examination, you would be surprised to find the time & alteration that would be given to the whole proceedings, he was my bosom friend, and knows the very bottom of my designs. I did nothing without his advice & consent, and even when I hesitated about anything, he would tell me, lay him in the Gapp—I took him to be a gentleman of Hon<sup>r</sup> & probity and do still believe upon occasion he would do me justice.

As to the other Deposition, I am loth to say the Gent swore [Page 160—Page 150 in original] falsely it may be it was to the best of their knowledge. Prejudice caused them to see them in another (light) dress than they were designed, but as they swore several matters of fact most falsely, so I can procure twenty evidences to the contrary. I am not ignorant what was the design of these depositions, & I call God to witness my sincerity in serving you, & North Carolina that I did not deserve such unkind usage from thence. It is my comfort that my country has resented my service after another manner, & tho' y<sup>r</sup> Hon<sup>r</sup> had the benefit of them yet in a most solemn & hon<sup>l</sup> manner, they returned me their thanks &c, & I hope by this time you will likewise have another opinion of me, and as I have done on y<sup>r</sup> acct. here all the friendly offices I could, you would be pleased to intercede in my behalf, with y<sup>r</sup> Assembly to do me Justice. If this misfortune had not befallen me, I should never trouble them, but this having disappointed all my projects, I am forced to become supplicant to you, & if I live to go to Great Britain I do not doubt so to represent you, that if the Lords proprietors do not find a more advantageous way of rewarding industry of serving their interests, that at least South Carolina may be offered you, besides my blood lost in South Carolina, & the misery I do still undergo for their sakes. I lost five horses that cost me £84. I disbursed about £50 at several publick works of which I have a voucher of £39. for Corefort, the rest being small sums, I disbursed for rum & other necessaries for the sick & wounded men to Capt. Drinkwater & others about £16; for this I have the voucher, & by an act of Assembly, I was to have 20<sup>s</sup> a day. I crossed Nense River 28th day of January, and was wounded the 5th day of July, 3 days before I got into South Carolina Government.

I could have most of these demands paid me by the Treasury here, only I was willing the money should be employed in a second expedition, on condition the Government would address you to get me paid in North Carolina. I will not apologize for giving you this trouble because I hope to give you sufficient proofs of my real friendship, so that you may have no reason to repent of doing me a kindness; wishing you succession of health & prosperity I conclude

DE GRAFFENRIED'S MANUSCRIPT, COPIED FOR THE
COLONIAL RECORDS OF NORTH CAROLINA FROM THE ORIGINAL MSS. IN THE PUBLIC LIBRARY
AT YVERDON, SWITZERLAND, AND TRANS-LATED BY M. DU FOUR.

Preface.

Though Several persons have asked me to relate my sad adventures in America, I should not have felt disposed to it,—had I not been very glad to Justify myself, as well towards my Society, as towards some other people, which could perhaps have had “sinister” thoughts about my behaviour, as if I had undertaken that colony with levity and imprudence, or as if I had spent my time in Carolina, in luxury and leisure, in what they would be greatly mistaken, and this relation will prove the contrary. There will be found in it some particulars which might have been omitted, but, on account of the disorderly proceedings of some people,—who acted dishonestly towards the poor colonists and myself,—having gone as far as the blackest and most unjustifiable deeds, I could not but mention them (though very charitably since I name nobody), in order not to be accused myself, and to bring my innocence to light.

Of course some will be eager to know for what reasons I came to an undertaking so great and so far off from my native country: some know them, and for them it is unnecessary to point to them. The others will have to content themselves by knowing that, from the very time when I had the honor to be at the deceased duke of Albemarle's who was then established by the King Charles II as viceroy of Jamaica, by the relation which he made to me of the beauty, goodness, and riches of English America, I conceived thereof such a flattering idea, that on the urgent invitation of that lord, I should have gladly followed him in that travel, if I had not been dissuaded from it by the strong remonstrating of my parents, who wanted me to settle in my country. But notwithstanding all the pleasantness I could enjoy there, there was always, so to speak, some charm and attraction for me in the above mentioned countries. As fortune did not eye me as favorably as I could have wished, after I had ended my great and important lieutenantship (bailiwick) of Yverdon, to the satisfaction, thank God, of my lords,* of the neighboring States, and of my dependants, with a good and clean conscience,—but having made no money, on account of several mishaps,—as I was not a man to enrich myself at the expense of my poor dependants, besides, on account of the troubles in Neuchatel, which were the occasion of much loss to me,—seeing that the new Reform deprived me from any chance of obtaining some new and profitable office for some length of time,—I conceived the hope of making a more considerable fortune in those far off countries of English America.

In order to care better for my numerous family, according to my character and rank, I took the strong resolution to undertake that important, dangerous, long, and toilsome voyage,—with all the more courage that I was solicited to it by letters, as well from the said countries, as from London.

I hesitated a long time, whether I should communicate my plans to my friends and relations, but, foreseeing that they would deter me from them, I said nothing, even to my next relatives, and started secretly. However, before leaving the country, I stopped, on the frontier, at a friend's, and made some disposition about my private affairs, which I had not been able to settle before my departure, and sent it to a relative with an exposition of my design, but, unluckily, that parcel of papers was either intercepted or lost. This loss was the cause of much trouble and confusion; receiving no answer during eight or ten days, I departed with a firm resolve not to return any more; but man proposes and God disposes.

When I arrived in Holland, certain persons of note would have nearly averted me from my purpose in making other propositions to me, but not finding them suitable to my taste, I pursued my way to England, where I at once met my friends. Some persons of high rank and distinction encouraged me much in my plans, and promised to help me as much as possible,—so that I could conclude a contract, on the proposition of the Lords Proprietors of Carolina, by which they granted to me very favorable conditions and privileges for the foundation of my colony.

My sojourn in London,—and arrival of ten thousand Palatines & Germans.

At that very time, more than 20000 Souls came from Germany to England, under the name of “Palatines,” but intermingled with many Swiss and people of other German provinces,—a fact which gave much anxiety to the Court, as well as to the inhabitants of London and neighboring provinces, on account of the great trouble and enormous expense caused by these people. Therefore an edict was promulgated, on the Strength of which everyone was allowed to take Some of these people to take care of them,—and a great number of them had been sent into the three kingdoms, with less success, however, than was expected, partly on account of their idleness, partly on account of the jealousy of the poor subjects of the realm. And so it was resolved to send a great part of these people to America, to which purpose the queen contributed large sums.

Assistance of the Queen for the transportation of my people to Virginia and Carolina.

In these circumstances, several distinguished persons which knew about my enterprise, advised me to avail myself of so favorable an occasion,—and gave me some hopes that if I took with me a considerable number of those people, the queen would not only assume the expense of their transportation, but also bestow upon them considerable assistance,—this really took place and this last sum amounted to 4000 lb. Sterling. The Queen or the Royal Council had promised to give lands on the River Potomac, as many as we should desire, with strong commendations to the Governor of Virginia. All this, with the advantageous promises of the Lords Proprietors of Carolina gave not little authority to my undertaking, for which I hoped to achieve a consumation not less successful than its beginning appeared to be.

Measures taken for the transportation of the colonists.

I accordingly took indescribable pains for the transportation and subsistence of that new colony: (1) I selected to that object young people, healthy and laborious, and of all kind of avocation and handicraft; (2) I laid up stores of all kinds of implements; (3) good provisions of victuals; (4) good ships, well equipped, also good stewards and overseers, to take care of everything and to maintain these people in good order and discipline; (5) and in order that no negligence or fault might be charged upon me, I did or undertook nothing without the knowing, advice and instruction of the royal committee. (6) I had appointed as first directors of that crowd three persons, notables from Carolina, who happened to be then in London, and who had lived already several years in Carolina. One was general-receiver, another general Surveyor, the third a justice of the peace; all of them appeared to that effect before the Royal Committee, where they received their instructions and were confirmed in their authority above these people on sea and on land, (in my absence); indeed, I could not depart then on account of a small colony from Bern, which was to follow shortly afterwards,—besides I had some other business, which I had to attend to; (7) I had selected from among that crowd twelve subdirectors, both sensible and able,—and gave them charge to take good care of the others.

Visit of my lords assessors of the R. Committee to the Ships etc.

After the Royal Committee had confirmed all the contracts passed between the Lords Proprietors, myself, and those people, and ratified the clauses on which we unanimously agreed, I requested the Lords of the said Royal Committee to kindly commit a few members to visit the transports, to see that everything was in order, as well concerning the provisions, as concerning the sailors, the ship itself and the space, and to warn the captain of the ship, that he should support and feed those people sufficiently and cleanly. Those measures were taken and recorded by the Royal Committee.

Departure of the colony.—Convoy of Rear-Admiral Noris.

On the day before the departure of that Colony, I went with M<sup>r</sup> Cesar, the German minister of the Reformed Church of London, to Gravesend, to comfort and cheer up those people and to wish them a happy voyage; I stated in a little speech all that I could judge to be good and proper in the circumstances, and the Rev<sup>d</sup> Minister made a sermon full of feeling on the subject. As to me, I could not sail with them at the time, as I expected still another small colony from Bern, as stated above, and some members of my Society, with whom I was desirous to meet in order to discuss different particulars about that important enterprise, and to take afterwards the adopted measures. And so, after having commended them to the divine care and protection, I ordered their departure,—with many precautions however concerning the war. To that effect I had obtained from the Earl of Pembroke, great admiral of England, this signal favor,—that he ordered Knight Norris, rear-admiral, to escort both our vessels with his squadron as far as the latitude of Portugal.

Though in January (1710), the weather then was very mild, but when they had crossed the channel they were overtaken by such a terrible storm and by winds so contrary that it took them 13 weeks to cross the sea. For that reason, those poor people were much worried and all fell sick, to which state of things the salted food, to which they were not accustomed, and the lack of space,—both were much conducive. More than half of them died on the sea and many died for drinking too much water and eating raw fruit to excess after the landing. In that way, that colony was shattered before it had settled.

N. B. One of these vessels, loaded with the best goods and most well-to-do colonists had the misfortune to be assailed and plundered by a French captain, at the very mouth of James River, in sight of an English man of war, which, being anchored and partly dismasted, could not come to its help. This is the first storm of adversity.

Arrival of the Palatine colonists in Virginia.

After what was left of that colony had recruited and restored themselves a little in Virginia, where they had been welcomed, they started with their goods and chattels on their way to Carolina; they had 20 miles* to go by land, what took much time and money,—indeed, they dared not to go at sea on account of the privateers,—and besides, the waters are so low at the month of the Carolinian rivers, that big ships could not cross their opening and sail up stream.

Arrival of the Palatines in North Carolina.

They arrived in the County of Albemarle on the River Chowan, at the residence of a rich settler, Col Pollock, of the Council of North Carolina, he took care of them, supplied them with all necessaries, sed pro pecunia, for money, and put them into great boats to cross the Sound and enter the County of Bath, where they were located by the Surveyor-general on a tongue of land between the News' and Trent rivers, called Chattawka, where afterwards was founded the small city of New Bern,—and here begins the second cross accident.

Indeed, that Surveyor general, instead of settling these poor people, every one on his own plantation, in order to gain time and to enable them to clear and clean out their lands, located them, in his personal interest, on part of his own land on the southern bank of the river Trent, at the very hottest and most unhealthy place, instead of locating them at least northwards on News' River, where they would have found a cooler situation. What, furthermore, was very dishonest in that Surveyor, is the fact that we had paid him a heavy price for that piece of tongue of land, about one thousand "arpents,"* not knowing that he had no title to that and that the place was still inhabited by Indians. He sold it to us as free of all incumbrance and attested that there were no Indians on it.

There those poor colonists were forced to stay until September in the greatest poverty, and to sell nearly all their clothes and movables to the neighboring inhabitants, in order to sustain their life.

I leave it to the reader to think how this sight impressed my little Bernese colony, which unto then was in want of nothing, had a happy voyage, from their departure to their arrival in Carolina, in a good season, well supplied with all kinds of provisions, well equipped, with plenty of room on the vessel,—when their eyes presently beheld such a sad state of things, sickness, want, and desperation having reached their very climax.

I could not enough insist on the wretched and sorrowful state in which I found these poor people on my arrival; nearly all sick and at the last gasp, and the few who had kept their health despairing entirely. God knows in what labyrinth, even danger for my own life, I found myself then!

But before going on with my relation I will also mention my departure from London, and afterwards I shall continue the successive narration of events; it will not be out of purpose to speak also of my departure from London and then go on. As my Palatines departed in January 1710, I followed them and departed myself from Newcastle at the beginning of June, with my Swiss, who embarked in Holland, under care of two of my associates, in a ship from New England, having contracted with the owner, a merchant from Boston, the capital of that province, for their transportation, as the ship was about ready to sail.

I departed from London at the end of the month of May, and took for that a very convenient coach, which is most like to the "diligence" or stage-coach from Paris to Lyon. I cannot but speak of something which I remarked on that travel. As I had to stay, over Sunday, in a small town called Strafford, I was anxious to see the country-seat of the Earl of Essex, where I was most civilly received. After having seen all the apartments and curiosities which are found in that magnificent palace, I observed in a great cupola excellent pictures, and in the Earl's private room a great many curiosities, but in a fine hall I nearly caused the company to laugh, in the following way. I thought I saw on a marble table a lute, flutes, and other musical instruments, a few books of music, a pack of playing-cards carelessly thrown down, a small bag of game-counters and-fishes, and several other trifles. When I came nearer the table I saw that all that was only painting instead of the real things which I fancied. Assuredly I was most surprised to see the work of a second Apelles. What was most striking was, that the surface of the table was as well polished as if the whole had been naturally grown in the marble. After having been refreshed with a very good collation, I expressed my thanks and took leave to pursue my way.

After a few days' travelling, we arrived at York, where I had just time enough to view the structure of the cathedral, which is very beautiful, and from there I saw nothing very remarkable, until I came to New Castle.

Lieutenant-Governor of North Carolina.

The cause of all my misfortunes was the behavior and faithlessness of the superior and inferior Inspectors, but above all the temerity, faithless-ness, avarice and lack of charity of Colonel Cary, from which causes proceeded not only the above stated misfortunes, but all other misadventures, and my own, as well as the colony's, total ruin. That colonel availed himself, at that time, of the Governor's death to meddle, (against every right and justice, and against the orders of the Lords Proprietors), with the government, yea, I know it from a certain source, he proposed to fill his pocket with the income of the Lords Proprietors and to sail for Madagascar, a favorite resort for all kinds of thieves and pirates.

Third Mishap.

This same Colonel Cary, when the new Governor, Mr Hyde, a near relation to Queen Ann, the three directors above mentioned, and I, pretended to exhibit before him and the Council our patents, orders and letters, impudently turned us away, in defiance of the injunctions of the Lords Proprietors, refused to hear us, and scorned all our protestations, so much so that all the fine promises of the LL. Prop<sup>s</sup> on which I relied and on which all that enterprise was founded were useless and came to nothing. This brought me with the whole colony in dreadful troubles and unutterable anxieties, and had an influence on all mishaps which took place since.

Finally, that C. Cary became an open and declared rebel and brought together a gang of tramps and rioters by means of promises and plenty of good drinks to which he treated them,—so much so that the new Governor, Mr Hyde, dared not to undertake it to put himself in possession of his Government by force,—all the less so that his letters patent were not yet ready, although orders had already been issued, on the strength of which Col. Trent, Governor of South Carolina was to install him, and had already written to that effect to the Council of North Carolina; unfortunately that same Governor Trent suddenly died, which fact was the cause of all these disturbances.

However, this interreign did not suit me, and in such pressing need and want (inasmuch as, on account of the troubles caused by that rebellion, everybody kept his little provisions for himself,) the question was whether I should risk my life, and leave all that colony to rack and ruin, and let them starve, or if I should run into debts to relieve these poor people. In such pressing need an honest man, a good christian could not hesitate. As luckily my name and character were good enough in America, where my plans were much talked of,—I first sent to Pennsylvania for provisions of flour; I had luckily already ordered some there from London, by way of precaution, fearing that affairs would not go on as easily in Carolina as was thought at the time. I did not fail to send also to Virginia and into the Province itself for the necessary provisions, but all that got on so slowly that during that time these new colonists were obliged to sell their clothes and implements, in order to get the necessary victuals from the neighboring inhabitants, and keep themselves from starvation.

In the mean time I took steps to get the land surveyed in distributing to every family its own portion of it, so that they should not lose time, and in order that they could root up the trees, build their cabins, etc. At last the provisions in grain, salt, butter, salt pork, and several kinds of vegetables, were brought to me at heavy expense. As to cattle, it was supplied with difficulty, since our people would not go for it where it could be found, and I could not deliver it to them at their very doors. However, some expedients were found, and our colonists, within 18 months, managed to build homes and make themselves so comfortable, that they made more progress in that length of time, than the English inhabitants in several years.—For instance, there was, in the whole province, only one wretched water mill; the wealthiest people use handmills, and the poorer class are obliged to pound their grain in mortars made of oak, or rather tree-stocks which are dug out, and, instead of sifting it in a regular sieve, they shake it barely in a kind of basket, which operation, of course, occasions much loss of time. On the contrary, our people found out brooklets, convenient to build on them a kind of wheelworks connected with pestles which they put in motion, so by means of water power they pounded their grain, & had their time left for other work, what did them much good. I had myself already begun the construction of a very convenient water-mill. But, alas! as we already hoped to enjoy the fruits of our labors after much expense, trouble, and care,—notwithstanding such cross-accidents, mishaps and inconveniences,—when there was a fine appearance of a happy state of things, the fourth storm of infortune rushed upon us in the shape of the Indians, who plotted a black treachery, the which proceeded from the vengeance and jealousy of the rebel adherents of Col. Cary, the author of all our misfortunes.

Here follows my relation and tragic adventures on my travel to Cateelma. I change the Governor's letter into a relation and keep for its time the particulars about the Indian war. This sad adventure is in a relation inserted at page [923], as it consists in a letter written to Gov<sup>r</sup> Hyde, written before this narration.

As the said Col. Cary, by his unruly, "crabbed" and treacherous proceedings, was cause of the commotion and tumult of the whole province, it will not be out of place to mention here something more particular about these disturbances, and to continue the narration of what took place after Col. Trent's, the Gov<sup>r</sup> of S. C's death.

As soon as we had arrived to a village on the frontier between Virginia & Carolina, called Somer Town, a small crowd of inhabitants of North Carolina came to greet me and offered the government to me; they insisted among other motives of persuasion, on the fact that it was due to me since, in an interreign, and in the Governor's absence, the landgrave occupied the first rank and held the "presidial."* Having already heard from the Gov<sup>r</sup> of North Carolina's death, in London, I replied that though I was duly invested with that dignity of a Landgrave, I would not avail myself, at the moment, of that title. I thanked them for the honor which they did me, and in my turn pointed to the following considerations: "that the new governor, M<sup>r</sup> Hyde, was already in Virginia, that I had been an ocular witness of his election as such by the L.L. Prop<sup>s</sup>, and had congratulated him in the rooms of these distinguished gentlemen,—that, far more, he was a near relative to the Queen,—that he had been approvingly confirmed by her Majesty,—and that it would be ungracious in me to meddle with such kind of business,—that, though that lord had not yet received his letters patent, they could follow soon, and that, accordingly, the inhabitants of North Carolina ought to make no difficulty in receiving him as their governor,—the more so, that Gov<sup>r</sup> Trent had already notified it to the Council of N. Carolina,"—but, as these persons did not like to have such a great tory for their governor, my answer did not please them,—so they partook of a collation with me, and returned home.

Arrival in Carolina.

A few days afterwards, I advanced further in the Province with my people and stopped in the County of Albemarle, on the River Chowan, at the Col<sup>l</sup> Pollock's, a Member of the Council, and among the wealthiest of the Province. Immediately the council was assembled and they urged much upon me, in order that I should attend it, though I did not want to do it, in such delicate matters,—then, when we were in session, they explained the situation of affairs in the Province. It was not very hard for me to guess that they wished very much to enlist me in their party, as much on account of my character as on account of the many fine people which I had with me and at my disposal,—inasmuch as, on whatever side I should be, I could turn the scales in favor of those which I should join. After due consideration of these matters, it was thought that I ought to write an earnest letter to Col. Cary, putting his duty before him and telling him that, if he would not yield to reason, I threatened to throw myself, with all my people, on the side of the new Gov<sup>r</sup>, M<sup>r</sup> Hyde, what, being done, would enable him to other measures. However, he gave me a very proud and impudent answer. Afterwards, having reflected upon his “sinister” proceeding, he repented a little, and we came at last to an understanding, which was subscribed and undersigned on both sides. The substance of it was, that Col. Cary with his followers should recognize M<sup>r</sup> Hyde as president of the Council, until the coming of more precise orders from the LL. Proprietors. For the mean time I pursued my way to the quarters where I proposed to settle with my people, to New Bern, from where the Palatines had written to me, with earnest entreaties that I should make haste and bring them the necessary victuals, in the utmost distress in which they found themselves. I therefore got some provisions together, but I could not have enough of them for so many people. Meanwhile some one wrote to Gov<sup>r</sup> Hyde not to fail to come immediately with his family, from Virginia to Carolina, on the River Chowan, to Col. Pollock’s, and on a plantation belonging to a good old English nobleman, whose name was Duckenfield, where he found pretty good lodgings.

When Col. Cary saw that he could not play the trick which he intended as said above, he did his utmost to get artfully hold of the agreement made and contrived cunningly to tear from it his name and signature. He then began his old course again, and by means of good liquor, rum, and brandy, to which he treated the rabble, he secured many adherents, and they finally came to an open rebellion against M<sup>r</sup> Hyde. But, as that disturber of public peace was well aware that he would have in myself a powerful adversary to contend with, he had recourse to the following trick.

Under pretence of a visit he came to see me at Newbern, the place of my residence, where he dined with me. After the meal we drank a bottle of Madeira wine together and spoke seriously; as he was the one who (according to my letters-patent and to the orders of the LL. Proprietors) was to supply me with all necessaries, out of the revenue of the Province, and refused to do anything, I was glad to have an occasion to blame him for it and to point out, in his presence, to the enormity of his criminal proceedings. Seeing himself convinced by so many good reasons, and on another hand desirous to wheedle me, so that I should not work too hard against him, he promised me, in the presence of 4 witnesses, to deliver to me within 3 weeks, in partial payment of the L.L. Proprietors' orders, the worth of 500 lb. sterl. in cattle, grain, and other provisions. Concerning Gov. Hyde he said he would leave things in statu quo, and then departed, but I did not rely much on what he said, and told him, in his face, that I feared the acts would not answer the promises.

This trip of Cary had not been undertook without some bad intention, and he achieved what he had planned, then he did not fail to inculcate to all planters of the neighborhood that they should deter my colonists from siding with Gov<sup>r</sup> Hyde, in what they well succeeded, and not one dared to walk out from the quarters, having been threatened that if they did not remain neutral, they would be destroyed by the Indians and Carolinian residents.

Invitation of Governor Hyde.

Some time later, Governor Hyde sent me by an express messenger a parcel of letters-patent, among which was one by which he had appointed me as a Colonel and Commander of the County of Bath; the names of the inferiors were left in albo; he left their nomination with me, and earnestly entreated me to assist him with all my might against the Rebels. Knowing well how cowardly was the disposition of my people, I replied to the Governor that my men were by no means disposed to take any part at all, but desired to keep a strict neutrality; this did not please the Governor and soon afterwards there came a more precise order with the express clause that, if nothing could be done, I at least should immediately go and attend the Parliament or General Assembly which was to be held. I could not decline, so much the less, that my titles and public character bound me to do it as a duty, and so I resolved to go, not without taking my precautions, inasmuch as I had been threatened, as well as my colonists, and the road was nothing but safe, and the distance a two days' march across big rivers and more or less dangerous woods.

My arrival at the Government-house.

Having arrived safely at the Governor's we discussed together, before appearing in Parliament, the measures to be taken in order to secure us against the insults of Col. Cary and his adherents.

Without delay we ordered for our guard a body of the most trustworthy people, in order to avoid a surprisal, and our greatest care was to win to our side the inhabitants of the Province. Unhappily, just at that time, there arrived from London a certain riotous and turbulent person, called Richard Roach. He was the cause of much trouble; he was the agent of one of the LL. Proprietors, but a merchant, and a member of the Sect of Shakers, and had come to that country for the purpose of trading. He was immediately won to the side of the Rebels, what much strengthened them, since he was abundantly provided with powder, lead, and firearms, what suited them very well. That impostor was very boisterous and of the utmost impudence. In order to excite Rebellion all the more, he presumed to spread atrocious lies and slanders against Gov<sup>r</sup> Hyde, saying that he had other orders from the LL. Prop<sup>s</sup>, but not in favor of Edward Hyde; this made the disturbance greater, fostered Rebellion, and gave us much trouble. That same scoundrel did also injure me much privately; he played on me the trick of making unavailable a bill of exchange of 200lb. Sterlg. He pretended to have orders to protest or seize it, though his master from whom I had got the bill, was paid long ago in due form. This was a very great and unceivable damage to me in a moment of greatest need.

These Rebel ringleaders, Col. Cary, Richard Roach, & Eman. Low (who, although a Shaker, erected himself into a Colonel), came during a certain night in a well equipped brigantine loaded with 60 or 80 men and a few cannons, in order to besiege us at Col. Pollock's, that is, at the Council member's in whose house the Council was always held, as well on account of his dwelling's situation, as on account of his means and credit. Towards morning these avowed Rebels and declared enemies fired, from their brigantine, two cannon shots against the house where we were, and only scratched the roof of the house; the report began the alarm. Thereafter, our body of guards, about 63 men strong, took position and we shot also a couple of cannon balls in the direction of the brigantine, but without causing any damage.

Then these Rebels disembarked, out of their brigantine, on two boats, their best men, with the intention to set them on shore and take us by surprise, not suspecting that we had many people with us. When we saw their movements we took also our position, and went behind a row of bushes on the shore of the river, which is there about two good miles broad. The Rebels, seeing among our people my servant, who was dressed in a yellow livery coat, were frightened, as they thought that my whole colony was at hand. We sent after them a few cannon balls which slightly struck their mast; this had such good result that the boat crews did not dare to land, but returned aboard the brigantine. Finally, fear seized them in such a way, that they hauled up sails and took flight.

We did not fail to pursue them at once and embarked our best men on a big boat, but they could not overtake them. The brigantine's crew, however, being struck with panic, found a place convenient for landing, went on shore, and the leaders fled through the woods. And so our people conquered the brigantine, and brought it back, together with its little crew and the ammunition, to the place where we were assembled. This event sowed division among the Rebels and other evil-disposed persons and strengthened our party. Having consulted among us, we found that we ought perhaps to publish an amnesty for all who had been maliciously enticed by the leaders, but the leaders themselves were denounced publicly. A list was made out of all who had submitted to the new Government, and given their written adhesion, and then we called together a Parliament, where all matters concerning these disturbances were discussed, the most turbulent were secured and imprisoned, and to those who confessed their faults, an amnesty was granted. During all that was going on, I was obliged to take the "presidial," most unwillingly, then the matter was delicate and dangerous. My first aim was to work with all my might in order that the new Governor, Mr Edward Hyde, should be recognized, in which I was successful, and so got rid of a heavy burden. So every thing was quiet again and every one went home.

But that calm did not last long; the authors of the disturbance again gathered together and R. Roach, mentioned above, established himself on an island with ammunition and provisions, and made every effort to bring together, the dispersed and Runaway Rebels. The Governor himself, with his party, tried to dislodge him from his island, but he was so strongly entrenched that nothing was done and the government's force had to retire.

That seditious fire broke out again and was carried to such a pitch that the second outbreak was nearly more serious than the first; in this dangerous situation, it was considered expedient to look for help to the neighboring State, and decided that I should be delegated with two members of Council to Mr Alexander Spotswood, Governor of Virginia, to ask him to assist us, and a letter was sent to him in advance, in order to impart to him our intentions. He very civilly appointed a place and day for us to meet him on the frontier between Virginia and North Carolina, as he had anyway the intention to drill his troops in that neighborhood.

My deputation to the Governor of Virginia for help.—The required help obtained.

I started for that appointment by water, on the same brigantine which we had taken from the Rebels, because it was not safe to travel by land, and besides, we were glad to take along some provisions in the neighborhood. But when we had sailed some small distance, such a terrible storm arose, that we were compelled to turn back. We therefore took a canoe (it is a long and narrow boat dug out of one solid piece of wood,—and daily used on those rivers) and we paddled up stream, after the wind had somewhat subsided, but though we made all possible haste, we could not arrive in time at the appointed place; but the Governor of Virginia had given orders so that he should be at once informed of my arrival, at Williamsburg, the place of his Residence. As soon as I had come, I wrote a letter with my compliments and apologies to that lord, who did not fail to come to the appointed place on the following day, with his Secretary and two other gentlemen. We consulted there together, and the Governor received us very civilly. The job was harder than I expected; after I had exhibited my credentials, I stated my request, but strong objections to it were made at once: “That the Virginians did not feel inclined to fight against their brothers and neighbors, inasmuch as they were all equally subjects of the Queen of Great Britain, that besides the case was somewhat embarrassing, the more so that Mr Hyde had not yet got his letters-patent.” Some other expedients, therefore, were to be found, and Gov<sup>r</sup> Spotswood, to whom I had been recommended in the name of the Queen, and who, for the first time he saw me, was desirous to please me and not to send me away without granting me some favor, asked me if I had to propose some other means or expedients which would be of an easier achievement. I therefore, seeing that these Virginians were not disposed to help us, and that they perhaps somewhat partook of that free and democratic spirit, bethought myself that perhaps something might be obtained in the shape of regular troops. I accordingly asked the Governor, in his capacity of rear-admiral of the Virginia Coast, to be so kind as to send us a well-equipped man-of-war, which request he granted. He at once sent us a brave captain, who did his duty very well. I did not doubt but that, as soon as he would appear with the red coats, (the livery of the crown, common to all men in Her Majesty's pay,) it would have an excellent effect.

The Virginian Man-of-War comes to the rescue.

I took leave of that lord, and departed for home, and before my departure that lord showed me extraordinary favor, invited me to come to his home and offered me his services in whatever could be in his power. I arrived at the Government-house and reported what I had done, and my negotiation was approved and met with general applause, as well from the Governor and Council, as of all well-intentioned people, what fact did not little increase my credit.

After some time the captain of the ship arrived with his brave sailors, and after he had complimented us and handed the letter of Gov<sup>r</sup> Spotswood in presence of the Council, we asked him to declare before the General Assembly and all the people, that if the rioters would not return to their duty, he had orders to deal with them with the greatest severity. That had indeed such good effect that no body dared to stir, and the authors of the disturbances took flight. At the same time, we received letters from London, stating that the LL. Proprietors had appointed M<sup>r</sup> Edward Hyde as Governor of North Carolina, and that his letters-patent had been handed to a trustworthy person who was to bring them,—what calmed much the popular excitement, and the evil-intentioned came to confusion.

That Col. Cary, so often mentioned above, was arrested in Virginia with other persons concerned in his plot, and sent to London in a well equipped ship. He was prosecuted, what created much sensation. Happily for him, however, two lords took his part and saved his life; he was liberated on bail, and a judge was assigned to him in Carolina, in order that he could defend himself there,—where the case was delayed so long that to-day sentence is not passed,—but I believe that he is not very anxious to hasten the judgment of an affair so risky.

All these troubles had been not little conducive to the invasion of the Savages, in as much as some of the rioters had defamed Gov<sup>r</sup> Hyde, in the opinion of the Indians, to such a degree, that they held him for their declared enemy. I could ascertain that fact myself, when I was made a prisoner by the Savages. Believing that I was the Governor, they dealt very roughly with me, until an Indian who understood English and knew me told them that I was not Gov<sup>r</sup> Hyde; I had then a rather better time.

After every thing was calmed down, I went back to Newberu, in order to see what my poor colonists were doing, but I could not stay there long. The Gov<sup>r</sup> having at last received the letters-patent, called a General Assembly together, in order to present himself. I had, of course, to be there, and was very glad to improve that occasion, and to apply to that new Governor for what I could not obtain from Col. Cary. I found, indeed, the Governor very willing to do me justice, but when it came to measures of execution, he was himself so pinched and straitened, that he hardly had enough to supply his own wants. I was accordingly compelled to apply to the Parliament of the Province to ask for what I had not been as yet able to obtain in account with the L<sup>l</sup>. Proprietors,—what was, however, the very foundation of my enterprise. Disappointed as I was by the breaking of so many fine promises made formerly to me, I found myself in great perplexity, with all my people dependent on me and my expense, so that it was impossible to go on in the same way; to get new means of support from my own country would have taken much time; as we could, however, not live on air, I asked the Province to assist me on the same conditions to which the L<sup>l</sup>. Proprietors had agreed towards me, and to provide me with victuals and necessaries for two or three years on credit, which advance money I should pay back afterwards. I was not more successful with these; under pretence that the civil war had exhausted them, I was not complied with, and obliged to return home deprived of every thing. I nevertheless made still my efforts, and aided the colony the best I could, as it has been told above.

What kindled that Indian or Savages' war were, above all, the slanders and insinuations of a few rioters against Gov<sup>r</sup> Hyde and against me. They made the savages believe that I had come to expel them from their lands, and that they would be compelled to settle much further, towards, or even in, the mountains; I convinced them that such was not my intention, and they could ascertain it by the gentleness and civility of my behaviour towards them, and by the payment which I made to them of the lands where I had settled at first, and where I had founded the small town of Newbern, although I had already paid double their worth to the Surveyor Lawson, who sold them to me as free of whole incumbrance, not telling to me that there were Indians. Again, I had made peace and alliance with the King and his Indian dependents, which were well satisfied with me; (3) an important cause was the carelessness, negligence, and lack of precaution of the Carolinian residents; (4) it was the rough treatment of some turbulent Carolinians, who cheated those Indians in trading, and would not allow them to hunt near their plantations, and under that pretence took away from them their game, arms, and ammunition. There even was an Indian killed, which most incensed them, and not unjustly.

These poor Indians, insulted in many ways by a few rough Carolinians, more barbarous and inhuman than the Savages themselves, could not stand such treatment any longer, and began to think of their safety and of vengeance, what they did very secretly. Unfortunately, believing myself entirely at peace with them, I contemplated a pleasure trip up the river, and this was just the place where they had a general appointment to discuss the matter mentioned above. What made me feel all the safer, was that, some 10 or 14 days before, I had been lost in the woods, as I came from surveying some lands, and been overtaken by night; following a path, I suddenly met a party of Indians which had moved from Chattawka, the place Newbern actually stands. The reader may think whether I should have dared to present myself there, had I not really lived in peace with those Indians; I, however, could not help feeling some secret apprehension,—they would have had a good occasion to revenge themselves on me, if I had done them any harm,—but, happily, they received me very well. As I was very thirsty, having wandered all day through the woods,—fearing that drinking much water would hurt me,—they sent at a sick woman's house, for some cider which had been bought for her, and gave it to me, (a great kindness indeed, coming from heathen!). The King made me a present of a large piece of venison, they had bonfires through all the night, and danced and sung during I was alone with my footman in the small tent which I got pitched to lie down, but I could not sleep on account of that noise. Next morning, the King gave me an escort of two Indians who saw me home; after having given them plenty to eat, I made them a small present and sent to the King in return of his cider two bottles of rum, a kind of brandy made out of sugar-dregs, which were gladly received, as I have heard since. This same King took a large part in my liberation (together with Divine Assistance, and secondly to it,) when I was made a prisoner and sentenced by the Indians of the Upper-River.

How I was made a prisoner by the Indians, sentenced to death and miraculously liberated. What took place among the Indians, and what I observed during my confinement. How at last I returned and arrived home at Newbern.*

MY MOST NOBLE AND HONORED LORD:

I have at last escaped from the cruel hands of this barbarous nation, the Tuscaroras, by the providence and miraculous assistance of the Almighty, and have arrived at my small home in New Bern, but half dead. I have been, indeed, compelled to go on foot, quite alone, during two whole days, and with the greatest speed possible, through the woods of Catechna, and was obliged, as night overtook me, to halt near a horrible ditch, full of water and brushwood.

I leave you to think, sir, the pitiful way in which I spent this night, fearing to be overtaken by savage strangers, or torn to pieces by the many bears who growled all the night through around me and quite near to the place where I was. Besides, I was quite lame, for having walked so long and at such speed, and had no arms for my safety, not even a knife, nor anything to strike fire, I was nearly dead with cold, shivering under the north wind which blew during the whole night. At daybreak, when I attempted to rise from my damp and cold couch, my legs were so stiff and swollen that I could not take one step,—but, as I could not stay there, I had to walk at any cost, and I supported myself on two sticks to proceed on my way.

I had much trouble in crossing that ditch, what I achieved by creeping along the long offshoot of a tree. At last, with much pains, I reached my quarters. As I drew near the house, and saw it fortified and full with people, I felt a little better at heart,—indeed, I was afraid to find everything burnt and ruined by the Indians, as well as the houses of the poor colonists, and expected to find but very few of my people, since I knew only too much about the cruel raid of the Indians along the rivers Pamptego, News, and Trent, where, resolved to lay waste the whole country, they burnt, killed, and plundered whomsoever and whatever they found in their way.

When my good people saw me coming from afar, tanned by exposure like an Indian, but on another hand considered my figure and my blue jerkin, they knew not what to think, but, in their firm belief that I was dead, they rather believed that I was an Indian spy dressed in my jerkin, coming to watch something; the men even took up their arms, but when I came nearer walking with two sticks, and quite lame, they well saw by my look and attitude that I was not an Indian or Savage. However, they did not know me at once, but a few came in my direction to reconnoitre me. When I saw them so puzzled, I began to speak to them from afar, with such a weak voice however, that, in their surprise they fell back a few steps, and hallooed to the others to come, that it was their lord, whom they thought to be dead. And so all came in crowds, men, women, and children, shouting and crying out, part of them weeping, others struck dumb with surprise. It was really a strange sight, and this medley of sadness and joy, of wailing and delight, moved myself to tears.

After having exchanged a few words with those people around me, exhausted as I felt, I at last came home, and after having closed the door of my private room, I made my ardent prayers, giving glory to the Good God for my miraculous and gracious rescue, which may well be held, in these times, for a miracle.

The following day I asked what had taken place in my absence, but I heard such sad news that I felt nearly broken-hearted. The worst was, that besides 60 or 70 Palatines and Swiss who were slaughtered, the others, who ran away, were robbed and plundered, and part of those who remained left my house and the townlet, where, however, was the stores of their own goods; they did that by the instigation of one certain William Brice, an ungrateful man, for whom I had done much good, and whom even the Palatines and myself had rescued from the greatest want. Without even thinking of our kind acts, and in order to secure the defence of his own house with the exclusion of others, he debauched and led away from me, by all kind of promises and artful tricks, my people, in order to turn them, with a few English residents, into a garrison. So I had to content myself with a crowd of women and children, having not more than 40 men able to bear arms; all these people, however, are a heavy burden for me; my whole provision in grains, in great and small cattle has to be used in this sad plight; if we do not receive very soon the needed assistance, we have to die or to leave the place and the post.

Therefore, my noble and most honored Lord, we earnestly entreat you to supply us with the necessary provisions and ammunition,—and with well-armed troops, in order to drive back those barbarous ruffians; if not, the evil will grow more and more, and it is to be feared that the whole country might come to ruin.

It is surprising, yea, scandalous to see such coldness and such lack of sympathy in the inhabitants of Albemarle County, who can look on with folded arms, when a savage and barbarous nation slaughters their nearest brethren. They even ought not to expect a better fate, inasmuch as they draw upon themselves these same misfortunes by such profound lethargy, when they ought to take more to heart the ruin of their brethren and their own danger. It is not less surprising to see so little energy and good order among the office holders, your High Lordships being excepted in best form: I am, indeed, persuaded that your Lordship has not failed to give all necessary orders, but that they have not been executed, what is to be regretted.

My most honored Lord,—The above statement is only to explain how I came home, but, for my justification, I must show how I did fall in the hands of that barbarous nation.

One day, as the weather was very fine, and there was good appearance that it would last, Surveyor-general Lawson proposed to me to go up Nens' River, hinting that there were plenty of good wild grapes, which we could gather for refreshing ourselves. This statement was, however, not strong enough to prevail on me. A few days afterwards, he came back, giving better reasons. He remarked that we could see, in the meantime, whether the River may be navigated in its higher course, and that a new road to Virginia might be laid out there, the actual route being long and difficult,—and likewise visit the Upper country. I had, indeed, been anxious for a long time to know and see by myself how far it is from here to the mountains.

I accordingly resolved to take that trip, and we took provisions for 15 days; I, however, asked M<sup>r</sup> Lawson whether there were any danger on account of the Indians, especially on account of those which we did not know. He answered that there was no danger in that direction, as he had already taken that trip once, that surely there were no savages living on that branch of the River, that they used to be very far from it. But, in order to feel all the safer, we took with us two Indian neighbors, which we knew well, and to whom I had done much good, with two negroes to row. One of the Savages knew English, and we thought that, as we had those two Indians with us, we had nothing to fear from the others. So we went peacefully on our way; it had not rained for a long time, the River was not very high, and the current all the slower for it; the whole day we went up the river,—by night we pitched our tents near the water, and early in the morning we proceeded further.

May your Lordship please to take notice that Surveyor-General Lawson required my horses, saying that we could go through the woods, to see where the road to Virginia might be begun most conveniently. At first I would not consent; at last, he asked only for one, which I granted. One of the Indians went on horseback by land, but he was compelled to cross the river at one place, what was our misfortune, for he came to the great village of Catechna (I do not know whether he lost his way, or if he did that by treachery). There he was at once asked what he was doing there with that horse, (they do not use horses in those parts); he answered that he was to bring it back to us, and that we were going up stream. This immediately alarmed the inhabitants of Catechna; they crowded together from the whole neighborhood, kept the horse, and told our Indian that he ought to warn us at once not to advance further in their country, that they would not allow it, and that we had to turn back, by the orders of the King who resided there. Our Indian accordingly gave us a signal in firing his gun, in order that we should stop. We stopped indeed, after having also let off our gun; it was already late when he brought this bad piece of news, we landed at the next spring to pass the night, but we already met Indians, armed as if they had come from hunting. I said, that I did not like the looks of things altogether, and that we ought to turn back at once; but the Surveyor-general laughed at me. We had hardly turned our backs, when things began to look serious, and laughter, in a twinkling, expired on his lips.

Such a number of Indians came out from the bushes, some even swimming across the river, and overtook us so suddenly, that it was impossible to defend ourselves, for fear of being killed on the spot, or cruelly mistreated. They, accordingly, took us prisoners, plundered our things, and led us away.

We had already made a good two day's journey, not far from another village called Coerntha. The river there is still pretty broad, but it is not deep over 2 or 3 feet, and this place is as yet very far from the mountains.

Arrival at Hencock's Towne or Catechna.—Reception of King Hencock.—Great Indian Festival, or Assembly.

We had entreated the savages to leave us there, over night, with a few guards if they doubted us, remonstrating that we could any how not go very far on foot, and telling them that we should go the next day down the River, to see the King at Catechna and justify ourselves, but we could not succeed. Such a rare and considerable capture made them proud; indeed, they took me for the Governor of the Province himself; we were compelled to run with them all the night through the woods, across thickets and swamps, till we arrived at about 3 o'clock in the morning at Catechna or Hencocks-Towne, (that is to say: the village of Hencock), where the King, called Hencock, was sitting in state, with his Council, on a kind of scaffold,—though the Heathen or Savages usually sit on the ground. After an oration, apparently much exaggerated, made by the leader or captain of our escort, the King stood up with his Council, and came to us with the first captain-of-war, approaching us and speaking to us very civilly; but we did not understand their language, with exception of a very few words. Soon afterwards, the King went into his cabin or den, and we remained near the fire, guarded by 7 or 8 savages. Towards 10 o'clock, every savage came out of his den, one here, one there, and they discussed at length the question, whether we ought to be bound as criminals or not. They concluded negatively, inasmuch as we had not been heard as yet. Towards midday, the King himself brought us to eat a kind of bread made out of buck-wheat, called "Dumplings," and some venison, in a disgusting "cap"; I eat some, indeed, though unwillingly, but I felt very hungry; we were at liberty to walk through the village. Towards evening, there was a great festival, or an assembly from all places of the neighborhood, to discuss two matters: (1) How they would avenge themselves for the rough dealings of a few wicked English Carolinians who lived near the Pamptego, News, & Trent Rivers; (2) to feel their way as to the help which they could expect from their Indian neighbors.

[N. B. It must be observed that it was neither I nor my colony, who were the cause of that terrible slaughter or Indian war, as it may be seen at page [44 MSS.].

In the evening, there came a great many Indians from every direction with the neighboring Kings. The "Assembly of the Great," as they style it, (consisting of 40 elders sitting on the ground around a fire according to their custom) took place at ten o'clock at night in a great and beautiful open ground (especially devoted to great festivals and executions). King Hencock presided. There was, in the circle, a place set apart for us, with two "mats" (a kind of mattresses made with rush), a mark of great deference and honor; we therefore sat on them, and on our left side our "speaker," the Indian who had come with us and who knew English very well. The King beckoned to the Speaker of the Assembly, who made a long speech with great gravity, and it was ordered that the youngest of the Assembly should represent & defend the interest of the Council or Indian Nation, what he made indeed in best form, as I could observe it; he was seated nearest to our own speaker and interpreter,—the King putting always the questions, and then the pro and con were discussed, and they consulted over the matter of these questions. After that, they came to a conclusion.

The first question was: to what purpose we had undertaken that journey; our answer was that we had come up the river for our recreation and to gather grapes, to see whether the river would be fit for navigation, in order that goods could be brought to them by water and trade carried on with them, and that a friendly intercourse could be held with them. After that, the King asked us why we had not acquainted him with our plan. Then the question was of their general complaint, and of the fact that the Indians had been badly abused by the inhabitants of the rivers Pamptego, News, & Trent, what could not be suffered any more; they spoke the name of the offenders, and especially of Surveyor-general Lawson, who, being present, excused himself as well as he could. After having discussed at length, and come at last to the votes, they concluded that we could be liberated and the following day was appointed for our return home.

The following day, it was some time before we could get our canoe or small boat; in the mean time some of the "Great" and two foreign Kings came and were enrious to know which were our reasons of justification. They caused us to be examined a second time in the cabin of King Hencock, 2 miles distant from the village. We made the same answer as before. Unfortunately, the King of the village Core was there and reproached Mr Lawson for something, and they began to quarrel with some violence, what spoilt things entirely; though I made every effort to get Lawson to quit his quarreling, I could not succeed.

Our examination being ended at last, we all rose, and I walked about with Lawson, and upbraided him for his imprudence in such delicate conjuncture. All at once 3 or 4 of the "Great" pounced upon us, took us violently by our arms, and led us back to the place where we had been before. No mats were spread before us,—they took our hats and periwigs and threw them into the fire, after that, some young rascals plundered us anew, and searched our pockets, what had not arrived the first time, when they contented themselves with taking our heavier luggage.

After that, a council of war was held, and we were sentenced to death, without being told what was the cause of such sudden change, though I could nearly guess at it. We sat on the ground through the whole night, until daybreak, in the same position. We were then led to the great execution ground, a bad sign for us; I addressed Mr Lawson, reproached him bitterly, and told him that his imprudence was the cause of our misfortune, and that we had nothing better to do than to make peace with our God, what I did with great zeal.—When we arrived on the said spot, the Council was already assembled. Before we entered the circle, I happened to see a savage dressed like a Christian, who knew English, and asked him if he did not know the cause of our condemnation. He reluctantly answered me: "Why Lawson had quarreled with Cor Tom? That we had threatened that we would avenge ourselves on the Indians,"—upon which I took that Indian aside, and promised him all I could think of, if he would hear me and show my innocence to some of the "Great."

The Indians bind us and lay us on the ground before the Indian tribunal.

It was hard to persuade him, but, at last, he listened to me, and I accordingly told him that I was very sorry that Mr Lawson had so imprudently quarreled with Cor Tom,* that the Conneillors had seen themselves how I had reproached Mr Lawson more than once, that I was not to be blamed for that,—as to the alleged threatenings, “nobody had ever thought of them, there was to be some misunderstanding, Lawson accusing my negroes of having troubled his rest the first night,—and I had threatened my negroes in a loud voice, on account of their impudence,” that no other word had been spoken. After the Indian had listened to me, he left me, and I repeated my promises. I cannot say whether that scoundrel spoke for me or not, but a quarter of an hour afterwards, the elder “Greys” came back and took us to the execution-ground, binding our hands and feet: they did the same to my bigger negro. Then began our sad tragedy, which I would like to tell, if it was not too long and dreadful,—but,—since I begun, I will go on.

In the centre of that great place, we were seated on the ground, the Surveyor-general and myself, bound and undressed, with bare heads; behind me, was the bigger one of my negroes, and in front of us, a great fire; near it, was the conjuror or High Priest (an old grizzled Indian; the priests are generally magicians,—and even conjure up the Devil); he made two white rounds,—whether of flour or white sand I do not know,—just in front of us, there was a wolf’s skin, and a little further an Indian Savage standing, in the most dreadful and horrible position to be imagined; he did not move from the spot, with a knife in one hand, and an axe in the other,—it was apparently the executioner. Further still, on the other side of the fire, there was a great mob of Indian rabble, consisting of young men, women, and children, who danced with frightful contortions. In the centre of the circle was the Priest or Conjuror, who made his threatenings and exorcisms, when there was a pause in the dance; there were, at the four angles, officers armed with guns, who stimulated the dancers by stamping with their feet, and when a dance came to an end, they fired their guns.

In some part of the circle, two Indian savages were seated on the ground and beat a small drum; they sung a mournful tune, rather fit to provoke tears and anger than joy. After they were tired of dancing, they all ran into the woods with dreadful outcry and howling, and soon came back with their faces painted in black, red, and white. Some of them had their hair flying, greased all over and sprinkled with minute cotton and small white feathers, and some arrayed in all kinds of furs. In short, they were dressed in such frightful way, that they looked rather like a set of Devils than like any other creatures; yes indeed, never was the Devil represented with a more frightful appearance than these savages running and dancing as they came forth from out the woods, drew up at the old place once more, and danced around the fire.

Meanwhile, two lines of armed Indians stood behind us as guards, and never moved from their post, till everything was over. Behind this guard the Council of war sat on the ground in a circle, and were busy with consultation. Towards evening, the mob left off dancing, in order to bring wood from the forest, and to keep up the fires in different places;—especially, they made one far in the woods, which lasted all night, and so great that I thought the all forest to be in fire. I leave you to think, my most honored Lord, what a fearful and sad sight that was to me. I was wholly resolved to die, and accordingly I offered up my fervent prayers during the whole day & night. Alas! I had all kind of thoughts, all the circumstances of my whole life being called to my mind, in as far as I could remember them, even unto the least sins. I tried and recalled all what I had read in the Holy Scripture, the Psalms, and other good books,—in short, I prepared myself, the best I could, to a good and “salutary” death. Yes, the good God gave me such grace, as to await death with great firmness, though I foresaw a terrible execution. After having suffered dreadful anguish, harder to bear than the fear of death itself, I nevertheless kept I know not what a faint hope, though I could see no chance of liberation. As my past sins occurred to my mind, I found, in the meanwhile, a great consolation, in considering the miracles which the Lord Jesus had made, in his time, on the earth. This created in me such confidence that I addressed forthwith my ardent prayers to my Divine Saviour, not doubting that He would grant them, and perhaps change these savage and barbarous hearts, harder than rocks, to be more favorably inclined towards me, so that by my strong entreaties and solicitations, they might be moved to pity and compassion in my behalf, so that they would pardon me,—what, indeed, happened by God’s miraculous Providence.

Really, the sun was nearly set, when the Council assembled once more, probably to make an end of that fatal, frightful, and mournful ceremony; I turned round some little, though I was bound, knowing that one of them knew English pretty well, and I made a short discourse showing my innocence and insinuating that, if they would not spare me, the great and powerful Queen of England would avenge my blood, as I had brought that colony in those countries by her orders, not to do them any wrong but to live on good terms with them. I further stated whatever I thought fit besides, to induce them to some mitigation, offering them my services, if I were liberated. After I had done speaking, I remarked that one of the notables (who had seemed already disposed to do me some good,—who had even brought me to eat once,—and who was a relation to King Taylor, from whom I had bought the land where New Bern now stands), that that notable spoke earnestly, apparently in my favour, as it came out. Then it was forthwith resolved, to send a few members to their neighbors, the villages of the Tuscaroros, and to a certain King Tom Blunt, in high repute among them.

The result was that I was to live, but that poor Surveyor-General Lawson was to be executed.

I spent that whole night in great anguish, awaiting my fate, (always bound in the same place), in continuous prayers and sighs. Meanwhile I also examined my poor negro, exhorting him in the best way I knew, and he gave me more satisfaction than I expected,—but I left Surveyor-General L. offer his own prayers, as being a man of understanding, and not overreligious. Towards 3 or 4 in the morning, the delegates came back from their mission and brought an answer, but very secretly. One of them came to me to unbind me; not knowing what this meant, I submitted to the will of the Almighty, rose, and followed him as a poor lamb to the slaughter. Alas! I was much astonished when the Indians, a few steps from the former place, whispered into my ear, in a gibberish intermingled with English, that I had nothing to fear, that they would not kill me, but that Lawson would die, what affected me much. About twenty steps away from the place where I had been bound, the Indian led me to the cabins or dens, but I had no appetite. All at once, came quite a crowd of Indians around me, and did unanimously show much pleasure at my liberation. This very same man brought me back to the old place, but a little further, where the Council was assembled, and they congratulated me in their way, and smiled at me.

I was however forbidden to speak the least word to Mr Lawson, and to have any intercourse with him. They also liberated my negro, but I never saw him since then. Poor Lawson being always left in the same place, I could understand that all was over for him, and that he would not be pardoned; he took accordingly leave from me, and told me to say farewell, in his name, to his friends. Alas! It grieved me much to see him in such danger, not to be able to speak with him, nor to give him any consolation; so I tried to show him my compassion by a few signs.

Some time afterwards, the man who had spoken in my favor to the Council, took me by the hand and led me to his cabin, where I was to keep quiet awaiting new orders.

Execution of Surveyor-General Lawson.

In the meanwhile, they executed that unfortunate Lawson; as to his death, I know nothing certain; some Indians told me, that he was threatened to have his throat cut, with the razor which was found in his pocket,—what also acknowledged the small negro, who was not executed,—but some said he was hung, some said he was burnt. The Indians kept that execution very secret. God have mercy upon the poor soul!

The Indians, though they had liberated me, do not yet allow my returning home.

The day after Surveyor-General Lawson's execution, the notables of the village came to me, making me acquainted with their design to make war in North Carolina, and that they were especially embittered against the people on the Rivers Pamptego, New, Trent, and Cor sound, and that they had accordingly good reasons not to let me go, till they would have ended their expeditions. What was I to do? I had to take patience, and reasoning was of no avail. It was a painful position, to hear such bad news and to see myself unable to help these poor people, or even to give them the least warning. True, they promised me that no harm would be done to Chattooka (the old name of the town of Newbern), but that all people of the Colony ought to go into the town, if not, they could not answer for the evil which could happen,—good words enough,—but how was I to let it know to these poor people, since not one of the Indians was willing to carry them a message? Accordingly, I could but submit the whole to the Divine Will.

Those who began that robbery and plunder were 500 men strong, well armed. They consisted in gangs from different places, one part were Tuscoruros (however, the most important villages of that nation did not take part in the affair), the others were Marmusckits from the rivers

Bory, Wetoek, Pamptego, News, Trent, and Cor Indians. They went in small platoons, plundering & killing the poor people of Pamptego, News, and Trent.

A few days afterwards, the robbers came back with their booty. Alas! What a sad sight for me, to see the women and children prisoners! It nearly rent my heart. I could well speak with them, but with much precaution; the first came from Pamptego, the others from News & Trent. The very Indian with whom I lodged happened to bring with him the young boy of one of my tenants, and much clothing and furniture which I well knew. Alas! What was not my apprehension, in seeing those spoils, that my whole colony was ruined,—especially when I privately asked that young boy about what had happened. He cried bitterly, and told me how that same Indian with whom we were lodging had killed his father, mother, and brother, yes, the whole family! Nevertheless, I did not dare to look as if it affected me. I had to remain, for six weeks, a prisoner in that hateful place, Catechna, always in fear of unutterable dangers and sorrows. Many events took place during that time; I was once much perplexed: all men had gone to that plundering-expedition, the women were all gone, also, out of the village, in order to gather wild cherries, others went to dig some kind of roots, called “Potatos”, which are yellow, very good and dainty. On that day, I was all alone by myself in that village. I struggled hard to decide whether I should take flight and return home, or not, I had a long struggle about it; in that doubt I thought it best to pray for my God’s help, in order that He would impress upon my mind what I was to do in such delicate and dangerous conjuncture. I accordingly said my prayers, and then examined the pro & con, and found at last that the best I could do was to stay there,—confident as I was that He, who had drawn me out from the first danger would assist me further. Indeed, if only one Indian had met or seen me, I should have been a dead man, and no mercy could have been expected; besides, they would have been so incensed that they would have gone to the town before my coming home, (as I did not know the way very well), and would have taken, plundered, burnt and killed everything and everybody. Experience, since, has shown that I made a wise choice.

After these heathen had done with the greatest part of their barbarous expedition, they came home and rested for some time. I looked for a favorable occasion, when I could meet the leading men of the village in good humour, to ask them whether I could not soon return home. In order to impress them favorably, I proposed we should conclude a private peace, and promised, at the same time, to every one of the “Greats” of the ten villages a jerkin made of some cloth, and something more for my ransom to the King, 2 bottles of powder, 500 grains of small shot, 2 bottles of rum, which is a brandy distilled from sugar-dregs. The Indians wanted much more, as, for instance, some guns, more powder and lead or small shot, but I remonstrated to them that those things were contraband, and that it was forbidden, under pain of death, to sell or give such goods to the enemy,—that I was at least to remain neutral, and to assist neither one side nor the other; if not we could not conclude a serious peace. They finally yielded to these reasons and others, and we accordingly agreed, as may be seen by the treaty of peace concluded with those Indians.

Baron of Bernberg and Landgrave of Carolina.

TREATY OF PEACE BETWEEN DE GRAFFENRIED AND THE INDIANS OF THE NATION OF TUSCORUROS AND THEIR NEIGHBORS.

Be it known to all men by these presents, that in the month of October, 1711, has been agreed between the Baron and Landgrave de Graffenriedt, Governor of the German Colony of North Carolina, and the Indians of the Nation of Tuscoruros with their neighbors from Core, Wilkinson's Point, King Taylor, those of Pamptego and others from that country, as follows:

(1) That both parties will let bygones be bygones and be good friends in the future;

(2) The undersigned, Governor of the German Colony, must be absolutely neutral in time of war between the English and the Indians.

Item: He will keep quiet in his house and town and let pass neither the English nor the Indians, and do no harm to the Indians, as well as these will not harm the others. In eventual misunderstanding between the ones and the others, they shall not avenge themselves, but complain reciprocally to the magistrates about that question.

(3) The said Governor of the German Colony promises to remain within his limits and to take no more lands from them without due warning to the King and his nation.

(4) Item, he promises to procure a cessation of hostilities for fifteen days, so that fit and able persons may be selected and appointed to propose good and reasonable terms of peace, which, if possible, be acceptable to both parties,—and in order that this negotiation be not interrupted.

(5) The Indians are allowed to hunt wherever they please, unmolested, except that they shall not enter our plantations, for fear they should scare away the cattle, and on account of the danger of fire.

(6) Merchandise and provisions have to be sold to the Indians at a reasonable price; besides, it is agreed that no harm will be done to our houses, which shall bear the sign below marked on their door.

The conditions and clauses above shall be exactly kept, to testify which both parties sign hereunto with their usual signatures.

Instead of seal, the mark of News	N.	De Graffenried, Governor of the German Colony.

Instead of seal their usual mark		Tuscorinos' Indians and their neighbors.

But after we had entirely agreed, however, these distrustful savages would not let me go home without having sure & certain securities. They wanted me to send my little negro to Newbern, in order that all I promised should be brought to Catechna; however, not one Indian was found to go with him, though I offered to draw up a pass. I told them that not one of my people who had remained would come up the river, frightened as they were by the recent murders, and that my negro could not pull a loaded boat up the river, all alone by himself. As we could not agree, I left it to decide to the Indian with whom I was lodged, and he settled the matter in a way which satisfied them as well as me.

On the very day on which I intended to send my negro to Newbern with a letter directed to the person to whom I had entrusted the care of my house, in order that he should bring half way the said ransom, for every party's security, some strange Indians came, with a horse, sent by the Governor of Virginia, and bringing a letter or injunction, the copy of which follows:

We, Alexander Spotswood, Lieutenant Governor Commanding the Colonies & Province of Virginia as in the name of Her Britanic Majesty.

To the Indian Nation who hold the Baron de Graffenried prisoner.

Having been informed that the Baron de Graffenried Governor & head of the German Colonies in North Carolina is a prisoner among you, We intimate and command you in the name of the Queen of Great Britain, whose subject he is, that at sight of this order you liberate him and send him to our Government. And we let you know by these presents that if you kill him or do him any violence or harm whatever, We shall avenge his blood, and spare neither men, nor women or children

Given under our great seal, October 8, 1711.

A. SPOTSWOOD.

Nobody but I could read that letter; it was rather stiff, and I did not know what countenance I had to assume. At last, I thought that the messengers knew anyway its substance, so I read it to the notables of the village. After I was through, I observed something in their mien that did not please me. I told them the substance of it. They then held a Council, and it was resolved to let me go to that village of the Tuscororos, where was the Indian trader from Virginia, who had been in the village some time before when Mr Lawson was executed, then went back and related our sad adventure to the Governor, when that generous Lord, Mr Spotswood, immediately sent back that Virginia trader (who traded with the Indians, understood and spoke their language well) with the letter above, to the Tuscaroroes.

My excursion to those Indians, at Tasqui, where was the Virginian merchant, by orders of the Governor.

The Governor himself went to the first Indian village, called Ratoway, and stayed there with a strong escort, giving orders to the neighboring militia to hold themselves ready for immediate action in case that no good answer would be received. Accordingly, early in the morning, I started on horseback with the Indian messengers and 4 of the notables of Catechna, who accompanied me to the most important village, called Paski; they walked as quick as I rode on my horse, and we arrived in the evening at twilight. There was found a trader from Virginia. That village was fortified with palisades, and the houses or cabins were neatly made out of tree bark, they stood in a circle, and in the midst of them was a beautiful round place, in its centre a big fire, and around it the Council sitting on the ground, that is the leaders of the Tuscoruros' nation. Places were left for the merchant already mentioned, for me and for the Indians who came with me; after I had greeted that Gentleman, we seated ourselves.

Meanwhile, I already secretly rejoiced, in the hope of being able to go to Ratoway (where the Gov<sup>r</sup> of Virginia expected me) and to be at last free to get away from the savages, but, alas! I was not yet to succeed.

Assembly of Tasqui on my behalf; they acknowledge that I ought to be liberated.

The speaker of the Assembly began a great oration, and asked the 4 Indians who had come with me what was the cause of my detention and my crime. After the Indian delegates had been heard, and I was recognized as innocent, it was concluded that the Gov<sup>r</sup> of Virginia was to be complied with and that satisfaction should be given him, and it was set forth what dangers could ensue in case of a refusal.

The merchant of Virginia, as being our interpreter, spoke for me the best he could, but the 7 Indian delegates from Catechna would not yield to this.*

They feared to lose their ransom, though the merchant from Virginia offered security for it; their pretext was that they dared to do nothing without the consent of the others and of the King. They promised, however, to let me go as soon as the King & Council would have assembled, but they insisted upon keeping my negro as a security, until the ransom would be paid. On the following day, quite disappointed, and in terrible perplexity, I took leave from the Virginian merchant, who felt very sorry about the harsh behaviour of these Savages, and I returned in a very sad mood. When we drew near to Hencock Towne or Catechna, at a distance of about 3 or 4 miles from it, we heard much shouting, and I saw some Indians coming forth, here and there, from out the bushes, what seemed to me a bad foreboding and frightened me, not without reason, the more so that they ran to me, quite out of breath and dismayed, saying that the English and Palatines were quite near; they mimicked the Palatines in their gestures, with an angry countenance, uttering the words: "Ta,* Ta,"* and giving me thereby to understand that my people appeared to be also against them, among their enemies. They led me, through a roundabout way, across an ugly ditch, from where I saw a fire from afar. I was much frightened, and did not doubt but that I was going to be burnt on that inflamed wood-pile, or to be secretly slaughtered in that terrible desert. After I had said my prayers I studied how I could make them believe that the Palatines had not joined with the English; I explained to them that these words: "ja, ja," were not German, but that it was a corrupt English: "aye, aye," which means in English: "yes" and in French: "oui." I kept them in that belief

* It may be observed that the number of delegates is given now as 4, now as 7, and in the first instance (page 79 MSS.) as 4. It was thought best, for fear of incorrectness, to follow exactly the version given by the copy of the MSS., whenever such differences exist. In the same way, the village where the events above took place, is called Pasqui in the main text, but Tasqui in the margin,—and the Tuscarroras, nearly always Tuscarruros. (Translator.)

the best I could ; when we arrived to the place where was the fire, I was surprised to see the whole populace of Catechna where I had been a prisoner with their movables and some provisions.

Place where, on my return to Catechna, I found all the women & children entrenched for safety's sake.

Though in the midst of a dreadful desert, surrounded with thickets, thorns, and swamps, there was a fine wheat-field, with an Indian cabin, and the place was surrounded with a deep river, which made a small island of the whole, so that nature had built there a small fort well nigh impregnable. All that populace mentioned above consisted in infirm old men, women, children, and other young people unable to bear arms. Being myself in great fear, I did not fail to comfort them the best I could in order to be welcome and to keep them on my side, assuring them that nothing would happen to them as long as I should be with them. I also told the warriors who had come to cheer them, that they ought to let me go with them, that I should do my best to persuade the English to conclude peace, but they would not consent.

On the next day, the neighboring Indians, numbering 300 armed rogues, came and gathered together and went for the Christians who were only 60 in number, and not further from our village than 4 miles, (a distance of 1 lieue and  $\frac{1}{4}$ ). The Palatines, who had no experience in Indian warfare, were nearly all wounded and an Englishman killed. Seeing that the Indians were too strong, they took flight and went home ; the Indians went after them, but without doing them much harm ; they only caught some little booty. The savages returned to Catechna with some horses, victuals, hats, boots, and a few jerkins. When I saw all that, especially a pair of very nice half-boots lined with silver, knowing that no one else had such ones, I knew them at once to be mine, and was surprised and frightened, thinking that they had plundered my house and the store,—but there was no harm done,—the reason why there were some of my things among that booty, was : that my people used them for that expedition.

So, these savage soldiers, or rather robbers, returned home in great glory & triumph, and we all came out from that secluded place, and went back to our old quarters, viz. to Catechna.

During a certain time, they burnt bonfires in the night,—especially, they built a big one in the great place of executions, where they raised three wolf's hides, figuring as many Protectors or Gods, and the women brought offerings, consisting in their jewels, for instance necklaces of wampon, which are a kind of coral, made out of white, violet, and golden colored shells, previously burnt. There was, in the midst of that circle, the Conjuror, I mean their priest, who made all kind of contortions, conjurations, and threatenings, and all the remaining populace danced in a circle around the hides.

After that Indian festival was over, I began to become impatient, and asked some of the "great," if they would not let me go home, since they had won the victory. One of them smiled and answered me, that they would see what they would do, that they would call together the King and his Council. Two days later, they brought me a horse, early in the morning, two notables escorted me for a distance of two leagues from Catechua, gave me there a piece of Indian bread, and left me. When I saw that I had a long way to make, I begged them to leave me the horse, that I should certainly send it back, or that they would come somewhat further with me, and nearer to my quarters, but I could not obtain either from them.

They remained at the place where I left them, and built a big fire, and warned me that there were some foreign Indians in the forest, that I should hasten and go very speedily, that I should even run as fast as I could for a couple of hours. Indeed, I did so until night overtook me, and I came to that dreadful desert through which I could not go in the darkness, and which is mentioned at the beginning of this relation or letter.

I have already related the remainder of my voyage to the Governor; it is time to finish.

1st How this Indian war began and how it ended; 2<sup>d</sup> Which were the motives that moved me and compelled me to leave my colony and to go to Europe and to Bern.

Cross-accident—5th mishap. Plot of a gang of tramps and turbulent rascals from Carolina.

What happened to me, on my return, among Christians, was well as dangerous and vexatious as what I experienced among the Indians or Savages. Before the heathen's tribunal, I had my accuser unmasked; every thing was done in good order, nothing in a clandestine way, nor turbulently or seditiously, but when, on my return, I thought of finding myself among christian friends, and of breathing at last some little,—it was much worse!

A gang of rioters, jealous louts, and turbulent knaves, Carolinian residents, because I would not at once espouse their hasty and cruel feelings (as they pretended that I was to deliver up at their discretion, or kill an Indian who came, according to the agreement made with the Tuscoruros Ind., to ask from me the promised ransom, and to whom I had promised a safe-conduct,) made unjust and serious imputations against me, after a secret information made against me, which created much sensation, speaking no less than to have me hung,—though I had strong reasons not to side with them and make war so inconsiderately against the Indians; this was all the more the case, that we had neither provisions in food nor ammunition, nor enough men either,—and that half the Palatines had deserted during my absence,—and that, most important of all, 15 palatine prisoners were to be handed over to me after my ransom would be paid. Was I not right to think of the liberation of these poor people? and I was, of course, to beware: (1) of breaking my promise and agreement, as made to and with the Indians, and (2) to risk those poor prisoners, in order to comply with giddy-heads who did not know what they were about.

I had accordingly, in order to justify myself, to appear again before a Tribunal, a Christian one, but which would have been worse than heathenish, if things had gone according to the wishes and conspiracy of these enraged and seditious knaves. All that was plotted against me with the very blackest perfidy by the agency of a Palatine, a wicked man and a blacksmith by trade, who betrayed me as is stated below, to avenge himself of a punishment inflicted, and a very moderate one it was, for having made dreadful imprecations, committed thefts, been insubordinate, and spoken horrid threatenings, even of murder.

The Palatine blacksmith mentioned above goes to the Indians and slanders me in order to estrange them towards me.

That man, immediately after he had gone through his penalty, which, far from equal to his crime, consisted only in sawing logs for public service, during one day,—crossed the river and met Indians, whose suspicious he raised against me, telling them I did not hold what I had promised to them, (the Indians), that I wheedled and deceived them, that, instead of keeping peace and remaining strictly neutral, I sided with the English, and even provided them with arms and ammunition. The Indians or savages, who could hardly believe in such perfidy from me, and doubted the reports of that scoundrel, risked one of them, and sent him to us, though with some fear of his being captured. Thereupon something ludicrous happened: That Indian, having crossed to this side, watched his opportunity to speak to some one of my people to inquire about the truth of those facts; but when he wanted to draw near one of my men, this one was so much afraid that he came, quite out of breath, and spread the alarm in my quarters, telling me how he had seen an Indian who seemed anxious to draw near, how probably the others were not far. It really alarmed me, and I drew up my men into position. Meanwhile, it struck me that the Indians, impatient to get their ransom might have sent some one to see how things went on. I accordingly ordered that same man who had been so much frightened to go to the same place where he had been first,—and that I should post men to defend him in case of danger, what was soon done. The Indian did not fail to show himself, and, approaching, made signs to him, that he had nothing to fear, and my man made the same signs; finally they drew near to each other, and conferred together. (N. B. The Indian spoke English). They came to speak about what the blacksmith had told on me; the Indian never told his name, but he spoke of him in a way that it was easy enough to guess. Our man, who had instructions, explained that they had been told lies, that it was a dishonest man who made such sinister report, that nothing was less true, that I kept a strict neutrality, though the English were not pleased with me precisely on that account; he added “that the Indians ought to bring back the palatine prisoners, if they wanted to have their ransom,” and several other things which I had ordered him to say. He told him also, that in future none of them ought to come so near us, that if they had something to say, they ought to light a big fire right opposite to our quarters, and that I should then send somebody in a boat to speak with them,—that the interview was to take place on the water,—and that accordingly they ought to come in a boat also, and not more than 2 persons in it at once.

As I had discovered that treachery and intended to arrest secretly the fellow to punish him as he deserved it, but he had some inkling of it and ran away to a man called Brice, who was commander of that seditious gang which gave me much trouble, as will be stated below, the same who already had debauched one-half of my Palatines. When the blacksmith above mentioned got there he told these Carolinian prowlers the same he had said to the Indians, and more, against me, and went so far as to make me pass for a traitor to the Nation. They made a list of more than 20 articles against me, of which not one was true. Looking towards that criminal indictment without the least apprehension, and with an entirely good conscience, I wrote to the Governors of Virginia and Carolina, and made them exactly knowing of all what happened. Far from blaming me, they approved the course I had taken, as well as all other persons of good sense.

Plot of the man called Brice, with his gang of prowlers against me.—Disclosed by a small Palatine boy.—Brice and his armed adherents come to fall unexpectedly upon me, but find me in good preparation for defence.

As that traitor, the blacksmith, known as a criminal by me and my colony, owed much to me, I had an inventory drawn up of what few things he had, and had these safely put in hands of a third person; the aforesaid Brice, who would have liked much to have his tools, especially the ones which could be used to repair guns, (for the rascal was pretty smart, and knew some more than only shoeing horses and making rough work), tried to get possession of these tools by an artful trick, and if he could not in this way, then by force. In the meanwhile Brice would have been glad to take me by surprise and to arrest me, in order to bring me as a criminal, charged with high treason, to Gov<sup>r</sup> Hyde. In order to execute such a cowardly, black, and seditious plan, Brice concerted with his light-headed gang, how they would undertake their wicked design, and the conclusion was that if I would not surrender the tools, under their pretence that they were needed for the defence and service of the Province, they would get violently possession of them, and that, as probably I should turn fierce about it, then they would arrest me as a prisoner to bring me to the Governor.

Most luckily, a little Palatine boy was in the room when they laid that black plot against me; they paid no attention to him, believing that he did not understand English. But he, having overheard all about their pernicious scheme, made his best to slip out of the room without them minding him, and told everything to his mother; she at once crossed the river in a boat, and warned me about what had been plotted against me. I immediately ordered the drums to beat to arms, the gates to be shut, and my men to take defensive positions.

I had scarcely posted them when Brice appeared with 30 or 40 armed adherents, among which that rascally blacksmith aforesaid, and about 15 or 20 palatine deserters. Knowing not that their scheme was found out, they thought to take me easily by surprise, and pretended to enter my small fort without difficulty, but they found the gates shut. Not expecting to meet with such reception, they asked the sentries what that meant and why the gates were shut? It was answered, that those precautions were taken against Indians and Christian savages. They then inquired if we took them to be enemies. They were answered that theirs was no manner to visit friends, and that we had good reasons to be on our guard, especially as we saw rascally traitors and deserters among them, as we effectually did see, right before us,—but that, if their Captain Brice, with one of the least suspicious, desire to come in, that I should be told about it, and that I would undoubtedly allow them to come in and speak out what they wanted. When I was informed of it, I ordered them to be introduced under good escort, and the gate to be shut on their heels. As that Capt<sup>n</sup> Brice desired to know why I treated him as a stranger and enemy, I answered that I had reasons enough for that,—that his criminal and reckless design was only too much known to me, but that I should, in due time and place, complain and require justice about these so rash, seditious, and unjust proceedings, such as his and his riotous prowlers.

I asked moreover if this was his way to deal with his superiors? I said that it would be my own capacity and attribution, as Deputy of the Duke of Beaufort, Lieutenant Governor, Landgrave of Carolina and Commander of this District, to arrest him as my prisoner, and to send him, bound, to the Governor, as a turbulent, restless, seditious and fool-hardy man,—in order that he be punished according to his merits and as an example to other rioters. That would, indeed, have been done, if I had had sufficient witnesses against him; accordingly, I contented myself by sending them home with a good censure and summoned them to appear before the next Parliament.

If I felt disposed to mention here all the troubles which that Capt<sup>n</sup> Brice gave me, and the insolent things he said & did, against me and what remained of my colony,—as well himself as his adherents and Palatine deserters,—it would take a whole volume; I shall only say a few words about it.

It must be noticed here that the contract made with the Indians, of which a copy has been given at the end of my relation or letter, written to Gov<sup>r</sup> Hyde,—had been consented by me, a prisoner, in order to save my life,—so that I should not have been bound to hold and fulfil it, had I not been willing to do so, since I was, at the time, constrained and in danger of life. However, being not of the opinion quod hereticis non habenda fides, I had resolved to abide by it, within the dictates of my conscience, in all that was not contrary to the duties by which I was bound to the English Crown. I had managed things in such way, that, if they had let me do what I thought good, great benefit would have resulted for the Province, and many evils and murders could have been avoided. But that Brice, with his enraged crowd, was so much incensed against those Indians, that, without heeding the voice of reason, without considering how little their own number was, how scanty their victuals and ammunition,—without thinking of so many poor prisoners detained by the Indians or Savages,—without taking any measure whatever,—but blindly, brutally and in a fit of enraged passion, they rejected the suspension of arms, or truce, which I was to propose, and had had much trouble in obtaining,—and dealt at once with the utmost hostility and cruelty against the Indians. True, one had reasons enough to be alarmed and indignant about their invasion and the murders they had committed, but however just be one's cause, prudence and caution are always required.

If I had had my own way: (1) by the proposed truce, time would have been gained, and the whole Province, as well as we, could have made sufficient preparations for offensive and defensive action, and been provided with enough victuals, arms, ammunition, and men. (2) I was already at work to save and get back these poor women & children prisoners, and that was indeed the reason that had prevented me as yet to deliver up my ransom: I wanted first to draw these poor people out of the claws of those Savages,—what was granted, with much trouble and danger, in the first interview with the Indians.

N. B. The importance of that fact can be seen in the relation of the Indian war—(vide supra). There may be seen how cautiously the Savages had to be handled on account of these poor prisoners; if these poor people had first been recovered, as I had proposed and as it had been admitted by both parties, then, one could have dealt with the Indians more fearlessly and successfully, and perhaps stop that cruel war at its very beginning.

(3) When I was engaged in the most important part of my negotiation concerning these poor people still detained by the Indians, and as I had already gained time, by means of my neutrality and truce, in order to recover what the Savages had taken and robbed from Carolinian Planters, as well as from Palatines & Swiss, and to try to get back as much big & small cattle as possible,—there comes Brice and his gang, more foolish and cruel than the Savages, and, by an inconsiderate attack, which very poorly succeeded, spoils my game to such degree that my whole negotiation becomes fruitless! The black treachery of the blacksmith, and this inconsiderate attack, destroyed all confidence of the Indians towards me, and after that they made acts of hostility also against my colony, whereas up to that time it had been spared (I say: after the agreement made); but after that premature and preposterous deed of the Carolinians, the Savages began again to destroy whatever they could, and the houses of my colonists, however they were excepted and marked with the sign N., (which meant News) were burnt,—the movables, tools and other hidden things, dug up and carried away or spoiled, and the cattle killed. And afterwards the plantations or dwellings on News, Trent, and Pamptego Rivers, etc., were entirely destroyed, everything was plundered, robbed, burnt, and the people killed.

What moved the Savages to deal the more cruelly with Christians, was the cruel and more than barbarous proceeding of Brice. He got hold of a few Indians of Bay River, and their chief or King was most barbarously dealt with; he was nearly roasted alive near a fire, so much so that he died. This more than barbarous deed incensed the Indians against the Christians to such degree, that it is not astonishing if they, after that, proceeded also with more cruelty. What angered me not a little, was that one of my Palatine deserters, T. M., had a hand in such an atrocious action, and even declared to find pleasure in it; it was the same who caused the desertion of half my Palatine colonists.

There were, among Brice's gang, daring fellows and men of courage, but unprincipled and brutal. If a part of the Planters or residents of other places in Carolina had behaved better and been less cowardly, the Indians could have been mastered sooner, and less evil would have happened.

Justification of my line of conduct before the General Assembly, complaint about those secret investigations and slanders, directed against me. My dependents themselves!

As it was very important to me to justify the course I had taken in an affair of such nature, where a whole Province was in danger to be ruined and destroyed,—in order not to be charged with it, and that I could publicly expose the enormity of Brice's and his turbulent gang's proceedings,—when the General Assembly was convoked, I did not fail to attend it. First I appeared before the higher house, consisting of the Governor, the representatives of the Lords Proprietors, the Councillors, and .....*, or provincial nobility; after I had lodged my complaint and justified my line of conduct, I went to the lower house, consisting of the Delegates of Commons. After a short speech on the subject mentioned, I asked who was the slanderer who had secretly informed against me without any official capacity; I asked for his name, and for the production, either in the original or in a copy, of the 20 or 23 articles drawn up against me; I insisted that my accuser should be brought forth in my presence, that I might convict him of falsehood, justify myself and be discharged in due form,—but nobody dared to come forward, or even open his mouth about these accusations. Undoubtedly these false accusers and slanderers had some inkling, or somehow heard how fully I had justified myself to the Governors of Virginia and Carolina, at the start, and seeing that the course I had taken met with their high approbation, they dared not pursue their accusations, for fear of having the worst of it. Among all these circumstances, however, my honor and reputation had much to suffer, and my life was even in danger; among the very Palatines had been found false witnesses; what had I to do in such a wretched state of things? Seeing that nobody would speak, I began to name my accusers myself, fulminating against them and demanding justice, but, alas!—in such a confused Government, where the first fire of sedition was not entirely extinguished, a good part of the members of that Parliament still kept some secret spite, and were good friends with that Brice, who was also a member, and would have been very glad that I should receive some affront, as I had, in their view, sided too much with the Governor; besides they were much perplexed about that Indian war, and I could have no other satisfaction than to see my discourse and defence received in deep silence. True, the Governor and High House apologized to me and complimented me, and put me off to demand justice, in the form used in time of peace, against these slanderers. Think, my dear reader, how long I should have had to wait to find due satisfaction, since at the present hour (A<sup>no</sup> 1716) the Indian War is not yet finished!

*The French copy of the MS. has here the word caciques which is spelled the same in English, and seemed too much startling to the translator to be written here without a protest.

I had sent many letters and memorials to the Gov<sup>r</sup> on this matter, with ample deductions and historical particulars about all what had come to pass in this sorry plight. Any one would pity me, who would know all the cross-accidents which befell me.

Since at page [44 of MS.], I mentioned but a few motives or causes of that Indian war, I will add that the negligence and carelessness of the Carolinians were not little conducive to it;—they trusted the savages too much, did not build even the poorest fort, for safety's sake, in the Province, in order to withdraw thither in case of need;—they did not prescribe the least dispositions to be taken in case of sudden irruption—nor had they stored up the necessary war-provisions and victuals. Far from keeping good accumulations of grain and other eatables, they sold, in the very midst of dangers and troubles, whole shiploads of wheat, meat, beans, etc.—for things much less necessary to life, as sugar, molasses, brandy or (“brandevin”) etc.,—in short, every thing was disorderly and in the worst state of preparation. Instead of assembling one or two small bodies of troops to operate against the savages, and drive them out of the frontier, and from their dwellings or Plantations, every one pretended to keep and defend his own house,—and, of course, the savages had a good opportunity to destroy one plantation after the other; indeed, if the good God had not taken better care of them, than they did themselves, the whole Province would have gone to ruin.

My plan was, in case the savages would not stand by the agreement made, and it would have been impossible to induce them to some good adjustment, to mislead them with my truce, as has already been said [v. pages 96, 97, 98 of MS.], so as to gain time to gather men in sufficient number, & necessary stores as well in ammunitions as in victuals, in order, not only to be on a good foot of defence, but even to drive them away from the territory, far more, to render them powerless for harm in the future, so as to have nothing more to fear from them. But it was useless to try to bring those Carolinians to their senses. Those who were less cowardly than the others, went to work in such heedless and thoughtless way, and fell upon the savages with a mere handful of people,—so that the savages, in far greater number, good shots, and well provided with everything, drove away that poor set of Carolinians, like a gang of wolves does a herd of sheep, and without the help of the Swiss & Palatine colony, they would have been crushed and entirely defeated, as may be seen in the last pages of my Relation—(v. supra).

N. B. In that relation, consisting in a letter written to Gov<sup>r</sup> Hyde, I did not mention and could not yet know how this little body of troops consisted only of about 150 men, who were stationed at Bath Town, a small village near Pamptego River. These men had sent word to ours, that at the first signal given, they would come to their help,—and ours likewise at their signal,—but these cowards had never the heart of crossing the River, and left their poor neighbors in the trouble and danger, and after having eaten the bread and meat of the poor residents of that District of Bath County, returned home.

How I fortified and intrenched myself at Newbern, how I supported my whole garrison or colony, with women and children, at my own expense, during 22 weeks, how at last, destitute of victuals, ammunition, without help, I have been obliged to leave my post in order to go where the Government was,—all that may partly be found in the letter written by me to Gov<sup>r</sup> Hyde.

However, the least I can do is to relate also something about that trip I took to the County of Albemarle where the Governor and his Council resided.

After having thoroughly considered the wretched condition of the Province, of myself, and of my colony,—the absence of any assistance from the Province,—the impossibility of supporting us at length in that way,—(being even reduced to the last extremity,)—the manner in which all the colony had been destroyed and ruined by the invasion of the Savages, in which circumstance 70 persons were miserably murdered or carried away prisoners, as stated above, their houses, movables, and tools burnt and stolen, the greatest part of the large cattle killed,—the remainder being consumed for our subsistence;—the delay and refusal of any help from our country, its distance,—the little hope there was of ever recruiting from such considerable loss, and of founding again a convenient settlement,—again, the poor Government and the unhappy situation of the Province and of its inhabitants,—after considering, I said, all that and other good reasons,—I saw myself compelled to think more about my interests, and to take other measures. I opened my mind to several persons of distinction, my protectors and friends from Virginia and Maryland,—and they unanimously advised me to take other measures, and made me very obliging offers, inviting me to come and settle with my whole colony,—what I highly appreciated.—Seeing my colony broken up, inasmuch as half the Palatines had left me, I took the resolution to change quarters with the remainder of the faithful Palatines and the small band of Swiss. I therefore had my little sloop mended (a kind of brigantine), for this voyage, and packed up part of my clothes, intending, if I could not obtain better assistance from Gov<sup>r</sup> Hyde and from the Parliament or General Assembly, to proceed further to Virginia and Maryland.

Other measures taken, in our distress and want of any resources,—inasmuch as not one bushel of wheat remained to us, from our provisions,—and I had entertained them for 22 weeks, without any help from the Government or Province.—My voyage to Court,—and further on to Virginia. A phenomenon on the mast of our ship, which foretold a great storm, which really happened.

After I had called together my poor colonists and spoken to them of the necessity of changing our plans and quarters, if the Province would not assist us better than it had done in the past, that poor people, who only knew too well, and by their sad experience, in what distress we were,—readily assented to my proposals.—I however comforted them the best I could, and asked them to have a little patience and hold out some little longer, telling them I should travel with all possible haste, and make all the efforts which might be conceived, in order to get them some help in victuals, as well as in men and necessary ammunition. I therefore went on my voyage and started by a fine weather and a most favorable wind. But, alas! it did not last long, and that voyage was not very happy; for already in the evening, when we were nearly at the outlet of the River, and at the point of entering the sound, something remarkable happened. After sunset, at the top of the mast, suddenly appeared a little fire, about the size of a big candle's flame, which made about the same noise as an ascending rocket; it lasted for about one good quarter of an hour, and we were looking on with great attention and surprise. We asked the patron of the vessel what it meant; he answered that it did not mean anything good, and that, before night, we should have a great and dangerous storm, that, accordingly we ought to sail towards land, in order to find some shelter,—but, not paying attention to his warnings, I told him, with a smile, to go on. He had hardly gone for a league, when suddenly the wind changed and became so violent, that, night being near, we were glad to see some land in view, in order to draw nearer and cast anchor. We had hardly been able to land, when such a terrible storm arose, that if we had remained on the Sound, we should certainly have been lost on the sand banks which are found in it.

We remained over night at the home of an English planter, who lived thereabouts, received us very well, and had for us all kind of attentions. He was a "Shaker"—though an honest man,—and at my first arrival in the country had been of great help to me, supplying me with victuals and cattle at a reasonable price. On the next day, after having thanked our benefactor, we started again, the wind having fallen, but, in the evening, as we were in the midst of the Sound, which is a little sea between the land and the downs of the Ocean, we struck a sand bank and the ship made such a crash, that we believed she had split in two, and were greatly frightened; however, she did not go under, we accordingly took courage and made great efforts to get away from that bank, but our greatest fear was that when at last we should get off, then we should feel the effects of that bad collision, and that, the ship being free, the crack would gape asunder, and we should certainly go under; but, by a special grace of the Almighty, there was no such accident, and when the tide came in, and the wind was somewhat more favorable, we crowded all sail, got loose with some trouble, and thanked our good God to have delivered us from such great danger.

A contrary wind keeps us for several days on a bank among reeds.—We strike against a rock, consisting in oyster shells.—Arrival at Governor Hyde's, where I stay six weeks.—I get a sloop or vessel ready, full of provisions, for my colonists.

On the third day, we again had a violent and contrary wind, and were obliged to cast anchor on a reed-covered bank, where we remained in safety for several days; at last, by a 4 of wind we crossed a channel through those reeds, and were again unlucky enough, to strike a rock or big oyster-bed, where we had half a day's hard work to get away, and were obliged to await high tide to get rid of that place. We went on with a favorable wind, and came at last to the appointed place; it was high time for it, we had nothing more aboard to eat or to drink, as we had thought to accomplish our voyage in twice 24 hours, and it took us 10 days. This was the consequence, foretold by the patron of the ship, of that sign which we noticed on the top of the mast.

Having been obliged to stay more than 6 weeks about Gov<sup>r</sup> Hyde, as well to attend Council and to apply myself to the public business of the Province, as to get together the necessary eatables and war ammunition for my nearly ruined colony, I could at last, not without much trouble, send back my sloop or brigantine loaded with wheat, powder, lead, tobacco, and some brandy to Newbern.

But alas! what a misfortune happened! My poor people were waiting in vain for the promised help: when the sloop had nearly crossed the Sound and got to the outlet of News' River,—the 3 sailors, thinking themselves out of danger, drank too much rum or brandy, and fell asleep, without extinguishing the fire on the hearth. Sparks from the still burning wood flew among the tobacco-leaves which were not far from there, they took fire, and the smoke woke up the sleepers. They were much surprised and frightened, so much so that, for fear the powder-barrel would burst,—without taking any pains to put out the fire, though they had plenty of water so near at hand, they only thought of their own safety, went into the small boat, and left the ship. Indeed, before they reached the shore, the fire caught the keg of powder, which instantly did burst and blow up the whole ship in a blaze.

I leave it to think to the reader what very sad news these were for my poor people of Newbern, who, nearly at the point of dying out of mere starvation, sighed with "gaping mouths" for that long desired help, and what a heart-sore for me to see my poor dependents deprived of that assistance. I well understood, however, that even that small help would not be sufficient, and would just give them some little respite, and I made all efforts to load my heavier brigantine with the same kind of goods as the other, but I was so much delayed and things went on so very slowly that I became quite down-hearted, and well foresaw that such tergiversations, in such circumstances, would bring us to a wretched state of affairs, and that it would be a mere impossibility to subsist in that way, in the long run.—I therefore disposed affairs in such a way that my colonists could use those same provisions which I got together for them, to come on that same ship "with M. M." to Virginia, but, as stated above, the whole business was dragged on to such length of time, that I began to grow tired to stay at the Government's seat,—where every thing was going on so badly that it was a real pity!

Before, however, I come to relate my voyage to Virginia, it will be well to mention what we made, in the long time we spent at the government's seat, for the Province's good and safety.

After I had, therefore, remonstrated to Gov<sup>r</sup> Hyde & the Council that we had to take better measures than in the past and to introduce a better order in public affairs,—that, if we did not, we should very likely perish, all of us, by the hand of the Savages, we began to examine and consider things somewhat nearer, so as to meet the most pressing emergencies,—but I must say I was astonished to find so many ignorants and cowards.

(1) Above all, a sufficient quantity of victuals had to be stored up; if not, it is and was impossible to make war, especially against savages. However, those Carolinians have been so light-headed, that, far from accumulating the necessary provisions, they have sold grain and salt-meat outside of the Province; Therefore urged instantly the Governor to publish a severe interdiction, in order that nobody should, under heavy fines and pains, export or sell any eatables whatever outside of the province.

(2) That we should get exact information as to this question whether the Province could produce grain in sufficient quantity for such a long war? We found, indeed, that this was not the case, by far, so that it was necessary to get some from the neighboring provinces.

(3) Since neither the Province in general, nor the people themselves were sufficiently provided with powder, lead, and arms, some were to be ordered from elsewhere; but they did not know where to find the money for that purpose, and the Carolinians were so poorly considered, that they would have found none on credit. I accordingly was compelled to see if the Governor of Virginia would not give us a lift.

(4) Supposing that we should have met all the exigencies above stated, what was to be done with so few people? We could hardly gather 300 arms-bearing men in the whole province, and part of them was neither well clothed nor well armed, had no ammunition, and felt not at all inclined to go to battle. Thereupon, I was commissioned to speak to the Gov<sup>r</sup> of Virginia, and to prevail on him, in order that he would be so kind as to give us men and sufficient provisions,—what he really offered to do in the name of the Queen of Great Britain, provided a settled salary would be paid to the soldiers and the eatables and war provisions returned. This did not please the Carolinians; they objected they were not able to return such sums of money,—that the Governor ought to do it at her Majesty's expense, what was found ridiculous: "why should, indeed, the Queen contribute to such an extent for a Province from which she drew no income?" The Lords Proprietors draw it, and they should also pay the expense and charges. This was the cause that some persons went to the Gov<sup>r</sup> of Virginia, to feel their way with him, if he would perhaps take under his protection the Province of Carolina, what he refused by good considerations.

(5) It was also proposed that some place in the Province should be fortified, as well to be able to retire there in case of need, as to keep there in safety, but nothing was done.

What was to be done in such a wretched state of affairs? During all these tergiversations, the savages became fierce, on account of such poor resistance, broke forth, attacked and pillaged one Plantation after another.

Last resource: a delegation for help, to South Carolina.

The last resource was to send at once delegates to South Carolina to ask for help, which was obtained, and without which the whole Province would have been lost.

Col. Barnwell comes with 800 tributary Indians & 50 Englishmen.—Col. Barnwell's attack upon Cor-village.—The King of Cor and his force are beaten.

The Government of South Carolina sent 800 tributary savages, with 50 Carolinian Englishmen, under the command of Col<sup>l</sup> Barnwell,—all provided with arms, powder and lead. The seat of that Indian war was near my quarters of Newbern. As this body of troops had arrived, the war broke out in due form, and those tributary savages, at the start, pounced with such fury upon part of the Tuscoruro nation, that they were appalled, and the savages of North Carolina were obliged to intrench themselves in a fort which they built. Thereupon the relief-troops from South Carolina, after having received orders at Newbern, marched against a great Indian Village, called Core, about thirty miles distant from Newbern, drove out the King and his forces, and carried the day with such fury, that, after they had killed a great many, in order to stimulate themselves still more, they cooked the flesh of an Indian “in good condition” and ate it. As this help came from S. Carolina, we levied 200 Englishmen from N. Carolina under the command of Cap. Boyd with a few friendly Indians,—and 50 men from my colony, commanded by M<sup>r</sup> Michel.

The Indians, posted near the village of Catechna, fortify and entrench themselves.—The besieged Indians hold their ground, and the Carolinians are compelled to raise the siege.

This expedition, a body of troops consisting partly of Christians and partly of savages, went into the woods, and took position before a great village, called Catechna, where I had been a prisoner before (as stated above); in that village had retired and were posted our savage enemies, a medley of Indians from the Weetock, Bay, News, Cor, Pamptego rivers, and a part of the Tuscornro-Nation. They were so well intrenched and fortified that, on our first attack, we could not get the best of them, but the main cause was that the orders had not been well obeyed. The attack was to take place on several sides at once, but Cap. Brie, with his gang of tramps, were too hasty, and began before the time appointed, and when the others were not yet ready,—and, on their account, the whole affair was carried on in a disorderly manner; several of our people were wounded, a few killed in that way, without doing any harm whatever to the besieged,—and our men were compelled to retire.

My proposal to use a few big guns at the second attack.—The above stated cannons work splendidly.—The besieged Indians beg for a truce: it is granted under condition of the liberation of the christian prisoners.

When these sad news were brought to the Council,—as we then were assembled,—we set our wits to work, in order to find some means of holding our own better against our enemies. My eyes accidentally fell upon some 6 or 8 cast-iron-guns which were laying in the yard, removed from their carriage, rusty, and full with sand, and proposed to repair two of the smaller ones, the best one could; and to send them to our people, in order to use them on the second attack to be made, but my proposal was at first considered as ridiculous. They objected to me that it was impossible to carry them across the swamps, the ditches and woods. I answered readily, as I well remembered what an officer dependent of the bailiwick Yverdon, Capt<sup>n</sup> Taceard from Saint-Croix, had related to me, of the stratagem he used at the siege of an important fortress in Flanders, (and which indeed made his fortune). I proposed that every cannon would be brought on some kind of shafts, with one horse in front, and another behind, what was done; the other necessities were supplied, and it all did splendidly succeed. Indeed, the first approaches being duly made, two balls had hardly been shot into the fort, with a few grenades, when the Indians, who knew nothing of such inventions and who never had heard such loud reports, were so much frightened, that they begged for a truce; a council of war was held, and it was concluded that it should be granted, with the purpose of an advantageous peace. What induced our staff to that was the presence of the poor christian prisoners, who were confined already since the first slaughter; they called out from the Fort that if we should take it by storm and take no heed of the enemy's proposal, they would all miserably perish. Accordingly, a capitulation was made, under condition that the poor prisoners would be immediately set free, what was done at once.

Thereafter, our troops returned to Newbern to refresh themselves somewhat, for they were badly provided with victuals. As the Province had not fulfilled the expectations of Col. Barnwell, who had hoped for greater honors and gifts from the Carolinians,—as even his men had not received the necessary provisions, and were dissatisfied as he himself was, he thought of some device to return home with his forces in a profitable way: under pretence of a good peace, he lured a great part of the enemies to the surroundings of Cor-village, where he took them all prisoners. This suited the tributary Savages very well, because they got so much a head in goods,—and they returned joyfully to South Carolina with their savage prisoners, but that Col. Barnwell blotted out, by such a black deed, all the praiseworthy things he had done before.

The Tuscaruros, much incensed at that breach of truce, fortify themselves better and make great ravages.

This breach of truce and most detestable deed of a Christian did not fail to greatly incense the other Tuscaruros and Carolinian Indians, and justly too, since they evidently could have no more confidence to the Christians. They accordingly fortified themselves still better, and made terrible raids along both rivers, News and Pamptego, and the last troubles were worse than the first.

Complaints to the Government of S. C. against Barnwell. Solicitations for some new help; granted, under Capt. Moore.

This compelled us to bring a serious complaint against that Col. B. and to solicit new help from South Carolina, which we obtained, though not so strong as the first, under command of Cap<sup>t</sup> Moore, who behaved better than the first.

New attack against the Indians and the same fort as before. It is taken by storm. 200 Indians burnt. 900 in all, men, women, & children, made prisoners or killed.

After calling together as many men as possible, they began anew the attack of the Indian Fort near Catechna, the other name of which is Hancock's Village. This siege was more successful than the first, and achieved in little time. There was in one corner of that fort a sort of a redoubt which our men contrived skillfully to set on fire, and 200 savages were burnt. In the fort, many were killed, and they defended themselves very well, even when their women and children were taken prisoners, and our men went for the provisions which they had hidden underground. There were wounded savages, crawling on earth, who tried to hurt the victors.

In that action, it was estimated, that there were about 900 killed, as well as prisoners, men, women, and children. Of our men and the Indian tributaries, many were wounded and several killed.—After that, we had a little rest, though some of them, who were scattered about, would now and then assail a few plantations.

First steps towards peace.—Peace concluded.

The question was, how to protect us, for the future, against the remaining savages and their neighbors. We called the neighboring Kings together. (N. B.—These petty kings are properly only the chiefs over a certain number of Indians; however, the title is hereditary and goes over to their posterity). Six or seven of those kinglings complied with the summons, and after several successive conferences, we made a peace such as we desired,—so that there is nothing more to fear,—the Indians located in Virginia, tributaries of this last Province, are answerable for that peace, and the remaining Carolinian Indians have presently become tributaries of the Province of North Carolina, or rather of the Lords Proprietors.

In the meanwhile, notwithstanding that peace, our poor colonists were not in the best plight, but scattered here and there among the English & Carolinian Planters; some returned to Newbern where they could farm some little. Besides, I had allowed all to leave their Plantations for a couple of years and to go out to service at the wealthiest Planters', in order to spare some little means besides their living, and afterwards to go back to their Plantations, discharging them, for those two years, of their standing rents. To Mr M. and the Bernese I let know that, according to what had been agreed upon, I went to Virginia and was going to take the necessary steps to secure there some safer establishment,—it being impossible to me to re-establish with my own strength and means a Colony in such a wrecked State,—the more so that there was very little prospect and hope of any more assistance from my home.

I accordingly took leave of the Governor & Council of Carolina, and went to the Gov<sup>r</sup> of Virginia, who received me very favorably, and who, at my request, granted me the escort of a well-equipped man-of-war, on account of the privateers, which was indeed a great favor to a private individual. Thereafter I sent word to M<sup>r</sup> M. who was to take the lead of my people, and which was present at a conference on the boundary of Virginia & Carolina, where the Lords Governors Hyde & Spotswood conferred together. The day was, accordingly, appointed, and the place where the man-of-war had to be passed was Coratuck Island (North Carolina); with the conviction that all that would succeed perfectly, I went on my way further into Virginia, along the big river Potomack, and to Maryland, in order to secure quarters and the necessary provisions in victuals and cattle.

Arrival in Maryland and at the Potomack falls.

The place where we were to meet was at a very gentlemanlike man's, "M<sup>r</sup> Rosier," near the Potomack-falls, where a few gentlemen from Pennsylvania, who had some interests common with us, had come to meet me, in hopes of seeing at last how things stood about this beautiful and rich silver-mine, about which M<sup>r</sup> M. had talked so much and for the search of which they had already supplied so much money.

We remained at that place for some time, without hearing from M<sup>r</sup> M. nor from that small colony which we awaited impatiently from one day to the other,—the queer behaviour of that fellow made us nearly doubt, and not without reason, the reality of his assertions. We therefore resolved to go ourselves and visit the site of the mines, of which he had given us a map; we accordingly took due preparations for that trip, though a dangerous one,—and, as I had planned it some time ago, and before having any clue to that meeting, I took every precaution, and gave advice of my intentions to the Governor of Virginia, who gave me letters-patent, and even issued injunctions to the guardsmen on the boundary ("frontier-guardsmen,") to follow and escort me at my first research and at any request of mine. When we came to Canavest, an enchanting place, about 40 miles above the falls, we found settled there, a crowd of savages, and especially a Frenchman from Canada, called Martin, a carter, who had married an Indian or Savage woman, and was highly considered among the savages of Pennsylvania & Maryland. Induced by the splendid "advances"* of M<sup>r</sup> M., he had settled there, having left Pennsylvania. This same carter Martin had also made the voyage to S. for the search of the Mines, with that M<sup>r</sup> M. and spent a heavy sum of money for it. That man warned us that the Indians which were in the vicinity of that S. mountain, where the mines were supposed to be, were much alarmed on account of the war which we had with the Tuscoruros, and that we ought not to risk so dangerous a trip without necessity. We took his words into consideration and postponed that trip to a more favorable time and occasion. We, however, made an alliance with the Canavest† Indians, which was most necessary, as well on account of the mines which we hoped to find thereabouts, as for the settlement, which we had resolved to make in that region, of our little Bernese colony, which we expected. After that, we visited those beautiful sites, those enchanted islands on the River Potomack above the falls.

Return to the Potomack falls.*

From there, on our way back, we went on one high mountain only, called, on account of its form, Sugarloaf mountain.‡ We took with us a surveyor, the carter Martin above mentioned and a few Indians. From that mountain we saw a great expanse of land, part of Virginia, Maryland, Pennsylvania & Carolina. Using the compass, we made a map, and specially noticed the S. mountain, where the silver mines were to be. We found that that mountain was situated in Virginia, and not in Pennsylvania, as according to the map given us; two of these Indians happened to know that mountain's situation, and told us that they had roamed thereabouts and had been in nearly all the nooks of that mountain, but had found no minerals, and that the map given to us was not correct, what greatly surprised us. We discovered, from that summit, three mountain-ranges, one higher than the other, and beautiful valleys. After we had gone down from the mountain, we spent the night at that man, Martin's, the carter's, and, the day after, we went back to M<sup>r</sup> Rosier and stayed with him, below the falls of that great river Potomack, where I remained some time, waiting for my people. The remnant of the company took their way to Pennsylvania, disgusted at M.'s tergiversations and queer behaviour.

A few reasons to show how easy it was to be duped by M. Many, more clever than I claim to be, having fallen into the snare.

It is to be noticed here, that M<sup>r</sup> M., whom I do not name here,* out of regard for his family and relations at Bern, (who are distinguished people), has fooled many people by his tales about these rich silver mines,—and if I was duped myself, it is no wonder, being a stranger in these countries. My motives were the following: (1) I thought a man of his family was wholly incapable of such a trick, especially towards a fellow-countryman; (2) the ore which he had exhibited had been tested and found rich; (3) So many people from Pennsylvania & other neighbouring provinces had openly made the trip, with permission of the competent Governors, for the discovery of these mines, there really appeared to be some facts at the foundation of the whole matter; (4) Among others, a merchant from Pennsylvania was interested in it, a very able man,—a skillful goldsmith, and other persons who were supposed to know the region well. Seeing that these clever people, raised from childhood in these countries, some even born there, risked important sums in that business, I could not imagine that they had not taken every kind of precautions and sureties. About this humbug, an elaborate history could be written, and funny enough would it be, but I go on with my narrative.

As to me, I should console myself of my loss in this matter, however important, for my whole enterprise was based on that supposed foundation,—but I pity the poor miners, who left what certainly they had in Germany, for uncertainty in America. They had a good handicraft, and now they have nothing but what they can get from some cleared land, where they have to live in the scantiest way.

This be said, on the way, to show that I was not alone to be caught. What is more surprising, is the fact that M<sup>r</sup> M. had made a contract in due form with the miners, and made a voyage to Holland in order to meet the head-miner, who had to get together all necessary tools and things for this enterprise, at an expense of nearly 1000 Lb. Strlg.

In short, all circumstances seemed to be real & solid. M<sup>r</sup> Penn,† Proprietor of Pennsylvania, was thoroughly acquainted with all these facts, and favored us greatly; he even appointed M<sup>r</sup> M. as Director-General of all minerals in his Province, *and things went accordingly, as far as a very important contract.** Who could, amidst such proceedings and among such circumstances, doubt the reality of facts?

Fine situation of the lands above and below the falls of Potomack River, where we aimed to establish a colony.

I believe there are hardly any finer and better situated sites, in the whole world, than that of the Potomack and Canawest, a region which we thought of dividing between two small colonies. The first was to be just below the Falls, where are found a very pretty island, very good lands, and, on the opposite side, a place, between the great river Potomack, and another small river called Gold Creek, (which means in French, “Rivière dorée”: [gilded stream.]), *very convenient to receive whatever comes from the upper River, as well as what comes down from ABOVE (below?—Translator) the falls and surroundings;—the biggest merchant ships may sail there.***

Arrival of a messenger from Carolina. He brings bad news about my brigantine.

The other colony was to be located near Canavest, as may be seen by the map.† Having received in two months, not the slightest news from Carolina, I at last got very bad ones by a special messenger. M<sup>r</sup> M. informed me in a few words: “That the bearer of the note wished to get the command of our Brigantine, and that I was to agree with him. That, as my brigantine had brought to News the long wished for wheat, it had run aground on its return, on a sand-bank, that it was in poor condition, and had been worm-eaten in hot weather, wanted new sail ropes and other implements, that it was sunk deeply into the sand and could not be got off from there,—that I was to go to Carolina as soon as possible.” He made no mention whatever of the man-of-war sent from Virginia to meet it, and of what other had happened during such a long space of time. This so disgusted me, that I was for dying of grief and weariness; such bad news and strange intelligence absolutely stunned me, so that nothing would have been more likely, than the shock had turned my brain.

After so much pains taken, all orders given, and the necessary provisions made,—and all that for nothing!—I sent the Cap<sup>tn</sup> back not much pleased, with orders, however, to repair the ship as well as possible, and most quickly, since she had only a little way to go, along the seashore.

I wrote also to Col<sup>l</sup> Pollock, as being better supplied than any one else: “Since the vessel was in the Province’s service, every thing of absolute necessity was to be provided;” I added, that I should look to the other things wanted at Virginia’s expense. But everything was put off in such way, that, if I wanted it to be done, I had to go myself.

My return from the Potomack to Virginia, and arrival at the Governor’s.—

My surprise to hear such bad news from the Governor. He tells me how the man-of-war had sailed uselessly to Carolina.

When, being on my way, I went to the Gov<sup>r</sup> of Virginia, I found him looking cold and indifferent, and quite changed towards me, and I could not imagine why; at last, that lord himself explained his attitude, but with heavy reproaches, asking what consideration we had for him,—that he would have hoped to see his attentions better recognized, as well as his services, which were so considerable, and which he would certainly not have rendered to any individual whatever,—that instead of showing him due thankfulness, we treated him most flippantly, and so on. Abashed at what I heard, I excused myself, without knowing well what he was aiming at; I asked for an explanation, though, and the Gov<sup>r</sup> went on: “Yes, yes, your fine fellow M. has played me a foul trick,”—and proceeded to tell me, how according to our agreement, he sent a well-equipped man-of-war to fetch the Brigantine & my people, to escort them,—how the Cap<sup>tn</sup> of the ship, after waiting nearly for six days before Coratuck Island, became impatient, as nobody came near him,—how he had sent his Lieutenant in the yawl, in order to inquire for news of my Brigantine and people, which nobody knew anything about it,—how, drawing near to a small village called Little River he ascertained, at last, that M<sup>r</sup> M. was at New Bern, and the Brigantine stranded on a sand bank, in poor condition, and that it could not be tugged away,—how the Lieutenant having heard of that, brought the news quick to the Captain, who was indignant, after having made a useless and dangerous voyage, not to have been told what had happened,—inasmuch as, if a storm had risen at the time, he would have been obliged to take to high waters,— or he would have gone under with his crew, if thrown against the land, the water being very shallow at that place;—and how, consequently, without waiting any longer, he had sailed to Virginia.

This unpleasant narration being over, I thought of fainting right away, overwhelmed by surprise, grief, and shame, at the idea that a lord of his character, to whom I had such obligations, who had done me so much good, and had such attentions for me,—to whom, after God, I very nearly owed my own life,—had been trifled with in such a way. I offered him the best excuses I knew, and told how strangely I had been deceived myself, when I was already quite ready to settle near the Potomack falls, and how I was sadly puzzled how I should get out from such a labyrinth.

The Governor then presented me with a glass of wine to refresh myself, and began to say he was sorry for me, that I had to deal with such a queer-headed fellow,—advised me to part with him, etc.

My departure from Virginia to Carolina.—My arrival in Carolina.—My request that my brigantine should be repaired at the Province's expense, since it was wrecked in its service.—My brigantine given over to the Province.

Having spent the night at the Governor's and received many attentions, I set out in great haste for Carolina, in order to take the necessary measures. As, formerly, I had also ordered sails & ropes to repair the Brigantine as wanted, at my arrival at Mr Hyde's, (the Gov<sup>r</sup> of Carolina), I heard thoroughly of what all had happened, and I do not know of what more! I first wrote to Mr M. to get a thorough information about every thing, but he gave me no satisfaction, and I had to summon him to come to me, in order to take the needed measures about one thing and the other, but I was not obeyed. I accordingly tried to advance matters in some other way, and asked the Governor and council that, since the Brigantine had been thus spoiled in the Province's service, it was only just that it should be repaired at public expense,—and my request was granted. An able man was accordingly sent to that purpose to examine and repair the Brigantine, but I was so badly provided with eatables and other mems, that he even returned very sick, the great heat having injured him. He informed me that the Brigantine could not hold out much longer, as it had been exposed to heat through all summer, worm-eaten, and that it ought to be rebuilt all over, but was not worth such work. I accordingly gave the Brigantine over to the Province, and I wanted it to be estimated at the same figure as when it entered the Province's service, but they hardly assessed it at half-price, and that is not paid yet, any more than the value of the smaller one, which was blown up by that powder-keg which took fire. (See page 114 of MS.)

N. B.—From this point of the narration, to the following N. B., I could well suppress the facts about Mr. M. as doing me not much honor;—I however have recorded them, in order to justify myself before the Society,—as well as before the miners.

Where, meanwhile, had I to go with my people?! I wrote again, with the most strong expressions, to M., requiring a conference, in such delicate conjunctures, considering moreover that the creditors began to stir, and wanted to be paid. I got no answer, but I heard that M. was packing up every thing, under pretence of putting my movables in safety, with the intention of going to S. Carolina,—that he had already induced a few Palatines to go with him. Such a fraudulent trick obliged me to take other measures,—and I was warned to put my property in better hands,—but too late. As Col. Pollock, to whom I owed an important sum for provisions lent to the Colony, began to become suspicious, what may be easily understood in the circumstances, I requested him to have a legal inventory taken, by sworn commissioners, of all things belonging as well to the Colony, as to myself, but my best things were already gone.

My remonstrance to Mr. M. about the grievous circumstances,—and the needed remedy. I get no satisfaction.

When I thought of the whole behavior of M.,—how he had disposed things in such a strange way,—and misled all interested people,—I could not but suspect evil, and wrote to him, for the last time, remonstrating, historically, about all facts that had come to my knowledge from different sides,—not reproaching him as yet,—but showing that “should he be suspected, he had given himself many reasons for it, by behaviour & tergiversations, what would be easier to say than to write. Things being carried so far, we had to take strong resolutions,—and it was absolutely necessary, that we should speak over these matters thoroughly, and adopt the last possible measures,—that there was periculum in mora ;” but, instead of a conference, I got nothing out of him but an ambiguous and unsatisfactory letter. I believe he was glad to find a pretext for giving a specious appearance to his tricks, and to get *rid of what he could not accomplish according to his designs.** I should have ample reasons, not only to complain of his inexcusable proceeding, but to resent it keenly; however, in order to spare his respectable relations, I do not mention many things about him, and there would be, for me, no glory in revenging myself on a wretch of his sort.

There were such extravagant things in that letter, that it did really show that not only I had been duped, but many others;—especially did M. mention a new enterprise, which he thought a great deal of, viz: to settle a colony along the Mesesipy River—to which 3 crowns pretend to have claims: Spain, France, and England,—he expressed the opinion, that the State of Bern, being neutral, could obtain at once this region from those three crowns! But it has to be considered: (1) That these powerful States are jealous among themselves, and none of them would yield to the other; (2) that the State of Bern is absolutely unable to assist and maintain such a far-off country, as it has no maritime forces. It may be easily seen, therefore, that M. was most hazardous in his calculations, and that such freaks, from Pennsylvania to Maryland, from there to Virginia, then again to North Carolina, afterwards to South Carolina, and at last on the Mesesipy,—will not do, by any means!

The conclusion, concerning the silver-mine of Virginia,—or Maryland,—is soon drawn from what has just been said: if there was anything in it, why should he leave it then and there to stray towards the Gulf of Mexico!

N. B. My hair stands on end, when I consider how many families have been endangered and ruined, for having too easily believed in that alleged Silver-mine. I especially pity so many miner-families who left their country, on the faith of a formal contract, came at great cost to America, and there, found neither M<sup>r</sup> M. nor nobody to show them where the mine was to be. I must make an end of this grievous matter; if not I should go too far into it, and there would remain no space for other topics; indeed, this was not my intention as I began.

I am compelled to stay at Governor Hyde's, until the conclusion of the Indian peace. Everybody sick at the Governor's. His death.

I come back to my narration about Carolina: having thought about all those matters, and considering what little help I could hope to get from Bern,—where my bills of exchange, one after another, were protested,—some remedy was to be found, in such unpleasant circumstances, and in such pressing necessity. I however did not in the least think of returning to Europe,—as I still had 2 negro slaves at Governor Hyde's, my property, and thought to take them with me, in order to employ them near Canavest; I thought, indeed, of settling among the Indians of this latter country, and to attract there several colonists from Carolina, according to their great desire and express intentions. But Gov<sup>r</sup> Hyde detained me so long, (peace being not yet fully ratified with the Indians, he insisted upon seeing my presence at its conclusion), that one of my creditors contrived to cunningly watch my negroes, in order that they could not escape. Meanwhile, we all became sick in M<sup>r</sup> Hyde's house, in consequence of the great heat, and also, probably, of eating too many peaches and apples, so much so, that at last the Governor died [Sept. 1712] in a few days, what also did me much damage,—for he was my good friend. This death nearly drove his wife, M<sup>rs</sup> Hyde, to despair, and she instantly begged of me, with tears in her eyes, not to leave her in such sad circumstances, but to remain with her until everything would be settled, as well in reference to the Government affairs, as on account of her claims and of her husband's inheritance. She further argued, that according to the law and to my rank, the "Presidial"* belonged to me, as being Landgrave of the Province, adding that she had lately perceived, at London, from the Lords Proprietors that, if there was to be a vacancy, they would entrust me with the Government. But I civilly thanked her, and pointed to other motives which prevented me from accepting it. I however promised to stay a couple of weeks, in order to help her as well as I could to despatch her business,—though mine was certainly quite as pressing.

The Council of Carolina offers the Presidial to me.—My refusal of the same.—Col. Pollock accepts the Presidial.

After the burial, Col. Pollock, the oldest in the Council, came to me, with the other members, and asked me to accept the "Presidial," what I refused for good reasons, pointing to the fact that Col. Pollock, as the oldest member, as well in years as in the Council itself, ought to accept that office,—that he knew better than me about the affairs of the Province, as I was an inexperienced stranger, and he accepted at last, with many compliments.

*The LL. Proprietors delay for six months the election of a new Governor.
Mr. Eden appointed Governor of N. Carolina.*

The Lords Proprietors, however, were told about all these proceedings,—and it was suggested to them, that if the Government was given to me, I should not refuse it, but that I would not ask for it, what also met with their approval, “without further consideration, as formerly.” But, as it was known, that I was heavily in debt in Carolina, and that already a few bills of exchange of mine had been protested, the question was delayed, until some notice could come from Bern, where I had written, to know for certain whether payment would follow or not. It is also customary that the claimants appear themselves for application in such circumstances; accordingly, six months passed away without any election of a Governor, although several persons had applied in London,—and the actual Governor, M<sup>r</sup> Eden, became justly impatient, the more so that for such a long time no notice came neither from Bern, nor from myself. The LL. Proprietors at last elected and instated the said M<sup>r</sup> Eden,—whom I still met in London, had a conference with him, and recommended to him, at my best, my interests and those of the colony, which he promised to look after,—and offered me in all sincerity his aid,—which to give me he was also commanded by the LL. Proprietors.

When I lately passed through London, I stayed, after my arrival, seven days at the country house of Sir Colleton, knight and baronet, also a Lord Proprietor, and my good personal friend,—his residence being 6 miles distant from London.

He was delighted to see me, and also very sorry that I came too late, saying that, if I had arrived only one month sooner, I should be at this hour Governor of Carolina; I was not very sorry for it myself, as I was unfortunately well aware, that they did not feel disposed, in Bern, to pay my debts, my relations as little as the Society, which feels discouraged by so many annoyances.

My departure from Carolina.—Arrival in Virginia.—I go on my way to Maryland.

I have nearly lost my way, and, instead of going to Virginia, I have come to London! . . . To take up my narration where I left it, a few days before I took leave of M<sup>rs</sup> Hyde, the Governor's widow, I sent secretly word to the negroes, by my footman, to cross the river by night, without noise and secretly, and to wait there for me to go with me to Virginia, which suited them very well, (since they were dealt harshly with), but I do not know how they did, something was found out and they were arrested; so I had to leave them behind me, what seriously changed matters. I started accordingly, and came soon at Gov. Spotswood's in Virginia; I told him of all my annoyances and he much pitied me. But I remembered the meeting appointed with one of the interested parties on Potomack River, and did not stay long at Williamsburg, but went on my way to Maryland, hoping to find him at M<sup>r</sup> Rossier's, near the great falls, and to take with him the last measures. But, when I thought of crossing the River with my horses near the pointed foreland of Maryland, a great wind arose and prevented me. As soon as it fell, I went on, crossed, and went towards the Fall.

Not finding in Maryland the people I came to see, I go back on the same way.—My return to Virginia.

When I arrived at M<sup>r</sup> Rossier's house, I found neither him nor his wife, nor the person above mentioned; the first had gone visiting at some relation's at the distance of one day's travel, and the other gentleman had just gone away the day before, thinking to meet me in Virginia. Though very much tired by such a long voyage, I just stopped to take a little food, and went the same way back, so fast that my horses were overrun, and that we were compelled to walk one day on foot, before arriving at Williamsburg.

Immediately after my arrival, I asked whether M<sup>r</sup> M. was there, but I heard that he was at Hampton or Guicuetan, the first seaport of Virginia; I sent immediately my footman there, with a hired horse, but he did not find him, because that gentleman was glad to avail himself of a favorable opportunity for returning home, as he happened to find there a man-of-war, whose captain was his good friend, ready to sail for "the new York." After having inquired about me and the colony, heard of Gov. Hyde's death, and ascertained that my affairs all went the wrong way, he left for me a letter, which I never received, and left for New-York, which is not far from Burlington, a very nice borough, built in Dutch fashion, on the limit between New-York and Pennsylvania, where I most of the time resided. This important appointment having again failed, I felt much desponded, then he was my last resource, being a man of sense, honest and upright, and a skilfull merchant.<sup>7</sup> What surprised me was that an intelligent man as he was had so much trusted M. and had advanced him so much money, and that same fact made me believe that there was still some reality in the mines.

What was I to do in such unhappy a conjuncture? If I had had any means to settle at Canavest, I would have returned there. Instead of going to Gov<sup>r</sup> Spotswood, I went to a private friend, intending to try one thing more. I sent my footman to Carolina, partly to ascertain if Mr M. had left no answer for me,—believing he might have resolved some new scheme,—partly to know which way he had gone; Item: if he had left nothing of my clothes and house-linen; Item: to know if perhaps the negroes had escaped, because, in case I could catch them, I would have been able to do something in Canavest, where they could have planted grain and taken care of the cattle. But my footman came back without having done anything,—he was told, however, that if I could send a brigantine or big barge full of provisions to the Bernese colonists and a few honest Palatines, they would come to me, trusting still to retrieve my losses with the mines which I had with Gov<sup>r</sup> Spotswood.

Last resource to get a partner, a person of means and distinction.—Mis-hap. 8th cross-accident. A noted merchant threatens me and will arrest me for a protested bill of exchange.

Upon this notice, I wrote to a distinguished person, a rich man, member of the Queen's Council, and my intimate friend, who could have gone into copartnership with me for this new colony, with a request to provide us with all necessaries. Being deeply engaged in that matter, and believing that I had found some means to get out of trouble, I got notice, that a merchant who had against me a protested bill of exchange intended to arrest me, the writ having already been served at the house where I lived, as I took good care not to show myself. I then consulted with my good friends, asking if I could live in safety at Canavest, or in some other place in America. But they answered me: "Nowhere,"—for, even if I had been among the Indians, I should have been detected by the Indian traders, what made me very anxious, as I saw that there were no more resources for me in America,—unless I could hope to draw enormous sums from my original home, or should find some new partners, which would have been possible, but, when found, they would of course have nothing to do with the old debts.

I pondered over some letters which I had received, and which did not much satisfy me, and went in great grief to Gov. Spotswood's residence, Williamsburg, to explain to him my deplorable condition and to tell him: "Governor, I am in such straits that I do not know any more which way to turn; be kind enough to a poor unfortunate, to give him some prudent advice." After having noticed the right time, I took my chance, asked for an interview, which he immediately granted to me.

The Governor of Virginia advises that I should go to Europe.

After I had told him all my mishaps and wretched adventures, and added that it had come so far, that I was threatened to be arrested, the Governor answered, that he took great parts in my misfortune, that he was surprised that I should be abandoned in such a manner, especially by the Society,—and that he knew of no better advice for me than to return to Europe. He offered to me his recommendation to a good friend of his, who was to obtain that a distinguished lord, his protector, should kindly present a petition to the Queen in my behalf. I was, afterwards, to go to Bern, to expound matters thoroughly to the Society, and solicit from them the payment of the bills of exchange. I imparted this advice to several among my best friends, who all were of the same opinion. But, winter being near, as in such season no ships are found to sail to Europe, I remained, through the winter, which is not very long in those quarters, at a good friend's, and, as I did not like at all the idea of returning to Europe, far less to my native country, I did not fail to make ardent and repeated prayers to the Almighty, that He might put me in mind what I was to do in such a delicate conjuncture, and guide me according to His holy will, in order to get more blessing in my designs, and to take a resolution favourable for my soul. Indeed, if I had had no other aim than to spend the balance of my existence in making some kind of a living (in keeping body and soul together), I could have found still some kind of device. But I felt grievous to leave the Colony,—and again, when I took into consideration what I had to thank God for, especially my miraculous rescue,—and how everything went wrong for me in this country,—it brought me nearly to believe that it was not God's will, that I should stay longer in that country,—that there was no favorable star for me,—and I accordingly formed the unshaken resolution to depart.

I comforted myself in thinking that perhaps these colonists could better subsist among these Carolinians, who in that time were as able to assist them as I. I felt, accordingly, less responsibility, and, besides, I did not do what I did with the intention of abandoning them entirely, though many of them had given me good motives of doing so.

But, in case I should obtain a favorable hearing from Her Britannic Majesty, and more assistance from Bern, I thought I could return more gladly & more profitably,—and that, if I should unluckily not succeed in that negotiation, I should be compelled to give up that colony to the L.L. Prop<sup>s</sup> & to the creditors, and to remain quiet in my native country, and to spend the remainder of my days "with the repentance" of so much time lost, in a true humiliation and sincere moral improvement, not doubting that the sins of my youth have called upon me such dispensation. However hard the latter may seem, it was not so much so as I had undoubtedly deserved it.

I must accordingly give up every superfluous & worldly care, and all the more, look after my poor soul, with God's grace.

The Colonists themselves were the cause of their own disasters, by their ungodly and unworthy life, by which no blessing from God could be called upon them.

N. B.—I stated above, about that colony, that, although I should leave and abandon them, and that so many misfortunes could happen to them, that they had certainly drawn them upon themselves: (1) They were, I mean most of them, unfaithful to, and deserters from, their true sovereign, and they actually did act in the same way towards me, having left me in the greatest straits. (2) They were such a criminal and ungodly set of people, that it is no wonder if the Almighty has punished them by means of the heathen,—for they were worse than these,—and if I had known them, as well as I do now, the Bernese as well as the Palatines, I should certainly not have concerned myself about them.

As to the Palatines, I thought of picking my choice among the better, according to their appearance; for those who died on the sea and before my arrival, I have nothing to say, but for those that I joined there, I found most of them to be ungodly and rebellious people, among whom there were burglars, thieves, lewd fellows, profane swearers, slanderers, etc. No pains, no cares, on my part, could keep them in their duty. No admonitions, no threatenings, no punishments, proved to be of any use. God knows what I have endured; among the Bernese were two families which might justly be called the "excrement" of the country, and, with them, the proverb proved true: "Ill weeds never die out."

I was more sorry to leave such a beautiful and good country than such wicked people. There were, however, some little good grain, I mean a few persons fearing God, who loved me and whom I also loved; I wish them all kind of prosperity. God may convert the balance!

How I had to undertake my voyage to Europe.

The question was, how to undertake the voyage, by sea or by land. It could not be done by sea, as the captains of the ships are not allowed to take on board any person in debt, who has not satisfied his creditors,—or else, to be held answerable for the said person. I had, accordingly, to travel by land a very long way. My purse being not enough well filled for that, I was obliged to sell some silver plate which I still had kept.

I explain to the Colony of Carolina the necessity of my voyage to Europe.

Meanwhile, I wrote letters to the colony, pointing to the necessity of my voyage on account of their deplorable condition, as well as my own; I sent, at the same time, letters to the President and to the Council, telling them also my motives and recommending to them, the best I could, this forsaken and shattered colony.

I take leave of the Governor of Virginia. My voyage by land by part of Virginia, Maryland, Jersey, Pennsylvania, as far as New York.

After I had taken leave of Gov<sup>r</sup> Spotswood, who entertained me splendidly for this last time, I began my voyage by land just at Eastern 1713. I went through nearly all Virginia, Maryland, Pennsylvania, Jersey, and at last happily arrived, thank God, at New-York, a fine city, very well built after Dutch fashion, on an island, on the side of which is a fine and convenient harbour, situated between two navigable rivers, with a fortress; the surroundings are charming,—there are 3 churches in the city, an English one, a French one, and a Dutch one, in which a German service is also held. There is plenty of everything, and one can have anything which one wishes, the best fishes, good meat, all kind of grains, fruits, & vegetables, very good beer, and all sorts of exquisite wines, etc.

I stayed 10 or twelve days in that nice place,—and then sailed for England in a little Brigantine. I own that, at first, I was afraid to cross that big Ocean in such a small ship, but I was told and convinced that there was not so much danger as in a large one, and for different reasons:

- (1) The sails are more easily mastered in great storms, as there are much less to manage;
- (2) The small ship cuts better the water, and goes quicker;
- (3) A small ship does not swing as much as a big one;
- (4) It is more handy to load and unload, and is very useful to trade; such a ship makes two trips during a big one makes only one.

Though the wind was nearly always contrary, and we had several very rough storms, we arrived, however, thank God, happily at Bristol after 6 weeks. This town may well bear the name of a "Small London" on account of its good harbour, its size, great trade, wealth and dense population.

I took a few days' rest, and rode on horseback, in good company, to London, because the voyage by stage was dangerous. [1713]

I spent there several months, in hopes of presenting my petition to Queen Ann, by the hands of the Duke of Beaufort, my protector, who was first Lord Proprietor, and Palatine of Carolina, but, a short time before the date at which he was to hand my petition to the Queen, he died suddenly, another blow of my usual bad luck. The Queen herself died soon after him.

After that, there were so many changes at the Court of England, that my petition was not presented, and I well saw there was no hope of any favour in this new Court, for a long time, though it might be supposed that, after a while, this new King, being a German by birth, would feel inclined favourably for that affair. Winter being inconvenient for travels, as I could do nothing under such circumstances, I began my voyage to Bern.

Cross-accident. 10th mishap. Unexpected arrival of the German miners and their leader,—and the great trouble they gave me.

I cannot, however, but mention that when I arrived at London, I was surprised to hear that the head-miner, T. Tusties Albrecht, had arrived with 70 other miners, what gave me much pains, cares, grief, and expense. Indeed these men came most inconsiderately and without orders, thinking all necessaries for their living and for the mining-works ready for them; but there was no such thing, and my purse was so empty that I had hardly enough for my most pressing needs. I had spent all my ready money in America, and found no bill of exchange for me in London, and it was impossible for me to assist such a crowd of people. It is easily understood what a burden that was for me, as they believed that, according to the written contract which they held, I was bound to assist them, what would indeed have been the case, if I had given them orders to come. I had however written to them, from America, several letters, of which they had received more than one, by which I gave them advice, that the head-miner T. T. Albrecht was not to come until further orders, telling them that there was nothing to do in the mines, on account of the troubles, and of the Indian war, which took place in Carolina,—I added that M<sup>r</sup> M. had not yet disclosed the place,—but that, if the head-miner was willing to come nevertheless with one or two of them besides for the sake of prospecting only, he might do it of his own accord. But he, nevertheless, without further consideration, proceeded, and took no notice of these tidings.

What was I to do? I could give them no better advice than to return home, which they did not like, and even preferred to become servants in America, for 4 years. Meanwhile, there were, as yet, no ships bound for America; they had, in consequence, to stay through the whole winter in London; but how were they to live? I really felt sorry for them. However, I was in a hurry to get home; I at last found two rich & noted Virginian merchants, to whom I proposed and recommended that business at my best; besides, I took counsel from a high standing lord, to whom I had been recommended by the Governor of Virginia, precisely touching the mines, in order that he might support me at Court.

We concluded that these people had to put their money together, and keep a proportional account of it, and that one of the merchants above mentioned should pay the balance, to supply the transportation and living of these people, that the Gov<sup>r</sup> of Virginia was to receive them, & take care of them at their arrival, and to pay the cap<sup>t</sup> of the ship, who had to give back the money advanced by them to the London merchants.

For that object, I wrote an extensive letter to Gov. Spotswood, laying before him the situation, and telling him, that, in case the mines should not fully succeed, these good people could form a small colony on the lands which we held together in Virginia, a little further than the place where were found supposed minerals, the presence of which made a silver vein presumable,—where they could settle by the orders and good care of the Gov<sup>r</sup>, or somewhere else, if there was no satisfactory prospect of silver mines.

And as, in Virginia, there were no iron nor copper works, though a plenty of such ores were found there, we might begin by these, for which we needed no royal patent, as was wanted for silver mines, etc.

Departure of the miners.—(They are actually settled on the Governor's lands, where they have started a small colony.) (Notice of the author.)

Hoping that my scheme could succeed, I recommended these good miners to the Almighty, and they started at the beginning of the year 1714.

A whole year has elapsed without my receiving any news from the Gov<sup>r</sup> or from them, and I feel very anxious.

My American mishaps seem now to be at an end, but the same ill luck which pursued me out of my native country still followed me home.

My departure from London.

For fear that my American creditors, of which the most interested happened to be at that very time in London, could give orders to the seaports, to inquire after me, and arrest me, I resolved to go aboard a little ship bound for St Valeries, instead of taking the common route by Dover or Harwich, and of going home by the shortest. The day was appointed, and, as I dared not to take a passport, for fear of being detected, the captain of the ship (to whom I had to trust the matter, though under a false name), advised me to go in a little boat to Gravesend, and prepared himself to start.

In danger to be arrested at Gravesend.

When I was nearly half way, such a strong contrary wind arose, that I was compelled to land, and to go on foot to Gravesend, where I slept and remained a whole day; but, finding the living dear there, and not knowing whether that contrary wind would still last long, considering besides that this also was a seaport, I went on my way back to London, where my ship captain, not yet ready, was waiting for a better wind. However, I remained at Southwick, beyond the Thames, till further orders. When he had unloaded, I was told to follow him, and, at Greenwich I went aboard the ship, and outside of the town of Gravesend, the Capt<sup>n</sup> sent me away, telling me to wait until he would have declared everything on board, and the inspection would be past. Although he told to the searching officers that my trunk belonged to a nobleman from St Valeries, and that he could declare that it contained only clothes, they would not be so easily satisfied. He accordingly sent quickly a boy to tell me that I had to open my trunk, what made me anxious; however I kept a careless countenance, and spoke French: I at once took my key with half a crown, and gave it to the clerk, asking him not to ruffle my clothes, which were so tightly packed. This luckily succeeded; if they had examined my writings and papers, I should have been detected and in danger.

A second storm at Marget, a port on the Thames.—Cross-accident. 11th mishap. Instead of 3 days it took us 3 weeks to cross over to France.—The entrance of St. Valeries harbour a dangerous one.—My arrival in France.—Arrival at the Fort de la Cluse, where I am in danger to be arrested for having no passport.—My arrival at Geneva and Lavaux.—My arrival at Bern.

After that, we sailed on. When we were nearly at the mouth of the river, near a seaport called Marget, there arose such a terrible storm, with thunder and lightning, that we were in great danger, and were scarcely able to keep the anchor fastened over night. The following day, when the wind had fallen somewhat, we sailed further on, and when we were on high sea, a strong contrary wind drove us to a place full of sandbanks, so that we were obliged to return and to land in another port called Ramsey; if the people of that townlet and a great number of sailors had not come to our rescue, we should undoubtedly have perished. We had to stay there 8 days, on account of the contrary wind, and in order to mend our torn sails, and to fix different things. That was hard for me, as I had hardly enough money for my voyage through Paris. When the wind had abated some, we went out, but were repelled a second time. This voyage gave me more trouble than when I crossed twice the ocean. Instead of 3 days, it took us 3 weeks to go to St. Valeries, where there is so dangerous an entrance, that we should never have been able to get into the harbour if pilots had not come out to meet and help us. I came very near to be arrested by the Governor as I had no passport, but a bill of exchange, by which he could ascertain that I was a Swiss, got me out of trouble. From there I went up the river to Abbeville, where I took the stage to Paris, and from there to Lyons, and from there to the Fort de la Cluse,* where the Governor or Commander arrested me, as being without a passport, although I had not been required to exhibit one all through France. If I had not been in possession of my brief as lieutenant gov<sup>r</sup> (bailli) of Yverdon, which I exhibited, telling how I had lived in good neighborly intercourse with M<sup>r</sup> de Bearnez,** Gov<sup>r</sup> of Pontarlier, and giving sufficient evidence of the fact, I should have been compelled to stay till a satisfactory attestation had come from Bern. So I went on my way to Geneva, and from there to our vineyards of Lavaux,* where I thought to meet my family, according to the news received. I even thought to stay there for some time, but I found the house shut: everybody had gone to Bern a week before. So I had to follow, though unwillingly, and I arrived at Bern on the day of St. Martin 1713, in good health, thank God, and found everything and everybody at home in good condition.

* A French fortress near the limit between France & Switzerland (Geneva). (Translator.)

** Pontarlier is a French Town, situated at a distance of about 18 miles from Yverdon. M. de Bearnez ruled at Pontarlier, for the French government, in about the same capacity as de Graffenried at Yverdon, for the Bernese Government. (Translator.)

Alas! What changes I found in the town! Old friends grown cold towards me,—many people bloated up with pride and arrogance! My experiences would be too tedious to relate in their minute particulars.

Cross-accident.—12th mishap. The Bernese Society (or Company) abandons me.

The worst was, that those among whom I thought to find some help to rebuild my shattered colony, some refused to hearken to me, and the others I could not well convince, and so, I was compelled to abandon that colony, for want of aid, especially from my Society (or Company) which abandons me! It is a pity, because others will be able to fish in troubled waters, and to take advantage and benefit of what I founded with much danger, pains, care, grief, and expense.

Affairs in much better state in Carolina.—The peace concluded.

Indeed, affairs stand well now in Carolina; the Government is better established, the wild Indians destroyed, a good peace concluded, the main difficulties surmounted, the most convenient lands, for the colony, cleared and cleaned out. The air there, accordingly, is more healthy, the population more dense,—and those who will succeed us in that region will be much better off than we were, for the trials of the beginning are over. My heart aches to leave such a beautiful and good country, where there are so fine prospects of future prosperity, and such hopes of a flourishing colony.

Since fate will not favour me any more in this world, there is no better remedy than to leave it and to seek the treasures from above, where moth and rust doth not consume, and where thieves do not break through nor steal.

I could have added here an account of the English Provinces of the American Continent which I have seen, but, several authors having written on these matters, I refer the reader to them.

* Lavaux is a region on the northern side of the lake of Geneva, where fine vineyards are found. Most of the aristocratic families of Bern generally owned a wine farm there, in the time when the Canton de Vaud was under Bernese rule. (Translator.)

He may consult P. Henepin, Bloom's English America, Baron de la Hontan, Visher's Great Britain, and on Carolina especially: Mr. Ochs' more recent Essay, the Diary and Description of Carolina, by Lawson, the same man who was sentenced to death by the savages, as I have related it above.

Hereafter follow a few annotations about what I noticed during my voyage to the Tuscorros' region and during my captivity among the Indians; only, I just write them, without order, in the very succession in which they struck my mind, and under letters, a, b, c, d, etc.

a. Neither I nor my colonists caused the slaughter and war of the Indians. [These reasons and others have already been stated above.]

The letter to Gov<sup>r</sup> Hyde would have been too extensive, had I written all these particulars into it. Some inhabitants of Carolina, moved by jealousy and indiscretion, accused me and my people as having given occasion to the Indian war and slaughter. I could quote many reasons for my justification, but my innocence being notorious, I will not trouble myself much about it. I will, however, state here: [These reasons and others have already been stated above.] (1) If I had been answerable for these events, why did the Indians not kill & execute me as well as they did Surveyor-General Lawson? (2) I paid for the lands called by the Indians Chattanooga (written in the MS. Chatoueka.—Translator) three times: once to the LL. Prop<sup>s</sup>, once to the Surveyor-General, a third time to the Indian King, called Taylor. (That Indian King lived with his people at the very place where my house and the started town, New-Bern, now stand.) With these Indians, I and my people lived very friendly, and I should as well have paid the balance of the land, if they had required it from me. (3) There was not a single complaint against me, as was evident by the great Assembly of the Tuscorros where everything was discussed over again in the presence of the Virginian merchant. The real authors of the troubles were denounced by their names; by charity, I will not recall the latter here; the two Lord Governors of Virginia & N. Carolina have seen to it.

b. Soberness and good order of the Council of the Savages.

I have seen many considerable and important assemblies, and I have even taken part in some, but I have been surprised at the gravity & fine order of these heathen, at their silence, obedience, regard for their superiors; nobody speaks but in his turn, only once, with great decency & modesty. No passion made itself conspicuous, and sufficient time was allowed for the reply. Everything goes on with such propriety that I can say, for the confusion and shame of many Christian magistrates. The process was conducted in so fine an order, at the least as by any Christian judge, and they reasoned so well, that I was quite surprised.

Seven villages, of the Tuscarros' nation, pretended to be entirely innocent of the Indian war & slaughter. They argued, that they had no understanding with the other Indians,—the latter being more distant & nearer to Virginia, on which they depend for the trade. These 7 townships or villages, however, have some power over the small neighbouring groups, & hold them, to a certain extent, under some degree of bondage. That Tom Blount is King & Chief over a considerable number of Indians, full of sense, and much inclined towards the English nation. He contributed much towards a good peace, and even when the question was only about me, he spoke much in my favor.

I cannot but state here the great generosity and pity shown by a good widow, who gave me from the very beginning, during my imprisonment, always to eat, so that at least food did not fail me.

But what is most remarkable, as soon as she saw me bound by young rogues who plundered me, and took from me, among other things, my silver shoe-buckles, fastened only by a small string, she took her beautiful brass-buckles, (with which she fastened her head-band,) and put them on my shoes. More than that, she was not satisfied till she had found out which Indian had taken my buckles, she bought them, and came in high glee, running to me and put them back on my shoes. Must it not be conceded that it was a great kindness from a savage woman, for the confusion of many christians? I must state here, to the shame of the latter, that the Indians are generally much more generous and charitable; I have observed many good traits in them: for example, they do not swear,—hold exactly what they promise,—do not quarrel in gambling, are not so greedy, have not so much pride. I have heard nothing unbecoming among their young men; although almost naked, they nevertheless behave more decently than Christians, etc. What I observed worst in them, is their strong anger, which generally becomes wrath.

I must state here that when those barbarous burglars returned home, their wives, informed by messengers, prepared themselves for a great night-feast: every family cooked the best kind of meats, after their fashion, and brought them on the great execution-ground, where they also often have their dances; every family erected a small scaffold, with a good fire near it, and they disposed those stands in a circle around the said ground. In the middle was a big fire, near which the priest was standing.

The women all took their jewels and ornaments, consisting in Wampon necklaces, glass-coral, and burnt shells,—and then took some small sticks or rather thick twigs, and stuck them in the centre of the ground, vertically, as a sacrifice. They had also raised there 3 deer hides, as their Idols, which they do not worship, but respect.

The Queen, or, in her absence, the first in rank after her began first, the others followed, always singing; when the circle was completed, they danced around the fire and the three hides untill they were tired.

After that, every one went to her small scaffold to eat with her husband; when they had done, they took sticks wrapped in black, made the same ceremony as before, taking back the sticks adorned with coral, and putting the black ones in their place, and returned to their stands. Meanwhile, the priest was engaged in his duties, threatening the enemies, in most strange attitudes, and praising the soldiers, and exalting and exciting their courage for the future. After that, the young men went and brought green limbs of trees, painted their faces with black, white, and red, letting their hair fly loose, and sticking into it small feathers and white cotton; and so, looking more like horrid devils than like men, they all ran to the big ground with dreadful yells and howls and danced as was said above.

I observed that, when the Indian soldiers, or rather burglars, above mentioned, returned with their booty & prisoners, the priest and the tallest woman of rank* took the poor prisoners and compelled them to dance; when they refused to do it, they took them under the arms, lifted them, and let them down alternatively, as a sign that these christians had now to dance after their music, and had become their subjects.

These pagan ceremonies may be considered as their religious worship and idolatrous devotion. I sometimes noticed, in the morning, that they sang a little serious sounding song instead of praying,—what they also do in great dangers.

*The sense may be also, though awkwardly, expressed in the MS.: The woman of highest rank. (Translator.)

I also noticed among the Indians who dwell at the place where I settled and started the building of New-Bern, another kind of rites which come nearer to the christian divine worship. They had there a kind of altar, cunningly interwoven with small sticks, and vaulted like a dome. In one place was an opening, like a small door or wicket, through which they put their offerings. In the midst of this heathenish chapel was a concavity where they sacrificed beans, corals, and also Wampons. Facing the rising sun, was planted in the ground a wooden post, with a carved head, painted half red and half white. In front of it stood a big stick with a small crown at its end, wrapped up in red and white; on the other side, which looks towards the setting sun, was another image, with a horrid face painted in black and red. By the first, they mean some god, and by the other the Demon, which they know far better.

I cannot but relate here, to amuse the reader, what happened to one of my tenants, a tall, strong, well-built fellow: passing near by these idols, he examined them, and knew at once the difference between the good god, and the one which represented the devil. The latter being painted in red and black, which happen precisely to be the colours of the Bernese flag and arms,* he became so angry about it, that he split in two, with his axe, the Devil's statue. When he came home, he boasted about it, as if it had been an heroic feat, saying that he had split the devil in two with one stroke. Though I could not help smiling, I could not approve his action. Soon after, the Indian King came, exasperated at this sacrilege, and complained loudly. I first told him, in a joose way, that it was only the wicked Idol, that there was not much harm done, but that if he had cut the good Idol to pieces, I should have rigorously chastised him, and that, in the future, orders would be given in order that no such thing could happen any more.

Although the Indian King saw well that I spoke of the all thing as a joke, he did not like it much, but looked very serious. I accordingly told him, quite as seriously, that that man's action did not please me at all,—and that, if he could show me the one who had committed such a scandalous offence, he should be rigorously punished. To appease a little those Indians, I treated the King and his retinue to some rum, a liquor distilled from sugar-dregs, and a very healthy beverage, when taken mod-

They have more ceremonies for the burials than for the weddings and marriages, and I noticed something very peculiar at the burial of a widow. Before telling that event, I shall say, only in passing, what the priests sometimes do in case of sickness. After they have given the needed remedies, if these do not operate, they make grimaces, faces, and contortions, blowing at last their breath in the patient's month, with a loud noise and snoring, and I do not know what other incantations. If the sick person gets better, the joy is inutterable,—if he dies, they howl in the most dismal and frightful way.

The sepulchres or tombs of these Indians are very dexterously made, out of the bark of trees, vaulted. When the dead is being carried to his sepulchre, the priests stand near by, make great lamentations, and give a funeral oration. In their usual way, if there is some benefit to expect, they give great praises to the behaviour of the dead or of his relations, comfort them, and make I do not know what for horrible exorcisms. They take much pains, in gestures and in speech, so much so that they perspire abundantly. After the ceremony, the heirs or nearest relations give to the priests Wampon-necklaces, I mean corals made out of calcinated oyster-shells, purple-coloured, & yellow, which is the costliest reward they could give.

N. B. The Indians make, with those corals, garters, necklaces, girdles, so well interwoven that they really surprised me. After the tomb was covered, I noticed something which passes imagination, and which I should not believe, had I not seen it with my own eyes. From the tomb arose a little flaming fire, like a big candle-light, which went up straight in the air, and noiselessly,—went straight over the cabin of the deceased widow, and thence further across a big swamp above  $1\frac{1}{2}$  mile broad, until it finally vanished from sight in the woods. At that sight, I gave way to my surprise, and asked what it meant, but the Indians laughed at me, as if I ought to have known that this was no rarity among them, they refused, however, to tell me what it was. All what I could ascertain, was that they thought a great deal of it,—that this light is a favourable omen, which makes them think the deceased a happy soul,—during they deem it a most unpropitious sign when a black smoke ascends from the tomb. This flying flame, yet, could not be artificial, on account of the great distance; it could be some physical phenomenon, like sulphurous vapors,—but this great uniformity in its appearance surpasses nature.

As I was on another occasion busy, in Gov<sup>r</sup> Hyde's house, with the Council, to conclude a good peace with the Indians, six or eight of those Kinglets being present as representatives of their nation, with a retinue of other Indians, I noticed among them a priest whom I asked what was the meaning of what I related above. There were more than twenty Indians, but among them I found only that priest and another, an ancient, or old man, who were able to give me an explanation; and this did not satisfy me, and seems to me a fable, and a tale so ridiculous that it presented not even the shadow of a truth.

They told me that only old priests of great experience could cause such visions to appear. When I asked what was this flying flame issuing from the tomb, they told me it was the soul of the deceased, which went into another good creature, if the person had lived well & well behaved. But if she had led a bad life, the soul went into an ugly, wicked, and unhappy creature. They further told me that these priests attained to such science or magic, in the following way :

Sometimes a small, subtle fire, also like a kind of flying flame,—flickers from one tree to another,—what very seldom happens. When an Indian sees it, he must run with all his might to catch it, and in the moment when the hand covering the fire, extinguishes it, is born a kind of small spider which runs hither and thither, very quickly, in the hand, so that it is nearly impossible to keep quite close over it the other hand,—but that if one succeeds in keeping it tight,—it grows to the size of a mouse;—in that way the man who captured this wonderful thing becomes the best master & magician and can achieve all kinds of surprising feats. [N. B. These “conjurers,” as they are called in English, have also the power to evoke the Devil and to send him away.]

h. How an Indian contrived to raise a good wind into the sails.

My pilot attested to me that, as he was once crossing the sound (a great sea bay in N. Carolina), in a boat, there was such a dead calm that they could not move. An Indian, who happened to be there told him that, if he wanted him to do it, he could in a short time raise a good wind. The pilot, who wished for nothing better, since he had none too much provisions, allowed him to act as he pleased, and all at once arose such a strong wind, and they sailed at such a rate, that they were frightened, but had to go, as there was no means of stopping. And so, they arrived, nearly in a little while, at the place for which they were bound, not without great risks of a shipwreck; the Pilot told me that in his life he would not use such kind of help again.

The reader may believe what he pleases of this and the things stated above, but one thing is certain: Satan wantons a great deal with those poor creatures, and there may be many delusions; if these fabulous tales had not been told to me in such a considerable Assembly, I should not have dared to quote them in this my account.

I have noticed and heard many other things among the Indians, but so many authors have written about them, that I would not enlarge any more upon this subject, for fear that I should only repeat their statements.

i. Barbarous actions of the Indians, as compared with the doings of the Christians.

As to the barbarous and stern ways of the heathenish Indians (which I already mentioned above), I own that they are enraged when angry, but, left to themselves in peace and quietness, they are benevolent and obliging, after their own way. They seldom offend the Christians without having some motive for it, and, the greatest part of the time, the abuse comes from the Christians, who deal roughly with them. I spoke with several Indians about their cruelty, but an Indian King, a man of good sense, answered me in comparing the Indian with a snake: "Leave it alone, coiled up as it is, do not hurt it, and it will hurt no living creature,—but disturb its rest and it strikes and bites." That the Christians have been worse and more cruel, especially the Spaniards who had so inhumanly dealt with their ancestors. As to their manner of warfare, which seemed to the Christian to be a brigandage, because the contest is not led boldly and openly, they had, of course, to avail themselves of some advantages; if not, they could not subsist and would always have the worst of it; that they were not many, and were not provided with cannons, guns, swords, powder, balls & other war inventions, far more treacherous and destructive than their own ways, which were more natural and far less pernicious; that the arms and war-ammunition which they had came from the Christians, and were, as said, inventions much more injurious, fraudulent, and wicked than theirs, and that the Christians dealt, not only with heathen or strangers, but with Christians, their own brethren, most cruelly,—and that amongst us we committed the most tyrannical acts, etc., (what I have experienced myself as may be seen above, in the narration of the plot laid against me by a rascally gang.)

CHRISTOPHER DE GRAFFENRIED

A NOTICE BY MAURICE DE STURBER CHANCELLOR OF THE STATE OF BERN(15th of August 1876.)

By edicts dated 1663 & 1665, King Charles II of England had made a donation to eight English lords, his favourites, of a vast territory in America, including 7 degrees of latitude and 40 longitude, to-day about the States of North and South Carolina. This great country was divided by its eight proprietors into palatinates, landgraviates, counties, and given in fee to gentlemen, and especially to those who would bind themselves to bring colonists thither; the indigenous population consisting only in a few thousand savage Indians. This work of colonization, however, was very slow, notwithstanding the progress of immigration to America, which was accelerated by the destructive wars of Central Europe; it was stopped, also, from time to time, by the sudden resistance of the Indians.

In 1710, arrived in the bay of Pamplico Christopher de Graffenried, the leader of a number of Bernese and German emigrants, provided with letters-patent from the lords of Carolina, which appointed him landgrave of the territory between the rivers Trent & Reuse,* with full powers to erect there a castle and to govern the said country. This de Graffenried, the elder son of Antony de Graffenried, lord of Worb, had been lieutenant-governor (bailli,) of Yverdon from 1702 to 1708 and had exposed his property to such degree, that, first without doubt among his countrymen, he resolved to try to repair it in the new world. Patrons, which he found in England, and his reputation as a skilful and energetic administrator caused him to be appointed to the said landgraviate, by a deed of July 29, 1709.

Having landed in Carolina and arrived on the spot, he first looked out, within his district, for the place best fitted to erect a fortified camp or a Town. This choice fell on the delta formed by the rivers Trent and Reuse, above their junction. There, in an immense plain, among sands and swamps, beneath a burning sky, he built, with his companions, Newland and stood his ground against the Indian tribe of the Tuscaroras, who disputed every inch of ground. At last, after many struggles and mutual bloodshed, the natives and the immigrants put an end to their quarrel by a treatise of friendship, settling the boundaries between them. The German-Swiss colony then prospered, and de G. remained in it, and governed it, until 1720, when the desire to see his family again, his longing for his country,—moved him to recross the ocean to go and recruit for the Bern's native atmosphere.

In his absence, his eldest son, Christopher, was to rule over the colony. His office, at first temporary, became permanent by the resolution which the father took not to leave any more Switzerland and the State of Bern, where the joint-lordship of Worb fell to his lot in the year 1730. Christopher, his son, on the contrary, settled definitively in America, especially in N. Carolina and at New Bern,—but the grandson, Anthony Tschärner (this last name given to him in memory of his grandmother's family, de Tschärner) became one of the most important planters of Virginia, where his descendants still live. Since the American independence (1776) the fœdal organization of both Carolinas had, obviously, ceased to exist. (Bern, Aug. 15, '76). M. de S.

De Graffenried's MS. is written in French, defaced by many Germanisms,—(German being his native language, as a citizen of Bern, Switzerland).
